QUICK KICKS

- The No. 22 Texas Tech soccer team hosts Oral Roberts on Friday, Sept. 9, at 7 p.m. at the John Walker Soccer Complex, before hitting the road for the first time in the regular season to Boone, North Carolina, as they square off with Appalachian State on Sunday, Sept. 11, at noon.
- Friday's contest will wrap up Tech's seven-match homestand to start the 2016 season. Since Stone's arrival in Lubbock, the Red Raiders have amassed an incredible 66-21-4 record at the John Walker Soccer Complex. This is his 10th season at the helm of the Texas Tech soccer program. Sunday's match will start a four-game road swing to App. State, followed by a trip to California to face Loyola Marymount (Sept. 16) and San Diego State (Sept. 18), before opening conference play at Kansas on Sept. 23.
- The Red Raiders dropped to No. 22 in the latest National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) poll. However, it's the 18th consecutive week Tech has been inside the top 25 of the rankings.
- Texas Tech is 6-3 all-time against the Golden Eagles, with a spotless 3-0 record under head coach Tom Stone. In those three matchups, the Red Raiders have outscored ORU, 10-0, including a 5-0 victory in their last meeting in 2014. Along with it being the first meeting between the two programs, it will also be the first time the Mountaineers have played a member of the Big 12 Conference.

WHO TO WATCH

JADE KING
5-1 • F • FR

Freshman Jade King has logged a goal or assist in four of the last five matches. On Sunday, she tallied the first goal of the match against ACU. Along with being the Big 12 freshman leader in goals, she also leads the entire league and is No. 2 in the NCAA in shots per game.

REBEKAH O'BRIEN
5-6 • D • JR

Junior Rebekah O'Brien logged all 90 minutes in each contest last weekend, providing another crucial assist on Cassie Boren's game-winner on Sunday. It was her second assist of the season, bringing her point total to four in 2016.

JORDIE HARR
5-2 • MF • FR

Freshman Jordie Harr racked up another assist as well, feeding sophomore forward Gwennie Puente, who scored the third goal in Tech's 3-1 win over Abilene Christian. Her two assists tie for the team lead, while her two scores are second for Tech.

LAUREN WATSON
5-10 • GK • SR

Senior Lauren Watson sits 7.5 shutouts away from the top spot in the school's all-time record books for career shutouts with 21.5. She's tallied a league-high 23 saves, averaging 3.83 per game, with two shutouts this season.

WEEK 3 WRAP

Last weekend, the Red Raiders (4-1-1) suffered their first loss of the season to No. 19 Cal, 4-0, on Friday, Sept. 2. Tech got back in the win column on Sunday, Sept. 4, after recording a 3-1 victory over Abilene Christian. Freshman forward Jade King kicked off the scoring for the Red Raiders in the ninth minute on Sunday, as she maneuvered around her defender and buried her third goal of the season in the top-right corner of the net. Nine minutes later, Tech would score again, this time from sophomore defender Cassie Boren after receiving a feed junior defender Rebekah O'Brien for Boren's first career tally. Immediately after halftime, freshman midfielder Jordie Harr located sophomore forward Gwennie Puente, who slotted the keeper and notched her first score of 2016.

ALL-TIME HISTORY

Texas Tech is 6-3 all-time against the Golden Eagles, with a spotless 3-0 record under head coach Tom Stone. In those three matchups, the Red Raiders have outscored ORU, 10-0, including a 5-0 victory in their last meeting in 2014. Along with it being the first meeting between the two programs, it will also be the first time the Mountaineers have played a member of the Big 12 Conference.

18 AND COUNTING

The Red Raiders dropped a few spots to No. 22 in this week's National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) poll, which was released on Sept. 6. It marks 18 consecutive weeks Tech has appeared in the top 25 of the rankings. The Red Raiders debuted at No. 19 in the preseason poll on Aug. 2, and were ranked 16th and 15th in each of the last two rankings releases. Two of Tech's opponents also appear in the latest poll, with two others receiving votes.

-7.5

Tech's 2-0 shutout victory over Northeastern on Aug. 28 moved senior goalkeeper Lauren Watson's career shutout total to 21.5. Already sitting in second place in the all-time records at Texas Tech in career shutouts, she is now 7.5 behind school record holder Victoria Esson for the lead in the category.

TEXAS TECH CAREER SHUTOUTS

Name	Total
1. Victoria Esson (2011-13)	29
2. Lauren Watson (2013-Pres)	21.5
3. Tina Rincon (2004-08)	13

BUILDING A WALL

Watson entered the season with 168 career saves, needing only seven to move into No. 5 on the career saves list at Texas Tech. After recording nine against Arizona and two more in the win over Northeastern, along with her four in the opening weekend, she took sole possession of the fifth spot in the standings with 183. Watson added eight more last weekend, giving her a total of 191 so far this season. She is now 22 saves away from Victoria Esson in fourth at 213.

TEXAS TECH CAREER SAVES

Name	Total
1. Brittney Peese (1998-01)	329
2. Tina Rincon (2004-08)	305

4. Victoria Esson (2011-13)	213
5. Lauren Watson (2013-Pres)	191
6. Beth Lippert (2003-05)	175

CAREER FIRSTS

Six Red Raiders have notched their first career goals during the 2016 season. Last weekend, Cassie Boren became No. 6 when she tallied the game-winner in the 18th minute against Abilene Christian on Sunday after a feed from junior defender Rebekah O'Brien. While three are freshman, the other half have come from two juniors (Rebekah O'Brien & Natalie Schmutz) and a sophomore (Boren).

YOUNG FIREPOWER

Texas Tech freshmen have put up six of the team's 10 goals this season. Three have come from the team-leader in goals, forward Jade King, while midfielder Jordie Harr and redshirt freshman defender Gabbie Puente have posted two and one scores, respectively, in 2016.

WALKER MAGIC

Since Stone's arrival in Lubbock, the Red Raiders have amassed an incredible 66-21-4 record at the John Walker Soccer Complex. Texas Tech has won their home opener in 11-straight seasons, dating back to 2006. During that stretch, Tech has outscored opponents 36-4 in home openers.

RED RAIDERS TOP BIG 12 IN WINS SINCE 2012

Winning has pretty much become second nature for the Red Raiders the past four seasons under Tom Stone. During that stretch, Texas Tech has recorded 66 victories and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Championship in each of the past four seasons. This is the winningest stretch for the Red Raiders in school history, as Tech won 16 matches in 2012 and then followed up with a school-record 18 victories in 2013. The Red Raiders then posted a 16 win season in 2014. That success has made Tech one of the most successful Big 12 programs the past four seasons.

KING'S KINGDOM

Freshman forward Jade King is a threat to put a ball in the back of the net every time she touches the ball. Last weekend, she notched her team-high third goal of the season nine minutes into the match against Abilene Christian. Not only do her shots per game (6.17) and shots on goal per game (2.67) lead the Big 12, but are also top 15 in the nation, checking in at No. 2 and No. 14, respectively.

AWARD SEASON

It didn't take long for Texas Tech soccer to receive its first award of the 2016 season. After a two-goal performance in the opening weekend, freshman midfielder Jordie Harr was named Big 12 Freshman of the Week on Aug. 23. It is the first newcomer recognition for the Red Raiders since Oct. 21, 2014 and is the 10th overall award for a member of the program.

PRESEASON RECOGNITION

The Red Raiders were picked to finish second in the 2016 Big 12 standings, as part of the preseason poll that was voted on by the league coaches. It is the fourth consecutive season Tech has been projected to finish second in the conference, which had five of the nine teams ranked nationally, or receiving votes, throughout the season. Senior Goalkeeper Lauren Watson was named to the 2016 Preseason All-Big 12 Soccer team. She was also rated as the No. 7 player in the conference and No. 85 in the nation by TopDrawerSoccer.com.

2015 QUICK HITTER

The Red Raiders finished the 2015 season with a 14-4-5 overall record and captured the program's first Big 12 Championship. Tech also advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the fourth consecutive season. In January, two Red Raiders were drafted in the 2016 National Women's Soccer League (NWSL) College Draft, as Janine Beckie went eighth overall to the Houston Dash, followed by Alli Murphy to the Washington Spirit with the 20th pick. With the selections, Texas Tech became one of four college programs in the nation to have multiple picks in the first two rounds. Tech was the only Big 12 school to have a player drafted in the top 10 for the second-straight season and the only school in Texas in the last two years to have a player drafted in consecutive seasons. Beckie also represented Canada in the 2016 Olympic Games, tallying three goals, including the fastest goal ever scored in a women's Olympic soccer match, coming 21 seconds into their opening match against Australia.

LUBBOCK, Texas – The No. 19 Texas Tech soccer team kicked off the 2016 season with a 2-1 victory over New Mexico on Friday night at the John Walker Soccer Complex.

The win kept head coach Tom Stone's undefeated streak in home openers intact, improving to 10-0. It also broke the all-time series mark with the Lobos, giving Tech a 5-4-1 lead.

The Red Raiders' two scores came from freshman midfielder Jordie Harr, who found the back of the goal in the 59th and 65th minutes of the match. Her two goals tie for the most by a Red Raider in a single match in each over the last two years.

"I think New Mexico came out and did a great job of trying to keep us from coming out of the backfield," Stone said. "Everyone knows we like to play that way and it was obvious that they spent a considerable amount of time getting that organized. Heather (Dyche) is a great coach and made it difficult on us."

After an hour and 40 minute weather delay, the Red Raiders took the field and immediately went on the offensive, as Tech earned a corner kick and freshman forward Jade King registered the first shot of the match all within the first three minutes. New Mexico would log three scoring opportunities from the eighth to the 18th minute in the first half, as senior goalkeeper Lauren Watson grabbed one of her two saves during that span.

Other than a shot in the 36th minute, that would end the offense for the Lobos in the first half. The Red Raiders put up six more shots before halftime, which were spread between King (two), Jordie Harr, Sarah Norman, Cassie Conarty and Tatum Barton.

The Red Raiders came out firing in the second half, racking up three shots from King and Gwennie Puente before finally breaking through in the 59th minute. Freshman midfielder Jordie Harr buried a free kick from 20 yards out to give Tech its first goal of the 2016 season.

Six minutes later, Harr did it again, sending the ball to the back of the net from nearly the same spot on the field to put the Red Raiders up 2-0.

"This was an unbelievable experience," Harr said. "To score two games in our first game at home was unbelievable. Our whole team worked hard in the spring and we could see it pay off tonight. In the first half, we struggled a little bit, but after our talk at halftime, we all picked it up and we got the result we wanted."

The Lobos would answer in the 70th minute as New Mexico midfielder Maddie Irwin squeaked one in to cut Tech's lead to 2-1. The Lobos would have a couple other opportunities late in the match, but couldn't get them to materialize, giving the Red Raiders their first win of the 2016 season.

"We are going to work to play much better as the season goes on," Stone added. "When you have so many new personalities on the field and they all need to find their way, you still have to win. We can say all day that we didn't play that great, but we still scored two goals and held on to win, 2-1. We are extremely excited to be off and running at 1-0."

The Red Raiders return to action on Sunday, Aug. 21, when they take on Missouri State for the first meeting ever between the two programs at 7 p.m. at the John Walker Soccer Complex.

AUG. 21 // MISSOURI STATE VS. NO. 19 TEXAS TECH

LUBBOCK, Texas – The No. 19 Texas Tech soccer team posted a 1-0 victory over Missouri State on Sunday night at John Walker Soccer Complex, improving to 2-0-0 after the first weekend of the 2016 season.

The lone goal for the Red Raiders came from freshman forward Jade King, her first of the season, in the 25th minute of the match. Her tally is the third by a freshman this year, as midfielder Jordie Harr netted two in Friday's contest vs. New Mexico.

It also marked the first shutout of the year for the Red Raiders and senior goalkeeper Lauren Watson, bringing her career total to 20.5. She ranks second all-time at Texas Tech in career saves, moving to 8.5 behind Victoria Esson in the school's record books.

"I liked the fact that Jade King, who has been scoring goals all spring and all preseason got her first goal tonight," head coach Tom Stone said. "She also came very close to getting goal two and goal three, so we're excited to see Jade rolling. She's been our most dangerous player and tonight she got the game winner in her second college game, so we're thrilled with that."

"I'm also excited that freshmen have all three of our goals. That makes us think the future is going to be very bright around here."

The first meeting between the two programs started off with a strong offensive outpour from the Red Raiders, who logged eight shots and three corner kicks in the first 22 minutes of action. Tech finally broke through in the 25th minute, after sophomore forward Gwennie Puente used her head to redirect a pass from deep in the Red Raider territory right ahead of King, who buried it past the goalkeeper to the left side of the net for the goal.

"I am so happy," King said on her scoring her first collegiate goal. "Coach Stone instills that in us every practice to go to the goal, get your shot off and score. Without scoring, we can't win. So he's invested a lot of time in the forwards so that we know what kind of shots to take, from where to shoot it and when to pass it."

The Red Raiders would have several more scoring opportunities before the break, going into halftime with 14 shots. Missouri State did not record a shot in the first frame and would not put one toward the net until the 82nd minute, when the Bears had two, both corralled by Watson.

Missouri State's two shots would be the last pair in a frame filled with 14 fouls and two yellow cards, one from MSU's Brooke Zenner in the 69th minute and the other charged to Texas Tech's Natalie Schmutz in the 76th. Tech added six shots in the second half, four on net, totaling 20 overall Sunday night.

"We've had two teams come in with the objective to slow us down," Stone said. "They've made it not necessarily harder for us to dominate the flow of play, but for us to put it away. If we had gotten goal two and goal three, it would've been over."

"But, credit Missouri State, they fought hard. We got a lot of balls at them, we out-shot them 20-to-2, but their two shots were good. Lauren Watson had to make two saves, so they deserve credit for that. They didn't play Friday night and we did, so we knew they were a fresh team. Overall, we're happy to be 2-0, but probably a little dissatisfied with our execution today."

With the first weekend in the books, the Red Raiders turn their focus toward a ranked matchup against No. 20 Arizona on Friday, Aug. 26, at 7 p.m. at the John Walker Soccer Complex. Two nights later, Tech will host Northeastern in Lubbock, which is also slated for a 7 p.m. start time.

LUBBOCK, Texas - The No. 16 Texas Tech soccer team posted a 2-2 draw with Arizona on Friday night, coming from behind twice with the help of 1,328 of the Lubbock faithful at the John Walker Soccer Complex.

The Red Raiders moved to 2-0-1 with the result, as the Wildcats now sit at 1-1-1 in 2016.

Freshman forward Jade King tallied her second goal of the season in the 65th minute, knotting the score at one. Trailing late in the match, junior defender Rebekah O'Brien went top shelf and buried the equalizer in the 89th minute for her first tally of the year.

"I've been waiting for three weeks to see what we were going to do in an environment like this and after 45 minutes, I was pretty concerned," head coach Tom Stone said. "But, after the next 45 plus overtime, there was a lot of excitement. We were able to see who's ready for this and see how they responded to being down.

"They didn't want to let the big crowd down. They were awesome tonight. This was a classic Friday night at John Walker Soccer Complex and our fans got to see one of the best teams in the PAC-12 last year that also made the sweet 16 a few years ago. They're legit and we stared them down. We would've loved to get the victory, but given the fact that we had to come back twice, we're not completely disappointed about the draw."

It marks back-to-back meetings and third overall time that the two programs have ended the match in a draw. The first was a scoreless bout in 2011, while last year's contest went finished 1-1.

The opening half saw 10 shots by the Wildcats, with senior goalkeeper Lauren Watson tallying six saves, who would finish the night with nine. However, miscommunication in the 28th minute by Watson and a defender in front of her resulted in the first goal of the night for Arizona. It was the first time the Red Raiders had trailed in a game in 2016 and would be the only score of the first frame.

In the second half, a flurry of fouls set up a free kick for O'Brien, who sent it to the middle of the box, where the ball found King, who was able to send it past the goalkeeper in the 65th minute to knot it up at one. It marked back-to-back games she's scored a goal for the Red Raider offense.

Eleven minutes later, the Wildcats would earn it back, after a header from Jade Degraice-Bailey deflected back to Cali Crisler and found its way past Watson and in the goal.

With time running out, O'Brien served up a beauty that floated just over the tip of the keeper's outstretched hands top shelf in the far corner of the net in the 89th minute, ensuring there would be overtime. It was her first goal of her Red Raider career.

"It's a pure ball-striker's goal," Stone said about O'Brien's tally. "It's on the rise all the way until it hits the net. Once it hits the keeper, if there's geography left, it's going to hit the back of the net, and she just drove it to the far post. It was a great strike."

After two 10 minute overtime periods and two scoring opportunities for Tech in the final frame, time expired, completing the first draw for the Red Raiders since Oct. 18, 2015.

Texas Tech returns to the field for game four of the seven-match homestand on Sunday, Aug. 28, squaring off with Northeastern (1-1-1) at 7 p.m. at the John Walker Soccer Complex.

AUG. 28 // NORTHEASTERN VS. NO. 16 TEXAS TECH

LUBBOCK, Texas – The No. 16 Texas Tech soccer team picked up its third victory of the season on a weather-delayed Sunday night, shutting out Northeastern, 2-0, at John Walker Soccer Complex.

The Red Raiders' (3-0-1) two goals were the first career tallies for junior forward Natalie Schmutz (61') and redshirt freshman defender Gabbie Puente (76').

"It's amazing," Schmutz said on her goal. "It's really unlike anything else to get the first one, it's kind of like a 'Finally,' kind of thing. Jordie Harr made an amazing shot and I was just happy to reward her for her hard work."

Schmutz and Puente's goals were just two of 10 shots Tech had on goal Sunday night. The Red Raiders totaled 20 shots overall, posting 10 in each half.

"I think it was a tale of two halves," head coach Tom Stone said. "They had the wind and that put a lot of pressure on us in the first half. We just made some changes in the second half: moved some people around, changed our shape and were just able to wrestle control of the game away."

"Once we did that, we felt like it was going to happen sooner or later. Jordie Harr tried to trick the keeper, it came off the crossbar and Natalie was running in like a forward is supposed to and followed it and finished it. I felt like once we scored, we would win, but that second goal from Gabbie gave us some breathing room."

For the second-straight weekend, Tech was hit with a weather delay. After an hour and 50 minutes, the two teams took the field, with the Red Raiders immediately going on the attack. Tech found themselves with two corner kicks and three shots within the first eight minutes. Northeastern would only get two shots on net during the match, both coming before halfway through the first frame, with senior goalkeeper Lauren Watson corralling both opportunities.

After halftime, Schmutz had a great opportunity with a strike from the far side of the field that bounced off the left post. However, 10 minutes later in the 61st minute, she would find the back of the net, after Harr's shot hit the crossbar and fell right in front of Schmutz, who buried it to give Tech a 1-0 lead.

"Natalie has been on a two-and-a-half year mission to earn the minutes she's getting now, which she totally deserves and she scored the game-winner," Stone said. "I don't think there's a single player on the team that isn't thrilled about her success. She had to sit behind some really good players that were older than her and now that she has the chance, she's making the most of it. Natalie did that for eight years as a youth player and she was hurt a little bit once she got here. Now she's 100 percent healthy, she looks like a Ferrari and runs like one too."

The Red Raiders stayed on the offensive, earning three more corner kicks and recording several shots before Gabbie Puente notched Tech's second goal off a feed from Jade King in the 76th minute. Her goal helped seal the third victory of the season for Texas Tech and the first overall win in the all-time series between the two programs.

With their assists, Harr & King lead the team in points with five each over the four matches played in 2016. It also gave Watson shutout No. 21.5, pulling her to 7.5 away from the all-time lead for career shutouts in Texas Tech history.

Up next for the Red Raiders is a date with No. 21 California, as the Red Raiders continue their seven-match homestand at the John Walker Soccer Complex on Friday, Sept. 2, at 7 p.m.

"This is the best Cal team they've ever had," Stone said about their next opponent. "Neil [McGuire] has been around long enough to get everybody right and exactly where they want them to. They're legit. They're a PAC-12 contender and they'll push for the title, so we know we'll have our hands full there. We beat them a couple years ago when we were the more mature team and now I think we've found that they're going to be the more experienced team, so we have to be our best on Friday."

SEPT. 2 // NO. 19 CALIFORNIA VS. NO. 15 TEXAS TECH

LUBBOCK, Texas – The No. 15 Texas Tech soccer team suffered its first loss of the 2016 season to No. 19 California, 4-0, on Friday night at the John Walker Soccer Complex.

"They deserve the credit, they came out and took over the game and kept possession," head coach Tom Stone said. "They created chances. In the first half they had three shots on goal and three goals, that's a pretty tough stat to overcome, especially when they had so much of the ball. So, they had the ball and a three-goal lead, and they put our young team in an odd position that they're not used to."

It was the first time the Red Raiders (3-1-1) had lost against a ranked non-conference opponent since 2011. Texas Tech is now 5-3 all-time against ranked non-conference opponents under Tom Stone.

Cal (4-1-0) got off to a strong start on Friday, netting their first goal four minutes into the match, after Heather Walleigh found Arielle Ship, who used a header to notch her first goal of the year. The Bears would strike again the 14th minute, as Miranda Nild lifted one over senior goalkeeper Lauren Watson to take a 2-0 lead.

The Red Raiders got an offensive opportunity from freshman forward Jade King a few minutes later, but her shot sailed above the net. However, the momentum would swing back to the Bears, who after three corners, found themselves with a penalty kick thanks to a Red Raider foul in the box. Kelly Fitzgerald, who already had two goals this season, picked up her third when she made a move to the left side and found the back of the net, giving Cal a 3-0 advantage going into halftime.

Tech recorded four shots in the first frame, while California put up 10. After the break, the Red Raiders put together a string of offensive chances, with shots coming from Tatum Barton, Brooke Denesik and King, but none of the three broke through.

In the 63rd minute, the Bears would score their final tally of the night, coming shortly after a corner kick from the far side, as Emma Fletcher put one in through traffic to put Cal up, 4-0.

Even though Tech recorded 10 shots in the second half, the Bears led in the category at the end of the night, 18-to-14, with eight on goal. King finished with four shots, two on goal.

The Red Raiders return to action on Sunday, Sept. 4, as they host Abilene Christian at 1 p.m. at the John Walker Soccer Complex.

SEPT. 2 // ABILENE CHRISTIAN VS. NO. 15 TEXAS TECH

LUBBOCK, Texas – The No. 15 Texas Tech soccer team returned to the win column after recording a 3-1 win over Abilene Christian on Sunday afternoon at the John Walker Soccer Complex.

The Red Raiders (4-1-1) racked up the first three goals of the match, coming from freshman forward Jade King (9'), sophomore defender Cassie Boren (18') and sophomore forward Gwennie Puente (47'). The lone goal for the Wildcats (1-4-1) came in the 51st minute thanks to junior midfielder Leslie Snider.

"It was a good response," head coach Tom Stone said on his team's play after Friday's loss to Cal. "We knew we had to win today and with the wind, we put a lot of pressure on them to score goals and not be too complacent with the ball. We got the two in the first half, even though it came on 15 shots."

After a couple of early shots from King and fellow freshman forward Tatum Barton, the Red Raiders broke through in the ninth minute with a goal from King to go up 1-0. King found the ball on the left side of the field, danced around her defender and lifted her shot to the right corner of the net and over the goalkeeper for her third tally of the season.

Nine minutes later, junior defender Rebekah O'Brien sent a ball to the middle of the field, where Boren drove it home to give Tech a 2-0 lead. It was Boren's first goal of her Red Raider career.

Texas Tech built up 15 shots in the first half, compared to Abilene Christian's three, who did not log a shot until 33rd minute of the match. Although the Red Raiders held a two-goal lead at halftime, Stone said one of the biggest moments of the match came after the break.

"I think the key to the game was us scoring two minutes into the second half," Stone said. "We sprung Jordie Harr free in the flat zone in front of their back line and she played a great ball into Gwennie. Then, Gwennie slotted the keeper and that kind of did it for us. Now, we gave up one on the other end and that made it a little tighter down the stretch, but that third goal right out of the break probably won it for us."

Puente's marker in the 47th minute was her first of the year and fourth overall as a Red Raider.

In the 51st minute, ACU's Chloe Fifer found midfielder Leslie Snider, who sent a header to the back of the net to cut Texas Tech's lead to 3-1. However, it would be the only successful strike for the Wildcats on Sunday afternoon, as Tech would hold ACU to just three more shots through the final 39 minutes of action.

The victory moved Texas Tech to 2-0 all-time against Abilene Christian, with their first meeting in 2014 ending in a 2-0 Red Raider victory. This weekend also marked the first time the Red Raiders had competed in a Sunday midday match following a Friday night contest in 2016.

Texas Tech wraps up the seven-match homestand on Friday, Sept. 9, with a date with Oral Roberts at 7 p.m. at the John Walker Soccer Complex. The Red Raiders will then hit the road for the first regular season away contest in 2016 when they take on Appalachian State at noon in Boone, North Carolina.
