USE OF AUDIO/VIDEO COVERAGE

Any accredited media entity using "video or audio materials" (film, traditional video or audio, digital video or audio, photos, etc.) from University of Texas Athletics events (games, practices, post-practice/postgame interviews and press conferences) may use that material only for traditional television newscasts, web-based or print coverage (see note below regarding policy on game video on web), or other electronic transmission as approved by The University in writing, with a limitation of up to three (3) minutes in length from any single event. That three (3)-minute package may contain no more than two (2) minutes of game highlights. Its usage must be only as supporting edited video/audio for a reported video/audio story and not simply as a raw video post/rebroadcast/streamed highlights or interview sessions. Accredited media entities may not offer any live video, audio or other coverage of the event (or tape delay rebroadcast coverage in its entirety) without the advance written permission of The University of Texas athletics department. Video is for news usage only and may not be sponsored or sold. This policy includes all games, matches, practices and events involving any of Texas' athletics programs. It includes all media events — press conferences, pre/post-practice interviews and pre/post-game interviews.

NOTE REGARDING USE OF GAME VIDEO: Policy permits entities to use up to two (2) minutes of video on air (whether taken from the network feed or shot themselves) or on the entity's website. Reports and features must be filed postgame and not during the game. If a game/event is contracted to a network television partner, all highlights may remain on a website no longer than 48 hours following the game/event's conclusion. Highlights may not be used via social media platforms except as a link back to the website/URL hosting the highlights.

EXCEPTION: With advance written permission from the UT Athletics department, media entities will be permitted to rebroadcast the Steve Sarkisian weekly Monday press conferences in its entirety. Video from that 20-minute press conference can be used for either over the air rebroadcast or web postings. Live distribution of the weekly Monday press conference is not permitted. If posted on a website, it must be removed 48 hours after the conclusion of the press conference.

LONGHORN BOWL HISTORY

• Texas is making its 58th all-time bowl appearance this season, the third-most in the country behind only Alabama and Georgia.
• The Longhorns have an all-time record of 31-24-2 (.561) in bowl games.
• This year marks the Longhorns' sixth Alamo Bowl appearance (2006, 2012-13, 2019-20, 2022) and third in the last four seasons.
• The Longhorns are 4-1 in their previous Alamo Bowl outings (Win – 2006, 2012, 2019, 2022; Loss – 2013).
• Texas will be playing a current member of the Pac-12 Conference for the 13th time. UT holds an 8-4 record in those instances, including a 55-23 win over Colorado in the 2020 Valero Alamo Bowl.
• This year will mark Texas' sixth appearance in the Alamo Bowl, and fifth since 2012. The Cotton Bowl (22 appearances) is the only bowl game that the Longhorns have appeared in more frequently than the Alamo Bowl and matches the total number of appearances in the Bluebonnet Bowl (six appearances).

THE OPENING KICKOFF

• The University of Texas continues its 130th season of football on Thursday, Dec. 29 when the Longhorns meet Washington in the 30th Valero Alamo Bowl. The game will kick off from the Alamodome in San Antonio, Texas at 8 p.m. CT on ESPN.
• Texas (8-4, 6-3) defeated Baylor, 38-27, in the season-finale in Austin and has won three of the last four games.
• Washington (10-2, 7-2) closed out the season winning the Apple Cup over Washington State, 51-33 and heads to San Antonio on a six-game win streak.
• Steve Sarkisian will be serving his 106th career game as head coach and 25th with Texas. He has a career record of 59-46 (.562).
• Texas currently boasts 936 all-time wins, the fifth-most in college football history. UT holds an all-time record of 936-389-33 (.701).

SERIES HISTORY VS. WASHINGTON

• Texas and Washington will face off for the fifth time in school history. It is scheduled to be the first meeting between the teams since 2001.
• Texas holds a 3-1 record all-time against Washington, including a 1-1 record in bowl games.
• In the last meeting, the Longhorns bested the Huskies at the 2001 Holiday Bowl, 47-43, rallying from a 19-point deficit late in the third quarter.
• Texas won a home-and-home series against Washington in the early 70's winning in Austin by a score of 35-21 in 1974, then topping the Huskies in Seattle in 1975, 28-10.
• Washington defeated Texas at the 1979 Sun Bowl with the No. 13 Huskies topping the No. 11 Longhorns, 14-7.

A TEXAS WIN WOULD ...

• Be Texas' 937th victory all-time, the fifth-winningest program in college football history.
• Improve the Longhorns to 32-24-2 all-time in Bowl games, 5-1 in the Alamo Bowl and 9-4 in Bowl games versus current PAC-12 teams.

SECOND SEASON OF SARKISIAN ERA

• Last season, the Texas offense ranked 18th in the nation and second in the Big 12 Conference with 35.5 points per game, the third-straight top-18 scoring output for a Sarkisan-led offense.
• The offensive showing also marked the eighth top-30 scoring offense in Sarkisian's career.
• Bijan Robinson rushed for 1,401 yards in 2021 and has established a career best with 1,580 rushing yards this season marking the 11th consecutive year a Sarkisian offense has had a 1,000-yard rusher.

OGHOUFO AN ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICAN

• Senior EDGE Ovie Oghoufo was named to the 2022 Academic All-America Second Team, as selected by the College Sports Communicators.
• Oghoufo had a 3.58-grade point average and received a graduate certificate in strategic communication from the Moody College of Communications this fall.
• A first-team Academic All-Big 12 selection in 2022 and two-time member of the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll, Oghoufo is the 25th Longhorn to be named to the Academic All-America first or second team and it marks the 34th honor in program history.
• Texas had five student-athletes earn Academic All-District accolades this season, with quarterback Hudson Card, offensive lineman Jake Majors, defensive lineman Moro Ojomo and offensive lineman Logan Parr joining Oghoufo in receiving the honor.

2022 ACADEMIC ALL-BIG 12

• Thirty Longhorns earned 2022 Academic All-Big 12 honors this season, with a total of 23 Longhorns garnering first-team distinctions and seven collecting second-team accolades.

THE EYES OF COLLEGE FOOTBALL ARE UPON AUSTIN

• Nearly 10.6 million viewers tuned into FOX for Texas Football's game against the Alabama Crimson Tide at Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium on Saturday, Sept. 10, the most-watched college football game of 2022.
• The broadcast averaged 10,595,000 viewers on FOX, peaking at over 15.1 million viewers, and was the fourth-most watch regular season college football matchup in the network's history.
• It marked the 30th game in DKR-Texas Memorial Stadium history to draw more than 100,000 fans.
• In addition to the record-setting crowds on the Forty Acres, FOX College Football announced that the game was the most streamed regular season college football or NFL game in FOX Sports history.
• ESPN's College GameDay drew its top Week 2 viewership in over a decade for the pregame show's live coverage from Lyndon B. Johnson Library Lawn.
• The show averaged 2,104,000 million viewers, an increase of 26% from 2021's Week 2 total.
• The final hour of the show, broadcast live from inside Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. CT, drew 2.7 million viewers.
• ESPN College GameDay's viewership of 2.1 million was the highest Week 2 total for the show since 2010 and the best for a September episode since 2016.
• ESPN GameDay returned in Week 11 for the Longhorns' top-20 matchup with No. 4 TCU, drawing 2.2 million viewers, up eight percent from the previous season, with 2.846 million viewers tuning in for the final hour.

DKR-TEXAS MEMORIAL STADIUM SHINES

• A total of 105,213 packed DKR-Texas Memorial Stadium, topping the previous record of 103,507 established in 2018 in the Longhorns' victory over USC.
• It marked the 30th game in DKR-Texas Memorial Stadium history to draw more than 100,000 fans and there have been four more since then.
• Texas drew over 100,000 fans to a home game for the first time since 102,498 packed the house for UT's 24-10 victory over Iowa State in 2018.

DRAWING A CROWD

• A week after setting the Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium attendance record, the Longhorns drew another huge crowd with 102,520 Longhorn faithful packing the house, the then-third-largest crowd in DKR-Texas Memorial Stadium history, and the 31st crowd of 100,000-plus.
• It marked the first time since 2018 that Texas had drawn back-to-back crowds of over 100,000 fans.
• Texas followed that by drawing 100,740 fans for the matchup with West Virginia and 100,072 for game against Iowa State, the first time DKR-Texas Memorial Stadium held over 100,000 fans four times in a season since 2012.
• Against TCU, the Horns drew 104,203 fans to DKR-TMS, the second-largest crowd in stadium history. It marked the fifth consecutive crowd of 100,000, the longest streak since 2012.
• Texas finished the year with a total home attendance of 701,697 fans, the second-largest home figure in program history, only behind the record of 704,580 set in 2010.
• It marked the second total home attendance of more than 700,000 fans in Longhorn history.
• UT averaged 100,242 fans per game in 2022, the fifth-largest average in program history and the first time Texas averaged more than 100,000 fans per home game since 2012.
• It was the fifth time in program history that Texas had an average attendance of over 100,000 per game.

RECORD-SETTING SEASON TICKET SALES

• Texas Football season ticket sales for the 2022 season broke an all-time record, eclipsing 64,000 season tickets to top the previous record of 63,279 set in 2019. This season, more than 8,000 new season tickets were purchased for Coach Steve Sarkisian's second season at the helm of the Longhorns.
• The 2022 home schedule, featuring seven home games for the first time since 2010, has been highlighted by the marquee non-conference home game with future Southeastern Conference foe Alabama. The Sept. 10 clash drew an all-time Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium record of 105,213.

• It was only the third time the Longhorns and Crimson Tide had met in Austin and the first time since 1922.
• The home slate also opened with three consecutive home games for the first time since 1996 and just the second time since 1981.

HALFTIME MOMENTUM

• Texas has had a scoring attempt in nine of its final 12 drives of the half this year, scoring touchdowns before heading into the locker room in six of the last nine games: Missed FG; Missed FG; FG; TD; TD; TD; TD; punt; TD; punt; TD, half). The Longhorns' opponents have scored just three (WVU, TCU, Baylor) on their final drive of the half with the other nine games being five punts, three interceptions and a missed FG.
• The Longhorns have held their opponents scoreless on each of their initial drives of the second half with the Horns scoring five times (four TDs and one FG) in 12 games.

COMPLIMENTARY FOOTBALL

• Texas is one of only 10 teams in the FBS (eight among Power 5 teams) averaging more than 35 points (35.7) and allowing less than 22 (21.2) on the season. The others are: Georgia (39.2 / 12.8), Michigan (40.1 / 13.4), Alabama (40.8 / 18.0), Penn State (35.8 / 18.0), Ohio State (44.5 / 19.2), Florida State (36.2 / 19.7), Utah (40.0 / 20.4), Tulane (35.2 / 20.5) and James Madison (37.0 / 20.9).
• Ranking 15th among Power 5 programs in scoring offense (35.7 ppg/20th FBS) and 19th in scoring defense (21.2 ppg/30th FBS), Texas is one of nine teams that ranks among the Power 5's top-20 in both scoring offense and scoring defense (the others are: Alabama, Clemson, Florida State, Georgia, Michigan, Ohio State, Penn State and Utah).
• Texas has the best rush offense to rush defense ratio in Big 12 with K-State ranking second: Texas +76.6 (199.6 rush off/123 rush def); K-State +60.7 (209.6 rush off/148.9 rush def).

TALKING TAKEAWAYS

• After forcing just two turnovers in the first five games of the season, the Longhorns have forced a turnover in each of the last seven games.
• Over the last seven games, Texas has totaled 11 takeaways which have resulted in 49 points, including touchdowns heading into halftime following three Jaylan Ford interceptions.

FINDING THE END ZONE

• In the Longhorns' season opener against ULM, Keilan Robinson returned a blocked punt for a touchdown, D'Shawn Jamison returned an interception for a score and the Texas offense scored three rushing and two passing touchdowns.
• It marked the first time since the season opener against Maryland in 2017 that Texas scored a touchdown on offense, defense and special teams.
• In the 2017 game, Holton Hill had a 31-yard interception return and returned a blocked field goal for a touchdown, and Reggie Hemphill-Mapps scored on a 91-yard punt return. Shane Buechele added a pair of touchdown passes to Armanti Foreman and Collin Johnson and ran in for another score.
• Also marked the first time since Selvin Young's 97-yard kickoff return for a touchdown against New Mexico State in 2003 that the Longhorns' first points of the season occurred on special teams.
• Texas tacked on a third non-offensive touchdown of the season when Jahdae Barron returned an interception 44 yards for a pick-six against UTSA.
• Barron added a scoop-and-score fumble recovery against TCU, taking a ball 48 yards for a touchdown on the first fumble recovery of his career.
• The four combined defensive and special teams touchdowns are the most for Texas since 2017.

MOST NON-OFFENSIVE TOUCHDOWNS (TEXAS, ALL-TIME)

Player	Total TDs	Years
1. Michael Huff	5 (4 INT; 1 FR)	2002-05
2. D. Jamison	4 (2 KR; 1 PR; 1 INT ret)	2019-pr.
B. Foster	4 (2 INT; 1 FR; 1 blk PR)	2004-07
Aaron Ross	4 (3 PR; 1 FR)	2003-06
Jordan Shipley	4 (3 PR; 1 KR)	2006-09
-- J. Barron	3 (1 blk PR; 1 INT ret; 1 FR)	2020-pr.

THE RUNNING BACK ROOM

• The Longhorns are the only Power 5 school to have a player with 3,000-plus career rushing yards and one with 2,000-plus career rushing yards (Bijan Robinson - 3,410; Roschon Johnson - 2,190).
• Texas had a historic rushing effort against Kansas, producing a 200-yard rusher (Bijan Robinson, 243 yards) and a 100-yard rusher (Jonathon Brooks, 108) for just the third time in program history and the first time since three Longhorns did it at Baylor in Nov. 1968 (Chris Gilbert, 213; Steve Worster; 137, QB James Street, 121).
• The Longhorns rushed for 427 yards against Kansas, the third-most ever for UT in a Big 12 game and the most-ever in a Big 12 road contest. The total matched the game high under Coach Sarkisian (427 vs. Rice, 2021) and was the fourth-most by Texas since 2000 (513 vs. North Texas, 2004).

BY THE NUMBERS

4 All-American LB Jaylan Ford has intercepted four passes this season, tied for the most by a Texas linebacker in program history.

7 Texas featured a pair of running backs with at least 500 rushing yards (Bijan Robinson - 1,580; Roschon Johnson 554) in a season for the second-straight year and the seventh time in program history.

20 Texas is one of nine Power 5 programs to rank in the top 20 in scoring offense (15th - 35.7 ppg) and scoring defense (19th - 21.2 ppg).

24 Sophomore WR Xavier Worthy, who leads the Big 12 with nine touchdown receptions, has caught a pass in 24 consecutive games, tied for the eighth-longest streak in program history.

29 Texas has totaled 29 offensive plays of at least 30 yards during this season with 13 resulting in touchdowns.

49 Sophomore TE Ja'Tavion Sanders has hauled in 49 receptions this season, one shy of David Thomas' single-season record for a Texas tight end.

100 Jaylan Ford ranks second in the Big 12 with a career-high 109 tackles, the first Longhorn to surpass 100 tackles in a season since Malik Jefferson had 110 in 2017.

110 The Longhorns have two players that have scored at least 110 points this season - Bijan Robinson (120) and Bert Auburn (110) - the first time in program history that two players have scored at least that many points in the same season.

700,000 Texas drew 701,697 fans to Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium this year, the second time Texas has had an attendance of over 700,000 in season. The Longhorns averaged over 100,000 fans per home game for the fifth time.

BREAKING BIG PLAYS

• This season, Texas is averaging almost six big plays (plays of 20 or more yards) per game with no fewer than three in a game, while Longhorn opponents are averaging just under four per game.
• Texas had a season-high nine gains of at least 20 yards at Oklahoma State.
• UT has 68 plays of 20 or more yards this season with 14 touchdowns, and Texas opponents have totaled 46 plays of at least 20 yards with nine touchdowns.
• On plays of 30 or more yards, the Longhorns have totaled 29 plays with 13 taken into the end zone for scores, while UT opponents have tallied 15 such plays with seven touchdowns.

TRANSFERRING TO THE 40

• Ten new faces arrived on the Forty Acres for the 2022 season via transfer from other colleges. That group includes:

Player	Previous School
TE Jahleel Billingsley	Alabama
QB Quinn Ewers	Ohio State
WR Agiye Hall	Alabama
WR Tarique Milton	Iowa State
WR Isaiah Neyor	Wyoming
OL Will Pliska	Washington
WR Gage Sulser	Montana
P Daniel Trejo	Texas Wesleyan
LB Diamonte Tucker-Dorsey	James Madison

FRESH FACES

• A total of 16 Longhorns have made their first career starts in the Burnt Orange and White this season. Nine Longhorns made their starting debuts for Texas in the season-opening victory over ULM. That group was made up of OL Kelvin Banks Jr., OL Hayden Connor, QB Quinn Ewers, DB Jaylon Guilbeau, TE Gunnar Helm, OL Cole Hutson EDGE Barryn Sorrell, TE Ja'Tavion Sanders and DB Ryan Watts. Against Alabama, WR Casey Cain joined the group with a start in the second game of his career, and Jamier Johnson made his first career start against UTSA. The following week at Texas Tech, DL Vernon Broughton earned his first career start. Against West Virginia, T'Vondre Sweat started for the first time in his career in his 40th game played. In the defensive backfield, DB Kitan Crawford started for the first time at Kansas State, DB Terrence Brooks tallied his first career start in the match up with TCU, and DB Michael Taaffe made his starting debut in Kansas. In the regular-season finale against Baylor, WR Tarique Milton made his first start.
• In all, 36 Longhorns have made their first career appearances for Texas this season. Thirty-three of those occurred in the season opener against ULM, with that group made up of Banks, Ewers, Guilbeau, Hutson, Watts, WR Jaden Alexis, DL Jaray Bledsoe, RB Jaydon Blue, DB X'Avion Brice, DB Terrence Brooks, DL Aaron Bryant, EDGE Ethan Burke, WR Casey Cain, OL DJ Campbell, EDGE Justice Finkley, DB Austin Jordan, WR Tarique Milton, WR Troy Omiere, P Isaac Pearson, WR Savion Red, OL Connor Robertson, DL Kristopher Ross, K Will Stone, WR Gabe Sulser, DL Zac Swanson, DB Michael Taaffe, EDGE J'Mond Tapp, WR Brenen Thompson, P Daniel Trejo, LB Diamonte Tucker-Dorsey, DB Larry Turner-Gooden, OL Neto Umeozulu and OL Cameron Williams.
• WR Agiye Hall joined the group when he made his debut for the Horns against UTSA and DS Lance St. Louis appeared in his first game at Texas Tech.
• TE Jahleel Billingsley appeared in his first game for Texas at Oklahoma State.

SCORE BIG AND SCORE OFTEN

• Texas scored 55 points in the victory at Kansas and held the Jayhawks to 14, providing the largest margin of victory on the road for the Longhorns since 2007 when UT beat Iowa State in Ames, 56-3.
• Texas tallied 31 points in the first half against Kansas, the sixth time this season the Longhorns have scored 28 points in a half.
• UT has scored at least 24 points in a half nine times this season.
• The Longhorns have scored at least 34 points in nine of 12 games this season.
• Texas scored at least 32 points in six of 12 games in 2021 and had four games of 48 points or more.
• In last season's victory over Texas Tech, the Longhorns scored 70 points in a game for the first time since 2005 Big 12 Championship Game against Colorado.
• It marked only the second time since 1977 and 11th time in school history that UT had scored 70 points in a game.
• The 70 points tied for the second most scored against a Big 12 opponent in conference play, while the 42 points scored in the first half were also the second most in a Big 12 contest.

STARTING STRONG

• It was a complete team effort from the Longhorns in the season-opening 52-10 victory over the ULM Warhawks.
• Texas tallied seven touchdowns in the winning effort and scored in variety of fashions with the offense, defense and special teams all finding the end zone via a blocked punt return, an interception return, two receiving touchdowns and a trio of rushing scores.
•Texas has begun each of the last five seasons with a win, besting Tulsa in 2018, Louisiana Tech in 2019, UTEP in 2020, Louisiana in 2021 and ULM in 2022.

DALLAS DOMINATION

• The Longhorns won the 118th edition of the Red River Showdown in dominating fashion, topping Oklahoma by a score of 49-0.
• UT's shutout was the first over OU since 1965 and the first suffered by the Sooners since 1998.
• The 49-point margin was also the worst suffered by the Sooners in shutout fashion in program history.
• Texas held Oklahoma to 39 passing yards, the fewest surrendered by the Longhorns since 2014 (North Texas - 15).
• The Longhorns 49 points were the most-ever scored against the Sooners and the 49-point win was the largest margin of victory of UT in the rivalry.
• Texas' 36 first downs were the most in a single game in the matchup and the most ever at a game held inside Cotton Bowl Stadium.
• Redshirt freshman Quinn Ewers passed for four touchdowns, tied for third-most in the Texas-Oklahoma game in series history.

WEATHERING THE CYCLONES

• Facing an Iowa State defense that was holding opponents to a Big 12-best (13th/NCAA) 91 rushing ypg, Bijan Robinson (28-135) & Roschon Johnson (11-71) combined for 206 rushing yards — including teaming up for 59 yards on nine carries on the game-winning 11-play, 75-yard touchdown drive.
• Iowa State's defense had been putting together one of the best seasons in school history, leading the Big 12 in total defense (277.5 yards per game), rushing defense (91.0) and scoring defense (13.7 points).
• Nationally, ISU had been eighth in scoring defense, 11th in total defense and 13th in rushing defense.

DEFENSE BRINGING THE HEAT

• The Texas defense came up huge in the 20-19 defeat at the hands of Alabama in week two, the first matchup between the storied programs since the 2010 BCS Championship Game.
• Texas' defense limited the high-powered Crimson Tide offense to 20 points, just the seventh time in the last eight seasons that Alabama has been held to 20 points or fewer.
• In the first half, Alabama rushed for 94 yards on 12 carries, with 81 of those yards occurring on one play.
• Following the 81-yard run, Texas forced Alabama to punt on each of the next six drives.
• The Horns did it again against TCU, holding a Horned Frogs team that was averaging over 43 points a game to 17 for the game, and limiting them to three points in the first half, the fewest points TCU had scored in a half all season.
• UT also posted season-high five sacks and 14 tackles for loss against TCU.

DOAK WALKER AWARD WINNER: BIJAN ROBINSON

• Ricky Williams was a two-time winner, bringing home the trophy in 1997 and 1998, while Cedric Benson collected it in 2004, and D'Onta Foreman won the honor in 2016.
• Texas' five Doak Walker Award trophies match the most by an FBS school all time (Wisconsin).

UNANIMOUS ALL-AMERICA

• Robinson was selected as a first-team All-American by the five outlets recognized by the NCAA, earning unanimous All-America honors for the first time in his career.
• He is the 23rd Longhorn in program history to be tabbed a unanimous All-America and the fourth Texas running back to earn the distinction, joining James Saxton (1961), Earl Campbell (1977) and Ricky Williams (1997, '98).
• Robinson is one of 14 players this season to be unanimous choices this season, while a total of 24 players earned consensus honors.
• A total of 148 Longhorns have earned 191 All-America honors in the history of the program. Texas is one of 10 teams in the nation to have at least 60 consensus All-Americans. With Robinson being named first-team All-American, a total of 97 players have earned 119 first team All-America honors in Texas Football history.

ROBINSON BY THE NUMBERS

• An Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award finalist and Walter Camp Award semifinalist, Robinson has been one of the top performers in the FBS this season, leading the NCAA in tandem yards with 1,894 (1,580 rushing, 314 receiving) and ranking second in total touchdowns (20).
• He ranks fourth nationally in rushing touchdowns (18), fifth in rushing yards (1,580), all-purpose yards (157.83 ypg) and points scored (120), and sixth in rushing yards per game (131.7), while leading the Big 12 in each category.
• The Tucson, Ariz. native has nine 100-yard rushing games in the last 10 outings, including a pair of 200-yard efforts, and has rushed for a touchdown in 10 of 12 games this year with multiple rushing touchdowns on five occasions.
• Robinson has tallied 100 yards from scrimmage 11 times and notched 200-plus yards on three occasions.
• He has 18 plays (11 rushes, 7 receptions) of 20-plus yards this season, including touchdown runs of 78, 42, 41, 40, 36 and 31 yards.
• Robinson is the only FBS player to have more than 1,500 rushing yards (1,580) and 300 receiving yards (314).
• He is one of only three players with 1,800 combined rushing and receiving yards heading into Bowl season.
• Robinson leads the Big 12 Conference in rushing yards, rushing yards per game (131.7), rushing touchdowns (18), total touchdowns (20), all purpose yards per game (157.83), total points scored (120) and scoring (10.0 ppg), while also ranking fourth in rushing yards per carry (6.12), sixth in points responsible for (120) and points responsible for per game (10.0) and 10th in total offense (131.7).
• The junior has seven total plays (five rushing, two receiving) of at least 40 yards.
• This offseason, Robinson focused on maintaining his speed for 90 yards (instead of the 40-yard dash), and was clocked at 22.3 mph on the GPS.
• Robinson has a history of not only making people miss and getting the tough yards, but also breaking big plays as both a rusher and receiver. For his career, Robinson has 45 plays (31 rushes/14 receptions) of 20-plus yards and that includes eight of 50 or more (all runs).
• Over his last 24 games, his ratio of long plays is even more impressive. During that time, he has 40 plays (27 rushes/13 receptions) of 20-or-more yards, including six runs of 50-plus. He's accomplished that in just 522 plays (472 rushes/50 receptions) in that 20-game span, or a play of 20-plus yards on average every 13 plays.

• In 12 games this season, he has 19 plays (12 rushes/7 receptions) of 20-or-more yards, including touchdown runs of 78, 42, 41, 40 and 36 yards.
• In 10 games last season, he had 12 plays (9 rushes/3 receptions) of 20-or-more yards, including two of 50-plus, with five touchdowns.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT BIJAN

• "I think he's unique. The ball skills, the illusiveness, the power, the acceleration, the balance, the football IQ, he's a very well-rounded player." – Steve Sarkisian
• "This kid may be the best player in the sport. This kid is big-time." – Kirk Herbstreit
• "Bijan Robinson is the best running back in the country. He's turning into the most dynamic offensive player in the country. He catches it well out of the backfield, they can get it to him in several different ways, he can affect the game at any moment, from anywhere and because of that, I feel very comfortable saying if I had to vote for a Heisman winner today, it would be Bijan Robinson. I think he's the most dynamic player in the country." – Joel Klatt
• "He is very twitchy as an athlete, very hard to tackle, and the greatest thing about him is he's powerful. He's a very powerful runner when he finishes. He's a very impressive young man and a great player." – Robert Griffin III
• "When you look like your NIL deal, you've done it right and so has the company." - Jason Benetti
• "He is so explosive, so hard to tackle, fast, strong, I think this is why he's the top back in the country." - Chris Petersen, FOX

BIJAN BRINGS IT

• Robinson closed out the regular-season slate on a high note, rushing for 179 yards on 29 carries (6.2 ypc) and two touchdowns against Baylor.
• The rushing touchdowns brought his season total to 18, tied for fifth-most in UT history and his career total to 33, tied for eighth in program history.
• Robinson pushed his season rushing total to a career-best 1,580 yards, the seventh-most in a season for a Longhorn.
• He rushed for over 100 yards for the 18th time in his career, fourth all-time in UT history.
• The scores gave him five multi-rushing touchdown games on the season and nine for his career, while also marking the 13th multi-touchdown game (rushing or receiving) in his career.
• Robinson has scored a combined 41 touchdowns (33 rushing, 8 receiving), tied for third among Longhorns all-time and he was the 13th Longhorn to score 30.
• He has a rushing or receiving score in 21 of his last 24 games.

BIJAN WITH THE BURST

• Bijan Robinson was on a roll last season, racking up yards at an astonishing rate before an elbow injury sidelined him for the final two games of the season. In 10 games, he had 1,127 yards on 195 carries (5.8 ypc) and 11 touchdowns to go along with 26 receptions for 295 yards (11.3 ypr) and four more scores. In 221 plays he had 1,422 yards for 6.4 yards per play and 15 touchdowns.

• The Tucson, Ariz. native's strong season earned him semifinalist nods for the Maxwell Award, Doak Walker Award and Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award.

• The hot first half of the season earned him nods on five midseason All-America teams, garnering accolades from the Associated Press, CBS Sports, ESPN, The Athletic and The Sporting News.

• Robinson eclipsed 1,000 rushing yards for the season in the Iowa State game to become the 13th Longhorn to surpass 1,000 yards on the ground in a season. It marked the 24th time in program history in which a Longhorn has accomplished the feat.

• Robinson finished third in the Big 12 Conference in all-purpose yards (142.20), rushing yards per game (112.7), scoring (9.0 points per game) and total touchdowns (15), fifth in rushing yards per carry (5.78), sixth third in rushing yards (1,127) and rushing touchdowns (11), and eighth in total points scored (90). His marks in rushing yards, rushing yards per game, rushing touchdowns, total touchdowns and all-purpose yards all ranked in the top-50 nationally.

• Over his 10 games of 2021 and the final four of 2020, Robinson totaled 1,649 rushing yards on 242 carries (6.8 ypc) with 15 touchdowns, while hauling in 34 receptions for 424 yards (12.5 ypr) and scoring six touchdowns. All told, he had 2,073 yards on 276 plays for 7.5 yards per play and 21 touchdowns.

• He scored 21 touchdowns (15 rushing and six receiving) in his last 11 games.

• In a 10-game stretch that began in the 2020 season against Kansas State and concluded against Baylor last season, Robinson scored a rushing or receiving touchdown in each game, equaling the longest stretch for a Longhorn since Jordan Shipley scored in 10 consecutive games in 2008. It was the longest streak for a UT running back since Cedric Benson in 2003-04, when Benson matched Ricky Williams and Byron Townsend's UT record of 11 consecutive games.

• Against Kansas last season, Robinson carried the ball 14 times for 70 yards (5.0 ypc) and caught three passes for 48 yards, including a 25-yard touchdown reception, before leaving the game in the third quarter with an elbow injury.

• Robinson hauled in a career-high eight passes for 32 yards at Iowa State and rushed 18 times for 90 yards (5.0 ypc).

• Against Oklahoma State, Robinson had 135 yards rushing on 21 carries with two touchdowns, while also grabbing three receptions for 38 yards and one touchdown.

• He had six games of 100 rushing yards last season, tied with Cedric Benson for 11th-most by a Longhorn in a season.

• The sophomore has surpassed 100 yards rushing in eight of his last 12 games and nine of the last 14.

• Against Oklahoma, Robinson carried the ball 20 times for 137 yards, including runs of 50 and 33 yards, with one rushing touchdown.

• He earned Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week and Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award Player of the Week honors following the Longhorns win at TCU after establishing career highs with 35 carries and 216 yards (6.2 ypc), scoring two touchdowns and catching two passes for 22 yards. He also set a personal-best with 238 all-purpose yards.

• Robinson's 216 yards on the ground were the 21st-most in UT history and was the 37th time a Longhorn had surpassed the 200-yard mark. He was the 13th individual to accomplish the feat and first since D'Onta Foreman against Texas Tech in 2016.
• He carried the ball 18 times for 137 yards against Texas Tech and had two receptions for 54 yards and one touchdown. He had a career-long 38-yard touchdown reception and runs of 33 and 22 yards, giving him.

• Robinson opened the 2021 campaign in style, earning Walter Camp Football Foundation (WCFF) National Offensive Player of the Week honors after racking up 176 all-purpose yards and two touchdowns, including 103 on the ground and a touchdown on 20 carries, along with four receptions for 73 yards and a touchdown in leading the Longhorns to an opening week win over No. 23 Louisiana.
• Had seven touchdowns through the first four games last year, surpassing the six he scored as a freshman in five fewer games played.
• Surpassed 1,000 career rushing yards in the Texas' 58-0 victory over Rice, becoming the 55th Longhorn to reach the mark.
• He reached 1,000 yards on his 138th career carry, the fastest Longhorn to reach the mark since Jamaal Charles accomplished it on his 138th career carry. Vince Young was the fastest to the mark in recent UT history, reaching 1,000 rushing yards on his 136th attempt.

BIJAN BREAKS OUT

• During his freshman season in 2020, Robinson appeared in nine games and made six-straight starts to close out his first season of college football. He led the Longhorns with 703 rushing yards on 86 carries (8.2 ypc) and scored four touchdowns. Robinson was also the team's fifth-leading receiver with 15 catches for 196 and added two more touchdowns as a receiver.
• His standout performances over the second half of last season have put him front and center and many preseason watch lists, including the Doak Walker Award, the Maxwell Award and the Walter Camp Football Foundation Player of the Year lists.
• Robinson was a big-play machine for the Longhorns in 2020, logging a team-high 14 explosive plays (20-plus yards) last year. Ten were as a runner and four as a receiver. Five of those came in the Alamo Bowl as he logged runs of 27, 50, 66 and 21 yards, as well as catching a 23-yard touchdown pass.

- His second was a week later in a Halloween matchup at No. 6/6 Oklahoma State. Robinson carried the ball 13 times for a team-high 59 yards in the come-from-behind win over the Cowboys.
- He made his collegiate debut in Texas' season opener against UTEP, carrying the ball five times for 38 yards and catching two passes for nine yards. Robinson broke off a 29-yard run late in the third quarter.

BIJAN'S BACKGROUND

- Prior to arriving on the Forty Acres, Bijan Robinson was an All-American and two-time state player of the year at Salpointe High School in Arizona. He was selected to participate in the 2020 All-American Bowl and became the first player in Arizona high school football history to twice win the Ed Doherty Award as the state's top high school football player by the Grand Canyon State Gridiron Club.
- Robinson left high school as Arizona's all-time career touchdown leader with 114, and the state's all-time leading rusher with 7,036 yards to his name. He also became the first player in Arizona history to rush for more than 2,000 yards in three consecutive seasons.
- Coming out of high school, he was ranked No. 14 nationally, No. 1 at all-purpose back and No. 2 overall in Arizona by Rivals. He was slotted at No. 22 nationally, No. 4 among running backs and No. 2 in Arizona by ESPN, and at No. 23 nationally, No. 2 at running back and No. 2 in Arizona by 247Sports.
- Robinson was named the Arizona Gatorade Player of the Year in 2019 and received the Arizona National Football Foundation Frank Kush Player of the Year honor.

A FREQUENT FACE IN THE AP POLL

- Texas has made 756 all-time appearances in the Associated Press Top 25, which debuted in 1936. Oklahoma and West Virginia are the league's only other current members to feature in the AP Top 25 on more than 300 occasions.
- The Longhorns' AP Top 25 history includes 55 preseason poll appearances (34 top-10), 45 total weeks at No. 1 and 49 appearances in the final poll (27 top-10).
- Texas has been ranked in 46 of the last 77 AP Polls, dating back to week five of the 2018 season. That stretch includes a streak of 21-straight appearances in the AP Top 25.
- A 162-week run that covered 11 years (2000-10) ranks as UT's longest consecutive streak of being ranked in the AP Top 25 in program history.

LONGHORNS MAKING THEIR MARK

• Currently, the Texas Football program has 35 players on NFL rosters.
• The current crop of Longhorns in the NFL have won a combined four Super Bowl titles, been named to eight All-Pro teams and been selected to appear in six Pro Bowl games.

• Worthy led all FBS freshmen in receiving yards, receiving yards per game and touchdown receptions and topped Power 5 freshmen with 62 receptions.
• He tallied six receptions for 65 yards against Kansas State, finishing the season with at least five receptions in six games during the season and at least one catch in all 12 games.
• At West Virginia, Worthy caught seven passes for 85 yards, including a 52-yard touchdown.
• Hauled in a touchdown reception in his fourth-straight game, tied for the fifth-longest streak in UT history.
• His 52-yard touchdown reception was his fourth of 50 or more yards.
• The seven receptions against West Virginia are tied for the ninth-most in a game by a freshman in UT history and gave him four of the top-14 marks in the Texas record book.
• Worthy put on a show against Kansas, hauling in 14 receptions for 152 yards and three touchdowns.
• His 14 receptions are tied for second-most and the most ever for a freshman in Texas Football history, while his three touchdowns in the game tied his own freshman record.
• The three scores marked his third multi-touchdown receiving game of the season, a new Texas freshman record, and marked the third consecutive game in which he has had a receiving touchdown, tied for the eighth-longest streak in UT history.
• It was his fourth 100-yard receiving game this season, the only freshman in UT history with more than two in a season, and is tied for the sixth-most in a season in program history.
• Against Iowa State, Worthy caught two passes for 32 yards, including a four-yard score that gave him eight touchdown receptions for the season, equaling Roy Williams' freshman record established in 2000.
• At Baylor, Worthy caught four passes for 115 yards, including a 63-yard touchdown reception, his third touchdown of at least 60 yards during the season.
• Against Oklahoma State, he hauled in five receptions for 28 yards, his fourth five-reception game last year.
• In his Red River Showdown debut against Oklahoma, Worthy hauled in nine receptions for 261 yards and two touchdowns.
• His 261 receiving yards against Oklahoma were a freshman record, the second-most in a game in UT history (273, Jordan Shipley vs. UCF, 2009) and the best output ever for a Longhorn against the Sooners.
• The nine receptions against Oklahoma were at the time tied for fourth-most by a freshman in a single game in program history.
• Worthy's 261 yards (on nine receptions) vs. Oklahoma were the fourth-most in a game by any FBS player last season, while his three TD catches vs. Texas Tech and Kansas were the tied for the seventh-most in a game for any FBS player in 2021, and tied for the most by a freshman.
• He was the first freshman in UT history to have three 100-yard receiving games in a season and the only one with a 200-yard performance.
• Worthy earned Big 12 Newcomer of the Week honors following UT's victory over Texas Tech, setting a freshman record with three TD catches in a game with a 62-yard score that ranked then as the 18th-longest touchdown catch by a freshman in program history.
• Worthy finished the day with five receptions for 100 yards, becoming the 13th freshman to hit the century mark in Longhorn history.
• Prior to the showing against the Red Raiders, Worthy came up huge in the Longhorns' win over Rice, establishing a then career best with a six receptions, to go along with 71 receiving yards and one touchdown reception, the first score of his career.
• Worthy's six receptions were tied for 11th-most by a freshman in a game in UT history at the time.
• Explosive plays have become a norm for Worthy, with 14 plays of 20 or more yards last season, including 62-yard and 23-yard touchdown receptions against Texas Tech and 75 and 62-yard touchdowns against Oklahoma in the first six games.
• Worthy also had a 34-yard reception against Louisiana, a 25-yard catch at Arkansas, and a 31-yard grab against Rice.

RUNNING WITH ROSCHON

• Senior RB Roschon Johnson is now 18th on the Longhorn all-time rushing list with 2,190 yards, after having passed Phil Brown against Kansas.
• This season, he was named a semifinalist for the William V. Campbell Trophy by the National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame.
• The Campbell Trophy recognizes an individual as the absolute best football scholar-athlete in the nation for his combined academic success, football performance and exemplary leadership.
• He won the fan vote for the Hornung Award, presented to the most versatile player in college football.
• Head Coach Steve Sarkisian on Roschon Johnson:

"What this guy brings every single day, is pretty incredible. He's so mature, he's got unbelievable work ethic, he's an awesome teammate. Think of the teammate that's probably at the lowest of his lows on our team right now, Roschon Johnson is the guy that's picking him up. After a tough loss, Roschon Johnson is the guy that's addressing the team. After a guy scores a touchdown or makes his first tackle of his career, Roschon Johnson's one of the first guys there to celebrate with him. Not to mention what he's doing in school, not to mention what he's done outside school to continue to build his own brand and what he stands for. So, so proud of him and love having him on our team. All of the accolades that he gets, he completely deserves. He's got the utmost respect of everybody in our building, that is for sure."

• Carried the ball 13 times for 77 yards (5.9 ypc) and two touchdowns in the season-finale against Baylor.
• Against K-State, he rushed for 62 yards on seven carries (8.9 ypc).
• He rushed five times for 73 yards, including a 52-yard touchdown run at Oklahoma State. It marked his third rush for at least 50 yards in his career and the second touchdown of at least 50 yards.
• Johnson ran for 71 yards against Iowa State, which owns one of the top defenses in the nation and secured the game with a tough first-down run to let the Longhorns run out the clock.
• In the Red River Showdown against Oklahoma, he carried the ball nine times for 57 yards (6.3 ypc) and caught two passes for 36 yards, including a career-long 38 yard reception.
• Against Texas Tech, he lined up in several positions in the backfield, rushing nine times for 24 yards while also catching a pair of passes for 23 yards.
• He was named to the Paul Hornung Award Honor Roll following Texas' 41-20 victory over UTSA in which he carried the ball 11 times for 81 yards, tallied three receptions for 23 yards and one touchdown, accounting for seven first downs (six rushing, one receiving). He also took snaps when the Longhorns lined up in the wildcat formation.
• Johnson registered 16 yards on five carries against Alabama, while hauling three receptions for 20 yards.
• He opened the 2022 season with a five carry, 34-yard performance against ULM with a 16-yard TD that capped off a five-play 73-yard drive.

• In 2021, Johnson carried the ball 96 times for 569 yards (5.9 ypc) with five touchdowns and did not have a negative carry until the Longhorns' ninth game of the season, while also adding 11 receptions for 83 yards (7.5 ypr).
• The Port Arthur, Texas native put on a show in the season finale against K-State, carrying the Longhorns to victory by rushing the ball a career-high 31 times for a career-best 179 yards while adding a touchdown.
• The performance earned him Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award Player of the Week Honorable Mention honors.
• He made his mark in the Longhorns' 58-0 win over Rice early in the game, racing for a 72-yard touchdown early in the contest to give Texas a 14-0 first-quarter lead.
• The 72-yard run was a career-long for Johnson, who finished the game with three carries for 112 yards (37.3 ypc).
• Johnson's run continued against Texas Tech, when he carried the ball 13 times for 64 yards (4.9 ypc) and two scores.
• He had a productive 2020 season in the Longhorns' running back rotation. He carried the ball 80 times for 418 yards (5.2 ypc) and scored six touchdowns.
• Johnson's 418 rushing yards and six touchdowns were both the second-best mark by a Longhorn last season.
• Johnson had his best day of the 2020 season in a road win over Kansas State, carrying the ball 14 times for a career-high 139 yards and scoring three touchdowns.
• It was the second time in his career he scored three rushing touchdowns in a game. He previously hit that mark vs. Texas Tech in 2019.
• Johnson surpassed 1,000 career rushing yards against K-State. He was the 54th 1,000-yard rusher in UT history.
• Three seasons ago, Johnson logged 807 all-purpose yards (649 rush/158 rec) on 146 touches (123 rush/23 rec) during his first year at Texas.
• In Big 12 games, Johnson rushed for 485 yards on 92 carries (5.3 ypc) and scored seven touchdowns.
• He posted two 100-yard games on the ground, both coming against conference opponents.
• His first was a 121-yard effort on the road against West Virginia in October. In Morgantown, he averaged 5.8 yards per carry on 21 attempts and scored one touchdown. Johnson was named the Big 12 Newcomer of the Week for the first time in his career for his performance.
• Johnson's second 100-yard outing came in the regular-season finale against Texas Tech, where he totaled 105 rushing yards on 23 carries and scored three rushing touchdowns.
• Johnson was the only Big 12 competitor to rush for more than 100 yards and more than one score during the final week of the regular season, helping him earn Big 12 Newcomer of the Week honors a second time.
• Johnson also rushed for 95 yards and a touchdown in the 2019 AT&T Red River Showdown, his first appearance against Oklahoma.
• His 95 rushing yards were the most by a Longhorn true freshman against the Sooners since Jamaal Charles logged 116 rushing yards in the 2005 Red River Showdown.
• Johnson was an early enrollee at quarterback for the Longhorns in 2019, but converted to the running back spot one week before the season opener against Louisiana Tech due to a slew of injuries to UT's backfield in training camp.

QUINN IN COMMAND

• Redshirt freshman QB Quinn Ewers has guided the Longhorns to six victories in his first nine career starts.
• His six victories are tied for third-most by a freshman in program history.
• Connected on 18-of-31 passes for 197 yards and two touchdowns at Kansas State.
• Marked the fifth time in his first six starts he had thrown multiple touchdown passes.
• Ewers threw for 319 yards and two touchdowns on 19-of-49 passing at Oklahoma State, the first 300-yard passing game of his career.
• In the win over Iowa State, Ewers passed for 172 yards and three touchdowns, completing 17-of-26 passes along the way.
• He had a standout performance against Oklahoma in the Red River Showdown, completing 21-of-31 passes for 289 yards and four touchdowns, establishing then-career bests in each category.
• The four touchdown passes are tied for third-most in the UT-OU game in series history and are the most-ever by a Texas freshman.
• Ewers' four passing scores are also tied for 10th-most in a game in program history and tied for third among Texas freshmen.
• His four touchdown passes were the most for a Texas freshman since Shane Buechele had four against UTEP in 2016.
• His efforts earned him Big 12 Conference Newcomer of the Week honors, the first weekly conference honor of his career.
• He started the first two games of the season for the Longhorns, completing 25-of-36 passes (69.4%), for 359 yards and two touchdowns in four total quarters of action.
• Against No. 1 Alabama, Ewers passed for 134 yards and connected on 9-of-12 passes before being sidelined with an injury at the end of the first quarter.
• He made his first career start and his Longhorn debut in the season opener against ULM, guiding the Texas to a season-opening 52-10 victory.
• The transfer from Ohio State completed 16-of-24 passes for 225 yards and two touchdowns. After throwing an interception on his second career passing attempt, he bounced back to connect on eight-straight passes and nine of 10, guiding Texas to four touchdowns, a field goal and a field goal attempt on his next six drives. The stretch included a 19-yard touchdown pass to Ja'Tavion Sanders and a 43-yard completion to Casey Cain.
• Ewers' 225 passing yards were the third-most since 1950 for a freshman starting in the season opener, trailing Shea Morenz's 347 (1993) and Shane Buechele's 280 (2016).
• He was the sixth Longhorn freshman to start the season opener and the fifth to lead Texas to victory:

• Whittington had three receptions for 58 yards including a 31-yard catch versus West Virginia.
• He caught four passes for 52 yards against Texas Tech and had four receptions for 56 yards, including 42 yards after the catch against UTSA.
• The junior was Texas' top target in the matchup with No. 1 Alabama, hauling in seven passes for 64 yards, including a first-quarter, third-down 17-yard reception that kept the Longhorns' second scoring drive alive.
• He opened last season strong in the Longhorns' victory against Louisiana, hauling in seven receptions for a career-high 113 yards and one touchdown. Of those 113 yards, 54 of them came after the catch.
• He came through in the clutch to keep drives alive with four of his seven catches occurring on third down, including a pair of third-down receptions on UT's second touchdown drive, a 41-yard play on third-and-11 that set up the Horns' third touchdown and a 16-yard reception in the fourth quarter that opened the door for his first touchdown catch of the season three plays later. All told, with the four receptions on third down he had 83 yards (20.8 ypc).
• In the Longhorns' victory over TCU, Whittington had a pair of receptions over 30 yards, including a 32-yard touchdown, finishing the day with three receptions for 79 yards and one score.
• Against Texas Tech, Whittington hauled in five passes for 93 yards and added his second touchdown of the year.
• Last season, Whittington set career highs with 26 receptions, 377 yards and three touchdowns.
• Whittington entered the 2021 season with career marks of 23 receptions for 223 receiving yards, including a career-best 10 catches and 65 yards against Oklahoma in 2020.

KEILAN COMING THROUGH

• Robinson is currently averaging 25.9 yards per kick return, the third-best mark in the Big 12 Conference.
• His 357 combined kick return yards are fourth-most in the Big 12 this season.
• Against TCU, he had two kick returns for 73 yards, including one of 52 yards.
• At Oklahoma State, he returned four kicks for 109 yards (27.3 ypr) including a long of 38, caught one pass for 19 yards and recovered a fumble on a muffed

• He blocked the second punt of his career versus Iowa State on the opening drive of the game.
• Robinson scored on a 15-yard touchdown passes against Oklahoma and also carried the ball four times for 32 yards.
• He hauled in his first-career touchdown reception at Texas Tech, a 35-yard score that he caught at the 22-yard line along the left side of the field, sprinting in for the score.
• Robinson found the end zone with a special teams touchdown on a scoop and score against ULM off a blocked punt for Texas' first points of the season.
• At West Virginia in 2021, he ran for a career-high 111 cards on nine carries (12.3 ypc), including a 49-yard touchdown run.
• Against Rice, the transfer from Alabama blocked a punt in the first quarter that rolled out of the back of the end zone for a safety, the first blocked punt for a score for UT since last season's Big 12 opener against Texas Tech.
• Robinson added a career-long 65-yard touchdown run early in the third quarter that put Texas up 51-0. On the day, Robinson had five carries for 83 yards (16.6 ypc) and one touchdown.
• With four carries against Texas Tech, the sophomore ran for 42 yards, including a 30-yard run, and added a touchdown.
• In 11 games with one start last season, Robinson has rushed the ball 45 times for 322 yards (7.2 ypc) and scored three touchdowns.

DEMARVION IS DIALED IN

• A 2022 All-Big 12 selection by the league's coaches and the Associated Press, senior LB DeMarvion Overshown has become a leader and proven big-play maker during his time on the Forty Acres.
• Now a two-time Butkus Award semifinalist, this season, he has registered at least five tackles in 11 of 12 games this season, including a season-high 14 (seven solo) in the season-finale against Baylor.

• Totaled 12 tackles (11 solo) and four tackles for loss over Texas' final four games of the 2019 season, including a five-tackle effort at Baylor.

FORD FOUNDATION

• Junior LB Jaylan Ford has emerged as a crucial member of the defense, earning third-team All-American honors from the Associated Press and first-team All-Big 12 accolades from the league's coaches and the AP.
• He leads the Big 12 in interceptions by a linebacker (4), and is tied for the lead in forced fumbles (3) and fumble recoveries (2), and his 109 total tackles and 9.1 average per game both rank second.
• He hauled in his fourth interception on the year in the regular-season finale against Baylor and added 11 tackles (two solo) and two tackles for loss on his way to Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week honors.
• Tallied his third interception of the season on Kansas' final drive of the first half, setting up a Longhorn touchdown before the teams headed to the locker rooms.
• Collected nine tackles in the Horns' strong defensive effort against TCU.
• Ford was sensational in the victory over Kansas State, recording a game-leading 10 tackles (six solo), while also forcing a fumble and recovering another. He also intercepted a pass in the final two minutes of the first half, returning it 18 yards to the K-State 33-yard line to set up Texas final score before the half.
• His efforts earned him Bronko Nagurski National Defensive Player of the Week and Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week accolades.
• At Oklahoma State, Ford collected six tackles (four solo) and had two tackles for loss and a sack.
• Ford played a critical role in ending two Iowa State drives in the Longhorns' victory over the Cyclones, earning Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week accolades for his performance.
• First, he intercepted a pass in the end zone that shifted momentum in the game in towards Texas and prevented a potential two-score deficit. Then, with just over two minutes remaining, he jumped on a Cyclone fumble that sealed the game for the Longhorns. He also added eight tackles (two solo) to lead the team.
• In the Red River Showdown, Ford made seven tackles (four solo) and had one TFL against the Sooners.
• Against West Virginia, he registered 14 tackles (seven solo), his fourth-straight game with 10-or-more tackles, and a tackle for loss.
• At Texas Tech, he recorded 12 tackles (four solo) and had a forced fumble.

• He collected seven tackles (one solo) with 1.5 TFLs and one sack in the victory.
• The junior also registered his first career sack as a Longhorn, ending a Louisiana drive late in the third quarter.

JAMISON TURNS ON THE JETS

• He registered two solo tackles and a pair of pass breakups at Oklahoma State.
• In the Red River Showdown, Jamison intercepted one pass, the sixth of his career, and three tackles (one solo), including one tackle for loss.
• He put on a defensive back clinic against West Virginia, equaling his career high with two pass breakups while also making two solo tackles to bring the total to 100 for his career.
• At Texas Tech, he recorded three tackles, including the first sack of his career.
• Against UTSA, Jamison had a pair of solo tackles and broke up two passes in the Longhorns' victory.
• He notched one tackle and broke up a pass in the matchup with Alabama.
• Jamison showcased his dynamic skill-set in the 2022 season opener against ULM, blocking the first punt of the game, which led to a touchdown, then intercepting a pass in the third quarter and returning it 69 yards for the first defensive touchdown of his career - the 14th-longest interception return for a touchdown in Texas Football history.
• His blocked punt made him the first Longhorn to have both a punt return for a touchdown and a blocked punt in his career.
• Jamison's interception return for a score was the fourth non-offensive touchdown of his career, adding to his two career kickoff return scores and a punt return. The number is tied for second in UT history with Aaron Ross (three punt returns, one fumble return) and Jordan Shipley (three punt returns and one kickoff return). Michael Huff holds the Texas record with five (four interception returns, one fumble return).
• For his career, Jamison ranks fourth in program history in kick returns (54) and kick return yards (1,435), while his current average 26.5 yards per return stands as the second-best in UT history.
• In 2021, he returned 19 kicks for 424 yards (22.3 ypr) and 12 punts for 105 yards (8.8 ypr).
• The defensive back intercepted his first pass of the season against Oklahoma State, the fourth pick of his career and first since 2019.
• At TCU, he had three tackles (two solo) and recovered a fumble in the first quarter, the second fumble recovery of his career and first since 2019 against Oklahoma.
• Jamison moved into fourth on UT's all-time kick return yardage list with a pair of 36-yard returns at TCU, giving him 1,155 yards for his career at that time.
• In 2020, he set a UT single-game record against Kansas State on Dec. 5, averaging 50.0 yards per kickoff return. He returned three kickoffs a total of 150 yards (98, 37, 15) to break Fozzy Whittaker's nine-year-old school record (252 yds/6 ret, 42.0 avg).

• Prior to 2020, Jamison returned a kickoff 98 yards late in the fourth quarter of a 48-13 win over Rice in 2019, and a 90-yard punt return against Kansas State in 2018.
• He joined Raymond Clayborn, Quan Cosby, Jordan Shipley and Selvin Young as the only Longhorns to achieve both feats with his score against the Owls at NRG Stadium in Houston.
• He also flashed his return skills against Kansas in 2019, when he recovered a blocked PAT and returned it 90-plus yards for a defensive two-point conversion.
• Earlier in the 2019 season against West Virginia, Jamison picked off two passes and logged four tackles.
• He bagged his team-high third interception of the season at Iowa State. Jamison also made a career-high nine tackles.

NON-OFFENSIVE TOUCHDOWNS

• Texas has made scoring non-offensive touchdowns a habit, registering at least one in 13 of the last 14 seasons.
• The Horns wasted no time this season when Keilan Robinson scored on a D'Shawn Jamison blocked punt to close out the first drive of the season opener by ULM.
• Jamison secured a defensive score with a third-quarter, 69-yard interception return against ULM, giving UT multiple non-offensive touchdowns in a season for the fourth time in six years.
• UT added a third for the 2022 campaign when Jahdae Barron intercepted a pass against UTSA at the Roadrunner 44-yard line and took it to the house for the first interception return of his career. He followed that with a scoop-and-score fumble recover against TCU.
• Josh Thompson tallied a 27-yard interception return against Texas Tech last season that marked the fifth-straight season in which the Longhorns had a non-offensive touchdown.
• D'Shawn Jamison's 100-yard kickoff return against Oklahoma State in 2020 was the second of his career and fueled the Longhorns comeback from an 11-point deficit at the sixth-ranked Cowboys.
• Texas has scored a non-offensive touchdown in 15 of the last 16 seasons.
• Thompson's touchdown was the first for the Texas since defense since Anthony Wheeler's 38-yard fumble return in the 2017 Texas Bowl.
• It was the first interception returned for a touchdown since DeShon Elliott's 43-yard return at Baylor, also in 2017.
• The score was the 79th interception returned for a touchdown in UT history.
• UT finished 2017 with eight non-offensive touchdowns, tied for the most in the country. It was their most since registering 11 in 2009.

STEVE SARKISIAN

HEAD COACH

In his 22nd year of coaching and ninth as a head coach, Steve Sarkisian is in his second year as head coach at The University of Texas.

A former All-American quarterback at BYU whose coaching career includes six years as an offensive coordinator at both the NFL and collegiate levels, Sarkisian was the 2020 Broyles Award winner (best assistant coach in college football) as offensive coordinator at Alabama. The former head coach at USC and Washington, he was named the 31st Head Football Coach at The University of Texas on January 2, 2021.

This season, Sarkisian has guided Texas to an 8-4 record with all four defeats coming by seven points or fewer, and it is just the second time in the last nine years the Longhorns have reached eight wins in the regular season. Meanwhile, this year's invitation to the Valero Alamo Bowl marks the sixth bowl game Sarkisian has led his teams to in nine seasons as a head coach. The 2022 Longhorns have featured a balanced attack that has averaged 35.7 points per game (20th FBS) and allowed just 21.2 points per game (30th FBS). Running back Bijan Robinson won the Doak Walker Award and has earned first-team All-America honors after leading the nation in tandem yards with 1,894 (1,580 rushing, 314 receiving) and ranking second in total touchdowns (20), while averaging a Big 12-best 131.7 rushing yards and 157.83 all-purpose yards per game. Robinson was also a first-team All-Big 12 selection and was joined in that honor by tight end Ja'Tavion Sanders and linebackers Jaylan Ford and DeMarvion Overshown. A three-time Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week honoree in 2022, Ford is second in the Big 12 in tackles (109; 9.1 tpg). His four interceptions are tied for the UT linebacker record and are the most among FBS linebackers this year. He is also the only Power 5 player with four interceptions and three forced fumbles, and the only FBS player with four interceptions, three forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. Additionally, wide receiver Xavier Worthy, true freshman offensive lineman Kelvin Banks Jr. and defensive lineman Keondre Coburn earned second-team All-Big 12 accolades, as a total of 20 Longhorns received all-conference recognition.

Year one of the Coach Sark era at Texas had its ups and downs as the Longhorns dealt with inconsistency, injuries and adversity in a 5-7 campaign. Texas opened and closed the 2021 season with big victories as the Sarkisian era began with a 38-18 victory over No. 23 Louisiana and ended with a 22-17 win over Kansas State. In between, five of the Horns' seven losses came down to the end with Texas falling by eight points or fewer in each of those. The Longhorns offense averaged nearly 200 yards rushing and 425 total yards while ranking 18th nationally in scoring at 35.2 points per game on the season. Wide receiver Xavier Worthy had a record-setting season on his way to Freshman All-America and Big 12 Offensive Freshman of the Year honors. Despite missing the final two games with an injury, running back Bijan Robinson compiled 1,127 rushing yards and 11 touchdowns to go with 26 receptions for 295 yards and four more touchdowns. Kicker Cameron Dicker and offensive lineman Derek Kerstetter joined Worthy and Robinson as four Longhorns who earned first-team All-Big 12 honors. All totaled, 14 Longhorns earned All-Big 12 recognition.

Prior to arriving on the Forty Acres, Sarkisian served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Alabama where he was the architect of 24 straight games in which the Crimson Tide's offense scored 35 or more points, the longest streak in major college football history. Despite coming up just short of that in a 31-14 win over Notre Dame in the College Football Playoff semifinals, the victory propelled Alabama to the National Championship Game where they defeated No. 3 Ohio State, 52-24.

In 2020, Alabama's offense ranked second in the nation in scoring and led all Power 5 schools with 48.5 points per game, which set a school record and included five 50-point games against Southeastern Conference competition. The Crimson Tide became the first team in league history to record five such games in a single season in conference play. The Tide followed that by posting 52 points against Florida in the 2020 SEC Championship to earn the No. 1 seed in the College Football Playoff. They later matched that total in the National Championship Game.

Alabama led the nation in third-down conversion percentage (58.9), team passing efficiency (198.99) and completion percentage (76.2), led by Heisman Trophy finalist and Davey O'Brien Award winner Mac Jones, who posted the top individual ratings in passing efficiency (203.1) and completion percentage (77.4), as well. The receiving end of the nation's No. 3 passing offense (358.2 ypg) featured the Heisman Trophy winner in DeVonta Smith, who led the nation in receiving yards (1,856) and receiving touchdowns (23), and was second in receiving yards per game (142.8 ypg) despite missing the second half of the National Championship Game due to injury. Along with the Heisman Trophy, Smith claimed the Walter Camp Football Foundation Player of the Year Award, the Maxwell Award and the Biletnikoff Award.

The offense also boasted the nation's leader in rushing touchdowns in Doak Walker Award winner RB Najee Harris with 26, while Harris was third in rushing yards (1,466) and 13th in rushing yards per game (112.8 ypg). Harris finished fifth in the voting for the Heisman Trophy to make Alabama the second team ever to place three players in the top five of the same Heisman vote, joining 1946 Army with Glenn Davis, Doc Blanchard and Arnold Tucker.

Blocking for that group was an offensive line that won the Joe Moore Award and was anchored by two first-team All-Americans in Outland Trophy winner LT Alex Leatherwood and Rimington Trophy winner C Landon Dickerson. Jones, Smith and Harris have all received first-team All-America honors, as well. As a team, Alabama ranked fourth in the nation in total offense at 541.6 yards per game to break the school record.

The 2019 Alabama offense averaged a school-record 47.2 points per game, which ranked second nationally, while averaging 510.8 yards per game, which was sixth nationally and is currently second on school record. Quarterbacks Tua Tagovailoa and Mac Jones combined to throw for 4,449 yards and 49 touchdowns which equated to a school-record 342.2 passing yards per game that ranked third nationally. Alabama's 199.61 passing efficiency rating was not only a school record, but the second-best mark in NCAA history. Smith ranked fifth nationally with 14 receiving touchdowns and 11th with 1,256 receiving yards. The receiving corps also featured Jerry Jeudy, who was 25th (10) and 20th (1,163) in those categories, respectively. Harris was also in the top 25 in rushing touchdowns (21st/13) and rushing yards (1,224). Jeudy and Leatherwood both earned first-team All-America honors, while Smith and OT Jedrick Willis were tabbed second-team All-America. Four members of the Crimson Tide offense went on to be drafted in the first 15 picks of the first round, including Tagovailoa (No. 5/Miami), Willis (No. 10/Cleveland Browns), WR Henry Ruggs III (No. 12 Oakland Raiders) and Jeudy (No. 15/Denver Broncos).

The past two seasons marked Sarkisian's second stint at Alabama after serving as an analyst for most of the 2016 season before being promoted to offensive coordinator for the 2017 College Football Playoff National Championship Game.

Prior to his return to Alabama, Sarkisian was the offensive coordinator for the Atlanta Falcons. During his two years coordinating the Falcons' attack, Sarkisian built one of the most dangerous offenses in the NFL. The 2018 unit finished in the top 10 in the NFL in passing yards (fourth – 4,653 yards), total yards (sixth – 6,226 yards) and scoring (10th – 25.9 ppg). Quarterback Matt Ryan was third in the NFL in passing yards (4,924 yards) while tossing 35 touchdowns. Wide receiver Julio Jones caught 113 passes for 1,677 yards and eight touchdowns, and Calvin Ridley added 64 catches for 821 yards and a team-high 10 scores. Jones led the league in receiving yards in 2018, while Ridley paced all rookies in receiving yards and touchdowns.

In 2017, two pieces of the Falcons offense, Jones and center Alex Mack, were selected to the Pro Bowl. Atlanta led the NFL in third-down percentage in Sarkisian's first season, while finishing eighth in the league in passing offense (249.4) and third in yards per play (5.93).

Sarkisian not only boasts play-calling experience at the highest levels of football, but seven years as an FBS head coach. He guided the Southern California program in 2014-15, and the Washington Huskies from 2009-13. He posted a head coaching record of 46-35 over those seven seasons while leading his teams to five bowl appearances.

During his time as head coach at USC, Sarkisian led the Trojans to a 12-6 overall record including a second-place finish in the Pac-12's Southern Division in 2014. His 2014 offense ranked in the top 25 nationally in passing efficiency (fourth – 165.35), passing offense (15th – 296.6 ypg), third down conversions (19th – 46.6 percent) and scoring offense (22nd – 35.8 ppg). The Trojans finished 9-4 overall, including wins in four of their last five games, and capped the year with a Holiday Bowl win over Nebraska.

In 2014, Sarkisian produced a pair of first-team All-Americans in DE Leonard Williams and WR Nelson Agholor, a sophomore All-American first teamer in S/LB Su'a Cravens, a quartet of Freshman All-American first teamers in CB/WR Adoree' Jackson, who was the Pac-12 Freshman Defensive Player of the Year, along with OL Toa Lobendahn, WR JuJu Smith and OG Viane Talamaivao. Quarterback Cody Kessler had the most efficient passing season in USC history (69.7 completion percentage, 39 passing TDs, five interceptions), Agholor had 104 receptions, which was third-best in USC history, and Allen rushed for 1,489 yards, the most by a Trojan since 2005. USC's offense ranked in the national Top 25 in passing efficiency, passing offense, third down conversions and scoring offense, while the defense was in the nation's Top 20 in turnover margin, red zone defense and third down conversion defense. Six Trojans were drafted by the NFL, including a pair of first rounders in Williams and Agholor, along with four players he coached at Washington, including three in the first round in DT Danny Shelton, CB Marcus Peters and LB Shaq Thompson.

At Washington, Sarkisian inherited a program in 2009 that had won just 12 games during the previous five seasons, including a winless season the year prior. Despite that challenge, he guided the Huskies to bowl games in his last four seasons. His eight victories in 2013 were the most at UW since 2000 and the Huskies finished ranked No. 25 in the Associated Press poll. His overall Washington record was 34-29, and his tenure in Seattle resulted in eight wins over Associated Press Top 25 teams (No. 3 USC, No. 19 California in 2009; No. 18 USC, No. 18 Nebraska and No. 24 Oregon State in 2010; No. 7 Oregon State and No. 8 Stanford in 2012; No. 13 Boise State in 2013).

Among the UW players Sarkisian coached were nine additional NFL draftees, including QB Jake Locker, CB Desmond Trufant, LBs Donald Butler and All-American Mason Foster, DE Daniel Te'o-Nesheim and RB Bishop Sankey, plus All-Pac-12 RB Chris Polk.

Sarkisian arrived at Southern Cal as an assistant in 2001 and took over as the quarterbacks coach in 2002, where he tutored quarterback Carson Palmer to the Heisman Trophy and the No. 1 overall pick in the 2003 NFL Draft. After spending the 2004 season as the quarterbacks coach for the Oakland Raiders, Sarkisian returned to the Trojan staff in February of 2005 as the assistant head coach and quarterbacks coach for four seasons (2005-08). He added the offensive coordinator role to his duties in 2007 and 2008 at USC.

At USC, Sarkisian coached Heisman Trophy-winning quarterbacks in Palmer and Leinart, along with NFL signal-callers Mark Sanchez, John David Booty and Matt Cassel. The Trojans went 23-3 during his tenure as the offensive coordinator.

Prior to his start in coaching as quarterbacks coach at El Camino College in 2000, Sarkisian starred at the quarterback position at the prep, collegiate and pro levels. He spent time with the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the Canadian Football League for three seasons (1997-99) following his collegiate career at BYU.

While with the Cougars from 1995-96, he completed 549-of-824 passes (66.6 percent) for 7,755 yards and 55 touchdowns. His 162.0 career passing efficiency rating was third on the all-time NCAA list when he finished playing. As a senior in 1996, he led the nation in passing efficiency (173.6, the fourth-best mark in NCAA history at the time), leading the Cougars to the WAC championship and a win in the 1997 Cotton Bowl. He was the WAC Offensive Player of the Year in 1996 and earned second team All-America honors.

Sarkisian earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from BYU in 1997 after getting his associate's degree in general studies from El Camino College in 1994.

He is married to the former Loreal Smith, who competed and coached in track and field. He has two daughters, Ashley and Taylor, and a son, Brady.

COACHING STAFF

JEFF BANKS

ASST. HEAD COACH, SPECIAL TEAMS COORD. TIGHT ENDS

A highly-regarded special teams coordinator who has extensive experience coaching in the state of Texas, Jeff Banks was named assistant head coach, special teams coordinator and tight ends coach at Texas on January 22, 2021.

Banks has tutored one of the top tight ends in the Big 12 in 2022, as Ja'Tavion Sanders produced one of the finest seasons for a Longhorn tight end in program history, earning first-team All-Big 12 accolades from the league's coaches and the AP, while also being tabbed a semifinalist for the John Mackey Award. Kicker Bert Auburn earned honorable mention All-Big 12 honors, and Keilan Robinson collected honorable mentions accolades at kick returner and as the Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Year.

In 2021, Texas tied for the NCAA lead with four blocked punts while ranking fourth nationally with five total blocked kicks. The four blocked punts were the most by the Longhorns since 2009 (five) and tied for the seventh-most in program history. Additionally, the Longhorns ranked 10th in the nation in punt return average allowed (2.86) and 38th in punt return average (10.13). Cameron Dicker was named a semifinalist for the Ray Guy Award, while also being named first-team All-Big 12 as a punter and honorable mention as a placekicker after ranking ninth nationally in punting average (46.8 ypp) and 14th in the field goal percentage (13-of-15, 86.7).

Banks arrived in Texas after completing three seasons on Nick Saban's staff at Alabama working alongside Steve Sarkisian as the special teams coordinator and tight ends coach during which time the Crimson Tide posted a 38-3 record, playing for two National Championships and winning one in 2020.

He spent the previous five years in the same role at Texas A&M (2013-17), and nine years as special teams coordinator and running backs coach at UTEP prior to that (2004-12) for a total of 14 in the state of Texas.

During Alabama's 2020 National Championship, the Crimson Tide special teams did not allow a blocked kick or blocked punt, and ranked ninth nationally in punt return average (14.95), 25th in kickoff return average allowed (18.18) and 30th in punt return average allowed (4.4). Heisman Trophy winner DeVonta Smith, who took over punt return duties late in the season, averaged 21.5 yards per return on 11 attempts, including an 84-yard touchdown. Smith did not meet the minimum number of returns per game to be ranked by the NCAA, but his average would have led the nation. Placekicker Will Reichard was a finalist for the Lou Groza Award and did not miss a field goal (14-for-14) or extra point (84-for-84) during the season.

In the tight end group, Miller Forristall led in receptions with 23 catches for 253 yards and one touchdown, while Jahleel Billingsley led in receiving yards with 287 and receiving touchdowns with three on 18 receptions.

The 2019 season saw the Crimson Tide's special teams units highlighted by Jaylen Waddle who earned first team All-America honors while leading the nation in punt returns, averaging 24.4 yards per return with a touchdown. He also returned five kickoffs for 175 yards and a score. Reichard kicked well early in the season but saw his year derailed by a hip flexor injury that forced him to miss eight games. Joseph Bulovas filled in and hit 8-of-11 field goals. Walk-on Ty Perine, Reichard, Skyler DeLong and Mike Bernier shared the punting duties and combined to average 39.9 yards per punt.

Injuries also hampered Banks' tight end room with Forristall missing four games while leading the unit with 15 catches for 167 yards and four touchdowns. Major Tennison added three grabs for 21 yards and a score while former offensive linemen Kendall Randolph and Chris Owens converted to tight end midway through the season and provided Alabama blocking in the run game.

In his first season in Tuscaloosa, Banks saw his punt return defense rank fifth nationally (2.67 ypr) and his punt return unit finish 12th in the country (14.71 ypr). The Tide was also third in the SEC in kickoff returns with an average of 23.77 yards per return. Waddle was named the SEC Freshman of the Year while ranking second in the SEC in punt return average at 14.6 yards per return with one touchdown. That 2018 campaign also saw Bulovas connect on 14-of-18 field goals with a long of 49 yards with 44 touchbacks on kickoffs. Alabama won the SEC Championship and played for the National Championship that year.

His tight ends Irv Smith Jr. and Hale Hentges also excelled with Smith earning second team All-America honors. Smith caught 44 passes for 710 yards and seven touchdowns, which was a school record for tight ends. Hentges hauled in three touchdown passes while proving essential to the Tide's rushing attack. Smith went on to be drafted 50th overall in the second round of the 2019 NFL Draft by the Minnesota Vikings. Hentges was signed as an undrafted free agent by the Indianapolis Colts, has also played for the Washington Football Team and then was signed by the Vikings.

Banks came to Alabama after five years as the tight ends and special teams coordinator for Kevin Sumlin at Texas A&M. The Aggies boasted one of the nation's top special teams units in 2017, ranking third nationally in net punting (42.29 ypp) and second nationally in punt returns with a 17.1 average and two touchdowns. Punter Shane Tripucka ranked sixth nationally in punting with an average of 45.5 yards per punt. Banks' units were also No. 1 nationally with eight blocked kicks during his final year in College Station.

In 2016, the Aggies led the nation in punt return average at 25.39 yards per return with four touchdowns. Returner Christian Kirk led the nation individually in punt return touchdowns with three while averaging 21.7 yards on 13 returns. Texas A&M also ranked seventh nationally in net punting in 2016 with a 41.58 yard average.

The highlight of his first season with the Aggies in 2013 was the development of punter Drew Kaser and placekicker Josh Lambo. Kaser broke the Texas A&M single-season record with a 47.4 punt average while being named a first team All-American and being selected as a finalist for the Ray Guy Award. Kaser was a sixth-round NFL Draft pick of the Chargers in 2016. Lambo connected on 80 percent of his field goal kicks and was 50-of-51 on PATs. The Aggies also blocked an SEC-high three kicks, ranked third in net punting (39.4) and finished second in kickoff return defense (18.3).

Prior to arriving at Texas A&M in 2013, Banks had a brief stint as the running backs coach and special teams coordinator at Virginia after having coached running backs and coordinated special teams for nine years at UTEP (2004-12).

During his time in El Paso, Banks oversaw one of the top special teams units in Conference USA, as the Miners led the league in special teams statistics in 2011 and 2012. In 2012, UTEP led the conference in net punting with a 40.1 average and punt return defense with a 3.1 yard average. The Miners allowed just 65 yards on 21 opponent punt returns. UTEP also ranked No. 3 in kickoff returns (23.8 avg.) and No. 4 in punt returns (10.1). That same season, UTEP blocked four kicks and returned a pair of kickoffs for touchdowns.

The 2011 season saw UTEP lead C-USA in punting (40.5 avg.), rank second in kickoff returns (26.3 avg.) and wrap up at third in kickoff coverage (44.4 avg.). The Miners rated fourth nationally in kickoff returns and sixth in net punting, and the team blocked three punts while executing successful fake kicks for first downs on the road on three occasions. In 2009, a Banks pupil, Donald Buckram, broke UTEP's single-season rushing record that had stood for over 60 years by rushing for 1,594 yards.

Banks served as an assistant coach at Idaho State from 2000-03, where he was the special teams coordinator, recruiting coordinator and running backs coach. Idaho State led the nation in net punting twice in his three seasons. He got his coaching start as a graduate assistant under Mike Price at Washington State from 1998-2000, where he worked with the offense in addition to the punters and kickers.

As a player, Banks was a two-time all-conference punter for Washington State, posting a 42.8-yard average as a junior and 43.4-yard average as a senior. In his final season, he led the Pac-10 and was No. 15 nationally while helping the Cougars go 10-2 and earn an invitation to the Rose Bowl. Banks was also selected to participate in the Senior Bowl.

A native of Upland, Calif., Banks has a daughter, Sydnei, and two sons, Gage and Tanner. Banks earned his bachelor's degree in communications from Washington State in 1999.

JEFF CHOATE

INSIDE LINEBACKERS

He has tutored AP All-American linebacker Jaylan Ford, who along with DeMarvion Overshown, earned first-team All-Big 12 honors from the league's coaches and the Associated Press. A three-time Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week honoree in 2022, Ford is second in the Big 12 in tackles (109; 9.1 tpg). His four interceptions are tied for the UT linebacker record and are the most among FBS linebackers this year. He is also the only Power 5 player with four interceptions and three forced fumbles, and the only FBS player with four interceptions, three forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries.

In 2021, Choate helped guide DeMarvion Overshown and Luke Brockermeyer to career years. Both players earned honorable mention All-Big 12 accolades, while Brockermeyer was also nominated for the Burlsworth Trophy. Overshown and Brockermeyer posted career highs in tackles, totaling 74 and 72, respectively, to lead the team.

Before his arrival on the Forty Acres, Choate served four season as the head coach at Montana State. After building up the program in his first two seasons in Bozeman, Choate led the Bobcats to back-to-back FCS playoff appearances in 2018 and 2019, including advancing to the semifinals in 2019. That was the Bobcats' deepest postseason run since 1984, and in his final two seasons there, he led the team to a 19-9 record.

Prior to his time at Montana State, Choate spent several years coaching alongside Texas' Defensive Coordinator and Outside Linebacker Coach Pete Kwiatkowski at both Washington and Boise State. The 28-year coaching veteran spent 16 years as an assistant coach at the college level, most recently as special teams coordinator and defensive line coach for two seasons at Washington (2014-15).

In 2019, Montana State improved dramatically in many statistical categories, ranking in the FCS top 25 in rushing offense (8th/258.1 ypg), turnover margin (13th/+0.87 tpg), rushing defense (18th/121.2 ypg), scoring defense (23rd/22.1 ppg), and total offense (25th/426.5 ypg), along with sacks allowed (7th/0.93 spg), sacks (20th/2.73 spg), tackles for loss allowed (11th/4.67 tpg) and net punting (14th/39.17 ypp). Two Bobcats earned second-team FCS All-America honors, including OL Mitch Brott and DL Bryce Sterk. Along with those two, a total of 13 Montana State players received All-Big Sky Conference recognition, including first-team linebackers Troy Andersen and Josh Hill and third-team linebacker Amandre Williams. Montana State finished the season 11-4, winning six of its last seven games with the only loss coming to No. 1 North Dakota State in the playoff semifinals. The 11 wins are the second-highest single-season total in program history and included a fourth-straight win over Montana for the first time since 1977.

The 2018 Bobcats won four of their last five games, including winning the program's 10th postseason game in program history, only falling to North Dakota State in their final game in the second round of the playoffs to finish 8-5. They featured the nation's No. 17 rushing offense (231.8 ypg) and was effective in not allowing negative plays, ranking seventh in tackles for loss allowed (4.08 tpg), and 12th in sacks allowed (.085 spg). The team was once again proficient in turnover margin, ranking 12th at +0.77 tpg, and net punting, which was 16th at 38.01 ypp. Andersen earned third-team All-America honors as an all-purpose player after playing quarterback, starting 11 of 13 of MSU's games. He set a school record rushing for 21 touchdowns, along with 1,412 yards on 206 carries (6.9 ypc). Overall, he registered 2,607 yards of total offense.

In 2016 and 2017, Choate began the building process at Montana State. The Bobcats had back-to-back Big Sky Freshman of the Year honorees those seasons with Andersen, playing both quarterback and linebacker, garnering it in 2017, and QB Chris Murray doing so in 2016, along with Freshman All-America recognition. One of Andersen's fellow linebackers, Mac Bignell was tabbed first-team all-conference in 2017. The Bobcats led the Big Sky and ranked seventh nationally in rushing offense at 249.5 yards per game that year, all while facing a program-record seven nationally ranked opponents. The rushing attack was also strong the year before, as they ranked 17th in the nation at 212.0 yards per game behind a line anchored by first-team all-conference OG J.P. Flynn.

In 2015, his second at Washington, Choate was part of the top defense in the Pac-12 Conference, despite having lost four starters to the NFL Draft after the 2014 season. The defense led the Pac-12 in scoring defense (18.8 ppg) and total defense (351.8 ypg) and was second in rushing defense (125.3 ypg) and pass efficiency defense (115.9). The Huskies were also best in the league in opponent first downs and red-zone defense. Sophomore DL Elijah Qualls registered eight starts in 10 games for the Huskies with 4.5 sacks and would later be selected in the sixth round of the 2017 NFL Draft by the Philadelphia Eagles. Future 2018 first-round pick Vita Vea was also a member of that line and played in 11 games as a freshman. Washington capped their season with a win in the Heart of Dallas Bowl.

At UW in 2014, Choate coached a defensive line that featured two first-team All-America selections in Hau'oli Kikaha (one of just six unanimous All-Americans in UW history) and Danny Shelton. Kikaha led the nation in sacks with 19.0, while linemate Andrew Hudson finished sixth in the nation with 12.5 sacks. Washington finished the season second in the nation in sacks, fifth in fumble recoveries, ninth in turnover margin and 26th in takeaways. Additionally, UW led the NCAA-FBS with seven defensive touchdowns. The UW's special teams also stood out as Washington the Huskies had one of the nation's most accurate field-goal kickers (Cameron Van Winkle, .833, 12th) and returned two kickoffs and a punt for a TD. Meanwhile, the Huskies allowed just 50 yards in punt returns all season.

In 2013, Choate served as special teams coordinator and outside linebackers coach at Florida. The Gators ranked second in the SEC in total defense (314.2 ypg/8th FBS) and pass defense (171.8 ypg/7th FBS), while ranking third in rush defense (142.4 ypg/33rd FBS) and points allowed (21.1 ppg/15th FBS). Several special teams units also ranked in the top 15 nationally, including kickoff return defense (16.41 ypr/3rd), kickoff returns (24.82 ypr/10th), and punt return defense (3.77 ypr)/13th).

Choate served one season as linebackers coach at Washington State in 2012. The Cougars were No. 8 nationally in tackles for loss (7.7 pg) and 11th in sacks (2.9 pg).

From 2006-2011, Choate was an assistant at Boise State in several roles. He served as special teams coordinator all six years and also spent time coaching running backs (2006-08), linebackers (2009) and nicklebacks (2010-11). During that time, the Broncos posted a 73-6 overall record, winning four Western Athletic Conference Championships and two Fiesta Bowl Championships and finishing ranked in the top 11 five times (2006, '08-11), including two in the top five (2006, 2009).

Boise State ranked in the top 25 nationally in kickoff returns three times (2007, 10th; 2009 4th; 2010, 23rd) and in punt returns four times (2007, 22nd; 2008, 20th; 2010, 16th; 2011, 18th) under Choate.

Among his protégés was Kyle Brotzman, the highest-scoring kicker in school and conference history (439 points) and Boise State's career leader in punting (44.6 ypp). He also coached Kyle Wilson, who led the country in punt return touchdowns (3) and ranked 12th in punt return average (14.2 ypr) in 2008.

Coaching nickelbacks, Choate tutored All-WAC first team selection Winston Venable in 2010. The Broncos ranked second nationally in scoring defense (12.8 ppg) and total defense (254.7 ypg) that season.

Working with the linebackers in 2009, the Broncos were 14th nationally in total defense (300.2 ypg) and scoring defense (17.1 ppg). The team led the WAC in six defensive statistical categories that year, including passing efficiency defense, total defense, scoring defense, pass defense, tackles for loss and sacks. The team completed its season 14-0 with its second Fiesta Bowl win by defeating TCU.

As running backs coach, he was instrumental in the development of Ian Johnson, who at the time set a WAC record with 58 rushing touchdowns, which is still the second-best mark following 59 by Colin Kaepernick. Johnson amassed 4,183 yards in a Bronco uniform, second all-time in school history. He led the nation in rushing touchdowns (25) and scoring (152 points) in 2006. That year, the Broncos finished 13-0 including a win over Oklahoma in the Fiesta Bowl.

Prior to joining Boise State, Choate served as special teams coach at Eastern Illinois (2005) and Utah State (2003-04). In his lone season at Eastern Illinois, the Panthers finished first in the Ohio Valley Conference.

Choate began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Utah State in 2002, working first with the defensive line that year and then the safeties in 2003-04.

From 1997-2001, Choate was the head coach at Post Falls (Idaho) High School and also served as athletic director his final two years. He also coached at the Idaho high school level at Twin Falls and Challis.

Choate earned his bachelor's degree from Montana Western in 1993, where he played linebacker. He and his wife, Janet, have one son, Jory, and a daughter, Jacy.

COACHING STAFF

TASHARD CHOICE

ASSISTANT COACH
RUNNING BACKS

A former collegiate standout and NFL running back who is in his eighth year of coaching, Tashard Choice was hired as running backs coach at Texas in December 2021. Choice spent significant time during his career in the state of Texas, first as an NFL player, then volunteering time with Waxahachie High School's football program, followed by serving as a coaching intern with the Dallas Cowboys and as an assistant coach at North Texas.

In 2022, running back Bijan Robinson won the Doak Walker Award and has earned first-team All-America honors after leading the nation in tandem yards with 1,894 (1,580 rushing, 314 receiving) and ranking second in total touchdowns (20), while averaging a Big 12-best 131.7 rushing yards and 157.83 all-purpose yards per game. Robinson, who was also a first-team All-Big 12 selection, has teamed with Roschon Johnson (563 rushing yards, five rushing TDs) to field on of the most formidable running back dues in the NCAA, combining for over 2,000 rushing yards and over 20 touchdowns.

As a player, Choice was a two-time Atlantic Coast Conference rushing champion at Georgia Tech in 2006 and 2007, who went on to play six seasons in the NFL. A first-team All-ACC and honorable mention All-American performer in 2007, he was a member of the Dallas Cowboys from 2008-11 and also spent time professionally with Washington (2011), Buffalo (2011-13) and Indianapolis (2013) before transitioning into coaching.

Choice spent the past three seasons as running backs coach at his alma mater. During his time back at Georgia Tech, he coached a freshman All-American (Jahmyr Gibbs – 2020) and two ACC all-conference honorees (Gibbs – 2020 & 2021; Jordan Mason – 2019). In his role as offensive recruiting coordinator, he was instrumental in putting together consecutive highly-ranked recruiting classes, including only the second top-25 class in Yellow Jackets history in 2020.

Prior to Georgia Tech, he served as an offensive quality control assistant at North Texas in 2017 and was promoted to running backs coach for the Mean Green 2018. He was one of six finalists for FootballScoop's Running Backs Coach of the Year award that year.

In his two seasons on the UNT staff, the Mean Green posted back-to-back nine-win seasons for the first time since the program joined the NCAA Division I FBS ranks in 1995.

Under Choice's tutelage as running backs coach in 2018, UNT sophomore running back Deandre Torrey amassed 1,182 yards from scrimmage (977 rushing, 205 receiving) and scored 17 touchdowns en route to being named second-team All-Conference USA. Making Torrey's development even more impressive is the fact that he didn't enter the starting lineup until nearly midway through the season, as junior Loren Easly was C-USA's leading rusher with 386 yards in four games before he sustained a season-ending injury.

Choice also assisted with the UNT's running backs in his quality-control role in 2017 and played a part in all of the Mean Green's running backs averaging at least five yards per carry, led by second-team All-C-USA selection Jeffrey Wilson (1,215 yards and 16 touchdowns in just 11 games, good for the nation's second-highest yards-per-game average – 110.5 ypg).

Before UNT, he got his full-time coaching career started as an intern with the Dallas Cowboys in 2016. While working with the Cowboys, the Thomasville, Ga. native helped spur running back Ezekiel Elliott to one of the best rookie campaigns in NFL history.

In his first full year after playing, he volunteered time working with the Waxahachie High School football program.

During his six-year NFL career, Choice played in 88 games, totaling more than 2,000 yards (1,579 rushing, 574 receiving and 89 on kick returns) and scoring 10 touchdowns.

At Georgia Tech, he led the ACC in rushing as a junior in 2006 (1,473 yards) and a senior in 2007 (1,379 yards). He is the only Yellow Jacket to ever lead the ACC in rushing twice and is one of only three Jackets to ever post two 1,000-yard rushing seasons.

One of the most decorated running backs in Georgia Tech history, Choice was a Yellow Jacket from 2005-07 after transferring from Oklahoma. In just three seasons on The Flats, he ran for 3,365 yards and scored 28 touchdowns, which rank fourth and sixth in Georgia Tech history, respectively. A first-team All-ACC honoree as a senior and a second-team selection as a junior, Choice was also recognized as an honorable-mention All-American as a senior in 2007. He was inducted into the Georgia Tech Sports Hall of Fame in October 2021.

A two-time member of the ACC academic honor roll, Choice graduated from Tech in 2007 with a bachelor's degree in history, technology and society.

He married his wife, Rebecca, in February 2019.

BO DAVIS

DEFENSIVE LINE

A former assistant coach at Texas, Alabama and in the NFL who has been a part of three national championship teams, Bo Davis was named defensive line coach for the Longhorns on January 22, 2021.

In 2022, the Longhorns have featured a pair of All-Big 12 performers on the defensive line, with Keondre Coburn earning second-team honors for the league's coaches and the Associated Press, and Moro Ojomo collected second-team honors for the AP.

Davis previously coached in Austin from 2011-13 as the defensive tackles coach under head coach Mack Brown, but returns after spending two years at Alabama (2014-15), one year with the Jacksonville Jaguars (2016), one year at UTSA (2017) and the last three with the Detroit Lions (2018-20).

During his three seasons in Detroit, Davis guided a defensive line that helped the Lions rank in the top half of the NFL in sacks and rushing yards allowed per carry in each of those years. It was his third time as a staff member in the league after serving as a defensive intern with the Jaguars, and as an assistant defensive line coach and assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Miami Dolphins in 2006.

In one season at UTSA in 2017, Davis was part of a defense that ranked fifth nationally in total defense (287.8 ypg), eighth in scoring defense (17.0 ppg), second in passing defense (160.1 ypg) and 22nd in rushing defense (127.7 ypg). Defensive end Marcus Davenport was chosen as the Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year earned first-team All-CUSA honors, while DT Kevin Strong was named to the second team. A member of the Chuck Bednarik Award and Wuerffel Trophy watch lists, Davenport set school records with 17.5 tackles for loss, 8.5 sacks and eight quarterback hurries, while ranking 10th nationally in TFL per game (1.5) and 14th in sacks per game (0.77). He became the first Roadrunner to be invited to the Senior Bowl and just the second participate in the NFL Combine. The New Orleans Saints traded up to the 14th overall pick to select Davenport and he has made 14 starts in three seasons.

In 2014-15, Davis served his second stint as the defensive line coach at Alabama under Nick Saban after working in the same position for four seasons from 2007-10. In those two seasons, Alabama appeared in back-to-back College Football Playoffs, winning the 2015 national title with a 45-40 victory against Clemson after falling to Ohio State in the semifinals the previous year. The Tide posted a 26-3 record during his last tenure and were 68-13 overall during his six total seasons in Tuscaloosa. Including his time with the Miami Dolphins and at LSU (2002-05), Davis has spent 10 seasons on Saban-led coaching staffs.

Alabama led the country in 2015 by allowing just 75.7 yards per game on the ground, while ranking third nationally in sacks with 3.53 per contest. The Crimson Tide also ranked third in both total defense (276.3 ypg) and scoring defense (15.1 ppg).

Davis' defensive line that season was led by Jarran Reed, A'Shawn Robinson and Jonathan Allen. Robinson was a first-team All-American and an Outland Trophy finalist after posting 46 tackles with 7.5 TFLs, 3.5 sacks, two pass breakups and a team-high 10 quarterback hurries. Allen registered 36 tackles, including 14.5 TFLs and 12 sacks, and Reed recorded 57 tackles with 4.5 for loss, eight quarterback hurries and two pass breakups, as both earned All-SEC accolades. Reed and Robinson went on to be selected in the second round of the 2016 NFL Draft by the Seattle Seahawks and Detroit Lions, respectively, while Allen was chosen 17th overall in 2017 by the current Washington Football Team.

The previous season, Davis's position group helped the Alabama defense rank fourth nationally against the rush, surrendering just 102.4 yards per game. The Crimson Tide also led the nation by allowing just five rushing touchdowns for the season, while recording 32 sacks. Allen was named first-team All-SEC, while Robinson was a second-team all-conference selection and Reed earned honorable mention honors.

Prior to that, Davis was the defensive tackles coach at Texas for three seasons. In 2013, he guided a tackles unit that was led by senior Chris Whaley, who became the first defensive tackle in school history to score two defensive TDs in the same season. Prior to an injury, Whaley paired with Malcom Brown to start the first nine games of the year. That season, Brown was third on the team with 12.0 TFL, while Whaley and Desmond Jackson each had five. The group was instrumental in a Texas run defense that gave up just 137.6 yards per game on the ground in conference play.

Davis rotated five players at his defensive tackle positions in 2012. Jackson, Whaley, Brandon Moore and Ashton Dorsey manned the middle of the defensive line, along with Brown. The group accounted for 31 tackles for loss. Moore went on to sign a free agent contract with the San Diego Chargers. The tackles helped the defense improve throughout the season as it surrendered just 324.8 yards over the final six games, a drop of more than 140 yards from the first seven contests.

Davis helped the defense lead the Big 12 in total defense (11th NCAA), rushing defense (sixth NCAA), pass efficiency defense (10th NCAA) and pass defense in his first season. The defensive tackles group was led by first-team All-Big 12 selection Kheeston Randall who was key to stopping the run inside while recording five tackles for loss, one sack and eight quarterback pressures. Randall went on to be selected by the Miami Dolphins in the 2012 NFL Draft. As a group the defensive tackles tallied 17 tackles for loss, six sacks and 21 pressures.

Davis came to Texas after spending four seasons with the Crimson Tide as defensive line coach where he was a part of defenses that consistently led the SEC and ranked in the Top 10 in the nation in most of the major statistical categories.

Alabama posted a record of 42-10 (.808) during Davis' four-year stretch, including a mark of 35-4 (.897) in the last three seasons. The Tide also won three of its four bowls in that span and the BCS National Championship in 2009.

The Crimson Tide finished in the top 10 in each of the last three seasons, ranking No. 10 in 2010 following a 49-7 win over No. 7 Michigan State in the Capital One Bowl, No. 1 in 2009 and No. 6 in 2008.

In 2010, Davis helped guide a defense that ranked fourth in the nation in scoring defense (13.5 ppg), fifth in total defense (286.4 ypg), ninth in rushing defense (110.2 ypg) and seventh in pass efficiency defense (103.5), while leading the SEC in all four categories. Under Davis, defensive lineman Marcell Dareus earned second-team All-America and first-team All-SEC honors.

Davis' 2009 defensive line was again key in setting the tone for a defense that ranked second nationally and led the SEC in the same four categories - rushing defense (78.1 ypg), pass efficiency defense (87.7), total defense (244.1) and scoring defense (11.7 ppg). Nose guard Terrence Cody earned consensus All-America honors for the second straight season and was a finalist for the Lombardi Award, Nagurski Trophy and Bednarik Award. Lorenzo Washington and Brandon Deaderick anchored the defensive end positions while Dareus emerged as a pass-rusher and led the team with 6.5 sacks.

In 2008, Alabama ranked second nationally in rushing defense, allowing just 74.1 yards per game on the ground. UA also ranked third in the country in total defense (263.5 ypg) and seventh in scoring defense (14.3 ppg). Davis added Cody to the starting lineup at nose guard and the junior was named All-America in his first season.

Under Davis' watch in 2007, senior defensive end Wallace Gilberry put together one of the finest seasons by an end in Alabama history. Gilberry earned first team All-SEC status, leading the league in tackles for loss (27) and finishing second in sacks (10).

Davis joined the Crimson Tide staff after serving the 2006 season as an assistant defensive line coach and assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Miami Dolphins under Nick Saban.

Prior to his stint with the Dolphins, Davis spent four years (2002-05) as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at LSU under Saban and current Tigers head coach Les Miles. LSU went to four straight bowls in that span, winning two of them, including the 2004 Sugar Bowl for the 2003 National Championship, while posting a 41-11 (.788) record.

Davis joined the LSU strength and conditioning staff as assistant coordinator in June 2002. He came to the Tigers from North Shore High School in Galena Park, Texas, where he served as an assistant coach from 1997-2002 and coached former Longhorns All-American and former Baltimore Ravens DT Cory Redding.

Davis earned second team All-SEC honors as a senior nose guard at LSU in 1992 after starting all 11 games, recording 66 tackles, including four tackles for loss. He lettered for the Tigers from 1990-92 and finished his college career with 90 tackles, one sack and one fumble recovery.

A native of Magee, Miss., Davis graduated from LSU in 1993 and then served as a graduate assistant with the LSU strength and conditioning program from 1995-1997.

COACHING STAFF

KYLE FLOOD

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR
OFFENSIVE LINE

A veteran offensive line coach and former head coach at Rutgers, Kyle Flood was named offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Texas on January 22, 2021.

In 2022, the Longhorns have featured a balanced attack that has averaged 35.7 points per game (20th FBS) rebuilt offensive line that features two true freshman. Second-team All-Big 12 selection and Freshman All-American left tackle Kelvin Banks Jr. anchored a line that helped running back Bijan Robinson win the Doak Walker Award and unanimous All-American honors and redshirt freshman quarterback earn honorable mention accolades as the Big 12 Offensive Newcomer of the Year.

As the offensive coordinator for UT in 2021, Flood guided one of the top units in the nation. Texas ranked 18th in the nation in scoring offense (35.2), fourth in red zone offense (0.936) 26th in rushing offense (199.0 ypg) and 31st in 3rd down conversion percentage (0.438), while ranking second in the Big 12 in scoring offense and rushing offense.

Flood spent the last two seasons coaching the offensive line at Alabama alongside Steve Sarkisian, guiding the group to earn the 2020 Joe Moore Award as the nation's top unit. The line paved the way one of the top offenses in Alabama history that propelled the Crimson Tide to the National Championship. In the past two seasons, Alabama put together 24 straight games in which the offense scored 35 or more points, the longest streak in major college football history. The Longhorns averaged 6.35 yard per play, the eighth-best mark in program history, and averaged 5.23 yards per rushing attempt, the ninth-best average in UT history. Against Texas Tech, the Longhorns scored 70 points, tied for the ninth-hightest total in program history, while also gaining 639 yards, the tied for UT's 12th-best mark.

The offensive line put up huge marks throughout the season. Led by All-Big 12 performer Derek Kerstetter, the Texas line helped Texas post back-to-back 58-plus-point games (58 vs. Rice, 70 vs. Texas Tech), produce over 600 yards of offense against Rice (620) and Texas Tech (639), helped the Longhorns set the school's single-game yards per carry record of 10.4 ypc (41 carries for 428 yards) against Rice and blocked for the seventh running back duo in UT history with a 1,000- and 500-yard rusher (Bijan Robinson – 1,127, Roschon Johnson – 569).

In 2020, Alabama's offense ranked second in the nation in scoring and led all Power 5 schools with 48.5 points per game, which set a school record and included five 50-point games against Southeastern Conference competition. The Crimson Tide became the first team in league history to record five such games in a single season in conference play. The Tide followed that by posting 52 points against Florida in the 2020 SEC Championship to earn the No. 1 seed in the College Football Playoff. They later matched that total in the National Championship Game against Ohio State.

Alabama led the nation in third-down conversion percentage (58.9), team passing efficiency (198.99) and completion percentage (76.2), and ranked fourth in the nation in total offense at 541.6 yards per game to break the school record. The offense boasted the Heisman Trophy winner in WR DeVonta Smith, another finalist in QB Mac Jones, who won the Davey O'Brien Award, and the fifth-place finisher in RB Najee Harris, who won the Doak Walker Award. It made Alabama the second team ever to place three players in the top five of the same Heisman vote, joining 1946 Army with Glenn Davis, Doc Blanchard and Arnold Tucker. Blocking for that group was an offensive line that won the Joe Moore Award and was anchored by two consensus first-team All-Americans in Outland Trophy winner LT Alex Leatherwood and Rimington Trophy winner C Landon Dickerson.

The 2019 Alabama offense averaged a then-school-record 47.2 points per game, which ranked second nationally, while averaging 510.8 yards per game, which was sixth nationally and is currently second on school record. Alabama's 199.61 passing efficiency rating was not only a school record, but the second-best mark in NCAA history. Leatherwood earned first-team All-America honors, while OT Jedrick Willis was tabbed second-team All-America. Four members of the Crimson Tide offense went on to be drafted in the first 15 picks of the first round, including Willis (No. 10/Cleveland Browns). The full line, which included Leatherwood, Willis, Dickerson, Evan Neal and Deonte Brown, was a finalist for the Joe Moore Award and ranked third nationally and first in the SEC, surrendering just .92 sacks per game.

Flood took over Alabama's offensive front after two years on the Atlanta Falcons' coaching staff in 2017-18 where he was also with Sarkisian. He worked with a line that only allowed 24 sacks in 2017 – tied for the third lowest amount in the NFL. Flood's guidance in his first year in Atlanta was also shown by the group's ability to sustain blocks as the Falcons line helped create 230 big plays (plays that are 10-plus yards). In 2018, the offense finished in the top 10 in the NFL in passing yards (4th/4,653 yards), total yards (6th/6,226 yards) and 10th in scoring (25.9 ppg).

From 2012-15, Flood guided the Rutgers football program as part of 11 seasons on staff in Piscataway. He became the first head coach in school history to lead the program to three bowl appearances in his first three seasons at the helm and finished with a 27-24 overall record.

Flood's first year as head coach at Rutgers was as memorable as any in Scarlet Knights football history. He guided Rutgers to its first Big East Championship, earned Big East Coach of the Year honors and won more games (nine) than any rookie head coach in school history.
He led Rutgers through their transition to the Big Ten conference in 2014, capped by a win in the 2014 Quick Lane Bowl. Flood guided Rutgers to eight wins that season – the program's first year as a member of the Big Ten. The Scarlet Knights won all five of their non-conference games and earned Big Ten victories over Michigan, Indiana and Maryland. The Knights were also honored in 2014 with their first-ever Lambert-Meadowlands Trophy, which goes to the top team in the East in the Bowl Subdivision.

In 2015, Flood had six different players earn All-Big Ten accolades. Those included Leonte Carroo, who left as the program record holder with 29 receiving touchdowns. The 2013 season saw the Scarlet Knights earn a trip to the Pinstripe Bowl in New York's Yankee Stadium.

During his tenure as the head coach at Rutgers, his teams mounted two of the largest comebacks in school history. In 2014 at Maryland and 2015 at Indiana, the Scarlet Knights erased 25-point deficits to earn victories.

Before becoming the head coach at Rutgers, Flood spent seven years (2005-11) on head coach Greg Schiano's staff. He oversaw the offensive line all seven years while adding run game coordinator to his duties in 2007, assistant head coach in 2008 and co-offensive coordinator in 2010.

During his time at Rutgers, the offensive line consistently produced top-level talent, including several players who went on to the NFL. All-American Anthony Davis became the highest player ever drafted in Rutgers history as the 11th overall pick of the 2010 NFL Draft. Darnell Stapleton started in Super Bowl XLIII for the victorious Pittsburgh Steelers. Jeremy Zuttah started 117 games over nine seasons in the NFL after playing for Flood.

Flood arrived at Rutgers after three seasons at the University of Delaware, where he helped the Blue Hens to a 30-11 record, including a 15-1 mark in 2003 on their way to the NCAA FCS National Championship and a share of the Atlantic 10 title in 2004. He also served as assistant head coach and recruiting coordinator during his stint.

Prior to his time at Delaware, Flood was the offensive line coach at Hofstra from 1997-2001. While at Hofstra, he helped the Pride earn berths in the NCAA FCS playoffs in 1997 and 1999-2001. The Pride were among the top offensive teams in the nation during his tenure, ranking second in total offense, fourth in passing and fifth in scoring in 2001.

A 1993 graduate of Iona College, Flood was a four-year letterwinner for the Gaels. He earned first team All-Liberty Conference honors in 1991 and served as team captain of the Gaels in 1992. Following college, Flood spent four years teaching in the mathematics department at his alma mater St. Francis Prep in Fresh Meadows, New York. During that time, he coached the offensive line and defensive lines for St. Francis' legendary head coach Vince O'Connor.

His first college coaching position came in 1995-96 as offensive line coach at Long Island University-C.W. Post. While coaching at C.W. Post, he helped the team to the ECAC Division II Eastern title in 1996.

COACHING STAFF

BLAKE GIDEON

SAFETIES

An All-Big 12 defensive back at Texas (2008-11) and special teams coordinator at Ole Miss and Houston, Blake Gideon was named safeties coach for the Longhorns on January 22, 2021.

Gideon returned to Austin after spending one season as special teams coordinator at Ole Miss. He helped the Rebels rank 17th nationally in kickoff return defense (17.45 ypr) and 23rd in kickoff returns (23.95), including a 100-yard touchdown return by Jerrion Ealy against LSU. Punter Mac Brown, who was a Wuerffel Trophy semifinalist, averaged 46.6 yards per punt on 28 attempts, which would have ranked fourth nationally in average, however it did not reach the 3.6 punts per game minimum used by the NCAA. Ole Miss did not allow a blocked punt during the season.

Prior to his time at Ole Miss, Gideon served as the special teams coordinator and nickelbacks coach at Houston for one season. Houston was No. 1 in the country in both blocked punts (five) and blocked kicks (six). The Cougars led the American Athletic Conference in kick return defense (17.6) and net punting (43.6).

Under Gideon's guidance, punter Dane Roy was named a finalist for the 2019 Ray Guy Award. Roy ranked first in the AAC and is seventh nationally with a 46.9 yards per punt average. Roy's 46.9 yards per punt average in 2019 set a Houston single-season record.

Prior to Houston, Gideon was cornerbacks coach at Georgia State in 2018. He spent the previous two seasons on staff as the defensive backs coach and defensive passing game coordinator at Western Carolina. In 2017, Gideon helped coach a Western Carolina defense that ranked No. 15 nationally in passing yards per game allowed and No. 20 in pass efficiency defense.

Gideon began his coaching career as a defensive quality control assistant at Florida in 2014 before moving on to Auburn to serve as a defensive graduate assistant.

Gideon signed a free agent contract with the Arizona Cardinals following the 2012 NFL Draft. He was signed to the Denver Broncos practice squad in October 2012 and trained with the club until retiring in May 2013.

Gideon was a four-year starter at safety and two-time team captain at Texas, where he played under head coach Mack Brown and defensive coordinators Will Muschamp and Manny Diaz. He started all 52 games during his career at safety with the Longhorns, which represents the second-most consecutive starts on school record. He helped Texas to a 12-1 record and No. 3 final ranking while starting as a true freshman in 2008 and played a key role in leading the Longhorns to a 13-1 mark, Big 12 Championship, berth in the BCS National Championship game and a No. 2 final ranking in 2009.

A four-time honorable mention All-Big 12 selection and two-time team captain, Gideon posted 276 tackles (166 solo), 10 INTs, 20 PBU, two sacks, eight TFL, two forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and a blocked punt for his career. As a senior in 2011, he was named to the Thorpe Award watch list and was a team captain. He started all 13 games with 82 tackles, two tackles for loss, one sack, two interceptions, four pass breakups and one fumble recovery that year. He was also a captain as a junior in 2010, and posted 68 tackles (42 solo), two INTs, four PBU, one sack, three TFL, one forced fumble and one blocked punt. As a sophomore, Gideon collected six interceptions to go along with 62 tackles (35 solo), two TFL, five PBU and a fumble recovery. The six INTs tied for seventh on UT's single-season list. He preceded that with Freshman All-America honors after starting all 13 games as a true freshman and finishing third on the team in tackles with 64 (41 solo) to go along with seven PBU, a TFL, a forced fumble and eight pressures.

Academically, he was a two-time member of UT's Athletics Director's Honor Roll and graduated in December 2011 with a degree in kinesiology and health.

A native of Leander, Texas, Gideon is married to the former Mary Catherine Abernathy, and they have a son, Barrett, and daughter, Catherine. His father, Steve, was the head coach at Leander High School before retiring.

TERRY JOSEPH

DEFENSIVE PASSING GAME COORDINATOR SECONDARY

An accomplished defensive backs coach at the Power 5 level along with Notre Dame, Terry Joseph was named defensive passing game coordinator and secondary coach at Texas on January 22, 2021.

The Texas defensvie backfield in 2022 has featured a quartet of honorable mention All-Big 12 honorees, with Jahdae Barron, Anthony Cook, Jerrin Thompson and Ryan Watts keying a rejuvenated defense. Watts also earned recognition as honorable mention Defensive Newcomer of the Year.

In 2021, Joseph tutored honorable mention All-Big 12 honorees B.J. Foster and Anthony Cook, helping guide them to career years. Foster tallied a career-high three interceptions that ranked third in the conference, while also registering a career-high 47 tackles (26 solo). Cook recorded a career-best 46 tackles (27 solo), including three tackles for loss.

Joseph arrived in Austin after spending three seasons in South Bend, the last two as defensive passing game coordinator and all three as defensive backs coach. During that time, he helped the Fighting Irish post a 33-5 record, earn two College Football Playoff appearances, a pair of No. 5 rankings in the final polls (2018 & 2020) and a No. 11 ranking in 2019.

In 2020, the Irish ranked in the top 25 nationally in fumbles recovered (10/8th), third down conversion percentage defense (.314/12th), scoring defense (19.7/14th), tackles for loss (7.5/17th), rushing defense (113.0/16th) and total defense (343.6/25th). The defense had six straight games allowing fewer than 100 yards rushing en route to a 10-2 record, including a win over No. 1 Clemson, an undefeated regular season and appearances in the ACC Championship Game and College Football Playoff.

Under Joseph, sophomore safety Kyle Hamilton flourished and earned third-team All-America honors from the Associated Press, along with being named first-team All-ACC by both the AP and conference coaches, and was a semifinalist for the Bednarik Award. He led Notre Dame with 63 tackles, including 51 solo stops, and recorded 4.5 tackles for loss, six pass breakups and one interception. Members of the secondary made up four of the team's top six tacklers and those four combined for 26 pass breakups. Joseph oversaw senior Shaun Crawford's transition from cornerback to safety and earning honorable mention All-ACC honors.

The previous season, Notre Dame's defense ranked in the top five in passing yards allowed per game (168.5/3rd) and passing efficiency defense (110.15/5th), along with leading the nation in fumble recoveries and positioning in the top 20 in scoring defense (17.9/12th) and total defense (321.6/18th). The Irish were 11-2 for the season with a win over Iowa State in the Camping World Bowl.

Safety Alohi Gilman was on the watch lists of the Thorpe Award and Nagurski Trophy and led the defensive backs with 74 tackles and three forced fumbles, while Hamilton was named a freshman All-American by The Athletic after collecting four interceptions and six pass breakups. Cornerback Troy Pride, Jr., also had six pass breakups and went on to be selected in the fourth round of the 2020 NFL Draft by the Carolina Panthers, while Gilman followed two rounds later to the Los Angeles Chargers. Safety Jalen Elliott was signed by the Detroit Lions as an undrafted free agent.

Notre Dame posted another perfect regular season and appearance in the College Football Playoff in 2018, going 12-0 and then only falling to eventual champion No. 2 Clemson in the Cotton Bowl. The defense was ranked in the top 10 nationally in passing yards allowed per attempt (5.6/t-2nd), fewest touchdown passes allowed (10/3rd), pass efficiency defense (105.6/6th), fewest plays of at least 30 yards (17/t-10th) and fewest TDs allowed (28, t-10th).

Junior CB Julian Love was a consensus first-team All-American and finalist for the Thorpe Award after amassing 16 pass breakups and three fumble recoveries. He went on to be a fourth-round pick by the New York Giants in the 2019 NFL Draft. After Irish safeties failed to record an interception in 2017, a first for the program since 1964, Elliott and Gilman had four and two, respectively, in 2018.

Joseph went to Notre Dame following one season as the defensive backs coach at North Carolina. He tutored cornerback M.J. Stewart, who will participate in the 2018 Reese's Senior Bowl. A two-time All-ACC honorable mention selection, Stewart registered 45 tackles, 12 pass breakups, 5.0 tackles for loss and 2.0 sacks in 2017.

Prior to joining the Tar Heels staff, Joseph served as the defensive backs coach at Texas A&M for three seasons (2014-16). He tutored an Aggies pass defense in 2015 that ranked fourth nationally in passing yards allowed per game and 18th in pass efficiency defense. Joseph was instrumental in the position switch of Brandon Williams in 2015. Williams, who converted from a running back to cornerback prior to the start of the 2015 season, ultimately developed into a third-round pick in the 2015 NFL Draft. In 2016, Joseph mentored All-SEC strong safety Justin Evans who also was a semifinalist for the Thorpe Award.

Previously, Joseph spent two seasons at Nebraska as its secondary coach (2012-13). Despite the loss of two returning starters, his 2012 secondary led the nation in opponent completion percentage (47.1 percent), ranked fourth in pass defense (168.2 yards allowed per game) and ninth in pass efficiency defense (105.32), while helping the Cornhuskers to a 10-win season. The 168.2 passing yards per game NU allowed was the second-fewest by a Husker defense since 1993, while the 47.1 completion percentage was the lowest for Nebraska since 2001.

Individually in 2012, Cornhusker safety Daimion Stafford earned first-team All-Big Ten honors under Joseph's tutelage after leading the conference with four interceptions in league play. Stafford ranked second on the team with 96 tackles, and he forced two fumbles and recovered a pair of fumbles. Cornerback Ciante Evans earned first-team All-Big Ten honors from CBS and honorable-mention accolades from the league's coaches. He totaled 56 tackles and ranked second on the team with eight pass breakups. Cornerback Stanley Jean-Baptiste led Nebraska with nine pass breakups and recorded a 48-yard interception return for a touchdown against Minnesota. Evans registered a 29-yard interception return for a touchdown against Idaho State. Senior safety P.J. Smith also earned honorable-mention All-Big Ten honors in 2012. The Cornhuskers' three overall interception returns for touchdowns tied for its most since 2006, while the Huskers' 13 interceptions in 2012 eclipsed its 2011 total.

Before coming to Nebraska, Joseph spent two seasons as the defensive backs coach at Tennessee, where he also served as the recruiting coordinator. Joseph helped the Volunteer defense rank among the nation's top pass defenses in both 2010 and 2011. In 2011, UT finished 12th nationally in passing yards allowed with an average of just 177.8 yards per game. Joseph oversaw a young defensive backfield, including true freshman Brian Randolph, who earned SEC all-freshman honors.

In Joseph's first season in Knoxville in 2010, he helped the Vols rank in the top 20 in the nation with 18 interceptions, and the group played a key role in a late-season run that earned Tennessee a trip to the Music City Bowl. Safety Janzen Jackson and cornerback Prentiss Waggner each earned second-team All-SEC honors. Waggner returned a school-record three interceptions for touchdowns.

Joseph joined the Tennessee staff after working under Derek Dooley for three seasons at Louisiana Tech from 2007-09, where he also served as the secondary coach and recruiting coordinator. Joseph played a key role in a defensive turnaround at Louisiana Tech.

The highlight of Joseph's stint at Louisiana Tech came in 2008, when the Bulldogs finished second in the Western Athletic Conference and earned their first bowl trip in seven seasons. Tech completed an 8-5 season with a 17-10 victory over Northern Illinois in the Independence Bowl.

Joseph also coordinated Tech's recruiting efforts, and the 2009 class was ranked second in the WAC. He was ranked as one of the top five recruiters in a non-BCS conference by Rivals.com.

Joseph worked alongside former Nebraska and current Youngstown State head coach Bo Pelini as a defensive graduate assistant at LSU in 2006. During his one season in Baton Rouge, Joseph helped the Tiger defense rank third nationally in total defense. LSU finished the year with a Sugar Bowl victory over Notre Dame.

Joseph began his coaching career in the Louisiana high school ranks, working as an assistant coach at two New Orleans area schools. He worked at Archbishop Shaw from 1999-2002 and at Destrehan High School from 2003-05.

Joseph earned his bachelor's degree in marketing/business administration from Northwestern State in 1996. He was a baseball standout at the school, and is one of only 12 players in Southland Conference history to earn first-team all-conference honors three straight seasons. Joseph, who was named the 1995 Southland Conference and Louisiana Player of the Year, twice earned Academic All-America honors (1993, 1995). He helped the Demons capture three straight SLC championships and held 10 different school records when his collegiate career ended.

Joseph was a 13th-round Major League Baseball Draft choice of the Chicago Cubs and played four seasons in the minor leagues with the Cubs and San Diego Padres.

Joseph comes from a football coaching family as his cousin Vance Joseph is the defensive coordinator of the Arizona Cardinals, and another cousin, Mickey Joseph, is the wide receiver coach at LSU.

PETE KWIATKOWSKI

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR
OUSTIDE LINEBACKERS

An architect of some of the top defenses in the nation at Washington and Boise State, Pete Kwiatkowski was named defensive coordinator and outside linebackers coach at Texas on January 22, 2021.

The Texas defense was among the most stout in the Big 12 in 2022, allowed just 21.2 points per game (30th FBS). Linebacker Jaylan Ford collected third-team All-American honors from the Associated Press, while he and DeMarvion Overshown were tabbed first-team All-Big 12 by the AP and the league's coaches. A three-time Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week honoree in 2022, Ford is second in the Big 12 in tackles (109; 9.1 tpg). His four interceptions are tied for the UT linebacker record and are the most among FBS linebackers this year. He is also the only Power 5 player with four interceptions and three forced fumbles, and the only FBS player with four interceptions, three forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. Additionally, defensive lineman Keondre Coburn earned second-team All-Big 12 accolades from the league's coaches and he and fellow lineman collected second-team honors from the Associated Press.

In his first season on the Forty Acres, Kwiatkowski (quit-COW-ski) led a defense that produced eight honorable mention All-Big 12 honorees, as well as honorable mention accolades for Ovie Oghoufo as Big 12 Defensive Newcomer of the Year and Byron Murphy II as the conference's Defensive Freshman of the Year. The Longhorns shut out Rice, 58-0, the first shutout for Texas since 2017, yielding only 284 total yards in the process.

He arrived in Austin after seven seasons at Washington (2014-20) with the first six under Chris Petersen, followed by the last one with Jimmy Lake, helping build one of the Pac-12's strongest and most consistent defenses. From 2015-19 the Huskies ranked no lower than 13th nationally in scoring defense (2015), including ranking fifth from 2017-19 and eighth in 2016.

Kwiatkowski has proven to be an outstanding developer of talent. During his time as defensive coordinator and co-defensive coordinator at Washington, a total of 17 members of the Husky defense have been drafted by NFL teams, including 10 in the first two rounds, with several more signing as free agents. After his first season in Seattle, Kwiatkowski saw four members of his defense selected in the first 44 picks of the 2015 NFL Draft: first-rounders DT Danny Shelton, CB Marcus Peters and LB Shaq Thompson, and second-rounder LB Hau'oli Kikaha. The following year, OLB Travis Feeney was selected by the Steelers.

In 2017, another three defensive players were taken in the first two rounds in CB Kevin King, S Budda Baker and CB Sidney Jones. In 2018, DT Vita Vea was a first-round pick, while LBs Azeem Victor and Keishawn Bierra were also drafted. In 2019, five more Husky defenders were selected including second-rounders CB Byron Murphy and S Taylor Rapp, along with DL Greg Gaines, LB Ben Burr-Kirven and CB Jordan Miller.

Washington played only four games in 2020, but led the Pac-12 in total defense at 346.2 yards per game, which ranked 27th nationally, including 185.0 passing yards per game that led the Pac-12 and ranked 13th in the nation. Despite the limited opportunities, OLB Zion Tupuola-Fetui compiled seven sacks, giving him a 1.75 per game average, which was the best in the nation and helped earn him first-team All-Pac-12 honors. He also forced three fumbles and recovered one. LB Edefuan Ulofoshio led the team in tackles with 47 for an average of 11.8 per game, which led the Pac-12 and ranked fourth nationally, and helped garner him second-team all-conference accolades. Defensive backs Elijah Molden and Trent McDuffie were also named to the first and second All-Pac-12 team, respectively.

In 2019, serving his second year in the role of co-defensive coordinator and outside linebackers coach, Kwiatkowksi helped oversee a young Husky defense that limited opponents to just 19.4 points per game, which ranked fifth nationally. Both of his two starting outside 'backers – Joe Tryon and Ryan Bowman – earned second-team All-Pac-12. Washington finished the year 8-5 and capped it with a win over Boise State in the Las Vegas Bowl

In 2018, Kwiatkowski helped mentor a Husky defense that continued its reign atop the Pac-12 Conference as Washington led the league in both scoring defense (15.5 ppg) and total defense (301.8 ypg) for the fourth year in a row. Those numbers ranked fifth and 12th in the nation, respectively. The Huskies, who won a Pac-12 title for the second team in three years, also finished second in the conference in rushing defense (116.1 ypg/15th nationally), pass defense (190.1 ypg/25th nationally) and pass efficiency defense (117.31/26th nationally). Washington posted a 10-4 record, finished the season ranked 13th in both polls, won the Pac-12 Championship and made in appearance in the Rose Bowl.

In 2017, under the direction of Kwiatkowski, the Huskies were the best in the Pac-12 in both total defense (298.0 ypg/eighth nationally) and scoring defense (16.1 ppg/fifth nationally). They also led the Pac-12 in rushing defense (100.8 ypg/fourth nationally) and were third in the conference in passing defense (197.2 ypg/32nd nationally), but led the nation in fewest yards allowed per completion (9.42). It marked the first time the Huskies' had allowed under 300 total yards in back-to-back years since 1990 and 1991. Washington went 10-3 that year with an appearance in the Fiesta Bowl and finished ranked in the top 15.

Three players off the defensive unit were selected in the 2018 NFL Draft, including Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year Vita Vea, making 12 in four years for the defensive-side of the ball selected under Kwiatkowski.

In 2016, the Huskies once again topped all Pac-12 defenses, Washington went 12-2, ended the season ranked No. 4, won the Pac-12 Championship and earned a trip to the College Football Playoff in the Peach Bowl. The Huskies led the conference in both total defense (316.9 ypg, 12th nationally) and scoring defense (17.7 points per game, eighth nationally), while also leading all FBS schools in turnover margin (1.29 per game) and takeaways (33). Washington was also first in the conference in first downs allowed and third down conversion defense, while finishing second in red zone defense, rushing defense and sacks. Four Huskies (Elijah Qualls, Azeem Victor, Budda Baker and Sidney Jones) earned first-team All-Pac-12 following the 2016 season. Baker was a consensus All-America safety.

In 2015, his second at Washington, Kwiatkowski took charge of the top defense in the Pac-12 Conference, despite having lost four starters to the NFL Draft after the 2014 season. His unit led the Pac-12 in scoring defense (18.8 points per game) and total defense (351.8 yards per game) and was second in rushing defense (125.3 yards per game) and pass efficiency defense (115.9). The Huskies were also best in the league in opponent first downs and red-zone defense. Washington capped their season with a win in the Heart of Dallas Bowl.

In his first year as a Husky coach, Kwiatkowski helped lead a UW defense that featured three Associate Press first-team All-America selections in Hau'oli Kikaha, Danny Shelton and Shaq Thompson. Washington finished the season second in the nation in sacks, fifth in fumble recoveries, ninth in turnover margin and 26th in takeaways. Additionally, the UW led the NCAA-FBS with seven defensive touchdowns.

Kwiatkowski went to Washington from Boise State, where he completed his fourth season as the Broncos' defensive coordinator in 2013. He spent 16 seasons overall as a member of the Boise State coaching staff – eight after returning to coach at his alma mater in 2006. He was the defensive line coach prior to being elevated to defensive coordinator in 2010.

As Boise State's defensive coordinator, the Broncos led the Western Athletic and Mountain West Conferences in total defense and scoring defense in each of his first three seasons and were third and second, respectively, in 2013. Kwiatkowski's defenses not only excelled within the conference, but ranked among the best nationally.

In his first three seasons of guiding the defense, the Broncos were one of seven teams to rank among the nation's top 25 in total defense each year. They were second nationally in 2010, 16th in 2011 and 12th in 2012. In that same span, opponents averaged just 297.1 yards per game, making the Broncos one of six teams to allow less than 300 yards per game.

Kwiatkowski-led defenses allowed 18.0 points per game in four seasons. The Broncos ranked second-nationally in scoring defense in 2010 (12.8 ppg), 12th in 2011 (18.7), eighth in 2012 (15.8) and 50th in 2013 (24.8).

Overall his tenure from 2006-13 saw seven Broncos drafted the year after their departures who had played on his defensive line or for his defenses, along with three others in later years, including six total in the first three rounds. Those included DB Brandyn Thompson (7th round/Washington/2011), DE Shea McClellin (1st round/Chicago Bears/2012), DE Tyrone Crawford (3rd round/Dallas Cowboys/2012), S George Iloka (5th round/Cincinnati Bengals/2012), DT Billy Winn (6th round/Cleveland Browns/2012), DB Jamar Taylor (2nd round/Miami Dolphins/2013), DE DeMarcus Lawrence (2nd round/Dallas Cowboys/2014), DE Kamalei Correa (2nd round/Baltimore Ravens/2016), S Darian Thompson (3rd round/New York Giants/2016) and LB Tanner Vallejo (6th round/Buffalo Bills/2017).

In 2010, his debut season as defensive coordinator, the Broncos finished second-nationally in both total defense and scoring defense, allowing just 254.7 yards per game and 12.8 points per game. Boise State also led the nation in sacks (3.7), ranked second in the country in both tackles-for-loss (8.4) and pass efficiency defense (95.2), fourth-nationally in pass defense (150.9) and seventh-nationally in rushing defense (103.8) – leading the WAC in each category. Eight different student-athletes earned All-WAC recognition, five of which garnered first-team accolades.

In 2011, the Broncos' debut season in the Mountain West, Boise State ranked 12th-nationally in scoring defense (18.7), 16th-nationally in total defense (320.9) and 17th-nationally in rushing defense (110. 0) -leading the league in each category. Following the 2011 season six members of the Broncos' defensive unit earned all-conference recognition, including each of Kwiatkowski's four starting defensive linemen.

In 2012, despite losing nine starters, Boise State ranked fifth-nationally in both pass defense (169.5) and pass efficiency defense (101.4), eighth-nationally in scoring defense (15.8), 11th-nationally in sacks (2.9) and 12th-nationally in total defense (315.6). The Broncos ranked fourth nationally forcing 36 turnovers and led the nation with 18 fumble recoveries.

They also picked off 18 passes to rank 12th nationally. The Broncos placed four of their defensive players on the All-MW First Team in 2012, a mark that led the league.

The 2013 Broncos' squad ranked second in the conference in points allowed (24.8), second in interceptions (16), third in total defense (413.4), third in pass efficiency defense (129.7) and fourth in sacks (30). The Broncos placed two defensive player on the MW first team, including defensive end Demarcus Lawrence, who led the league in sacks per game (0.88) and was 10th nationally with 10.5 overall. He also led the conference in tackles for loss with 20.5 (1.71 per game) and ranked third nationally.

From 2006-09, Kwiatkowski's served as defensive line coach and helped elevate Boise State to a higher success at the national level, including its first two appearances in the Fiesta Bowl, both of which they won over Oklahoma (2007/2006 season) and TCU (2010/2009 season).

In 2009, Boise State owned one of the nation's top defenses, ranking in the top 20 and leading the WAC in a number of categories. The Broncos ranked 13th-nationally in pass efficiency defense (103.42), 14th-nationally in both total defense (300.2) and scoring defense (17.1) and 19th-nationally in tackles for loss (19). The Broncos also led the conference in pass defense (179.9).

Nationally, the Broncos finished 2008 ranked No. 2 in pass defense, No. 3 in scoring defense (12.6) and No. 20 in total defense (308.2), and also led the WAC in pass efficiency defense (94.4).

In 2006 the Broncos were nationally-ranked in total defense (12th), scoring defense (25th), sacks (26th) and rushing defense (35th). Nationally in 2006, Boise State was eighth in rushing defense, 14th in total defense, 20th in scoring defense and 28th in sacks.

Prior to returning to Boise State, Kwiatkowski spent six seasons as Montana State's defensive coordinator. Under Kwiatkowski's direction, the Bobcats' defense allowed a league-best 332.2 yards per game in 2005 and led the Big Sky Conference in passing defense, allowing just 165.6 yards per game. The Bobcats gave up only 22.8 points per game to rank second in scoring defense. MSU also led the Big Sky in total defense three other times – in 2001 (358.0), in 2002 (306.8) and in 2003 (298.4).

Montana State qualified for the I-AA playoffs in 2002 and 2003, the team's first postseason appearances since 1984. The Bobcats also beat in-state rival Montana in three of Kwiatkowski's last four seasons at the school.

Kwiatkowski began his coaching career as an assistant at Boise State after an All-America and Hall-of-Fame playing career with the Broncos. He coached for eight seasons (1988-96) under three different head coaches in his first stint. He mentored defensive backs, outside linebackers and the defensive line during that time.

Following the 1996 season Kwiatkowski moved to Snow Junior College in Utah, where he was the co-defensive coordinator and line coach for one season. He then coached at Eastern Washington for two seasons.

Kwiatkowski was a standout defensive lineman for the Broncos from 1984-87 and earned four first-team All-America awards in 1987. He was also honorable mention Associated Press All-America in 1986. He was named the Big Sky Defensive Player of the Year in 1987, received first-team All-Big Sky honors in 1986 and 1987 and was named all-conference honorable mention as a sophomore in 1985.

Kwiatkowski, who graduated from Boise State in 1990, was inducted into the Boise State Athletic Hall of Fame in 1996. He and his wife Lara have three daughters, Shelby, Riley and Olivia.

PASSING GAME COORDINATOR
WIDE RECEIVERS

One of the nation's most highly-regarded assistants who coached the 2021 Biletnikoff Award winner, Brennan Marion joined the Texas Football staff as passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach on December 31, 2021. A record-setting collegiate receiver himself, Marion has extensive coaching experience at both the high school and college levels, including three seasons as an offensive coordinator.

The 2022 Longhorns has featured one of the most dynamic wide receivers in the nation in sophomore Xavier Worthy. A second-team All-Big 12 selection, Worthy leads the conference with nine touchdown receptions, while hauling in 53 receptions for 676 yards. Honorable mention All-Big 12 wide receiver Jordan Whittington has caught 45 passes for 608 yards and one touchdown, while All-Big 12 tight end Ja'Tavion Sanders has hauled in 49 passes for 577 yards and five scores.

In 2021, Marion was a part of a Pitt staff that directed one of the nation's most explosive offenses. Serving as wide receivers coach for an offense that ranked among the nation's top eight in scoring (41.4 ppg/4th), total offense (486.6 ypg/8th) and passing offense (337.4 ypg/8th), he helped lead the Panthers to an 11-3 record, their first-ever ACC Championship, a No. 12 final regular-season ranking and a berth in the New Year's Six Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl.

Marion's prize pupil at Pitt was wide receiver Jordan Addison, who won the Biletnikoff Award as the nation's top receiver, and was a consensus first-team All-American selection in 2021. The first-team All-ACC wideout set a Pitt single-season record with 100 receptions this season, which rank fifth in the FBS, for 1,593 yards (3rd FBS) and an FBS-leading 17 touchdowns. The receiving yards and touchdowns rank second to only Larry Fitzgerald in a season in Pitt history.

Prior to Pitt, Marion was wide receivers coach at Hawaii in 2020, where oversaw the development of All-Mountain West Conference (MWC) receiver Calvin Turner. Under his guidance, Turner was named the 2020 New Mexico Bowl's Most Outstanding Offensive Player after compiling 252 all-purpose yards and scoring two touchdowns in the Rainbow Warriors' 28-14 win over Houston.

In 2019, Marion was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at William & Mary, where he dramatically improved the Tribe's production in every major statistical category. William & Mary nearly doubled its scoring average while its total offensive output increased by almost 100 yards per contest. The Tribe's improvement was even more impressive considering Marion's starting quarterback, leading receiver and three of his top four rushers were true freshmen.

Marion's first Division I coaching opportunity came at Howard University, where he enjoyed two exceptional seasons (2017-18) as the Bison's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. Howard boasted a highly-potent offense in 2018, ranking fourth nationally in yards per completion (17.27), 15th in total yards (470.8 ypg), 16th in passing offense (278.0 ypg) and 21st in scoring offense (33.6 ppg). The Bison led the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) in each of those categories, as well as rushing yards per game (192.8). Howard had seven first-team All-MEAC performers on offense, including the league's 2018 Offensive Player of the Year (quarterback Caylin Newton) and Rookie of the Year (running back Dedrick Parson).

In 2017, Newton was named the MEAC Rookie of the Year after becoming the first freshman in the conference's history to surpass 3,000 yards of total offense (3,185). Offensive lineman Gerald Wright earned All-America accolades, paving the way for a unit that ranked first in the MEAC and 13th nationally with an average of 446.0 yards per game.

Marion's "Go-Go" offense sparked Howard to a 7-4 record in 2017, including a shocking 43-40 win at heavily-favored UNLV in the opener. The Bison had won just three games over the prior two years.

In 2016, Marion coached the running backs at Oklahoma Baptist University. Under his guidance, Isaiah Mallory rushed for a school-record 1,083 yards en route to first-team All-National Christian College Athletic Association (NCCAA) honors. During the 2015 season, Marion was an offensive quality control assistant at Arizona State.
During his college coaching career, he has earned prestigious invitations to the NFL Quarterback Coaching Summit and American Football Coaches Association's (AFCA) 35 Under 35 Leadership Institute.

Prior to joining the collegiate ranks, Marion orchestrated two impressive turnarounds as a high school head coach. In 2014, he led Pennsylvania's Waynesboro Area — which went 0-10 the year before — to the Mid-Penn Colonial Division title and its first winning season in 22 years. In 2013, Marion guided St. Patrick-St. Vincent (Calif.) to the North Coast Section Division IV playoffs following a 1-9 season prior to his arrival.

A 2009 graduate of Tulsa, Marion was a record record-setting receiver for the Golden Hurricanes. In two seasons at Tulsa (2007-08), he compiled 2,356 yards on 82 receptions with 19 touchdowns. He was a two-time All-Conference USA selection and the 2007 C-USA Newcomer of the Year. Marion set NCAA records for yards per catch in a season (31.9 in 2007) and career (28.7).

Prior to Tulsa, he was a standout at De Anza College. In 2006, he led California's junior colleges with 1,196 receiving yards and 16 touchdowns on 60 receptions. Following his accomplished collegiate playing career, Marion signed free agent contracts with the Miami Dolphins, as well as the Canadian Football League's Montreal Alouettes.

A native of Greensburg, Pa., Marion was a four-year letterman in three different sports (football, basketball and track) at Greensburg Salem High School. He played receiver and defensive back under Golden Lions head coach George Kermer and was an All-Keystone Conference honoree.

Marion has two children, Mariah and Brennan.

COACHING STAFF

AJ MILWEE

ASSISTANT COACH
QUARTERBACKS

A former analyst at Alabama and offensive coordinator at Akron, AJ Milwee was named quarterbacks coach at Texas on January 22, 2021.

The 2022 Longhorns featured redshirt freshman quarterback Quinn Ewers, who Milwee has tuturod to one of the finest seasons by a first-year starer in program history. Ewers has completed 141-of-249 passes for 1,808 yards and 14 touchdowns. His 14 TD passes for the fourth-most all-time for a UT freshman, while the 1,808 passing yards rank sixth for a Texas freshman quarterback.

In 2021, Milwee helped mold Texas quarterbacks into one of the top units in the nation. Casey Thompson led the Big 12 Conference and placed 30th in the nation in passing touchdowns (24), while ranking fourth in the conference and 26th nationally in passing efficiency (154.7). Thompson passed for 410 yards against Kansas and 388 versus Oklahoma, the seventh- and 15th-best marks in program history, while also passing for six TDs against Kansas and five each against Oklahoma and Texas Tech, tied for the first- and third-best marks in UT history. The combination of Thompson and Hudson Card completed 62.7 percent of their passes, the ninth-best mark in program history, and total 29 passing touchdowns, tied for the fifth-most in a season for the Longhorns.

Milwee arrived in Texas after spending two seasons on the same coaching staff with Steve Sarkisian at Alabama, where he has served as an analyst for the Crimson Tide in 2019 and 2020. Milwee was part of a staff that guided Alabama to a 13-0 record and the 2020 National Championship. The 2019 squad capped off the year with a 35-16 win over Michigan in the Citrus Bowl to finish ranked No. 8 in the final AP Top 25 poll.

Prior to Alabama, Milwee spent seven seasons at Akron, including his last six as the Zips' offensive coordinator. He joined the Akron staff as a quarterbacks coach in 2012, and at the time he was elevated to oversee the program's offense in 2013 was the second-youngest coordinator in FBS at age 27.

The 2017 Akron squad (7-7 overall, 6-2 MAC) soared to first place in the MAC East with huge victories over Ohio and Kent State to claim the division title and a spot in the MAC Championship game for the second time in program history and first time since 2005. Akron also advanced to an FBS bowl for the second time in three years, another program first. The Zips won their third consecutive Wagon Wheel (and fourth in last five years) over rival Kent State.

The same year, Akron posted 24 passing touchdowns that ranked as the third most in school history. Redshirt senior wide receiver Tra'Von Chapman earned third-team All-MAC honors. Senior running back Warren Ball, senior offensive lineman Xavier Quigley, and senior wide receiver Anthony Young earned Academic All-MAC honors, while Ball was named to the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Academic All-District 5 football team.

Milwee mentored four quarterbacks throughout the season. Senior and three-year starter Thomas Woodson started the first nine games. He finished his collegiate career at No. 2 with 6,864 passing yards and No. 2 in career passing TDs (53). Redshirt freshman Kato Nelson took over the starting role, leading the Zips to wins over Ohio and Kent State as well as appearances in the MAC Championship game and the Boca Raton Bowl. Also seeing action were junior Robbie Kelley and sophomore Nick Johns, who also appeared on special teams.

In 2016, UA recorded a 5-7 overall record, finishing just one play away from back-to-back bowl appearances. The Zips won their second consecutive Wagon Wheel over rival Kent State.

Redshirt senior wide receiver JoJo Natson Jr. garnered second-team All-MAC honors, while junior wide receiver Jerome Lane earned third-team recognition. Nine Zips found a place on the Academic All-MAC team, including junior offensive lineman Xavier Quigley.

In spite of injuries that forced a rotation of three quarterbacks, the Zips' offense set the school record for touchdowns (all passes) in a game with six in a win over VMI. Akron scored 25 passing touchdowns on the season, which were second most in the school record book. Natson ranked No. 21 nationally in receiving touchdowns (10), eclipsing the 100-yard receiving mark in two games.

Wide receivers Jerome Lane (New York Giants) and Natson (Indianapolis) signed rookie free agent contracts with NFL teams.

In 2015, Milwee mentored a corps of young quarterbacks, including sophomore Thomas Woodson who went 162-of-307 for 2,202 yards and 16 touchdowns in eight starts. Milwee also guided sophomore wideout Jerome Lane as he added receiver duties to his defensive skills. Lane was No. 12 nationally in yards per reception (20.05).

Senior offensive lineman Isaiah Williams was third-team All-MAC selection. Ten Zips earned Academic All-MAC honors, including three-time honoree quarterback Kyle Pohl, as well as offensive linemen Dylan Brumbaugh and Kyle Ritz. Brumbaugh and Pohl were selected as MAC Distinguished Scholar-Athletes.

Milwee was named to the inaugural American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) 30 Under 30 Coaches' Leadership Institute in 2016. The prestigious program, sponsored by the American Football Coaches Foundation and NCAA Leadership Development, is aimed at training premier, future leaders in the football coaching profession.

The 2014 season saw senior Jawon Chisholm become just the fourth player in school history to eclipse the 3,000-yard career rushing yards. He finished with 3,403 career yards, second-most in program history.

Junior quarterback Kyle Pohl completed 208-of-383 passes for 2,189 yards, moving into fourth place in the Akron record book for career passing yards (4,993), all under Milwee's guidance. Pohl earned Academic All-MAC honors and was a 2014 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team nominee.

In 2013, he guided first-year starter Pohl to a solid sophomore campaign. Pohl completed 225-of-402 passes for 2,438 yards, 14 touchdowns and 10 interceptions. Several of Pohl's numbers earned him a spot in the all-time single-season program rankings, including lowest percentage of passes intercepted (2nd, .025), completions (6th, 225), completions per game (7th, 18.8), total offense (7th, 2,534) and passing offense (8th, 2,438). Pohl also earned Academic All-MAC honors.

A record-setting signal caller at Division-II North Alabama, Milwee oversaw fifth-year senior transfer quarterback Dalton Williams' prolific season in 2012. Williams achieved the program's single-season record for touchdown passes (25) and pass completions (326-for-522), while his 3,387 passing yards ranked as the third most in a season in school history.

Additionally in 2012, the Zips set a program record and led the Mid-American Conference in passing yards (3,753) and touchdown passes (30). The team's school-record 312.8 passing yards per game ranked 17th nationally, while its 427.2 yards of total offense per game ranked 45th. UA's 5,126 yards of total offense was second most in program history, behind the 2003 squad's 5,643.

Milwee came to Akron after one year on staff at East Mississippi Community College, helping the program to an NJCAA national championship. In his lone season at EMCC, Lions freshman QB Bo Wallace shattered NJCAA single-season records for touchdown passes (53), passing yards (4,604) and total offense (4,810) on his way to All-American honors. He spent the 2009 and 2010 seasons on Terry Bowden's staff at UNA as a graduate assistant. While on the Lions' staff, the program went a combined 20-6, made back-to-back playoff appearances and were 2009 Gulf South Conference champions.

Having compiled a 33-5 mark as UNA's QB during the 2006-08 seasons, Milwee set all-time school records for career passing yards (8,436), pass completions (677), passing attempts (1,030), touchdown passes (73) and total offense yards (9,401). He earned honorable mention All-America honors as a senior and is a member of the program's all-decade team (1999-2008). At UNA, he was a two-time finalist for the Harlon Hill Trophy, awarded annually to the nation's top player at the NCAA Division-II level.

He spent his freshman year of eligibility as a member of the Alabama football team. He holds an undergraduate degree in finance from North Alabama.

A native of Boaz, Ala., Milwee is married to the former Ashley Elliott, who holds an undergraduate degree in mechanical engineering from Alabama. They have two sons together, JJ and Jett.

COACHING STAFF

TORRE BECTON

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL PERFORMANCE

A well-respected coach within his industry for his educational approach to the profession, Torre Becton was announced as Director of Football Performance at Texas on January 22, 2021.

Becton comes to Austin after completing four seasons as head athletic performance coach for football at California. Outside of the 2020 season when the Bears played just four games, Becton has been on staffs of bowl teams in eight of the previous nine seasons after the Golden Bears' trips to the Cheez-It Bowl in 2018 and Redbox Bowl in 2019.

Cal also posted winning records in 2018 and 2019 to give the Bears their first back-to-back winning campaigns and bowl appearances since 2008 and 2009. In addition, the Bears produced wins over all but one of the other five schools in the Pac-12 North and in road games at all three of their Pac-12 California opponents since Becton's arrival, ending droughts that dated back to 2000 at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum and 2009 at the Rose Bowl and Stanford Stadium. The Bears also took down a top-15 team in each of his first three seasons including 2018 Pac-12 champion Washington each of the last two campaigns, improved their win totals each of the past two seasons and produced a perfect 9-0 mark in regular-season non-conference games including four wins against Power 5 schools. Cal also won twice in 2019 on its final offensive possession, committed only a school-record-low 13 turnovers and led the Pac-12 and ranked in the top 20 nationally in all penalty categories.

Prior to Becton's arrival at Cal in 2017, he spent a combined six seasons on the strength and conditioning staffs at Washington (2011-15) and USC (2016), working with Cal head coach Justin Wilcox during the 2012 and 2013 seasons at Washington when Wilcox served as defensive coordinator for the Huskies.

As the associate head strength and conditioning coach at USC in 2016 he helped the Trojans develop into one of the top teams in the nation with a final No. 3 ranking in the AP Top 25 poll.

Becton spent the five prior seasons as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Washington, the first three under head coach Steve Sarkisian and another two after being retained by Chris Petersen. Becton played a significant role in developing the foundation for a 2016 squad that captured the Pac-12 title and reached the College Football Playoff semifinals before ending the season ranked No. 4 in the final AP Top 25 poll.

Becton also took on the key role of overseeing the integration of freshmen into the team training structure and football program at both USC and Washington by designing and implementing a mentoring orientation period that would help them become acclimated to life on a college campus and increase their chances of success.

Before moving to the Pac-12, Becton spent one season as the Director of Speed, Strength and Development at South Carolina State in 2010, where he helped the Bulldogs to a 9-2 overall record and a share of the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference championship.

Becton also picked up one season of experience in the NFL as a strength and conditioning assistant with the Houston Texans in 2009 after previous stints on staffs at Iowa State (2007-08), Baylor (2003-06) and Oklahoma State (2002-03).

A first generation college graduate, Becton played football for four seasons on the defensive line at North Carolina A&T State (1996-2000) with the Aggies winning the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference title during his 1999 junior campaign. Becton graduated from North Carolina A&T State in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in health and physical education/fitness and wellness management. He added a master's degree in Sport Science from the United States Sports Academy in 2014 and completed 450 hours as an intern with the Director of Football Operations at Washington in 2013.

Becton become one of 10 members of the class of 2019 to earn the prestigious title of Master Strength and Conditioning Coach (MSCCC), which is the top honor awarded by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCA). He was previously certified through the CSCCa as a Strength & Conditioning Coach (SCCC) and is also Functional Movement Systems (FMS) Level 1 certified, as well as a USA Weightlifting (USAW) Sports Performance Coach.

The well-versed Becton is on the programming committee for the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA), a former huddle leader for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA) and a member of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity.

A native of Kinston, N.C., Becton and his wife, Chinela, are the parents of four daughters, Ariyah, Kennedi, Charlize and Austyn.

TEAM RECORDS

BIG COMEBACKS

In 2004, Texas fell behind at home to Oklahoma State, 35-7 (28 points), in the first half but scored in the final minute of the period to cut the deficit to 35-14. The Longhorns went on to outscore the Cowboys 42-0 in the second half. Prior to that, the largest comeback had been at the 2001 Holiday Bowl, where Texas rallied from a 36-17 third quarter deficit (19 points) and defeated Washington, 47-43. The Longhorns exceeded that comeback in 2006 after falling behind Texas Tech, 21-0, before defeating the Red Raiders, 35-31. The Horns notched their largest fourth-quarter comeback in 2007 by making up a 21-point deficit to defeat Oklahoma State, 38-35.

LONGEST WINNING STREAKS IN FBS HISTORY

DID YOU KNOW? . . . Texas' 30-game winning streak from 1968-70 ranks as the 12th-longest winning streak in NCAA Division I-A football history. Texas also snapped USC's 34-game streak in the 2006 Rose Bowl for the National Championship.

LONGEST HOME WINNING STREAKS IN FBS HISTORY

The Longhorns' 42-game home winning streak at Memorial Stadium from 1968-76 is the seventh-longest home winning streak on NCAA Division I-A record. UT not only holds one of the nation's longest home victory strings, but it also has snapped two of the NCAA's top 20 home winning streaks. The Longhorns stopped Nebraska's 47-game home winning streak in 1998 and halted a Texas A&M 31-game home victory string in 1995.

DID YOU KNOW?

Texas has had three different players post the rare double of a 100-yard rushing and 100-yard receiving game during their careers. Johnny "Lam" Jones first accomplished the feat when he rushed for 122 yards against SMU in 1976 and posted 115 receiving yards against TCU in '77. Eric Metcalf did him one better by becoming the first player in Longhorns history to post a 100-yard rushing and 100-yard receiving contest in the same season. Metcalf accomplished the feat in 1985 when he rushed for 123 yards against TCU and posted 120 receiving yards against Rice. Ivan Williams joined the club in 2002 following his 111-yard receiving performance at Nebraska. Williams previously posted a pair of 100-yard rushing games in 2001 (152 vs. Texas Tech; 103 at Houston).

100 yards rushing (1): 122, SMU, 1976.

ERIC METCALF (1985-88)
100 yards rushing (10): 206, TCU, 1987; 157, Rice, 1987; 156, Texas Tech, 1988; 145, Oregon State, 1987; 133, New Mexico, 1988; 131, Baylor, 1987; 123, TCU, 1985; 106, Baylor, 1988; 104, Houston, 1988; 101, North Texas, 1988.

DID YOU KNOW?

When Selvin Young returned a kickoff 97 yards for a touchdown and a punt 39 yards for a score against New Mexico State in 2003, he became the first Longhorn ever to score on a punt return and a kickoff return in the same game. He also became the first Longhorn to return a punt and kickoff for a score in the same season. Jordan Shipley also accomplished the feat during the 2008 season. Young is one of five Longhorns ever to return a punt and kickoff for a touchdown during his career along with Raymond Clayborn (1973-76), Quan Cosby (2005-08), Shipley (2004-07) and D'Shawn Jamison (2018-present). Young is tied with Clayborn for career total kick returns for TDs with three. Both Young and Clayborn returned two punts and one kickoff for scores.

TEXAS AND THE POLLS ASSOCIATED PRESS

The storied history of Texas football has led to a number of impressive finishes in the national polls. In addition to National Championships in 1963 (AP, UPI), 1969 (AP, UPI), 1970 (UPI) and 2005 (AP, BCS), the Longhorns have finished second in the country three times (1950, UPI/1981, AP/ 2009, AP). In all, Texas has finished the season nationally ranked by The Associated Press 48 of 83 times. UT has completed the season ranked in the AP Top 10 on 27 occasions. During one impressive 12-year stretch (1959-70), the Longhorns finished the season ranked in the Top Five eight times.

TEXAS AT NO. 1 IN THE POLLS ASSOCIATED PRESS

Texas has spent its share of time at the top of The Associated Press Poll. The Longhorns have reached the top spot 14 different times for a total of 45 weeks. UT's longest stint at the top of The AP Poll was nine weeks in 1963. That stay at the top of the poll began on Oct. 15, following a 28-7 win against No. 1 Oklahoma, which upped UT's record to 4-0. The Longhorns remained in the top spot for the rest of the season. Texas was ranked No. 4 by AP prior to the 1964 season, but after a season opening 31-0 win against Tulane, the Longhorns vaulted to the top spot, a position they held for three weeks until a 14-13 loss to No. 8 Arkansas dropped them to 4-1.

DID YOU KNOW? The 1896 Texas varsity was the first team to play out of state, as the team ventured east for games against Tulane (a 12-4 victory) and LSU (a 14-0 loss). The games were played on a Saturday and Monday in New Orleans and Baton Rouge, respectively, which was a particularly brutal travel schedule for that time.

DID YOU KNOW? The 1928 Longhorns were the first to wear "Texas orange" (burnt orange) jerseys. The change was made because the bright orange jerseys UT had worn faded from repeated washings. Burnt orange jerseys were worn for the next decade until a wartime dye shortage forced UT to go back to the bright orange. The darker orange was not re-adopted until Darrell Royal did so prior to the 1962 season.

DID YOU KNOW? A chartered DC-4 provided the transportation, as the Texas football team used air travel for the first time for its 1947 game at Oregon. The trip, though reportedly very rough, didn't slow UT as Longhorn senior quarterback Bobby Layne outdueled Oregon sophomore Norm Van Brocklin in Texas' 38-13 win.

DID YOU KNOW? Entering the 1968 season, Legendary Longhorn Coach Darrell Royal and assistant coach Emory Bellard designed and introduced The University of Texas and College Football to a revolutionary new offense that would take the nation by storm and impact the game for generations to come. Utilizing its fresh new Wishbone formation, the 1968 team got off to a rocky 0-1-1 start while the Longhorns worked out the kinks. But once Royal found the ideal dynamic and explosive leader to direct the potent new scheme in quarterback James Street, the Longhorns went on to win their final nine games that year and earned a No. 3 national ranking. With the overpowering Wishbone leading the way, Texas went on to win a school-record 30 straight games, including back-to-back National Championships in 1969 and 1970. On the heels of the Wishbone, Texas claimed victory in a school-best 42 consecutive home games from 1968-76 as well.

THANKSGIVING DAY TRADITION

Including its first Turkey Day game in 1893, UT has played 87 times on the Thanksgiving holiday and posted a 59-25-3 mark. Texas A&M is the most common opponent with 69 matchups and UT holding a 46-20-3 advantage. The teams first met on Thanksgiving Day in 1900, however, that tradition ended in 2011 with A&M departing the Big 12 for the SEC. Texas faced TCU in 2012 and 2014, and Texas Tech in 2013 and 2015. The Horns have also faced Arkansas (1894, 1912, 1917), Notre Dame (1913, 1915) and Oklahoma (1910). Prior to 2012, Baylor (1994-95) is the only other team the Horns faced besides Texas A&M on Thanksgiving Day since 1917. Below is a breakdown of UT's Thanksgiving Day notables.

DARRELL K ROYAL-TEXAS MEMORIAL STADIUM

TEXAS MEMORIAL STADIUM

A concrete stadium to replace wooden Clark Field was a long-time dream of University of Texas athletics director L. Theo Bellmont. In 1923, that dream turned to reality as Bellmont met with 30 student leaders and initiated a plan to build a stadium. The idea was presented to the Board of Regents, who approved the project in December 1923. A Central Stadium Committee was named at the Regents meeting on Jan. 16, 1924, and the project was underway.

Heralded as "the largest sports facility of its kind in the Southwest" upon its completion in 1924, the first unit of the stadium consisted of the east and west stands with a seating capacity of 27,000. A product of University of Texas and state pride, the stadium was financed through donations from both students and alumni. The estimated cost of the structure was $275,000.

The enthusiasm was at an all-time high, and UT was forced to construct temporary bleachers to accommodate the overflow crowd of approximately 33,000 people at the dedication ceremonies during the 1924 Texas A&M game.

The UT student body decided to dedicate the stadium in honor of the 198,520 Texans — 5,280 of whom lost their lives — who fought in World War I. On Veteran's Recognition Day 1996, the stadium was rededicated to veterans of all wars in an effort to insure the memory of those who fought valiantly to preserve freedom.

HONORING DARRELL ROYAL

The University of Texas honored legendary head football coach Darrell Royal by adding his name to the Longhorns' stadium (Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium) in 1996. Royal, who led UT to three National Championships and 11 Southwest Conference titles in 20 seasons (1957-76), was recognized and the stadium officially named for him the weekend of the Notre Dame game that year.

CAMPBELL-WILLIAMS FIELD

At the request of the Jamail family, Joe Jamail Field was renamed in 2020 in honor of Longhorn Legends and Heisman Trophy winners Earl Campbell (1974-77) and Ricky Williams (1995-98).

Campbell, the famed "Tyler Rose," holds a special place in The University of Texas and state of Texas' football history. As a senior at UT in 1977, Campbell became the first Longhorn to win the Heisman Trophy after he rushed for 1,744 yards – a Southwest Conference record that stood for 16 years – and 19 touchdowns. He led the nation in rushing and scoring, and posted a pair of 200-yard games on the road against Texas A&M (222 yards) and SMU (213 yards). Campbell also set a Texas record for 100-yard rushing games that season (10).

Williams, a San Diego native, completed his UT career with 21 NCAA and 46 school records under his name en route to becoming Texas' second Heisman Trophy winner in 1998. He was a three-time first-team all-conference pick, a two-time Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year and only the second player to twice win the Doak Walker Award (nation's top running back). Williams' career culminated in his final home game, on the field now named in his honor, when he surpassed Tony Dorsett's 22-year-old NCAA rushing record.

The field at Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium was originally named after Joe Jamail in 1997 to honor the lifelong Longhorn's immense contributions to The University of Texas' athletic department.

DARRELL K ROYAL-TEXAS MEMORIAL STADIUM

As The University of Texas continues at the forefront of the college football landscape, Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium at Cambell-Williams Field remains a state-of-the-art facility.

The stadium, which is in its 99th season of operation, has continually gone through upgrades and renovations to enhance the fan and student-athlete experience.

In May 2019, Texas Athletics broke ground on a major expansion project in the south endzone od Darrell K Royal Texas Memorial Stadium with team moving into their new facility in August 2021. Fans began enjoying all of the amenities associated with it when the Longhorns kicked off against Louisiana on Sept. 4. The $175 million stadium expansion project includes more than a 106,000-square-foot training facility footprint that provides significant upgrades to the Football coaches and staff offices, team areas, strength and development center and athletic training/medical facilities. It also will enhance the fan experience greatly with an end zone seating area of more than 4,500 seats, including more than 1,300 student seats. It includes the Founders Lounge, Myers-Dodds Legacy Club, Living Room and Loge Boxes, as well as a Field Club area right near the action that accommodates more than 800 people. Atop it all is a 160-foot by 44-foot videoboard to visually celebrate all of the action. The total gross square footage of the entire project is more than 215,000-square feet.

Prior to the 2017 season, the Moncrief-Neuhaus Athletic Center saw upgrades to the Longhorns' locker room, weight room and meeting rooms. Additionally, to enhance the fan experience, a new LED video board and ribbon boards were installed inside of DKR. Additionally, the west-side façade, including Bellmont Hall, underwent a restoration and reinforcement project, along with an application of a protective coating and painting.

After the 2012 season, UT Athletics started a waterproofing and bleacher replacement project to the lower east and west grandstands. Damaged concrete was repaired, then sealed and painted, and new bleachers and chairbacks were installed. Handrails, portals and field level walls on both sides of the lower level were also given a fresh coat of paint. The improvements not only beautify the stadium and improve the fan experience, but also help to preserve the revered structure.

Installation of a new FieldTurf playing surface was completed in the spring of 2013, providing a state-of-the art surface that not only holds up to challenging weather conditions, but also allows the stadium to be a multi-use facility.

The Red McCombs Red Zone Sports Medicine & Strength Training Project, located in the lower levels of the north end zone was completed in the summer of 2013. The two-floor, 32,448 square-foot project includes a state of the art sports medicine facility on the upper floor, and a strength training complex on the lower floor. Amenities include a hydrotherapy pool, two plunge pools, golf putting and simulator area, a 40-yard acceleration track, a nutrition area and student-athlete/staff locker rooms.

In May of 2012, the University's athletics offices were moved from Bellmont Hall on the west side of the stadium to the north end zone's Walter W. Fondren III Athletics Leadership Center. The move not only created new space for academics in Bellmont Hall, but also consolidated the various athletics departments into a modern office-space facility. Athletics department offices now housed in the beautiful, 53,812 square-foot venue include the men's and women's athletics directors, men's and women's basketball coaches and administration, the T-Association, the Longhorn Foundation, Business/Travel, Human Resources, Events, Trademark & Licensing, Communications and Athletics IT.

The Texas locker room underwent renovations for the 2011 season, featuring 135 new wide-space lockers connected to a state-of-the art exhaust system. Additions also included a nutrition bar, a lounge area with gaming stations, a 72-inch LED screen in the center of room along with five other LED screens throughout the area, and a new sound system and speakers.
In 2009, south end zone seating was upgraded and expanded, increasing the stadium to its current capacity of 100,119, making it the seventh-largest collegiate stadium in the country and the largest in the Southwest. In addition, renovations were completed on the Moncrief-Neuhaus Athletic Center that provided a new football academic center approximately three times the size of the previous area, along with a new indoor practice area, defensive meeting room, hall of fame and a newly-designed facility entrance.

In 2008, renovations to the north end zone, named the Red McCombs Red Zone, were completed with the addition of an upper deck, approximately 2,100 club seats and 47 suites. That end of the stadium also includes a new academic center for UT athletics, a war memorial plaza and a food court. Including the 2007 renovations to the lower deck of the north end zone, the project added a total of approximately 9,000 additional seats, raising capacity to 94,113 for the 2008 season.
Two major upgrades were made for the 2006 season, including a new video board and temporary bleacher seating in the south end zone, which expanded the stadium's capacity by over 4,000 seats to a total of 85,123.

At the time, the scoreboard was the nation's largest high-definition video display board and remains the largest in collegiate athletics thanks to DAKtronics. The $8-million Prostar Video Board is 55-feet high by 134-feet wide and offers complete flexibility, with the capability to show one large single video image, multiple video images and a combination of live or recorded video with real time scores and stats, out-of-town game information, sponsors' messages, graphics and animation.

In recent years, the stadium has also had renovations to the press box, the Carpenter-Winkel Centennial Room and other renovations to the interior of Moncrief, most notably to the players' lounge.

The stadium was previously renovated in August 1999 with the removal of the track and the lowering of the field by six feet to allow the addition of several rows of seats.

It was part of a project that included removal of the artificial turf from the stadium, construction of the Frank Denius Fields practice facility, the Red & Charline McCombs Field (softball), the Mike A. Myers Track and Soccer Stadium, and extensive remodeling of DKR-Texas Memorial Stadium/Jamail Field and the Moncrief-Neuhaus Athletic Center.

The first stages of the ambitious project were completed in 1996. They included the installation of a sophisticated grass playing field in the stadium and the completion of the Frank Denius Fields.

Progress continued in 1997 with the addition of 14 stadium suites on the west side. The first major construction to the facility since the upper deck was added in 1972 also included a total remodeling of the underside of the stands, including a new concession plaza and a visitors' locker room in the northwest corner of the stadium.

The changes that took place at DKR-Texas Memorial Stadium for the 1998 football season included the addition of a 5,000-seat upper deck on the east side. The massive construction included 52 suites and a 13,000-square foot private club room.

In the Moncrief-Neuhaus Athletic Center, significant expansion and upgrades included a new locker room, training room, trophy room, players' lounge, football academic center and an addition almost doubling the space in the strength and conditioning area.

The football coaching and academic staffs were moved to the facility, housing the key elements of the entire football program in a single complex for the first time.

The final phase of the construction began shortly after the 1998 season ended, when the 75-year-old stadium floor was excavated to a depth of six feet to allow a reconfiguration and addition of seats and the removal of the track to provide a more intimate football setting.

The stadium was originally dedicated on Thanksgiving Day in 1924, after the UT student body decided to name the stadium in honor of the 198,520 Texans who fought in World War I and the 5,280 who lost their lives doing so. In 1977, the stadium was rededicated to veterans of all wars.

TALE OF THE TURF

- Memorial Stadium's field was natural grass from 1925-68.
- Artificial turf was first applied to the Memorial Stadium floor in summer 1969. The turf also was replaced in 1974, '82 and '89.
- UT returned to natural grass (prescription athletic turf/PAT) in 1996.
- The field was lowered and the grass (PAT) was replaced in 1999.
- The turf (PAT) was replaced with TifSport Certified Bermudagrass in 2002.
- UT switched back to an artificial surface, installing FieldTurf, in 2009.
- A new FieldTurf surface was installed in 2013.
- Texas Athletics installed a new FieldTurf surface prior to the 2021 season.

FREDDIE STEINMARK SCOREBOARD

In a pregame ceremony prior to UT's game with Miami on Sept. 23, 1972, the scoreboard at Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium was dedicated to the memory of Freddie Steinmark.

The small (5-foot-10, 166 pounds) but tough Steinmark was a starting safety for UT as a sophomore and junior in 1968-69. During that time, the Longhorns won 20 of 22 games and two conference titles with Steinmark providing five interceptions as a sophomore and two as a junior. Steinmark, who also earned Academic All-Southwest Conference honors in 1968 and '69, led the team in punt returns (25 for 177 yards) as a sophomore and averaged 6.1 yards on 38 punt returns during his career.

Following the final regular season game of his junior year, he became a national symbol of courage and determination as he began a year-and-a-half battle against cancer. In fact, just six days before a diagnosis of bone cancer forced the amputation of his left leg, Steinmark started and played in UT's 15-14 win at Arkansas that clinched the 1969 National Championship.

Determined to live, he astounded the doctors by appearing on crutches less than a month later at the 1970 Cotton Bowl against Notre Dame. After UT won the game, 21-17, Darrell Royal and the Longhorns presented the game ball to Steinmark. Within six weeks, he walked on an artificial leg across the stage to accept his letter jacket at UT's awards banquet.

Steinmark continued his college education without interruption and served as a student freshman coach during fall 1970, which would have been his senior season.

However, his battle with cancer was one that could not be won on heart alone. Despite all the doctors could do, Steinmark died on Sunday, June 6, 1971. Born Jan. 27, 1949, in Wheatridge, Colo., he was just 22 years old.

As Longhorns players exit the dressing room for a game, they pass by the Steinmark Scoreboard and touch his picture in recognition of the courage he showed in his fight for life and facing his cancer.

ALL-TIME LONGHORNS HEAD COACHES

A special thanks to Lou Maysel, author of "Here Comes the Texas Longhorns," Vols. I & II, for background on several former Longhorns coaches.

R.D. WENTWORTH, 1894

An 1891 graduate of Williams College (Williamstown, Mass.) where he was the team captain in his final season, Reginald DeMerritt Wentworth became the first coach in Texas history when he accepted an offer of $325 as salary and expenses in 1894.

The drive to hire a coach, or "trainer" as he was called then, came after a successful inaugural Longhorns football season when the first-ever UT team went 4-0. That team was formed by students and was managed by Albert Lefevre, who was secretary-treasurer of The University of Texas Athletic Association.

The 1894 hiring of Wentworth was spearheaded by two early law graduates, A.S. Walker and Thomas W. Gregory, who also saw to it that $100 was appropriated to purchase orange and white jackets, moleskin pants, striped stockings and several rubber noseguards.

Wentworth's team shut out its first six opponents, outscoring them 191-0, but fortunes turned suddenly in the final game of the year when Missouri, playing a different style than the Texans were accustomed to, shut out Texas, 28-0.

Wentworth's judgment in the final game was questioned by Texas fans, which prompted historian Lou Maysel to write, "The critical and suspicious nature of fans manifested itself early in the school's football history." The tenure of UT's first football coach ended with that season. Wentworth returned to the East Coast and subsequently went into marine insurance in New York City.

Following the stinging loss to Missouri in 1894 and R.D. Wentworth's departure, Texas had a difficult time hiring a coach. After a lengthy search, UT finally settled in mid-October of 1895 on Frank Crawford. A native of Colebrook, N.H., Crawford had coached Nebraska to a 5-4-2 record the previous two seasons.

Crawford's only known collegiate work was at Nebraska. Although Crawford reported that he attended Michigan State for two years, records never substantiated that claim.

"Little" Crawford taught the Yale system of play and stressed physical conditioning. He employed a daily routine that required the players to jog the mile or so from the campus to the Hyde Park practice field and then back after practice.

Because of his late arrival, the Texas season was delayed. The late beginning didn't prevent the team from experiencing tremendous success on the field. Texas rolled past its first four opponents by a combined score of 88-0. UT's original season finale was a 38-0 crushing of San Antonio on Thanksgiving Day. Following the game in the Alamo City, Crawford left immediately to visit Mexico and watch some bullfights, then returned home to Nebraska. At the time, coaches were hired just for the fall season.

The Texas team went on to accept a postseason challenge from a Galveston team. Despite playing without its head coach, UT added a fifth victory with an 8-0 win.

Harry Orman "Jake" Robinson had been the only coach to defeat Texas in its first three years of competition when his Missouri team defeated the varsity, 28-0, in 1894, so it created a lot of excitement when he was hired to take over the team for the 1896 season.

Robinson, a native of Bangor, Maine, played lineman at Tufts (Medford, Mass.) in 1891-92, had a degree in electrical engineering and was an accomplished string musician. In football, he brought to Texas the Princeton style of play and benefited from the move of the UT practice area from Hyde Park to just east of the campus.

An upgraded schedule found the Longhorns finishing with a 4-2-1 record, winding up the season with a 10-0 loss to Missouri in early December.

After that game, 18 of the Missouri players were convinced to join the Texas team on an exhibition tour of Mexico, where Robinson and Missouri coach Frank Patterson actually played in one of the contests before returning to the sidelines.

Neither school counts the exhibition games in their records, but the trip was notable because the Missouri players had left school in late November. With permission for a one-week tour, the team's month-long absence brought the wrath of their parents as well as the school. Robinson remained with the Texas team through the trip before ending his one-season stint in Austin.

For the first several years, coaches at Texas were under the control of The University of Texas Athletic Association, a group affiliated with but not controlled by The University of Texas itself. In 1895, an Athletic Council, which served as a faculty committee to supervise athletics, was formed. It included many of the same members as the Association, but its creation helped bring football under the control of The University.

In 1897, in a significant change from the policy of hiring a coach only for the fall semester, Walter F. "Mike" Kelly was hired as the full-time "Physical Director for Men" and was handed the football coaching duties as part of his responsibilities.

Kelly, who had played end on the Dartmouth College team only a year before, led the team to a 6-2 record, with most of the wins coming over town teams from San Antonio, Houston, Fort Worth and Dallas. A notable exception was an 18-10 victory over a Waco school known as Add-Ran College, which later moved to Fort Worth and changed its name to Texas Christian University.

Kelly's tenure as coach lasted only one year, however. Although he did not remain as head coach, Kelly returned in 1898 as director of the newly completed gym in the east wing of the Main Building and accepted a position as an assistant coach — the first true aide for a UT football coach.

The plans for a retention schedule of Longhorns head coaches changed quickly in 1898, only a year after the Athletic Council had hired Mike Kelly for a full year with the idea of keeping him more than just one season. Kelly returned, but his duties as "physical director" called for him to maintain the directorship of a newly completed school gymnasium. So he took the job of the first-ever assistant coach and David Farragut Edwards, who was hired only for the season, took the job as the fifth head coach in as many years at Texas.

Edwards, an 1896 graduate of Princeton who had played as a second-team lineman as a senior and served as assistant coach at Ohio State in 1897, took over the UT program in 1898.

Edwards led the young Texas team into a schedule that featured a swing toward collegiate competition, rather than the predominance of "town teams" that had filled the schedule since the beginning of the school's participation in football.

Along with a more challenging schedule, it was Edwards who made a drastic change in the school uniforms, which actually triggered a vote on the official school colors. Edwards shunned the orange and white combination that had been worn since orange and white streamers were purchased for use at a baseball game a few years earlier. His preference of orange and maroon did not wear well with the natives, who pushed for a vote on the school colors that eventually came two years later.

Edwards' team shut out every opponent except Sewanee, which blanked Texas, 4-0, for the only loss of the season. The only score in that game came on a trick play for a touchdown, which was worth four points in those days.

Following the season, Edwards returned to the east and eventually practiced law in Jersey City. His assistant, Kelly, also departed.

MAURICE GORDON CLARKE, 1899

With two vacancies in the infant athletics program, the Athletic Council in 1899 hired Maurice Gordon Clarke, a native of Omaha, Neb., who lettered three years in both football and baseball at an early-day powerhouse — the University of Chicago. Clarke played quarterback on the 1896-98 Chicago teams that compiled a 23-5-1 record. He brought to Texas the style of his teacher, the legendary Amos Alonzo Stagg.

The season featured the purchase of the first university-owned field as a group of key supporters agreed to help the university with the purchase price of $3,000. The field was named Clark Field, in honor of George B. Clark, who as school proctor served as auditor, registrar, librarian, secretary of the faculty and campus caretaker. It was also the year that Texas ended road trips to "town teams" after a brawl broke out in the final trip to Dallas to play against a city team.

Clarke's team carded a 6-2 record, with the only losses coming to Sewanee, 12-0, and Vanderbilt in Nashville, 6-0. The season featured the first field goal in UT history when Jim Hart kicked a ball through the uprights from the 23-yard line in an 11-0 win over Tulane in New Orleans.

The 1900 season brought a vote on the colors of orange and white and the formation of the school's first band and it also brought the beginning of the first multi-year stay of a Texas coach. That year, Samuel Huston "Shy" Thompson was named head coach, while Dr. Frank Homer Curtiss was chosen as the new gymnasium director and served as assistant coach.

Thompson was a Princeton grad who had played on the great Tigers team of 1896 and coached at Oberlin (Ohio) in 1897 and then Lehigh (Pa.) in 1898 and '99. During the offseason, Thompson studied law in New York City. He moved to Denver the summer before coming to Texas and made Colorado his official residence thereafter.

A strict disciplinarian, who refused to let players drink water during practice, Thompson guided his team to a 6-0 record in his first season and piloted the Texas squad to an 8-2-1 record in 1901. In his second season, Thompson stayed on to lead a Texas team devoid of experienced manpower. He opened the year with a 6-0-1 record before disaster struck. A team at the American School of Osteopathy of Kirksville, Mo., proposed a game during a swing north by the Texas team. Thompson objected, but the school agreed to play.

Thompson said the Kirksville team was "composed of pickups from all over the country" and he was proved right, as a bitter contest ended with a 48-0 Kirksville win, during which the Texas team was humiliated on and off the field. Texas lost to Kansas the next week but bounced back to record eight wins in the most extensive schedule ever for a Texas team.

Thompson resigned after the season and finished his career with a 14-2-1 mark. He later served as assistant U.S. attorney general under President Woodrow Wilson from 1913-18 and on the Federal Trade Commission from 1919-27.

J.B. HART, 1902

Diminutive John B. Hart had to prove himself from the start as the new coach at Texas for the 1902 season. Fresh out of Yale as a June graduate, the 5-foot-5, 130-pound native of Cincinnati arrived on the UT campus to skeptics who wondered if the little guy had really played in the then mighty Ivy League.

That was until Hart suited up for one scrimmage and left little doubt as to why he had won his "Y" as one of the smallest backs the school ever had.

Hart's very young team got off to a good start with wins over Oklahoma and Sewanee, but the season ended in a 12-0 defeat at the hands of rival Texas A&M, its first-ever win over UT. The loss left the Longhorns with a 6-3-1 slate and marked the most defeats the school had suffered in 10 years of football.

Hart, like so many of the coaches before him, was employed only for the season, and departed following the loss to Texas A&M.

Frustrated by having to hire a coach every fall semester, the UT Board of Regents finally took action and established the post of "outdoor athletic director," whose job would include the coaching of baseball, track and football. The move had a double bonus for the struggling Athletic Association, because it meant the salary would be paid by The University, rather than from generated funds.

Ralph Fielding Hutchinson was chosen for the job in 1903 and in him UT got a versatile athlete and well-qualified coach. A Princeton man who was a native of Pennsylvania, he was a product of Mercersburg Prep. He played quarterback on the 1898-99 Princeton teams and was an infielder in baseball and a hurdler in track.

Before coming to Texas, he served two years as coach and athletics director at Dickinson College and coached backs at Princeton in 1902.

Hutchinson inherited an assistant — Homer Curtiss, who was the gym director — but found a team with apparently less-than-average talent. However, he quickly found outstanding players — including future U.S. Congressman Lucian Parrish — among the newcomers and rolled to a 5-1-2 record in his first year. Except for a historic 68-0 shellacking — the worst loss in UT history — at the hands of Chicago in his second season of 1904, Hutchinson continued his success with a 6-2 record that year.

Hard times financially and on the playing field hit the next season, and Hutchinson left after UT suffered its greatest number of defeats to date with a 5-4 record. He wrapped up his three-year tenure with a 16-7-2 record.

Following the 1905 season, college football had reached a crisis because the style of play, coupled with the lack of helmets and inadequate protection for the body, had produced 18 deaths and 159 serious injuries nationwide. Schools such as Columbia, Northwestern, California and Stanford either dropped the sport or changed to rugby.

Representatives of college football's Big Three — Harvard, Princeton and Yale —went to the White House and asked President Teddy Roosevelt to intervene and he did. With the assistance came sweeping changes in the game. The forward pass was adopted, first-down distance measured and the games were reduced in time.

The University, which had stepped into the larger arena four years before with the hiring of Ralph Hutchinson, took a step backward with the hiring of H. R. Schenker in 1906. Schenker, who was a young Yale graduate, had the supposed recommendation of none other than "the father of American football" Walter Camp. Fact was, Schenker knew nothing of the intricacies of the game of football or even how to hold one, although he supposedly had played on the scrub team at Yale.

Though one of his players would later write, "How he got the job has always been a mystery," the team banded together to win despite him. Future Statesman Lucian Parrish delivered a stirring talk to his teammates in which he said, "Men, we will have to face the fact that our coach is incompetent. It is true he should be taking lessons from us, rather than we from him. But the fact remains that he is employed to handle the team and is certainly the head of the football organization. I want to earnestly urge you to keep your mouths shut and follow the directions of the coach every day you are on the field. If you are instructed to do something that you know to be bad football, do the thing willingly and promptly at the time and then come to me about it. I will see that all mistakes are remedied."

The remarkable Parrish, a guard who died an early death while serving in Congress in 1921, was true to his word. With the help of two professors, including a young German instructor named W. E. Metzenthin, the team flourished despite Schenker, finishing with a 9-1 record. To no one's surprise, Schenker was not asked to return following the season.

The athletics family at UT was so impressed with the behind-the-scenes work of Waldemar Eric Metzenthin that they prevailed on him to become the head coach for the 1907 season. An energetic young language professor, Metzenthin accepted no additional pay to do the job.

Born in Berlin, Metzenthin had attended public schools in Austin and in Lancaster, Pa., and had played quarterback at Franklin-Marshall and Columbia. Metzenthin did not inherit the best of worlds as Schenker's successor. Freshmen were barred by the faculty from competing their first semester and the program was in tough financial shape, but Metzenthin, who had been so successful in steering the program from behind the scenes the year before, came through. The first season ended successfully at 6-1-1 and the football program cleared more than $1,000.

Metzenthin agreed to coach the team again, along with his professorial duties, in 1908, but his team struggled. Despite a spectacular 28-12 come-from-behind victory against Texas A&M — which allowed Texas to finish 5-4 and escape its first losing season ever —— he quit after the season. Stating he was tired of the criticism, he returned to full-time professorship and Texas began searching for a coach once again. Several years later Metzenthin would return to athletics, serving as athletics council chairman, or athletics director as it would be later known, in 1927.

Dr. Dexter Wright Draper was hired immediately following the resignation of W.E. Metzenthin and by the time he got to Texas for the 1909 season, he had received his medical degree and was Dr. Dexter Draper. A rugged tackle at the University of Pennsylvania, Draper came with outstanding credentials as a player, having made the Walter Camp All-America team for three consecutive years.

A big man with a foghorn voice, he was a throwback to the old-style, hard-nosed football coach and wasn't the most popular person among the Texas players. He also faced a concentrated effort in improvement at Texas A&M and the result was two of his three losses coming at the hand of the Aggies.

Those two losses to Texas A&M, by a combined score of 28-0, and the mediocre 4-3-1 season had Draper on the hot seat, but he decided on his own against returning as the UT coach. He headed back east and later coached at Franklin & Marshall and William & Mary before entering his chosen field as a doctor in pediatrics. He then served as chief medical examiner for the city schools in Lancaster, Pa., where he died in 1961 at the age of 80.

From the fertile fields of the eastern cradle of college football, Texas turned at last to the Midwest for its 1910 coach with the hiring of William S. "Billy" Wasmund, who had quarterbacked a new-style offense for the Michigan Wolverines. Wasmund, a native of Detroit, had attended Lafayette College (Pa.) before transferring to Michigan to get his degree in civil engineering.

Wasmund's arrival at Texas came at the same time football rules changed significantly. The game was divided into quarters and seven players were required on the line of scrimmage. Interlocking interference was banned and so was pushing and pulling the ball carrier.

The new coach's style of football was both popular and successful. Wealthy team manager Lutcher Stark helped arrange an impressive schedule and despite losses to Oklahoma and Texas A&M, Wasmund was popular enough to be rehired for the 1911 season, but he didn't live to see it.

Wasmund's team held their first-ever preseason training camp, going off campus to a site near Marble Falls. When the team returned ready for its opener, the players were seasoned and tough. However, on Sunday morning, Oct. 1 — just six days before the season opener with TCU — Wasmund was found unconscious near his second-floor apartment, which was adjacent to the UT campus.

Rumors of foul play spread, but it later was determined that his fall was apparently an accident, for he was a known sleepwalker who apparently fell in the night. At first his injury wasn't thought to be serious, but his condition worsened and he died several days later.

Clinging to life on his deathbed, Billy Wasmund realized that his condition was worsening and that he would not be able to coach the team, so he advised the school's athletic officials to contact his old coach at Michigan. Fielding Yost, to help secure a successor who was familiar with the Michigan system. Wasmund mentioned a former teammate Dave Allerdice.

J. Burton Rix, the track and basketball coach, and William J. "Uncle Billy" Disch, the baseball coach, held the football team together as Wasmund fought for his life, but when Wasmund died just days before the TCU game, The University cancelled the game and sought a successor. When Yost recommended Allerdice as well, the Texas people knew he was their man.

The son of an Indianapolis packing house operator, David W. Allerdice was a remarkable athlete who was an All-American halfback on the 1907-09 Michigan teams. He also served as an assistant coach at Michigan but was at Butler (Ind.) University when he was contacted about the Texas job.

He arrived in Austin on a train just five days after Wasmund's death and he brought a warmth and quiet stability to the coaching position, thus becoming the most successful coach of the early era of Texas football. His teams went 5-2 in 1911, 7-1 in both '12 and '13, and was unbeaten at 8-0 in 1914. In 1915 he led his team into the inaugural season of Southwest Conference football. Despite outscoring its first three opponents 223-0, including a UT-record 92-0 victory over Daniel Baker (largest margin of victory and points scored in school history), Texas lost three of its final six games and finished with a 6-3 record. UT finished tied for third with a 2-2 mark in the Southwest Conference and suffered season-ending losses to Texas A&M and Notre Dame — the latter coming when star Clyde Littlefield, the future UT football and track & field coach, became ill and could not play.

With a remarkable 33-7 record, he informed the Athletic Council midway through the 1915 season that it would be his last because of the "super critical nature of the Texas fans." He returned to Indianapolis and went into his family's meat packing business. Allerdice, along with his wife and son, tragically died in a house fire during the 1940 Christmas holiday. He was posthumously inducted into the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1981.

Conrad Eugene Van Gent, a former three-sport star at Wisconsin, replaced Dave Allerdice in 1916 and continued the winning tradition. A 6-foot-3, 200-pound man, Van Gent was from Ottumwa, Iowa, and was an all-star in football, basketball and track for the Badgers. He had worked two years on the University of Missouri staff and the UT Athletic Council, led by the first-ever athletics director Theo Bellmont, had to raise its offer from $2,250 to $2,500 as a result of Missouri's efforts to keep him.

The 1916 campaign was the season when the Texas A&M students kidnapped and branded the Longhorns' mascot, hence Van Gent personally witnessed the birth of the name "Bevo" for the school's favorite steer.

Van Gent led the team to a 7-2 record and a Southwest Conference-best 5-1 record (although a conference crown was not awarded in 1916). However, when the season was over, the world was about to change. More than 500 students and Van Gent left the Austin school when the United States declared war on Germany. The UT coach reported to the First Officers' Training Camp at Camp Funston, near San Antonio in May 1917. He returned after the war as an assistant coach but left after the 1919 season. Van Gent then moved to California and entered private business. He returned to college coaching briefly at Stanford, posting a 4-4-2 record in 1922.

BILL JUNEAU, 1917-19

Legendary Longhorns baseball coach Billy Disch was a factor in the hiring of UT's coach in 1917, as he recommended William J. Juneau. He had coached Eugene Van Gent, Texas' previous coach, during his 1912-15 tour at Wisconsin. Juneau, who was also hired to coach track & field at Texas, had posted an 18-8-2 record and a 7-0 initial season for the Badgers.

Juneau, who had played his football at Wisconsin, was a high school teammate of Disch in Milwaukee and had coached at South Dakota State and Marquette. With many brave young men going away to war, Juneau inherited a far different football team than had any of his predecessors. His first team suffered three consecutive shutouts at midseason to end with a 4-4 record and Texas' first non-winning season in school history.

By 1918, the war had consumed the nation and Juneau's record of 9-0 was achieved against only five college teams and four military squads. The next year his team went 6-3 but was just 3-2 in the Southwest Conference. By that time, the dominant figure in college football in the state of Texas had become D.X. Bible, who was turning Texas A&M into a national power.

Faced with a disappointing season and the fact that the Longhorns had gone the first five seasons in the SWC without a league title, dissatisfaction was rampant in the Texas ranks and Juneau left under pressure. He moved on to Kentucky, where he posted a 13-10-1 record the next three seasons.

One of the most enduring figures ever at The University of Texas was Berry McClure Whitaker, who founded the school's intramural program for men and also served as one of its most successful football coaches.

Whitaker was tabbed head coach for the 1920 season and was a part of a remarkable era in Texas athletics that saw its major sport teams of football, basketball and baseball rarely lose a game. Football was no exception, as Whitaker took over for Juneau and immediately guided the team to a 9-0 record and the Southwest Conference Championship.

A native of Anderson, Ind., Whitaker took the job in Austin because its offer was the farthest point from his hometown. He moved to Texas in 1916 to head up the men's intramural department and helped the coaching staff. When Juneau was fired, the unassuming Whitaker was called into Athletics Director Theo Bellmont's office and told — not offered the job — he was the coach.

With some of the most gifted players in early Texas history, Whitaker coached teams to seasons of 9-0, 6-1-1 and 7-2. Following the 1922 season and with a sparkling 22-3-1 record, Whitaker resigned amid rumors that he was in conflict with the rich and powerful former team manager, Lutcher Stark. Whitaker denied it, simply saying, "I'm too thin-skinned and too conscientious. Defeats killed me. I was coming down with ulcers and that kind of thing. I didn't intend to stay in coaching in the first place. I was going to get out of it and get back in my profession." With that, he returned to his beloved intramural program, serving as the director for more than 40 years until he retired. He was inducted into the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1977.

Hired to take over the UT program in 1923, Edward James "Doc" Stewart was the son of a Methodist minister and had played football and basketball at Mount Union College (Alliance, Ohio). He had attended medical school at Case Western Reserve University (Cleveland) where he played on the baseball team and was even a sportswriter for the Morning Gleander and Evening Independent in Massillon, Ohio.

In the early 1900s, he organized a town team called the Massillon Tigers, which set the stage for the storied history of football in that Ohio town. Stewart had coached two football seasons at Mount Union and had coached football and basketball at Purdue, Allegheny College, Oregon A&M (now Oregon State), Nebraska and Clemson, as well as an Army team during World War I.

Stewart, who wore a brimmed hat at games and practice, was a multifaceted man who played the piano and spoke so eloquently that the head of the UT English department offered him a job if he ever quit coaching.

On the field, he convinced Oscar Eckardt, one of the University's true legends, not to give up the game and that promptly resulted in an 8-0-1 season in 1923. He followed that with a 5-3-1 season in 1924, a 6-2-1 mark in 1925 and then struggled to a 5-4 record in 1926.

Stewart's varied interests probably proved to be his downfall as the UT coach, but he survived quite well financially. He invested in summer camps for kids near Kerrville and founded Camp Stewart for boys and Camp Mystic for girls, as well as Heart O' Hills Inn as part of a resort empire.

When his record slipped in 1926, war was about to break out over Texas athletics. Stewart had his backers and detractors, and finally, in an explosive meeting, the popular coach was fired with a 24-9-3 record. Stewart went on to serve as coach at what is now UTEP for two seasons before returning to Kerrville to run the camps, which were a huge financial success.

The bright light of success that Stewart was ended tragically just three years after his UT firing when he was shot and killed by a deer-hunting companion on Nov. 18, 1929.

One of the most legendary figures ever in Texas Athletics, Clyde Littlefield paid little attention to the turmoil surrounding the dismissal of E.J. Stewart following the 1926 season, which also resulted in the firing of athletics director Theo Bellmont. Littlefield was hired to coach and accepted the position in 1927. He was the first true superstar to play and later coach at UT.

Littlefield was a native of Pennsylvania who came to Texas in 1904 when the oil boom around Beaumont attracted his father. He finished his prep schooling in San Antonio and chose Texas over Texas A&M in a move that defined history. He won 12 letters in three sports and could have earned another if he had more time for baseball. He started his coaching career in Greenville, and after a tremendous high school career, returned to Texas. His final high school football team was undefeated, untied and unscored upon.

Littlefield had been a superstar in football at Texas, so it was no surprise that he was hired as track & field coach and freshman football coach in 1920. When he took over as the head coach after Stewart's dismissal, he paid little attention to politics and proceeded to build a great staff with which to run the program. His first team went 6-2-1 and his second finished with a 7-2 record and won the Southwest Conference Championship. By 1930, with the arrival of Ernie Koy, Harrison Stafford and Bohn Hilliard, Littlefield had legitimate superstars and a second league championship with an 8-1-1 record.

Things continued to be solid for Littlefield when his 1932 team was 8-2. However, when the 1933 unit fell to 4-5-2 — UT's first losing season in 40 years of football — powerful people such as Lutcher Stark called for his resignation. Choosing not to fight and to avoid the politics, Littlefield quit as football coach with a 44-18-6 record that still stands as the fourth-most coaching victories on UT record. Littlefield remained as track coach where he served for 41 seasons and won 25 league championships.

He was the first Texas coach to win two SWC championships in football and his legacy remains today with his name honoring the nationally renowned track festival he created in 1925, the Clyde Littlefield Texas Relays. Littlefield was inducted into the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1961.

John Edward "Jack" Chevigny was a national football celebrity who almost literally wound up on UT's doorstep in 1934 and his flashfire of success was like a sky rocket that took off in a flurry and burned out quickly.

Part of the great legend of Notre Dame football was Chevigny, who scored the winning touchdown against Army after Knute Rockne's famous "Win One for the Gipper" halftime speech, and he allegedly said as he crossed the goal with the winning score, "That's one for the Gipper."

Chevigny might well have succeeded Rockne at Notre Dame had the famous coach not been killed in a plane crash in 1931, because he had Rockne's flair for the dramatic and was being groomed for the job as an assistant at Notre Dame.

The Hammond, Ind., native left Notre Dame after Rockne's death and coached the NFL's Chicago Cardinals (now the Arizona Cardinals) to a 2-6-2 record in 1932. He quickly determined that professional ball wasn't for him and accepted a job as the head coach at St. Edward's University (a sister school of Notre Dame) in Austin. So it was convenient that Chevigny was just across the Colorado River in South Austin when Texas began looking for a new coach in 1934.

The flamboyant Chevigny had impressed the Austin community and the media with his flair and he did an excellent job of self-promotion. He got the UT job and inherited from Littlefield a wealth of talent, including 20 lettermen. Chevigny's greatest moment came in just the second game of his career, when he directed a 7-6 victory over his alma mater, Notre Dame. When his team finished the season at 7-2-1, Jack Chevigny was the toast of the town.

However, it would be short-lived. His 1935 team fell to 4-6 and Chevigny failed to build bonds with the Texas fan base, and more importantly, with the Texas high school coaches. As the 1936 season crashed down around him, Chevigny announced he had asked UT authorities not to reappoint him. When the team finished 2-6-1, the Athletics Council took him up on his verbal resignation. To this day, Chevigny, with a 13-14-2 record in three seasons, stands as the only head football coach in Longhorns history to end his tenure with a losing record.

Chevigny stayed in Austin for a time working as an attorney for the State Tax Commission, but he soon tired of that and moved to Illinois, where he was very successful in the oil business. Chevigny died as a first lieutenant in the battle of Iwo Jima during World War II.

When it came time to replace Jack Chevigny after the 1936 season, Texas made the boldest and most powerful move that it had made since the beginning of The University — at least as far as athletics was concerned — in 1937. In the midst of a national depression, Texas sought and hired Dana X. Bible, who agreed to leave a solid post at Nebraska to accept the dual post of coach and athletics director at Texas. Bible came to UT for a salary of $15,000 — more than The University paid its president (who eventually got a raise as a result) at the time.

Still ranked as the third-winningest coach in UT history and one of the most successful coaches in the early days of college football history, Bible's 10-year stint at Texas from 1937-46 is credited with laying the foundation of the modern legacy of Longhorn football.

Born Oct. 8, 1891, in Jefferson City, Tenn., Bible's first name, Dana, honored a relative, while his middle name, Xenophon, recognized the ancient Greek historian. His father was a professor at Carson-Newman College and so it was natural for Bible to go to school there and become a football standout and scholar-athlete.

Even though he was a star on the field, Bible's thirst for knowledge of the game led him on summer pilgrimages to study with such legends of the game as Amos Alonzo Stagg and Pop Warner, among others. His first coaching assignment was at Brandon Prep in Shelbyville, Tenn., and he was only 21 years old when he was hired to coach Mississippi College in 1912. In 1916, he became an assistant coach at Texas A&M while he actually worked as a coach-on-loan at LSU part of that season. Bible returned to Texas A&M as the head coach in 1917 and a legend was born.

Following tremendous success at Texas A&M and Nebraska, Bible was hired in 1937 to turn the Texas fortunes around. He inherited a team that was more depressed than the nation's economy. After a tough start that saw Texas win just three games in Bible's first two seasons, the legendary coach turned things around. By the time his tenure was up, he had led the Longhorns to what was then a school-best 63 victories and won three Southwest Conference championships, all coming in the final five years of his Longhorns career.

He is credited for "The Bible Plan," which placed emphasis on education as well as success on the football field. His 1941 team, which finished the year with an 8-1-1 mark and a No. 4 national ranking — marking the first appearance for the Longhorns in the season-ending poll — was featured on the cover of Life magazine and is still regarded as one of the greatest in school history. Bible's 1941 squad climbed as high as No. 1 to record the program's first-ever top ranking at any point in a season. He won SWC titles in 1942, '43 and '45, while those teams finished with No. 11, No. 14 and No. 10 national rankings, respectively.

Bible's 1942 squad was just the second in UT history to post nine wins and was the first to play in a bowl game — a 14-7 victory against No. 5 Georgia Tech in the Cotton Bowl. His '43 squad was 7-1-1, a perfect 5-0 in the SWC and played Randolph Field to a 7-7 tie in the Cotton Bowl. The '45 team set a then-UT record with 10 victories, including a dramatic 40-27 win against Missouri in the Cotton Bowl. That game is best remembered for legendary quarterback Bobby Layne playing a role in each of UT's 40 points.

After leading the Longhorns to an 8-2 record and a No. 15 final ranking in 1946, Bible retired from coaching and remained at Texas as athletics director.

In 33 years as a head coach, Bible was 198-72-3 (63-31-3 at Texas) and the third-winningest coach in the history of the game when he retired, trailing only Amos Alonzo Stagg, who coached for 57 years, and Pop Warner, who patrolled the sidelines for 44 years. Bible, who never lost a bowl game — boasting a 2-0-1 record in three Cotton Bowls, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1951 and the Longhorn Hall of Honor in '60.

Hand picked and groomed by D.X. Bible as his successor, Blair Cherry brought a wealth of experience and Texas roots to the position of head football coach in 1947. The first Texas-born coach, Cherry had been waiting in the wings since joining Bible's first staff at Texas in 1937. As his right-hand man, he was Bible's choice to succeed him when he stepped down from coaching and retained the athletics director position in 1946.

Cherry, a native of Corsicana, played his high school ball at Weatherford and later was a star at TCU. After a brief professional baseball career, he quickly moved into football coaching as a high school mentor at Ranger, before moving to Fort Worth North Side. In 1930, he became head coach at Amarillo and was part of one of the most incredible records in Texas high school sports. During his time at Amarillo, his team won 84 games, lost just five and ruled as State Champions his final three years.

Had Bible not accepted the Texas head coaching position 10 years earlier, Cherry was the next choice and he quickly proved why. With a veteran squad, including All-American quarterback Bobby Layne, Cherry's Longhorns posted a near-perfect record of 10-1, defeated No. 6 Alabama (27-7) in the Sugar Bowl and finished the year ranked fifth nationally in his first season of 1947. The only loss came in classic 14-13 battle with Doak Walker and SMU.

Cherry's 1948 team was 7-3-1, including a 41-28 win against No. 8 Georgia in the Orange Bowl. Following that victory, Cherry was offered head coaching jobs with both the Chicago Cardinals and the Washington Redskins of the NFL but instead chose to stay at Texas, accepting a new five-year contract.

Two years later, in the midst of one of the most successful coaching careers ever at Texas, Cherry resigned to enter private business. After a 6-4 record in 1949, his 1950 team went on to post a 9-2 record, earn a No. 3 national ranking and claim the Southwest Conference Championship with a perfect 6-0 conference slate. Cherry's team was ranked No. 5 in the country and was breezing to the SWC title when he announced at midseason that he was leaving to enter the oil business. His UT coaching career came to an end after a 20-14 season-ending loss to Tennessee in the 1951 Cotton Bowl.

Cherry suffered from an ulcer and insomnia. In a national article on "Why I Quit Coaching" a year later, he alluded to the "over-emphasis on winning" and the critical nature of the media and the fans over the few losses he suffered in an amazing 32-10-1 career as the reasons he chose to leave. In four short seasons, he led Texas to three bowl games, two bowl victories and a pair of

Top Five national rankings. He was induced into the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1968.

Due to a long association with The University both as an athlete and an assistant coach, Edwin Booth Price was the natural choice to replace Blair Cherry as the Longhorns' head coach in 1951. Stunned by the sudden resignation of Cherry, Price's selection calmed the situation considerably, for he had been an assistant to both Jack Chevigny and D.X. Bible and had led Cherry's defensive units since returning from World War II.

Born in Brownwood, Price later was a four-sport star at Corsicana before coming to Texas, where he played on championship teams in football, basketball and baseball. He was also a sportswriter for the Daily Texan while in school.

He coached in high school and junior college at Hillsboro and El Paso before returning to Texas to join Chevigny's last staff in 1936. He stayed on as a freshman football coach for Bible.

Price quickly continued the winning tradition set by Cherry, leading the Longhorns to a 7-3 record in his first season as head coach. His 1952 team posted a 9-2 record, claimed the Southwest Conference Championship with a perfect 6-0 league mark and finished with a No. 10 national ranking. That unit, which featured an all-conference backfield and some of the best players of the era for UT, capped a terrific year with a 16-0 victory against No. 8 Tennessee in the Cotton Bowl.

His 1953 team finished with a 7-3 mark, was ranked 11th nationally and claimed a league co-championship. After just three seasons, Price had won two conference titles, led Texas to a 23-8 record and was riding a wave of success.

But despite high hopes, the 1954 team stumbled to a 4-5-1 record — Texas' first losing season in 15 years — and the downward spiral had begun. After a 5-5 year in 1955, UT tumbled to its worst record in school history in a 1-9 season in 1956. A 7-6 win against Tulane in the second game of the year was the only victory in the dismal campaign.

Whether the downfall came because of rule changes, as Price believed, or whether it was the mild-mannered Price's failure to recruit well and be hard-nosed, after over 25 years of direct association with athletics at Texas, his tenure in that department ended. On Oct. 31, 1956, citing his love for The University and his desire to move forward "for the good of the team," Price tendered his resignation effective at the end of the season. He posted 33-27-1 record in six seasons, but after claiming two conference crowns in his first three years, the Longhorns fell to the bottom of the league standings in his final two seasons.

He stayed on at Texas, first in the physical education department and later serving as assistant dean of students, for many years before retiring. He was inducted into the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1967.

D. X. Bible's legacy as Texas' football coach may have ended in the 1940s, but the impact he had as athletics director in the '50s continued to be dramatic. For it was Bible, more than any single person, who fashioned the hiring in December 1956 of Darrell Royal, a young, 32-year-old former Oklahoma football star as the next Longhorns football coach.

Born in Hollis, Okla., Royal had played his college ball at the University of Oklahoma and served as an assistant coach at North Carolina State, Tulsa and Mississippi State. He coached the Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League, and in 1955, he returned to Mississippi State for his first collegiate head coaching job. He spent the next season at the University of Washington and was there when Bible called him to interview for the Texas job.

Royal was an immediate success at Texas, leading the Longhorns — who posted their worst record ever (1-9) in 1956 — to a 6-4-1 record, a No. 11 national ranking and a berth in the Sugar Bowl in his first season. He would never suffer a losing season in 20 years at Texas, led the Longhorns to their first National Championship in 1963 and followed that with national titles in 1969 and '70. Royal posted an astonishing 167-47-5 career record at UT, which included a 109-27-2 mark in Southwest Conference games. He claimed a league-record 11 SWC Championships, led UT to 16 bowl games and finished the year ranked among the nation's Top Five nine times.

In 1968, Royal was the first to install the famed "Wishbone" formation backfield. His teams would eventually spend 30 weeks ranked No. 1 in the nation and post an astonishing 30-game winning streak (42 consecutive home wins) from 1968-70. From 1968-73, Royal's squads claimed six straight SWC titles and six consecutive Cotton Bowl berths. He coached 77 All-SWC players and 26 All-Americans.

Still at the top of his game in 1976, Royal retired and continued in the role of athletics director at Texas — a position he had maintained since taking over the dual role of coach and AD in 1962. His overall coaching record was 184-60-5.

FRED AKERS, 1977-86

When Darrell Royal retired following the 1976 season, the University administration picked one of his former assistants, Fred Akers, to lead the program. Akers, whose youthful appearance and early success as the head coach at the University of Wyoming captured the attention of the decision makers, inherited a wealth of talent which Royal thought he was leaving to his longtime assistant Mike Campbell, who had been his choice to succeed him.

But with a crack new staff and a switch to the "I" formation to utilize the talents of eventual Heisman Trophy winner Earl Campbell, Akers literally burst on the Texas scene in 1977. His first team went 11-0 through the regular season, claimed the Southwest Conference Championship and spent the final half of the year atop the national polls. Only a Cotton Bowl 38-10 loss to No. 5 Notre Dame denied Akers a National Championship in his first season.

A native of Arkansas, Akers played for the Razorbacks and served as a graduate assistant a season after finishing his playing career in 1959. He was a product of the Texas high school coaching ranks, having served as an assistant at Port Arthur and as head coach at Edinburg (19-9-1) and Lubbock High (7-3) before Royal hired him to join the Texas staff for the 1966 season.

At Texas, Akers coached running backs, defensive backs and then was co-offensive coordinator prior to accepting the head coaching job at Wyoming for the 1975 season. In two seasons, he took the Cowboys from 2-9 his first year to an 8-4 record and Fiesta Bowl appearance in 1976 before returning as Texas' head coach in '77.

Akers followed the spectacular start in 1977 with nine consecutive winning seasons and nine bowl berths in a row. In 1978, the Longhorns were 9-3 and finished the year ranked ninth nationally. UT matched that mark in 1979 and earned a No. 12 national ranking. After dipping to 7-5 in 1980, Akers and the Longhorns rocketed back on the scene in '81 with a 10-1-1 record and climbed back into the nation's top spot midway through that season. UT's 14-12 upset of No. 3 Alabama in the Cotton Bowl — Texas was in the Cotton Bowl because league champ SMU was on probation — vaulted Texas to a final No. 2 national ranking in 1981.

In 1982, Texas was 9-3 and finished the year ranked 17th nationally. Akers again had the Horns in the hunt for a national title in 1983. Texas opened the season ranked third nationally and posted the second perfect 11-0 regular season mark and the second SWC Championship of the Akers era, spent all but one week in the nation's No. 2 spot. However, a 10-9 loss to No. 7 Georgia in the Cotton Bowl ended the title hopes for the Longhorns. A victory, coupled with a 31-30 loss by No. 1 Nebraska to Miami in the Orange Bowl, would have given Texas its fourth national title. Instead, UT finished the year ranked fifth nationally.

Despite posting a 66-17-1 record, winning two SWC titles and finishing the season ranked among the nation's Top Five three times in his first seven years at Texas, Akers never endeared himself to the Longhorns faithful. When problems with recruiting hit, caused in part by rampant NCAA violations which saw severe sanctions levied against several SWC schools, they would signal Akers' eventually downfall. Texas struggled to a 7-4-1 mark that was capped by a 55-17 defeat at the hands of Iowa in the Freedom Bowl in 1984. It didn't get any better in 1985 as the Longhorns finished 8-4 and unranked for the second consecutive year. Following a 5-6 injury-riddled season of 1986, Akers' first losing season, UT's program appeared to be on a free fall and he was released as the head coach.

He finished his career at UT with a 86-31-2 record (60-19-1 SWC) — second only to Darrell Royal in victories — in 10 seasons. Akers led the Longhorns to nine bowl games and coached a Heisman Trophy winner (Earl Campbell), two Lombardi Trophy winners (Kenneth Sims, Tony Degrate) and an Outland Trophy honoree (Brad Shearer) as well as 48 all-conference players.

Following his departure in '86, Akers accepted the head coaching job and the challenge of rebuilding a struggling Purdue program in 1987. In four seasons in West Lafayette, Ind., Akers' Boilermakers were 12-31-1. After his departure from Purdue, Akers returned to his ranch near Austin and remained active as a motivational speaker.

David McWilliams joined Clyde Littlefield and Ed Price as a former Longhorns player who became the coach when he succeeded Fred Akers as UT's head coach in 1987.

A popular tri-captain on the 1963 National Championship team and a UT assistant to both Royal and Akers from 1970-85, McWilliams seemed the perfect choice to lead the Longhorns. Immediately, his homespun nature reminded people of Royal and the Longhorn lettermen — who had been divided in the years since Royal left — came as one unit in support of McWilliams.

McWilliams had served one year as the head coach at Texas Tech in 1986 before he returned to Texas, but his years of experience as a Longhorns assistant and his loyalty to the school gave the Texas community high hopes.

A native of Cleburne, McWilliams had been part of one of the greatest eras of UT football. In his three years as a player, from 1961-63, Texas lost only two football games, posting a remarkable record of 30-2-1. During that time, UT won a National Championship, three conference championships and finished the year ranked among the nation's top four each year.

Following his graduation from Texas, McWilliams served two years as an assistant coach at Abilene High, and in 1966, he became one of the state's youngest head coaches, carving a record of 21-7-2 in four years before Darrell Royal hired him to join the Texas staff in 1970.

An honor student and a solid player, McWilliams concentrated his coaching on the defensive side of the football, working with ends and linebackers for Royal and Akers and serving as defensive coordinator for Akers his last four seasons as a Texas assistant.

McWilliams got off to a solid start with a 7-5 campaign and a No. 19 national ranking in the 1987 season that included a storybook last-play victory over Arkansas and a Bluebonnet Bowl win over Pittsburgh. But, after a 4-7 season in 1988 and a 5-6 campaign in 1989, the future of the Texas program came in question.

The 1990 season soothed a lot of the disappointment and was McWilliams' high water mark. That year, the Longhorns, beginning with a season-opening victory at Penn State (17-13), went on what they called a "Shock The Nation" tour. Texas finished the regular season with a Southwest Conference Championship, a 10-1 record —the only loss coming at the hands of eventual National Champion Colorado — and a No. 3 national ranking before being defeated by No. 4 Miami, 46-3, in the Cotton Bowl.

Despite the disappointing bowl loss, a 10-2 record and a No. 10 national ranking in 1990 carried Texas into the 1991 season with great expectations. There was preseason talk of a National Championship, but when Texas finished with a 5-6 record, McWilliams was forced out, officially resigning for the good of the program he so deeply loved. He finished his five-year tenure at UT with a 31-26 record that included one SWC title and two bowl games.

McWilliams remained in the athletics department, serving as associate athletics director for development and leading the "T" Association, the active group of former letterwinners who have been brought back into the UT fold through his efforts and those of the head coaches in every sport.

Not since the hiring of Darrell Royal in 1956, and D.X. Bible before him, had The University of Texas ventured as far as it did with the hiring of John Mackovic as head coach in 1992. The head coach and athletics director at Illinois, Mackovic brought the impressive credentials of having been a head coach with the NFLs' Kansas City Chiefs and an assistant with the Dallas Cowboys.

He also was the first coach to come into the Texas program from the outside since Royal in 1956 and Bible in '37. All others, from Blair Cherry through David McWilliams, had been a player or an assistant at Texas. A native of Ohio, Mackovic played his college football at Wake Forest and had an odyssey as an assistant coach that found him working for some of the true legends of the college game.

In 1970, his career came to the state of Texas for the first time, when he became the quarterbacks coach for Tom Landry with the Dallas Cowboys. In 1983, at the relatively young age of 39, he became the head coach of the Kansas City Chiefs. He took the team to its first playoff bid in 15 years before leaving to enter private business. Mackovic returned to coaching at Illinois in 1988 and spent four seasons there before he was hired at Texas.

Known for his wide-open offense, his teams set numerous school offensive records and lured a number of talented offensive weapons, such as 1998 Heisman Trophy winner Ricky Williams, UT's all-time second-leading passer James Brown and UT's all-time leading receiver Mike Adams among them.

Determined to carve his own legacy, Mackovic steadily rebuilt a Longhorns program that had three losing seasons in the four years prior to his arrival. UT finished at 6-5 in 1992 and 5-51 in 1993. Mackovic's program made its most dramatic mark in 1994, when after suffering four losses in a six-game stretch midway through the season, bounced back with three consecutive victories. Including a come-from-behind 35-31 victory against North Carolina in the Sun Bowl — UT's first bowl victory in 13 years — the SWC co-Champions finished with an 8-4 record and No. 25 national ranking.

In 1995, Mackovic's squad charged out to a 10-1-1 record, claimed the final SWC Championship and finished the regular season ranked ninth nationally. On the heels of that enthusiasm, Texas entered 1996 with its first preseason Top 10 ranking since 1984 and with National Championship aspirations, but after losing four of its first seven games, Mackovic's squad was simply hoping to reach a bowl game. However, UT rallied to win five games in a row, including a 37-27 upset of No. 3 Nebraska in the inaugural Big 12 Championship game, to finish the regular season with an 8-4 mark and ranked 20th nationally.

Once again, though, the hopes of the program's future were high. The glory was short-lived, however, and even Mackovic's three league championships couldn't secure his position. Texas finished the 1997 season at 4-7 — matching the worst record for a UT team since 1956 — and Mackovic was relieved of his coaching duties and reassigned within the athletics department for the remainder of his contract. He finished his Longhorns tenure with a 41-28-2 record and led Texas to three bowl games.

Mack Brown was the head coach of the Texas Longhorns for 16 seasons. With a mark at Texas of 158-48 (.767), the 2008 Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year and the 2009 Big 12 Coach of the Year elevated the Longhorns program to new heights.

The 2005 Paul W. "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year award winner and coach of the 2005 BCS National Champions, he is one of a handful of coaches in the history of college football to lead two separate programs to a top five national finish.

A member of the Longhorn Hall of Honor, Brown's 244 career victories ranked 10th on the NCAA all-time list, and he was one of just four active coaches to reach the 200-victory plateau at the end of the 2013 season. He was also one of only two coaches nationally to direct his teams to 21 bowls in his last 22 seasons and the only one to have 23 winning seasons in his last 24 years, while his 158 wins at Texas were the fourth-most in the nation from 1998-2013, and his 225 wins overall from 1990 to 2013 were the most nationally.

Those streaks are a reflection of the continuing success Brown brought to a program that managed at least 10 wins just three times in the 16 years prior to his arrival in 1998, but did so nine times in his 16 seasons, including a streak of nine consecutive that is tied for the second-longest in NCAA history.

Brown also led the Longhorns to six seasons of at least 11 wins. Under Brown, Texas won nine of its last 12 bowl games during his tenure and has a 10-5 record overall, including a UT record streak of 12 consecutive bowl appearances. In the 15 years prior to Brown's arrival, Texas went to eight bowls and was 2-6. The 10 bowl wins give Brown the most in Texas history, surpassing Darrell Royal's eight. In addition, the streak includes a BCS National Championship, another BCS National Championship Game appearance and three BCS bowl wins.

The Horns finished the year ranked in the top 15 in 10 of his final 14 years, which included a string of 10 straight. They also had seven top 10 finishes and five top five rankings. Prior to Brown's arrival in 1998, the last time Texas had finished the year in the top 10 was 1983. In addition, from 1998-2013, Texas led the nation in all-time appearances in the BCS rankings with 103, ahead of both Oklahoma (100) and Florida (92).

Excellence and consistency were nothing new to the coaching veteran of 41 years, including 29 as a head coach. Establishing stability was a trademark of Brown's career, highlighted by his success at North Carolina and Texas. He rebuilt UNC after a series of disappointing seasons and turned it into a nationally-elite program.

Fresh off a season that saw North Carolina finish 11-1 and fourth nationally (USA Today/CNN), Brown was hired as the 28th head coach in the storied history of Texas football on Dec. 4, 1997.

In his 16 seasons, Brown's Longhorns squads featured a Heisman Trophy winner, two runners-up and a third-place finisher, three Maxwell Award winners, three WCFF Player of the Year Award winners, two Doak Walker Award winners, two Thorpe Award winners, two Nagurski Trophy winners, two O'Brien Award winners a Butkus Award winner, a Lombardi Award winner, two Manning Award winners, a Hendricks Award winner, two Draddy/Campbell Trophy winners, a Wuerffel Trophy winner, a Disney Spirit Award winner, a FWAA Armed Forces Merit Award winner, 54 All-Americans, 73 first-team All-Big 12 selections, five Big 12 Offensive Players of the Year, six Big 12 Defensive Players of the Year and 12 Big 12 Freshman of the Year honorees.

On offense, the Longhorns set 138 school records and featured the school's only 3,000-yard passers (Colt McCoy, 2007, 08, 09/Vince Young, 2005/Chris Simms, 2002/Major Applewhite, 1999), 2,000-yard rusher (Ricky Williams, 1998), 1,000-yard receivers (Quan Cosby, 2008/Jordan Shipley, 2008, 09/Roy Williams, 2002, 03/Kwame Cavil, 1999/ Wane McGarity, 1998) and 1,000-yard passer/rusher (Vince Young, 2004 and 05) in a season.

Defensively, Texas led the Big 12 in scoring defense three times, in total defense seven times and four of his last six years, and rushing defense seven times and five of his last eight seasons.

With all of the success on the field, the primary emphasis remained the same with Brown's squads — maintaining a high level of achievement in the classroom and in the community. Eighty percent of his players at North Carolina received their degrees and he increased the pace at Texas, while more than a third of his players at Texas have regularly earned 3.0 grade point averages and achieved spots on the Big 12 Commissioner's and Athletics Director's honor rolls.

Over his last eight years, the success in the classroom reached an all-time high. The Longhorns led the Big 12 in academic all-conference selections in five of Brown's last eight seasons, and in three of those had equal or more first-team selections than all but two Big 12 schools have had total selections.

Charlie Strong was the head coach of the Texas Longhorns from 2014-16, compiling a record of 16-21 while on the 40 Acres. While at Texas, Strong guided the Longhorns to four wins over ranked teams and two top-10 recruiting classes.

During his first season at UT, Strong guided Texas an appearance in the Texas Bowl where the Longhorns played Arkansas. Despite finishing with a record of 6-7, the Texas defense finished the 2015 season ranked No. 25 in total yards allowed, No. 11 in passing defense, No. 7 in yards allowed per play, No. 15 in passing efficiency defense, tied for 11th in sacks and 31st in points allowed.

A number of players earned individual honors in Strong's first season. Defensive tackle Malcom Brown, a first-round pick of the New England Patriots in 2015, was a finalist for both the Nagurski and Outland Trophies. Brown was a consensus All-American. Linebacker Jordan Hicks also earned All-America honors, in addition to 10 total players earning All-Conference accolades.

Following his first season at Texas, Strong saw five players selected in the 2015 NFL Draft. Brown (first round to New England), Hicks (third round to Philadelphia), safety Mykkele Thompson (fifth round to NY Giants), cornerback Quandre Diggs (sixth round to Detroit) and tight end Geoff Swaim (seventh round to Dallas) were all selected, in addition to five others earned UDFA opportunities.

In 2015, Strong's team posted upset wins over College Football Playoff participant and No. 4-ranked Oklahoma, as well as No. 13 Baylor on the road. The true freshman class featured three freshman All-Americans and 10 players who started a game.

Strong and the Longhorns went just 5-7 in 2016, but started the season off with a bang - a win over No. 10 Notre Dame in double-overtime in front of a record crowd at Darrell K Royal - Texas Memorial Stadium. For the second straight season, Strong's squad defeated Baylor, while also beating UTEP, Texas Tech and Iowa State.

A Texas Ex and former University of Texas graduate assistant with deep ties to the state of Texas, Tom Herman led the Longhorns for four season from 2017-20. In that time, he posted a 32-18 overall record that included four winning seasons and four bowl victories, highlighted by the 2019 Allstate Sugar Bowl over Georgia following the 2018 season. The Longhorns also won the 2017 Texas Bowl against Missouri, along with back-to-back Valero Alamo Bowl victories over Utah in 2019 and Colorado in 2020. His 32 wins tied for the third-most for a head coach in their first four seasons at UT. In all, 14 Longhorns went on to be drafted under Herman, including six in the third round or better, along with numerous others who went on to success as undrafted free agents.

In 2020, Herman guided the Longhorns to a 7-3 record in a pandemic-shortened season. JACK Joseph Ossai and OL Smauel Cosmi garnered All-American recognition, with Ossai named consensus. Thirteen Longhorns earned All-Big 12 honors, with Ossai and Cosmi as first-team selections, while QB Sam Ehlinger, PK Cameron Dicker and DB Chris Brown were on the second team.

Herman led the Longhorns to an 8-5 mark in 2019. Nine Longhorns earned All-Big 12 recognition that year with WR

Devin Duvernay and OL Zach Shackelford both collecting first-team honors. Cosmi and DB Brandon Jones were both were named second-team performers. Ehlinger became only the third Longhorn to surpass 4,000 yards of total offense in a season, joining Longhorn Legends Vince Young (2005) and Colt McCoy (2008) in that exclusive club. Ehlinger totaled 39 touchdowns in 2019, the third-most in school history.

In 2018, Herman led Texas to a top-10 ranking, a 10-4 record and a Big 12 Championship Game appearance in his second season. The Sugar Bowl marked Herman's second appearance in a NY6 Bowl Game in just four seasons as a head coach. DE Charles Omenihu was named Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year, while Sterns was UT's seventh all-time Big 12 Defensive Freshman of the Year. In total, 18 Longhorns garnered All-Big 12 recognition, including four on the first team. Ehlinger also became the only player in UT history to pass for at least 25 touchdowns and rush for at least 15 in a season in 2018.

In his first season at Texas, Herman guided the Longhorns to a 7-6 record. Both P Michael Dickson and S DeShon Elliott were named unanimous All-Americans, with Dickson becoming UT's first-ever winner of the Ray Guy Award. Seven players were named All-Big 12. Linebacker Malik Jefferson was named Big 12 Co-Defensive Player of the Year, defensive lineman Poona Ford was the conference's Defensive Lineman of the Year, and Dickson was the conference Special Teams Player of the Year for the second-straight season. Elliott joined the trio of players of the year as a unanimous first-team All-Big 12 selection.

A native of Simi Valley, Calif., Herman came to Texas after compiling a 22-4 record in two seasons at Houston, the fourth-best record in the FBS in that span. His time as head coach at Texas made it 17 seasons spent in the state of Texas out of 23 years coaching on the collegiate level. That includes his time as a graduate assistant at UT (1999-2000), where he earned a master's degree in education.

DARRELL K ROYAL UT'S ALL-TIME WINNINGEST COACH

The union between The University of Texas football program and Darrell Royal was a Hollywood producer's dream and for 20 years the best matchup since boots and saddles brought unparalleled success, fame and prestige to the Longhorns and the man who guided their destiny.

Royal, who was 32 years old when he took the head coaching job at Texas in December 1956, and he came to the Austin campus with a folksy sense of humor that produced a phenomenon called "Royalisms" and an innovative style of football that produced almost instant success.

Texas went from a 1-9 season in 1956 to a 6-3-1 regular season in 1957, and with a trip to the Sugar Bowl, Royal's Longhorns were off to the first of 16 bowl trips they would make during the next 20 years.

In 1962, Royal assumed the dual role of athletics director and head football coach, and when he resigned from the football job following the 1976 season, he remained as director of athletics for three years. In January 1980, Royal left the athletics department and became a special assistant on athletics programs to The University President.

Royal's roots came from the dust bowl days in southwest Oklahoma, where the Hollis native began his life in football as a high school star in the early 1940s. He was an All-American quarterback at the University of Oklahoma and came to The University of Texas after head coaching jobs at Mississippi State and the University of Washington.

In 23 years as a head coach, he never had a losing season, and his teams went 167-47-5 in his 20 years at Texas — the best mark in the nation over that period.

Royal's Longhorns teams finished in the Top 10 nationally 11 times. He coached 77 All-Southwest Conference players and 26 All-Americans. His overall coaching record was 184-60-5.

During Royal's tenure, UT won three National Championships, 11 SWC Championships and played in 16 bowl games.

As an innovator, Royal is credited with two major changes in collegiate football. In 1961, he achieved great success and later went on to win a National Championship while applying the "flip-flop" to the winged-T, allowing the offensive picture to flip right or left, so that blocking assignments remained simplified.

Then, in 1968, Royal installed the famed "Wishbone" formation backfield, with the fullback lined up two yards behind the quarterback and a step up from the other backs. With that formation, his teams won 30 consecutive games and a record six SWC Championships in a row.

While winning on the field may have been the most apparent standard of the Royal Era at Texas, his overriding concern with success in the classroom and adherence to the rules could well have been his most significant contribution.

When Royal came to Texas, his first act was to employ the nation's first academic counselor, and over the years, four out of five men who lettered for Royal went on to achieve their degree. Royal set aside a fund for a special "T" ring, which he personally awarded to his lettermen upon their graduation.

In the struggle for honesty in intercollegiate athletics, Royal was a champion in lobbying the cause before the NCAA.

"Integrity has been a key word for Darrell," said Neils Thompson, Royal's athletic council chairman and a past president of the NCAA. "He has run his football team accordingly. He has lived by the rules … if he didn't like those rules, he would fight to change them, but he would never intentionally break them."

Besides his duties at Texas, Royal parlayed his love of golf and country music into numerous charity benefits which raised thousands of dollars for various needy causes.

The Longhorns' National Championships came in 1963, '69 and '70, and the performance of Royal's teams during the 1960s earned him the honor of Coach of the Decade as chosen by ABC-TV.

Royal's football teams won more SWC games (109) and more overall games (167) than any coach in league history and his six consecutive conference titles and Cotton Bowl trips from 1968-73 were league records.

During Royal's tenure as athletics director, UT won six national titles, three in football, two in golf and one in baseball. Royal was a driving force in the upgrading of basketball when he brought in Abe Lemons as coach, and of swimming, when he hired Eddie Reese. Royal served on numerous boards and committees, including the NCAA Television Committee.

His honors include membership in both the Texas and Oklahoma Sports Hall of Fame and the Longhorn Hall of Honor. He is past president of the American Football Coaches Association and was twice named Coach of the Year by the AFCA and three times by the Football Writers of Association. Royal was chosen Southwesterner of the Year four times and SWC Coach of the Year on five occasions. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1983. In '96, Royal earned the prestigious Horatio Alger Award for his lifetime success. He was a member of the Cotton Bowl Hall of Fame's initial class in spring 1998 and was recognized with the first-ever Contribution to College Football Award at the 2002 Home Depot College Football Awards on ESPN.

Royal's teams were marked by a fierce intensity of competition without, as one guest coach put it, "emotional or rah-rah tactics."

"It was," the guest said, "a matter of knowing what had to be done and keeping your head so as to be better able to accomplish it."

And Johnson's lasting tribute to Royal came late in his life, after his presidency had ended, when he attended all UT games.

"I'm not a football fan, but I am a fan of people and I am a Darrell Royal fan because he is the rarest of human beings," the former President said.

EARL CAMPBELL 1977 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

Earl Campbell, the famed "Tyler Rose", will always have a special place in The University of Texas and state of Texas football history.

Born March 29, 1955, in Tyler, Campbell was the fifth of 11 children raised by Ann Campbell. Two of his six brothers, Tim and Steve, joined him as Longhorns.

Campbell galloped into UT football history with his Heisman Trophy-winning 1977 season. He rushed for 1,744 yards (a Southwest Conference record that stood for 16 years) and 19 touchdowns and led the nation in rushing and scoring, posting 200-yard rushing games at Texas A&M (222) and at SMU (213). Campbell set a Longhorns record for 100-yard rushing games that year (10).

On Campbell's heels, Texas jumped out to a 6-0 mark and claimed the No. 1 spot in the nation at the season's midway point. The Longhorns held the nation's top spot for the remainder of the regular season and went on to finish 11-0 before falling to Notre Dame in the Cotton Bowl. Texas finished the year ranked No. 4 nationally in the final Associated Press poll.

Campbell was an instant success at Texas, starting at fullback in the Longhorns "Wishbone" attack and rushing for 928 yards and six touchdowns as a freshman in 1974. He claimed the first of his three consensus All-SWC honors that year.

As a sophomore, Campbell ran for 1,118 yards and 13 touchdowns, earning his first of two consensus All-America awards. He helped lead Texas to a 10-2 record that year and was tabbed the Offensive Player of the Game in the Longhorns' 38-21 win against Colorado in the Bluebonnet Bowl. UT finished the year ranked sixth nationally in the final Associated Press poll.

Injuries dampened the glitter on Campbell's career in 1976, as he missed four games with a pulled hamstring and the Longhorns struggled to a 5-5-1 mark. Campbell, playing on a strained hamstring much of the time, posted a career-low 653 rushing yards and three touchdowns. The highlight of the year was his first career 200-yard outing, a 208-yard effort against North Texas.

By his senior season, Campbell was at full strength again and turned in one of the finest rushing campaigns on school record. He finished his brilliant career with a then-Longhorns record 4,443 yards and 41 touchdowns.

After his star-studded collegiate career, Campbell took his talents to the National Football League. Selected No. 1 overall by the Houston Oilers in the 1978 NFL Draft, he quickly made a name for himself.

As a rookie, Campbell claimed virtually every award possible including Rookie of the Year, MVP and Offensive Player of the Year. Campbell, who went on to play in the Pro Bowl, first served notice on the NFL and the nation in his initial appearance on Monday Night Football (Nov. 20, 1978). That night Campbell bulled over the Miami Dolphins for 199 yards and four touchdowns in the Oilers' 35-30 victory. Probably the most memorable of his 28 carries that evening was his last. With Houston facing a second-and-long and leading 28-23, Campbell broke off tackle and jaunted 81 yards for a touchdown. He went on to rush for 100 yards six more times that season in claiming the NFL rushing crown with 1,450 yards.

Campbell was an instant celebrity, claiming the Great American Youth award as the top professional male athlete in 1978. He was presented with the trophy by Bob Hope.

The former Longhorn led the NFL in rushing again in 1979 with 1,697 yards and garnered his second consecutive league MVP and Offensive Player of the Year award. Campbell was named to the Pro Bowl for the second time as well.

In 1980, Campbell posted his first 200-yard game as a professional, rolling up 203 yards against the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. He bounced back the following week to do it again with 202 yards in a meeting with the Cincinnati Bengals. The 200-yard game became a regularity, as Campbell went on to post 206 yards against the Chicago Bears and set an NFL record with his fourth 200-yard game of the season as the Oilers clinched a playoff spot with a 20-16 win against the Minnesota Vikings. He wrapped up the year with his third NFL rushing title (1,934 yards), a third consecutive Pro Bowl appearance and the Offensive Player of the Year award.

Campbell claimed his final NFL rushing title in 1981 with 1,376 yards. The wear and tear caught up with him as he rushed for just 538 yards and two touchdowns in an injury-riddled 1982 campaign. He bounced back with 1,301 yards and 12 touchdowns in 1983.

Campbell was traded to the New Orleans Saints for a first-round pick in 1984. In 1985, he ran for 160 yards on 35 carries against the Vikings in what proved to be his top game with the Saints.

On Aug. 18, 1986, Campbell retired. He wrapped up his pro career with 9,407 rushing yards and 74 touchdowns along with 121 receptions for 806 yards in eight seasons.

He was selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame on Jan. 26, 1991. Campbell was inducted along with kicker Jan Stenerud, offensive lineman John Hannah, lineman Stan Jones and former Dallas Cowboy president Tex Schramm on July 27, 1991.

In spring 1988, Campbell was inducted into the Longhorn Hall of Honor, and in 1990, he became a member of the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame. Campbell received the Doak Walker Legends Award in 2003.

RICKY WILLIAMS 1998 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

With his trademark dreadlocked hair, a rare combination of strength and speed and a flair for the dramatic, Ricky Williams left an indelible mark on The University of Texas, the Big 12 Conference and the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

Born May 21, 1977, in San Diego, Calif., Williams followed a dominant prep career by taking his talents to Texas, an area he believed cared more than anywhere about its football. Texas and the Southwest embraced their new star, who quickly became a hero on the field and in the community.

After vaulting onto the scene as a true freshman, claiming the starting fullback job the day he stepped on campus and drawing comparisons to the most-honored player in UT football history, Earl Campbell, Williams steadily developed into one of college football's greatest players.

His legend began as a fullback in a freshman year that saw him break Campbell's UT freshman rushing record with 990 yards and eight touchdowns on just 166 carries. In the final year of the Southwest Conference, his presence was significant as the Longhorns established themselves as one of the nation's premier offensive attacks. On the heels of four subpar seasons in a row — by Longhorns standards — UT and its new star rolled to a 10-2-1 record, climbed as high as No. 9 in the national polls and earned a spot in the Sugar Bowl. Williams saved his finest performance for the grandest of stages, a trait he would carry throughout his collegiate career, rushing for 163 yards and two TDs in UT's 16-6 win at No. 16 Texas A&M. The victory, the Longhorns' first in College Station since 1983, secured the final SWC title, earned Williams SWC Offensive Freshman of the Year honors and re-established Texas as one of the nation's top programs.

Texas entered Williams' sophomore year considered a potential national title contender. Although some early-season defeats knocked the Longhorns from that perch, the second-year fullback never disappointed. He rushed for 100 yards seven times, registered 1,272 yards and 12 TDs, earned his first of three consensus first-team All-SWC honors and was tabbed UT's Offensive MVP. Again, Williams turned in his top efforts in the season's biggest games, rushing for 533 yards and three TDs, while catching eight passes for 130 yards and two TDs in the team's regular-season closing four-game winning streak. His 145 rushing yards and score helped UT cap the year with a 51-15 victory against Texas A&M, earning the Longhorns a berth in the first-ever Big 12 title game. Although Williams' numbers didn't reflect it, his performance in the stunning 37-27 upset of defending National Champion and third-ranked Nebraska were critical in the Longhorns claiming the first-ever Big 12 Championship. Williams' effort in helping neutralize Nebraska's All-American end Grant Winstrom in that game is among the most memorable of his career. The victory gave Texas, which finished the year with a 9-5 record and ranked 21st nationally, a spot in the Fiesta Bowl — its second straight Alliance Bowl (then the Bowl Championship Series and now College Football Playoff).

With his powerful thighs and breakaway speed, Williams had captured the nation's attention in just two seasons and entered his junior year as a Heisman Trophy candidate. While UT was going through one of its most disappointing seasons in decades, the junior tailback was having a breakout year. Williams registered his first 200-yard rushing game in posting 249 yards and a then-UT record five TDs at Rice. He would gain 200 yards in six of his next eight games (including a UT-record four in a row) and led the nation with a then-UT-record 1,893 yards and 25 TDs (tied for No. 5 on NCAA chart and now tied for 26th). Williams claimed first-team All-Big 12 honors, was named Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year and was UT's MVP. He also became just the second UT junior to earn a spot among the top-five vote getters for the Heisman Trophy (he finished fifth) and claimed his first major award in winning the Doak Walker Award (nation's outstanding running back).

Williams solidified his place in college football history with a dash to the NCAA all-time rushing record and the Heisman Trophy in 1998. After announcing he was passing on a certain top-five selection in the NFL Draft and returning for his senior year on Jan. 8, 1998, Williams set his sights on leading the Longhorns back to a major bowl, breaking the NCAA rushing record and making a run for the Heisman Trophy. When the dust cleared on Nov. 27, he had reached two of those goals and on Dec. 12 at the Downtown Athletic Club in New York City, he claimed the third goal and became UT's second Heisman Trophy winner. Williams led Texas to a 9-3 record, set 21 NCAA records and received what was then the greatest percentage of first-place votes cast in Heisman history (43% of the 920 voters).

WILLIAMS' NCAA NOTABLES

- Ranks ninth on the NCAA's all-time all-purpose yardage list (7,206 yards).
- Ranks third on the NCAA's all-time rushing list (6,279 yards)
- Ranks sixth on the NCAA's all-time scoring list (452 points)
- Ranks fourth on the NCAA's all-time rushing touchdowns list (72)
- Ranks sixth on the NCAA's all-time total touchdowns list (75)

The 6-foot, 225-pounder produced one of the finest seasons on NCAA record in 1998, rushing for 2,124 yards (No. 5 on the NCAA's all-time chart and now 10th) and 27 TDs (No. 4 on the NCAA's all-time list and now tied for 13th). He also became the first-ever two-time winner of the Doak Walker Award (nation's outstanding running back) and claimed the Maxwell Award, Walter Camp Foundation Player of the Year, The Associated Press Player of the Year, The Sporting News Player of the Year and the Football News Offensive Player of the Year. With his second consecutive unanimous first-team All-America honor in 1998, Williams became the first UT player since Jerry Gray (1983-84) to earn unanimous first-team All-America recognition in consecutive seasons.
However, it was his route to the Heisman Trophy that was most impressive. Capping his senior year with a 259-yard rushing effort in a 26-24 upset of No. 6 Texas A&M, Williams posted one of the greatest runaway victories in the award's 64-year history. He swept the voting in all six regions, scoring at least a 200-point victory in each section of the country. His 714 first-place votes were the third-most ever and 673 more than runner-up Michael Bishop (Kansas State). Williams' 2,355 points were third-most in Heisman history while his 1,563-point margin of victory over Bishop (792 points) was the fourth-largest on the trophy's record book. Only O.J. Simpson (1,750) in 1968 and Charlie Ward (1,622) in 1993 produced greater routs.

On top of it all, the four-year starter (two at fullback, two at tailback) added 46 school records, two Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year awards, three first-team All-Big 12 accolades and was just the fifth UT player ever to be twice tabbed the Longhorns' MVP.

Most importantly to Williams, he had left UT as he started it, considered among the nation's best teams. After losing two of its first three games in his senior year, he helped Texas post victories in eight of its final nine games. On the heels of Williams' Offensive MVP effort of 203 rushing yards and two TDs in a 38-11 Cotton Bowl victory against Mississippi State (UT's first New Year's Day bowl victory since 1982), the Longhorns finished Williams' senior year with a 9-3 record and No. 15 ranking.

After a record-setting collegiate career, Williams began a new chapter of his life, again in historic fashion. On April 17, 1999, Mike Ditka and the New Orleans Saints stunned the NFL and the sports world by trading their entire draft in 1999 and first and third-round selections in 2000 (to the Washington Redskins) for the right to select Williams with the fifth pick.

In three seasons in New Orleans, Williams established himself as one of the NFLs premier running backs. He rushed for 3,129 yards and 16 TDs and caught 132 passes for 1,092 yards and a pair of TDs in 38 games (all starts). Williams became the first Saints 1,000-yard rusher in more than a decade in 2000 and followed that up with a career-best 1,245 rushing yards in 2001. He became the first New Orleans player to rush for 1,000 yards in back-to-back seasons.

On March 8, 2002, Williams was again a part of a blockbuster deal. The fourth-year NFL back was traded to the Miami Dolphins for what turned out to be a pair of first-round picks, one each in the 2002 and 2003 NFL drafts.

Williams kicked off his Dolphins career with a bang, leading the NFL in rushing (1,853 yards/Dolphins season record/eighth-best season rushing total in NFL history) and ranking second in the league in yards from scrimmage (2,216). He earned his first trip to the Pro Bowl and was named MVP at that game. The Dolphins co-MVP rushed for a team record 16 TDs and ranked second on the team with 47 catches for 363 yards. He also caught a TD pass and ranked second on the team with 102 points. During a two-game stretch, he rushed for 216 yards against the Chicago Bears and 228 in a snowstorm at Buffalo. That marked just the fourth time in NFL history that a player posted back-to-back 200-yard rushing games. He also had 10 100-yard rushing games.

In 2003, Williams posted his fourth straight 1,000-yard season, rushing for 1,372 yards (No. 2 on the Dolphins all-time season list) and nine TDs. He joined Green Bay's Ahman Green and the Jets' Curtis Martin as the NFL's only backs that rushed for 1,000 yards in each of the those seasons. Williams also ranked second on the team with 50 receptions (for 351 yards and a TD). He registered seven 100-yard rushing games, including 153 yards on a Dolphins record 42 carries against Buffalo.

Williams returned to the NFL in 2005 and rushed for 743 yards and six TDs. He spent the 2006 season in the Canadian Football League, rushing for 526 yards and two TDs. He returned to the NFL in 2007 and played in one game, rushing for 15 yards on six carries, before suffering a season-ending torn chest muscle. Williams made a splash with Dolphins in 2009 when he posted 1,121 rushing yards setting an NFL record for longest span between 1,000-yard seasons at six years. In 2010, his last season with the Dolphins, Williams recorded 673 yards on 159 carries and two touchdowns. The Baltimore Ravens signed Williams in 2011 for his final NFL season before retiring. He played in all 16 games amassing 444 rushing yards on 108 attempts with a pair of TDs and caught 13 passes for 83 yards.

Williams is one of just 29 players in NFL history to rush for more than 10,000 yards. He totaled 10.009 career rushing yards and 66 rushing TDs over his professional career. He also had 342 receptions for 2,606 receiving yards.

His exploits on the gridiron where honored in January, 2015 when he was voted into the College Football Hall of Fame. He is also a member of the Longhorns Men's Hall of Honor, having been inducted in 2012.

DALLAS GRIFFIN 2007 DRADDY TROPHY WINNER

It is a long way from Katy, Texas to the grand ballroom of the Waldorf Astoria Hotel in New York City, but as Dallas Griffin strode to the microphone to accept the honor of 2007 Draddy Trophy winner as the nation's top scholar-football player, he seemed right at home.

Griffin, the Longhorns' starting center, had just been named as the winner of the prestigious award they call "the academic Heisman" by the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame. He was chosen from an elite class of 15 finalists, becoming the first winner of the award from The University of Texas.

"I suppose," joked Dallas, "that at this moment I should say something intelligent."

That would not have been hard.

Dallas Griffin came to The University of Texas as a freshman in 2004 after a successful high school career that included a three-year tenure as the starting center for Katy Taylor High School and a UIL Class 5A individual state championship in the shot put.

His goals, from the time he entered Texas, were to succeed both on the playing field, and in the classroom. After redshirting his first year, his path to New York began in earnest during the Longhorns' team journey to the BCS National Championship in 2005. He played in 10 games as the backup center, while earning first-team Academic All-Big 12 honors.

As a junior, despite battling knee problems, he was the Longhorns' primary backup at center, and was again a first-team Academic All-Big 12 selection. That season, he was named one of the Longhorns' "Most Improved" offensive players, and was one of the winners of the Lan Hewlett Academic Award as the football team's top scholar athlete.

He entered the 2007 football season as one of only two seniors on the offensive line, and as the starting center, he was a critical part of the offensive front's schematic attack.

By that time, he had already excelled in the classroom, graduating with a double major in Business Honors and Finance in the spring of 2007. When he first snapped the football to quarterback Colt McCoy to start his senior season on the field, he was enrolled as a graduate student in UT's prestigious MBA program at the Red McCombs School of Business.

He also had been chosen by Playboy Magazine as the Anson Mount Scholar-Athlete on its preseason All-America team, and was picked as one of the top players to watch by NFL draft analysts.

He started the first 10 games of the season at center before suffering a season-ending knee injury, that effectively halted thoughts of the NFL, but it didn't affect his run to the nation's highest award for a scholar-athlete football player.

By the time he went to New York in early December, he had garnered accolades as an honorable mention All-Big 12 performer on the field and a first-team Academic All-American as recognized by ESPN the Magazine and chosen by members of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) off the field.

2007 National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete
2007 Anson Mount Scholar/Athlete (Playboy All-America Team)
Four-Time First-Team Academic All-Big 12
10-Time Member of UT's Athletics Director's Honor Roll
Two-Time Recipient of UT's Provost Award (2004, '05)
C.R. "Smilo" Mallison Endowed Presidential Scholarship Recipient
Member of the Dikolli Accounting Honor Roll
2007 Honorable Mention All-Big 12

When he joined teammate Derek Lokey on the Academic All-America first team, the two became the 24th and 25th Longhorn selections over the last 49 years.

Dallas Griffin's body of work as a Longhorn football player extended far beyond the playing field and classroom. The Eagle Scout had been extremely active in UT's community service program. He had answered phones and taken donations during the Children's Miracle Network Telethon, and had regularly visited youngsters at the Austin Children's Hospital. He also spent time at elementary schools and facilities for mentally challenged youngsters.

Overall, he maintained a 3.875 GPA as an undergraduate, posting a perfect 4.0 six times. He twice earned UT's Provost Award, and recorded a 700 (out of 800) on the GMAT (admissions test for MBA programs) and ranked in the 92nd percentile with that score. Griffin also was a 10-time member of UT's Athletics Director's Honor roll. He was a recipient of the C. R. "Smilo" Mallison Endowed Presidential Scholarship and a member of the Dikolli Accounting Honor Roll.

Griffin also kept busy in the summers, interning at NFL Hall of Famer Roger Staubach's real estate company (The Staubach Company) and working for an Austin-based hedge fund company.

Griffin became the eighth Longhorn, and the first since Pat Fitzgerald in 1996, to be chosen as an NFF Scholar-Athlete. In 2007, each of the recipients earned an $18,000 post-graduate scholarship, and with his Draddy Trophy, Dallas' monetary award increased to $25,000.

At a private dinner the night before the banquet, Dallas spoke of the day when his head coach, Mack Brown, came to his high school. It was only then that Griffin, who was not widely recruited, learned of the Longhorns' interest in him.

Recruiting, at best, is not an exact science. When Brown came to Texas in 1998, he said that his program's goal would be "to win championships with nice kids who graduate." Dallas Griffin has done more than that. He reinforced the true meaning of the word "student-athlete."

He became a great example for his teammates, who cheered his every success in the classroom. He was a leader on the field, being part of a senior class that finished its four years with the second best win-loss record in America.

Most of all, as he stood in that historic space where leaders of the world have walked and spoken, he was the very best example of the very best of college football.

Acho became the second Longhorn in four years to earn the honor, following C Dallas Griffin in 2007 when it was named the Draddy Trophy. He was also the third finalist in four years, including QB Colt McCoy in 2009.

"I'm just honored to be a part of this," Acho said. "Looking back, we had a winner of this award four years ago, Dallas Griffin. He won when I was a freshman and he really inspired me to strive for excellence and to do my best on the field and in the classroom. We have the same major and I really looked to him as a mentor. I wouldn't be here today without him, without my family and the family I've developed at The University of Texas.

"This means so much because of what it represents, the people you meet and the family you become a part of. The Campbell Trophy stands for excellence both on and off the field. I feel that through coach Brown and the entire staff at Texas, and also through the McCombs School of Business, I've really been able to excel both on and off the field."

Finalists earned the honor of being named a NFF Scholar-Athlete and receive an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship, while the winner earns a $25,000 scholarship. Overall, Acho became the 11th Longhorn to be named a NFF Scholar-Athlete.

"Sam defines champion in every way, on the field and off the field, which is why he is so deserving of the Campbell Trophy," head coach Mack Brown said. "He works as hard as anybody I've ever been around. He's got great character and values from his family. He gives back to the community, but at the same time, football's very important to him and he's another in the line of great defensive ends we've had who will go on to the NFL. This is a very, very special young man and not many people can live up to all that Sam Acho stands for."

In 2010, Acho was also named the winner of the Wuerffel Award and ARA Sportsmanship Award, an Allstate AFCA Good Works Team member, an ESPN Academic All-America First Team member and a finalist for the Lott IMPACT Trophy and Lowe's Senior CLASS Award. He was also a semifinalist for the Bednarik Award and Lombardi Award. An All-Big 12 First-Team selection, Acho earned a spot on the prestigious 2010 Preseason Playboy All-America team and was on the watch lists for the Nagurski Trophy, Hendricks Award and Outland Trophy.

An honors business major in the prestigious McCombs School of Business, Acho was UT's seventh two-time academic all-American and maintains a 3.55 GPA. He was a two-year member of UT's Student-Athlete Advisory Council and was the choice as UT's representative at the 2009 NCAA Leadership Conference in which one student-athlete from each NCAA school attends. He was the student-athlete representative of the Big 12 on the NCAA Football Issues Committee, and was one of UT's representatives at the Big 12's Conference on Black Student Government. In addition, he has attended the Minority Mentorship Symposium in Austin, which features high-profile leaders, executives and stars from the business, entertainment and music industries speaking on topics that focus on success.

Named one of The Sporting News' "20 Smartest Athletes," Acho went on to earn the NCAA's prestigious Top VIII Award, was a three-time first-team Academic All-Big 12 selection and eight-time UT Athletics Director's Honor Roll member. The past two years, he has been honored with the Arthur Ashe, Jr., Sports Scholarship Award, which is a national award that recognizes minority student-athletes who are committed to both education and athletics. Last year, he completed an internship at Target where he had a marketing idea advance to the level of the CEO.

In April 2010, Acho was inducted into UT's Friar Society, which is the oldest and most prestigious honor society at The University of Texas and recognizes students who have made significant contributions to The University.

Acho saw action in 50 career games (26 starts) and tallied 148 tackles, 23.5 sacks (No. 11 on UT's career list), 37 TFL, 44 pressures, eight PBD, eight forced fumbles and nine fumble recoveries (t-No. 2 on UT's career list).

In 2010, he recorded 59 tackles, 17 TFL, nine sacks, 18 pressures, five forced fumbles and five fumble recoveries. His five fumble recoveries lead the nation this season and are tied the UT single-season record. His five forced fumbles are tied for second nationally and tied for seventh on the UT single-season list.

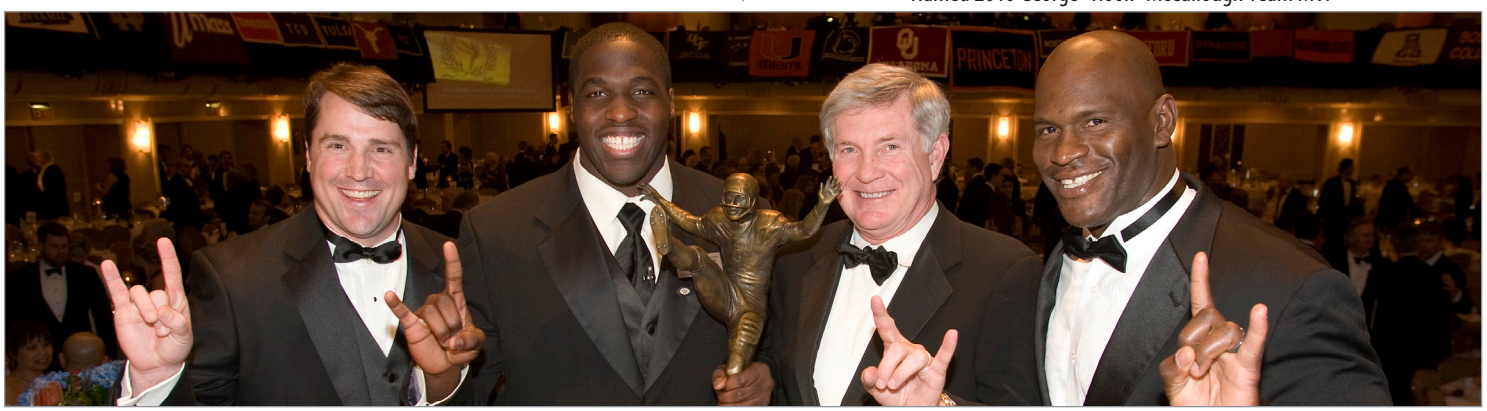

A 2009 semifinalist for the Lott Trophy, Acho notched 63 tackles, 10 sacks, 14 TFL, 15 pressures, three PBUs, two forced fumbles and four fumble recoveries that season. The four fumble recoveries were tied for the most nationally and tied for third on UT's single-season list.

Acho and his family have made several medical mission trips to his parents' native country of Nigeria. He helped organize a fundraiser in Dallas prior to the 2009 and 2010 trips. Then he, his brother Emmanuel and several teammates traveled to assist his father and approximately 40 doctors by providing medical treatment to Nigerians who may only have access to a doctor once a year. The family hopes to build a permanent clinic in the area soon.

Acho was taken in the fourth round of the 2011 NFL Draft by the Arizona Cardinals. He spent his first four seasons in the league with the team and is now a member of the Chicago Bears.

TEXAS' TOP 10 HEISMAN TROPHY FINALISTS

1941	Jack Crain	RB	10th	n/a

1946	Bobby Layne	QB	8th	n/a

1961	James Saxton	RB	3rd	81

Saxton led the Southwest region in total votes and ended up among the top five vote-getters in all five regions (East, South, Midwest, Southwest and Far West).

1963	Scott Appleton	T	5th	27

Appleton finished third in voting in both the Southwest and Far West regions. UT quarterback Duke Carlisle finished fifth in the Southwest region but did not have enough votes to crack the top 10.

1965	Tommy Nobis	LB	7th	27

1968	Chris Gilbert	RB	8th	n/a

1970	Steve Worster	FB	4th	47

Worster finished behind quarterbacks Jim Plunkett, Joe Theismann and Archie Manning, while placing in the top five in four of five regions (East, South, Southwest and Far West).

1973	Roosevelt Leaks	RB	3rd	74

Leaks was the leading vote-getting in the Southwest region and finished third despite not placing among the top three in the Midwest and Far West.

1977	Earl Campbell	RB	1st	371

Oddly enough, Campbell was the leading vote-getter in every region but one, the Southwest. Oklahoma State's Terry Miller, the second-place finisher, took top honors in that region.

1981	Kenneth Sims	DT	8th	3

1997	Ricky Williams	RB	5th	4

1998	Ricky Williams	RB	1st	714

Williams' record-setting senior season resulted in a landslide victory in the voting. He swept all six regions by significant margins while posting the greatest percentage of votes cast (43% of 920 voters) and the third-most first-place votes (714) in the award's history.

2004	Cedric Benson	RB	6th	12

2005	Vince Young	QB	2nd	79

2008	Colt McCoy	QB	2nd	266

McCoy became the second Longhorn to finish as the runner-up, matching Vince Young's finish in 2005. The 122-point difference between first and second was the smallest margin of victory since 2001.

2009	Colt McCoy	QB	3rd	203

2016	D'Onta Foreman	RB	8th	6

Foreman became just the second Longhorn to rush for 2,000 yards in a season, rushing for 2,058 yards in just 11 games played.

2022	Bijan Robinson	RB	9th	4

1963 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Following two seasons that saw Texas flirt with its first National Championship, the Longhorns opened the 1963 campaign as the No. 1 team in the nation according to Sports Illustrated and Street & Smith's Football Yearbook. The Associated Press did not agree and forced UT to work its way up the ladder with a preseason No. 5 ranking.

After a pair of decisive season-opening wins at Tulane (21-0) and against Texas Tech (49-7), UT rapidly climbed into The AP Poll's No. 2 spot. Texas held that position after a 34-7 win against Oklahoma State and that set the stage for a battle for the nation's top spot in the annual rivalry with No. 1 Oklahoma, in Dallas.

A convincing 28-7 win against the Sooners rocketed the Longhorns to No. 1 and they maintained their ranking through the remainder of the regular season. It wasn't all easy though. In their first week at No. 1, UT nearly blew a 17-0 halftime lead in a 17-13 win at Arkansas and got another scare in a 7-0 win against Baylor later on in Austin.

In the biggest play of the season, Duke Carlisle made a sensational leaping interception of what looked like a sure last-minute, game-tying Baylor touchdown pass. With 29 seconds remaining in the game and Baylor at UT's 19-yard line, Bears quarterback Don Trull was looking at his favorite target, Lawrence Elkins, who was running a post pattern. Elkins had eluded UT's Joe Dixon and looked to be wide open as he approached the goal line before Carlisle, who had covered nearly 15 yards since the ball left Trull's hand, made the miraculous play.

"Thank you, Duke. You saved my life," Dixon said to Carlisle after the game-saving catch.

The Longhorns avoided another upset attempt in a 15-13 victory at Texas A&M, scoring the winning touchdown on a Carlisle 1-yard plunge with 1:19 remaining in the game. UT entered the fourth quarter trailing 13-3 before putting the finishing touches on the victory.

Since there was no Associated Press postseason poll, Texas went into its Cotton Bowl matchup against No. 2 Navy with The AP national title already secured, but the Football Writers Association and the Helms Foundation withheld naming a National Champion until after the game. The Midshipmen were expected to provide quite a test behind the multi-talented skills of junior quarterback Roger Staubach, who had claimed the Heisman Trophy during the season.

The national TV pregame introductions produced a surprise and a challenge. When he was introduced, Midshipmen head coach Wayne Hardin said pointedly, "When the challenger meets the champion and the challenger wins, then there's a new champion." This seemed to raise Darrell Royal's hackles and he replied grimly, "We're ready."

Texas jumped out to a quick 21-0 halftime lead, and behind standout defenders Tommy Nobis and Scott Appleton, frustrated the scrambling Staubach. In the meantime, the Longhorns flourished behind a memorable performance by Carlisle, who was voted the outstanding back of the game. He connected with Phil Harris on 58-yard and 63-yard scoring tosses while rolling up 213 passing yards and 267 total yards on the day. UT secured a consensus National Championship with a decisive 28-6 win.

"I've never seen a team which deserved to be No. 1 more than Texas," Hardin said after the game. "Texas was just the best we've played, that's all. Staubach didn't play as well as usual, but I imagine Texas had a lot to do with that."

Appleton earned consensus All-America and All-Southwest Conference honors, running back Tommy Ford rushed for 738 yards and earned All-America and All-SWC recognition, Nobis was a consensus All-SWC pick and the American Football Coaches Association tabbed Royal its Coach of the Year. Appleton, Ford and center David McWilliams served as captains for the Longhorns, who finished with a perfect 11-0 record and 7-0 mark in SWC play.

The 1969 season marked the 100th year of college football and ABC television executive Beano Cook arranged for Texas and Arkansas to play the final game of the regular season, moving their usual October date to the first weekend in December.

For a long while, it looked as though the game would be a meeting of also-rans. Ohio State was dominating the Big Ten and the chances of the game being anything other than just the last game of the season were pretty remote.

However, as the Longhorns took a Saturday off to prepare for their upcoming game on Thanksgiving Day with Texas A&M, Michigan and its upstart coach Bo Schembechler upset the Buckeyes. Texas vaulted to No. 1 in the polls and Arkansas claimed the No. 2 spot.

That set the stage. Even the day took on an eerie feeling. The night before, a steady, cold rain fell in Fayetteville and an icy fog hovered over the stadium as the crowd awaited the arrival of President Richard Nixon, who would award a plaque symbolic of the National Championship to the winner.

In the 100th year of college football, it truly was the "Game of the Century." The Longhorns overcame turnovers and a 14-0 Arkansas lead to post a 15-14 victory. James Street scrambled for one touchdown, got a two-point conversion and then hit Randy Peschel on a dramatic 4th-and-3 play late in the game. Donnie Wigginton, the third-string quarterback who was the holder, made a big save on a high snap and Happy Feller booted the extra point for the winning score with 3:58 remaining. Tom Campbell's interception on UT's 21-yard line halted Arkansas' final drive.

Less than a week later, when safety Fred Steinmark underwent surgery for the removal of his leg because of bone cancer, UCLA administrators watching the Longhorns play basketball in Los Angeles actually wept.

The Cotton Bowl prompted a great deal of interest with No. 1 Texas hosting No. 9 Notre Dame. The Fighting Irish were making their first bowl appearance since the "Four Horsemen" beat Stanford 27-10 in the 1925 Rose Bowl. Ara Parseghian's 8-1-1 squad was ending its 44-year self-imposed departure from bowls.

Again, it took some dramatics for a Texas win. UT trailed 17-14 midway through the final period before Street directed the Horns 76 yards for the winning score. Billy Dale's 1-yard run capped the drive and gave UT a 21-17 lead and the 500th win in school history.

In the locker room after the 21-17 victory, Royal gave Steinmark the game ball. The little safety would become a national symbol of courage as he battled cancer for a year-and-a-half before dying in June 1971.

An ABC-TV poll of sportswriters tabbed Royal Coach of the Decade after wrapping up the 1960s with a pair of national titles. Tackle Bob McKay earned consensus All-America and All-Southwest Conference honors, while linebacker Glen Halsell, wide receiver Cotton Speyrer, running back Steve Worster and offensive tackle Bob Wuensch each earned All-America and All-SWC recognition. Street, tackle Leo Brooks and defensive end Bill Atessis each earned consensus All-SWC honors. Halsell, Ted Koy and Street served as captains for the 11-0 (7-0, SWC Champions) Longhorns.

Texas entered the 1970 season with a 20-game winning streak on the line and as the defending National Champions. With all of their startling credentials, the Longhorns entered the season ranked No. 2 behind Ohio State in the polls.

Despite a rash of preseason injuries, UT stormed into the year with a pair of decisive victories against California (56-15) and at Texas Tech (35-13).

The win over the Golden Bears propelled the Longhorns into the No. 1 spot in the UPI poll and narrowed their gap on Ohio State for the top spot in The AP poll. Despite the easy win against Tech, the Horns dropped back to No. 2 in the UPI poll, with Ohio State claiming a unanimous No. 1, again.

With UT's winning streak standing at 22 games, it appeared that the string of success with the unstoppable "Wishbone" had finally run out. In the season's third week, No. 13 UCLA conceived a unique defense which stymied the Longhorns. The Bruins appeared ready to end the streak with a 17-13 lead, 25 seconds remaining and Texas 45 yards away from the end zone. It was then that UT quarterback Eddie Phillips hit Cotton Speyrer in stride at the 25-yard line. Speyrer shook a UCLA defender and crossed the goal line with only 12 seconds left as UT came away with a 20-17 victory.

After the come-from-behind home victory against UCLA, the Longhorns posted back-to-back victories against Oklahoma (41-9) and at Rice (45-21). Those wins vaulted the Longhorns ahead of Ohio State into the nation's top spot.

A 42-15 win against SMU helped the Longhorns maintain the top spot. In its second week at No. 1, UT was forced to hold off a stubborn Baylor team in Waco (21-14) to remain at No. 1.

The Longhorns continued to hold the top spot with decisive victories at TCU (58-0) and against arch-rival Texas A&M (52-14) to set up a battle with No. 4 Arkansas. For the second consecutive year, the meeting with the Razorbacks would decide the Southwest Conference crown.

After claiming their third consecutive SWC crown with a 42-7 win against Arkansas, the Longhorns were awarded the UPI National Championship.
UT entered its Cotton Bowl rematch with No. 6 Notre Dame as the nation's top team in both The AP and UPI polls.

After falling 24-11 to the Fighting Irish, which snapped UT's 30-game winning streak, the Longhorns dropped to No. 3 in The AP poll but remained UPI's National Champion. The 30-game winning streak currently stands as the 12th-longest in NCAA history.

Defensive end Bill Atessis, fullback Steve Worster and offensive tackle Bobby Wuensch earned consensus All-America and All-SWC honors, while linebacker Scott Henderson and Speyrer earned All-America and All-SWC recognition. Running back Jim Bertelsen and offensive guard Bobby Mitchell also earned All-SWC accolades. Henderson, Worster, Wuensch and Zapalac were the captains for the 10-1 (7-0, SWC Champion) Longhorns.

Following an 11-1 campaign in 2004 that culminated in the Longhorns' first BCS win over Michigan in their first Rose Bowl, Texas entered the 2005 season ranked No. 2 behind defending champion USC. The ranking was UT's highest in the preseason since 1970, its last championship season.

The Longhorns opened with a 60-3 win over Louisiana-Lafayette as QB Vince Young accounted for four TDs and freshman RB Jamaal Charles made the top freshman rushing debut in UT history with 135 yards.

The win set up a historic first meeting with No. 4 Ohio State. Trailing 22-16, Young connected with WR Limas Sweed on 24-yard TD with 2:17 remaining. The defense held firm, forcing a safety for the 25-22 final to give UT its second-straight win over a Big Ten power.

A 51-10 win over Rice at home, in which Charles racked up 189 rushing yards and three TDs, sent Texas into its bye week and then conference play, where it opened at Missouri. Young produced his first 100-yard passing/rushing game of the season with 236 passing and 108 rushing in the 51-20 victory.

The Red River Rivalry arrived with much being made of Oklahoma's five-game winning streak in the series. However, 2005 would produce a stark contrast, as Texas rolled to a 45-12 win, highlighted by an 80-yard TD run by Charles for a 14-6 lead. The Longhorns never looked back, capping the win with a 67-yard fumble return TD by DT Rod Wright.

Next was No. 24 Colorado, and Young would have one of his finest days passing. He broke his own school record for completion percentage by connecting on 25-of-29 (86.2%) attempts for a career-high 336 yards and two TDs, while also reaching the end zone three times on the ground for a 42-17 win.

That set the stage for undefeated No. 10 Texas Tech. WR Billy Pittman collected his third 100-yard game with a career-high 138 yards and two TDs, while the defense held the nation's top-ranked scoring offense to 17 points for a 52-17 win.

The Longhorns then traveled to Oklahoma State, a team that in 2004 held a 35-7 lead before Texas made the greatest comeback in school history with 49 unanswered points. Again, the Cowboys jumped out, this time 28-9, and again UT responded. This time with 38-unanswered points. Young became the first player in NCAA history to rush for over 250 yards and pass for over 230 in the same game for a UT record 506 yards of total offense.

Texas closed the regular season with wins over Baylor, Kansas and Texas A&M for its first undefeated regular season since 1983, while clinching a spot in the Big 12 Championship, where it would meet Colorado again. The final score was set midway through the third quarter at 70-3, giving Mack Brown his first Big 12 title and sending the Longhorns to the BCS National Championship to face No. 1 USC.

The two teams played a game for the ages. Young took the spotlight from Heisman Trophy winners Reggie Bush and Matt Leinart, becoming the first player in NCAA history to pass and rush for more than 200 yards twice in a career. He recorded 267 yards passing and 200 yards rushing with three TDs, topped by his fourth-down, eight-yard TD run with 19 seconds to go for the 41-38 win.

Young won the Maxwell Award, the O'Brien Award and the Manning Award, and was consensus first-team All-America. Safety Michael Huff became UT's first winner of the Thorpe Award and was unanimous first-team All-America, along with OT Jonathan Scott. Wright also was named consensus first-team All-America.

LONGHORN HALL OF HONOR

TEXAS ATHLETICS HALL OF HONOR

One of The University of Texas' most cherished athletics traditions is the Texas Athletics Hall of Honor. Founded in 1957, the Texas Athletics Hall of Honor is one of the most cherished athletics traditions at The University of Texas. Inductees are a distinguished circle of individuals who have made a distinct and lasting contribution to The University of Texas. The governing body -- the Longhorn Hall of Honor Council -- is made up exclusively of men who have lettered at The University of Texas. The Council is in charge of all arrangements for the vote of lettermen and for the installation banquet. Each year, a selection committee nominates 16 candidates, whose names are distributed to the Hall of Honor Council. The four nominees receiving a majority of votes are inducted into the Longhorn Hall of Honor during a ceremony in conjunction with a Texas home football game. Mounted silver scrolls, which carry the announcement that they are presented 'In recognition of those qualities that brought credit and renown to The University of Texas,' are presented to the honorees. In addition, honorees are recognized in The Frank Denius Family University of Texas Athletics Hall of Fame. The following is a complete list of Texas football players enshrined in the Texas Athletics Hall of Honor.

End/1944-46

Considered one of the finest receivers in UT history, Hub Bechtol was UT's first consensus All-American. Bechtol is one of only two Horns ever to earn All-America honors three times. A native of Lubbock, Texas, Bechtol actually began his collegiate career at Texas Tech, were he earned one letter in football prior to serving in the Navy during World War II. Following his stint in the military, he returned to school, electing to enroll at Texas where he earned three letters in football (1944-46) and two in basketball. Bechtol made his fame catching passes from another All-American, Bobby Layne. He was an integral part of the third-best passing attack in the nation as a senior, and as a junior, he helped UT earn a No. 10 national ranking. He and Layne helped lead the Longhorns to the Southwest Conference Championship and a Cotton Bowl win against Missouri. In that game, Bechtol caught nine passes for 138 yards and he also set a UT single-season record for touchdown receptions with seven that year. Bechtol went on to play professional football with the Baltimore Colts for three seasons before returning to Austin to work in real estate and insurance. He was elected to the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1963.

DANA X. BIBLE (INDUCTED: 1951)

One of the winningest head coaches in the history of the college game, Dana X. Bible's 10-year run at UT from 1937-1946 is credited with laying the foundation for the modern legacy of Longhorns football. Following success at Texas A&M and Nebraska, Bible was hired in 1937 to turn the Texas fortunes around. He inherited a team that was more depressed than the nation's economy, but before his time was over, his teams won three Southwest Conference Championships, all coming in the final five years of his career. He is credited for "The Bible Plan," which placed an emphasis on education as well as success on the football field. In 1941, his team — still regarded as one of the best in UT history — was featured on the cover of Life magazine. A winner of 201 games in 33 years as a head coach (63-31-3 at UT), Bible was the third-winningest coach in the history of the game when he retired — trailing only Amos Alonzo Stagg, who coached for 57 years, and Pop Warner, who coached for 44 seasons. He was elected to the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1960.

MACK BROWN (INDUCTED: 2018)

Mack Brown led Texas Football back into its rightful place through the first decade of the 2000s, compiling a record of 158-48 (.767) in 16 seasons as the head coach for the Longhorns. In 30 total seasons as a head coach, Brown had a record of 244-122-1 (.666). His 244 wins are the 10th most in NCAA history by a coach with at least 10 years at an FBS school. When he departed Texas after the 2013 season, Brown was one of only two coaches nationally at the time to have directed teams to 21 bowls in the previous 22 seasons and the only one to have 23 winning seasons in the last 24 years. His 225 wins overall from 1990 to 2013 were the most nationally. At Texas, Brown was named the 2008 Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year and the 2009 Big 12 Coach of the Year. In addition, he was also named the 2005 Paul "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year after guiding his Longhorns to the 2005 National Championship. Under Brown, Texas won nine of its last 12 bowl games during his tenure and had a 10-5 record overall, including a UT record streak of 12 consecutive bowl appearances. The 10 bowl wins give Brown the most in Texas history, surpassing Darrell Royal's eight. In addition, the streak includes a BCS National Championship, another BCS National Championship Game appearance and three BCS bowl wins. During his 16 seasons in Austin, the Longhorns featured a Heisman Trophy winner, two runners-up and a third-place finisher, three Maxwell Award winners, three WCFF Player of the Year Award winners, two Doak Walker Award winners, two Thorpe Award winners, two Nagurski Trophy winners, two O'Brien Award winners, two Hendricks Award winners, a Butkus Award winner, a Lombardi Award winner, two Manning Award winners, two Draddy/Campbell Trophy winners, a Wuerffel Trophy winner, a Disney Spirit Award winner, a FWAA Armed Forces Merit Award winner, 54 All-Americans, 73 first-team All-Big 12 selections, five Big 12 Offensive Players of the Year, six Big 12 Defensive Players of the Year and 12 Big 12 Freshman of the Year honorees.

EARL CAMPBELL (INDUCTED: 1990)

Earl Campbell galloped into UT football history with his Heisman Trophy-winning 1977 season. Campbell rushed for 1,744 yards (a Southwest Conference record that stood for 16 years) and 19 touchdowns and led the nation in rushing and scoring. He posted 200-yard rushing games against Texas A&M (222) and SMU (213), both on the road, and set a UT record with ten 100-yard rushing games that season. Campbell was an instant success at Texas, rushing for 928 yards as a freshman "Wishbone" fullback. He claimed the first of three consensus All-SWC honors that year. As a sophomore in 1975, he ran for 1,118 yards and 13 touchdowns, earning the first of his two consensus All-America awards. Injuries dampened his junior season when he played with a pulled hamstring for much of the season. He missed four games and only posted 653 rushing yards. However, by his senior season, he was at full strength. He moved to tailback in the "I" formation utilized by new head coach Fred Akers and turned in one of the finest rushing campaigns in UT history. The Tyler, Texas, native finished his career with school rushing records of 4,443 yards and 41 touchdowns. Inducted into both the College Football and NFL Hall of Fame, Campbell earned NFL Rookie of the Year honors, won four rushing titles and was selected to five Pro Bowls in a stellar career with the Houston Oilers and New Orleans Saints. He rushed for 9,407 yards and 74 TDs in eight seasons as a pro. Following his retirement, Campbell returned to Austin where he owns a food company. He also serves as an assistant to the athletics director in the UT athletics department. Campbell was elected to the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1988.

DOUG ENGLISH (INDUCTED: 2011)

Defensive tackle/1972-74

After helping lead the Longhorns to a 10-1 finish, a Southwest Conference championship and a No. 3 final AP ranking in his first varsity season in 1972, Doug English quickly established himself as one of the top defensive lineman to come through the University of Texas. Following the Longhorns' win over fourth-ranked Alabama in the 1973 Cotton Bowl, Texas won its second consecutive SWC title in 1973 with English anchoring the defensive line. In his three seasons, Texas compiled a 26-8 record and finished in the top 20 every year. English twice earned All-Southwest Conference honors and was named First Team All-America as a senior in 1974. He also received UT's George "Hook" McCullough Outstanding Football Player Award and the D. Harold Byrd Leadership Award while serving as a team captain his senior season. For his career, English tallied 260 tackles (111 solo) and four forced fumbles while totaling 105 tackles as a senior. Drafted in the second round of the 1975 NFL Draft, English, a Dallas native, played 10 seasons with the Lions. He recorded a career-high 13 sacks and two safeties in 1983 while helping lead the Lions to the NFC Central Division title. He finished his NFL career with 59 sacks while earning All-Pro honors four times (1981-84). His four safeties tie him for the most in an NFL career. He was elected to the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1986 and was a member of the 2013 class of the Texas Sports Hall of Fame.

CHRIS GILBERT (INDUCTED: 1999)

Chris Gilbert, the crown jewel in an era when Texas Longhorns running backs dominated the nation's ground game, was the first player in NCAA history to gain 1,000 yards in each of the seasons for which he was eligible. Gilbert played for Darrell Royal from 1966-68 and competed in a time when freshmen were not eligible for varsity competition. The 5-foot-11, 180-pounder was a three-time All-Southwest Conference back who rushed for more than 100 yards in exactly half of his 30 career games and he had four 200-yard efforts. The three-time UT MVP finished his career as the SWC's and the school's all-time leading rusher with 3,231 yards, which ranked third on the NCAA all-time list at the time. As a sophomore, Gilbert rushed for a then-school record 1,080 yards and was voted the Outstanding Back in the 1966 Bluebonnet Bowl victory against Mississippi. He added 1,019 yards to his total as a junior and recorded a 96-yard touchdown run against TCU, the longest run from scrimmage by a Longhorn. Gilbert's senior season marked the inaugural year of the famed "Wishbone" offense and he rushed for a UT-record 1,132 yards and scored 13 touchdowns. His efforts helped Texas to a 9-1-1 record and a No. 3 ranking after a 36-13 victory against Tennessee in the Cotton Bowl. Following graduation, Gilbert was drafted by the New York Jets but chose to enter private business in Texas and ran a highly-successful summer camp for youngsters and managed a respected residential real estate business. He was elected to the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1978.

JERRY GRAY (INDUCTED: 2013)

One of the all-time greats defensive backs, Jerry Gray has his name etched in the Texas history books. A four-year letterman (1981-84), Gray is one of only seven Longhorns to earn two-time consensus All-America honors, as he did in 1983 and 1984. He earned unanimous honors as a senior and is still one of only 20 players in UT history to accomplish that feat. He was also a two-time Southwest Conference Defensive Player of the Year (1983-84). Gray finished his career ranked second on the Texas career interceptions list and still stand third with 16, just one behind record holders Noble Doss and Nathan Vasher. He is also tied for second on the single-season interceptions list after pulling seven his senior year. Gray finished his career fourth on the career fumble recoveries list and still stand eighth with six recoveries. Gray recorded 297 career tackles, 16 interceptions and 20 pass breakups during his time in Austin. After being selected as the 21st overall pick in the 1985 NFL Draft, Gray played with the Los Angeles Rams (1985-91), Houston Oilers (1992) and Tampa Bay Bucaneers (1993) during his professional career. He was also named Defensive Back of the Year in 1989. Gray broke into the coaching ranks in 1995 and is currently the defensive coordinator of the Tennessee Titans, a position he has held since 2011.

JOHNNIE JOHNSON (INDUCTED: 2007)

A versatile threat as a fierce tackler and punt returner, Texas' Johnnie Johnson set numerous Texas records during his four-year career and was twice named a consensus All-America ('78, '79). Hailing from LaGrange, Texas, Johnson earned recognition from the Downtown Athletic Club as the nation's top defensive back in 1978. He finished his career with 13 interceptions returned for 150 yards, 282 tackles and led a defense that surrendered an average of only nine points per game. Equally as impressive as his defensive accomplishments, Johnson accumulated over 1,000 career punt return yards and still owns the UT records for single season punt returns (44) and career punt returns (114). The three-time All-Southwest Conference pick currently ranks second all-time in school season return yards (538) and fourth in career return yards (1,004). Selected as the 17th overall pick in the 1980 NFL Draft, he spent 10 of his 11 years in the professional ranks with the Los Angeles Rams. He was also selected to the SWC All-Decade Team for the 1970s and to the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1990.

MALCOLM KUTNER (INDUCTED: 1974)

Malcolm Kutner, a star in the D.X. Bible era of UT football, was one of two All-Americans honored on the 1941 team, generally regarded as the best of its era and one of the best teams in school history. Kutner was a three-sport star at Texas, earning letters in football, basketball and track & field. However, his versatility as a football player, where his primary position was end, helped earn praise for Bible's innovative offense as "the best balanced, perhaps most versatile ever developed in the cow country, if not in the nation." In all, Kutner earned seven varsity letters: three in football, three in basketball and one in track — where he was a member of two Southwest Conference Champion relay teams. He was the first UT player chosen to compete in the Chicago Tribune's collegiate all-star game, matching an all-star team of just-finished collegians against the NFL champions. Kutner continued his playing as a member of the U.S. Armed Forces team during World War II. Following his service career, he played five years as a member of the Chicago Cardinals. As a pro, he was Rookie of the Year in 1946, made the All-Pro team in both 1947 and '48 and earned NFL Most Valuable Player honors in 1948. Kutner retired from the NFL following the 1950 season and entered the oil business in Texas. He was elected to the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1965.

BOBBY LAYNE (INDUCTED: 1968)

Quarterback/1944-47

It was his great friend Doak Walker who said of Bobby Layne, "Layne never lost a game … time just ran out on him." Layne is generally regarded as the greatest quarterback in UT history. He was known as much for his free spirit approach to life as he was to the game he played. Recruited as a baseball pitcher, Layne was one of the best two-sport stars in school history. However, it would be in football that he would forever etch his name. He finished his UT career with a school-record 3,145 yards passing on 210 completions and 400 attempts. He was the Outstanding Back of the 1948 Sugar Bowl victory against No. 6 Alabama as a senior and was one of the first inductees into the Cotton Bowl Hall of Fame based on his incredible performance in the 1946 Classic win against Missouri. In the 40-27 victory, Layne accounted for every point, scoring four touchdowns, kicking four extra points and passing for the other two touchdowns. His brilliant 15-year professional career included leading the Detroit Lions to three league titles and twice being named the all-league quarterback during a his career (Detroit and Pittsburgh). He was inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame in 1967 and elected to the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1963.

ROOSEVELT LEAKS (INDUCTED: 2005)

A tremendous running back and fearless pioneer, Roosevelt Leaks became the first black athlete to earn All-America and All-Conference honors for the Longhorns, forever changing the complexion of football at Texas and the Southwest Conference. Prior to suffering a serious knee injury that hampered his senior season, Leaks earned consensus first-team All-America honors in 1973 and finished third in the Heisman Trophy voting, the first and highest place of the three UT underclassmen to finish in the Top 10. A two-time first-team All-Conference selection, he was named Southwest Conference MVP in 1973, while setting the conference record for rushing yards (1,415). A team captain and MVP, Leaks guided the Longhorns to two conference titles. Drafted in the fifth round of the 1975 NFL Draft by the Baltimore Colts, Leaks enjoyed a nine-year professional career with the Colts and Buffalo Bills. A community-minded individual, Leaks hosts an annual charity golf tournament for children in East Austin. In 2003, he became the first recipient of the Living Legends Award presented by the Ministry of Challenge.

BUD MCFADIN (INDUCTED: 1983)

From the tiny town of Iraan, Texas, Bud McFadin came to The University of Texas and became a two-time All-American offensive guard and defensive tackle and was named Most Valuable Player of the 1951 Cotton Bowl. In 1950, he helped lead UT to the Southwest Conference Championship and a No. 3 national ranking. He was named the Most Valuable Player of the SWC as a senior and was a first-round draft choice by the Los Angeles Rams of the National Football League. Prior to the start of his pro career, he was named MVP of the collegiate all-star game that matched top college players against the NFL champions. McFadin went on to play 11 seasons of professional football and was a five-time Pro Bowl selection. Along with the Rams, McFadin also starred at Denver and Houston, where he concluded his career. He is one of only two former Longhorns to appear as a Pro Bowl selection with two different teams — Los Angeles (1956-57) and Denver (1962-64). When he finished his NFL playing career, McFadin became a coach for the Oilers and spent five seasons tutoring the defensive line. After leaving coaching, McFadin turned to farming near Victoria, Texas. He was elected to the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1973.

BOB MCKAY (INDUCTED: 2017)

A consensus First Team All-American in 1969, McKay guided Texas to a perfect 11-0 season and the National Championship after defeating Notre Dame in the 1970 Cotton Bowl. He also helped the team to a No. 3 final ranking nationally in 1968 following a win over Tennessee in the 1969 Cotton Bowl. The 1969 All-Southwest Conference selection led the Longhorns to two conference championships. Behind McKay and the rest of the offensive line, the 1969 squad outscored opponents 435-119 while leading the FBS in rushing offense (363 yards per game) and scoring offense (33.8 points per game). With McKay in the starting lineup, Texas held an impressive 20-1-1 record and twice finished in the top three of the AP rankings. After his senior campaign, he played in the Coaches All-America Game and the Hula Bowl. McKay was drafted 21st overall by the Cleveland Browns in 1970 and spent nine seasons in the NFL with the Browns and New England Patriots. He would lead each franchise to two playoff appearances during his career.

STEVE MCMICHAEL (INDUCTED: 2009)

A four-year letterman from 1976-79, Steve McMichael was a member of the 1977 Southwest Conference Championship team. Twice selected All-Southwest Conference (1978-79), he graduated as the school's all-time leader in career tackles (369) and sacks (30). A finalist for the Lombardi and Outland Awards in 1979, McMichael claimed team and Hula Bowl MVP honors. During his time at Texas, the Longhorns posted an impressive 34-12-1 record. McMichael went on to be drafted in the third round of the 1980 NFL Draft by the New England Patriots. He signed with the Chicago Bears in 1981 and spent 13 seasons with the team, including six Central Division Championships and a victory in Super Bowl XX. McMichael retired as a five-time All-Pro selection and holds the Chicago Bears record for most consecutive games played (191). Following his playing career, McMichael became a pro wrestler, coached in the Continental Indoor Football League and commentated for the Chicago Bears. He was elected to the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1999.

TOMMY NOBIS (INDUCTED: 1981)

Linebacker, Guard/1963-65

Considered the finest linebacker in UT history, Tommy Nobis ranks as one of the greatest football players of all time. UT's famous No. 60 was a two-time All-American, made the All-Southwest Conference team three years and was the only sophomore starter on the Longhorns' 1963 National Championship team. The next year, he registered one of the most famous tackles in Orange Bowl history when he led his teammates on a fourth-and-inches stop of Joe Namath at the goal line to preserve UT's 21-17 victory against No. 1 Alabama. Darrell Royal called Nobis the best two-way lineman he ever coached, and in 1965, Sports Illustrated tagged him "the best defender in College Football." He went on to win the Outland Trophy and Maxwell Award as a senior. Nobis averaged nearly 20 tackles per game at UT, despite the effort of opponents to run away from him. He also was often the primary blocker for touchdown runs on teams that were ranked No. 1 in the nation at some point during each of his three years. A knee injury slowed the latter part of his senior season, but he went on to a successful 10-year career with the Atlanta Falcons. He was named to the NFL's All-1960s team and was selected to the Football News' all-time All-American team. As a member of the front office of the Falcons, Nobis' popularity and durability are evident by a career that has spanned 35 years with the Atlanta franchise. The San Antonio native was a first-round draft choice of the Falcons in 1966 and he was elected to the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1976.

DARRELL ROYAL (INDUCTED: 1983)

Head coach/1957-76

In December 1956, Darrell Royal came to Texas as one of the youngest head coaches in America, and for the next 20 years, he led the Longhorns to success that was unparalleled in Southwest Conference history. Royal's remarkable record included 11 teams that finished in the nation's Top 10 and three National Championships. He also registered 11 SWC titles, 16 bowl berths, 26 All-Americans and 77 All-SWC players. He also recorded unprecedented streaks, including a 30-game winning streak from 1968-70 and record run of six consecutive Cotton Bowl appearances. Royal finished his career with a UT-record 167 victories, including 109 against league foes. His honors were numerous as well. Royal was tabbed Coach of the Year on numerous occasions, earned a spot in a number of halls of fame and was picked as coach of the decade in the 1960s. In the 10-year period from 1961-70, Royal's teams finished in the nation's Top Five seven times, including the three seasons at No. 1. Royal was not only a winner, but he also was recognized as one of the game's great innovators — simplifying offenses by flipping the offensive line and later installing the famed "Wishbone" offense, which he unveiled in 1968. After he retired in 1976, Royal continued to serve as UT's Athletics Director — a post he held beginning in 1964. Royal later was an assistant to the UT president, advising that office on matters pertaining to athletics. He was elected to the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1976.

JAMES SAXTON (INDUCTED: 1996)

Tabbed the "quickest player in America" in 1961 by legendary Longhorns head coach Darrell Royal, James Saxton turned in one of the most spectacular seasons by a UT back that year. A first- team All-Southwest Conference back and the Longhorns MVP, he capped his career in spectacular fashion in 1961, eventually finishing third in the Heisman Trophy voting and earning the Texas Sports Writers Association Amateur Athlete of the Year award. While UT rolled to a 10-1 record and climbed as high as No. 1 nationally during his senior campaign, Saxton led the SWC in rushing with 846 yards on only 107 carries. He also scored nine touchdowns and led the Longhorns attack with breathtaking runs of 80, 79, 66, 56, 49 and 45 yards. Saxton set a UT single-game rushing record against SMU with 173 yards, and a week later, picked up 171 yards against Baylor. His 7.9 yards per carry average that year was the highest recorded in SWC history. The Palestine, Texas, native topped off his terrific year by helping UT upset No. 5 Mississippi 12-7 in the 1962 Cotton Bowl. His 73-yard punt on a quick kick in that game still stands as a UT bowl game record. Saxton helped the Longhorns to a 25-5 record during his three-year career. and he finished his career ranked third on the UT all-time rushing list with 1,524 yards. He was elected to the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1973.

HARLEY SEWELL (INDUCTED: 2000)

Harley Sewell, who came from the tiny Texas town of St. Jo, was a first-team All-American two-way guard who helped UT to a 9-2 record in 1952 and was chosen defensive MVP in the 1953 Cotton Bowl victory against Tennessee. In that game, he led a UT defense that limited the Vols to six first downs and an amazing minus-14 yards rushing. A two-time All-Southwest Conference selection in 1951 and '52, Sewell was drafted in the first round (13th overall) by the Detroit Lions in 1953 and played for the Lions from 1953-62 before finishing his career with the Los Angeles Rams. In Detroit, Sewell teamed with fellow Texans Bobby Layne and Doak Walker to earn NFL championship rings in 1953 and '57 and was a four-time Pro Bowl selection. He was elected to the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1975.

KENNETH SIMS (INDUCTED: 2021)

Sims arrived on the Forty Acres as a freshman in 1978 and was an impact performer at the heart of the Longhorns' defensive line for four seasons. In that time, the 6-6, 265-pound tackle recorded 322 tackles, 29 sacks, 50 tackles for loss, 15 forced fumbles, seven fumble recoveries and three blocked kicks. Sims' 15 career forced fumbles sstand as the most by a player in a school history, while his 29 sacks (fourth) and seven fumble recoveries (fifth) both rank among the top five among Longhorns all-time. His 50 career tackles for loss are ninth-best in school history. He earned consensus All-America and first-team All-Southwest Conference honors in each of his final two seasons at Texas, including unanimous first-team recognition as a senior. During his senior campaign in 1981 season, Sims was so dominant in an injury-shortened season that he became Texas' first Lombardi Trophy winner, and was also voted the UPI Lineman of the Year. UT's team captain, Sims finished eighth in the Heisman Trophy voting and received three first-place votes in 1981. In addition, he joined Rowdy Gaines, Oliver Luck, Lynette Woodward and Par J Arvidsson in receiving the prestigious all sports NCAA Today's Top V Award in 1982, recognizing the nation's premier student-athletes for their efforts on the field, in the community and in the classroom. Sims was also named the Team MVP in his final two collegiate seasons, making him the first Longhorn since Chris Gilbert (1966-68) to earn that honor in consecutive seasons. Sims was selected by the New England Patriots with the first overall pick in the 1982 NFL Draft, playing eight seasons with the Patriots (1982-89), including the 1985 AFC Championship season when New England advanced to Super Bowl XX. Following his career with the Patriots, Sims was enshrined in the Texas Athletics Hall of Honor as part of the Class of 1997.

JERRY SISEMORE (INDUCTED: 2002)

Tackle/1970-72

One of the great offensive tackles of his era, Jerry Sisemore was a three-year letterwinner, a two-time consensus All-American (1971-72) and a team captain during one of the best three-year periods in the history of Texas football. In his three seasons, the Longhorns posted a 28-5 (.848) overall record, lost only one game in Southwest Conference play, won three consecutive league championships and played in three straight Cotton Bowls. As a sophomore, he helped lead UT to a 10-1 record and UT's third National Championship in school history. The 6-foot-4, 260-pounder also played in numerous all-star games following his outstanding career, including the Senior Bowl and Coaches All-America Game in 1973. Sisemore was selected in the first round of the 1973 NFL Draft by the Philadelphia Eagles with the third overall pick. He remained with the team for the duration of his 12-year career and was a two-time Pro Bowl selection (1980, '82). Sisemore appeared in the postseason four times and was inducted into the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1980.

MORTIMER (BUD) SPRAGUE (INDUCTED: 1970)

Mortimer "Bud" Sprague was only 16 when he came to Texas, but by his junior year, he was a 200-pound anchor in the middle of the defensive line on an undefeated UT team. The Longhorns posted a 20-5-2 record during his career and he was an All-Southwest Conference tackle but also doubled as a standout track athlete. Sprague excelled in the rare combination in track & field as a sprinter and shot putter. He won the SWC shot put title in 1925 and ran on the 440-yard relay team. After graduating from UT, he won the then-allowed privilege of continuing his college career by enrolling at West Point. There, his career blossomed. He was a vital member of Army's great teams of the late 1920s, a two-time All-American and captain of the 1928 team. Sprague had a distinguished career in the insurance business and was president of the New York Board of Trade and director of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1970 for his deeds at both Army and Texas and elected into the the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1993.

HARRISON STAFFORD (INDUCTED: 1975)

Halfback/1930-32

A walk-on from Wharton, Texas, Harrison Stafford went on to become perhaps the toughest football player in UT history. Statistics never told the story of Stafford, who was considered the finest blocking back in school annals. He also was an outstanding runner and receiver, but his fame was carved by his crushing blocks and devastating tackles. Stafford came to UT completely unannounced and volunteered for the freshman team where assistant coach Shorty Alderson worked him out and reported to head coach Clyde Littlefield, "Clyde, I found you the darndest football player you ever saw. He tore up a couple of dummies and hurt a couple of men. He says his name is Harrison Stafford." Stafford went on to earn All-Southwest Conference honors three times and was named to several All-America teams. A versatile person as well as an athlete, he also served as a member of the UT Student Assembly in 1931-32. A knee injury cut short his professional career and he returned to Texas and became a successful rancher. Stafford was elected to the Longhorn Hall of Honor in 1959.

RICKY WILLIAMS (INDUCTED: 2015)

A two-time unanimous first-team All-American and the 1998 Heisman Trophy winner, Ricky Williams was a four-year starter for Texas (1995-98) who completed his career with 21 NCAA and 46 school records. He led Texas to the final SWC Championship (1995) and the first-ever Big 12 title (1996). Williams was a unanimous first-team All-American as a junior and senior, along with being a two-time Doak Walker Award winner as the nation's top running back. Additionally, he was named the Maxwell Award winner and was voted national player of the year by the Walter Camp Football Foundation, Associated Press and Sporting News in 1998. The San Diego native was a three-time first-team All Big-12 choice and won back-to-back NCAA rushing titles in 1997 and 1998. He led the nation in scoring in 1997 and was a close second in 1998. When he finished his career at Texas, Williams' 6,279 rushing yards, 72 rushing TDs, 75 total TDs, 452 points, 33 games with a TD, 11 career 200-yard games, and 6.2 yards per carry were all NCAA all-time records. He also broke the NCAA all-purpose yardage record with 7,206 yards despite never returning a punt or kickoff. Williams eclipsed Tony Dorsett's more than two-decade-old NCAA rushing record with 259 yards in the Horns 26-24 regular season victory over Texas A&M in 1998. Williams was selected in the first round (fifth overall) in the 1999 NFL Draft by the New Orleans Saints and went on to play 12 seasons.

VINCE YOUNG (INDUCTED: 2019)

A consensus first-team All-American in 2005, Young was the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy while claiming the Davey O'Brien and Maxwell awards. That season, the unanimous Big 12 Player of the Year and first-team All-Big 12 selection led the Longhorns to a conference title and a perfect 13-0 season after winning the BCS National Championship Game against No. 1 USC in the 2006 Rose Bowl. The win capped a remarkable season that saw the team captain become the first player in FBS history with more than 3,000 passing yards and 1,000 rushing yards in a single season. Young left Texas as the winningest quarterback in school history, compiling a 30-2 record (.938) as a starter, including victories in the final 20 games of his career. He completed 61.8 percent of his passes for 6,040 yards (No. 6 on UT's career list) and 44 TDs (No. 5 on UT's career list). He also posted 3,127 rushing yards and 37 TDs. Both his rushing yards and TDs are UT quarterback records, and stand fifth and fourth, respectively, among all Longhorn rushers. Young went on to be drafted third overall by the Tennessee Titans in 2006. He claimed NFL Rookie of the Year honors after taking over as the starting quarterback in Week 4 and leading the Titans to an 8-5 record. He earned a spot in the Pro Bowl, becoming the first rookie quarterback ever to play in that game. Young followed up his rookie year by leading the Titans to a playoff berth in 2007. He played five seasons in Tennessee, one with the Philadelphia Eagles and one with the Green Bay Packers. A member of the Longhorn Hall of Honor, his No. 10 jersey is one of only six retired by Texas, and he is also enshrined in the Rose Bowl, State of Texas Sports, and Texas High School Football halls of fame.

TEXAS AND THE NFL

The format of the NFL draft has changed many times since the brainchild of former NFL Commissioner and club owner Bert Bell was accepted by the league owners on May 19, 1935. The initial draft was held on Feb. 8, 1936, at the Ritz Carlton Hotel in Philadelphia. More than 80 years later, the draft has gone through stages of 10, 20 and 30-round affairs to the current seven-round event set each April. Through it all, The University of Texas has played a key role in the event. Including a record 17 players drafted in 1984, the Longhorns have had 337 players called on draft day and had at least one player selected in 76 consecutive drafts (1938-2013). Among those draft choices, 44 UT players have been selected in the first round with three of those former Longhorns — Kenneth Sims, 1982; Earl Campbell, 1978; Tommy Nobis, 1966 — earning the honor of being the first player selected overall.

3 Casey Hampton (Pittsburgh Steelers - 2006, '09, '11) and Malcom Brown (New England - 2017-19) have made the most Super Bowl appearances with three. Twelve former players have been on a pair of Super Bowl rosters, including Glenn Blackwood (Miami Dolphins - 1983, '85), Bobby Micho (Denver Broncos - 1987, '88), Dave Studdard (Denver - 1987, '88), Ray Woodard (Denver Broncos - 1987, '88), Terry Orr (Washington Redskins - 1988, '92), James Patton (Buffalo Bills - 1993, '94), Dan Neil (Denver Broncos - 1998, '99), David Thomas (New England Patriots - 2008; New Orleans Saints - 2010), Limas Sweed (Pittsburgh - 2009, '11), Tony Hills (Pittsburgh - 2009, '11), Aaron Ross (New York Giants - 2008, '12) and Earl Thomas (Seattle Seahawks - 2014-15).

5 There were a school record five former Longhorns in the 1986, 1988 and 2011 Super Bowls, and four in 1969, 1987, 2009 and 2013. There have been at least three Longhorns in the Super Bowl 10 times (1969, '86, '87, '88, '99, '06, '09, '11, '13, '14).

16 A Longhorn has appeared in the last 16 Super Bowls (2006-present), the longest stretch in UT history. The only other time at least one Longhorn made an appearance was a stretch spanning 1985 though 1995. There was a Longhorn on a school-record seven straight winning teams (2008-14).

SUPER BOWL NOTABLES

• George Sauer caught eight passes for 133 yards to help the New York Jets to an upset win against the Baltimore Colts in Super Bowl III (1969).

• Raul Allegre scored six points (21-yard FG; three PATs) in the New York Giants' 39-20 win against the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXI (1987).

• Justin Tucker tallied 10 points, including a pair of fourth-quarter field goals, to help the Baltimore Ravens hold off the San Francisco 49ers, 34-31, in Super Bowl XLVII (2013).

7 Earl Thomas has the most all-time appearances with seven, followed by Earl Campbell, Casey Hampton, Bobby Layne, Bud McFadin, Tommy Nobis and Justin Tucker with five each, while Bobby Dillon, Doug English, Jerry Gray, Brian Orakpo, George Sauer, Harley Sewell, Jamaal Charles and Derrick Johnson each had four selections. Thomas, however, was unable to play in both the 2014 and 2015 Pro Bowls since the Seattle Seahawks were in the Super Bowl.

19 The Longhorns have had a Pro Bowl player the last 20 seasons in which the game has been held, the longest consecutive streak in school history. They have also had two separate streaks of nine years with a Pro Bowl player. The first was from 1952-60 and the second from 1967-75. UT also has had streaks of six years (1979-84), five years (1986-90), three years (1962-64) and two years (1993-94/'99-2000). In 2020, the game was replaced with a virtual-only event due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

43 The Longhorns have had 45 different Pro Bowlers representing 24 teams who have made a total of 111 appearances.

PRO BOWL NOTABLES

• The first Longhorn player to reach the Pro Bowl was center Bill Hughes of the Chicago Bears in 1942. The most recent were Kansas City Chiefs linebacker Derrick Johnson and Seattle Seahawks safety Earl Thomas who were selected to the 2016 game.

• Since 1952, there have been only 11 years in which a former Longhorn was not selected to the Pro Bowl (1961, '65, '66, '76, '78, '85, '91, '92, '96, '98, 2001).

• The Longhorns had a record five players in the 2013 Pro Bowl - Kansas City Chiefs running back Jamaal Charles and linebacker Derrick Johnson, Cleveland Browns place-kicker Phil Dawson, Seattle Seahawks safety Earl Thomas, and Chicago Bears defensive tackle Henry Melton. UT had four players in the Pro Bowl four times (1957, '68, '10, '14). Three players have represented UT eight times (1956, '82, '84, '87, '06, '07, '09, '11) and two former Horns have been selected 14 times (1958, '59, '63, '67, '69, '73, '74, '79, '80, '88, 2003, '04, '12, '15).
