2020 OUTLOOK

A LOOK BACK AT 2019

• In year three of the Tom Herman era, the Longhorns posted their third-straight winning season and won their third-straight bowl game.
•Texas opened the year with a 5-2 record in its first seven games, picking up double-digit wins over Louisiana Tech, at Rice and at West Virginia during that stretch.
• The Horns later picked up victories over No. 16 Kansas State, Texas Tech and No. 11 Utah to cap thte 2019 season. Texas' win over Utah was a 38-10 triumph in the Alamo Bowl, the second-largest bowl game margin of victory in school history.
• Sixteen starters from last year's squad return in 2020. On top of that, the Longhorns welcome in their third-straight top-10 recruiting class this season.

THE 2020 SCHEDULE

• Texas faces a challenging slate in 2020 that features a non-conference matchup against UTEP and nine weeks of action against Big 12 competition.
• The Longhorns open at home against UTEP, marking the sixth meeting all-time between the Lone Star State programs. UT is 5-0 all-time against the Miners.
• In Big 12 play, the Horns open on the road against Texas Tech. They will also visit Oklahoma State, Kansas and Kansas State this fall. The 2020 Red River Showdown vs. Oklahoma will again be contested at the Cotton Bowl in Dallas.
• Texas will play host to West Virginia, Baylor, TCU and Iowa State during conference play.

WHAT RETURNS IN 2020

• In 2020, the Longhorns return QB Sam Ehlinger, who threw for 3,663 of UT's 3,761 passing yards in 2019, and was responsible for 39 of the Longhorns' 58 touchdowns last season.
• UT returns its top four rushing threats from a season ago in RBs Keaontay Ingram, Roschon Johnson and Daniel Young, as well as Ehlinger. Ingram (853 yds), Ehlinger (663 yds) and Johnson (649 yds) all ran for more than 600 yards.
• Out wide, junior Brennan Eagles and sophomore Jake Smith as UT's top-two returning receivers. Eagles caught 32 passes for 522 yards and six TDs, while Smith hauled in 25 passes for 274 yards and six TDs as a true freshman.
• In total, Texas returns 99.6% of passing yards (3,747), 98.3% of rushing yards (2,256) and 46.4% of receiving yards (1,745) from last year's team.
• On defense, the Longhorns bring back nine of their top-11 tacklers, including team-leader Joseph Ossai, who logged 90 tackles in 2019.
• 10 players who recorded at least one sack a season ago are back in 2019, while seven who intercepted at least one pass return to the Forty Acres this year.

HEAD COACH TOM HERMAN

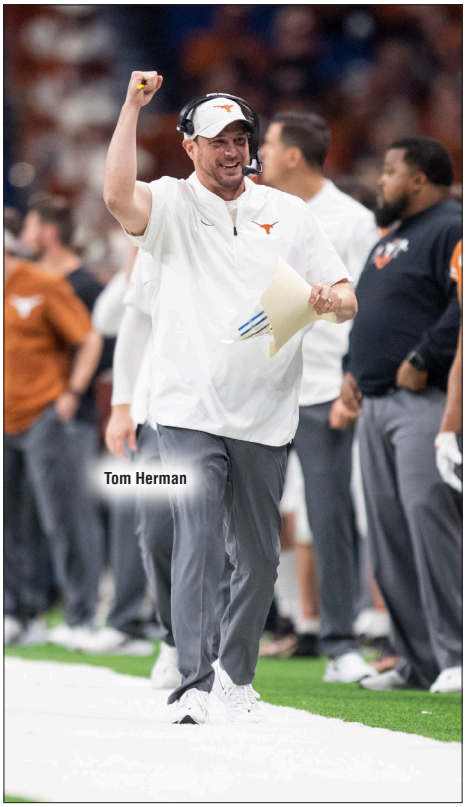

• Tom Herman is in his sixth season overall as a head coach with a career record of 47-19 (.712). He is in his fourth season at The University of Texas with a mark of 25-15 (.625).
• Including the 2020 season, Herman has spent 17 of his 23 seasons as a coach in the state of Texas on the collegiate level.
• Herman graduated from Cal Lutheran and received his master's degree in education from The University of Texas.
• He owns a career mark of 14-9 against top-25 opponents, 5-6 against top-10 foes and 3-3 versus teams ranked in the top five.

HERMAN VS. THE FIELD

• During his five-year stint as a head coach, Tom Herman has been one of the winningest coaches in the country. In that time, he has totaled 47 wins, tied for the seventh-most by any active FBS head coach.
• His 47 victories over the past five seasons leads all current Big 12 coaches.
• Herman won 22 games during his two-year stretch at Houston and has won 25 games thus far in his time at Texas.
• A look at the leaders in total wins since 2015 among active FBS head coaches:

TEXAS' TURNAROUND UNDER HERMAN

• Head coach Tom Herman won 25 games during his first three seasons at UT, the third-most in program history.
• Fred Akers (29 wins, 1977-79) and Mack Brown (27 wins, 1998-2000) are the only coaches to win more games in their first three seasons at Texas than Herman.
• Texas had endured three-straight losing seasons for only the second time in program history (1935-38) prior to Herman's arrival. Since Herman took over as head coach, the Longhorns have gone 25-15, a nine-win improvement on the 16-21 record of the years prior to his hiring.
• Herman's nine-win improvement during his first three seasons ranks as the second-best turnaround in Texas history. Darrell Royal (+12 wins, 1957-59) is the only coach to have a greater win improvement during his first three seasons at UT than Herman. Royal went 22-9-1 during his first three seasons after the Longhorns went 10-19-1 in the three years prior to his arrival.
• A look at where Herman's three-year win total stands among UT head coaches, and where the Texas turnaround he oversaw ranks in school history:

TEXAS HEAD COACH THREE-YEAR WIN TOTALS

Coach, Years	Record	Pct
1. Fred Akers, 1977-79	29-7	80.6%
2. Mack Brown, 1998-2000	27-11	69.2%
3. Tom Herman, 2017-19	25-15	62.5%
4. Ed Price, 1951-53	23-8	74.2%
Blair Cherry, 1947-49	23-8-1	71.9%

TEXAS HEAD COACH THREE-YEAR WIN DIFFERENTIAL

Mack Brown, 1998-2000	22-14-1	27-11	+5

BRILLIANT IN BOWL GAMES

• Tom Herman has led his programs to bowl games in all five seasons as a head coach. That includes three-straight appearances during his stint at The University of Texas (2017 Texas, 2019 Sugar, 2019 Alamo).
• It is the first time Texas has earned bowl eligibility in three-straight seasons since 2012-14.
• Herman is 4-0 in bowl games as a head coach, including a 3-0 record during his stint in Austin. He did not coach Houston in its 2016 bowl game after taking over as the head coach at Texas.
• Herman is the third UT head coach to make a bowl game in each of his first three seasons (Fred Akers, 1977-79; Mack Brown, 1998-2000) and the only one of those to go 3-0 in bowl games in his first three seasons in charge.
• Herman has twice coached in one of the New Year's Six bowl games, first winning the 2015 Peach Bowl while at Houston. He also won the Allstate Sugar Bowl during his second season at UT in 2018.
• During Herman's first season, he led the Longhorns to a 33-16 win over Missouri in the 2017 Texas Bowl.
• Last season, Texas bested No. 11 Utah, 38-10, in the Valero Alamo Bowl. The 28-point spread ranks as Texas' second-largest margin of victory during a bowl game, behind only the 1978 Sun Bowl (42-0 vs. Maryland).
• Herman's four bowl wins since 2015, the start of his head coaching career, rank as the fourth-most by an active FBS head coach during that stretch.
• His four bowl wins are also the most of any current Big 12 head coach since 2015.

• Texas' three-game bowl winning streak, all of which have come under Herman, is tied with LSU, Iowa and Ohio for the third-longest active mark in the nation. It is tied for the longest active streak by a Power Five program.
• A look at the leaders in bowl game wins since 2015 among active FBS head coaches, as well as the longest active bowl game winning streaks in the FBS:

COMEBACK WINS

• Texas has recorded four comeback wins when trailing by at least 10 points during Tom Herman's time as head coach. That tally includes a pair of 14-point comebacks against No. 16 Kansas State and Texas Tech in 2019.
• Texas' two 14-point margins overcome in 2019 are tied for the program's largest since a 21-point rally against Oklahoma State in 2007. That day, the Longhorns flipped a 35-14 fourth-quarter deficit into a 38-35 victory.
• The Longhorns' 2019 comebacks also mark the first time since 2007 that UT has posted multiple 14-point comebacks in the same season. The 2007 Longhorns also came back from a 17-3 deficit to best Nebraska, and rallied from a 10-0 deficit to beat TCU.

TEXAS' 10-POINT COMEBACKS (SINCE 2017)

Year	Opponent	Deficit	Final Score
2019	Texas Tech	0-14	49-24
2019	No. 16 Kansas State	0-14	27-24

2017	Kansas State	7-17	40-34 (2OT)

BOUNCING BACK

• Texas is 12-3 in games following losses in three seasons under Tom Herman. That includes a 4-1 mark in 2019, with the Longhorns picking up wins over Rice, Kansas, No. 16 Kansas State and Texas Tech following losses.
• The Longhorns also responded to a 39-27 loss to No. 5 Oklahoma in the Big 12 Championship game last year by knocking off No. 6 Georgia, 28-21, in the Allstate Sugar Bowl.
• After losses, Texas has scored a total of 459 points (35.3 per game), inlcuding a 48-point display against Rice and a 50-point outburst against Kansas, this season.
• In the three seasons prior to Herman's arrival at Texas, the Longhorns were 9-10 following a loss (does not include season openers following a bowl-game loss).

TEXAS VS. THE TOP 25

• Texas holds an 8-9 record against top-25 foes during Tom Herman's three seasons as head coach. The Longhorns are 7-5 against ranked opponents since the start of the 2018 season after going just 1-4 against top-25 teams in 2017, Herman's first season in charge.
• In 2018, the Horns bested No. 5 Georgia in the Allstate Sugar Bowl, No. 7 Oklahoma in the Red River Showdown, No. 17 TCU, No. 18 Iowa State and No. 22 USC.
• Texas' 2018 wins over No. 22 USC and No. 17 TCU came in consecutive weeks, marking the first time UT defeated top-25 opponents in back-to-back weeks since 2008.
• Last season, Texas picked up two ranked victories, first defeating No. 16 Kansas State, 27-24, in Austin. Later, the Longhorns bested No. 11 Utah, 38-10, in the Valero Alamo Bowl.

TEXAS VS. RANKED OPPONENTS (ALL TIME)

Overall record	133-155-8 (.462)
Home	49-45-4 (.516)
Away	34-48-0 (.420)
Neutral (includes bowls)	50-62-4 (.447)

THREE STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS

• With a 49-24 victory on senior day last season, the Longhorns picked up their seventh win of the year and secured the program's third-straight winning season under Tom Herman.
• It is the first time since 2011-13 that Texas has put together three consecutive winning campaigns, and the first time since 2012-14 that UT has earned bowl eligibility in three-straight seasons.
• Texas has totaled 25 wins in its three seasons under head coach Tom Herman thus far, a nine-win improvement from the three seasons prior to Herman's arrival on the Forty Acres.

AGAINST THE NATION'S BEST

• Texas holds a unique distinction as the only team in the country to face each of the past three Heisman winners and No. 1 overall picks in the NFL Draft (Baker Mayfield, 2017; Kyler Murray twice, 2018; Joe Burrow, 2019).
• The Longhorns are only the fifth team to face the Heisman Trophy winner in three consecutive seasons since 2000 (Kansas State and Colorado, 2001-03; UCLA, 2002-05; Chattanooga, 2008-10). UT is the only school of that group to face three-straight Heisman Trophy winners who also went on to be the No. 1 overall pick in the NFL Draft.
• Senior QB Sam Ehlinger started all four of those games for UT. He completed 97-of-157 passes for 1,342 yards (335.5 ypg), nine touchdowns and only one interception. He also carried the ball 75 times for 280 yards (70.0 ypg) and seven touchdowns.

CONVERTING ON THIRD DOWN

• Texas converted 90-of-184 (48.9%) third downs last season, which was the seventh-best conversion rate nationally and the No. 2 mark among Big 12 programs.
• The Longhorns went 6-1 in games where they converted more than 50% of their third downs last season, and 2-4 when being held under 50%.
• UT averaged 6.9 third-down conversions per game, including a season-high 10 at West Virginia, last year.
• The Longhorns have improved on third down every year under head coach Tom Herman, including an 8.3% uptick in 2018 after Herman's first season in charge.

SUSTAINED SCORING DRIVES

• Texas has had 44 scoring drives of 10-or-more plays since the start of the 2018 season. Of those 44 scoring drives, 33 resulted in touchdowns (75.0%).
• In 2019, UT logged two fourth-quarter touchdown drives against Iowa State that totaled 25 plays and covered 169 yards.
• The Horns put together a 13-play, 67-yard drive that melted the final 6:45 off the clock against No. 16 Kansas State. Cameron Dicker booted a 26-yard field as time expired - his second such kick in 2019 - to cap the drive and seal the Longhorns' 27-24 win.
• K-State entered the game averaging more than 35 minutes of possession per game. Texas' 6:45 drive helped the Longhorns win the time-of-possession battle by nearly two-and-a-half minutes.
• UT had four sustained drives against Kansas, including three touchdown efforts. Sam Ehlinger capped all three TD drives with passes to Jake Smith, Brennan Eagles and Devin Duvernay. The fourth drive resulted in Cameron Dicker's game-winning 33-yard field goal as time expired.
• In the AT&T Red River Showdown against No. 6 Oklahoma, Cameron Dicker booted a 32-yard field goal to cap a 14-play drive, and QB Sam Ehlinger rushed in from four yards out to finish a 10-play touchdown drive.
• UT logged a 19-play, 86-yard drive that ended with a two-yard TD run from QB Sam Ehlinger against No. 6 LSU. It was Texas' longest scoring drive since a 22-play, 80-yard TD against Texas Tech in 2010.

THE NATION'S BEST IN THE FOURTH QUARTER

• The Longhorns scored 158 points in the fourth quarter last season (12.2 avg), the most among all FBS teams.

SUCCESS ON THE GROUND

• In each of the last two seasons, Texas has improved its rushing output from Tom Herman's first season at the helm in Austin (2017).
• In 2017, Texas rushed for 1,815 yards on 507 carries (3.6 ypc) and scored 24 touchdowns.
• In 2018, the Longhorns rushed for 2,143 yards on 569 carries (3.8 ypc) and scored 24 touchdowns.
• In 2019, UT rushed for 2,295 yards on 480 carries (4.8 ypc) and scored 26 rushing touchdowns.
• QB Sam Ehlinger led the Longhorns in rushing as a freshman in 2017, tallying 381 yards on 114 carries.
• The following season, Tre Watson (786 yds) and Keaontay Ingram (708 yds) both surpassed the 700-yard mark.
• Last year, Ingram (853 yds), Ehlinger (663 yds) and true freshman Roschon Johnson (649 yds) all rushed for more than 600 yards, the first time UT has produced three 600-yard rushers in the same season since 1970.

THE 600-YARD RUSHERS

• Senior QB Sam Ehlinger (663 yds), junior RB Keaontay Ingram (853 yds) and sophomore RB Roschon Johnson (649 yds) all rushed for more than 600 yards last season.
• Texas was one of only two Power Five programs, and one of only seven in the FBS overall, to field three 600-yard rushers in 2019. Kentucky was the only other Power Five team to do so, while Air Force, Georgia Southern, Louisiana, Ohio and UCF made up the remainder of the FBS field.
• It was the fourth time in program history that Texas produced three 600-yard rushers in the same season. UT also did so in 1952, 1968 and 1970.
• The 2020 squad marks the first time in Longhorn history that all three 600-yard rushers return to school the following year.

TEXAS FOOTBALL NOTES

O-LINE CONTINUITY A KEY

• Texas started the same five on its offensive line in 12 of 13 games last season. In 2018, Texas' starting offensive lineman missed just four combined games and the Horns used only three different starting combinations all season long.
• The 2018 and 2019 campaigns were vastly different from 2017, Tom Herman's first season as head coach, when UT was forced to use eight different starting offensive line combinations in 13 games.
• The Longhorns averaged 465.8 yards per game (289.3 pass/176.5 rush) and 35.2 points per game in 2019, both an increase from the team's 2018 totals of 411.3 ypg (258.2 pass/153.1 rush) and 31.07 ppg.
• The 2017 squad averaged 398.5 ypg (258.8 pass/139.6 rush) and 29.4 ppg.

WINNING THE TURNOVER BATTLE

• In Tom Herman's tenure as head coach, Texas is 16-4 when the Longhorns win the turnover battle. On the flip side, UT's record stands at 9-11 in games where Texas either ties or loses the turnover battle under Herman.
• Texas was 10-6 when winning the turnover battle, and 6-14 when either tying or losing it, in the three years prior to Herman's arrival.
• Since Herman's arrival, the Longhorns are 9-0 when creating three or more takeaways and are 10-5 when not committing any turnovers.

POINTS OFF TURNOVERS

• One of the keys to success in the Tom Herman era has been UT's ability to score points off turnovers, while limiting opponent points after turnovers of their own.
• Since 2017, Texas has forced 64 turnovers and scored 215 points off of them.

DIVING INTO THE DEFENSE

• Texas returns 10 defensive starters in 2020, highlighted by junior JACK Joseph Ossai and junior DB Caden Sterns, among others. The Longhorns will be operating under new defensive coordinator Chris Ash, who comes to UT after serving as the head coach at Rutgers, and as defensive coordinator during stops at Wisconsin, Arkansas and Ohio State.
• Over the final five games of the 2019 season, UT held its opponents to an average of 13.0 points under their season scoring average entering the game. The Longhorns' dominant display against No. 11 Utah in the Alamo Bowl (W, 38-10) was its best performance in that stretch, as Texas held the Utes 24 points under their season scoring average (34.0 ppg).
• The Alamo Bowl marked the fifth-straight game that Texas held its opponent under 25 points, UT's longest stretch since 2011 (5 games).
• The Longhorns forced Utah to punt on all five of its possessions in the first half and allowed only 127 yards of offense in that stretch. The Utes ran only three plays in Texas territory during the first 30 minutes of the game.
• Texas also kept Utah off the board in the first half of the Alamo Bowl, marking the first time the Horns have shutout a top-15 team in the first half of a game since UT's 23-17 win over No. 12 Baylor in 2015.
• Over the final month of the regular season, Texas also produced strong defensive performances against four conference foes. The Longhorns allowed Texas Tech to score just three points over the final 38 minutes of the regular season finale, limited Kansas State to only 51 yards rushing on 26 carries (2.0 ypc) and held Iowa State to 23 points - two touchdowns underneath the Cyclones' season scoring average (36.4 ppg) at that point in the year.
• A look at the season scoring average of UT's final five opponents compared to the points allowed by the Longhorns in each respective matchup:

Opponent	Avg	Points	Diff

BY THE NUMBERS

2 Sophomore K Cameron Dicker is the only player in Texas history to log mutliple game-winning plays as time expired. He did so with walk-off field goals against Kansas and K-State last season.

2 QB Sam Ehlinger owns two of the top four total offense games in UT history (490 vs. KU, 2019; 487 vs. K-State, 2017).

4 Ehlinger threw four touchdown passes on four occasions last season, the most in a season in UT history.

8 Texas posted eight offensive plays that resulted in gains of 50 yards or more in 2019. That comes one year after UT was one of only two FBS schools that did not post a 50-yard play in 2018.

8 Junior JACK Joseph Ossai made at least eight tackles in eight games last season, highlighted by a career-high 10 tackles at TCU.

13.5 Ossai led the Longhorns with 13.5 tackles for loss in 2019, capped by a six-TFL, three-sack performance vs. No. 11 Utah in the Valero Alamo Bowl.

14 Texas lost only 14 turnovers in 2019, tied with Kansas State for the fewest among all Big 12 teams.

21 Texas is 21-1 under Tom Herman when outgaining their opponent.

25 The Longhorns won 25 games during Tom Herman's first three seasons as head coach, the third-most in school history during a coach's first three seasons in charge.

36 UT scored at least 36 points in eight games last season, the most for the Longhorns since the 2009 team did so nine times.

52 The Longhorns scored 52 points off of 19 forced turnovers last season.

62 The Longhorns produced 62 plays last year that resulted in gains of 20 yards or more, including eight that have gone for 50-plus yards.

80 Since the start of the 2018 season, QB Sam Ehlinger has accounted for 80 total touchdowns (57 pass/23 rush), the most among all active FBS competitors during that stretch.

600 Texas was one of only two Power Five programs (Kentucky), and one of seven FBS programs overall, to field three 600-yard rushers in 2019. The Longhorn trio was made up of RB Keaontay Ingram (853 yds), Ehlinger (663 yds) and RB Roschon Johnson (649 yds).

TEXAS FOOTBALL NOTES

STOPPING THE RUN

• Texas' defense has held its opponents under 100 yards rushing on 16 occasions since 2017, including five times in 2019.
• The Longhorns are 14-2, including 5-0 in 2019, when holding their opponents to under 100 yards rushing.
• Texas opened the 2019 season in triumphant fashion, holding Louisiana Tech to just 73 yards rushing on 26 carries (2.8 yards per attempt). After being stopped by the Longhorns on opening weekend, Louisiana Tech rushed for 1,194 yards on 220 carries (5.4 ypc) over its next six games.
• Texas held its final non-conference opponent, Rice, under 100 yards rushing two weeks later, as the Horns limited the Owls to just 87 yards on 31 carries (2.8 ypc).
• Texas stifled a potent Kansas State rushing attack, limiting the 16th-ranked Wildcats to just 51 yards on 26 carries (2.0 ypc). Entering the game, K-State had rushed for 555 yards and 11 touchdowns over its previous two games.
• The Longhorns held four opponents under 100 yards in 2018 after holding seven opponents under 100 yards in 2017. That included limiting a Georgia team that entered the Sugar Bowl averaging 251.6 yards per game to just 72 yards on 30 carries.

• The Longhorns intercepted 12 passes (31st nationally/4th Big 12) last season. Six Texas DBs were responsible for nine of those interceptions.
• Eight different Longhorns intercepted at least one pass last season.
• Texas intercepted four passes against West Virginia in 2019. It was the first time that UT has intercepted four passes in a game since doing so at Kansas on Sept. 27, 2014 (64 games).
• LB Ayodele Adeoye, DB B.J. Foster and DB D'Shawn Jamison (two) all intercepted passes against WVU.
• After UT's four-pick day at WVU, the Horns had seven players with an interception through five games for the first time since 2002, when the Longhorns also had seven.

BLOCKED KICKS

• Since Tom Herman's arrival on the Forty Acres, Texas has blocked five total kicks. A look at the Longhorns' blocked kicks under Herman:

NON-OFFENSIVE TOUCHDOWNS

• D'Shawn Jamison's 98-yard kickoff return for a touchdown against Rice in 2019 was the first kickoff return for a touchdown by a Longhorn since D.J. Monroe in 2012.
• Texas scored two non-offensive touchdowns in 2018. Anthony Wheeler had a 46-yard FG block return against USC while D'Shawn Jamison had a 90-yard punt return against K-State.
• UT finished 2017 with eight non-offensive touchdowns, tied for the most in the country. It was their most since registering 11 in 2009.

FIRST TIMERS

• Thirteen Longhorns made their first career starts last season.
• OL Junior Angilau, OL Parker Braun, DL Keondre Coburn, LB Ayodele Adeoye and DB Jalen Green all started against Louisiana Tech. WR Malcolm Epps started at Rice.
• Sophomore DB Montrell Estell started for the first time in his career against Oklahoma State on Sept. 21.
• DB DeMarvion Overshown, LB David Gbenda and DL Moro Ojomo all started against Kansas.
• DB Tyler Owens started at safety at TCU.
• TE Jared Wiley started at No. 13 Baylor.
• LB Cort Jaquess started against No. 11 Utah in the Valero Alamo Bowl.
• Twenty-two Longhorns played in their first career games through the first three weeks of the 2019 season, including 15 true freshmen.
• The following true freshmen made their collegiate debuts vs. Louisiana Tech: DB Chris Adimora, LB Jett Bush, LB Luke Brockermeyer, LB David Gbenda, QB/RB Roschon Johnson, DB Tyler Owens, WR Jake Smith, DL T'Vondre Sweat, LB Marcus Tillman, Jr., WR Marcus Washington, DB Kenyatta Watson II, RB Jordan Whittington and TE Jared Wiley.
• The following redshirt freshmen played in their first career game vs. the Bulldogs: OL Junior Angilau, DL Daniel Carson, OL Rafiti Ghirmai, OL Christian Jones, QB Casey Thompson and WR Al'Vonte Woodard.
• WR Kennedy Lewis, TE Brayden Liebrock and LB Byron Vaughns all made their collegiate debuts against Rice.

THE NATION IS WATCHING

• Five of Texas' games in 2019 garnered huge television audiences. ABC's featured telecast, "Saturday Night Football", broadcasted both the LSU and Oklahoma State games and brought in ABC/ESPN's largest viewership for that weekend in each of those games. When totaled with an Oct. 5 matchup at West Virginia, UT's three games on ABC last season recorded a combined 15.7 million viewers.
• Dating back to 2018, the Longhorns have had 10 games pull in audiences of three million or more viewers. Including an audience of 13.3 million tuning in to the AllState Sugar Bowl (ESPN) and 10.3 million viewers watching the Big 12 Championship game (ABC), those 10 games over the past two seasons have tallied a total of 64.3 million viewers. Six of those nine broadcasts were the network broadcasted the games top rated game of the weekend. The 2019 Alamo Bowl was the second-highest rated non-New Year's Six bowl game.

TEXAS FOOTBALL NOTES

EHLINGER BY THE NUMBERS

• Ehlinger has totaled 8,100 yards of offense (6,955 pass/1,145 rush) and 80 total touchdowns (57 pass/23 rush) since the start of the 2018 season.
• He is the only FBS player to account for 50 passing touchdowns and 20 rushing touchdowns since the start of the 2018 season.
• He is the top returning FBS quarterback in terms of total offense and total touchdowns over the last two seasons. Clemson's Trevor Lawrence is the only other returning FBS quarterback with more than 7,000 yards of total offense and more than 70 total touchdowns in that stretch.
• Ehlinger's totals top Lawrence's by 415 yards and four touchdowns, despite playing in three fewer games than the Clemson QB.
• Last year, Ehlinger accounted for 4,326 yards of total offense (3,663 pass/663 rush) - the second-most in school history (4,420 - Colt McCoy, 2008).
• He was responsible for 39 total touchdowns (32 pass/7 rush), the No. 3 mark in school history. He also holds the No. 2 mark among Longhorns all-time with 41 touchdowns in 2018, and is the only player in school history to post multiple seasons with 35-or-more touchdowns.
• Ehlinger's 32 touchdown passes in 2019 made him only the second quarterback in UT history (Colt McCoy, 2008) to throw for at least 30 touchdowns in a single season.
• He also threw for 25 touchdowns in 2018, placing him alongside McCoy (2006, 2008-09) as the only Longhorns to throw 25-plus touchdown passes in multiple seasons.
• His 3,663 passing yards in 2019 were the second-most in UT history, trailing only McCoy's 2008 tally (3,859 yds).
• Ehlinger has passed for a touchdown and rushed for a touchdown 13 times since the start of the 2018 season (27 games), the most among Power Five quarterbacks during that stretch. Former Houston QB D'Eriq King, who transferred to Miami (FL) prior to the 2020 season, is the only active player to achieve that feat more frequently than Ehlinger since 2018 (15 times).
• In 2019, Ehlinger became the only Longhorn quarterback to pass for at least 200 yards and two touchdowns in each of the first five games of a season. He was also the first to do so in the first four games of a season in 2018.
• The Austin, Texas native is the only quarterback in Texas history to throw for at least 200 yards in 13-straight games during a single season. Major Applewhite (1998-99) holds the school record with 21-straight 200-yard games over multiple seasons.
• He completed at least 20 passes in 10 games last season, the most by a Longhorn since Colt McCoy had twelve 20-completion games back in 2009.

EHLINGER AGAINST RANKED OPPONENTS

• Since the start of the 2018 season, QB Sam Ehlinger has led the Longhorns against 12 ranked opponents. Texas is 7-5 in such matchups, and Ehlinger has been a key contributor throughout the Horns' contests against the nation's elite.
• In those 12 games, Ehlinger has completed 252-of-382 passes (66.0%) for 3,076 yards, 20 touchdowns and only three interceptions. He has also rushed for 569 yards and 16 touchdowns.
• Ehlinger has totaled at least three TDs in eight of those 12 games. In five of them, he has recorded at least four TDs and twice (vs. No. 7 Oklahoma, 2018; vs. No. 6 LSU, 2019) he accounted for a career-high five touchdowns.
• The Texas QB has rushed for at least one TD in 10 of UT's 12 games against ranked opponents since 2018, highlighted by a quartet of multi-TD performances. Most notably, he rushed for three TDs in 2018 versus No. 7 Oklahoma (W, 48-45) and for three TDs against No. 5 Georgia in the Allstate Sugar Bowl (W, 28-21).
• In his last outing against a ranked opponent, Ehlinger completed 12-of-18 passes for 201 yards and three touchdowns against No. 11 Utah in the 2019 Valero Alamo Bowl. He also rushed for 73 yards and a touchdown against the Utes' top-ranked defense.

A BORN WINNER

• Sam Ehlinger has led the Longhorns to 20 wins as the program's starting quarterback. That is tied with James Street (1967-69) for the ninth-most wins in UT history.
• Seven of Ehlinger's victories as the starting quarterback have come against ranked opponents, including three against top-15 foes.
• A look at where Ehlinger ranks among UT's all-time winningest starting quarterbacks:

COMING UP CLUTCH

• Time and time again, QB Sam Ehlinger has delivered in the biggest moments for the Longhorns. In his career, he has orchestrated five game-winning drives, including two against Kansas and No. 16 Kansas State last year.
• A game-winning drive is defined as the final offensive scoring drive in the fourth quarter or overtime of a game that puts the winning team ahead for the last time.
• A look at where Ehlinger ranks among Texas QBs and at the four game-winning drives he has produced in his career thus far:

SUCCESS ON THE GROUND

• Ehlinger has scored 25 rushing TDs in his career, the most recent of which came against No. 11 Utah in the 2019 Valero Alamo Bowl. Ehlinger finished with 73 yards on 11 carries and one touchdown. His 25 career rushing touchdowns are the third-most by a quarterback in Texas history.

• Earlier in the year against Kansas, Ehlinger paired 399 yards through the air with a season-high 91 rushing yards to help lift the Horns past the Jayhawks in a 50-48 shootout. It was Ehlinger's third-most productive day as a runner, falling behind only a pair of 100-yard outings against K-State and OU during his freshman season in 2017.

• The Texas QB rushed for two scores against No. 6 Oklahoma in the 2019 AT&T Red River Showdown, bringing his career total to eight rushing TDs against the Sooners. No other player has rushed for more scores against OU over the last 20 seasons.

• Ehlinger also rushed for 70 yards against Oklahoma State to become the 52nd 1,000-yard rusher in Texas Football history. He is the sixth QB in Texas history to achieve that feat, and the first since Colt McCoy (2006-09). He sealed Texas' win over the Cowboys with a 29-yard run on 3rd & 9 that gave UT a first down with just over 70 seconds remaining on the clock.

EHLINGER PRIOR TO 2020

• In 2019, Ehlinger produced the best statistical season by a Texas quarterback since Colt McCoy in 2008. He accounted for 4,326 yards of total offense, threw for 3,663 yards and completed 32 touchdown passes - all the second-best marks in school history, behind only McCoy's 2008 campaign.

• His 39 total touchdowns as a junior (32 pass/7 rush) made him the only Longhorn to ever record multiple seasons with 35-or-more touchdowns (41 in 2018).

• He threw for at least 200 yards in all 13 games last season, breaking McCoy's 11-year old school record (12 games).

• He did not throw an interception for 162 consecutive passes, beginning in the 2019 Allstate Sugar Bowl vs. No. 5 Georgia. It was the second-longest streak in school history, trailing only a Big 12-record 308-pass streak that he produced in the 2018 season.

• In 2018, Ehlinger threw for 3,292 yards (fifth in UT history) and 25 touchdowns. He also rushed for 482 yards and 16 scores, setting the school record for most rushing TDs by a QB.

• Ehlinger's sophomore campaign made him the only player in UT history to pass for at least 25 TDs and rush for at least 15 in a season.

• He is the sixth Power Five quarterback to reach those numbers in the last 20 years, and the other five all were Heisman Trophy winners (Tim Tebow, 2007; Cam Newton, 2010; Johnny Manziel, 2012; Marcus Mariota, 2014; Lamar Jackson, 2016-17).

• Ehlinger's 41 touchdowns accounted for in 2018 were the second-most in school history, trailing only Colt McCoy, who had 45 in 2008.

• Ehlinger threw just five interceptions, and attempted a school- and Big 12-record 308 consecutive passes without an interception in between picks in the season opener and the regular season finale at Kansas.

• He had 3,774 yards (3,292 pass/482 rush) of total offense in 2018, then the fifth-most in school history.

• Earlier in 2018, he became the first Longhorn QB since Colt McCoy (2008) to have at least two passing and one rushing TD in three straight games (Tulsa, USC, TCU).

• He passed for more than 200 yards in six-straight games to begin the 2018 season, becoming the first Longhorn QB since McCoy in 2007 to do so. McCoy (8 straight 2007), Applewhite (11 straight 1999) and Peter Gardere (7 straight 1992) are the only other UT QBs to have longer streaks to begin a season in school history.

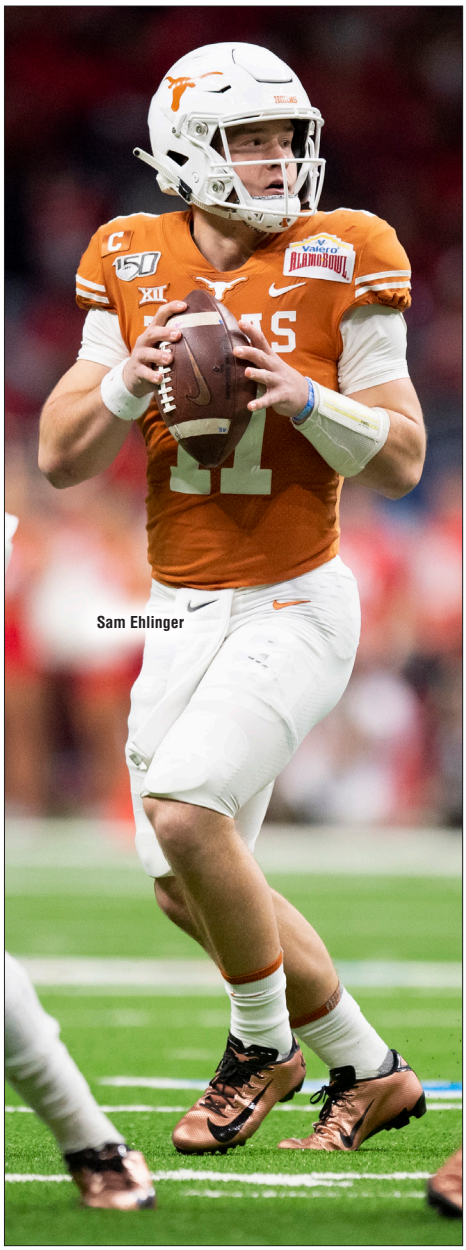

• He was the first Longhorn QB since Vince Young (Oct. 15, 2005 vs. Colorado) to rush for three TDs and pass for two more in a game. Just McCoy (twice) and Chris Simms have had more TDs in a game since 2000.

• Ehlinger had 10 games last season with three-or-more touchdowns responsible for, tying Colt McCoy (2008) for the single-season school record.

• As a true freshman in 2017, Ehlinger passed for 1,915 yards and rushed for 385. He was the first Texas quarterback since Colt McCoy in 2008 to lead the Longhorns in both passing and rushing yards.

• In just his third career start (vs. Kansas State, 2017), Ehlinger completed 30-of-50 passes for a Longhorn true freshman record 380 yards and two touchdowns. He added 107 yards rushing, also a record for a Longhorn true freshman quarterback. His 487 yards of total offense set a Texas freshman record.

• His historic day vs. Kansas State made him only the third quarterback in school history to throw for 300 yards and rush for 100 yards in the same game. Colt McCoy (at Texas A&M, 2009) and Jerrod Heard (vs. California, 2015) are the other two.

TEXAS FOOTBALL NOTES

IN THE TEXAS RECORD BOOK

• Ehlinger is the third Longhorn to eclipse 8,000 career passing yards. He currently sits second in UT history with 8,870 career yards through the air.

• Ehlinger currently ranks second in school history with 10,400 yards (8,870 pass/1,530 rush) of total offense. He crossed the 8,000- (vs. Kansas), 9,000- (vs. No. 16 Kansas State) and 10,000-yard marks (vs. Texas Tech) during the 2019 season.

• He has thrown for 68 touchdowns in his career, the second-most in UT history.

• Ehlinger has passed for at least 200 yards in 29 career games, the second-most in school history. He also has nine career 300-yard games, the third-most in UT history.

• Ehlinger has 13 career games with a passing and rushing touchdown. That is tied with Vince Young (2003-05) for the second-most by a Texas QB all time, behind only Colt McCoy, who achieved the feat 14 times during his four-year career on the Forty Acres.

AMONG THE NATIONAL LEADERS

• Ehlinger leads all active FBS quarterbacks with 10,400 yards of total offense during his career. That tally is made up of 8,870 passing yards and 1,530 rushing yards, the first and third-best marks, respectively, among active FBS quarterbacks.

• He is the only active FBS quarterback with more than 8,000 career passing yards and 1,500 career rushing yards.

• His 93 career touchdowns responsible for, the second-most in school history, also rank as the best mark among returning FBS quarterbacks this season.

• Ehlinger's 68 career touchdowns passes are the most among returning FBS quarterbacks this season.

• he is only Power Five quarterback with more than 8,000 career passing yards and 50 career passing touchdowns.

• His 25 career rushing touchdowns are the second-most by an FBS quarterback, trailing only Miami's D'Eriq King, who rushed for 28 touchdowns during his four-year career at Houston.

• Ranks third among returning FBS quarterbacks in career rushing yards (1,530), and leads all active Power Five quarterbacks in that category.

• Ranks third among FBS quarterbacks in passing yards per game (246.4) and fourth in total offense per game (288.9).

• One of only three active FBS quarterbacks with (McKenzie Milton, UCF; D'Eriq King, Houston/Miami) with at least 50 career passing touchdowns and 20 career rushing touchdowns. He is the only one with at least 60 career passing touchdowns and 25 career rushing touchdowns.

• Leads all FBS quarterbacks with 729 career pass completions, and ranks eighth in career completion percentage (63.2%).

• Through his first three collegiate seasons, he threw only 22 interceptions on 1,154 passing attempts - a UT-best 1.906 interception percentage. Entering the 2020 season, that ranks as the third-best interception percentage among active FBS quarterbacks (min. 800 attempts), behind only Clemson's Trevor Lawrence (1.493% - 12 INT/804 ATT) and Pitt's Kenny Pickett (1.893% - 16 INT/845 ATT).

ONE OF THE BIG 12'S ALL-TIME BEST

• In 2019, junior QB Sam Ehlinger ranks among the Big 12's best at the quarterback position. He also has begun to leave his mark as one of the top QBs in league history. A look at where he stands among the league's all-time great passers:

THE COSMI FILE

• Junior OL Samuel Cosmi, a first-team Walter Camp Preseason All-American this year, has been entrenched as one of Texas' starting linemen since the beginning of his redshirt freshman season in 2018. In that time, he has appeared in all 27 possible games for the Longhorns, while starting at one of the tackle spots in each of UT's last 26 outings.

• His first 13 starts, all during the 2018 season, came at right tackle. He flipped over to the left side, where he was in charge of protecting QB Sam Ehlinger's blind side, last year.

• As a sophomore, Cosmi earned second-team All-Big 12 honors and was honorable mention for the Big 12 Offensive Lineman of the Year, as well as a first-team selection on Pro Football Focus' Big 12 Team of the Year.

• Cosmi was an anchor on a Texas offensive line that was named to the Joe Moore Award Midseason Honor Roll in 2019.

• Behind Cosmi and his fellow linemen, Ehlinger accounted for 4,326 yards of total offense (No. 2 in school history) and 39 total touchdowns (No. 3).

• RBs Keaontay Ingram and Roschon Johnson produced six 100-yard outings on the ground behind Cosmi and the Longhorn line, with Ingram doing so four times and Johnson twice. As a team, Texas rushed for 2,295 yards (176.5 ypg) in 2019.

• In the 2019 Valero Alamo Bowl, Cosmi helped Texas rack up 231 rushing yards against No. 11 Utah. The Longhorns averaged 6.2 yards per carry that night, well above the 2.7 ypc average Utah had allowed in its first 13 games of the season. Texas was one of only two teams to rush for more than 115 yards against the Utes in 2019.

• Cosmi earned All-Bowl recognition from the Associated Press and ESPN following his impressive performance against Utah's vaunted defense. The entire Texas offensive line, including Cosmi, earned All-Bowl recognition from Sports Illustrated after the Alamo Bowl.

• The Humble, Texas native was a USA Today Freshman All-American in 2018.

TEXAS FOOTBALL NOTES

KERSTETTER PROFILE

• Texas senior OL Derek Kerstetter is one of the Longhorns' most experienced competitors on either side of the ball this season. A three-year starter all across the offensive line, Kerstetter has played in 37 games with 28 starts during his collegiate career.
• He was recognized as a third-team performer on Pro Football Focus' 2019 Big 12 Team of the Year.
• In the classroom, Kerstetter earned first-team Academic All-Big 12 honors last year and was named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll in the spring of 2019.
• Kerstetter garnered All-America honors and was a three-time All-District honoree at Reagan High School in San Antonio, Texas. He competed in the 2017 U.S. Army All-American Bowl.
• Entering the 2020 season, only senior QB Sam Ehlinger has started more times at Texas than Kerstetter among active Longhorns. A look at where Kerstetter ranks among UT's active leaders in career starts and games played:

MAKING THE GRADE

• Texas OL Samuel Cosmi and Derek Kerstetter have been recognized as two of the top returning linemen in the country this season. Together, they are two of three highest-graded returning tackles in the Big 12, according to Pro Football Focus.
• The two Longhorns excelled in pass protecting last season, with Cosmi earning a grade of 86.0 and Kerstetter a 91.6 from PFF for their 2019 performances. Kerstetter was the nation's top pass-blocking right tackle that is returning in 2020, and Texas is the only Power Five offense that is returning two players who earned 85.0-plus pass-blocking grades as offensive tackles last season.
• Kerstetter, one of the most versatile players on the UT roster, is expected to slide inside and see time at center this season. The San Antonio, Texas native has played all across the offensive line during his collegiate career thus far, excelling at each position when called upon.

EAGLES READY TO FLY

• With 23 games played and eight starts under his belt thus far, junior WR Brennan Eagles is the most experienced returning member of the Texas receiver room this year. The rising wideout is also the unit's career leader in receptions (33) and receiving yards (557), while being tied with sophomore WR Jake Smith for the most career receiving touchdowns (6) among active UT pass-catchers.
• The Houston, Texas native caught multiple passes in 9-of-12 games last season, including a career-high six against Kansas.
• Eagles' best game of the season came early in the 2019 campaign, as he hauled in five passes for QB Sam Ehlinger for a career-high 116 yards and a touchdown.
• As a true freshman in 2018, Eagles made just one catch - a 35-yard reception against Tulsa - in 11 appearances.

EAGLES VS. RECENT UT GREATS

• Eagles flew under the radar to an extent during the 2019 season when compared to the record-breaking numbers posted by former Longhorn and current Baltimore Raven Devin Duvernay, but historically speaking it was one of the best sophomore seasons by a receiver in school history.
• In total, Eagles caught 32 passes for 522 yards and six touchdowns during his second season on the Forty Acres. His 16.3 yards per reception led all Longhorns in 2019, while his six touchdowns were tied with Jake Smith for the second-most by a UT receiver.
• Five of Eagles' six receiving touchdowns covered at least 30 yards, with the longest two being a 55-yard score against then-No. 6 LSU and a 73-yard effort against Oklahoma State two weeks later.
• A look at Eagles' 2019 numbers vs. some of the top Longhorn WRs' sophomore seasons since 2000:

Name	Year	Rec	Yds	TD
Roy Williams	2001	67	836	5
B.J. Johnson	2001	41	539	4

Collin Johnson	2017	54	765	2
Devin Duvernay	2017	9	124	0
Brennan Eagles	2019	32	522	6

SPOTLIGHTING SMITH

• Sophomore WR Jake Smith produced a strong freshman campaign, despite battling for time in the slot with Devin Duvernay, who was one of the nation's top receivers in 2019. Smith, a Scottsdale, Ariz. native, caught 25 passes for 274 yards and six touchdowns.
• Smith's six receiving touchdowns were tied with Brennan Eagles for the second-most by a Longhorn in 2019, and are the second-most by a freshman in school history. Roy Williams (8 TD in 2000) is the only Longhorn with more receiving touchdowns as a freshman.
• Smith averaged a touchdown every 4.2 receptions during his first collegiate season. Compared to the 31 FBS receivers who caught at least 10 touchdown passes last season, Smith's 4.2 catch-to-touchdown ration is better than all but two of them. Ohio State's Chris Olave (48 rec/12 TD) and LSU's Terrace Marshall Jr. (46 rec/15) are the only two with a better ratio in that group.
• Smith's six touchdown catches were tied for the fifth-most by an FBS freshman last season, and third-most among Power Five freshman.
• Smith hauled in six passes for 75 yards and two touchdowns against Rice last season. All three of those were career-high marks for Smith.
• His six receptions tied for the 10th-most in a game by a UT freshman and his two TD catches matched the UT freshman record. It was the seventh multi-TD outing for a freshman receiver in school history.
• Smith got back in the scoring column after a two-game absence when he caught a 10-yard TD pass from QB Sam Ehlinger in the first quarter against Kansas. Smith finished with four catches for 34 yards against KU.
• Smith was held out of the endzone in his next four appearances, but hauled in a 26-yard reception from QB Sam Ehlinger in Texas' win over Texas Tech on Nov. 29. Smith finished with three catches for 51 yards against the Red Raiders.

MOST RECEIVING TOUCHDOWNS (SEASON - FRESHMEN)

2. Jake Smith	6	2019
3. Eight tied, last by Devin Duvernay & Collin Johnson	3	2016

TARIK COMES TO TEXAS

• WR Tarik Black, a graduate transfer from Michigan who was a three-time letterwinner (2017-19) for the Wolverines, adds a veteran presence to the UT receiver room after joining the Longhorns during the spring.
• Black appeared in 21 games with nine starts at Michigan, but only played one full season due to injuries as a freshman and sophomore. He has recorded 40 receptions for 507 yards and two touchdowns in his career.
• Black, a Hamden, Conn. native, graduated from UM's College of Literature, Science and the Arts in May 2020.
• As a junior in 2019, Black appeared in 12 games with five starts. He caught 25 passes for 323 yards and one touchdown.
• Black played in the final six games of the 2018 season with one start after suffering a foot injury in fall camp. He made four catches for 35 yards in his limited time on the field.
• In 2017, Black's freshman year at Michigan, he started all three games in which he played before missing the remainder of the season due to injury. He posted 11 receptions for 149 yards and one touchdown.
• Black made his collegiate debut and first career start against Florida in the AdvoCare Classic, catching two passes for 83 yards and a touchdown.
• He competed in the 2017 U.S. Army All-American Bowl coming out of high school.

THE INGRAM IMPACT

• Junior RB Keaontay Ingram has rushed 1,561 yards on 286 carries (5.5 ypc) and 10 touchdowns during his first two seasons on the Forty Acres. He has also added 56 receptions for 412 yards and five touchdowns during that stretch.
• He is the first Longhorn since Jamaal Charles (2005-07) to rush for more than 1,500 yards during his first two seasons on the Forty Acres. Charles logged 1,709 rushing yards across the 2005 and 2006 campaigns.
• Ingram, who rushed for 708 yards as a true freshman and 853 yards as a sophomore, is the first Longhorn to rush for 700-plus yards in consecutive seasons since Malcolm Brown in 2013-14. Johnathan Gray (2012-13) was the last Longhorn to achieve the feat during his respective freshman and sophomore campaigns until Ingram.
• With another 700-yard season in 2020, Ingram can join UT greats Cedric Benson (2001-04), Vince Young (2003-05) and Jamaal Charles (2005-07) as the only Longhorns to rush for at least 700 yards in three consecutive seasons since 2000.

• Ingram's success on the ground has been instrumental in Texas' success over the past two seasons. In games where Ingram carried the ball at least 10 times, Texas is 14-4 compared to 3-5 when he has fewer than 10 carries. The Horns are 3-1 when he carries the ball at least 15 times.
• Texas is 11-2 when Ingram rushes for at least 60 yards, compared to 7-7 when he is held under 60 yards.
• The Longhorns are 7-1 when Ingram hits the 80-yard mark on the ground and 5-0 when he rushes for at least 100 yards.
• Ingram's five career 100-yards games are the most among all active Longhorns, and the seventh-most by a UT player since 2000. A look at where he stands:

INGRAM PRIOR TO 2020

• As a sophomore in 2019, Ingram carried the ball 144 times for 853 yards and seven touchdowns. He also caught 29 passes for 242 yards and three touchdowns.
• His 853 rushing yards were the most by a Longhorn since D'Onta Foreman rushed for 2,028 yards in 2016 en route to winning the Doak Walker Award.
• Ingram is the first Longhorn to rush for at least 850 yards in a season and record at least 200 receiving yards since Cedric Benson (1,053 rush/203 rec) in 2001.
• His 29 receptions were the 10th-most by a UT running back in a season, and the most since Fozzy Whittaker caught 34 passes during the 2010 season.
• Ingram posted four 100-yard games on the ground in 2019, the most by a Texas underclassmen (freshman or sophomore) since D'Onta Foreman also produced four 100-yard games as a sophomore in 2015.
• His 100-yard outings came against three conference foes (Oklahoma State, Kansas, No. 16 Kansas State) and two top-20 opponents (No. 16 Kansas State, vs. No. 11 Utah).
• Ingram is the first UT player to run for at least 100 yards against three conference opponents in the same season since D'Onta Foreman in 2016.
• He carried the ball 21 times for 114 yards and caught one pass for 26 yards against Oklahoma State to post his first 100-yard outing as a sophomore.
• Ingram's outing against OSU made him the 53rd 1,000-yard rusher in Texas history. He joined QB Sam Ehlinger, who also surpassed 1,000 yards in the win over the Cowboys, as active Longhorns with at least 1,000 career rushing yards.
• His next came one month later against Kansas, where he logged 101 rushing yards on 14 carries (7.2 ypc) and scored a touchdown in UT's win over the Jayhawks.
• Two weeks later against No. 16 Kansas State, he improved his totals across the board, running for a career-high 139 yards on 16 carries (8.7 ypc) and scoring two touchdowns.
• Ingram totaled 114 of his 139 rushing yards on nine second-half carries (12.7 ypc). Thirty-four of those yards came on three carries (11.3 ypc) during Texas' final two scoring drives in the fourth quarter.
• His final 100-yard game of 2019 came in the Valero Alamo Bowl against No. 11 Utah, as he totaled 108 rushing yards on 13 carries (8.3 ypc) and one touchdown. Ingram also caught two passes for 26 yards and a touchdown against the Utes top-ranked defense.
• Ingram also produced for the Longhorns on days when he was held under the century mark on the ground. When the Longhorns visited No. 13 Baylor, he carried the ball seven times for 86 yards before missing the second half due to injury. His last carry was a 68-yard run - the longest of his career.
• Earlier in the year, he logged his first career multi-touchdown game with two rushing touchdowns at Rice.
• As a true freshman in 2018, Ingram rushed for 708 yards on 142 attempts (5.0 ypc). He had five total touchdowns and caught 27 passes (No. 11 in school history by RB) for 170 yards.
• He was just the 10th freshman, and seventh true freshman, with a 700-yard rushing season in school history. His 708 yards were the sixth-best by a true freshman in Texas history.
• Prior to Ingram doing so, the last Longhorn freshman with a 700-yard rushing season was Johnathan Gray in 2012, who finished with 701 yards on 149 attempts.

RUNNING WITH ROSCHON

• Sophomore RB Roschon Johnson logged 807 all-purpose yards (649 rush/158 rec) on 146 touches (123 rush/23 rec) during his first year at Texas.
• In Big 12 games, Johnson rushed for 485 yards on 92 carries (5.3 ypc) and scored seven touchdowns.
• He posted two 100-yard games on the ground, both coming against conference opponents.
• His first was a 121-yard effort on the road against West Virginia in October. In Morgantown, he averaged 5.8 yards per carry on 21 attempts and scored one touchdown. Johnson was named the Big 12 Newcomer of the Week for the first time in his career for his performance.
• His 121 rushing yards were the most by a Texas running back at the time since Chris Warren III ran for 166 against San Jose State on Sept. 9, 2017.
• Johnson's second 100-yard outing came in the regular-season finale against Texas Tech, where he totaled 105 rushing yards on 23 carries and scored three rushing touchdowns.
• Johnson was the only Big 12 competitor to rush for more than 100 yards and more than one touchdown during the final week of the regular season, helping him earn Big 12 Newcomer of the Week honors for a second time.
• Seven of Johnson's 23 carries (30.4%) resulted in either a first down or a touchdown against TTU.
• Johnson also rushed for 95 yards and a touchdown in the 2019 AT&T Red River Showdown, his first appearance against Oklahoma.
• His 95 rushing yards were the most by a Longhorn true freshman against the Sooners since Jamaal Charles logged 116 rushing yards in the 2005 Red River Showdown.
• Against OU, Johnson covered 70 yards in three plays (9 rec/57 rush/4 rush) and scored a touchdown to knot the game at 10-10 in the second quarter.
• The Port Neches, Texas native scored his first career touchdown on a 25-yard pass from QB Sam Ehlinger against Rice, and then notched his first rushing touchdown a week later against Oklahoma State in UT's Big 12 opener.
• Johnson was an early enrollee at quarterback for the Longhorns in 2019, but converted to the running back spot one week before the season opener against Louisiana Tech due to a slew of injuries to UT's backfield in training camp. He appeared in all 13 games and was one of three Longhorns to rush for more than 600 yards in 2019.

BREWER'S BREAKOUT

• Senior TE Cade Brewer emerged as an offensive weapon for the Longhorns in 2019, despite missing time due to an ankle injury he suffered halfway through the conference slate.
• Brewer started the first eight games of the season, missed the next four and returned for Texas' triumph over No. 11 Utah in the Valero Alamo Bowl.
• He caught 11 passes for 159 yards and one touchdown during his junior season.
• Brewer's 14.5 yards per reception ranked third among Longhorn receivers with at least 10 catches, trailing only WRs Brennan Eagles (16.3) and Collin Johnson (14.7).
• Brewer logged multiple catches on three occasions for UT in 2019, highlighted by a three-catch, 71-yard effort against Kansas. That night, he hauled in a 51-yard pass from QB Sam Ehlinger in the fourth quarter to help set up Texas' go-ahead touchdown with less than three minutes remaining in the game.
• Brewer's three catches, 71 yards and 51-yard reception all are the best single-game marks of his career thus far.
• The Austin, Texas native also caught multiple passes against Oklahoma State, and in the season opener vs. Louisiana Tech.
• Brewer is a two-time Academic All-Big 12 First Team selection, and was named to the 2017-18 Academic All-Big 12 Rookie Team.

TEXAS FOOTBALL NOTES

OSSAI'S EMERGENCE

• Junior JACK Joseph Ossai, a 2020 Bednarik Award candidate, was one of Texas' most consistent performers during the 2019 campaign, a year in which he started all 13 games, and led the Longhorns with 90 tackles, 13.5 tackles for loss, five sacks and nine quarterback hurries. He also intercepted two passes, defended three, forced one fumbled and blocked one kick.
• Ossai made at least eight tackles in eight of Texas' last 10 games of the 2019 season, including a career-high 10 on the road against TCU on Oct. 26.
• His first eight-tackle performance of the season came against Oklahoma State in Austin. It was the first of five-straight outings with at least eight tackles.
• His eight eight-tackle performances in 2019 are tied for the second-most by a Longhorn in a season since 2000. Emmanuel Acho (9 games, 2011) is the only UT player with more eight-tackle performances in a season than Ossai during that stretch.
• Ossai's best performance as a sophomore came in the Valero Alamo Bowl against No. 11 Utah. There, he accumulated nine tackles (six solo), six tackles for loss and three sacks en route to earning Defensive MVP honors.
• His three sacks were the most by a Longhorn in a bowl game since Alex Okafor set the school record with 4.5 sacks in the 2012 Alamo Bowl vs. Oregon State.
• Ossai is the only FBS player over the last 20 seasons to record at least six tackles for loss and three sacks in a bowl game.
• The Conroe, Texas native received All-Bowl recognition from the Associated Press, ESPN and Sports Illustrated following his breakout performance.
• The 2019 Alamo Bowl marked his second-straight bowl game with at least eight tackles. He put together an eight-tackle game as a starter in the Allstate Sugar Bowl against No. 5 Georgia as a redshirt freshman in 2018. He is one of only four Longhorns to do so in consecutive bowl games since 2000.
• During his freshman season, Ossai appeared in 14 games, starting against Kansas and Georgia. He registered 20 total tackles (13 solo), one sack and one forced fumble.

STRONG AND STERNS

• Junior DB Caden Sterns has been an impact performer for the Longhorns over the past two seasons.
• In that time, Sterns has logged 120 tackles (89 solo), seven tackles for loss, two sacks, defended nine passes, intercepted four and blocked one kick.
• Sterns played in nine games in 2019, competing in the first four games of the year and the final five. He missed UT's matchups against West Virginia, No. 6 Oklahoma, Kansas and TCU due to injury.
• Texas held its opponents under 25 points in seven of the nine games Sterns played in, including each of the last five games of the season. Three times Texas held its opponents under 15 points with Sterns in the lineup, highlighted by the Longhorns holding No. 11 Utah to just 10 points in the Valero Alamo Bowl.
• The Longhorns went 6-3 with Sterns on the field and 2-2 without him in 2019. They allowed 23.0 points per game when Sterns was in the lineup and 37.5 ppg during the four-game stretch when he was injured.
• In his shortened 2019 season, Sterns registered 58 tackles (43 solo), four tackles for loss and one sack. He posted at least five tackles in seven of nine appearances, including a career-high 12 tackles (10 solo) against Oklahoma State.
• He notched eight tackles, his first sack of the season, and two tackles for loss on the road against Iowa State.
• In 2018, Sterns was named the Big 12 Defensive Freshman of the Year, becoming the seventh Longhorn to earn the honor. Cory Redding (1999), Derrick Johnson (2001), Rodrique Wright (2002), Brian Orakpo (2005), Quandre Diggs (2011) and Malik Jefferson (2015) were the others.
• Sterns started all 13 games in which he played as a freshman, missing only the Allstate Sugar Bowl due to injury. He was the first UT true freshman defensive back to start the first 13 games of his career since Blake Gideon (13-straight starts) in 2008.
• He registered 62 total tackles, three tackles for loss four interceptions, four pass breakups and a blocked field goal.
• Sterns had two interceptions against TCU and was named Thorpe Award Player of the Week, as well as Big 12 Newcomer of the Week, for his effort.
• He was the first true freshman at UT with two interceptions in a game since DeShon Elliott (2015) and just the third ever (Chris Carter, 1993).
• Sterns also had interceptions against Tulsa and Baylor, while his blocked field goal against USC was returned for a touchdown by Anthony Wheeler.

GRAHAM GETTING IT DONE

• Senior DL Ta'Quon Graham emerged last season as a force on the Texas defense. After starting in just two games prior to last year, he started all in 13 in 2019.
• Graham ranked second on the team last year in both sacks (3.5) and TFL (12.0) only trailing Joseph Ossai, and was second among defensive linemen in tackles with 31.
• Graham finished his season with one of his biggest games of the year, racking up four tackles, 2.5 tackles for loss and one sack in the Valero Alamo Bowl versus No. 11 Utah.

CHRIS BROWN'S COMING OUT PARTY

• Senior DB Chris Brown had a breakout season in 2019, starting 10 times, logging 46 tackles (37 solo), three tackles for loss, breaking up two passes and intercepting one.
• Brown's 46 tackles were the fourth-most by a Longhorn last season. His tally came despite missing three games (Kansas, at TCU, No. 16 Kansas State) due to injury.
• Notched six tackles in three of the first four games of the season, doing so against Louisiana Tech, No. 6 LSU and Oklahoma State. Also recorded a tackle for loss and pass breakup against both Louisiana Tech and LSU.
• Logged his second career interception during Texas' win over Oklahoma State.
• Registered five tackles, including one for a loss, in the AT&T Red River Showdown against No. 6 Oklahoma.
• After returning from injury, Brown logged six tackles on the road against both Iowa State and No. 13 Baylor, and then a career-high nine tackles, all unassisted, against Texas Tech on senior day.
• Prior to 2019, Brown had registered just 15 career tackles (13 solo) and one tackle for loss in 25 appearances.

DYNAMIC DEMARVION

• Junior DB DeMarvion Overshown has played in 17 games and made two starts during his collegiate career. He has registered 19 tackles (17 solo), seven tackles for loss, two sacks, broke up three passes, intercepted one and forced one fumble.
• Overshown appeared in nine games and made starts against Kansas and at Baylor in 2019. He posted five tackles, two tackles for loss, one sack and one pass breakup against the Jayhawks during the first start of his career.
• Totaled 12 tackles (11 solo) and four tackles for loss over Texas' final four games of the 2019 season, including a five-tackle effort at Baylor.

JAMISON IN RAREFIED AIR

• Junior DB D'Shawn Jamison is one of only five Longhorns to return both a punt and kickoff for a touchdown during his career.
• Jamison returned a kickoff 98 yards late in the fourth quarter of a 48-13 win over Rice in 2019, and a 90-yard punt return against Kansas State in 2018.
• He joined Raymond Clayborn, Quan Cosby, Jordan Shipley and Selvin Young as the only Longhorns to achieve both feats.
• The junior defensive back also continued to flash his return skills against Kansas last year, when he recovered a blocked PAT and returned it 90-plus yards for a defensive two-point conversion.
• Earlier in the 2019 season against West Virginia, Jamison picked off two passes and logged four tackles. Jamison is the fourth Longhorn to intercept two passes in a game during Tom Herman's tenure as head coach (DeShon Elliott, twice; Antwuan Davis; Caden Sterns).
• He bagged his team-high third interception of the season at Iowa State. Jamison also made a career-high nine tackles.
• Along with his three interceptions, Jamison tallied 35 total tackles, 3.5 tackles for loss and one forced fumble.
• Jamison started nine games for the Longhorns as a defensive back in 2019.

DICKER THE KICKER

• Sophomore K Cameron Dicker has made 32 of his 43 career field goal attempts. He was 14-for-18 (78%) on field goal tries in 2019. His 18 makes in 2018 were the most by a freshman in UT history.
• Dicker converted on two field goals, including the game-winning 26-yard try as time expired, to help lift Texas to a 27-24 win over No. 16 Kansas State.
• It was the Longhorns' second-straight outing at Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium that Dicker capped with a game-winning field goal as time-expired.
• He also did so with a 33-yard effort against Kansas to give the Horns a 50-48 win.
• Dicker is the only player in Texas history to record two walk-off plays during their career, both of which have come this season.
• The sophomore's clutch kick against K-State marked his third career game-winning field goal. His first was a 40-yard effort with nine seconds left that gave Texas a 48-45 win over No. 7 Oklahoma in the 2018 AT&T Red River Showdown
• He booted a 57-yard field goal against Rice on Sept. 14. It was the longest made kick by a Longhorn since Jeff Ward's 57-yarder at Texas A&M on Nov. 28, 1985.

2020 COACHING STAFF

TEXAS

TOM HERMAN

HEAD COACH

A Texas Ex and former University of Texas graduate assistant with deep ties to the state of Texas, Tom Herman was named the 30th Head Football Coach at The University of Texas on Nov. 26, 2016. He is wrapping up his third season at UT in 2019 and his fifth season overall as a head coach.

He has amassed 25 wins at Texas so far, the third-most by a head coach in his first three seasons at UT. Herman's 25-15 record is also a 9-win improvement on Texas' record from the three years prior to his arrival (16-21) in Austin. That ranks as the second-best improvement by a Longhorn head coach during his first three seasons in charge (12 wins, Darrell Royal - 1957-59).

Herman led the Longhorns to a 8-5 mark in 2019, marking his third-straight winning season at the helm in Austin. The Texas head coach has led his teams to bowl games in all three seasons at UT and in all five season overall as a head coach. Nine Longhorns earned All-Big 12 recognition under Herman in 2019, with WR Devin Duvernay and OL Zach Shackelford both collecting first-team honors. DB Brandon Jones and OL Samuel Cosmi both were named second-team performers.

QB Sam Ehlinger became only the third Longhorn to surpass 4,000 yards of total offense in a season, joining Longhorn Legends Vince Young (2005) and Colt McCoy (2008) in that exclusive club. Ehlinger has totaled 39 touchdowns in 2019, the third-most in school history. The offense ranked 17th nationally in scoring offense, 14th in total offense and converted third downs at the seventh-best rate of any team in the FBS.

Texas surrendered the fewest turnovers of any Big 12 team. The Horns also were a top-10 team offensively in the red zone. On defense, the Longhorns stuffed opponents on fourth down and turned opponents over 19 times. UT's plus-five turnover margin ranked 33rd nationally and the Longhorns were a top-20 team in the country defensively on fourth downs.

In 2018, Herman led his Longhorns to a 10-4 mark, Sugar Bowl victory and a Big 12 Championship Game appearance in just his second season at the helm. The 2019 Allstate Sugar Bowl marked Herman's second appearance in a NY6 Bowl Game in just four seasons. DE Charles Omenihu was named Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year, while S Caden Sterns was UT's seventh all-time Big 12 Defensive Freshman of the Year. In total, 18 Longhorns garnered All-Big 12 recognition, including four on the first team. In all, 10 players went on to an NFL opportunity, including draft picks Omenihu and CB Kris Boyd.

QB Sam Ehlinger became the only player in UT history to pass for at least 25 touchdowns and rush for at least 15 in a season, while the Longhorns controlled the ball and kept it secure in 2018. The offense ranked 22nd in the nation in time of possession despite playing in the fast-paced Big 12, along with being 12th in total first downs. Texas was also tied for 15th in turnover margin at plus-nine, and tied for fourth in turnovers lost with just 11. The offense had a stretch of 295 total plays, including three straight full games without a turnover, leading to a total of five turnover free games for the season. On defense, Texas continued in its strengths of strong red zone defense, ranking 17th nationally, and stopping the run, allowing just 131.4 yards per game to rank 28th.

In his first season at Texas, Herman guided the Longhorns to a 7-6 record and a victory in the Academy Sports + Outdoors Texas Bowl over Missouri. Both P Michael Dickson and S DeShon Elliott were named unanimous All-Americans, with Dickson becoming UT's first-ever winner of the Ray Guy Award.

Seven players were named All-Big 12 and 14 were named to the Academic All-Big 12 teams. Linebacker Malik Jefferson was named Big 12 Conference Co-Defensive Player of the Year, defensive lineman Poona Ford was named the Big 12 Conference's Defensive Lineman of the Year, and punter Michael Dickson was named Big 12 Conference Special Teams Player of the Year for the second straight season. Elliott joined the trio of players of the year as a unanimous first team All-Big 12 selection.

Texas was stout defensively, finishing third nationally in third-down defense (.271) and seventh nationally in fourth-down defense (.300). The Longhorns finished eighth nationally in rushing defense (106.8 ypg) and 41st in total defense (365.6), after finishing the 2016 season 76th and 94th, respectively. UT had eight non-offensive touchdowns (five interceptions, two fumble returns, one punt return) in 2017 after not recording any during the previous season.

Herman saw 12 players earn an opportunity in the NFL following his first season, including four Longhorns being selected in the 2018 NFL Draft. Offensive lineman Connor Williams was taken in the second round by the Dallas Cowboys, Jefferson went in the third round to the Cincinnati Bengals, Dickson was selected in the fifth round by the Seattle Seahawks and Elliott was drafted by the Baltimore Ravens in the sixth round.

Herman came to Texas after compiling a 22-4 record in two seasons at Houston, the fourth-best record in the FBS in that span. His first season as head coach at Texas will mark his 14th spent in the state of Texas out of 20 years coaching on the collegiate level. That includes his time as a graduate assistant at UT (1999-2000), where he earned a master's degree in education.

Following his first season at UH, Herman was named a finalist for the Eddie Robinson and Bear Bryant Coach of the Year Awards, while also being chosen as the Football Writers Association of America's First-Year Coach of the Year and the American Athletic Conference's Co-Coach of the Year.

Herman became just the fourth head coach in NCAA history with at least 13 wins in a rookie season, joining Chris Petersen (Boise State - 2006), George Woodruff (Penn - 1892) and Walter Camp (Yale - 1888), and just the fifth head coach in NCAA history to win the first 10 games of his career, joining Petersen, Larry Coker (Miami - 2001), Woodruff and Camp in accomplishing the feat.

He led the Cougars to their first New Year's Bowl in 30 years, its second 13-win season in program history and its 11th conference championship in program history by claiming the inaugural AAC Championship. He led all FBS coaches in their first year with a program with 13 wins as Houston finished third nationally with a 92.9 winning percentage at 13-1.

With a 38-24 win over No. 9 Florida State in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl, Herman joined College Football Hall of Famer Bill Yeoman as just the second coach in Houston history with a win in one of the New Year's Six bowls and the second with a bowl victory over a top-10 opponent. Houston ended the 2015 season ranked No. 8 in the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches polls, its highest finish since ranking No. 5 in 1979, and just the sixth time in program history to finish in the top 10.

Houston was one of just two schools nationally to play at least four ranked opponents in 2015 and remain undefeated in those contests, while it was one of eight teams nationally with at least four wins against ranked opponents. Three of those wins came by double-digits, the fourth-best total in the nation.

Ranking 10th in scoring offense (40.4 points per game) and 21st in scoring defense (20.7 points per game), Houston was the only program in the nation to rank in the top 10 in scoring offense and the top 25 in scoring defense. UH ranked fifth nationally with an average margin of victory of 19.7 points per game. The Cougars ranked eighth nationally in rushing defense, allowing just 108.9 yards per game, while ranking 13th in rushing offense with an average of 235.8 yards per game. Houston was the only team in the nation to rank in the top 13 in both categories.

In 2016, Herman guided his program to a 9-3 record, including wins over No. 3 Oklahoma and No. 3 Louisville. Houston became the first program nationally to defeat two top-five teams. Herman's Cougars join Alabama as the only two teams in the nation with double-digit wins over two top-10 teams this season.

Houston ranked as one of the most efficient and disciplined teams in the country under Herman, as their offense ranked 34th and the defense 15th when he was hired by the Longhorns.

In the regular season, Houston's offense ranked 15th in third down conversions, sixth in completion percentage, ninth in first downs and 21st in scoring offense in 2016. Ward, Jr. led the Cougars offense, as he was named a semifinalist for both the Davey O'Brien Award and The Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award. He finished the regular season with 3,328 passing yards and 518 rushing yards. He was 294-of-435 (67.6%) passing, ranking in the top-12 nationally in completion percentage, completions per game and passing yards. He had 31 total touchdowns in 12 games. For his career, Ward is fifth in Houston history with 8,202 passing yards, 52 touchdown passes and 699 completions.

Defensively, Houston featured the nation's third-ranked rush defense in addition to the nation's 15th-best defense in total yards allowed. The Cougars were third nationally with five defensive touchdowns on the season and allowed just 22.6 points per game in 12 regular season contests. They also ranked as one of the nation's best in bringing pressure, ranking in the top-20 in sacks (13th) and tackles for loss (19th). Freshman DT Ed Oliver, an All-American, was sixth nationally with 19.5 tackles for loss. He added seven quarterback hurries and led all defensive linemen nationally with his nine pass breakups. LB Steven Taylor, the Cougars leading tackler, ranked 26th nationally with 8.5 sacks. As a team, Houston finished the regular season with 90 tackles for loss and 37 sacks.

Prior to his arrival at Houston, Herman helped develop record-setting and explosive offenses in each of his 10 seasons as an offensive coordinator, including three seasons as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Ohio State where he won the 2014 Broyles Award as the nation's top assistant coach. He helped the Buckeyes win the 2015 College Football Championship (following the 2014 season) with third-string quarterback Cardale Jones under center in wins over Alabama and Oregon, and a Big Ten Championship win over Wisconsin.

COACHING STAFF

Herman's 2014 Ohio State offense finished the season ranked fifth in scoring offense at 44.8 points per game and ninth in total offense at 511.6 yards per game despite losing Heisman Trophy candidate quarterback Braxton Miller prior to the season. With freshman J.T. Barrett taking over the reins, Herman molded the quarterback into a formidable leader who finished fifth in the Heisman Trophy voting and was named a FWAA Freshman All-American.

The Buckeyes claimed the 2014 Big Ten Championship with a 59-0 win over Wisconsin as Herman's offense rolled to 558 total yards with Jones under center after an injury to Barrett in the regular-season finale.

The offense continued to roll in Ohio State's 42-35 College Football Playoff semifinal win over Alabama. Facing a defense that entered the game ranked fourth nationally in scoring defense at 16.6 points per game, Herman's offense exploded for 42 points and 537 total yards. The balanced attack yielded 256 passing yards and 281 rushing yards.

In the championship game against Oregon, Herman's offense piled up 538 total yards with 242 through the air and 296 on the ground in a 42-20 win. The 42 points marked the most scored on Oregon during the 2014 season.

Herman's quarterbacks in 2014 ranked second nationally with a team passing efficiency rating of 167.72, while Barrett was second nationally with a rating of 169.8 and sixth nationally with an Ohio State record 34 passing touchdowns while also adding 11 touchdowns on the ground for a Big Ten record of 45 touchdowns responsible for. The Buckeyes' offense was sixth nationally with an average of 6.98 yards per play and second nationally with 46 plays of 30 yards or longer and 17 plays of 50 yards or longer.

Barrett, the Big Ten's 2014 Griese-Brees Quarterback of the Year, was one of four offensive players to receive All-Big Ten honors in 2014 and was the third to receive a major Big Ten award under Herman's leadership as Carlos Hyde was named the 2013 Ameche-Dayne Running Back of the Year and Miller was named the Graham-George Offensive Player of the Year and the Griese-Brees Quarterback of the Year in both 2012 and 2013.

After leading the Big Ten in scoring in 2012 at 37.2 points per game and ranking 10th nationally in rushing at nearly 250 yards per game, Ohio State's offense under Herman went to a new level in 2013, ranking third nationally in scoring at 45.5 ppg and fifth in rushing at 308.6 ypg.

The Buckeyes were successful through the air as well. Among the 12 single season records to fall in 2013 were most touchdown passes (38) with top-five school totals in passing yards (2,846), attempts (368) and completions (238). Additional records were set in rushing yards in a season (4,321 yards, which also is a Big Ten Conference record), most total touchdowns (82) and most total offensive yards (7,167), yards per play (7.1) and yards per game (511.9).

Miller finished fifth and ninth in the Heisman Trophy voting in 2012 and 2013, respectively. Additionally, he set the school record for total offense and was a finalist for the Davey O'Brien and Manning Awards in 2012 and in 2013 he led the Big Ten in passing efficiency.

Herman, who was named the 2013 Rivals.com Big Ten Recruiter of the Year and national Top 25 recruiter, arrived in Columbus after spending three years as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Iowa State.

During his time at Iowa State from 2009-11, Herman's well-balanced offense was very evident as Iowa State quarterback Austen Arnaud ended his career as the Cyclones' No. 2 all-time leading passer with 6,777 yards and 42 touchdown passes, while running back Alexander Robinson finished his Iowa State career as the Cyclones' fourth all-time leading rusher with 3,309 yards.

Herman spent 2007 and 2008 as offensive coordinator at Rice before heading to Iowa State. During his two seasons with the Owls, his offenses broke over 40 school records and, in his second season, the Owls won 10 games and went to a bowl for the first time since 1954.

Rice ranked in the Top 10 nationally in 2008 in passing offense (fifth; 327.8), scoring offense (t-eighth; 41.6) and total offense (10th; 472.3). Two Rice receivers had more than 1,300 yards receiving that year. Tight end James Casey had 111 catches and quarterback Chase Clement was named Conference USA MVP.

Rice's spread attack completed nearly two-thirds (65.6%) of its passes, and its touchdown-to-interception ratio of 48-to-7 was an NCAA FBS best. The quick-strike Owls had 30 scoring drives of five plays or less in 2008 and 31 scoring marches of less than two minutes.

Prior to Rice, Herman directed offensive attacks for two years (2005-06) at Texas State, where Bobcat squads led the Southland Conference in total offense. The 2005 Texas State club was eighth nationally in scoring and made a run to the FCS semifinals in the school's first appearance in the Division 1-AA playoffs. Herman also worked four years (2001-04) as an assistant coach at Sam Houston State as special teams coordinator and wide receivers coach, helping them to a pair of conference titles and trips to the FCS semifinals and quarterfinals.

The job with SHSU was his first after his time as a graduate assistant at Texas, where he assisted with the offensive line on the Longhorns' Cotton and Holiday Bowl teams. He received his coaching start in 1998 as a wide receivers coach at Texas Lutheran.

Herman was born in Cincinnati and still has family there. He was raised in Simi Valley, Calif., and he played collegiately as an all-conference wide receiver at California Lutheran, graduating in 1997 with a degree in business administration. He received a master's in education from the University of Texas in 2000.

Herman and his wife, Michelle, have a daughter, Priya, and two sons, TD and Maverick.

DID YOU KNOW?

Tom Herman's 25 wins at The University of Texas are the third-most for a head coach through his first three seasons in school history. The only two coaches to have won more games in their first three seasons on the Forty Acres are Fred Akers, who won 29 games from 1977-79, and Mack Brown, who won 27 games from 1998-2000.

DID YOU KNOW?

Tom Herman, during his first season at Houston (2015) became just the fourth head coach in NCAA history with at least 13 wins in a rookie season, joining Chris Petersen (Boise State - 2006), George Woodruff (Penn - 1982) and Walter Camp (Yale - 1888), and was just the fifth head coach in NCAA history to win the first 10 games of his career, joining Petersen, Larry Coker (Miami - 2001), Woodruff and Camp in accomplishing that feat.

COACHING STAFF

CHRIS ASH

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR
SAFETIES

Chris Ash, a former head coach at Rutgers and defensive coordinator at Wisconsin, Arkansas and Ohio State was ben named defensive coordinator at Texas on December 17, 2019. Ash's success as a defensive coordinator includes leading the Ohio State defense when the Buckeyes won the 2014 National Championship. He will join the Longhorns staff on Dec. 18th, but will not be coaching in the Valero Alamo Bowl.

This marks the third time Tom Herman and Ash will join forces on the same coaching staff, as Herman was offensive coordinator at Ohio State in 2014, and they were also together at Iowa State in 2009. Herman was offensive coordinator there, while Ash served as the defensive backs coach and recruiting coordinator.

After a 19-year career as an assistant coach and coaching staff member, Ash became head coach at Rutgers in 2016 and spent three-plus seasons with the Scarlet Knights.

The 2017 season was one marked by improvements for Rutgers as the team matched its program record for victories in Big Ten play, tying a league win total of three from 2014, its first year in the conference. Rutgers defeated Illinois on the road for its first league road win in two seasons and topped both Purdue and Maryland at home.

Before Rutgers, Ash served as co-defensive coordinator and safeties coach at Ohio State and helped lead the Buckeyes to the 2014 National Championship. Ash spent five years in the Big Ten Conference, including four as a defensive coordinator, with four Big Ten championships.

In his five seasons total as a defensive coordinator, including 2013 at Arkansas, Ash led four groups ranked in the top 25 statistically, including a top-10 defensive unit in 2015 at Ohio State. As the defense coordinator at Wisconsin in 2011 and 2012, the Badgers put together back-to-back seasons that ranked 15th overall in total defense. The 2011 squad was 13th in scoring defense, while the 2012 team was 17th.

Ash was hired by Ohio State head coach Urban Meyer in January 2014 to improve a Buckeye defense that placed 110th nationally in pass defense and 46th in total defense in 2013. In his first season, OSU's defense ranked 19th nationally in total defense (342.4 ypc), 26th in scoring defense (22.0 ppg), 13th in pass efficiency defense (108.17) and 28th in pass defense (201.1 ypg). The Buckeyes also ranked fourth nationally with 24 interceptions, fifth in turnovers gained (33), 16th in third-down defense (34.4%), 13th in sacks (3.00 pg) and 14th in tackles for loss (7.3 pg) en route to a Big Ten and National Championship.

Defensive end Joey Bosa was a unanimous first-team All-American, Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year, Big Ten Defensive Lineman of the Year and first-team All-Big Ten, along with DB Doran Grant, while DT Michael Bennett and LB Joshua Perry were second-team. Grant and Bennett went on to both be selected in the 2015 NFL Draft.

In 2015, the Ohio State defense continued its strides under Ash, ranking second nationally in scoring defense (15.1 ppg) and ninth in total defense (311.3 ypg), as well as 16th in passing defense (184.5 ypg) and 22nd in rushing defense (126.8 ypg). It also ranked sixth in pass efficiency defense (104.78) and ninth in sacks (2.92 spg). The No. 7 Buckeyes defeated No. 8 Notre Dame, 44-28, in the Fiesta Bowl, finishing the year with a 12-1 record and a No. 4 ranking in both The Associated Press and Coaches Polls.

Bosa was named consensus All-America and Big Ten Defensive Lineman of the Year. Defensive tackle Adolphus Washington and safety Vonn Bell earned first-team All-America honors from the Sporting News, while Bell also was an Associated Press first-team All-American. Perry earned first-team All-Big Ten recognition, while LB Darron Lee and CB Eli Apple earned second-team honors.

The 2016 NFL Draft saw numerous players from Ash's unit selected, including the first overall defensive player in Bosa, who was picked third by the San Diego Chargers. In all, the draft featured six players from the Ohio State defense, all in the first four rounds with three in the first round. Along with Bosa, Apple was chosen 10th overall by the New York Giants, and Lee was selected 20th by the New York Jets. Bell was taken in the second round, while Washington was picked in the third, and Perry in the fourth.

Prior to taking over the OSU defense, Ash held the defensive coordinator post and coached the secondary at Arkansas in 2013 under head coach Bret Bielema. He helped improve Arkansas' pass defense in his one season in Fayetteville, with the Razorbacks' defense finishing 72nd nationally in passing yards allowed after ranking 113th in 2012.

Ash was first promoted to the level of defensive coordinator at a Power Five school while at Wisconsin, where he spent three seasons, the last two of which were as coordinator (2011-12) with the first as defensive backs coach (2010). His 2011 defense ranked fourth nationally in fewest passing yards allowed (163.6 ypg), 13th in scoring defense (19.0 ppg) and 15th in total defense (316.4 ypg). In 2012, the UW defense again ranked 15th nationally in total defense (322.5), along with 17th in scoring defense (19.1 ppg), 18th in fewest passing yards allowed (193.6 ypg), 22nd in pass efficiency defense and 24th against the run (128.9 ypg).

Ash began his coaching career as a defensive graduate assistant at his alma mater, Drake, in 1997. He was promoted to defensive coordinator for the next two seasons before moving on to Iowa State in 2000. Ash spent eight seasons over two different stints in Ames, including the 2009 season, during which Herman was the offensive coordinator. Ash progressed from graduate assistant with the Cyclones in 2000-01 to defensive backs coach for a total of six seasons, adding the title of recruiting coordinator for 2006 and '09.

Ash spent the 2007 and 2008 seasons at San Diego State as the defensive backs coach and recruiting coordinator under head coach and College Football Hall of Fame inductee Chuck Long.

A native of Ottumwa, Iowa, Ash earned his undergraduate degree from Drake in 1996, and was a two-time letterwinner at defensive back for the Bulldogs. He is one of three from that era of Drake football who became an FBS head coach, joining Dave Doeren (NC State) and Charlie Partridge (formerly with Florida Atlantic). Ash completed his master's degree in education from Iowa State in 2005.

Ash and his wife, Doreen, are the parents of a son, Brady and daughter, Alexis. Ash also has a son, Tanner, and a daughter, Jacey.

JAY BOULWARE

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH FOR SPECIAL TEAMS
TIGHT ENDS

A Longhorn Letterman, former UT graduate assistant and veteran college coach with extensive experience coaching and coordinating special teams in the Big 12, SEC and Pac 12, Jay Boulware was named associate head coach for special teams and tight ends coach at Texas on Jan. 18, 2020.

In his 22 years as a full-time assistant coach, Boulware has been a part of 15 teams that advanced to bowl games, including 10 in the last 11 years as well as College Football Playoff berths with Oklahoma in four of the past five seasons.

An all-state selection at Nimitz High School in Irving who played along both the offensive and defensive lines, Boulware joined the Longhorns as an offensive lineman in 1991. After redshirting his first year and seeing action as a reserve in 1992, he was contending for a starting position before the 1993 season, but was forced to end his career after being diagnosed with a cardiac arrhythmia. He went on to begin his coaching career at Texas, first as a student coach (1994-95) and then as a graduate assistant (1996). He helped UT win at least a share of three conference championships and a bowl berth in all three of his seasons working with the staff. Texas tied for the Southwest Conference Championship in 1994, won the final SWC title outright in 1995 and knocked off No. 3 Nebraska to win the first-ever Big 12 Championship in 1996. Those teams advanced to the 1994 Sun Bowl, 1995 Sugar Bowl and 1997 Fiesta Bowl.

Boulware returns to Texas from Oklahoma, where he spent the last seven years, all as special teams coordinator, including the last five as running backs coach and the previous two as tight ends coach. In that time, Oklahoma's special teams produced 10 TDs, a safety and three returned two-point PATs under his direction.

Over the last five years, Boulware has guided six 1,000-yard rushers, and five of his running backs during that time have earned first or second-team All-Big 12 honors with three having been NFL Draft picks since 2017.

In 2019, the Oklahoma offense led the Big 12 and ranked 14th nationally in rushing yards (204.2 ypg), along with ranking fifth in the nation in yards per carry (5.95). Running back Kennedy Brooks earned second-team All-Big 12 honors, leading the team with 1,011 rushing yards and ranking ninth in the nation in yards per carry at 6.52. Brooks, Rhamondre Stevenson and Trey Sermon combined for 1,911 rushing yards and 16 rushing touchdowns.

The Sooners' special teams ranked in the top 40 nationally in kickoff return defense (33rd/19.21 ypr) and net punting (31st/40.16 ypp). Placekicker Gabe Brkic did not miss a field goal (17-of-17) or an extra point (52-of-52), led the nation with a perfect field goal percentage and was a Lou Groza Award semifinalist.

Boulware presided over a 2018 running backs group that helped Oklahoma lead the nation in yards per carry (6.6). Brooks ranked third nationally with 8.9 yards per rush (minimum 9.0 carries per game) and was a USA Today Freshman All-American (1,056 rushing yards and 12 touchdowns), while Sermon ran for 947 yards and 13 TDs.

Kicker/punter Austin Seibert, who in 2018 was named Oklahoma's first-ever Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Year, finished his career as the all-time FBS scoring leader among kickers, as his 499 points set school and Big 12 records. He went on to be drafted in the fifth round by the Cleveland Browns.

Boulware oversaw one of the nation's top running back tandems in 2015 and 2016, resulting in Samaje Perine and Joe Mixon both declaring for the 2017 NFL Draft. Perine, Oklahoma's all-time rushing leader (4,122 yards), ran for 2,409 yards and 28 TDs after Boulware moved to running backs coach, while Mixon ran for 2,027 yards and 17 TDs his last two years. Mixon also caught 65 passes for 894 yards and nine TDs.

His 2015 punt unit led the nation by allowing just 1.09 yards per return (12 yards on 11 returns). Austin Seibert was a Ray Guy Award semifinalist.

Boulware served as tight ends coach at Oklahoma in 2013-14, helping former quarterback Blake Bell become a fourth-round draft pick as a tight end, a position he had never played prior to 2014. Fullbacks Trey Millard and Aaron Ripkowski were eventual NFL Draft picks.

On special teams, he mentored RB Alex Ross, who finished third in the nation on kickoff return yards (31.2 average) in 2014 and tied for second among FBS players with two kickoff return touchdowns. Kicker Michael Hunnicutt concluded his career under Boulware as the all-time leading scorer in Oklahoma history at that time with 450 points, which ranked sixth in FBS history. Hunnicutt made a Big 12-record 75 career field goals, set an Oklahoma single-season record with 24 made FGs in 2013 and was named a Lou Groza Award semifinalist.

Boulware spent the previous four seasons (2009-12) at Auburn as tight ends coach and special teams coordinator, where he was part of head coach and former Texas defensive coordinator Gene Chizik's staff that inherited a team coming off a 5-7 record in 2008. Two seasons later, the Tigers posted a 14-0 record capped by a 22-19 win over Oregon in the BCS Championship Game. Boulware's star pupil at tight end while at Auburn was Philip Lutzenkirchen, a second-team All-SEC selection in 2011 who set the school's record for career touchdown receptions for a tight end with 14.

Boulware's punt coverage unit ranked second in the nation in 2012, allowing just four punt return yards on 70 punts. The Tigers also ranked third in the country in kickoff coverage that year, allowing 16.6 yards per return. Under Boulware's direction in 2011, Auburn led the SEC in kickoff return yards (1,264), kick return touchdowns (two), kickoff coverage (546 yards) and fewest punts returned (10).

Kicker Wes Byrum set an Auburn single-season record with 123 points in 2010, becoming the school's all-time leading scorer. Auburn led the SEC and ranked ninth in the nation in punt coverage, allowing 4.6 yards per return that year, while also ranking 16th in the nation in kickoff coverage, permitting 19.7 yards per return.

Boulware spent two seasons (2007-08) at Iowa State. The Cyclones ranked 12th nationally in kickoff returns in 2008 behind second-team freshman All-America kick returner Leonard Johnson. Johnson set an NCAA FBS record with 319 kickoff return yards against Oklahoma State. ISU was also second in the Big 12 Conference in punting that year.

In Boulware's first ISU season, newcomer tailbacks Alexander Robinson and J.J. Bass both posted a pair of 100-yard games. It marked the first time two different Cyclone running backs topped the century barrier twice in a single season since 2002.

Prior to Iowa State, Boulware worked for two seasons as tight ends coach/co-special teams coordinator at Utah (2005-06), and during the summer of 2004, he was part of the NFL Minority Coaching Fellowship Program with the San Francisco 49ers. While at Utah, his special teams units were among the Mountain West Conference leaders, including a Utah kickoff return unit that led the MWC in 2006. His time at Utah was preceded by a one-year stint as running backs coach at Stanford in 2004.

Boulware spent three seasons at Arizona as tight ends coach (2001), running backs coach (2002) and running backs coach/special teams coordinator (2003). During his tenure with the Wildcats he mentored running back Mike Bell who finished his collegiate career with 3,163 rushing yards, the third-highest total in school history.

Boulware received his initial full-time coaching assignment at Northern Illinois, where he coached tight ends (1997) and served as co-offensive line coach (1998-2000). One of his star pupils with the Huskies was Ryan Diem, who spent 11 seasons as an offensive lineman with the Indianapolis Colts.

Born in Oklahoma City, Boulware moved to Houston as a second grader and then to Irving five years later. He and his wife, Chantay, have one daughter, Jordin.

ANDRE COLEMAN

ASSISTANT COACH
WIDE RECEIVERS

Andre Coleman, who spent the majority of the 2019 season as an analyst at Texas and is a former offensive coordinator and receivers coach at Kansas State, was promoted from interim wide receivers coach to the full-time position on Jan. 13, 2020.

Coleman was named an interim coach on Dec. 1 and directed the receivers unit throughout bowl practices and during Texas' victory over No. 11 Utah in the 2019 Alamo Bowl. In that game, the receivers caught nine passes for 165 yards and two touchdowns.

Before joining the Texas staff as an analyst in February, Coleman spent the previous six years at his alma mater Kansas State coaching wide receivers, including two as pass game coordinator (2016-17) and one as offensive coordinator (2018). Coleman was instrumental in the growth of the Kansas State offense and return game under head coach Bill Snyder and coached a position group that recorded the most receptions and yards ever by a Snyder-coached team in 2013 before shattering both those marks in 2014 with 230 receptions for 3,097 yards.

In 2018, the Wildcats' rushing game flourished, especially in the last seven weeks of the season when it averaged 208.6 yards per game and totaled 16 touchdowns on the ground. Running back Alex Barnes led the Big 12 in rushing yards (1,355) and rushing yards per game (112.9 ypg) and earned second-team all-conference honors, while OL Dalton Risner was named Big 12 co-Offensive Lineman of the Year and collected the last of his three-straight first-team All-Big 12 selections.

One of Coleman's top pupils, wide receiver Byron Pringle, finished his two-year career in 2017 after becoming the 30th Wildcat to top 1,000 career receiving yards. He set the school record for single-season yards per catch (24.13) – a mark that ranked third nationally – while his career mark of 19.64 yards per catch ranks second in Kansas State history. Coleman also helped guide Pringle in returns as he finished sixth in school history in career kickoff return yards (1,076) and average (27.6), while he returned two for touchdowns to tie for fourth in Kansas State history. Pringle earned honorable mention All-Big 12 honors as a kick returner and currently plays for the Kansas City Chiefs.

A former NFL kick returner who returned a kickoff for a touchdown in Super Bowl XXIX, Coleman helped develop D.J. Reed in the return game en route to 2017 second-team All-America honors from the Walter Camp Football Foundation, while he earned first-team All-Big 12 honors and votes for Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Year. Coleman helped guide Reed to second in the national rankings in both kickoff return average (34.2 ypr) and punt return average (14.9 ypr), while he returned each for a touchdown during the season.

Coleman also recruited and helped develop wide receiver Isaiah Zuber, who placed in the top five in school history in freshman (24; 5th), sophomore (51; 3rd) and junior (52; 4th) catches during his first three years at Kansas State. Zuber led the Wildcats in catches in both 2017 and 2018, and had already moved into a tie for eighth on the school's career receptions list with 127 and its receiving touchdowns list with 11 by the end of the 2018 season. In those same years from 2016-18, wide receiver Dalton Schoen's average of 18.0 yards per reception from his freshman to his junior year ranked fourth on the school's career list, leading to two of the top four career averages having been under Coleman at that time.

The 2014 season proved to be the best year for Wildcat wide receivers in school history as the one-two punch of All-American Tyler Lockett and All-Big 12 performer Curry Sexton became the first duo in school history to go over 1,000 yards in the same season and were the top receiving duo in the nation during that season. Lockett, a semifinalist for the Biletnikoff Award, finished third in the country and tops in the Big 12 with 1,515 receiving yards to go along with 11 touchdowns, another top mark in the league. Lockett also hauled in the second-most receptions in a season in school history with 106.

Lockett left Kansas State as the all-time leader in career receptions (249), yards (3,710) and touchdowns (29), just three of the 17 school records he set in his four-year career. Lockett, who went on to become an NFL Pro Bowler and finalist for NFL Rookie of the Year in his first season with the Seattle Seahawks, also earned Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Year honors for a second-straight season and was a consensus All-American as a returner under Coleman. Lockett also excelled in punt return duties as a senior by leading the nation with a 19.1-yard average, while returning two for touchdowns.

The 2013 group was paced by Lockett, who ranked 11th nationally with 105.2 receiving yards per game and 19th in the NCAA with 11 touchdown receptions en route to All-America honors. Lockett, who was a candidate for the Biletnikoff Award, set the school's single-game receiving yardage record at Texas (237) before smashing his own mark later in the season against Oklahoma (278). He also tied the single-game school record with three receiving touchdowns on three occasions. The 2013 Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Year, Lockett set the school's single-game all-purpose yardage record with 440 against Oklahoma, a mark that ranked as the fifth-most in FBS history.

Coleman was also instrumental in helping coach a third-straight Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Year honoree in kick returner Morgan Burns, who went on to earn first-team All-America honors in 2015. The latest in a long line of dynamic kick returners, Burns ranked first in the nation with four kickoff return touchdowns and third with a 33.5-yard average.

Prior to returning to Kansas State, Coleman spent the previous three seasons at Youngstown State. In 2011 and 2012, Coleman worked with no seniors and only one junior as he coached multiple freshmen and sophomores who were called into action early in their careers to the tune of 109 total receptions by underclassmen. He helped YSU post a 7-4 record, including a 31-17 victory at Pittsburgh, which served as the school's first-ever victory over a BCS opponent.

During his first season as the receivers coach in 2011, Coleman guided a group that caught 22 of a school-record 27 touchdown passes, while the Penguins' 227.5 passing yards per game were the second-most in school history and the highest since 1972. Christian Bryan set school freshman records in receptions (46) and yards (722) under Coleman's watch, while his yardage total was the most by a freshman at the FCS level that season. Coaching the tight ends in his first season on the staff in 2010, Coleman's group hauled in 17 receptions and two touchdowns, helping YSU's offense set a then-school record at 412.0 yards per game.

A 1993 All-America and All-Big Eight performer, Coleman left his mark at Kansas State during his four years (1990-93) by accumulating 3,443 all-purpose yards, including 1,556 receiving yards and 12 touchdowns on 95 receptions and 1,458 kickoff-return yards on 60 returns. He still sits in Kansas State's top 10 in 12 offensive or return categories, including ranking first in both single-game all-purpose yards per play (27.0 vs. Missouri in 1993) and career all-purpose yards per play (18.2), third in career kickoff return attempts and a fourth in kickoff return yards.

The Hermitage, Pennsylvania, product was drafted in the third round of the 1994 NFL Draft by San Diego and put together a solid five-year professional career playing for the Chargers, Seattle Seahawks and Pittsburgh Steelers. A two-time Pro Bowler and 1994 NFL All-Rookie squad honoree, Coleman helped the Chargers win the 1994 AFC Championship and earn a trip to Super Bowl XXIX. In that game, he established eight Super Bowl records at the time, including a then-record 98-yard kickoff return touchdown. He became the first Wildcat football player to score a touchdown in a Super Bowl.

Coleman completed his degree in social sciences from Kansas State in the summer of 2011. He has three daughters – Shyla, Kyla and Brielle.t

STAN DRAYTON

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH
RUN GAME COORDINATOR/RUNNING BACKS

Stan Drayton, who has had both collegiate national championship and NFL experience during his 25-year career, enters his fourth season as associate head coach and run game coordinator at Texas. Drayton is responsible for coaching the running backs unit.

In year three at UT, Drayton was influential in the growth of sophomore Keaontay Ingram, who totaled 1,095 yards from scrimmage (853 rush/242 rec). Ingram averaged 5.9 yards per carry - nearly a full yard better than his 2018 total (5.0 ypc). He also rushed for more than 100 yards on four occassions, the most by a Longhorn since Doak Walker Award winner D'Onta Foreman in 2016.

Drayton also oversaw true freshman Roschon Johnson's seamless transition from quarterback to running back, a move that took place just one week prior to the season opener versus Louisiana Tech. Under Drayton's eye, Johnson racked up 807 all-purpose yards (649 rush/158 rec) on 146 touches (123 rush/23 rec). He was the ninth true freshman in school history to rush for at least 600 yards. Johnson posted two 100-yard games (121 at WVU, 105 vs. TTU) and was twice named the Big 12 Newcomer of the Week in 2019.

In his second season, Drayton mentored two newcomers in graduate transfer Tre Watson and true freshman Keaontay Ingram. The duo combined for 1,494 rushing yards and six touchdowns on the ground, while adding 313 yards receiving with five more touchdowns.

Drayton led a young room of running backs during the 2017 season, as the Longhorns top two backs in 2017 were both true freshmen in Daniel Young and Toneil Carter. Young started the final five games of the season, and rushed for 373 yards and three scores. He also caught 13 passes for 153 yards and a touchdown. Carter started two games in 2017 and rushed for 252 yards and three touchdowns. He caught six passes for 31 yards and a score. True sophomore Kyle Porter finished fourth on the team in rushing with 261 yards and four touchdowns.

Drayton previously worked on the same staff as Herman for three seasons at Ohio State from 2012-14 and has been part of national championships at both Florida and Ohio State as running backs coach under Urban Meyer. He spent the last two years (2015-16) with the Chicago Bears where he tutored a rookie to a successful season in both of those years.

In 2016 under Drayton, Jordan Howard, a fifth-round pick out of Indiana, set the Bears single-season rookie rushing record with 1,313 yards, breaking the previous mark held by Matt Forte despite only having 12 carries in the team's first three games. It was also the second-best rushing total of any player in the NFL regular season, trailing only Ezekiel Elliott (1,631), who was coached by Drayton at Ohio State. Another of Drayton's Buckeye protégés, Carlos Hyde finished 14th in the league with 988 rushing yards. After working with Drayton, Elliott went on to be the fourth overall pick of the 2016 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys, while Hyde was a second-round selection by the San Francisco 49ers in 2014.

In 2015, the Bears rushing offense was 11th in the NFL averaging 115.9 yards per game, a 16-spot improvement from their ranking of 27th (90.1 ypg) a year prior to his arrival. Drayton helped running back Jeremy Langford, a fourth-round draft pick, finish fifth among all NFL rookies with seven touchdowns and ninth among rookies with 816 yards from scrimmage. Langford joined Pro Football Hall of Famers Walter Payton and Gale Sayers as the only Bears rookies since at least 1960 with a rushing touchdown in four-straight contests and, along with Payton and Sayers, the only rookies in franchise history to have 100 receiving yards, one rushing touchdown and one receiving touchdown in a single game.
Drayton spent the previous four seasons (2011-14) at Ohio State, including the last two as assistant head coach on offense and running backs coach. He worked three years with the Buckeye running backs after working with the wide receivers in 2011. In 2014, Drayton helped the Buckeyes win the National Championship as Elliott, who was a sophomore, finished third in the nation and second in single-season school history with 1,878 rushing yards.

Under Drayton's guidance, Elliott capped the 2014 season with three-straight 200-yard rushing games (tied for the most in single-season school history with Eddie George, 1995). Drayton's work with Elliott helped him to be named College Football Playoff National Championship Offensive MVP with 246 rushing yards (tied for third most in single-game school history) and four touchdowns on 36 carries against Oregon. Elliott was also named Offensive MVP of the Sugar Bowl (230 rushing yards and two touchdowns on 20 carries) versus Alabama.

In 2013, Drayton helped senior running back Carlos Hyde finish eighth in the nation with an average of 126.8 rushing yards per game (1,521 yards and 15 touchdowns on 208 carries in 12 contests). Hyde was named the Big Ten's Ameche-Dayne Running Back of the Year as his 1,521 rushing yards were eighth most in school history and his 7.3 yards per carry was the highest in single-season average in school history. Hyde's 246 yards at Illinois that season are tied for third most in single-game school history.

In his first season as Ohio State's running backs coach in 2012, Drayton guided the Buckeyes running backs to 1,536 yards, 21 touchdowns and an average of 5.44 yards per carry during the team's 12-0 campaign. He came to Ohio State in 2011 as the team's wide receivers coach.

Prior to his time at Ohio State, Drayton spent the 2010 season as the running backs coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Florida, his second stint at the school after serving as the Gators running backs coach from 2005-07. In 2006, Florida won the BCS National Championship as the Gators averaged 160 rushing yards per game. That season, running backs DeShawn Wynn and Kestahn Moore combined for 981 yards and an average of 5.0 yards per carry while losing only two fumbles. Wynn scored his 25th career rushing touchdown, which was the second-most in school history, against Ohio State in the title game. He went on to become a seventh-round draft pick by the Green Bay Packers in 2007.

During his coaching career, Drayton has also served as running backs coach at Syracuse (2009), Tennessee (2008), Mississippi State (2004), Bowling Green (2000, also serving as special teams coach), Villanova (1996-00), Pennsylvania (1995, assistant running backs/director of football operations) and his alma mater Allegheny (Pa.) College (1993). He has also served as a graduate assistant at Eastern Michigan (1994) and offensive quality control coach/special teams of the Green Bay Packers (2001-03).

At Mississippi State, Drayton helped guide Jerious Norwood to a 1,000-yard rushing season in 2004 before he went on be chosen in the third round of the 2006 draft by the Atlanta Falcons. Another prominent pupil was Villanova two-time All-American Brian Westbrook, who became the first collegiate player on any level to record more than 1,000 yards both rushing and receiving in the same season. He was the winner of the 2001 Walter Payton Award as the Offensive Player of the Year in NCAA Division I-AA and was a third-round pick by the Philadelphia Eagles in the 2002 draft.

A three-time first-team All-America selection as a running back at Allegheny, Drayton is second in the school's record book for rushing (3,272 yards), rushing touchdowns (54) and scoring (336 points) and was a part of the 1990 Division III national championship team. He was also a two-time All-American in track, competing in the 100 and 200 meter dashes. A 1993 graduate with a bachelor's degree in English, Drayton was inducted into the Allegheny College Athletic Hall of Fame in 2005.

A native of Cleveland, Ohio, he and his wife Monique, have two daughters, Amari and Anaya.

COACHING STAFF

OSCAR GILES

ASSISTANT COACH
DEFENSIVE LINE

Former Longhorn standout Oscar Giles enters his fourth year as defensive line coach under Tom Herman at Texas in 2020. A UT defensive end (1987-90), Giles previously spent a total of 10 seasons at Texas as both defensive ends coach (2005-13) and a graduate assistant (1999) before returning to the Forty Acres prior to the 2017 season.

Giles mentored the Big 12 Conference Defensive Lineman of the Year in 2018 in Charles Omenihu, who totaled 18 TFL and 9.5 sacks. It was the second straight season that Giles had coached the conference's Defensive Lineman of the Year.

Giles' group was one of the best in the Big 12, and nation, in 2017. Big 12 Conference Defensive Lineman of the Year, Poona Ford, anchored the line. The defensive line was stout for the Longhorns all season, helping keep seven of 13 opponents under 100 yards rushing. In all, UT features the nation's eighth-best rushing defense at 106.8 yards per game.

In 2016 at Houston, Giles helped UofH to a 9-3 record in the regular season, including wins over No. 3 Oklahoma and No. 3 Louisville. UH featured the nation's second-ranked rush defense (99.7 ypg) in addition to the nation's 14th-best defense in total yards allowed (325.0 ypg). They also ranked as one of the nation's best in bringing pressure, ranking in the top 20 in sacks (12th) and tackles for loss (18th).

Under Giles, freshman DT Ed Oliver, an All-American, ranked 10th nationally with 19.5 tackles for loss. He also added seven quarterback hurries and led all defensive linemen nationally with his nine pass breakups.

The 2015 season at Houston saw DT B.J. Singleton receive postseason honors from the AAC as Giles' line set the tone for the nation's No. 8 rushing defense, allowing just 108.9 yards per game. Houston went to its first New Year's Bowl in 30 years, registered a win over No. 9 Florida State in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl, posted its second 13-win season in program history and its 11th conference championship to finish ranked No. 8 in both major polls.

In Giles' lone season at Louisiana Tech, he helped to develop a Bulldog defense that led the nation in turnovers gained with 42 and led Louisiana Tech to at least nine wins for just the sixth time in school history, including a win over Illinois in the Heart of Dallas Bowl. The Bulldogs ranked second nationally with 114 tackles for loss and led Conference USA in rushing defense. Defensive end Houston Bates finished the year leading C-USA with 10 sacks, ranking 16th nationally. Bates received All-Conference USA honors, while fellow end Deldrick Canty was named to the league's All-Freshman Team.

During his time as defensive ends coach at Texas from 2005-13, Giles helped develop two Ted Hendricks Award winners in Jackson Jeffcoat (2013) and Brian Orakpo (2008). In 2013, Jeffcoat ranked first in the Big 12 and tied for third in the FBS with 13 sacks, while Cedric Reed tallied 10, making UT one of two teams in the nation to have two players with 10 or more. Jeffcoat also earned first-team All-America honors and was named Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year, while Reed was tabbed first-team All-Big 12. Both went on to careers in the NFL.

In 2012, Alex Okafor was a first-team All-Big 12 pick for the second-straight year and earned the CFPA's Elite Defensive Lineman Trophy, while Jeffcoat was an honorable mention all-league pick despite missing the final six regular season games with an injury. Okafor led the Big 12 in sacks before being drafted in the fourth round of the 2013 NFL Draft by Arizona.

In 2011, Okafor and Jeffcoat started all 13 games at defensive end with each ranking in the top 10 in the Big 12 in sacks and tackles for loss. Okafor was an AFCA All-American and unanimous first-team All-Big 12 selection after recording a team-high seven sacks to go with 14 TFL and 17 pressures. Jeffcoat was a second-team All-Big 12 choice and led the team with 21 TFL and eight sacks, while adding nine pressures.

In 2010, senior DE Sam Acho won the William V. Campbell Trophy, the Wuerffel Trophy and the ARA Sportsmanship Award, along with becoming UT's seventh two-time Academic All-American, a second-team All-America selection by the WCFF, a member of the AFCA Good Works team and a Lott Trophy finalist, while recording 59 tackles, 17 TFL, nine sacks, 18 pressures, five forced fumbles and five fumble recoveries. His five fumble recoveries led the nation and tied the UT single-season record. Acho was chosen in the fourth round of the 2011 Draft by the Arizona Cardinals.

Giles helped mold senior DE/LB Sergio Kindle into the first player in college football history to be a finalist for both the Hendricks Award (nation's top DE) and Butkus Award (nation's top LB) in 2009, as he had 22 TFL and 36 pressures en route to first-team All-America honors. Junior Sam Acho led the team with 10 sacks and was named a semifinalist for the Lott Trophy.

Under Giles' guidance, the 2008 season saw Brian Orakpo, an eventual first round pick of the Washington Redskins, become Texas' 19th unanimous All-American and the winner of the Nagurski Trophy (nation's top defensive player), Lombardi Award (nation's top lineman) and Hendricks Award. He was also the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year and a finalist for the Lott Trophy. Orakpo helped the Texas defense lead the nation in sacks, finishing the season with 11.5 sacks for minus-100 yards, 19 TFL, 30 pressures and four forced fumbles. Giles also helped senior Henry Melton make a successful transition from RB to a starting role at DE where he registered four sacks and 10 TFL and went on to be drafted by the Chicago Bears in the fourth round.

In 2007, Giles led a group that helped Texas rank sixth in the nation against the run (93.4 ypg), while the 2006 season saw Giles' defensive ends produce Texas' first 10-sack season since 1998. Tim Crowder, who earned second-team All-America honors, was a finalist for the Hendricks Award and led the team with 10.5 sacks. Brian Robison also pitched in with 5.5 sacks and 15 pressures on his way to second-team All-Big 12 honors. Orakpo added 4.5 sacks and 11 pressures.

In his first season with Texas, Giles aided in the Longhorns No. 10 ranking in total defense (302.9 ypg) and a No. 8 ranking in scoring defense (16.4 ppg). Three of the defensive ends earned conference honors and UT won the Rose Bowl and national championship.

Giles spent the previous two seasons as an assistant coach at the University of Houston, where he worked with the Cougars' defensive line. He joined the Houston staff prior to the 2003 season after spending three seasons at SMU.

Giles was a graduate assistant at Texas in 1999, after a year coaching the defensive line and serving as a strength and conditioning coach at Southwest Texas State (now Texas State) in 1998.

A four-year letterwinner at Texas (1987-90), Giles played defensive end and linebacker for the Atlanta Falcons and went on to play in the Canadian Football League from 1994-97 and helped the Toronto Argonauts win the Grey Cup Championship in 1996.

A three-year starter at UT, Giles earned AP All-SWC honors as a senior when he helped the Longhorns to the 1990 SWC Championship and an appearance in the 1991 Cotton Bowl. He also helped the 1987 Longhorns to a No. 19 final ranking and a victory in the Bluebonnet Bowl. He led Texas in sacks in 1988 (6.5) and 1989 (7.0) and finished with 22 in his career (T-No. 10 on the UT all-time list). A semifinalist for the Outland Trophy and two-time GTE Academic All-SWC selection, his nine career fumble recoveries are tied for second on the UT all-time chart.

A native of Palacios, Texas, Giles earned his Bachelor of Science degree in speech communications from Texas in 1991. Giles and his wife, Kim, have two daughters, Olivia and Kourtney.

COACHING STAFF

MARK HAGEN

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH FOR DEFENSE
DEFENSIVE LINE

A veteran coach with extensive experience in the Big Ten, along with the SEC and in the state of Texas, Mark Hagen was hired as associate head coach for defense and defensive line coach at Texas on Feb. 7, 2020.

In all, Hagen has 28 years of coaching experience, 24 of which have been in either the Big Ten or SEC, and he has been a part of 13 bowl games as a coach or staff member. He has also coached 25 players who have moved on to the NFL, along with twice being recognized by Rivals.com as one of the top recruiters in the country.

Hagen comes to Texas after spending the last four years at his alma mater Indiana, most recently in the role of co-defensive coordinator and defensive line coach for two seasons (2018-19). Prior to that, he was assistant defensive coordinator, while also coaching the defensive line for two seasons (2016-17). It was his third professional stint with the Hoosiers after serving as special teams coordinator and defensive tackles coach in 2011 and then adding recruiting coordinator to his title in 2012. After playing for IU, he started his career there as a graduate assistant in 1992 and administrative assistant from 1993-95.

Last season, the Hoosiers ranked in the upper half of college football in total defense (36th/352.2 ypg), scoring defense (45th/24.4 ppg), rushing defense (43rd/138.5 ypg), passing defense (46th/213.7 ypg) and third-down defense (34th/35.2%), while registering three defensive touchdowns. Indiana recorded at least one takeaway in 29 of the last 31 games, had 17 overall in 2019 (10 fumbles, seven interceptions) and scored 61 points off of the 17 takeaways.

Junior DT Jerome Johnson tied for the team lead in sacks with senior DE Allen Stallings with five, while Johnson was also fifth on the team in tackles (43) and second in tackles for loss (7.5). Sophomore Demarcus Elliott started at the other defensive tackle position and was named honorable mention All-Big Ten, while junior Michael Ziemba was third on the team with 6.5 tackles for loss, just ahead of Stallings who posted 6.0. Indiana finished with an 8-5 record, capped by an appearance in the TaxSlayer Gator Bowl.

In 2018, linemen held four of the top five spots on the team in sacks and three of the top five in tackles for loss, while seven recorded sacks and 10 collected tackles for loss. Johnson led the team with 3.5 sacks, while ranking third in tackles for loss with 5.5, just behind Stallings, who was second with 6.0. The Hoosiers ranked 11th in the nation and second in the Big Ten in turnovers forced with 26, including ranking fifth nationally in fumble recoveries with 13.

Indiana was one of three Big Ten teams to rank in the league's top five in sacks and tackles for loss per game in both 2016 and 2017. In 2017, IU tied for 11th nationally with 3.0 sacks per game and was 21st (third in the Big Ten) with 7.3 tackles for loss. The Hoosiers defense also ranked 27th nationally in total defense (340.1 ypg), 17th in passing defense (179.7 ypg) and eighth in third-down defense (29.9%). The defensive line accounted for 24.5 of the team's 36 sacks as senior Robert McCray III tied for the team lead with 6.0, led the team with six pressures and earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors. McCray went on to sign as a free agent with the Kansas City Chiefs and spent two seasons in the NFL, first with the Chiefs and then the Cleveland Browns.

In 2016, the Hoosiers earned a trip to the Foster Farms Bowl after ranking 31st in the country with 2.5 sacks per game and 19th (third in the Big Ten) with 7.5 TFLs. They also ranked in the top 25 in both pass efficiency defense (24/117.27) and third-down defense (15/32.9%). Defensive tackle Ralph Green III earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors after posting 8.5 tackles for loss, while Johnson claimed an honorable-mention spot on the BTN.com All-Freshman team.

The defense made significant improvements from the 2015 season, moving from ranking 120th in the nation in total defense (509.5 ypg) to 45th (380.1 ypg), 116th in scoring defense (37.6 ppg) to 57th (27.2 ppg), 126th in passing defense (313.8 ypg) to 53rd (219.7 ypg), and 95th in rushing defense (195.7 ypg) to 53rd (160.4 ypg).

In between stints at Indiana, Hagen spent three years at Texas A&M from 2013-15. After coaching the linebackers for the first two seasons, he moved to the defensive tackles for his third season. He also filled the role of defensive coordinator in the 2014 AutoZone Liberty Bowl victory over West Virginia.

Hagen oversaw the Purdue linebackers in 2006-07 and 2009-10, after he worked with the defensive tackles from 2000-05 and again in 2008. He served as special teams coordinator from 2003-08, and as assistant head coach under Joe Tiller from 2005-08. During his time at Purdue, the Boilermakers earned bowl berths seven times, including the 2001 Rose Bowl and the 2004 Capital One Bowl.

From 2000-04, the Boilermakers ranked third, third, fourth, third and second in the Big Ten in rushing defense. They were 46th in the nation in 2000, 34th in 2001, 23rd in 2002, 10th in 2003 and 14th in 2004.

At Purdue, Hagen mentored several players who went on to become NFL Draft picks, including Kawann Short (second round by Carolina in 2013), Ryan Kerrigan (16th overall by the Washington in 2011), Alex Magee (third round by Kansas City in 2009), Stanford Keglar (fourth round by Tennessee in 2008), Anthony Spencer (26th overall by Dallas in 2007), and Craig Terrill (sixth round by Seattle in 2004).

Hagen's first full-time coaching position came at Northern Illinois where he spent four seasons from 1996-99, overlapping with Texas associate head coach for special teams and tight ends coach Jay Boulware for three of those from 1997-99. At NIU, Hagen coached the defensive tackles and also managed camps and clinics.

A native of Carmel, Ind., Hagen was a four-year letterwinner (1987, '89-91), two-time, second-team All-Big Ten selection, three-time Academic All-Big Ten winner, 1992 Big Ten Medal of Honor recipient and a captain at linebacker.

He led the team in tackles three-straight years from 1989-91, and he was the team's Balfour Award recipient in 1991 for bringing distinction and honor to the university. He is tied for fifth in Hoosiers history with 336 career tackles. Hagen played in four bowl games, including the 1991 Copper Bowl, where he was named the bowl's Most Valuable Defensive Player. He graduated from Indiana with a bachelor's in marketing in 1991 and earned an master's in sport marketing and management in 1995.

Hagen and his wife, Denise, have four daughters – Abby, Emma, Ellie and Ava.

HERB HAND

CO-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR
OFFENSIVE LINE

Herb Hand, a veteran offensive line coach who has helped coordinate numerous dynamic offenses in his 28 years of coaching, enters his third season as co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Texas.

In 2019, both center Zach Shackelford and left tackle Samuel Cosmi earned All-Big 12 honors. After Hand's unit paved the way for Texas to rush for 231 yards against No. 11 Utah in the Valero Alamo Bowl, the Longhorns' offensive line received All-Bowl recognition from Sports Illustrated. Cosmi was recognized individually by the Associated Press and ESPN as an All-Bowl performer as his Alamo Bowl showing.

In 2018, all five starting offensive lineman garnered All-Big 12 honors, led by center Zach Shackelford's first-team recognition (AP) and second-team honors (coaches). Calvin Anderson, Elijah Rodriguez and Patrick Vahe were honorable mention, while right tackle Samuel Cosmi received votes as the Big 12 Offensive Freshman of the Year and was a freshman All-American.

Hand has worked with programs that produced six conference championships in addition to three division championships. Offenses Hand has coached on have produced all-time leading rushers at three different schools including West Virginia, Tulsa and Vanderbilt.

A three-time finalist for Offensive Line Coach of the Year by Football Scoop (2008, '16-17), Hand was also co-coordinator for an offense that led the nation in total offense for two consecutive years (2007-08) at Tulsa, one of which is the only offense to feature a 5,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher and three 1,000 yard receivers (2007). He has also coached five Freshman All-Americans.

Hand came to Austin from Auburn, where he served for two seasons as offensive line coach under Gus Malzahn, whom he was previously co-coordinator with at Tulsa.

While at Auburn, Hand's offensive line was named one of three finalists for the Joe Moore Award (nation's top offensive line) in 2017, and the unit was a semifinalist for the award in 2016. During that time, along with his time at Vanderbilt, he coached players who earned 11 SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week Awards.

In 2017, Auburn ranked in the Top 30 in the nation in total offense (26th/451.6 ypg), scoring offense (27th/33.9 ppg) and rushing offense (26th/218.3 ypg), while ranking sixth in completion percentage (.668) and 15th in third-down conversion percentage (.455).

The Tigers balanced offense was one of only five nationally to average at least 230 yards passing and 215 yards rushing per game, along with Louisville, Oklahoma, Ohio State and South Florida. Auburn's eight 40-point games during the season set a school single-season record.

Under Hand, RG Braden Smith earned All-America honors from all NCAA-recognized outlets including a first-team nod from the Associated Press, and a second-team selection from all others (WCFF, FWAA, AFCA and Sporting News). Smith also earned the SEC's Jacobs Blocking Trophy, as the top blocker in the conference, along with being named first-team All-SEC by both the league's coaches and the Associated Press.

Along with Smith, LT Austin Golson was tabbed third-team All-SEC by Phil Steele. The line paved the way for RB Kerryon Johnson to rank 15th nationally in rushing yards per game (115.9) and ninth in rushing TDs (18), while being named SEC Offensive Player of the Year and second-team All-America.

In 2016, Auburn led the SEC and was sixth nationally in rushing with 271.3 yards per game. Both the scoring offense and total offense ranked in the Top 50 in the nation.

Two offensive linemen in Smith and LG Alex Kozan garnered second-team All-America honors and both were first-team All-SEC selections. Right tackle Robert Leff also took home All-SEC recognition. The offensive line was a semifinalist for the Joe Moore Award, and Hand was a finalist for Football Scoop's Offensive Line Coach of the Year award.

The line cleared the way for RB Kamryn Pettway to lead the SEC and rank 11th in the nation in rushing yards per game (122.4 ypg). Auburn finished 2016 with an 8-5 record and an appearance in the Allstate Sugar Bowl.

Hand went to Auburn after two seasons at Penn State as the run game coordinator and offensive line coach. In 2015, the unit blocked for Big Ten Freshman of the Year Saquon Barkley as he set Penn State's freshman rushing record with 1,076 yards. In 2014, Hand's young offensive line steadily improved and produced second-round NFL Draft pick Donovan Smith, who was chosen by Tampa Bay.

Hand coached the offensive line at Vanderbilt from 2010-13, adding run game coordinator duties in 2013. In 2013, VU's offensive line blocked for 34 rushing touchdowns, including a school-record 14 by running back Jerron Seymour. Hand helped Wesley Johnson earn All-SEC honors in 2012 and 2013, and Johnson earned SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week four times before being selected in the fifth round of the 2014 NFL Draft by the Pittsburgh Steelers. The Commodores' Ryan Seymour was selected by the Seattle Seahawks in the 2013 NFL Draft.

Hand's 2011-12 offensive lines were instrumental in Zac Stacy breaking the Vanderbilt season and career (3,143 yards) rushing records at that time.

Prior to Vanderbilt, Hand worked three years at Tulsa, serving as assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. Hand helped guide Tulsa to consecutive GMAC Bowl appearances behind one of the NCAA's most explosive spread offenses, while mentoring four Freshman All-Americans.

As Tulsa's co-offensive coordinator, Hand coached an offensive line that paved the way for the nation's top-ranked offense in 2007 and 2008. He was a finalist for national offensive line coach of the year in 2008.

In 2007, the offense became the only offense in NCAA history to ever feature a 5,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher and three 1,000-yard receivers. Quarterback Paul Smith passed for 5,065 yards, while RB Tarrion Adams rushed for 1,225 yards, and the trio of Brennan Marion (1,244), Trae Johnson (1,088) and Charles Clay (1,024) each topped 1,000 receiving yards. As a whole, the offense led the nation with 543.9 total yards per game, was third with 371.0 passing yards per game and was sixth with 41.1 points per game.

A year later, the offense averaged 569.9 total yards per game, while ranking in the top 10 in both rushing (fifth/268.0 ypg) and passing (ninth/301.9 ypg) offense. The scoring offense ranked second with 47.2 points per game.

Hand spent six successful years at West Virginia, serving as tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator. Hand helped the Mountaineers win three Big East Conference titles and go to five straight bowl games during the span, including a 38-35 victory over SEC champion Georgia in the 2006 Sugar Bowl. In 2006, West Virginia finished with an 11-2 record and had an offense that ranked second nationally in rushing, third in scoring, and fourth in total offense.

Prior to WVU, Hand served as an offensive graduate assistant at Clemson for two seasons (1999-2000), as the Tigers participated in the 1999 Peach Bowl and 2001 Gator Bowl.

Before that, he served as defensive coordinator and special teams coordinator at Concord College in West Virginia. He also was defensive coordinator at another WVIAC program, Glenville State, where he helped the Pioneers win three WVIAC Championships.

Hand earned his bachelor's degree in history from Hamilton College in 1990, where he was a three-year starter on the offensive line for the Continentals, serving as team captain and earning All-NESCAC honors in 1989. He earned a master's degree in business administration in 1993 from West Virginia Wesleyan while serving as a graduate assistant.

A native of Westmoreland, N.Y., Hand and his wife, Debbie, have three children, including two sons, Trey and Cade, and one daughter, Bailey.

COACHING STAFF

COLEMAN HUTZLER

CO-DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR
LINEBACKERS

Coleman Hutzler, a 13-year coaching veteran who has spent 10 seasons working with linebackers and seven years in the Southeastern Conference, was named co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Texas on Jan. 14, 2020.

Hutzler spent the last four seasons at South Carolina, joining the program in December 2015, where he coached the linebackers and coordinated the special teams units.

In 2019, Hutzler mentored a linebacker group that featured the team's top two tacklers. Senior T.J. Brunson, who was named one of five permanent team captains following the season, was chosen by his teammates for the Leadership Award for defense. He finished second on the team with 77 tackles, including 6.0 tackles for loss, and had one interception and five pass breakups en route to being selected for the NFLPA Collegiate Bowl. Sophomore Ernest Jones earned a starting spot at the beginning of the season and came on to rank fourth in the SEC with 8.1 tackles per game. He led the team with 97 total tackles, including 5.5 tackles for loss, and recorded two interceptions, five pass breakups and one forced fumble.

Hutzler's special teams units ranked in the top 20 nationally in two categories, including rating 10th in net punting (41.96 ypp) and 16th in punt return average (13.27 ypr). For the second straight year, punter Joseph Charlton set a school record in punting average, ranking second in the nation at 47.7 yards per punt. That was almost three yards better than his then-school record of 44.8 ypp in 2018 when he earned second-team All-SEC honors.

Placekicker Parker White also continued to improve, posting the third-best field goal percentage in the SEC at 81.8 percent after connecting on 81.2 percent in 2018, which was a significant increase from a 56.0-percent success rate in 2017. Also in 2018, Deebo Samuel returned his school-record fourth career kickoff for a touchdown, tying the SEC mark, and was named first-team All-SEC as a return specialist. Defensively, the linebackers once again produced the team's top two tacklers in Brunson (106) and sophomore Sherrod Greene (73). Brunson also led the team with 10.5 tackles for loss, while adding four sacks.

In 2017, Hutzler was nominated for the Broyles Award, which goes to the nation's top assistant coach. Charlton logged another one of the school's top single-season punting averages at 43.5 yards per punt, while ranking among the nation's top 30. Samuel returned each of his two kickoffs for touchdowns in the season's first two games.

Defensively, linebackers Skai Moore and Brunson were the team's top two tacklers, logging over 180 stops between them. Moore, who led the team in tackles in all four of his seasons for the Gamecocks, earned first-team All-SEC accolades. As a whole, the defense ranked 25th in the nation in scoring defense (20.7 ppg) and in the top 40 in both pass efficiency defense (37th/119.09) and rushing defense (39th/141.1 ypg). South Carolina posted a 9-4 record capped by a win over Michigan in the Outback Bowl.

Under Hutzler's tutelage in 2016, the South Carolina kickoff return team led the SEC and ranked eighth in the nation, averaging 25.8 yards per return. A trio of players, Samuel, A.J. Turner and Rashad Fenton, all returned a kick at least 50 yards, with Samuel posting a 100-yard touchdown return. Placekicker Elliott Fry became the school's all-time leading scorer, while snapper Drew Williams was recognized as a fourth-team All-American.

Hutzler spent the 2015 season as the special teams coordinator and outside linebackers coach at Boston College. During his year in Chestnut Hill, Hutzler was part of a staff that produced the nation's stingiest defense, as the Eagles allowed just 254.3 yards per game and 24.1 percent of third down conversions and were second in rushing defense at 82.8 yards per contest. Linebacker Matt Milano was named third-team All-ACC. On special teams, freshman Michael Walker ranked in the top 10 in the nation in kick return average, while the Eagles were second in the nation in punt return defense, allowing just 1.66 yards per return. BC also blocked three punts on the year.

Previously, Hutzler logged two stints at Florida, first from 2010-11 as an assistant to the linebackers and special teams coordinator, then again for the 2014 season, handling special teams and outside linebackers.

As the Gators outside linebackers coach in 2014, Hutzler guided Dante Fowler, Jr. to a first-team All-SEC selection. Fowler went on to be selected third overall in the 2015 NFL Draft by Jacksonville. Florida also had the second-best punt return average in the SEC and the 17th-best unit in the nation. Punter Kyle Christy earned second-team All-SEC honors after averaging 44.3 yards per punt, the nation's 14th-best average.

Between his stints in Gainesville, Hutzler was the special teams coordinator and outside linebackers coach at New Mexico from 2012-13. He coached punter Ben Skaer to first-team All-Mountain West accolades and returner Carlos Wiggins to MWC Special Teams Player of the Year and a second-team All-America honors in 2013.

Wiggins returned three kickoffs for touchdowns, and the Lobos were first in the conference and 15th in the nation in kickoff returns. The Lobos improved from 112th nationally to 25th in net punting, and their punt-return defense improved to 19th from 106th.

Hutzler began his coaching career at the University of San Diego, working as a defensive assistant in 2006. He moved to Palo Alto to become a recruiting assistant at Stanford in 2007 and served as an assistant on the defensive side of the ball for the Cardinal in 2008 and 2009.

A native of Las Vegas, Hutzler played football at Middlebury College in Vermont, earning his degree in psychology. A linebacker from 2002-05, he was a team captain as a senior and left the program second in career tackles.

Hutzler and his wife, Cobey, have a son, Micah, and a daughter, Leila. Cobey is a former director of volleyball operations at Stanford and was the Florida Class 3A Coach of the Year in 2011 while working at P.K. Yonge High. She played volleyball at UNLV and Michigan and is the daughter of long time University of Hawai'i women's volleyball coach (1975-2017) Dave Shoji, who retired in 2017 with 1,202 victories (No. 2 in NCAA Division I history).

JAY VALAI

ASSISTANT COACH
CORNERBACKS

A Texas native and former all-conference defensive back who brings both collegiate and NFL coaching experience, Jay Valai (vuh-LYE) was named cornerbacks coach at Texas on Jan. 13, 2020.

A native of Euless, Texas, Valai served as cornerbacks coach last season at Rutgers where he was hired by Ash, who also coached Valai during his senior season of 2010 at Wisconsin when Ash was the defensive backs coach.

Valai went to Rutgers after spending the 2018 season with the Kansas City Chiefs, serving as defensive quality control and assistant defensive backs coach. He spent the 2016 and 2017 seasons at Georgia as defensive quality control coach, including the Bulldogs' trip to the National Championship.

Valai was a four-year letterwinner at Wisconsin, earning second-team All-Big Ten (coaches) honors in 2008 and 2009. He totaled 153 tackles, four forced fumbles and a pair of interceptions in 48 career games. He appeared in four bowl games with the Badgers, including winning the 2010 Big Ten Championship and advancing to the Rose Bowl that same season.

Following his playing career, Valai opened a sports-performance training facility. From 2011-16, Valai worked with professional athletes from the National Basketball Association (NBA) and National Football League (NFL), as well as high school student-athletes.

Valai lettered in football, basketball and track at Colleyville Heritage High School. As a senior in 2005, he was a PrepStar All-American, first-team All-District 5-5A selection and district special teams player of the year. A team captain that year, he was also named the team's co-defensive MVP and its special teams MVP.

Valai and his wife Courtney are the parents to two children – daughter, Jayla, and son, Jaxon.

MIKE YURCICH

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR QUARTERBACKS

Mike Yurcich, who has led some of the nation's most explosive offenses at Ohio State and Oklahoma State over the past seven seasons, was named offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Texas on December 29, 2019.

Yurcich (YER-sitch) has spent 21 years coaching at the collegiate level, including 14 as an offensive coordinator, and most recently served as passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Ohio State during the 2019 season. Prior to that, he spent six seasons as offensive coordinator at Oklahoma State from 2013-18.

This season, Yurcich helped the Buckeyes to a 13-1 record and a trip to the College Football Playoff, while molding sophomore QB Justin Fields into a finalist for the Heisman Trophy, the Walter Camp Football Foundation (WCFF) Player of the Year Award, and the Davey O'Brien Award.

The Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year, Fields was named second-team All-America by the WCFF, Associated Press, American Football Coaches Association and Football Writers Association of America. Fields ranks second in Ohio State single-season history with 40 passing touchdowns, which is third in the nation this year, while throwing just three interceptions for the nation's best touchdown to interception ratio. He was also third in school history with 3,273 passing yards, and he accounted for a total of 51 touchdowns, just three shy of Dwayne Haskins' Big Ten record of 54 set last season. Fields finished the season responsible for 306 points, which is third in the nation, while his passing efficiency rating of 181.40 is fifth.

Overall, Ohio State was third in the nation in scoring offense, setting a school single-season record with 46.9 points per game, and is fifth in total offense with 529.9 yards per game, which is second in school history. The 656 total points scored this year are the second-most in program history and 16 behind the 2014 team's single-season record when the offense was guided by Herman. The Buckeyes rank fifth in the nation in team passing efficiency with a rating of 180.51, while leading the nation in third-down conversions at 55.2 percent.

Prior to his time at Ohio State, Oklahoma State experienced one of its great offensive eras under Yurcich, with the program averaging 38.0 points per game and 478.3 yards per game throughout his six-year run, compiling a record of 52-24 with four 10-win seasons and four bowl game victories. That included two appearances in New Year's Six games – the 2016 Sugar Bowl and the 2014 Cotton Bowl. The Cowboys scored 40 or more points 35 times and put up 50 or more points 15 times.

In 2018, Oklahoma State's offense ranked in the top 15 nationally in scoring offense (13th, 38.4 ppg), total offense (10th, 500.2 ypg), passing offense (10th, 309.8 ypg) and total first downs (7th, 339). The Cowboys also ranked second in the Big 12 in rushing offense (190.3 ypg) and rushing touchdowns (30). Leading the way was walk-on quarterback Taylor Cornelius, who Yurcich developed into a top-10 ranked player nationally in passing yards (4th, 3,978), passing yards per game (6th, 306.0 ypg), passing touchdowns (8th, 32), total offense (6th, 337.3 ypg), points responsible for (5th, 252) and points responsible for per game (6th, 19.4 ppg).

The 2017 Oklahoma State offense was arguably the best in school history, featuring a 4,000-yard passer in Mason Rudolph, two 1,000-yard receivers in James Washington and Marcell Ateman and a 1,000-yard rusher in Justice Hill. That group led the Cowboys to a 10-3 season and a No. 14 final national ranking, capped by a win over Virginia Tech in the Camping World Bowl.

The Cowboy offense led the nation in passing yards (389.2 ypg), was second in total offense (568.9 ypg) and fourth in scoring (45.0 ppg). Rudolph was the winner of the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award as college football's best senior quarterback, and Washington won the Biletnikoff Award as the nation's outstanding receiver. Operating in Yurcich's offense for his entire college career, Washington finished as Oklahoma State's all-time leading receiver with 4,472 career yards, a mark that ranked second in Big 12 history.

The offense set single-season school records for total offense, total offense yards per game, yards per play, passing yards, pass efficiency, passing yards per attempt, passing yards per game and first downs, among numerous other records. It reached the 50-point mark in six games and eclipsed 500 yards of offense nine times, including a school-record 747 yards against Baylor.

In 2016, Oklahoma State was one of only two Power Five conference teams to produce a 4,000-yard passer (Rudolph), a 1,000-yard rusher (Hill) and a 1,000-yard receiver (Washington). The offense ranked in the top 20 in the nation in total offense (14th, 494.8 ypg), scoring offense (17th, 38.6 ppg), passing offense (9th, 323.9 ypg) and passing efficiency (158.37). The Cowboys posted a 10-3 record, a No. 11 final national ranking and defeated Colorado in the Valero Alamo Bowl.

Yurcich coordinated a two-quarterback system in 2015 that was a central reason for Oklahoma State finishing 10-3 with a top-20 ranking and earning a berth into the Sugar Bowl. Rudolph ranked 17th nationally in passing yards (3,770) and seventh nationally in yards per completion (14.3 ypc). J.W. Walsh was responsible for 156 points despite having only 162 total offense attempts (0.92 points responsible for per total offense attempt). Rudolph and Walsh combined to throw 34 touchdown passes. As a whole, the offense ranked 14th in the nation in scoring (39.5 ppg), 22nd in total offense (480.0 ypg) and seventh in passing (353.2 ypg).

In 2014, Yurcich oversaw an offense that produced Big 12 Offensive Newcomer of the Year Tyreek Hill and ranked in the top 13th nationally in red zone offense (.905). In his first season in Stillwater in 2013, the offense ranked 14th nationally in scoring (39.1 ppg) and 29th in passing offense (277.2 ypg). The Cowboys finished with a 10-3 record, a No. 17 final national ranking and an appearance in the Cotton Bowl.

Over Yurcich's six years at Oklahoma State, the program ranked fifth nationally in passing yards per game (315.9), 11th in touchdown passes (179), seventh in total yards per game (478.6) and sixth in scoring (38.0 ppg).

Yurcich was hired at Oklahoma State after two seasons (2011-12) as offensive coordinator at Shippensburg University. His first Shippensburg team set numerous school records, including points scored, touchdowns and total offense. His second led the NCAA Division II in total offense (529.2 ypg) and was second in scoring (46.9 ppg) and passing (387.7 ypg) during an 11-2 campaign.

Quarterback Zach Zulli was one of his most decorated players, winning the 2012 Harlon Hill Trophy as the top player in Division II. That year, he threw for 54 touchdowns, which tied the Division II record, and posted records for both total points scored (344) and total touchdowns (57).

Yurcich coached six seasons at Edinboro University from 2005-10, handling quarterbacks and wide receivers in 2005 and adding offensive coordinator duties to his title for the five seasons between 2006 and 2010.

A four-year stay (1999-2002) at Saint Francis (Ind.) coaching running backs, quarterbacks and ultimately serving as offensive coordinator in 2002 was Yurcich's introduction into the coaching profession. He then moved on to an offensive graduate assistant position at Indiana University for the 2003 and 2004 seasons.

A native of Euclid, Ohio, Yurcich is a 1999 graduate of California University in Pennsylvania. He and his wife, Julie, who is from Youngstown, Ohio, and was an All-America cross country runner at Edinboro, have three children: sons Jack and Clay, and a daughter, Maria.

COACHING STAFF

YANCY McKNIGHT

HEAD COACH
STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

Yancy McKnight, a strength and conditioning coach with ties to both the state of Texas and the Big 12, is in his fourth season as Head Strength and Conditioning Coach for Football at UT in 2019.

McKnight and his staff have worked tirelessly with the program to make the student-athletes both stronger and faster, while instilling the head coach Tom Herman's culture.

In their second offseason, the Longhorns went from having 26 guys in 2017 that could power clean 300 pounds to 54 guys. Thirteen Longhorns entered the season squatting at least 600 pounds, while only three players were doing so in 2017.

In the first offseason under McKnight, the Longhorns lost 525 pounds of body fat while gaining 385 pounds of lean muscle mass. The team increased their vertical jump average to 30.3", power clean average to 279 pounds, back squat average to 467 pounds and bench press average to 315.

McKnight came to Texas after spending two seasons as director for football sports performance under Herman at the University of Houston. In that time, which included two NFL Drafts, McKnight has worked with nine players who went on to the NFL, including 2017 draft picks LB Tyus Bowser (Ravens), DB Howard Wilson (Browns) and DB Brandon Wilson (Bengals). Six Cougars made rosters as part of the 2016 NFL Draft class. CB William Jackson, III (Bengals), LB Elandon Roberts (Patriots) and WR Demarcus Ayers (Steelers) were all drafted, while RB Kenneth Farrow (Chargers), DS Nolan Frese (Seahawks) and S Adrian McDonald (Chargers) signed as free agents.

In 2016, Houston posted a 9-4 record, including wins over No. 3 Oklahoma and No. 3 Louisville. The Cougars became the first program nationally to defeat two top-five teams.

In 2015, the Cougars went to their first New Year's Bowl in 30 years, had their second 13-win season in program history and won their 11th conference championship by claiming the inaugural American Athletic Conference Championship. With a 38-24 win over No. 9 Florida State in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl, Houston ended the season ranked No. 8 in the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches polls, its highest finish since ranking No. 5 in 1979, and just the sixth time in program history to finish in the top 10.

McKnight arrived in Houston after serving the previous six seasons as director of strength and conditioning at Iowa State. While there, he helped mentor seven Cyclones who went on to play in the NFL (Reggie Stephens, David Sims, Leonard Johnson, Kelechi Osemele, A.J. Klein, Jake Knott, Jeremiah George) and improved the Cyclones strength and conditioning stature of the program as ISU participated in three bowls during his time in Ames. Along with Herman and Iowa State's Paul Rhoads, McKnight has worked under successful and innovative coaches including Les Miles formerly of LSU and Oklahoma State, Todd Graham of Arizona State and formerly Rice, and David Bailiff of Rice.

Other NFL players who have worked under McKnight's eye include: Kevin Williams, Antonio Smith, Billy Bajema, Charlie Johnson, James Casey, Andrew Sendejo, Jarrett Dillard and Tramon Williams.

McKnight worked at Rice (2006-08) prior to his arrival at Iowa State. In 2008, Rice posted one of its best seasons in school history, compiling a 10-3 mark, including a 38-14 win over Western Michigan in the Texas Bowl, and a co-championship of the West Division of Conference USA.

Rice players credited his guidance in the weight room as a key component in the Owls' run to a bowl game in 2006. That team showed a level of endurance that allowed them to battle back and win three times on the last offensive play of the game.

McKnight went to Rice after two years as the head strength and conditioning coach at Louisiana Tech University. He helped the Bulldogs to a 7-4 record in 2005, including winning five of the last six games. Before his time at LTU, he began his college coaching career at Oklahoma State as an assistant in 2002.

McKnight is a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA), and is a certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS), a certified strength and conditioning coach (SCCC), and a USA Weightlifting Level I certified coach.

A native of Joplin, Mo., McKnight was a Division II All-American on the offensive line at Missouri Southern, earning his degree from the school in 2001. He was inducted into the Missouri Southern Athletics Hall of Fame in 2013.

He is married to the former Lynn Karns and they are the parents of sons, Brody and Brock.

2020 RECORD BOOK

TEXAS

TEAM RECORDS

Longhorns football records are based on official statistics filed with the NCAA Service Bureau. Bowl game statistics are included in season stats beginning in 2002. Single-game records are from 1943, while season and career records are from 1937. In some individual cases, records go beyond 1937. As pre-1937 records become available, they will be added. Texas is a member of the Division I Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS). Prior to 2007, the classification was Division I-A.

BIG COMEBACKS

In 2004, Texas fell behind at home to Oklahoma State, 35-7 (28 points), in the first half but scored in the final minute of the period to cut the deficit to 35-14. The Longhorns went on to outscore the Cowboys 42-0 in the second half. Prior to that, the largest comeback had been at the 2001 Holiday Bowl, where Texas rallied from a 36-17 third quarter deficit (19 points) and defeated Washington, 47-43. The Longhorns exceeded that comeback in 2006 after falling behind Texas Tech, 21-0, before defeating the Red Raiders, 35-31. The Horns notched their largest fourth-quarter comeback in 2007 by making up a 21-point deficit to defeat Oklahoma State, 38-35.

LONGEST HOME WINNING STREAKS IN FBS HISTORY

The Longhorns' 42-game home winning streak at Memorial Stadium from 1968-76 is the seventh-longest home winning streak on NCAA Division I-A record. UT not only holds one of the nation's longest home victory strings, but it also has snapped two of the NCAA's top 20 home winning streaks. The Longhorns stopped Nebraska's 47-game home winning streak with a 20-16 victory in 1998 and halted a Texas A&M 31-game home victory string with a 16-6 win in College Station in '95.

DID YOU KNOW?

Texas has had three different players post the rare double of a 100-yard rushing and 100-yard receiving game during their careers. Johnny "Lam" Jones first accomplished the feat when he rushed for 122 yards against SMU in 1976 and posted 115 receiving yards against TCU in '77. Eric Metcalf did him one better by becoming the first player in Longhorns history to post a 100-yard rushing and 100-yard receiving contest in the same season. Metcalf accomplished the feat in 1985 when he rushed for 123 yards against TCU and posted 120 receiving yards against Rice. Ivan Williams joined the club in 2002 following his 111-yard receiving performance at Nebraska. Williams previously posted a pair of 100-yard rushing games in 2001 (152 vs. Texas Tech; 103 at Houston).

JOHNNY "LAM" JONES (1976-79)
100 yards rushing (1): 122, SMU, 1976.
100 yards receving (3): 198, Baylor, 1979; 132, Rice, 1978; 115, TCU,1977.

ERIC METCALF (1985-88)
100 yards rushing (10): 206, TCU, 1987; 157, Rice, 1987; 156, Texas Tech, 1988; 145, Oregon State, 1987; 133, New Mexico, 1988; 131, Baylor, 1987; 123, TCU, 1985; 106, Baylor, 1988; 104, Houston, 1988; 101, North Texas, 1988.
100 yards receving (3): 181, Houston, 1986; 120, Rice, 1985.

IVAN WILLIAMS (1999-2004)
100 yards rushing (2): 152, Texas Tech, 2001; 103, at Houston, 2001.
100 yards receving (1): 111, at Nebraska, 2002

DID YOU KNOW?

When Selvin Young returned a kickoff 97 yards for a touchdown and a punt 39 yards for a score against New Mexico State in 2003, he became the first Longhorn ever to score on a punt return and a kickoff return in the same game. He also became the first Longhorn to return a punt and kickoff for a score in the same season. Jordan Shipley also accomplished the feat during the 2008 season. Young is one of five Longhorns ever to return a punt and kickoff for a touchdown during his career along with Raymond Clayborn (1973-76), Quan Cosby (2005-08), Shipley (2004-07) and D'Shawn Jamison (2018-present). Young is tied with Clayborn for career total kick returns for TDs with three. Both Young and Clayborn returned two punts and one kickoff for scores.

TEXAS AND THE POLLS ASSOCIATED PRESS

The storied history of Texas football has led to a number of impressive finishes in the national polls. In addition to National Championships in 1963 (AP, UPI), 1969 (AP, UPI), 1970 (UPI) and 2005 (AP, BCS), the Longhorns have finished second in the country three times (1950, UPI/1981, AP/ 2009, AP). In all, Texas has finished the season nationally ranked by The Associated Press 48 of 83 times. UT has completed the season ranked in the AP Top 10 on 27 occasions. During one impressive 12-year stretch (1959-70), the Longhorns finished the season ranked in the Top Five eight times.

TEXAS AT NO. 1 IN THE POLLS ASSOCIATED PRESS

Texas has spent its share of time at the top of The Associated Press Poll. The Longhorns have reached the top spot 14 different times for a total of 45 weeks. UT's longest stint at the top of The AP Poll was nine weeks in 1963. That stay at the top of the poll began on Oct. 15, following a 28-7 win against No. 1 Oklahoma, which upped UT's record to 4-0. The Longhorns remained in the top spot for the rest of the season. Texas was ranked No. 4 by AP prior to the 1964 season, but after a season opening 31-0 win against Tulane, the Longhorns vaulted to the top spot, a position they held for three weeks until a 14-13 loss to No. 8 Arkansas dropped them to 4-1.

DID YOU KNOW? The 1896 Texas varsity was the first team to play out of state, as the team ventured east for games against Tulane (a 12-4 victory) and LSU (a 14-0 loss). The games were played on a Saturday and Monday in New Orleans and Baton Rouge, respectively, which was a particularly brutal travel schedule for that time.

DID YOU KNOW? The 1928 Longhorns were the first to wear "Texas orange" (burnt orange) jerseys. The change was made because the bright orange jerseys UT had worn faded from repeated washings. Burnt orange jerseys were worn for the next decade until a wartime dye shortage forced UT to go back to the bright orange. The darker orange was not re-adopted until Darrell Royal did so prior to the 1962 season.

SUGAR BOWL

Jan.	1	(#5)	vs. #6 Alabama	W 27-7

DID YOU KNOW? A chartered DC-4 provided the transportation, as the Texas football team used air travel for the first time for its 1947 game at Oregon. The trip, though reportedly very rough, didn't slow UT as Longhorn senior quarterback Bobby Layne outdueled Oregon sophomore Norm Van Brocklin in Texas' 38-13 win.

DID YOU KNOW? Entering the 1968 season, Legendary Longhorn Coach Darrell Royal and assistant coach Emory Bellard designed and introduced The University of Texas and College Football to a revolutionary new offense that would take the nation by storm and impact the game for generations to come. Utilizing its fresh new Wishbone formation, the 1968 team got off to a rocky 0-1-1 start while the Longhorns worked out the kinks. But once Royal found the ideal dynamic and explosive leader to direct the potent new scheme in quarterback James Street, the Longhorns went on to win their final nine games that year and earned a No. 3 national ranking. With the overpowering Wishbone leading the way, Texas went on to win a school-record 30 straight games, including back-to-back National Championships in 1969 and 1970. On the heels of the Wishbone, Texas claimed victory in a school-best 42 consecutive home games from 1968-76 as well.

THANKSGIVING DAY TRADITION

Including its first Turkey Day game in 1893, UT has played 87 times on the Thanksgiving holiday and posted a 59-25-3 mark. Texas A&M is the most common opponent with 69 matchups and UT holding a 46-20-3 advantage. The teams first met on Thanksgiving Day in 1900, however, that tradition ended in 2011 with A&M departing the Big 12 for the SEC. Texas faced TCU in 2012 and 2014, and Texas Tech in 2013 and 2015. The Horns have also faced Arkansas (1894, 1912, 1917), Notre Dame (1913, 1915) and Oklahoma (1910). Prior to 2012, Baylor (1994-95) is the only other team the Horns faced besides Texas A&M on Thanksgiving Day since 1917. Below is a breakdown of UT's Thanksgiving Day notables.

^ co-championship

* first time in SWC history that a school repeated as undisputed football champion.

NOTE: Texas also had the best SWC record in 1916 (5-1-0) and 1918 (4-0-0) but no championships were awarded those years.

TEXAS' TOP 10 HEISMAN TROPHY FINALISTS

YEAR	NAME	POS	FINISH	1ST VOTES
1941	Jack Crain	RB	10th	n/a

UT quarterback Pete Layden finished fifth in Southwest region voting, one spot behind Crain.

1946	Bobby Layne	QB	8th	n/a
1947	Bobby Layne	QB	6th	n/a

Layne is one of only three players in UT history to finish among the top 10 in two different years.

1961	James Saxton	RB	3rd	81

Saxton led the Southwest region in total votes and ended up among the top five vote-getters in all five regions (East, South, Midwest, Southwest and Far West).

1963	Scott Appleton	T	5th	27

Appleton finished third in voting in both the Southwest and Far West regions. UT quarterback Duke Carlisle finished fifth in the Southwest region but did not have enough votes to crack the top 10.

1965	Tommy Nobis	LB	7th	27

Nobis was the only defensive player among the top 10 finishers

1968	Chris Gilbert	RB	8th	n/a

Gilbert received votes in 1967 before his eighth-place finish in '68.

1970	Steve Worster	FB	4th	47

Worster finished behind quarterbacks Jim Plunkett, Joe Theismann and Archie Manning, while placing in the top five in four of five regions (East, South, Southwest and Far West).

1973	Roosevelt Leaks	RB	3rd	74

Leaks was the leading vote-getting in the Southwest region and finished third despite not placing among the top three in the Midwest and Far West.

1977	Earl Campbell	RB	1st	371

Oddly enough, Campbell was the leading vote-getter in every region but one, the Southwest. Oklahoma State's Terry Miller, the second-place finisher, took top honors in that region.

YEAR	NAME	POS	FINISH	1ST VOTES
1981	Kenneth Sims	DT	8th	3

Sims, the top defensive vote-getter, finished fourth in Southwest region voting.

1997	Ricky Williams	RB	5th	4

Williams joined Leaks as just the second UT junior to finish among the Heisman's top five vote getters.

1998	Ricky Williams	RB	1st	714

Williams' record-setting senior season resulted in a landslide victory in the voting. He swept all six regions by significant margins while posting the greatest percentage of votes cast (43% of 920 voters) and the third-most first-place votes (714) in the award's history.

2004	Cedric Benson	RB	6th	12

Benson was joined in the Heisman voting by UT linebacker Derrick Johnson, who with a 12th place finish was the highest ranked defensive player in 2004.

2005	Vince Young	QB	2nd	79

Young became the first Longhorn to finish as the runner-up and finished higher in the voting than any other quarterback in UT history.

2008	Colt McCoy	QB	2nd	266

McCoy became the second Longhorn to finish as the runner-up, matching Vince Young's finish in 2005. The 122-point difference between first and second was the smallest margin of victory since 2001.

2009	Colt McCoy	QB	3rd	203

McCoy became the first Longhorn to finish among the Heisman's top three vote getters twice during his career.

2016	D'Onta Foreman	RB	8th	6

Foreman became just the second Longhorn to rush for 2,000 yards in a season, rushing for 2,058 yards in just 11 games played.

1963 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Following two seasons that saw Texas flirt with its first National Championship, the Longhorns opened the 1963 campaign as the No. 1 team in the nation according to Sports Illustrated and Street & Smith's Football Yearbook. The Associated Press did not agree and forced UT to work its way up the ladder with a preseason No. 5 ranking.

After a pair of decisive season-opening wins at Tulane (21-0) and against Texas Tech (49-7), UT rapidly climbed into The AP Poll's No. 2 spot. Texas held that position after a 34-7 win against Oklahoma State and that set the stage for a battle for the nation's top spot in the annual rivalry with No. 1 Oklahoma, in Dallas.

A convincing 28-7 win against the Sooners rocketed the Longhorns to No. 1 and they maintained their ranking through the remainder of the regular season. It wasn't all easy though. In their first week at No. 1, UT nearly blew a 17-0 halftime lead in a 17-13 win at Arkansas and got another scare in a 7-0 win against Baylor later on in Austin.

In the biggest play of the season, Duke Carlisle made a sensational leaping interception of what looked like a sure last-minute, game-tying Baylor touchdown pass. With 29 seconds remaining in the game and Baylor at UT's 19-yard line, Bears quarterback Don Trull was looking at his favorite target, Lawrence Elkins, who was running a post pattern. Elkins had eluded UT's Joe Dixon and looked to be wide open as he approached the goal line before Carlisle, who had covered nearly 15 yards since the ball left Trull's hand, made the miraculous play.

"Thank you, Duke. You saved my life," Dixon said to Carlisle after the game-saving catch.

The Longhorns avoided another upset attempt in a 15-13 victory at Texas A&M, scoring the winning touchdown on a Carlisle 1-yard plunge with 1:19 remaining in the game. UT entered the fourth quarter trailing 13-3 before putting the finishing touches on the victory.

Since there was no Associated Press postseason poll, Texas went into its Cotton Bowl matchup against No. 2 Navy with The AP national title already secured, but the Football Writers Association and the Helms Foundation withheld naming a National Champion until after the game. The Midshipmen were expected to provide quite a test behind the multi-talented skills of junior quarterback Roger Staubach, who had claimed the Heisman Trophy during the season.

The national TV pregame introductions produced a surprise and a challenge. When he was introduced, Midshipmen head coach Wayne Hardin said pointedly, "When the challenger meets the champion and the challenger wins, then there's a new champion." This seemed to raise Darrell Royal's hackles and he replied grimly, "We're ready."

Texas jumped out to a quick 21-0 halftime lead, and behind standout defenders Tommy Nobis and Scott Appleton, frustrated the scrambling Staubach. In the meantime, the Longhorns flourished behind a memorable performance by Carlisle, who was voted the outstanding back of the game. He connected with Phil Harris on 58-yard and 63-yard scoring tosses while rolling up 213 passing yards and 267 total yards on the day. UT secured a consensus National Championship with a decisive 28-6 win.

"I've never seen a team which deserved to be No. 1 more than Texas," Hardin said after the game. "Texas was just the best we've played, that's all. Staubach didn't play as well as usual, but I imagine Texas had a lot to do with that."

Appleton earned consensus All-America and All-Southwest Conference honors, running back Tommy Ford rushed for 738 yards and earned All-America and All-SWC recognition, Nobis was a consensus All-SWC pick and the American Football Coaches Association tabbed Royal its Coach of the Year. Appleton, Ford and center David McWilliams served as captains for the Longhorns, who finished with a perfect 11-0 record and 7-0 mark in SWC play.

1969 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

The 1969 season marked the 100th year of college football and ABC television executive Beano Cook arranged for Texas and Arkansas to play the final game of the regular season, moving their usual October date to the first weekend in December.

For a long while, it looked as though the game would be a meeting of also-rans. Ohio State was dominating the Big Ten and the chances of the game being anything other than just the last game of the season were pretty remote.

However, as the Longhorns took a Saturday off to prepare for their upcoming game on Thanksgiving Day with Texas A&M, Michigan and its upstart coach Bo Schembechler upset the Buckeyes. Texas vaulted to No. 1 in the polls and Arkansas claimed the No. 2 spot.

That set the stage. Even the day took on an eerie feeling. The night before, a steady, cold rain fell in Fayetteville and an icy fog hovered over the stadium as the crowd awaited the arrival of President Richard Nixon, who would award a plaque symbolic of the National Championship to the winner.

In the 100th year of college football, it truly was the "Game of the Century." The Longhorns overcame turnovers and a 14-0 Arkansas lead to post a 15-14 victory. James Street scrambled for one touchdown, got a two-point conversion and then hit Randy Peschel on a dramatic 4th-and-3 play late in the game. Donnie Wigginton, the third-string quarterback who was the holder, made a big save on a high snap and Happy Feller booted the extra point for the winning score with 3:58 remaining. Tom Campbell's interception on UT's 21-yard line halted Arkansas' final drive.

Less than a week later, when safety Fred Steinmark underwent surgery for the removal of his leg because of bone cancer, UCLA administrators watching the Longhorns play basketball in Los Angeles actually wept.

The Cotton Bowl prompted a great deal of interest with No. 1 Texas hosting No. 9 Notre Dame. The Fighting Irish were making their first bowl appearance since the "Four Horsemen" beat Stanford 27-10 in the 1925 Rose Bowl. Ara Parseghian's 8-1-1 squad was ending its 44-year self-imposed departure from bowls.

Again, it took some dramatics for a Texas win. UT trailed 17-14 midway through the final period before Street directed the Horns 76 yards for the winning score. Billy Dale's 1-yard run capped the drive and gave UT a 21-17 lead and the 500th win in school history.

In the locker room after the 21-17 victory, Royal gave Steinmark the game ball. The little safety would become a national symbol of courage as he battled cancer for a year-and-a-half before dying in June 1971.

An ABC-TV poll of sportswriters tabbed Royal Coach of the Decade after wrapping up the 1960s with a pair of national titles. Tackle Bob McKay earned consensus All-America and All-Southwest Conference honors, while linebacker Glen Halsell, wide receiver Cotton Speyrer, running back Steve Worster and offensive tackle Bob Wuensch each earned All-America and All-SWC recognition. Street, tackle Leo Brooks and defensive end Bill Atessis each earned consensus All-SWC honors. Halsell, Ted Koy and Street served as captains for the 11-0 (7-0, SWC Champions) Longhorns.

1970 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Texas entered the 1970 season with a 20-game winning streak on the line and as the defending National Champions. With all of their startling credentials, the Longhorns entered the season ranked No. 2 behind Ohio State in the polls.

Despite a rash of preseason injuries, UT stormed into the year with a pair of decisive victories against California (56-15) and at Texas Tech (35-13).

The win over the Golden Bears propelled the Longhorns into the No. 1 spot in the UPI poll and narrowed their gap on Ohio State for the top spot in The AP poll. Despite the easy win against Tech, the Horns dropped back to No. 2 in the UPI poll, with Ohio State claiming a unanimous No. 1, again.

With UT's winning streak standing at 22 games, it appeared that the string of success with the unstoppable "Wishbone" had finally run out. In the season's third week, No. 13 UCLA conceived a unique defense which stymied the Longhorns. The Bruins appeared ready to end the streak with a 17-13 lead, 25 seconds remaining and Texas 45 yards away from the end zone. It was then that UT quarterback Eddie Phillips hit Cotton Speyrer in stride at the 25-yard line. Speyrer shook a UCLA defender and crossed the goal line with only 12 seconds left as UT came away with a 20-17 victory.

After the come-from-behind home victory against UCLA, the Longhorns posted back-to-back victories against Oklahoma (41-9) and at Rice (45-21). Those wins vaulted the Longhorns ahead of Ohio State into the nation's top spot.

A 42-15 win against SMU helped the Longhorns maintain the top spot. In its second week at No. 1, UT was forced to hold off a stubborn Baylor team in Waco (21-14) to remain at No. 1.

The Longhorns continued to hold the top spot with decisive victories at TCU (58-0) and against arch-rival Texas A&M (52-14) to set up a battle with No. 4 Arkansas. For the second consecutive year, the meeting with the Razorbacks would decide the Southwest Conference crown.

After claiming their third consecutive SWC crown with a 42-7 win against Arkansas, the Longhorns were awarded the UPI National Championship.
UT entered its Cotton Bowl rematch with No. 6 Notre Dame as the nation's top team in both The AP and UPI polls.

After falling 24-11 to the Fighting Irish, which snapped UT's 30-game winning streak, the Longhorns dropped to No. 3 in The AP poll but remained UPI's National Champion. The 30-game winning streak currently stands as the 12th-longest in NCAA history.

Defensive end Bill Atessis, fullback Steve Worster and offensive tackle Bobby Wuensch earned consensus All-America and All-SWC honors, while linebacker Scott Henderson and Speyrer earned All-America and All-SWC recognition. Running back Jim Bertelsen and offensive guard Bobby Mitchell also earned All-SWC accolades. Henderson, Worster, Wuensch and Zapalac were the captains for the 10-1 (7-0, SWC Champion) Longhorns.

2005 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Following an 11-1 campaign in 2004 that culminated in the Longhorns' first BCS win over Michigan in their first Rose Bowl, Texas entered the 2005 season ranked No. 2 behind defending champion USC. The ranking was UT's highest in the preseason since 1970, its last championship season.

The Longhorns opened with a 60-3 win over Louisiana-Lafayette as QB Vince Young accounted for four TDs and freshman RB Jamaal Charles made the top freshman rushing debut in UT history with 135 yards.

The win set up a historic first meeting with No. 4 Ohio State. Trailing 22-16, Young connected with WR Limas Sweed on 24-yard TD with 2:17 remaining. The defense held firm, forcing a safety for the 25-22 final to give UT its second-straight win over a Big Ten power.

A 51-10 win over Rice at home, in which Charles racked up 189 rushing yards and three TDs, sent Texas into its bye week and then conference play, where it opened at Missouri. Young produced his first 100-yard passing/rushing game of the season with 236 passing and 108 rushing in the 51-20 victory.

The Red River Rivalry arrived with much being made of Oklahoma's five-game winning streak in the series. However, 2005 would produce a stark contrast, as Texas rolled to a 45-12 win, highlighted by an 80-yard TD run by Charles for a 14-6 lead. The Longhorns never looked back, capping the win with a 67-yard fumble return TD by DT Rod Wright.

Next was No. 24 Colorado, and Young would have one of his finest days passing. He broke his own school record for completion percentage by connecting on 25-of-29 (86.2%) attempts for a career-high 336 yards and two TDs, while also reaching the end zone three times on the ground for a 42-17 win.

That set the stage for undefeated No. 10 Texas Tech. WR Billy Pittman collected his third 100-yard game with a career-high 138 yards and two TDs, while the defense held the nation's top-ranked scoring offense to 17 points for a 52-17 win.

The Longhorns then traveled to Oklahoma State, a team that in 2004 held a 35-7 lead before Texas made the greatest comeback in school history with 49 unanswered points. Again, the Cowboys jumped out, this time 28-9, and again UT responded. This time with 38-unanswered points. Young became the first player in NCAA history to rush for over 250 yards and pass for over 230 in the same game for a UT record 506 yards of total offense.

Texas closed the regular season with wins over Baylor, Kansas and Texas A&M for its first undefeated regular season since 1983, while clinching a spot in the Big 12 Championship, where it would meet Colorado again. The final score was set midway through the third quarter at 70-3, giving Mack Brown his first Big 12 title and sending the Longhorns to the BCS National Championship to face No. 1 USC.

The two teams played a game for the ages. Young took the spotlight from Heisman Trophy winners Reggie Bush and Matt Leinart, becoming the first player in NCAA history to pass and rush for more than 200 yards twice in a career. He recorded 267 yards passing and 200 yards rushing with three TDs, topped by his fourth-down, eight-yard TD run with 19 seconds to go for the 41-38 win.

Young won the Maxwell Award, the O'Brien Award and the Manning Award, and was consensus first-team All-America. Safety Michael Huff became UT's first winner of the Thorpe Award and was unanimous first-team All-America, along with OT Jonathan Scott. Wright also was named consensus first-team All-America.

LONGHORNS IN THE NFF HALL OF FAME

HUB BECHTOL (INDUCTED: 1991)

End/1944-46

Considered one of the finest receivers in UT history, Hub Bechtol was UT's first consensus All-American. Bechtol is one of only two Horns ever to earn All-America honors three times. A native of Lubbock, Texas, Bechtol actually began his collegiate career at Texas Tech, were he earned one letter in football prior to serving in the Navy during World War II. Following his stint in the military, he returned to school, electing to enroll at Texas where he earned three letters in football (1944-46) and two in basketball. Bechtol made his fame catching passes from another All-American, Bobby Layne. He was an integral part of the third-best passing attack in the nation as a senior, and as a junior, he helped UT earn a No. 10 national ranking. He and Layne helped lead the Longhorns to the Southwest Conference Championship and a Cotton Bowl win against Missouri. In that game, Bechtol caught nine passes for 138 yards and he also set a UT single-season record for touchdown receptions with seven that year. Bechtol went on to play professional football with the Baltimore Colts for three seasons before returning to Austin to work in real estate and insurance. He was elected to the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1963.

DANA X. BIBLE (INDUCTED: 1951)

Head coach/1937-46

One of the winningest head coaches in the history of the college game, Dana X. Bible's 10-year run at UT from 1937-1946 is credited with laying the foundation for the modern legacy of Longhorns football. Following success at Texas A&M and Nebraska, Bible was hired in 1937 to turn the Texas fortunes around. He inherited a team that was more depressed than the nation's economy, but before his time was over, his teams won three Southwest Conference Championships, all coming in the final five years of his career. He is credited for "The Bible Plan," which placed an emphasis on education as well as success on the football field. In 1941, his team — still regarded as one of the best in UT history — was featured on the cover of Life magazine. A winner of 201 games in 33 years as a head coach (63-31-3 at UT), Bible was the third-winningest coach in the history of the game when he retired — trailing only Amos Alonzo Stagg, who coached for 57 years, and Pop Warner, who coached for 44 seasons. He was elected to the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1960.

MACK BROWN (INDUCTED: 2018)

Head coach/1998-2013

Mack Brown led Texas Football back into its rightful place through the first decade of the 2000s, compiling a record of 158-48 (.767) in 16 seasons as the head coach for the Longhorns. In 30 total seasons as a head coach, Brown had a record of 244-122-1 (.666). His 244 wins are the 10th most in NCAA history by a coach with at least 10 years at an FBS school. When he departed Texas after the 2013 season, Brown was one of only two coaches nationally at the time to have directed teams to 21 bowls in the previous 22 seasons and the only one to have 23 winning seasons in the last 24 years. His 225 wins overall from 1990 to 2013 were the most nationally. At Texas, Brown was named the 2008 Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year and the 2009 Big 12 Coach of the Year. In addition, he was also named the 2005 Paul "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year after guiding his Longhorns to the 2005 National Championship. Under Brown, Texas won nine of its last 12 bowl games during his tenure and had a 10-5 record overall, including a UT record streak of 12 consecutive bowl appearances. The 10 bowl wins give Brown the most in Texas history, surpassing Darrell Royal's eight. In addition, the streak includes a BCS National Championship, another BCS National Championship Game appearance and three BCS bowl wins. During his 16 seasons in Austin, the Longhorns featured a Heisman Trophy winner, two runners-up and a third-place finisher, three Maxwell Award winners, three WCFF Player of the Year Award winners, two Doak Walker Award winners, two Thorpe Award winners, two Nagurski Trophy winners, two O'Brien Award winners, two Hendricks Award winners, a Butkus Award winner, a Lombardi Award winner, two Manning Award winners, two Draddy/Campbell Trophy winners, a Wuerffel Trophy winner, a Disney Spirit Award winner, a FWAA Armed Forces Merit Award winner, 54 All-Americans, 73 first-team All-Big 12 selections, five Big 12 Offensive Players of the Year, six Big 12 Defensive Players of the Year and 12 Big 12 Freshman of the Year honorees.

EARL CAMPBELL (INDUCTED: 1990)

Running back/1974-77

Earl Campbell galloped into UT football history with his Heisman Trophy-winning 1977 season. Campbell rushed for 1,744 yards (a Southwest Conference record that stood for 16 years) and 19 touchdowns and led the nation in rushing and scoring. He posted 200-yard rushing games against Texas A&M (222) and SMU (213), both on the road, and set a UT record with ten 100-yard rushing games that season. Campbell was an instant success at Texas, rushing for 928 yards as a freshman "Wishbone" fullback. He claimed the first of three consensus All-SWC honors that year. As a sophomore in 1975, he ran for 1,118 yards and 13 touchdowns, earning the first of his two consensus All-America awards. Injuries dampened his junior season when he played with a pulled hamstring for much of the season. He missed four games and only posted 653 rushing yards. However, by his senior season, he was at full strength. He moved to tailback in the "I" formation utilized by new head coach Fred Akers and turned in one of the finest rushing campaigns in UT history. The Tyler, Texas, native finished his career with school rushing records of 4,443 yards and 41 touchdowns. Inducted into both the College Football and NFL Hall of Fame, Campbell earned NFL Rookie of the Year honors, won four rushing titles and was selected to five Pro Bowls in a stellar career with the Houston Oilers and New Orleans Saints. He rushed for 9,407 yards and 74 TDs in eight seasons as a pro. Following his retirement, Campbell returned to Austin where he owns a food company. He also serves as an assistant to the athletics director in the UT athletics department. Campbell was elected to the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1988.

LONGHORNS IN THE NFF HALL OF FAME

DOUG ENGLISH (INDUCTED: 2011)

Defensive tackle/1972-74

After helping lead the Longhorns to a 10-1 finish, a Southwest Conference championship and a No. 3 final AP ranking in his first varsity season in 1972, Doug English quickly established himself as one of the top defensive lineman to come through the University of Texas. Following the Longhorns' win over fourth-ranked Alabama in the 1973 Cotton Bowl, Texas won its second consecutive SWC title in 1973 with English anchoring the defensive line. In his three seasons, Texas compiled a 26-8 record and finished in the top 20 every year. English twice earned All-Southwest Conference honors and was named First Team All-America as a senior in 1974. He also received UT's George "Hook" McCullough Outstanding Football Player Award and the D. Harold Byrd Leadership Award while serving as a team captain his senior season. For his career, English tallied 260 tackles (111 solo) and four forced fumbles while totaling 105 tackles as a senior. Drafted in the second round of the 1975 NFL Draft, English, a Dallas native, played 10 seasons with the Lions. He recorded a career-high 13 sacks and two safeties in 1983 while helping lead the Lions to the NFC Central Division title. He finished his NFL career with 59 sacks while earning All-Pro honors four times (1981-84). His four safeties tie him for the most in an NFL career. He was elected to the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1986 and was a member of the 2013 class of the Texas Sports Hall of Fame.

CHRIS GILBERT (INDUCTED: 1999)

Running back/1966-68

Chris Gilbert, the crown jewel in an era when Texas Longhorns running backs dominated the nation's ground game, was the first player in NCAA history to gain 1,000 yards in each of the seasons for which he was eligible. Gilbert played for Darrell Royal from 1966-68 and competed in a time when freshmen were not eligible for varsity competition. The 5-foot-11, 180-pounder was a three-time All-Southwest Conference back who rushed for more than 100 yards in exactly half of his 30 career games and he had four 200-yard efforts. The three-time UT MVP finished his career as the SWC's and the school's all-time leading rusher with 3,231 yards, which ranked third on the NCAA all-time list at the time. As a sophomore, Gilbert rushed for a then-school record 1,080 yards and was voted the Outstanding Back in the 1966 Bluebonnet Bowl victory against Mississippi. He added 1,019 yards to his total as a junior and recorded a 96-yard touchdown run against TCU, the longest run from scrimmage by a Longhorn. Gilbert's senior season marked the inaugural year of the famed "Wishbone" offense and he rushed for a UT-record 1,132 yards and scored 13 touchdowns. His efforts helped Texas to a 9-1-1 record and a No. 3 ranking after a 36-13 victory against Tennessee in the Cotton Bowl. Following graduation, Gilbert was drafted by the New York Jets but chose to enter private business in Texas and ran a highly-successful summer camp for youngsters and managed a respected residential real estate business. He was elected to the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1978.

JERRY GRAY (INDUCTED: 2013)

Defensive back/1981-84

One of the all-time greats defensive backs, Jerry Gray has his name etched in the Texas history books. A four-year letterman (1981-84), Gray is one of only seven Longhorns to earn two-time consensus All-America honors, as he did in 1983 and 1984. He earned unanimous honors as a senior and is still one of only 20 players in UT history to accomplish that feat. He was also a two-time Southwest Conference Defensive Player of the Year (1983-84). Gray finished his career ranked second on the Texas career interceptions list and still stand third with 16, just one behind record holders Noble Doss and Nathan Vasher. He is also tied for second on the single-season interceptions list after pulling seven his senior year. Gray finished his career fourth on the career fumble recoveries list and still stand eighth with six recoveries. Gray recorded 297 career tackles, 16 interceptions and 20 pass breakups during his time in Austin. After being selected as the 21st overall pick in the 1985 NFL Draft, Gray played with the Los Angeles Rams (1985-91), Houston Oilers (1992) and Tampa Bay Bucaneers (1993) during his professional career. He was also named Defensive Back of the Year in 1989. Gray broke into the coaching ranks in 1995 and is currently the defensive coordinator of the Tennessee Titans, a position he has held since 2011.

JOHNNIE JOHNSON (INDUCTED: 2007)

Defensive Back/1976-79

A versatile threat as a fierce tackler and punt returner, Texas' Johnnie Johnson set numerous Texas records during his four-year career and was twice named a consensus All-America ('78, '79). Hailing from LaGrange, Texas, Johnson earned recognition from the Downtown Athletic Club as the nation's top defensive back in 1978. He finished his career with 13 interceptions returned for 150 yards, 282 tackles and led a defense that surrendered an average of only nine points per game. Equally as impressive as his defensive accomplishments, Johnson accumulated over 1,000 career punt return yards and still owns the UT records for single season punt returns (44) and career punt returns (114). The three-time All-Southwest Conference pick currently ranks second all-time in school season return yards (538) and fourth in career return yards (1,004). Selected as the 17th overall pick in the 1980 NFL Draft, he spent 10 of his 11 years in the professional ranks with the Los Angeles Rams. He was also selected to the SWC All-Decade Team for the 1970s and to the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1990.

MALCOLM KUTNER (INDUCTED: 1974)

End/1939-41

Malcolm Kutner, a star in the D.X. Bible era of UT football, was one of two All-Americans honored on the 1941 team, generally regarded as the best of its era and one of the best teams in school history. Kutner was a three-sport star at Texas, earning letters in football, basketball and track & field. However, his versatility as a football player, where his primary position was end, helped earn praise for Bible's innovative offense as "the best balanced, perhaps most versatile ever developed in the cow country, if not in the nation." In all, Kutner earned seven varsity letters: three in football, three in basketball and one in track — where he was a member of two Southwest Conference Champion relay teams. He was the first UT player chosen to compete in the Chicago Tribune's collegiate all-star game, matching an all-star team of just-finished collegians against the NFL champions. Kutner continued his playing as a member of the U.S. Armed Forces team during World War II. Following his service career, he played five years as a member of the Chicago Cardinals. As a pro, he was Rookie of the Year in 1946, made the All-Pro team in both 1947 and '48 and earned NFL Most Valuable Player honors in 1948. Kutner retired from the NFL following the 1950 season and entered the oil business in Texas. He was elected to the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1965.

LONGHORNS IN THE NFF HALL OF FAME

BOBBY LAYNE (INDUCTED: 1968)

Quarterback/1944-47

It was his great friend Doak Walker who said of Bobby Layne, "Layne never lost a game … time just ran out on him." Layne is generally regarded as the greatest quarterback in UT history. He was known as much for his free spirit approach to life as he was to the game he played. Recruited as a baseball pitcher, Layne was one of the best two-sport stars in school history. However, it would be in football that he would forever etch his name. He finished his UT career with a school-record 3,145 yards passing on 210 completions and 400 attempts. He was the Outstanding Back of the 1948 Sugar Bowl victory against No. 6 Alabama as a senior and was one of the first inductees into the Cotton Bowl Hall of Fame based on his incredible performance in the 1946 Classic win against Missouri. In the 40-27 victory, Layne accounted for every point, scoring four touchdowns, kicking four extra points and passing for the other two touchdowns. His brilliant 15-year professional career included leading the Detroit Lions to three league titles and twice being named the all-league quarterback during a his career (Detroit and Pittsburgh). He was inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame in 1967 and elected to the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1963.

ROOSEVELT LEAKS (INDUCTED: 2005)

Running Back/1972-74

A tremendous running back and fearless pioneer, Roosevelt Leaks became the first black athlete to earn All-America and All-Conference honors for the Longhorns, forever changing the complexion of football at Texas and the Southwest Conference. Prior to suffering a serious knee injury that hampered his senior season, Leaks earned consensus first-team All-America honors in 1973 and finished third in the Heisman Trophy voting, the first and highest place of the three UT underclassmen to finish in the Top 10. A two-time first-team All-Conference selection, he was named Southwest Conference MVP in 1973, while setting the conference record for rushing yards (1,415). A team captain and MVP, Leaks guided the Longhorns to two conference titles. Drafted in the fifth round of the 1975 NFL Draft by the Baltimore Colts, Leaks enjoyed a nine-year professional career with the Colts and Buffalo Bills. A community-minded individual, Leaks hosts an annual charity golf tournament for children in East Austin. In 2003, he became the first recipient of the Living Legends Award presented by the Ministry of Challenge.

BUD MCFADIN (INDUCTED: 1983)

Guard/1948-50

From the tiny town of Iraan, Texas, Bud McFadin came to The University of Texas and became a two-time All-American offensive guard and defensive tackle and was named Most Valuable Player of the 1951 Cotton Bowl. In 1950, he helped lead UT to the Southwest Conference Championship and a No. 3 national ranking. He was named the Most Valuable Player of the SWC as a senior and was a first-round draft choice by the Los Angeles Rams of the National Football League. Prior to the start of his pro career, he was named MVP of the collegiate all-star game that matched top college players against the NFL champions. McFadin went on to play 11 seasons of professional football and was a five-time Pro Bowl selection. Along with the Rams, McFadin also starred at Denver and Houston, where he concluded his career. He is one of only two former Longhorns to appear as a Pro Bowl selection with two different teams — Los Angeles (1956-57) and Denver (1962-64). When he finished his NFL playing career, McFadin became a coach for the Oilers and spent five seasons tutoring the defensive line. After leaving coaching, McFadin turned to farming near Victoria, Texas. He was elected to the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1973.

BOB MCKAY (INDUCTED: 2017)

Offensive Line/1968-69

A consensus First Team All-American in 1969, McKay guided Texas to a perfect 11-0 season and the National Championship after defeating Notre Dame in the 1970 Cotton Bowl. He also helped the team to a No. 3 final ranking nationally in 1968 following a win over Tennessee in the 1969 Cotton Bowl. The 1969 All-Southwest Conference selection led the Longhorns to two conference championships. Behind McKay and the rest of the offensive line, the 1969 squad outscored opponents 435-119 while leading the FBS in rushing offense (363 yards per game) and scoring offense (33.8 points per game). With McKay in the starting lineup, Texas held an impressive 20-1-1 record and twice finished in the top three of the AP rankings. After his senior campaign, he played in the Coaches All-America Game and the Hula Bowl. McKay was drafted 21st overall by the Cleveland Browns in 1970 and spent nine seasons in the NFL with the Browns and New England Patriots. He would lead each franchise to two playoff appearances during his career.

STEVE MCMICHAEL (INDUCTED: 2009)

Defensive Tackle/1976-79

A four-year letterman from 1976-79, Steve McMichael was a member of the 1977 Southwest Conference Championship team. Twice selected All-Southwest Conference (1978-79), he graduated as the school's all-time leader in career tackles (369) and sacks (30). A finalist for the Lombardi and Outland Awards in 1979, McMichael claimed team and Hula Bowl MVP honors. During his time at Texas, the Longhorns posted an impressive 34-12-1 record. McMichael went on to be drafted in the third round of the 1980 NFL Draft by the New England Patriots. He signed with the Chicago Bears in 1981 and spent 13 seasons with the team, including six Central Division Championships and a victory in Super Bowl XX. McMichael retired as a five-time All-Pro selection and holds the Chicago Bears record for most consecutive games played (191). Following his playing career, McMichael became a pro wrestler, coached in the Continental Indoor Football League and commentated for the Chicago Bears. He was elected to the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1999.

TOMMY NOBIS (INDUCTED: 1981)

Linebacker, Guard/1963-65

Considered the finest linebacker in UT history, Tommy Nobis ranks as one of the greatest football players of all time. UT's famous No. 60 was a two-time All-American, made the All-Southwest Conference team three years and was the only sophomore starter on the Longhorns' 1963 National Championship team. The next year, he registered one of the most famous tackles in Orange Bowl history when he led his teammates on a fourth-and-inches stop of Joe Namath at the goal line to preserve UT's 21-17 victory against No. 1 Alabama. Darrell Royal called Nobis the best two-way lineman he ever coached, and in 1965, Sports Illustrated tagged him "the best defender in College Football." He went on to win the Outland Trophy and Maxwell Award as a senior. Nobis averaged nearly 20 tackles per game at UT, despite the effort of opponents to run away from him. He also was often the primary blocker for touchdown runs on teams that were ranked No. 1 in the nation at some point during each of his three years. A knee injury slowed the latter part of his senior season, but he went on to a successful 10-year career with the Atlanta Falcons. He was named to the NFL's All-1960s team and was selected to the Football News' all-time All-American team. As a member of the front office of the Falcons, Nobis' popularity and durability are evident by a career that has spanned 35 years with the Atlanta franchise. The San Antonio native was a first-round draft choice of the Falcons in 1966 and he was elected to the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1976.

DARRELL ROYAL (INDUCTED: 1983)

Head coach/1957-76

In December 1956, Darrell Royal came to Texas as one of the youngest head coaches in America, and for the next 20 years, he led the Longhorns to success that was unparalleled in Southwest Conference history. Royal's remarkable record included 11 teams that finished in the nation's Top 10 and three National Championships. He also registered 11 SWC titles, 16 bowl berths, 26 All-Americans and 77 All-SWC players. He also recorded unprecedented streaks, including a 30-game winning streak from 1968-70 and record run of six consecutive Cotton Bowl appearances. Royal finished his career with a UT-record 167 victories, including 109 against league foes. His honors were numerous as well. Royal was tabbed Coach of the Year on numerous occasions, earned a spot in a number of halls of fame and was picked as coach of the decade in the 1960s. In the 10-year period from 1961-70, Royal's teams finished in the nation's Top Five seven times, including the three seasons at No. 1. Royal was not only a winner, but he also was recognized as one of the game's great innovators — simplifying offenses by flipping the offensive line and later installing the famed "Wishbone" offense, which he unveiled in 1968. After he retired in 1976, Royal continued to serve as UT's Athletics Director — a post he held beginning in 1964. Royal later was an assistant to the UT president, advising that office on matters pertaining to athletics. He was elected to the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1976.

JAMES SAXTON (INDUCTED: 1996)

Running back/1959-61

Tabbed the "quickest player in America" in 1961 by legendary Longhorns head coach Darrell Royal, James Saxton turned in one of the most spectacular seasons by a UT back that year. A first- team All-Southwest Conference back and the Longhorns MVP, he capped his career in spectacular fashion in 1961, eventually finishing third in the Heisman Trophy voting and earning the Texas Sports Writers Association Amateur Athlete of the Year award. While UT rolled to a 10-1 record and climbed as high as No. 1 nationally during his senior campaign, Saxton led the SWC in rushing with 846 yards on only 107 carries. He also scored nine touchdowns and led the Longhorns attack with breathtaking runs of 80, 79, 66, 56, 49 and 45 yards. Saxton set a UT single-game rushing record against SMU with 173 yards, and a week later, picked up 171 yards against Baylor. His 7.9 yards per carry average that year was the highest recorded in SWC history. The Palestine, Texas, native topped off his terrific year by helping UT upset No. 5 Mississippi 12-7 in the 1962 Cotton Bowl. His 73-yard punt on a quick kick in that game still stands as a UT bowl game record. Saxton helped the Longhorns to a 25-5 record during his three-year career. and he finished his career ranked third on the UT all-time rushing list with 1,524 yards. He was elected to the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1973.

HARLEY SEWELL (INDUCTED: 2000)

Guard/1950-52

Harley Sewell, who came from the tiny Texas town of St. Jo, was a first-team All-American two-way guard who helped UT to a 9-2 record in 1952 and was chosen defensive MVP in the 1953 Cotton Bowl victory against Tennessee. In that game, he led a UT defense that limited the Vols to six first downs and an amazing minus-14 yards rushing. A two-time All-Southwest Conference selection in 1951 and '52, Sewell was drafted in the first round (13th overall) by the Detroit Lions in 1953 and played for the Lions from 1953-62 before finishing his career with the Los Angeles Rams. In Detroit, Sewell teamed with fellow Texans Bobby Layne and Doak Walker to earn NFL championship rings in 1953 and '57 and was a four-time Pro Bowl selection. He was elected to the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1975.

JERRY SISEMORE (INDUCTED: 2002)

Tackle/1970-72

One of the great offensive tackles of his era, Jerry Sisemore was a three-year letterwinner, a two-time consensus All-American (1971-72) and a team captain during one of the best three-year periods in the history of Texas football. In his three seasons, the Longhorns posted a 28-5 (.848) overall record, lost only one game in Southwest Conference play, won three consecutive league championships and played in three straight Cotton Bowls. As a sophomore, he helped lead UT to a 10-1 record and UT's third National Championship in school history. The 6-foot-4, 260-pounder also played in numerous all-star games following his outstanding career, including the Senior Bowl and Coaches All-America Game in 1973. Sisemore was selected in the first round of the 1973 NFL Draft by the Philadelphia Eagles with the third overall pick. He remained with the team for the duration of his 12-year career and was a two-time Pro Bowl selection (1980, '82). Sisemore appeared in the postseason four times and was inducted into the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1980.

MORTIMER (BUD) SPRAGUE (INDUCTED: 1970)

Tackle/1923-24

Mortimer "Bud" Sprague was only 16 when he came to Texas, but by his junior year, he was a 200-pound anchor in the middle of the defensive line on an undefeated UT team. The Longhorns posted a 20-5-2 record during his career and he was an All-Southwest Conference tackle but also doubled as a standout track athlete. Sprague excelled in the rare combination in track & field as a sprinter and shot putter. He won the SWC shot put title in 1925 and ran on the 440-yard relay team. After graduating from UT, he won the then-allowed privilege of continuing his college career by enrolling at West Point. There, his career blossomed. He was a vital member of Army's great teams of the late 1920s, a two-time All-American and captain of the 1928 team. Sprague had a distinguished career in the insurance business and was president of the New York Board of Trade and director of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1970 for his deeds at both Army and Texas and elected into the the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1993.

HARRISON STAFFORD (INDUCTED: 1975)

Halfback/1930-32

A walk-on from Wharton, Texas, Harrison Stafford went on to become perhaps the toughest football player in UT history. Statistics never told the story of Stafford, who was considered the finest blocking back in school annals. He also was an outstanding runner and receiver, but his fame was carved by his crushing blocks and devastating tackles. Stafford came to UT completely unannounced and volunteered for the freshman team where assistant coach Shorty Alderson worked him out and reported to head coach Clyde Littlefield, "Clyde, I found you the darndest football player you ever saw. He tore up a couple of dummies and hurt a couple of men. He says his name is Harrison Stafford." Stafford went on to earn All-Southwest Conference honors three times and was named to several All-America teams. A versatile person as well as an athlete, he also served as a member of the UT Student Assembly in 1931-32. A knee injury cut short his professional career and he returned to Texas and became a successful rancher. Stafford was elected to the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1959.

LONGHORNS IN THE NFF HALL OF FAME

RICKY WILLIAMS (INDUCTED: 2015)

Running Back/1995-98

A two-time unanimous first-team All-American and the 1998 Heisman Trophy winner, Ricky Williams was a four-year starter for Texas (1995-98) who completed his career with 21 NCAA and 46 school records. He led Texas to the final SWC Championship (1995) and the first-ever Big 12 title (1996). Williams was a unanimous first-team All-American as a junior and senior, along with being a two-time Doak Walker Award winner as the nation's top running back. Additionally, he was named the Maxwell Award winner and was voted national player of the year by the Walter Camp Football Foundation, Associated Press and Sporting News in 1998. The San Diego native was a three-time first-team All Big-12 choice and won back-to-back NCAA rushing titles in 1997 and 1998. He led the nation in scoring in 1997 and was a close second in 1998. When he finished his career at Texas, Williams' 6,279 rushing yards, 72 rushing TDs, 75 total TDs, 452 points, 33 games with a TD, 11 career 200-yard games, and 6.2 yards per carry were all NCAA all-time records. He also broke the NCAA all-purpose yardage record with 7,206 yards despite never returning a punt or kickoff. Williams eclipsed Tony Dorsett's more than two-decade-old NCAA rushing record with 259 yards in the Horns 26-24 regular season victory over Texas A&M in 1998. Williams was selected in the first round (fifth overall) in the 1999 NFL Draft by the New Orleans Saints and went on to play 12 seasons.

VINCE YOUNG (INDUCTED: 2019)

Quarterback/2003-05

A consensus first-team All-American in 2005, Young was the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy while claiming the Davey O'Brien and Maxwell awards. That season, the unanimous Big 12 Player of the Year and first-team All-Big 12 selection led the Longhorns to a conference title and a perfect 13-0 season after winning the BCS National Championship Game against No. 1 USC in the 2006 Rose Bowl. The win capped a remarkable season that saw the team captain become the first player in FBS history with more than 3,000 passing yards and 1,000 rushing yards in a single season. Young left Texas as the winningest quarterback in school history, compiling a 30-2 record (.938) as a starter, including victories in the final 20 games of his career. He completed 61.8 percent of his passes for 6,040 yards (No. 6 on UT's career list) and 44 TDs (No. 5 on UT's career list). He also posted 3,127 rushing yards and 37 TDs. Both his rushing yards and TDs are UT quarterback records, and stand fifth and fourth, respectively, among all Longhorn rushers. Young went on to be drafted third overall by the Tennessee Titans in 2006. He claimed NFL Rookie of the Year honors after taking over as the starting quarterback in Week 4 and leading the Titans to an 8-5 record. He earned a spot in the Pro Bowl, becoming the first rookie quarterback ever to play in that game. Young followed up his rookie year by leading the Titans to a playoff berth in 2007. He played five seasons in Tennessee, one with the Philadelphia Eagles and one with the Green Bay Packers. A member of the Longhorn Hall of Honor, his No. 10 jersey is one of only six retired by Texas, and he is also enshrined in the Rose Bowl, State of Texas Sports, and Texas High School Football halls of fame.

TEXAS AND THE NFL

The format of the NFL draft has changed many times since the brainchild of former NFL Commissioner and club owner Bert Bell was accepted by the league owners on May 19, 1935. The initial draft was held on Feb. 8, 1936, at the Ritz Carlton Hotel in Philadelphia. More than 80 years later, the draft has gone through stages of 10, 20 and 30-round affairs to the current seven-round event set each April. Through it all, The University of Texas has played a key role in the event. Including a record 17 players drafted in 1984, the Longhorns have had 337 players called on draft day and had at least one player selected in 76 consecutive drafts (1938-2013). Among those draft choices, 44 UT players have been selected in the first round with three of those former Longhorns — Kenneth Sims, 1982; Earl Campbell, 1978; Tommy Nobis, 1966 — earning the honor of being the first player selected overall.

BY THE NUMBERS

3 Casey Hampton (Pittsburgh Steelers - 2006, '09, '11) and Malcom Brown (New England - 2017-19) have made the most Super Bowl appearances with three. Twelve former players have been on a pair of Super Bowl rosters, including Glenn Blackwood (Miami Dolphins - 1983, '85), Bobby Micho (Denver Broncos - 1987, '88), Dave Studdard (Denver - 1987, '88), Ray Woodard (Denver Broncos - 1987, '88), Terry Orr (Washington Redskins - 1988, '92), James Patton (Buffalo Bills - 1993, '94), Dan Neil (Denver Broncos - 1998, '99), David Thomas (New England Patriots - 2008; New Orleans Saints - 2010), Limas Sweed (Pittsburgh - 2009, '11), Tony Hills (Pittsburgh - 2009, '11), Aaron Ross (New York Giants - 2008, '12) and Earl Thomas (Seattle Seahawks - 2014-15).

4 Four Longhorns have claimed multiple titles: Casey Hampton (Pittsburgh Steelers - 2006, '09), Dan Neil (Denver Broncos - 1998-99), Terry Orr (Washington Redskins - 1988, '92) and Aaron Ross (New York Giants - 2008, '12).

5 There were a school record five former Longhorns in the 1986, 1988 and 2011 Super Bowls, and four in 1969, 1987, 2009 and 2013. There have been at least three Longhorns in the Super Bowl 10 times (1969, '86, '87, '88, '99, '06, '09, '11, '13, '14).

15 A Longhorn has appeared in the last 15 Super Bowls (2006-present), the longest stretch in UT history. The only other time at least one Longhorn made an appearance was a stretch spanning 1985 though 1995. There was a Longhorn on a school-record seven straight winning teams (2008-14).

27 Twenty-seven players have claimed Super Bowl Champion rings.

61 Sixty-one former Longhorns have been members of 61 different Super Bowl squads.

SUPER BOWL NOTABLES

• George Sauer caught eight passes for 133 yards to help the New York Jets to an upset win against the Baltimore Colts in Super Bowl III (1969).

• Raul Allegre scored six points (21-yard FG; three PATs) in the New York Giants' 39-20 win against the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXI (1987).

• Justin Tucker tallied 10 points, including a pair of fourth-quarter field goals, to help the Baltimore Ravens hold off the San Francisco 49ers, 34-31, in Super Bowl XLVII (2013).

• Safety Earl Thomas made seven tackles, including a team-best six solo stops, in aiding the Seattle Seahawks in downing the Denver Broncos, 43-8, in Super Bowl XLVIII (2014).

BY THE NUMBERS

7 Earl Thomas has the most all-time appearances with seven, followed by Earl Campbell, Casey Hampton, Bobby Layne, Bud McFadin and Tommy Nobis with five each, while Bobby Dillon, Doug English, Jerry Gray, Brian Orakpo, George Sauer, Harley Sewell, Jamaal Charles and Derrick Johnson each had four selections. Thomas, however, was unable to play in both the 2014 and 2015 Pro Bowls since the Seattle Seahawks were in the Super Bowl.

19 The Longhorns have had a Pro Bowl player the last 19 seasons, the longest consecutive streak in school history. They have also had two separate streaks of nine years with a Pro Bowl player. The first was from 1952-60 and the second from 1967-75. UT also has had streaks of six years (1979-84), five years (1986-90), three years (1962-64) and two years (1993-94/'99-2000).

43 The Longhorns have had 43 different Pro Bowlers representing 24 teams who have made a total of 108 appearances.

PRO BOWL NOTABLES

• The first Longhorn player to reach the Pro Bowl was center Bill Hughes of the Chicago Bears in 1942. The most recent were Kansas City Chiefs linebacker Derrick Johnson and Seattle Seahawks safety Earl Thomas who were selected to the 2016 game.

• Since 1952, there have been only 11 years in which a former Longhorn was not selected to the Pro Bowl (1961, '65, '66, '76, '78, '85, '91, '92, '96, '98, 2001).

• The Longhorns had a record five players in the 2013 Pro Bowl - Kansas City Chiefs running back Jamaal Charles and linebacker Derrick Johnson, Cleveland Browns place-kicker Phil Dawson, Seattle Seahawks safety Earl Thomas, and Chicago Bears defensive tackle Henry Melton. UT had four players in the Pro Bowl four times (1957, '68, '10, '14). Three players have represented UT eight times (1956, '82, '84, '87, '06, '07, '09, '11) and two former Horns have been selected 14 times (1958, '59, '63, '67, '69, '73, '74, '79, '80, '88, 2003, '04, '12, '15).
