QUICK HITS

- A week after opening its season in Portland, Ore., Texas Tech volleyball hits the road again for three matches in North Dakota Sept. 2-3.
- Texas Tech defeated South Dakota State last season, 3-0, in the two teams' only previous matchup. Tech will take on NDSU and UND for the first time in program history.
- Head coach Tony Graystone earned his first win in scarlet & black last Saturday, knocking off Portland State 3-1 in the Red Raiders' final match of the Portland State Tournament in Portland, Ore. Texas Tech wracked up 59 kills in the four-set win over the Vikings.
- Senior Lauren Douglass, a 2016 Preseason All-Big 12 Team selection, recorded a .773 hitting percentage on 17 kills in the win against the Vikings. Her clip was a career-best and ranks sixth all-time in a single match in the Texas Tech record books.
- Junior Alyssa Ybanez knotted a double-double against Portland State with 13 kills and 10 digs.
- Tech dropped a five-set heartbreaker to Colorado and a tough 3-1 match to Long Beach State in its first two matches of the season on Friday.
- Senior Marguerite Grubb cracked the school's all-time top 10 list in assists with 52 in the Tech's opening match against Colorado. Her current assist total of 1,777 ranks 10th overall, just 562 assists behind ninth place.
- Three of the Red Raiders' seven freshmen saw time during the opening weekend, while five sophomores also contributed.

MEDIA INFORMATION

The Texas Tech Athletics Communications office is here to serve the media throughout the 2016 Red Raider volleyball season. Media members in need of assistance can contact Ty Parker in the Athletics Communications office at (806) 928-8476.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Media members covering the Texas Tech volleyball program at the United Supermarkets Arena during the 2016 season must be issued a working credential from the Texas Tech Athletics Communications office.
• All requests for both media and photo credentials must be made either in writing or via e-mail at least a day in advance to Ty Parker, Assistant Director for Athletic Communications. (Fax: (806) 742-1970; e-mail: ty.a.parker@ttu.edu)
• Requests are honored from sports editors of daily and weekly newspapers, editors of sports periodicals, and sports directors of radio and television stations who broadcast regularly scheduled daily sports reports and talk shows.
• Credentials can be picked up in the Athletics Communications office (south end of Jones AT&T Stadium) or at will call, which is located at the United Supermarkets Arena ticket booth.

GAMEDAY SERVICES

A complete NCAA box score and pertinent game information will be distributed to members of the working media following the conclusion of the match. Game notes, statistics, and rosters are provided prior to first pitch in the Jack Dale Media Room. A pregame meal is also served in the media room approximately 45 minutes prior to first serve.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photographers are permitted to shoot in approved areas at the United Supermarkets Arena. All photographers must be issued a working credential by the Athletics Communications office to gain access to the court level of the facility.

RADIO BROADCASTS

Media row at the United Spirit Arena is equipped with both ISDN and phone lines for radio crews wanting to broadcast Texas Tech matches. For information on the ISDN and phone lines, please contact Ty Parker in the Athletics Communications office.

VIDEO HIGHLIGHTS/NEWS CONFERENCES

Video from news conferences and games will be available to the media via FTP. Broadcast quality video footage (game highlights, post-practice interviews, post-game interviews, etc) are available at www.ttumedia.com. Please contact the athletics communications office for login instructions.

LIVE TELEVISION

Television stations are welcome to conduct live interviews from the United Spirit Arena as the facility can easily accommodate network game coverage. Live interviews will be conducted near the home tunnel on the north side of the court. Please notify Ty Parker at least 24 hours in advance for live television setup.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

Players and coaches are available for interviews every day prior to the start of practice. Practice times vary from week to week, so media members wishing to attend should contact Ty Parker in the Athletics Communications office to get a weekly schedule.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Texas Tech players and head coach Tony Graystone will be made available to the media in the United Spirit Arena press conference room following a brief cooling off period. The Texas Tech locker room will remain closed.

PLAYER TO WATCH: LAUREN DOUGLASS

Senior Lauren Douglass has arguably been one of the most dominant players in Texas Tech history at the middle blocker position. The Flower Mound native set the school with a single-season hitting percentage of .377, while also leading the team last year in kills and blocks.

ALL-TIME HISTORY

It'll be the second meeting between the Red Raiders and South Dakota State with both meetings occurring on a neutral court. The two programs squared off last season with Tech picking up a 3-0 victory on Sept. 5, 2015. The Red Raiders' matchups with North Dakota State and North Dakota will mark the first meeting with the two squads in program history.

IN THE RECORD BOOK

Seniors Marguerite Grubb and Lauren Douglas didn't waste any time planting themselves in the Texas Tech record book this season. In the Red Raider's first match of 2016, Grubb compiled 52 assists to crack the school's all-time top 10 list in assists. Douglas made a mark of her own in Saturday's win against Portland State, powering her way to 17 kills with a .773 hitting percentage, a clip that ranks as her career-best and sixth all-time in a single match in the Texas Tech record books.

FORCE IN THE MIDDLE

Leading the pack in the middle for the Red Raiders is two-time All-Big 12 honoree and All-Southwest Region award winner Lauren Douglass, who returns for her final year in the scarlet & black. Douglass racked up a team-high 280 kills in 2015, averaging 2.95 per set. Not only did she have the most kills, but she was extremely efficient with her swings, rattling off a school-record hitting percentage of .377. She also led the team in blocks with 89. Sophomore Katy Keenan also put together a strong 2015, putting down 128 kills, while also adding 46 blocks. Freshman Taylor Martinez joins a strong core of Red Raider middles poised for a big 2016.

BALANCED DISH

In 2015, Marguerite Grubb put up 1,007 assists, becoming the first Red Raider to record 1,000+ assists in a single season since Emily Ruetter in 2013. Two new setters join the Red Raiders this season: Kyndal Cowan, a sophomore transfer from Oklahoma, and Sophia Canales, a freshman from San Antonio.

YOUNG PASSERS

At the libero/defensive specialist position, the Red Raiders are young, with three freshmen and two sophomores set to compete at the position this season. However, the two sophomores, Reyn Akiu and Katelyn Bryant, saw action in 30 and 20 matches in 2015, respectively. Akiu tallied 166 digs and 30 assists last season, while Bryant put up 47 digs and six assists. New to Texas Tech this year includes freshmen Eighthmy Dobbins, Kylie Rittimann and Maggie Sagers, who are sure to see action during the non-conference slate.

OUTSIDES & RIGHT SIDES

A strong mix of veterans and newcomers complete the outside hitter/right side position for the Red Raiders. Juniors Victoria Hinneburg, Audrey Fragniere and Alyssa Ybanez make up the oldest group of returnees and have been known to pack quite a punch on the attack. The trio combined for 265 kills and 84 blocks in 2015. Ybanez was the star of the Red & Black scrimmage on Aug. 20, tallying 17 kills. Last season, they were flanked by Sarah Redding, who posted a strong freshman season with 173 kills, averaging 2.22 per set. Joining them are freshmen Chandler Atwood, Hannah Henriksen and Toni McDougald, while junior Courtney Enschr returns to the program after not playing last season.

ATTACK ATTACK

The Red Raiders racked up 1,308 kills during the 2015 season, with 931 of those kills back and ready to go for 2016. Tech returns four of their top five attackers from last year in Lauren Douglass (280), Sarah Redding (173), Katy Keenan (128) and Victoria Hinneburg (122). The Red Raiders tallied 15 more kills than their opponents last season, averaging 13.3 per set for an overall hitting percentage of .209.

CONTINUING THE TREND

In each of the last six years, a Red Raiders has cracked the top 10 in single-season digs at Texas Tech. In 2010, Tori Vaughn put up 409 digs, but was knocked out by Eric Ruegg in 2011 with 419 digs. The next three years were dominated by Rachel Brummitt, who set the school record in 2012 (510) and 2013 (604), then posted 510 digs in her 2014 senior season. Those three years also catapulted her to the Texas Tech career digs record with 1,624. Last year, Carlie Foust notched 491 digs, which ranked fourth on the list. Who continues that trend in 2016?

HEAD COACH

@TonyGraystone

TONY GRAYSTONE

18th Season Overall • 1st Season at Texas Tech • University of Louisville '96

Entering his first season at Tech, Tony Graystone has a solid mixture of great newcomers and established veterans

Tony Graystone was named the head coach of Texas Tech volleyball on Thursday, Jan. 21, 2016. Graystone arrives at Texas Tech after serving seven seasons as the head volleyball coach at Texas A&M-Corpus Christi.

“Tony Graystone is a proven winner and a respectful leader and coach with tremendous ties to the state of Texas, specifically in West Texas,” Texas Tech Director of Athletics Kirby Hocutt said. “We are so thrilled to welcome him, along with Lauren, Drew and Dylan to the Texas Tech Athletics family.”

In seven seasons at Texas A&M-Corpus Christi, Graystone turned the Islanders into one of the premier volleyball programs in the Southland Conference. Last season, the Islanders put together their best season in program history, finishing 31-5 overall, with a spotless 16-0 conference mark. It was also the first NCAA Tournament berth for the Islanders, who faced Texas A&M in first round play. Their win total was the best in school history and was one win short of the winningest season by any Southland program.

Graystone’s squads have recorded 20 or more wins in three of the last four seasons, finishing one victory shy of that mark in 2014. He improved his team’s win total in each of his first four seasons on the Island, culminating with the 2013 season, which was a historic season for the Islanders. The team finished with a 20-12 record, including a then school-best 13-5 record in Southland Conference play. The Islanders also made history by advancing to the semifinals of the conference tournament for the first time.

“This is a very special day for me and my family,” Graystone said. “Lubbock is definitely home for us and there’s no place we’d rather be than at Texas Tech. I am looking forward to meeting the team and getting started on the court as soon as possible. We all know the challenges ahead of us to improve the program and take positive steps in the Big 12. But I know I’m starting with a group of talented, committed players and together we will make it happen.”

In the last four years, Graystone has collected a 91-44 record, including a 52-16 record in Southland play. In 2015, the Islanders made their fourth consecutive appearance and fifth overall trip to the Southland Tournament. For the second-straight year, the Islanders advanced to the semifinals while finishing with a 19-16 record, including an 11-5 record in conference play.

The squad set a school record in 2012 with a 21-11 mark. The Islanders won 12 Southland matches and finished third in the conference, both first-time accomplishments for Texas A&M-Corpus Christi. Since Graystone took over the program, the Islanders have improved their national RPI by 235 spots, making them the most improved NCAA Division I team in the country over that time.

Prior to coming to the Island, Graystone spent 10 seasons as the head coach at West Texas A&M in Canyon, where he posted a 315-61 record and became the all-time winningest coach in program history. His .837 winning percentage was the third-highest among active NCAA Division II head coaches and he reached 300 victories faster than any other coach in the division’s history. He reached 100 wins in 106 matches making him the quickest coach at the time in any NCAA sport or division to reach the century mark in wins. He was named the Lone Star Conference Coach of the Year five times and the AVCA Southwest Region Coach of the Year on four occasions.

At West Texas A&M, he guided the Lady Buffs to five NCAA Regional appearances and eight Lone Star Conference crowns in 10 seasons. He mentored 16 All-Americans and one Division II National Player of the Year in 1999. His 2001 team was ranked No. 1 for seven weeks, while his 2002 team held the top spot for five weeks. In 2003, his team set an NCAA standard with 77 conference wins in a row.

Before becoming the head coach, Graystone was an assistant coach for the Lady Buffs and was part of a coaching staff that won the NCAA Division II Championship in 1997. He also served as the program director for the Amarillo Junior Olympic Volleyball Club. He began his career as a head coach at Waggoner and Ballard High Schools in Louisville, Kentucky.

Graystone earned an M.S. in exercise physiology from the University of Louisville in 1996 after graduating with a B.S. in Health Sciences with an emphasis in exercise science from Grand Valley State (Mich.) in 1992.

He and his wife Lauren, a native of Whitharral, Texas, have two sons, Drew and Dylan.
