QUICK HITS

- First-year head coach Tony Graystone is in search of his first Big 12 win in the scarlet and black.
- Kansas State leads the overall series, 34-10. Texas Tech has fallen in each of the last four meetings to the Wildcats with its last win coming in 2013.
- Texas Tech has dropped six in a row after rattling off a ten match win streak that included five sweeps.
- The Red Raiders are 5-1 at home this season with the only blemish coming in their Big 12 home opener against West Virginia. Texas Tech has won 15 of 20 sets played inside the USA.
- The Red Raiders have not started 0-4 in conference play since 2013, when they picked up their first Big 12 win in their fifth league contest.
- A pair of Red Raiders are among the Big 12 leaders in their respective categories. Senior Lauren Douglass is hitting at a .389 clip, which ranks second in the conference. Sophomore libero Tita Akiu leads the conference with 315 total digs and ranks second in the conference with 4.92 digs/set.
- Aside from seniors Lauren Douglass and Marguerite Grubb, head coach Tony Graystone started all underclassmen in Texas Tech's last match at Baylor. Sophomores Tita Akiu and Katy Keenan have started every match this season, while freshmen Toni McDougald, Chandler Atwood and Maggie Sagers all got the nod against Baylor and have all earned at least three starts in the last five contests.
- The Red Raiders opened conference play shorthanded as senior Margurite Grubb, sophomore Sarah Redding and junior Ashley Morgan were all battling injury, and freshman Toni McDougald fell ill at TCU.
- With several key players missing time this season, fourteen different players have started for the Red Raiders at some point this season.
- Texas Tech has used 11 different starting lineups this season in 18 matches, and no starting lineup has started more than three matches together.
- Setter Margurite Grubb and sophomore Katy Keenan have been solid this season as Grubb ranks fifth in the conference at 10.16 assists, while Keenan is just outside the top 10 in hitting percentage at .294.
- Senior Margurite Grubb and junior Alyssa Ybanez have recorded the only double-doubles for Texas Tech this season. Grubb has two on the season (vs. SFA, at North Dakota) to give her 13 on her career, while Ybanez recorded the first of her career at Portland State.

MEDIA INFORMATION

The Texas Tech Athletics Communications office is here to serve the media throughout the 2016 Red Raider volleyball season. Media members in need of assistance can contact Ty Parker in the Athletics Communications office at (806) 928-8476.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Media members covering the Texas Tech volleyball program at the United Supermarkets Arena during the 2016 season must be issued a working credential from the Texas Tech Athletics Communications office.

- All requests for both media and photo credentials must be made either in writing or via e-mail at least a day in advance to Ty Parker, Assistant Director for Athletic Communications. (Office: (806) 834-2769; Fax: (806) 742-1970; e-mail: ty.a.parker@ttu.edu)
- Requests are honored from sports editors of daily and weekly newspapers, editors of sports periodicals, and sports directors of radio and television stations who broadcast regularly scheduled daily sports reports and talk shows.
- Credentials can be picked up in the Athletics Communications office (south end of Jones AT&T Stadium) or at will call, which is located at the United Supermarkets Arena ticket booth.

GAMEDAY SERVICES

A complete NCAA box score and pertinent game information will be distributed to members of the working media following the conclusion of the match. Game notes, statistics, and rosters are provided prior to first serve in the USA media room. A pregame meal is also served in the media room approximately 45 minutes prior to first serve.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photographers are permitted to shoot in approved areas at the United Supermarkets Arena. All photographers must be issued a working credential by the Athletics Communications office to gain access to the court level of the facility.

RADIO BROADCASTS

Media row at the United Spirit Arena is equipped with both ISDN and phone lines for radio crews wanting to broadcast Texas Tech matches. For information on the ISDN and phone lines, please contact Ty Parker in the Athletics Communications office.

VIDEO HIGHLIGHTS/NEWS CONFERENCES

Video from news conferences and games will be available to the media via FTP. Broadcast quality video footage (game highlights, post-practice interviews, post-game interviews, etc) are available at www.ttumedia.com. Please contact the athletics communications office for login instructions.

LIVE TELEVISION

Television stations are welcome to conduct live interviews from the United Spirit Arena as the facility can easily accommodate network game coverage. Live interviews will be conducted near the home tunnel on the north side of the court. Please notify Ty Parker at least 24 hours in advance for live television setup.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

Players and coaches are available for interviews every day prior to the start of practice. Practice times vary from week to week, so media members wishing to attend should contact Ty Parker in the Athletics Communications office to get a weekly schedule.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Texas Tech players and head coach Tony Graystone will be made available to the media on the court of the United Spirit Arena following a brief cooling off period. The Texas Tech locker room will remain closed.

PLAYER TO WATCH: LAUREN DOUGLASS

Senior Lauren Douglass has arguably been one of the most dominant players in Texas Tech history at the middle blocker position. The Flower Mound native set the school with a single-season hitting percentage of .377 last year, while also leading the team in kills and blocks. She is on pace for an even better 2016 clip.

INSIDE THE SERIES

Texas Tech trails the all-time series with Kansas State, 10-34, after dropping each of the last four contests to the Wildcats, including a pair of sweeps last season. The Red Raiders' last win came in 2013 when Texas Tech earned a 3-1 home win. Texas Tech also earned a split against the Wildcats in 2012. The Red Raiders are 7-13 overall against the Wildcats at United Supermarkets Arena. The series, which dates back to 1982, features four matches prior to the formation of the Big 12 with the two schools splitting the matchups, 2-2.

AMONG THE BIG 12'S BEST

A pair of Red Raiders rank among the best in the Big 12 for their position. Senior Lauren Douglass is second in the conference in hitting percentage (.398), a clip which ranks 32nd nationally. Sophomore Tita Akiu leads the conference in total digs (315) and is second in the conference in digs/set (4.92). Her 315 digs place her on the cusp of the top 30 nationally. Likewise, senior setter Marguerite Grubb is one of five players in the Big 12 averaging double-digit assists/set (10.16).

HOME COURT ADVANTAGE

Texas Tech is 5-1 in home matches this year with its only blemish coming in its Big 12 home opener against West Virginia. The Red Raiders started their home slate 5-0 with a win over UTEP in the practice gym, before going 4-0 in the Texas Tech Invitational. Overall, Texas Tech has won 15 of 20 sets played inside United Supermarkets Arena this season.

DOUBLE THREAT

While sophomore libero Tita Akiu receives much of the praise defensively, senior Lauren Douglass has once again proven to be a force at the net. Along with her dominance on the attack, the veteran is averaging 1.19 blocks/set to rank fourth in the Big 12, while her 76.0 total blocks rank third in the Big 12 and 37th in the nation. Among the top 10 block leaders in the Big 12, Douglass's .389 hitting percentage ranks as the league's best.

YOUTH MOVEMENT

Aside from seniors Lauren Douglass and Marguerite Grubb, head coach Tony Graystone started all underclassmen in Texas Tech's last match at Baylor. Sophomores Tita Akiu and Katy Keenan have started every match this season, while freshmen Toni McDougald, Chandler Atwood and Maggie Sagers have all started in at least three of the last five contests. Atwood (2.37) and McDougald (2.31) rank second and third on the team in kills, respectively, while Keenan ranks second on the team in hitting percentage (.294) and Sagers leads the team with 0.25 services aces/set, which ranks 10th in the conference.

SET UP ARTIST

In 2015, Marguerite Grubb put up 1,007 assists, becoming the first Red Raider to record 1,000+ assists in a single season since Emily Ruetter in 2013. She cracked the school's all-time top 10 list in assists in the Red Raider's first match of 2016, compiling 52 assists against Colorado. The senior has dished out 589 assists in 17 matches this season and ranks fifth in the conference with 10.16 assists/set. Overall, she is inching closer towards the eighth spot on the school's all-time assists list with 2,254, just 85 away from the next slot.

DURING THE WIN STREAK

Over the course of its 10-match win streak, Texas Tech earned five sweeps along the way, including three in the course of a week against North Dakota, UTEP and Abilene Christian. The Red Raiders held its opponents to a hitting percentage of below .200 in all but one match during the run, twice holding foes to under .100.

ON POINT

Texas Tech hit .507 (42-6-71) in a sweep of Abilene Christian, marking the first time since the 1998 season the Red Raiders have hit over .500 in a single match. The .507 hitting percentage matched the fourth-highest hitting percentage in school history and is the highest offensive output in the Big 12 this season.

IN THE RECORD BOOK

Seniors Marguerite Grubb and Lauren Douglas didn't waste any time planting themselves in the Texas Tech record book this season. In the Red Raider's first match of 2016, Grubb compiled 52 assists to crack the school's all-time top 10 list in assists. Douglas made a mark of her own in a win against Portland State, powering her way to 17 kills with a .773 hitting percentage, a clip that ranks as her career-best and sixth all-time in a single match in the Texas Tech record books.

YOUNG PASSERS

Sophomores Reyn Akiu and Katelyn Bryant and freshman Maggie Sagers have stepped in at the libero/defensive specialist position, providing solid play in the back line. Akiu has consistently been one of the Big 12's top performers with a conference-leading 315 digs and ranks second in the Big 12 with 4.92 digs/set. Bryant and Sagers have split time at the position, combining for 226 digs this season while another freshman, Kylie Rittmann has contributed 45 in four starts.

OUTSIDES & RIGHT SIDES

A strong mix of veterans and newcomers complete the outside hitter/right side position for the Red Raiders. Juniors Victoria Hinneburg, Audrey Fragniere and Alyssa Ybanez make up the oldest group of returnees and have been known to pack quite a punch on the attack. The trio combined for 265 kills and 84 blocks in 2015. Ybanez was the star of the Red & Black scrimmage on Aug. 20, tallying 17 kills. Last season, they were flanked by Sarah Redding, who posted a strong freshman season with 173 kills, averaging 2.22 per set. Joining them are freshmen Chandler Atwood, Hannah Henriksen and Toni McDougald, while junior Courtney Ensich returns to the program after not playing last season.

ATTACK ATTACK

The Red Raiders racked up 1,308 kills during the 2015 season, with 931 of those kills back and ready to go for 2016. Tech returns four of their top five attackers from last year in Lauren Douglass (280), Sarah Redding (173), Katy Keenan (128) and Victoria Hinneburg (122). The Red Raiders tallied 15 more kills than their opponents last season, averaging 13.3 per set for an overall hitting percentage of .209.

CONTINUING THE TREND

In each of the last six years, a Red Raiders has cracked the top 10 in single-season digs at Texas Tech. In 2010, Tori Vaughn put up 409 digs, but was knocked out by Eric Ruegg in 2011 with 419 digs. The next three years were dominated by Rachel Brummitt, who set the school record in 2012 (510) and 2013 (604), then posted 510 digs in her 2014 senior season. Those three years also catapulted her to the Texas Tech career digs record with 1,624. Last year, Carlie Foust notched 491 digs, which ranked fourth on the list. Who continues that trend in 2016?

2015 QUICK HITTER

The Red Raiders finished the 2015 season with a 14-4-5 overall record and captured the program's first Big 12 Championship. Tech also advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the fourth consecutive season. In January, two Red Raiders were drafted in the 2016 National Women's Soccer League (NWSL) College Draft, as Janine Beckie went eighth overall to the Houston Dash, followed by Alli Murphy to the Washington Spirit with the 20th pick. With the selections, Texas Tech became one of four college programs in the nation to have multiple picks in the first two rounds. Tech was the only Big 12 school to have a player drafted in the top 10 for the second-straight season and the only school in Texas in the last two years to have a player drafted in consecutive seasons. Beckie also represented Canada in the 2016 Olympic Games, tallying three goals, including the fastest goal ever scored in a women's Olympic soccer match, coming 21 seconds into their opening match against Australia.

HEAD COACH

@TonyGraystone

TONY GRAYSTONE

18th Season Overall • 1st Season at Texas Tech • University of Louisville '96

Entering his first season at Tech, Tony Graystone has a solid mixture of great newcomers and established veterans

Tony Graystone was named the head coach of Texas Tech volleyball on Thursday, Jan. 21, 2016. Graystone arrives at Texas Tech after serving seven seasons as the head volleyball coach at Texas A&M-Corpus Christi.

"Tony Graystone is a proven winner and a respectful leader and coach with tremendous ties to the state of Texas, specifically in West Texas," Texas Tech Director of Athletics Kirby Hocutt said. "We are so thrilled to welcome him, along with Lauren, Drew and Dylan to the Texas Tech Athletics family."

In seven seasons at Texas A&M-Corpus Christi, Graystone turned the Islanders into one of the premier volleyball programs in the Southland Conference. Last season, the Islanders put together their best season in program history, finishing 31-5 overall, with a spotless 16-0 conference mark. It was also the first NCAA Tournament berth for the Islanders, who faced Texas A&M in first round play. Their win total was the best in school history and was one win short of the winningest season by any Southland program.

Graystone's squads have recorded 20 or more wins in three of the last four seasons, finishing one victory shy of that mark in 2014. He improved his team's win total in each of his first four seasons on the Island, culminating with the 2013 season, which was a historic season for the Islanders. The team finished with a 20-12 record, including a then school-best 13-5 record in Southland Conference play. The Islanders also made history by advancing to the semifinals of the conference tournament for the first time.

"This is a very special day for me and my family," Graystone said. "Lubbock is definitely home for us and there's no place we'd rather be than at Texas Tech. I am looking forward to meeting the team and getting started on the court as soon as possible. We all know the challenges ahead of us to improve the program and take positive steps in the Big 12. But I know I'm starting with a group of talented, committed players and together we will make it happen."

In the last four years, Graystone has collected a 91-44 record, including a 52-16 record in Southland play. In 2015, the Islanders made their fourth consecutive appearance and fifth overall trip to the Southland Tournament. For the second-straight year, the Islanders advanced to the semifinals while finishing with a 19-16 record, including an 11-5 record in conference play.

The squad set a school record in 2012 with a 21-11 mark. The Islanders won 12 Southland matches and finished third in the conference, both first-time accomplishments for Texas A&M-Corpus Christi. Since Graystone took over the program, the Islanders have improved their national RPI by 235 spots, making them the most improved NCAA Division I team in the country over that time.

Prior to coming to the Island, Graystone spent 10 seasons as the head coach at West Texas A&M in Canyon, where he posted a 315-61 record and became the all-time winningest coach in program history. His .837 winning percentage was the third-highest among active NCAA Division II head coaches and he reached 300 victories faster than any other coach in the division's history. He reached 100 wins in 106 matches making him the quickest coach at the time in any NCAA sport or division to reach the century mark in wins. He was named the Lone Star Conference Coach of the Year five times and the AVCA Southwest Region Coach of the Year on four occasions.

At West Texas A&M, he guided the Lady Buffs to five NCAA Regional appearances and eight Lone Star Conference crowns in 10 seasons. He mentored 16 All-Americans and one Division II National Player of the Year in 1999. His 2001 team was ranked No. 1 for seven weeks, while his 2002 team held the top spot for five weeks. In 2003, his team set an NCAA standard with 77 conference wins in a row.

Before becoming the head coach, Graystone was an assistant coach for the Lady Buffs and was part of a coaching staff that won the NCAA Division II Championship in 1997. He also served as the program director for the Amarillo Junior Olympic Volleyball Club. He began his career as a head coach at Waggoner and Ballard High Schools in Louisville, Kentucky.

Graystone earned an M.S. in exercise physiology from the University of Louisville in 1996 after graduating with a B.S. in Health Sciences with an emphasis in exercise science from Grand Valley State (Mich.) in 1992.

He and his wife Lauren, a native of Whitharral, Texas, have two sons, Drew and Dylan.
