INSIDE THE HOUSTON SERIES

- Saturday will mark the 31st all-time meeting between Texas Tech and Houston. The Cougars control an 18-11-1 all-time advantage in the series that was featured primarily during the Southwest Conference.
- This will be just the third meeting between Texas Tech and Houston since the Southwest Conference closed following the 1995 season. The Red Raiders also faced Houston in a home-and-home series during the 2009-10 campaigns.
- The Red Raiders claimed a 35-20 victory in their last meeting against Houston, which came during the 2010 regular-season finale. Taylor Potts threw for 373 yards and a touchdown and rushed for 40 more yards, while the Tech defense picked off Houston three times in the win.
- Texas Tech has won six of the last seven meetings against Houston dating back to the start of the 1991 season. Tech has scored at least 25 points in each game versus the Cougars during that stretch.
- Of the 30 previous meetings between the two Southwest Conference foes, only four took place outside the month of November. This will be just the third time the two schools have met in the month of September as Tech hosted the Cougars on Sept. 13, 1990, and then traveled to Houston on Sept. 26, 2009.

COACHING TIES RUN DEEP TO UNIVERSITY OF HOUSTON

- The trip to Houston will be special for several members of the Red Raider coaching staff this weekend as head coach Kliff Kingsbury, defensive coordinator David Gibbs, offensive coordinator Eric Morris, special teams coordinator Joe Robinson and linebackers coach Zac Spavital were all previously members of the Houston football program.
- Kingsbury began his coaching career as a quality control assistant with the Cougars from 2008-09 before eventually being named the quarterbacks coach in 2010 and the Co-Offensive Coordinator in 2011 under then head coach Kevin Sumlin. While in Houston, Kingsbury helped develop one of the nation's premier passers in Case Keenum, who led the country in passing yards during both the 2009 and 2011 seasons.
- Likewise, Morris also received his first coaching position at the University of Houston as he was a quality control assistant in 2010 and a graduate assistant in 2011. He worked with Kingsbury those two seasons before accepting his first full-time position in 2012 at Washington State.
- Gibbs' most previous stop before joining the Tech coaching staff was a two-year stint as Houston's defensive coordinator in 2013-14. Gibbs built one of the nation's premier defenses during that span as the Cougars led the nation with 43 turnovers forced in 2013 and then ranked 11th nationally in scoring defense a year later. Gibbs, a veteran NFL assistant as well, served as Houston's interim head coach for the 2014 Armed Forces Bowl.
- Spavital worked alongside Gibbs at Houston as part of a seven-year tenure on the Cougar coaching staff. Spavital was the defensive backs coach for all seven seasons, four of which (2011-14) were spent as the program's recruiting coordinator as well.
- Robinson spent the 2002 season at Houston as the Cougars' special teams coach. Robinson is in his second season leading the Tech special teams units as he arrived in Lubbock following three years in a similar role at South Carolina.

ON THIS DATE IN TEXAS TECH HISTORY

- Saturday will mark just the second time over the last 30 years where Texas Tech has had a game fall on Sept. 23. The Red Raiders last played on the date in 2006, which resulted in a 62-0 rout of Southeastern Louisiana.
- Overall, the Red Raiders are 3-4 all-time on Sept. 23 with each win coming in the last three times Tech has played on the date.

LAST MEETING - NOV. 17, 2010

HOUSTON	10	3	0	7	-	20
TEXAS TECH	14	7	7	7	-	35

Jones AT&T Stadium | Lubbock, Texas | 7 p.m. CT | FOX Sports Net | Attendance: 53,461

■ Texas Tech head coach Kliff Kingsbury was Houston's quarterbacks coach the last time the Red Raiders faced Houston which came late in the 2010 season.

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) - Taylor Potts threw for 373 yards and four touchdowns to lead Texas Tech over Houston 35-20 on Saturday night.

Potts completed 32 of 46 passes with an interception for the Red Raiders (7-5).

Texas Tech kept the Cougars (5-7) from becoming bowl eligible and avenged a 1-point defeat at Houston last season.

Houston moved the ball well between the 20-yard lines, but couldn't get it across the goal line enough.

The Cougars pulled within 28-20 on a 13-yard pass from David Piland to Tyron Carrier early in the fourth quarter. But Texas Tech came right back, as Potts threw a 19-yard touchdown pass to Lyle Leong to cap a 92-yard drive.

Piland, a true freshman, completed 32 of 61 passes for 441 yards, two touchdowns and three interceptions.

Houston is now 8-6 against the Red Raiders in Lubbock. Last year, Cougars quarterback Case Keenum scored on a 4-yard run with 49 seconds left to beat Texas Tech, 29-28.

The Cougars outgained the Red Raiders 585-488, but Texas Tech made more of their yards.

Potts surpassed the 3,000-yard passing mark for the season in the first quarter. Texas Tech, predominantly a passing team under former coach Mike Leach, now has had a quarterback pass for 3,000 yards in 11 straight seasons.

In the third quarter, Potts faked to running back Baron Batch and kept it for a 28-yard rush to put the Red Raiders at the 16-yard line. Two plays later, Potts found Batch on a screen pass, and he battled through two tacklers before getting into the end zone for an 8-yard touchdown to make it 28-13.

Potts found Lewis for two touchdowns in the first half. The pair connected for a 6-yard score on the Red Raiders' first possession of the game. The second touchdown pass to Lewis - a 9-yarder - came at the end of Texas Tech's first drive of the second quarter to give it a 21-10 lead.

The score came after Tech got great field position on the Houston 47 after Houston punter Richie Leone's failure to get a first down on a fake punt on fourth-and-9.

After the teams traded interceptions on successive plays in the first quarter, Houston drove to Piland's 7-yard TD pass to Johnson that put the Cougars up 10-7.

Running back Eric Stephens put Tech back in front 14-10 on a 26-yard score with 1:13 left in the first quarter.

POSTGAME NOTES

■ Senior Detron Lewis earned his first multi-TD game of the season with his two touchdowns receptions. It is the third multi-TD game of his career and Lewis finished the night with 11 catches for 135 yards.

■ Senior Lyle Leong with his touchdown catch tonight, moved into a tie for second place on the career receiving touchdown list. Leong's 17th touchdown of the season and 30th of his career, put him into a tie with Jarrett Hicks on the career list.

■ Senior wide receiver Detron Lewis hauled in a six yard touchdown pass (his fifth of the season) with 11:03 in the first quarter that gave the Red Raiders a 7-0 lead. Tech has now scored on its opening possession in three consecutive games. Lewis caught his second touchdown pass (nine yards) of the game with 12:19 remaining in the first half that gave Tech a 21-10 lead.

■ Senior linebacker Bront Bird picked up his third interception of the season on Houston's second offensive drive of the game. Bird entered his senior season without a single interception in his first three seasons as a Red Raider.

■ Sophomore safety Cody Davis picked up his first career interception with nine minutes remaining in the third quarter. The interception was the 13th by the Tech defense this season.

■ Junior punter/kicker Donnie Carona booted a 63-yard punt late in the third quarter which marked the longest of the season for the Red Raiders. The punt was two yards longer than Jonathan LaCour's 61-yard punt in the season opener against SMU.

KINGSBURY, APPLEWHITE MEET FOR FIRST TIME AS HEAD COACHES

■ This won't be the first between the two head coaches in Saturday's game as Kliff Kingsbury and Major Applewhite faced each other three times during their playing career at Tech and the University of Texas. Kingsbury and Applewhite both saw action during the 2000 meeting between the two schools as Kingsbury threw for 282 yards and a touchdown while Applewhite had 164 yards through the air in a 29-17 victory by Texas.

RED RAIDERS RETURN TO HOUSTON IN 2018 AS WELL

■ Following this weekend's trip, Texas Tech will return to Houston in 2018 as well as part of the AdvoCare Texas Kickoff. The Red Raiders will face Ole Miss at NRG Stadium, which will mark Tech's third trip to the city of Houston over a four-year span. Tech was also in Houston for the 2015 AdvoCare V100 Texas Bowl that set a new bowl record with 71,307 fans in attendance.

RED RAIDERS PULL OFF CLOSE VICTORY OVER ARIZONA STATE

■ Texas Tech broke a 45-45 tie with Arizona State in the final minutes last Saturday as Nic Shimonek as the Red Raider offense went 90 yards to score on a Dylan Cantrell three-yard run with 1:55 remaining in the game. The 90-yard drive marked Tech's longest so far this season.

■ In addition, it marked the first time Texas Tech has had a game-winning touchdown in the final two minutes since the Red Raiders scored 10 points over the final 1:10 of regulation in a 34-31 victory over Minnesota in the 2012 Meineke Texas Bowl.

■ The win was an important one early in the season for a Red Raider program that had four of its seven losses a year ago come by eight points or less.

COUTEE BUILDING OFF STELLAR FINISH TO 2016 SEASON

■ Through two games in the 2017 season, Keke Coutee looks like the same dominating wideout that ended the 2016 campaign. The junior leads the country in receiving yards per game so far this season as he is averaging 142.5 yards through the air as part of a Texas Tech offense that leads the country in both passing offense and total offense.

■ Coutee ended the 2016 season with a career-high 221 receiving yards against Baylor and then followed with 99 yards through the air to open the season against Eastern Washington. He had 186 receiving yards this past Saturday against Arizona State. In all, over his last three games, Coutee has totaled 506 receiving yards, averaging an impressive 168.7 per game.

■ Dating back to the start of the 2000 season, Coutee's 285 receiving yards through the first two games ranks fifth among Red Raider wideouts. He trails the numbers posted by similar great Tech receivers in Darrin Moore (2011), Robert Johnson (2005), Jarrett Hicks (2004) and Michael Crabtree (2007).

■ Coutee recorded a career-high 12 catches against the Sun Devils as he went over 100 yards for the fourth time in his career.

SPECIAL TEAMS PLAY PUSHES TECH AGAINST THE SUN DEVILS

■ The Red Raiders picked up a significant play from its special teams late in the first half against Arizona State as Ja'Deion High raced up the middle and blocked a Michael Sleep-Dalton punt. Tech recovered the punt at the Arizona State 27 yard line, setting up an quick touchdown that gave the Red Raiders a 35-17 lead at the half.

■ For his efforts, High garnered Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week honors Monday afternoon, the first conference weekly award of his career. It marked the first time a Red Raider had been named the Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week since Michael Barden won the award late in the 2016 season.

■ High, who also had a tackle on kickoff coverage is the first non-kicker to win the award since Jakeem Grant received the honor twice during the 2015 season. High played on three of Tech's special teams units in the win over Arizona State.

DEFENSE CONTINUES TO MAKE STRIDES UNDER DAVID GIBBS

■ The Texas Tech defense has showed significant improvement this season under third-year coordinator David Gibbs as the Red Raiders held Eastern Washington to just 10 points in their season opener and then held off Arizona State long enough for a 52-45 victory last weekend.

■ Eastern Washington's 10 points in the season opener marked the fewest for an opponent since the Red Raiders topped Texas State, 33-7, early in the 2013 season.

■ The Red Raiders have forced four turnovers so far this season while only giving one away. Turnovers are an important emphasis from Gibbs as Texas Tech is 10-3 under head coach Kliff Kingsbury when leading the turnover margin.

■ The Red Raiders have been led by the trio of sophomore linebacker Jordyn Brooks, junior defensive back Jah'Shawn Johnson and junior linebacker Dakota Allen, who all have at least 15 tackles this season. Brooks leads the Red Raiders with a team-high 20 tackles followed by Johnson with 19 and Allen with 15.

NIC SHIMONEK

SHIMONEK ACCURATE OVER FIRST TWO STARTS

- Nic Shimonek has been nothing short of impressive over his first two starts leading the Red Raider offense as he has completed 63-of-80 passes for 927 yards and nine touchdowns.
- Through two games this season, Shimonek is completing 78.8 percent of his passes, which ranks third currently in the FBS behind Houston's Kyle Allen (86.2 percent) and UTSA's Dalton Sturm (81 percent).
- Dating back to 2000, Shimonek's 78.8 completion percentage ranks second among Texas Tech starting quarterbacks, trailing only Seth Doege's 82.1 percent through the first two games of the 2011 season.
- Since 2000, Shimonek is one of nine FBS quarterbacks to throw at least nine touchdown passes through the first two games with no interceptions. He joins Cody Hodges (2005) as the only Red Raider quarterbacks to do so during that time.
- Shimonek heads into this weekend as the nation's leader with 463.5 passing yards per game.
- During the same time period, Shimonek's 927 passing yards ranks seventh among FBS quarterbacks through just two games. Here is a listing of the top passing numbers for a FBS quarterback through the first two games of a season.

Year	Quarterback	School	Passing Yards
2016	Patrick Mahomes II	Texas Tech	1,023
2007	Colt Brennan	Hawaii	964
2016	Davis Webb	Cal	963
2013	Connor Halliday	Washington State	942
2013	Brett Smith	Wyoming	942
2013	Jared Goff	Cal	935
2017	Nic Shimonek	Texas Tech	927

SHIMONEK SHINES IN SEASON OPENER VS. E. WASHINGTON

- Shimonek completed his first 14 passes to start the game, falling just one shy of matching the Texas Tech single-game record of 15 that was set by Seth Doege at New Mexico on Sept. 17, 2011 and Taylor Potts versus Baylor on Oct. 9, 2010. He is the first Red Raider quarterback dating back to 2000 to complete the first 10 passes of a season.
- Three of Shimonek's incompletions came on his final drive leading the Red Raiders as he was 23-of-24 (95.8 percent) up until the 6:30 mark in the third quarter. Shimonek's first three passes of that drive fell incomplete but he rebounded to complete his next three attempts en route to a Justin Stockton four-yard touchdown run.
- Shimonek was nearing the Texas Tech and FBS single-game records for completion percentage up until his final drive midway through the third quarter. His 86.7 completion percentage trailed Doege's single-game school record of 90.9 percent from the 2011 game at New Mexico.

SHIMONEK JOINS LIST OF FIFTH-YEAR QUARTERBACKS

- Since 2000, Texas Tech's high-octane offense has been led by three fifth-year seniors who did not make their first career start until their final year, notably B.J. Symons (2003), Sonny Cumbie (2004) and Cody Hodges (2005). All three signal callers led the Red Raiders to at least eight wins in each of those three seasons.
- Shimonek is the first Red Raider senior quarterback to start a season opener since Seth Doege led Tech to a 44-6 rout over Northwestern State to kick off the 2012 season. Shimonek is the first senior quarterback to start a game under Kliff Kingsbury.
- Shimonek appeared in four games for the Red Raiders in 2016 as the primary backup to Patrick Mahomes II. Over Shimonek's career, he has served behind four quarterbacks who would later go on to be NFL draft picks - C.J. Beathard (Iowa), Jake Rudock (Iowa), Davis Webb (Texas Tech) and Mahomes.
- Shimonek showed his potential in the Big 12 opener against Kansas last season after Mahomes left the game with an injury early in the third quarter. Shimonek proceeded to continue Tech's offensive onslaught, finishing 15-of-21 for 271 yards and four touchdowns through the air. Three of his touchdowns went for 30 yards or longer as he found Keke Coutee on 37 and 31-yard strikes and then Jonathan Giles on a 59-yard bomb over the middle.
- Shimonek arrived at Texas Tech as a transfer walk-on from Iowa prior to the 2014 season. He redshirted the 2013 season at Iowa before deciding to transfer to Texas Tech. He saw his first career collegiate action during the 2015 season as he was inserted late in both the UTEP and Iowa State games.

NOT JUST TALENTED ON THE FIELD, EITHER

- For as gifted of a quarterback Nic Shimonek is, it's not his only talent. Early in his Texas Tech career, Shimonek operated his own business, "The Southern Pearl," which focused on furniture restoration. It was a talent he learned from his mother, Teresa Shimonek, who operated her own furniture restoration business in his hometown of Mildred, Texas.
- During the hours he had in between football practice, film work and class, Shimonek and his longtime girlfriend operated "The Southern Pearl" to help offset the cost of being a walk-on quarterback as he was previously a scholarship athlete at Iowa.
- Shimonek closed the business prior to the 2016 season when it became clear he would be the primary backup behind Patrick Mahomes II. In interviews this offseason, Shimonek said the call to close the business was so he could "prepare each week as if he was the starter."

JAH'SHAWN JOHNSON - THE TURNOVER MAKER

■ Jah'Shawn Johnson has almost become the perfect defensive back for David Gibbs' scheme. The junior covers well, is a reliable tackler and most importantly, causes plenty of turnovers. Over his career, Johnson has now been part of 17 turnovers (5 interceptions, 6 forced fumbles and 6 fumble recoveries), the most among active Red Raiders.

■ It didn't take Johnson long to create his first turnover of the season against Eastern Washington as he forced a fumble on the Eagles' first offensive play. Dating back to the end of the 2016 season, Johnson has now forced a fumble in four of his last six games.

■ Since the start of 2000, Johnson's six career forced fumbles rank fourth among Red Raiders, trailing only the totals of Dwayne Slay (8 from 2004-05), Pete Robertson (8 from 2011-15) and Brandon Williams (7 from 2006-08).

■ Johnson's five fumble recoveries, meanwhile, are tied with Keyunta Dawson (2003-06) for the most among Red Raiders dating back to the 2000 season. With nearly two full seasons left to play, Johnson needs two more fumble recoveries to tie Zach Thomas' (1992-95) school record.

■ Among active defensive players nationally, Johnson ranks fourth with six career forced fumbles. He trails the totals of Ole Miss' Marquis Haynes (9), Virginia's Micah Kiser (8), Ball State's Anthony Winbush and Arkansas State's Ja'Von Rolland-Jones (7).

RED RAIDERS NAME FIVE CAPTAINS FOR 2017

■ Texas Tech named five team captains for the 2017 season following a team vote at the conclusion of preseason practices as the Red Raiders selected senior wide receivers Cameron Batson and Dylan Cantrell as well as senior quarterback Nic Shimonek, junior linebacker Dakota Allen and junior defensive back Jah'Shawn Johnson.

■ This is the second time in Kliff Kingsbury's tenure where the Red Raiders have utilized five captains. The other year came in 2015 when Texas Tech closed the regular season at 7-5 overall and was selected for the AdvoCare V100 Texas Bowl.

RED RAIDERS TOP SUN DEVILS AFTER EARLY BYE WEEK

■ Texas Tech entered the Arizona State game coming off a rare early-season bye week as the Red Raiders had two full weeks in between facing the Sun Devils and defeating Eastern Washington on Sept. 2. It marked the earliest Texas Tech has had an open week since the Red Raiders also went two weeks in between their first and second games of the season in 2011.

■ Since 1970, Texas Tech has had an open week in between its first and second games a total of seven times. The Red Raiders are now 7-0 in the weeks coming off an early-season bye with wins over the likes of New Mexico (1976, 2011), Arizona (1978), Baylor (1983), Southwestern Louisiana (1997), North Texas (2001) and Arizona State.

■ The Red Raiders will not have another bye week the rest of the season as Arizona State began a streak of 11-consecutive weeks with a game for Texas Tech.

■ Under head coach Kliff Kingsbury, Texas Tech is now 4-3 in games played after a bye week with wins over Kansas (2013, 2016) and Texas (2015) and Arizona State (2017).

■ It marked the first time under Kingsbury where the Red Raiders have had an open week before a non-conference game. All six of Texas Tech's previous games following a bye week had been during Big 12 play.

RED RAIDERS ROUT EASTERN WASHINGTON TO OPEN 2017 SEASON

■ Texas Tech opened its 15th-consecutive season with a victory on Sept. 2 as the Red Raiders routed Eastern Washington, 56-10, at Jones AT&T Stadium. The Red Raiders are now 64-26-3 all-time over their 93 all-time season openers.

■ With the win, Texas Tech now boasts the third-longest winning streak in season openers nationally, trailing only Ohio State's run of 17-straight season opening wins and Alabama's 16-year streak. Florida previously had the nation's longest streak at 27-consecutive seasons before falling to Michigan to open the 2017 campaign.

■ Texas Tech has now won each of its last 17 season openers played inside Jones AT&T Stadium. The Red Raiders' last loss in a season opener played at home came in 1992 when No. 15 Oklahoma topped Tech, 34-9.

■ Texas Tech head coach Kliff Kingsbury is a now perfect 5-0 all-time in season openers after victories over SMU (2013), Central Arkansas (2014), Sam Houston State (2015), Stephen F. Austin (2016) and Eastern Washington (2017). The Red Raiders are averaging 53.4 points per game in their five season openers under Kingsbury.

■ Despite a slow start where the Red Raiders punted on each of their first three possessions, the Texas Tech offense found its rhythm from there, reaching the endzone on each of its next seven offensive drives. Tech also had a pick-six interception during that span as well.

■ The Red Raiders' 56 points marked the third-straight year Texas Tech had scored 50 or more points in a season opener. Tech has now scored 50 or more points in 11 of its last 13 games inside Jones AT&T Stadium.

■ Texas Tech took advantage of the big play with two touchdown passes over 60 yards against the Eagles. Nic Shimonek found Derrick Willies on a 75-yard strike for Tech's first touchdown of the game while Keke Coutee added a 68-yard bomb later in the first half. Tech was one of just four FBS programs to complete at least two 60-yard touchdown passes over the first week of the college football season.

HATFIELD RETURNS AS ONE OF THE NATION'S MOST-ACCURATE KICKERS

- Clayton Hatfield returns for his junior season as one of the most accurate kickers in college football the past two seasons. Hatfield, who ranked fourth nationally last year for field goal percentage (92.9), is 27-of-30 on field goal attempts over his career (90 percent). He ranks fourth nationally in career field goal percentage among returning kickers, trailing only Penn State's Tyler Davis (93.8), Minnesota's Emmitt Carpenter (91.7) and John Baron of San Diego State (91.3).
- Hatfield's first successful field goal this season will tie Brian Hall (1974-77) for 10th all-time in the Tech career record book. He could potentially tie Don Grimes (1971-73) for ninth place as well as he sits just two successful tries back entering the 2017 campaign.
- Hatfield enters this season having made each of his last 11 field goals, which is already the longest streak in school history. He broke the previous of 10-straight set by Bill Adams in 1979 and Scott Segrist in 1988.
- Of the 30 career field-goal attempts of Hatfield's career, his lone three misses have all come on tries of 40 yards or longer.

PLENTY OF NEW FACES VERSUS E. WASHINGTON

- Texas Tech fans had plenty of new faces to see for the first time against Arizona State as 26 student-athletes made their Red Raider debut against Eastern Washington. Among the newcomers, four were starters in the win - LG Jacob Hines, RG Jack Anderson, CB Octavious Morgan and S Vaughnte Dorsey.
- Both Tre King and Willie Sykes made big plays in their Red Raider debut as King found the endzone on a 1-yard run with 7:17 remaining in the third quarter. It was followed shortly later by Sykes' 33-yard interception return for a touchdown, Tech's first pick-six since Jah'Shawn Johnson did the same at Kansas in 2015.
- Desmond Nisby led the Red Raiders on the ground in his first game as a Red Raider as the bruising back totaled a team-high 57 yards on just six carries. Nisby averaged 9.5 yards per attempt, which included a 20-yard rush on his first career carry.
- In addition to Anderson, Texas Tech also used three other true freshmen in the win as linebacker Riko Jeffers, wide receiver Dalton Rigdon and kicker Michael Ewton all saw playing time. Jeffers recorded a pair of tackles defensively, while Ewton was a perfect 8-of-8 on extra point attempts. Rigdon saw action on several of Tech's special teams units and at wideout late in the game.
- A pair of quarterbacks also made their debut in sophomore transfer McLane Carter and redshirt freshman Jett Duffey. Like starter Nic Shimonek, both were highly accurate as Carter was 3-of-3 for 49 yards and a touchdown while Duffey completed both of his passes for 16 yards.

BACK-TO-BACK LOSING SEASONS ARE RARE AT TEXAS TECH

- Kliff Kingsbury would be among the first people to say the 2016 season did not meet his expectations or those of the Red Raider fan base. The Red Raiders lost four games by eight points or less en route to finishing 5-7 overall and 3-6 in Big 12 play.
- The good news, though, is that back-to-back losing seasons at Texas Tech are rare. Very rare, in fact. The last time the Red Raiders compiled consecutive losing seasons came during the 1984-85 campaigns.
- Since 1985, the last six times Texas Tech went through a losing season, the Red Raiders bounced back the following year with a record of .500 or better. Even more impressive, in five of those seasons, the Red Raiders rebounded with a postseason bowl berth (2015 AdvoCare Texas Bowl; 2012 Meinecke Texas Bowl; 1993 John Hancock Bowl; 1989 All-American Bowl; 1986 Independence Bowl).
- Texas Tech has been among the most consistent programs in the country over the past two decades as the Red Raiders have recorded just three losing seasons since 1993. Among power-five programs, Texas Tech ranks among the elite in non-losing seasons, trailing only Florida State (0), USC (1), Ohio State (1) and Florida (1). The Red Raiders are tied with the likes of Nebraska, Texas A&M, Georgia, Michigan, Miami, Oklahoma, Penn State, Clemson and BYU.

KINGSBURY REVAMPS RED RAIDER ROSTER IN OFFSEASON

- Following a disappointing 2016 season, Kliff Kingsbury and his staff revamped the Red Raider roster, bringing in 44 newcomers since last January alone. Of that group, 13 are junior-college transfers who are expected to impact the Red Raiders right away along with five Division-I transfers, all of which are eligible immediately.
- Kingsbury and his staff focused strongly on experienced defensive backs with the addition of four junior college signees in Octavious Morgan (Butler C.C.), Vaughnte Dorsey (Mississippi Gulf Coast C.C.), Thomas Leggett (Allan Hancock College) and Jaylon Lane (Independence C.C.) as well as LSU transfer Abraham Wallace and Washington grad transfer Trevor Walker.
- In all, Texas Tech has added 10 junior college or FBS transfers to its defense as linebacker Dakota Allen (East Mississippi C.C.) as well as defensive linemen Tony Jones (Butler C.C.), Quentin Yontz (Fullerton College) and Jesse Brown (Texas A&M) join the group of defensive backs in David Gibbs' side of the ball.
- Dakota Allen's name is one that will be easily recognizable to Red Raider fans this season as the junior was Texas Tech's second-leading tackler in 2015. Allen ranked ninth in the Big 12 for tackles per game (7.2) in an impressive debut as a redshirt freshman. Allen, who finished with 87 tackles and two interceptions that season, played his 2016 sophomore campaign at East Mississippi Community College where he ranked eighth in the NJCAA with a team-leading 117 tackles.

■ The list of junior college signees includes three defensive prospects - Morgan, Lane and Jones - who were ranked among the top 55 junior college prospects in the country as well as one other in Vaughnte Dorsey, who was rated the eighth-best safety in the country by 247Sports.

■ The Red Raider running game also received a boost this summer with the addition of running backs Desmond Nisby out of Diablo Valley College in California as well as Tre King from Hutchinson Community College. Nisby combined for over 1,200 rushing yards and 12 touchdowns in his two seasons at Diablo Valley and Santa Rosa Junior College.

■ Of the newcomers, 12 enrolled at Texas Tech in January and went through a full slate of spring practices. Among Big 12 schools, Texas Tech's 12 mid-year enrollees marked the most in the league, topping Oklahoma's 11 and West Virginia's class of 10 signees.

■ New offensive line coach Brandon Jones had his young group add a pair of veteran linemen this summer with the arrival of Nebraska transfer Dwayne Johnson, Jr., as well as Maryland transfer Jajuan Dulaney. Both linemen are eligible immediately as graduate transfers.

■ The Red Raider defense will also benefit from two other transfers in Eli Howard and Willie Sykes, both of which sat out the 2016 season. Howard has been praised by Tech coaches since his arrival from North Texas and will look to add to depth along the defensive line, while Sykes will be a candidate in the secondary after transferring from Arkansas.

NATION'S TOP OFFENSE RETURNS BULK OF PRODUCTION FROM 2016

■ Despite the loss of quarterback Patrick Mahomes II, Texas Tech still returns the bulk of its 2016 offense that led the country in both total offense and passing offense while also averaging over 40 points per game. The Red Raiders return seven starters from that unit in offensive linemen Terence Steele, Tony Morales, Madison Akamnonu, running back Justin Stockton and wide receivers Cameron Batson, Dylan Cantrell and Derrick Willies.

■ The Red Raiders ranked fifth nationally in scoring offense as well after averaging 43.7 points per game. It was the second-straight season where Texas Tech has averaged at least 40 points per game. Tech scored 40 or more points in seven of 12 games and at least 50 points in six of those contests.

■ The trio of senior Justin Stockton, junior Demarcus Felton and sophomore Da'Leon Ward accounted for 75 percent of Texas Tech's rushing yards a year ago after totaling 936 yards on the ground as a group. Ward boasted 428 rushing yards and three touchdowns, becoming the first Red Raider true freshman to lead the team in rushing since Shaud Williams in 1999. Felton, meanwhile, added 354 yards and three touchdowns while Stockton chipped in 178 rushing yards and a touchdown to go along with 220 yards and a pair of touchdowns through the air.

■ Along the offensive line, Texas Tech returns four of its mainstays from a year ago in seventh-year senior Tony Morales as well as junior Paul Stawarz and sophomores Madison Akamnonu and Terence Steele. Morales and Steele started in all 12 games a year ago while Stawarz and Akamnonu were in the starting rotation for eight and seven games, respectively. Sophomore Bailey Smith (one start) and Travis Bruffy also saw significant time as true freshmen.

A DUEL-THREAT... PUNTER?

■ While known for having several of the most duel-threat quarterbacks in the country in recent years, Texas Tech went out this past offseason and added another multi-facet athlete - this time at punter. Dominic Panazzolo made his Red Raider debut against Eastern Washington, punting three times total, two of which were downed inside the 10.

■ Panazzolo, a native of Australia, is a duel-threat for multiple reasons. He can punt the traditional style or via a rugby kick. Most impressively, however, is that Panazzolo can punt with either of his feet. He will typically punt from his right foot but is able to use his left foot if needed as well.

VETERAN ON CAMPUS

- There likely won't be an older student-athlete in college football this season than offensive lineman Tony Morales, who is entering his seventh season as a Red Raider. Morales arrived at Texas Tech in 2011 but unfortunately suffered through season-ending injuries in each of the next four years. He saw his first collegiate action in 2015 where he appeared in 10 games, including four starts, at right guard. He moved to center prior to the 2016 season and proceeded to start in all 12 games.
- Morales was granted an extension to his eligibility towards the end of the 2016 campaign, giving him a seventh season as a member of the Red Raider football program. Morales is eligible to apply for another extension later this season.

RED RAIDERS IN THE MIDST OF CHALLENGING NON-CONFERENCE SCHEDULE

- The Red Raiders will be challenged early in the 2017 season with difficult non-conference matchups at home against Eastern Washington and Arizona State as well as a road contest at Houston. The three schools combined to go 26-13 a year ago.
- The Arizona State game marks the fourth-consecutive season where the Red Raiders will face an opponent from a power-five conference (ACC, Big Ten, Big 12, Pac-12, SEC). The game concludes a home-and-home series between the two schools as the Sun Devils won last year's shootout, 68-55, in Tempe. Tech previously faced Arkansas during the 2014-15 seasons.
- Texas Tech Director of Athletics Kirby Hocutt has lined up several other power-five matchups in future years as well as the Red Raiders are slated to open the 2018 season against Ole Miss in the AdvoCare Texas Kickoff held at NRG Stadium in Houston. Tech also has non-conference agreements scheduled with Arizona (2019-20), N.C. State (2022, 2027) and Oregon (2023-24) in future years.
- The Red Raiders and Houston, meanwhile, will start the first of a four-game series on Sept. 23 at TDECU Stadium. Tech and the Cougars are also slated to face each other during the 2018, 2021 and 2022 seasons.

TEXAS TECH KNOWS OFFENSE

- Texas Tech is currently riding a consecutive game scoring streak that spans 247 games dating back to the 1997 season. The streak, which began Oct. 25, 1997, against Texas A&M, ranks 11th nationally and is the second-longest streak in the Big 12 Conference behind TCU.
- Texas Tech is the only school in the country to rank among the top 15 teams for total offense and top 10 for passing offense in every season since 2002.
- In addition, Texas Tech has ranked in the top 10 for passing offense in each of the past 15 seasons (2001-present).
- Texas Tech has scored 40 or more points regularly under head coach Kliff Kingsbury. The Red Raiders have eclipsed the 40-point mark 21 times under Kingsbury and the 50-point plateau a total of 15 times.
- Since the start of the 2015 season, Texas Tech has boasted one of the most impressive quick-strike offenses. The Red Raiders have had 62 touchdown-scoring drives last under two minutes during that time while 26 lasted less than a minute.
- In 50 games as head coach, Kliff Kingsbury has guided the Red Raider offense to at least 500 yards of total offense 32 times during his tenure. During that span, Kingsbury has also led Texas Tech to 700 yards of total offense five times, all of which rank among the top-10 totals in program history.
- The success of the Texas Tech offense under Kliff Kingsbury has been impressive knowing the Red Raiders have not had an upperclassman quarterback leading the offense to start any of his first three seasons. Patrick Mahomes II became the first junior or senior quarterback in 2016 to lead the Red Raiders in a season opener since Seth Doege (a senior) earned the nod in 2012.
- The Red Raiders head into the Houston game having scored at least 50 points in 12 of their last 14 games inside Jones AT&T Stadium. Tech is averaging an impressive 54.4 points per game in home games the past two seasons.

- In all, Texas Tech returns 57 percent of its receiving yards from a year ago as well as 64 percent of its receiving touchdowns.
- Coutee was the Red Raiders' top receiver once Big 12 play began last season as the junior recorded all but 29 of his 890 receiving yards against league foes. He ended the season ranked second in the Big 12 after averaging 95.7 yards per game during conference action. Coutee put together four 100-yard performances over the course of Big 12 play, which was capped by his 221-yard performance in the season finale against Baylor.
- According to research by Pro Football Focus, Coutee averaged 3.10 yards per route run which was the highest mark among power five conference receivers with at least 60 targets. He topped two of the conference's top wideouts in Oklahoma State's James Washington (2.92) and Iowa State's Allan Lazard (2.60). Coutee is a preseason candidate for the Biletnikoff Award, which is presented annually to the nation's top wide receiver.
- Batson ranked second on the team with 61 receptions on the year as he totaled 644 yards and eight touchdowns. According to Pro Football Focus, he was one of the most dependable wideouts in the Big 12, dropping only 1.61 percent of his targets which is the lowest among returning wide receivers with at least 40 receptions.
- Batson and Coutee are both expected to play a large roles on Texas Tech's special teams units. Coutee began to return kicks late in the year, averaging 16.2 yards a return on six attempts. Batson, meanwhile, served as Tech's primary punt returner where he averaged 9.2 yards a return, the highest clip for a Red Raider since Austin Zouzalik in 2012.
- Willies showed glimpses of being a consistent big-play threat a year ago despite battling injuries for most of the year. He finished with 18 catches for 288 yards and a pair of touchdowns. Willies was named to the Senior Bowl watch list prior to the season as he is one of 400-plus players across the country nominated for a potential roster spot.

SOPHOMORE CLASS PICKED UP PLENTY OF EXPERIENCE IN 2016

- Texas Tech relied heavily on several true freshmen in 2016, a move that should pay dividends this season. In all, 12 true freshmen saw playing time last season led by linebacker Jordyn Brooks and offensive lineman Travis Bruffy who played in all 12 games.
- According to research by Pro Football Focus, Texas Tech led the country with 4,429 snaps played by true freshmen in 2016. The next three schools behind the Red Raiders were all Big 12 members in Kansas (3,921), Kansas State (3,670) and Texas (3,643).
- Jordyn Brooks led the Red Raiders with 86 tackles (61 solo) in 2016, marking the first time a Tech freshman has topped the team in tackles during the Big 12 era (1996-present). Brooks ranked 40th nationally and tied for fifth among freshmen in solo tackles per game (5.1) a year ago. He led all Big 12 freshmen in both total tackles and tackles per game.
- In addition to both Brooks and Bruffy, the following now sophomores also saw action as true freshmen in 2016: Douglas Coleman III (DB), Kevin Moore (DB), Johnathan Picone (LB), Desmon Smith (DB), Brayden Stringer (LB), Joseph Wallace (DL), Da'Leon Ward (RB) and Antoine Wesley (WR). T.J. Vasher (WR) played in Tech's season opener against Stephen F. Austin but a season-ending injury cut his season short. He was granted a medical redshirt year following the season, giving him four years of eligibility remaining.

KINGSBURY ADDS THREE NEW ASSISTANTS TO COACHING STAFF

- Kliff Kingsbury added three new coaches to his staff this offseason in Terrance Jamison (defensive line), Brandon Jones (offensive line) and Jabbar Juluke (Assoc. Head Coach/running backs).
- Jamison arrived at Texas Tech in February following three seasons at Florida Atlantic. Considered one of the top young coaches in the country, Jamison has also served on the defensive staffs at both Wisconsin and Cal before earning his first full-time position at Florida Atlantic in 2014.
- Kingsbury's first hire in the offseason was a familiar name in former Red Raider offensive lineman Brandon Jones, who returned to his alma mater following a two-year stint at Cal. Jones began his coaching career as an offensive assistant at Texas Tech from 2007-08 before accepting positions at Sam Houston State (2009), East Carolina (2010-14) and then Cal (2015-16).
- Juluke, meanwhile, returns to Texas Tech as associate head coach and running backs coach, a position he held for several weeks following the 2015 season. Juluke, a New Orleans native and longtime high school coach in the state of Louisiana, returned home to serve as running backs coach at LSU during the 2016 season. He earned his first collegiate position as running backs coach at Louisiana Tech from 2013-15.
- While not new to the staff, Kliff Kingsbury praised the work of strength and conditioning coach Rusty Whitt in preparing the Red Raiders through offseason workouts. Whitt, a veteran of the U.S. Army, arrived at Texas Tech prior to the 2016 season after six seasons in a similar role at Louisiana-Lafayette. His staff consists of Associate Strength and Conditioning Coach Jeffrey Earls as well as Director of Mobility and Agility Adam Hymel and Director of Speed and Power Scott Salwasser. For more information on Texas Tech's strength and conditioning program, search "Speed School" via @TexasTechFB on Twitter.

RED RAIDERS TO HONOR SPIKE DYKES DURING 2017 SEASON

- This past spring, Texas Tech lost a legend with the passing of Spike Dykes on April 10. Dykes passed away in his home at Hore-shoe Bay near Austin at the age of 79. To celebrate his memory, Texas Tech will wear a "I Like Spike" helmet sticker during every game of the 2017 season. The phrase "I Like Spike" was a popular saying among Tech fans during his tenure as head coach from 1986-99. The helmet sticker will also remain on the front page of Texas Tech's game notes each week.

RED RAIDERS ENTER SEASON WITH DEGREES IN HAND

- Texas Tech will have 11 student-athletes on its roster this season who have already earned their undergraduate degrees, which is among the largest totals in the nation. The list of graduates includes Zach Austin, Kisean Allen, Zach Barnes, Cameron Batson, Dylan Cantrell, Jajuan Dulaney, Dwayne Johnson, Jr., Tony Morales, Talor Nunez, Abraham Wallace, Caleb Woodward.
- Two of the most-successful graduates among all of Texas Tech's student-athletes are Batson and Nunez. Batson graduated cum laude in August after earning his degree in management through the Rawls College of Business. Nunez earned his degree in mechanical engineering and is now enrolled in the prestigious STEM MBA program at the Rawls College of Business.

DAVID GIBBS ENTERS THIRD SEASON AS DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

- David Gibbs returns for his third season as Texas Tech's defensive coordinator this fall, marking the first time Texas Tech has kept the same coach in the position over three-straight seasons since Lyle Setencich from 2003-07. Setencich left the position midway through the 2007 season and was replaced by Ruffin McNeil, who finished that season on an interim basis before continuing in the role each of the next two years.
- Among its Big 12 counterparts, Texas Tech is one of three schools to return its head coach, offensive coordinator and defensive coordinator for the third-consecutive season. Eric Morris is in his fifth season on Kliff Kingsbury's staff and fourth in the role of offensive coordinator. He arrived as a charter member of Kingsbury's staff in 2013.

KINGSBURY IN ELITE COMPANY AMONG ACTIVE COACHES

- Texas Tech head coach Kliff Kingsbury is one of only two NCAA FBS coaches that finished in the top 10 in the Heisman Trophy voting and also played in the National Football League. Kingsbury joins Michigan's Jim Harbaugh as the only two active coaches to accomplish this feat. Harbaugh finished third in the 1986 Heisman Trophy race and played 13 seasons in the NFL. Kingsbury, meanwhile, ranked ninth in the 2002 Heisman Trophy voting and then played five seasons in the NFL with stops with the New England Patriots, New Orleans Saints, New York Jets and Denver Broncos.

TEXAS TECH HEAD COACH KLIFF KINGSBURY

- Under Kingsbury, Texas Tech has annually ranked among the top offenses nationally, finishing in the top 10 for total offense in all four seasons. Tech ranked second in 2015 for total offense, scoring offense and passing offense and then finished first in both total offense and passing offense in 2016 as well as fifth in scoring offense.
- Kingsbury is one of 16 head coaches at the NCAA Division I FBS level working at their alma mater.
- Kingsbury's work with quarterbacks is well documented as he's had four former players go on to NFL careers in Case Keenum (Houston), Johnny Manziel (Texas A&M), Davis Webb (Texas Tech) and Patrick Mahomes II (Texas Tech).

KIRBY HOCUTT RETURNS AS CFP CHAIRMAN

- Texas Tech Director of Athletics Kirby Hocutt will return as chairman of the College Football Playoff committee this season. Hocutt, who joined the CFP selection committee prior to the 2015 season, is in his second year as chairman and his third year of a three-year term on the committee. Hocutt will be the voice of the committee throughout the season as he will discuss the CFP weekly rankings live on ESPN each Tuesday night and via conference call beginning Oct. 31.
- The College Football Playoff Committee matches the No. 1 seed vs. No. 4, and No. 2 vs. No. 3 in national semifinal games that rotate annually among the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl, Goodyear Cotton Bowl, Capital One Orange Bowl, Allstate Sugar Bowl, Rose Bowl Game presented by Northwestern Mutual and Fiesta Bowl. The committee members produce weekly rankings after the ninth weekend of games. The members meet in person on Mondays and Tuesdays in Dallas.
- Hocutt has led Texas Tech to one of its most successful eras in recent history over the past two academic years, highlighted by six Big 12 titles (women's soccer, men's tennis, women's tennis and baseball) and 14 of 17 intercollegiate sports advancing to the NCAA postseason during that span.

JONES AT&T STADIUM - HOME OF THE RED RAIDERS

“The best home field advantage in all of college football.”

- DAVE CURTIS, THE SPORTING NEWS (2010)

NEW TURF AMONG NEW ADDITIONS

- Texas Tech replaced its playing surface during the offseason, installing a new FieldTurf model prior to spring practice. There are three significant changes to the new surface, most notably the size of the Double T at midfield. The Double T was enlarged to cover the entire distance between the hash marks. The font for “Red Raiders” and “Texas Tech” spelled out in each endzone is also new and it matches the look the Red Raiders will unveil on each uniform this season. In addition, there is no longer a black box surrounding “Jones AT&T Stadium” at the 25-yard line on each side of the field.
- Other updates to the stadium came via new goalposts that are motorized and will allow athletics staff to quickly lower both posts at the conclusion of each game. Texas Tech also renovated all of its concessions throughout the Jones AT&T Stadium concourse.
- The playing surface is one of several upgrades to the stadium in recent years as Texas Tech opened the North Endzone Club area prior to the 2016 campaign. Tech also added a state-of-the-art video board on the north endzone before the 2013 season, which remains one of the largest high-definition video boards in the country.
- Overall, since 2003, Texas Tech has invested over $150 million during the past 10-plus years with four major renovations, making Jones AT&T Stadium one of the best on-campus football facilities in the country.

RED RAIDERS LIGHT UP JONES AT&T STADIUM SCOREBOARD

- The Red Raider offense has benefited from playing at home in recent years as Texas Tech is averaging 54.4 points per game inside Jones AT&T Stadium the past two-plus seasons.
- Texas Tech has scored 50 or more points in 12 of its last 14 games inside Jones AT&T Stadium heading into the Houston game. The Red Raiders scored at least 50 points in all six home games in 2015, marking the first time in school history where Tech has hit the 50-point mark in every game on the home schedule.

SPORTS PERFORMANCE CENTER ALREADY COMING IN HANDY

- Texas Tech’s new $48 million Sports Performance Center has already been vital this season as the Red Raiders have had several practices already moved indoors due to rain. A year ago, Tech had six or seven practices either severely delayed or canceled altogether following thunderstorms in the Lubbock area.
- The Sports Performance Center is still under construction with completion expected in the upcoming weeks. The project will be completed in October before the official ribbon cutting on Oct. 20 prior to the Iowa State game.
- The Sports Performance Center houses a 100-yard indoor football field that is within walking distance of the outdoor practice fields at the Football Training Facility. The Red Raiders now start every practice now in the facility before moving outdoors.
- In addition to supporting the Red Raider football program, the Sports Performance Center will also be home to Texas Tech’s nationally-ranked track and field program. The facility will house a 200-meter bank track, which will allow Tech to host several of the nation’s top collegiate and high school meets each season.

HEAD COACH KLIFF KINGSBURY

Kliff Kingsbury (@TTUKingsbury), the architect of one of the nation's most high-powered offenses, enters his fifth season as head coach at Texas Tech. The 15th head coach in program history, Kingsbury was tabbed to lead his alma mater on Dec. 12, 2012. Under his watch, the Red Raiders have boasted an explosive offense that has annually ranked among the top units in the country. Tech has made two bowl appearances under Kingsbury, who enters the 2017 season with a 24-26 overall record.

Tech concluded the 2016 season as the nation's leader in total offense, marking the sixth-straight year where a Kingsbury-led offense finished 11th or higher in the category dating back to his time at both Houston and Texas A&M. The Red Raiders were also the nation's leader in passing offense and ranked fifth for scoring offense.

The Red Raiders ranked among the nation's leaders during the 2015 campaign as well, finishing second in total offense, scoring offense as well as passing offense. Tech concluded the year averaging a school-record 45.1 points per game after scoring at least 25 points in all 13 games. The Red Raiders were one of just two teams nationally and the only school in a power-five conference to score 25 or more points in every game of the 2015 season.

■ Nic Shimonek finished 26-of-30 for 384 yards and three touchdowns in his first career start. The senior left the game late in the third quarter with the Red Raiders leading handily.

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) - Nic Shimonek threw for 384 yards and three touchdowns in his first career start and Texas Tech opened the 2017 season with a 56-10 win over Eastern Washington on Saturday.

Shimonek completed his first 14 passes and finished 26-of-30 as the Red Raiders pulled away with three touchdowns each in the second and third quarters, capped by Willie Sykes' 33-yard interception return for a 49-10 lead the first play after Justin Stockton's second TD run.

Gage Gubrud threw for 207 yards and a touchdown for Eastern Washington, which upset Washington State in last year's opener on the way to the semifinals of the FCS playoffs.

Texas Tech led 7-3 when Shimonek threw the first of three second-quarter touchdowns, a 75-yarder to Derrick Willies. Keke Coutee caught the other two from 68 and 17 yards, finishing with 99 yards receiving. Willies had 126 yards receiving.

Head coach Kliff Kingsbury improved to 5-0 in openers at his alma mater.

Aaron Best lost his coaching debut at his alma mater to the same school that beat former coach Beau Baldwin 49-24 in his debut in 2008. Best went to the same high school as Baldwin in Tacoma, Washington, and was Baldwin's offensive line coach all nine seasons at EWU before Baldwin left to become offensive coordinator at California.

Tech backup McLane Carter threw a 22-yard pass to Quan Shorts to complete the scoring early in the fourth quarter as the Red Raiders outgained Eastern Washington 626-301.

Terence Grady had 93 yards receiving and EWU's only touchdown, a 22-yarder in the second quarter.

THE TAKEAWAY

Texas Tech: The Red Raiders didn't get off to the kind of hot start Kingsbury would have preferred, but EWU hasn't been a pushover against the higher division. The Eagles have three FBS wins in the past five seasons.

POSTGAME NOTES

■ The win marked the 15th-consecutive year Texas Tech has opened its season with a win, which is now the tied for the second-longest active streak in the FBS after Florida lost to Michigan. Tech trails Ohio State's FBS-leading 17-consecutive years of opening with a win after the Buckeyes defeated Indiana to open their season. Alabama has also won 16-straight season openers after topping No. 3 Florida State.

■ With its 56 points, Texas Tech Athletics will donate $5,600 to Hurricane Harvey relief efforts as part of its #ScoreOnHarvey campaign. Texas Tech head coach Kliff Kingsbury will match that amount in a donation of his own for a total $11,200. Several Texas Tech Athletics staff members have also committed donations based on today's game as well.

■ Texas Tech forced three turnovers in the win, while failing to give up one of its own. The Red Raiders are now 10-3 under Kliff Kingsbury when leading the turnover battle and have forced at least two turnovers in back-to-back games for the first time since the UTEP and Arkansas games on Sept. 12 and Sept. 19, 2015. Tech forced Baylor into three fumbles in the final game of last season.

■ Eastern Washington's 10 points in today's game marked the fewest allowed by the Red Raiders since Texas Tech topped Texas State, 33-7, on Sept. 21, 2013.

■ Nic Shimonek was down-right accurate in his first career start as Texas Tech's signal caller as he completed his first 14 passes to start the game. His streak was only one completion shy of tying the Texas Tech single-game record of 15 that was set by Seth Doege at New Mexico on Sept. 17, 2011 and Taylor Potts versus Baylor on Oct. 9, 2010.

■ Jah'Shawn Johnson's forced fumble on Eastern Washington's first drive marked the sixth already in his career. He finished with a share of the team high with seven tackles.

GAME RECAPS - GAME 2

ARIZONA STATE	3	14	21	7	-	45
TEXAS TECH	21	14	10	7	-	52

■ Mychealon Thomas recovered a fumble while adding a career-high four tackles in Texas Tech's 52-45 victory over Arizona State.

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) - Nic Shimonek threw for six touchdowns, receiver Dylan Cantrell had the go-ahead score on a 3-yard run in the final two minutes and Texas Tech beat Arizona State 52-45 in another high-scoring duel Saturday night.

Manny Wilkins' deep pass on fourth-and-30 was overthrown on the final Arizona State possession as the Sun Devils (1-2) fell short after rallying from 18 points down at halftime and 14 behind late in the third quarter.

The Red Raiders started 2-0 for the fourth time in five seasons under coach Kliff Kingsbury.

Cantrell already had two touchdown catches, a one-armed grab for a first down and a leaping catch on the 90-yard go-ahead drive when he took a handoff from Shimonek on a sweep and stretched the ball over the goal line just inside the pylon with 1:55 remaining.

Shimonek, who finished with 543 yards passing, had five scores at halftime after a one-hour weather delay before kickoff.

Cantrell had a career-high 160 yards receiving and Keke Coutee set career marks with 12 catches for 186 yards. Coutee had one score.

Wilkins threw for 326 yards and three touchdowns. N'Keal Harry had 13 catches for 148 yards and a tying 21-yard touchdown early in the fourth quarter.

Ballage, who finished with 56 yards in 16 carries, got the ASU rally going with a 1-yard plunge early in the second half.

Shimonek was 37 of 50 and has nine touchdowns with no interceptions in 80 attempts in the first two starts of his career.

POSTGAME NOTES

■ Texas Tech won its second game in three seasons against a Power 5 non-conference opponent. The Red Raiders have defeated 10 Power 5 opponents in non-conference action since 2004.

■ Nic Shimonek was once again accurate in his second career start leading the Red Raiders as he finished 37-of-50 for a career-high 543 yards and six touchdowns. Through two games this season, Shimonek is completing 78.8 percent of his passes with nine touchdowns and zero interceptions.

■ Shimonek's 543 passing yards ranks ninth all-time on the Texas Tech single-game chart. It marked the most passing yards by a Red Raider since Patrick Mahomes III threw for 586 yards during the Baylor game last season.

■ Shimonek is the seventh quarterback in program history to throw for 500-plus yards in a game. It marked the 16th time in school history that a Texas Tech quarterback has reached the 500-yard plateau.

■ Texas Tech set up its final touchdown of the first half via a Ja'Deion High blocked punt with just over a minute remaining. It marked Tech's first blocked punt since current Detroit Lions standout Kerry Hyder got his hand on an Oklahoma State punt in 2013.

■ Keke Coutee and Dylan Cantrell both went over 100 receiving yards in tonight's win, marking the first time since the 2016 season finale against Baylor that the Red Raiders had multiple wide-outs reach the 100-yard mark. Ironically, both Coutee and Cantrell were those two receivers in last year's meeting with Baylor.

■ Keke Coutee found the endzone for the third time already this season as he scampered in on a 12-yard touchdown pass from Nic Shimonek with 4:25 remaining in the first quarter. Coutee put together another outstanding performance for the Red Raiders, totaling a career-best 186 yards through the air on a career-high 12 catches. He now has four 100-yard receiving performances during his career.

■ Jordyn Brooks led the Red Raider defense with 13 tackles in tonight's win. It was the fourth time in Brooks' career where he has totaled 10 or more tackles in a game.
