1948 LONDON

Jerry Thompson: The three-time NCAA two-mile champion qualified for the USA team and competed in the 5,000 meters, but did not reach the finals.

1952 HELSINKI

Dean Smith: A member of the 1952 USA team, Smith became the Longhorns' first Olympic medal winner at the Games. He ran the first leg on the gold medal-winning 400m relay team (40.1). He also placed fourth in 100m in 10.4.

1956 MELBOURNE

Eddie Southern: A member of the USA team, Southern set an Olympic record of 50.1 in the 400m hurdles prelims. He went on to become the Horns' second Olympic medalist, receiving a silver medal for finishing second to fellow American Glenn Davis in the 400m hurdles.

1976 MONTREAL

Johnny Lam Jones: Jones earned a spot on the USA team before starting his freshman year at Texas. He earned a gold medal as the second leg of the 400m relay team (38.33). He also was sixth in the 100m (10.27).

Paul Craig: One of five Longhorns competing for the Canadian team at the Montreal Games, Craig advanced to the semifinals in the 1,500m. He ran a 3:41.0 in the semis, but did not qualify for the final.

Bishop Dolegiewicz: A member of the Canadian squad, Dolegiewicz competed in the discus, but did not place.

Marvin Nash: Ran the second leg of Canada's eighth place 400m relay team (39.47).

Hugh Spooner: Ran the first leg of Canada's 400m relay team that finished eighth (39.47).

Ian Seale: Ran a 47.0 leadoff leg for Canada's 1,600m relay team that finished just short of a medal, taking fourth in the finals (3:02.6).

Mike Burley: A member of the USA modern pentathlon team, but did not place.

Oskar Jakobsson: Competing for Iceland in the javelin, his throw of 238-9 did not qualify for the finals.

1980 MOSCOW

Oskar Jakobsson: In his second Olympic appearance, Jakobsson placed 11th in the shot put (62-6 3/4). He qualified in the discus, but did not reach the finals.

Owen Hamilton: A member of the Jamaican team, he qualified for the semifinals in the 800m where his time of 1:47.6 missed the finals by one place.

Desmond Morris: Competing for Jamaica, Morris qualified in the high jump, but did not reach the finals.

Oddur Sigurdsson: A member of the Iceland team, Sigurdsson competed in the 400m.

Ian Stapleton: Running on Jamaica's 1,600m relay team, Stapleton helped them advance to the semifinals, but they did not make the final.

1984 LOS ANGELES

Owen Hamilton: In his second Olympic appearance for Jamaica, Hamilton advanced to the 800m quarterfinals.

Desmond Morris: Competing in his second Olympics for Jamaica in high jump, Morris did not advance to the finals.

Einar Vilhjalmsen: Competing for Iceland, Vilhjalmsen placed sixth in the javelin finals with a toss of 267-8.

Oddur Sigurdsson: A member of the Iceland team, Sigurdsson reached the quarterfinals in the 400m.

Karl Smith: A member of the Jamaican team, Smith reached the 400m hurdles semifinals.

1988 SEOUL

Peter Borglund: A member of the Swedish team, he was ninth in the javelin (256-7).

Winthrop Graham: Won a silver medal as a member of Jamaica's 1,600m relay team and narrowly missed another medal in his specialty, the 400m hurdles. Graham placed fifth in that event, clocking an all-time South-west Conference best of 48.04.

Patrick Sang: Competing for Kenya, he came in seventh in the steeplechase (8:15.22).

Pablo Squella: Competing for Chile, Squella advanced to the quarterfinals in the 800m.

Einar Vihjalmsson: Competed in the javelin for Iceland, but did not make the final.

Dag Wennlund: Competing in his first Olympics for Iceland, he was eighth in the javelin (256-7).

1992 BARCELONA

Winthrop Graham: Competing for his native Jamaica in his second Olympics, Graham won a silver medal, the second in his career, in the 400m hurdles (47.66).

Patrick Sang: A member of the Kenyan team, Sang won a silver medal in the steeplechase, clocking 8:09.55.

Du'aine Ladejo: Competing for Great Britain, Ladejo became the Horns' fifth Olympic medalist earning a bronze medal as a member of its 1,600m relay squad.

Einar Vihjalmsson: A member of the Iceland team, Vihjalmsson was one of four former Horns competing in the javelin. He did not qualify for the final, but his toss of 258-2 was good for 14th place.

Dag Wennlund: Competing for Iceland in the javelin, Wennlund did not make the final, but his throw of 255-6 ranked 15th.

Patrick Bodén: A member of the Swedish team, Boden did not advance to the javelin final, but his toss of 254-11 was good for 16th place.

Peter Borglund: Competing for Sweden, Borglund did not make the finals. He threw the javelin for 245-2.

1996 ATLANTA

Richard Duncan: Competing for Canada, Duncan finished 34th in the long jump with a leap of 24-11 3/4.

Du'Aine Ladejo: Was part of the 4x400 relay that finished second with a time of 2:56.6 to United States.

Kawan Lovelace: Competed for Belize in the triple jump and finished 22nd with a jump of 15.40m.

2000 SYDNEY

Mark Boswell: Competing for Canada, Boswell finished in a sixth-place tie in the high jump with a clearance of 7-7.25.

Richard Duncan: Competing in his second Olympics for Canada, Duncan finished in 16th place in Group I qualifying in the long jump (24-11.25).

2004 ATHENS

Mark Boswell: Competing for Canada, Boswell finished seventh in the high jump with a leap of 7-6.

Brendan Christian: Competing for Antigua, Christian advanced to the second round of the 200 meters with a time of 20.71. He ran a 20.03 in the second round to finish just outside the top 16.

2008 BEIJING

Dylan Armstrong: Competing for Canada, Armstrong narrowly missed

medaling by finished fourth in the shot put with a toss of 69-0.50 (21.04m).

Brendan Christian: Competing for Antigua, Christian finished ninth in the 200 meters, narrowly missing the finals. He posted times of 20.29 in the semifinals and 20.58 in the quarterfinals.

Trey Hardee: Competing for the United States, Hardee was in third place after the first day of the decathlon with 4,428 points, but did not clear a bar in the pole vault and decided to withdraw.

Kamiel Maase: Competing for the Netherlands, Maase placed 39th in the men's marathon with a time of 2:20.30.

Andra Manson: Competing for the United States, Manson just missed qualifying for the final in the high jump. He posted a clearance of 2.25 meters, which ended up being the minimum height to advance, but he was unable to move on due to misses.

Leo Manzano: Competing for the United States, Manzano finished 12th in the second heat of the 1,500-meter semifinals. He advanced to the semis by placing sixth in his quarterfinal heat in 3:36.67.

2012 LONDON

Dylan Armstrong: Competing for Canada, Armstrong finished fifth in the shot put finals with a toss of 68-8 (20.93). He posted a mark of 67-2.75 (20.49m) on his third and final attempt, which was good for third in the second of two qualifying flights of the prelims. He was seventh among the 12 competitors in the prelims.

Marquise Goodwin: A member of the United States team, Goodwin finished 10th in the long jump with a leap of 25-7.25. He needed just one attempt in the qualifying round to reach the finals. Goodwin leapt 26-7.25 (8.11m) in his first-ever attempt in Olympic competition. That was the top mark in Group A and was one of just two automatic qualifiers for the finals. He leapt a career-best 27-4 (8.33m) on his final attempt at the U.S. Olympic Trials to earn a spot on the Olympic Team. Goodwin was the first collegian to win both the Olympic Trials and the NCAA Outdoor long jump competition in the same year since 1960. He was also the first-ever Longhorn to reach the long jump final at the Olympics.

Trey Hardee: Competing for the United States, Hardee won a silver medal in the decathlon, becoming the first Longhorn to medal in the event and seventh to medal at the Olympics. Hardee, who posted 8,671 points, was in second place from wire-to-wire behind fellow American Ashton Eaton who was in reach of the Olympic record (8,893 by Roman Sebrle of the Czech Republic in 2004), but still managed an impressive tally of 8,869. Eaton and Hardee became the first Americans to go one-two in the Olympic decathlon since Milton Campbell and Rafer Johnson in 1956.

Samyr Laine: Competing for the Haiti, Laine finished 11th in the triple jump finals with a mark of 54-7.50 (16.65m) on his second attempt. He advanced to the finals by finishing sixth in Group A of the qualifying round. Laine leapt 55-2 (16.81m) on his second of three attempts and was one of seven qualifiers out of the first of two groups.

Leo Manzano: Competing for the United States, Manzano won a silver medal in his specialty, the 1500 meters with a time of 3:34.79. Manzano came from the middle of the pack over the last 100 meters to become the first American to medal in the 1500 at the Olympics since Jim Ryun in the 1968 Mexico City games. He was also just the fourth American medalist in the 1,500 since the 1920 Olympics (Bo McMillen - silver in the 1952 Olympics in Helsinki; Glenn Cunningham - silver at the 1936 Berlin games. Manzano, who was the sixth Longhorn to medal at the Olympics, automatically qualified for the 1,500m finals when he posted a time of 3:42.94 in the first heat of the semifinals.

Ryan Crouser: Set a new Olympic record in the shot put to win the first individual gold medal in Texas Men's Track & Field history; posted mark of 22.52m (73-10.75) on his fifth throw of the competition; had three throws of 22 meters or better and all six were farther than 21 meters; winning

Note: Second team All-America honors were instituted by the USTFCCA in 2011.

NOTE: The 2020 NCAA Indoor Championships and 2020 NCAA Outdoor season were canceled due to the COVID-19 global pandemic. Indoor All-Americans for the 2020 season were assigned based on those who qualified for the NCAA Championships. No team designations (first or second) were assigned.

Men's Texas' All-Time Cross Country All-Americans

Texas has finished among the top 10 teams at the NCAA Cross Country Championships eight times (1956, 1986, 1990, 1991, 2005, 2006, 2012 and 2023). The Longhorns have earned back-to-back top 10 finishes twice since the program started in 1954.
