SATURDAY STORYLINES

MCGUIRE INTRODUCED AS HEAD COACH

- Joey McGuire, a 2020 inductee into the Texas High School Coaches Association Hall of Honor, was named the 17th head football coach in Texas Tech history. Director of Athletics Kirby Hocutt announced Monday. He was formally introduced at a press conference on Tuesday.
- McGuire spent the past five seasons at Baylor following an illustrious career as the head coach for Cedar Hill (TX) High School where he amassed a 141-42 record. He won three state titles and finished as the runner-up once. He was elevated to associate head coach at Baylor prior to the 2019 season. (more on McGuire on page 12).

RED RAIDERS HEAD TO NOVEMBER

- Sonny Cumbie, Texas Tech alum and current interim head coach, will continue to guide the Red Raiders for their remaining three games, and bowl game if eligible. He will make his home debut on Saturday after first leading Tech at Oklahoma on Oct. 30. Cumbie is only the second Red Raider letterwinner in program history to serve as head coach.
- The Iowa State game opens an important month of November for the Red Raiders, who will be looking for at least one win over their final three games to secure their 39th bowl appearance in school history. Texas Tech currently ranks among the top-25 schools all-time in bowl appearances.

EZUKANMA RETURNS TO FORM AT OU

- Erik Ezukanma is coming off possibly his most-impressive performance of the season at Oklahoma as the junior caught a career-high eight passes for 123 yards and a touchdown. It was the third 100-yard outing of the season for Ezukanma as he now has five over his career.
- Ezukanma, who enters this weekend ranked second in the Big 12 in receiving yards per game (78.9), leads Texas Tech with 631 yards through the air this year as he is looking to become the first Red Raider to lead the team in receiving yards over three-consecutive seasons since Wayne Walker from 1985-87.

TEAM NOTEBOOK

RED RAIDERS LOOK TO RETURN TO WINNING WAYS AGAINST CYCLONES

- This will be the 20th all-time meeting between Texas Tech and Iowa State as the Red Raiders are 11-8 against the Cyclones despite losing each of the past five meetings, their longest losing streak in the series.
- The Red Raiders are 7-3 all-time against the Cyclones at home despite dropping each of Iowa State's last two visits to Lubbock. Texas Tech defended its home field with wins in each of Iowa State's first five trips to Jones AT&T Stadium before the Cyclones responded with wins in three of their last five visits.
- Texas Tech is 9-8 against the Cyclones during the Big 12 era. The two schools met twice prior to the formation of the Big 12 Conference in 1996 as Texas Tech routed Iowa State, 52-0, in 1967 and then added a 24-3 victory in 1974.
- Of the 17 previous meetings between the two schools, only three have been determined by one possession or less as the Red Raiders are a perfect 3-0 in those games with wins in 1998, 2013 and 2014. Since that 2014 contest, each of the next six games have been decided by nine points or more.
- Over its five-game losing streak to Iowa State, the Red Raiders are averaging only 18.6 points per game, its lowest mark against any Big 12 foe during that span. Prior to starting its losing streak versus the Cyclones, the Red Raiders were averaging 41.5 points per game over the course of a four-game winning streak, the final game of which was a 66-31 rout inside Jones AT&T Stadium midway through the 2015 season.
- The 2020 meeting between the two schools marked only the second time in the series where the Red Raiders faced a ranked Iowa State team. Texas Tech is 11-6 all-time against unranked Iowa State teams as the Cyclones were No. 11 in the polls in their 2002 victory over the Red Raiders and then No. 24 a year ago.

TEXAS TECH-IOWA STATE CONNECTIONS

- Texas Tech inside receivers and tight ends coach Luke Wells was a member of the Iowa State staff early in his career as he spent four seasons in Ames from 2009-12. Wells mentored the Cyclones' wide receivers and tight ends during one of their most successful stretches in school history as Iowa State played in three bowl games during his four seasons. He departed Iowa State to join the Utah State staff in 2013 as a co-offensive coordinator.
- Texas Tech outside receivers coach Joel Filani recorded one of his best games of his Red Raider career at Iowa State in 2006 as the then senior hauled in seven passes for 89 yards and a career high three touchdowns in a 42-26 victory. Filani caught the first two of six touchdown passes from Graham Harrell that afternoon on 30-yard and seven-yard strikes before adding a 16-yard connection late in the fourth quarter.
- Iowa State cornerbacks coach Matt Caponi previously worked under Texas Tech defensive coordinator Keith Patterson in 2011 when Caponi was a graduate assistant and Patterson was the defensive coordinator at Pittsburgh. Patterson ended that season as Pitt's interim head coach for the BBVA Compass Bowl.
- Texas Tech junior defensive lineman Devin Drew played at the junior college level in Iowa prior to transferring to Texas Tech this past January. Drew earned first team NJCAA All-America honors in 2019 after recording 58 tackles, including 17.0 tackles for loss and 9.5 sacks, for Iowa Western Community College.

CAREER NOTABLES VERSUS THE CYCLONES

- Tony Bradford Jr. set a career high with eight tackles in the 2020 matchup against the Cyclones. The performance included a tackle for a loss and two quarterback hurries.
- Henry Colombi impressed in last year's meeting against Iowa State as he came off the bench to complete 10-of-12 passes for 115 yards and a touchdown during the fourth quarter. Colombi, who also rushed six times for 11 yards, found Erik Ezukanma on an 18-yard touchdown strike with less than five minutes remaining to give the Red Raiders their first offensive points of the afternoon.
- Erik Ezukanma caught seven passes for 62 yards in 2020 against Iowa State, which marked a career high for receptions at the time. He snapped that mark just over a week ago in Texas Tech's loss at Oklahoma. Ezukanma has 12 catches for 123 yards and a touchdown over two career games versus the Cyclones as he caught five balls for 61 yards, including one for an 18-yard scoring strike from quarterback Henry Colombi.
- DaMarcus Fields picked off his second pass of the season in 2019 and his third of his career against Iowa State, which gave the Red Raiders the ball back in Iowa State territory early in the fourth quarter. Fields wrapped the 2019 season with three interceptions and now has four for his career. Fields, who has five passes defended in his career versus Iowa State, leads all Red Raiders with 20 career tackles in his four previous meetings with the Cyclones.
- Riko Jeffers recorded the first double-digit tackle performance of his career versus Iowa State in 2018 as the then sophomore totaled 11 on the afternoon, including a sack that resulted in a fumble that was recovered by Dakota Allen for a touchdown. Jeffers has 19 tackles against the Cyclones over his four-year career, which ranks second among all active Red Raiders.
- Eric Monroe reached double digits for tackles for the first time in his career a year ago versus Iowa State as he totaled 12 in the loss. Monroe also forced a fumble and had a tackle for loss in the performance.

- If Tyler Shough is able to return this weekend, it will not be his first career game against Iowa State as the junior previously earned the start for Oregon last season in the Fiesta Bowl. Shough completed 7-of-9 passes for 79 yards in a 34-17 loss to the Cyclones. It marked Shough's final game at Oregon prior to transferring to Texas Tech.
- SaRodorick Thompson found the end zone twice in 2019 against Iowa State, marking the fourth time in his career at the time where he has posted two rushing touchdowns in a game. Thompson, who had 63 rushing yards in the game, now has 11 games of two or more rushing touchdowns in his career, including three this season. He was limited to only six carries for 14 yards last season against Iowa State, giving him 16 carries for 71 yards and a pair of touchdowns for his career.

CUMBIE NAMED INTERIM HEAD COACH FOR REMAINDER OF SEASON

- Texas Tech Director of Athletics Kirby Hocutt announced Oct. 25 a change in leadership for the Red Raider football program after head coach Matt Wells was relieved of his duties, effective immediately. Hocutt tabbed offensive coordinator Sonny Cumbie to serve as interim head coach for the remainder of the season.
- Over its now 96 seasons of football, Cumbie is only the third interim head coach in program history, joining both Ruffin McNeil and Chris Thomsen. McNeil and Thomsen both led the Red Raiders to a victory in their only games as head coach, which came at the 2009 Alamo Bowl as well as the 2012 Meineke Car Care Bowl of Texas. Cumbie was an assistant on the Tech staff in both of those seasons and was the Red Raiders' play-caller for its win over Minnesota in 2012.
- Cumbie is the first head coach in the history of the program who will take over in the middle of the season. Picking up with four games left on the schedule, he will need at least one victory over the next three games since dropping his Oct. 30 debut at Oklahoma. All four opponents were in the AP Top 25 when Cumbie took over on Oct. 25.

BOWL ELIGIBILITY STILL IN REACH FOR RED RAIDERS

- The Red Raiders will look to secure bowl eligibility for the first time since 2017 Saturday against Iowa State. Texas Tech, one of the most frequent bowl participants in college football history, is looking to avoid its first four-year bowl absence since staying home from postseason play over eight consecutive seasons from 1978-85. This is currently the longest Tech has gone without a bowl trip since missing the postseason from 1990-92.
- The Red Raiders picked up their fifth win of the season at Kansas, moving them one shy of the six needed for a bowl selection. It marked the 14th time during the Big 12 era where Texas Tech has started a season at 5-2 or better overall. Of the previous 13 occasions, Tech reached a bowl game in 11 of those seasons with the two exceptions coming in 2011 and 2018.
- Texas Tech entered this season ranked tied for 21st all-time with 38 career bowl appearances, matching the totals of fellow Big 12 member West Virginia as well as Ole Miss, BYU and Notre Dame. The Red Raiders are tied for third among current Big 12 members for bowl appearances, trailing only Texas (57) and Oklahoma (54).

RANDOM TIDBITS HEADING INTO NOVEMBER

- Texas Tech is coming off its lone open weekend on the 2021 season as the Red Raiders are 17-13 during the Big 12 era in the week following an open date. The Red Raiders have wins in two of their last four games following an open date after topping West Virginia during both the 2019 and 2020 seasons. Tech also had losses to No. 8 Texas and No. 23 Oklahoma State last season during that span.
- This marks the furthest the Red Raiders had had to wait for an open date since 2015 when the Red Raiders lone weekend off came prior to the regular-season finale at Texas.
- Texas Tech is looking to open the month of November with a victory for the second time in the last three seasons as the Red Raiders previously went on the road to top West Virginia, 38-17, in 2019. Prior to that win, Tech had not previously started the final month of the regular season with a win since a 27-17 victory over No. 14 Missouri in 2010.
- The month of November hasn't been overly kind to the Red Raiders in recent years as Texas Tech has finished with multiple wins just three times since the start of the 2011 campaign. During that span, the Red Raiders were able to notch a pair of wins during the 2015 and 2017 seasons. Of note, Tech did close the 2020 season with wins in two of its last three games, but the final contest against Kansas did not come until Dec. 5 as part of the altered scheduled.
- The Oklahoma game started a challenging final stretch of the season for the Red Raiders, who were slated to face four-consecutive top-25 teams to close the year at the time (Iowa State has since dropped out). With Oklahoma State and Baylor still part of both top-25 polls, it marks the first time since 2011 where the Red Raiders have closed the regular season with three of their final four games against ranked opponents. Texas Tech also had similar difficult final stretches of the regular season with three ranked opponents to close both the 1998 and 2008 campaigns.
- Texas Tech's remaining schedule ranks as the third-toughest in the FBS as Iowa State, Oklahoma State and Baylor are a combined 21-6 this season. The final stretch only ranks behind the schedules for both Georgia Tech and Ohio State, whose future opponents are a combined 22-5 this season.
- Texas Tech has three wins away from home this season after victories already at a neutral site against Houston and then at West Virginia and Kansas. If the Red Raiders are able to close the regular season with a win at Baylor, it would mark the most victories on the road or a neutral site since 2017 when the Red Raiders headed home with victories over Houston, Kansas, Baylor (AT&T Stadium - Arlington) and Texas.
- Both of Texas Tech's conference wins this season have come on the road as the Red Raiders won at West Virginia and Kansas in recent weeks. It marks the first time Tech has secured back-to-back Big 12 road wins since 2018 when the Red Raiders opened their league slate with a 41-17 rout of No. 15 Oklahoma State and then followed with a 17-14 victory at TCU.
- The Red Raiders have found multiple ways to find the end zone this season as Texas Tech currently ranks tied for 15th nationally with two defensive touchdowns, which have come from interceptions by both Riko Jeffers and Marquis Waters. Baylor and Oklahoma State are the only other Big 12 programs with multiple defensive touchdowns so far this season.
- Texas Tech ranks 33rd nationally and third in the Big 12 for kick return defense despite five-straight weeks of facing a returner ranked in the top 35 of the FBS. The Red Raiders, who are giving up only 18.5 yards per return, have seen the likes of Kansas State's Malik Knowles (7th), West Virginia's Winston Wright (12th), Kansas' Kenny Logan Jr. (18th) and Texas' D'Shawn Jaimson (35th). TCU's JD Spielman leads the Big 12 at 33.6 yards per return but does not have enough attempts per game to enter the NCAA rankings. Over that five-game stretch, opponents only returned nine kicks for 138 yards, only a 15.3 yards per attempt average.
- Texas Tech created early momentum against Kansas State with a Tyrique Matthews forced fumble that was recovered by McLane Mannix on the Red Raiders' kickoff following its opening touchdown. It was one of two fumble recoveries on the day for the Red Raiders, who only had one coming into the game.
- Texas Tech was previously 5-0 this season when allowing 29 points or less until falling to Kansas State. The Red Raiders had not previously dropped a game when allowing less than 29 points since falling to Arizona, 28-14, early in the 2019 season.
- Texas Tech has regularly faced Oklahoma and Iowa State in back-to-back games in recent years as the two schools have appeared, in various orders, behind each other four times previously since 2011.

ON THIS DATE...

TEXAS TECH 41, SMU 24

Date: Nov. 13, 1993

Location: Lubbock, Texas | Attendance: XXX

Recap: Bam Morris rushed for 222 yards and three touchdowns en route to leading the Red Raiders to a strong second half in a 41-24 victory over SMU late in the 1993 season. The Red Raiders, who had 539 yards of total offense, scored 27 points in the second half alone, pulling away from a 21-14 game entering the fourth quarter with three-straight touchdowns to open the final frame. Robert Hall threw for 267 yards and two touchdowns, while also carrying for 39 yards in the win. The Texas Tech defense, meanwhile, sacked SMU quarterback Ramon Flanigan eight times.

Reese's Senior Bowl Watch List

- If the season ended today, Texas Tech would have, statistically, accomplished one of its better seasons in recent memory in stopping the run as opponents are only averaging 141.7 yards per game on the ground. That average would rank as the Red Raiders' lowest since giving up only 135.1 yards per game in 2009.
- Texas Tech was flagged only one time for five yards at Kansas as a false start penalty in the fourth quarter pushed Jonathan Garibay back for a 48-yard field goal attempt. It marked a school-record fifth time the Red Raiders were only penalized one time as Texas Tech also had only one flag in 1988 versus Arkansas, 1991 versus Rice, 1992 against Texas A&M and 2016 at TCU. Texas Tech's school record for fewest penalty yards also came in three of those games previously with the lone exception being the 1991 contest with Rice.
- The performance against Kansas followed similar disciplined approaches against both West Virginia (2 penalties, 20 yards) and TCU (4 penalties, 25 yards) where the Red Raiders combined for only six flags for 45 yards. Texas Tech was flagged 12 times for 90 yards in over a four-game stretch against West Virginia, TCU, Kansas and Kansas State before committing five penalties for 60 yards in the loss to Oklahoma.
- Texas Tech currently ranks 24th nationally in fewest penalty yards (391), 25th for fewest penalty yards per game (43.4), 27th in fewest total penalties (46) and 28th for fewest penalties per game (5.11). The Red Raiders' 46 penalties this season and 391 penalty yards are the lowest amounts for Tech through the first nine games in a season dating back to 2000.

NEW TO TOWN BUT NOT TO THE GAME

- One of the goals for former head coach Matt Wells and his staff upon their arrival in Dec. 2018 was making the Red Raiders older as a roster. Since that time, the staff signed 22 scholarship transfers from four-year colleges, including 17 that appear on the 2021 roster, mainly in starting roles.
- An area, in particular, Wells and his staff took advantage of was transfers with multiple years of eligibility remaining as Texas Tech signed 14 players during his tenure that will ultimately play multiple seasons for the Red Raiders. That total includes nine Red Raiders who are entering their second season at Texas Tech this season and three more who will have multiple seasons of eligibility after arriving in Lubbock this past January.
- Texas Tech has signed the bulk of its transfers from other power-five schools as 14 players have arrived after playing in the ACC, Big 12, Big Ten, SEC or Pac-12. Seven of Texas Tech's transfer additions for this season came from power-five schools as the Red Raiders signed the likes of Malik Dunlap (N.C. State), Reggie Pearson Jr. (Wisconsin), Jesiah Pierre (Florida), Tyler Shough (Oregon), T.J. Storment (TCU), Marquis Waters (Duke) and Rayshad Williams (UCLA).
- A few have garnered notice from the Athletic's Max Olson and Bruce Feldman as part of their College Football Transfer Portal Top 100 that was released prior to the season: Tyler Shough (No. 21), Marquis Waters (No. 49), T.J. Storment (No. 74).

A NEW TERM FOR 2021 - SUPER SENIORS

- Media and fans alike have likely heard a new term throughout the 2021 season - Super Seniors. The phrase describes many of the seniors across the country who decided to utilize the extra year granted by the NCAA for the 2020 season.
- The defense was the greatest benefactor of the Super Senior movement, retaining a collective 156 career starts between seven players entering this season. The group is led by Colin Schooler, the team's most veteran player, who owned 41 career starts between his playing time at Arizona (33) and Texas Tech (9), entering 2021.
- The offense boasts five Super Seniors who owned a collective 58 starts among them entering this season. The most experienced of that group is shared by a pair of transfers in Kaylon Geiger (19) and T.J. Storment (19), who each arrived in Lubbock as Super Seniors.
- For Texas Tech, the Red Raiders lead the Big 12 Conference with 12 super seniors according to preseason research by the Associated Press. The list of returnees includes nine players that were on Tech's roster this past fall as well as three others in T.J. Storment, who transferred to join the Red Raiders this spring following one season at TCU, Kaylon Geiger Sr., a veteran wide receiver from Troy, and Marquis Waters, who started in 35 games over his career at Duke.
- According to the Associated Press' research this past spring, Texas Tech is tied for fifth among power-five programs with 12 super seniors as the Red Raiders only trail the likes of Illinois (17), Arizona State (14), USC (14) and Rutgers (13) and are tied with Pittsburgh (12). The arrival of Geiger pushed the Red Raiders ahead of Arizona (11), Utah (11) and Tennessee (11).

THEY'RE THE CAPTAINS NOW

- Texas Tech named 13 team captains to the leadership council at the start of preseason camp following a vote of their teammates. The captains circle consists of seven seniors, five juniors and one sophomore this season.
- Among the elected captains, Riko Jeffers, Erik Ezukanma and SaRodorick Thompson were selected to represent their peers for a third-consecutive season. It was the second-straight year for Dawson Deaton, Tony Bradford Jr. and Jaylon Hutchings to be recognized.

2021 TEXAS TECH TEAM CAPTAINS

Seniors: Josh Burger, OL; Dawson Deaton, OL; DaMarcus Fields, DB; Riko Jeffers, LB; McLane Mannix, WR; Colin Schooler, LB; Marquis Waters, DB
Juniors: Tony Bradford Jr., OL; Erik Ezukanma, WR; Jaylon Hutchings, DL; Tyler Shough, QB; SaRodorick Thompson, RB
Sophomores: Caleb Rogers, OL

YOU'RE ON SCHOLARSHIP

- Four Red Raiders closed preseason camp by hearing the three words every walk-on dreams of: "you're on scholarship." The Texas Tech staff gave that opportunity to four different Red Raiders prior to the season as sophomore offensive lineman Aaron Castro, sophomore linebacker Bryce Ramirez, junior tight end Henry Teeter and senior defensive lineman Troy Te'o were all recognized for their hard work.
- The presentation was set up, in part, by now interim head coach Sonny Cumbie, a former walk-on himself who discussed his journey to eventually earning a scholarship and then becoming the Red Raiders' starter behind center. Cumbie remains one of the most successful walk-ons in school history after leading the Red Raiders to a memorable win at the 2004 Holiday Bowl to close his career.
- Texas Tech has made it a habit to reward at least one walk-on with a scholarship in recent years, a list that includes three other current Red Raiders in senior wide receiver Dalton Rigdon (presented in 2019), junior place kicker Trey Wolff (honored following 2019 season) and junior running back Xavier White (earned in 2020).

DEGREES IN HAND

- Texas Tech entered the 2021 season with 16 student-athletes who are current college graduates, including seven who earned their undergraduate degrees in Lubbock. The list of Tech graduates includes Seth Collins, Dawson Deaton, Riko Jeffers, McLane Mannix, DaMarcus Fields and Nelson Mbanasor. In addition, nine other Red Raiders transferred to Texas Tech after earning their degrees at various other universities. That list features Brandon Bouyer-Randle (Michigan State), Josh Burger (Wofford), Eric Monroe (LSU), Jacob Morgenstern (Duke), Colin Schooler (Arizona), Chadarius Townsend (Alabama), Marquis Waters (Duke), Tyler Shough (Oregon) and T.J. Stormont (Colorado State) and Matthew Young (New Mexico State).

CHAMPIONSHIP EXPERIENCE

- Texas Tech has three members of its program with national championship rings in former Alabama running back Chadarius Townsend and LSU safety Eric Monroe. Townsend was a redshirt on Alabama's 2017 national championship team and later played in the Crimson Tide's College Football Playoff run in 2018. Monroe, meanwhile, saw action in 12 games during the 2019 campaign, including both of LSU's victories in the CFP. Texas Tech linebackers coach Kevin Cosgrove was also part of LSU's national championship run in 2019 as he was a senior defensive analyst for the Tigers.

TEXAS TECH AMONG NATION'S MOST ACTIVE TEAMS IN COMMUNITY

- Texas Tech continues to be recognized at the national level as the Red Raider football programs recently learned it ranked second this past year in community-service hours among FBS schools that utilize the Helper Helper app. The Red Raiders completed more than 1,200 hours of community service this past year, which ranked only behind Boston College among FBS football programs. Texas Tech was No. 10 in community service hours served a year ago, a steady increase of 350 hours that saw the Red Raiders volunteer for 39 different opportunities with 19 organizations.
- Even with the COVID-19 pandemic, the Red Raiders took precautions to make sure their community was served as Texas Tech continued its tradition of volunteering for a service project on the Friday before every home game. The Special Spectator program, meanwhile, moved to a virtual format, which allowed the Red Raiders to still reward a local student who has experienced a tragic life event, normally of a physical nature.
- The Special Spectator program is a cornerstone of Texas Tech's community outreach as it provides a two-day experience, in normal years, at a football practice, a tour of the Football Training Facility and Sports Performance Center as well as on-field recognition prior to the start of a selected home football game.

TEXAS TECH FOOTBALL HELPS ESTABLISH LOCAL SCHOLARSHIP

- The Texas Tech football program, in conjunction with 100 Black Men of West Texas, established a community scholarship this summer that will benefit a local student each year that plans to attend Texas Tech University. The scholarship will cover all tuition and fees for one full year, providing a life-changing opportunity for a local student to attend the university. The scholarship recipient will be selected each year by a committee comprised of representatives from the 100 Black Men of West Texas organization as well as Red Raider football student-athletes.

POLICE CHIEF, TONY BRADFORD JR.

- In the midst of a national conversation regarding social injustice in this country, Texas Tech has found a voice with a unique perspective - junior defensive lineman Tony Bradford Jr., who desires to join law enforcement once his playing career is over. Bradford's goal is to one day rise to the role of police chief in a major city where he says he "can make real change."
- Bradford has received a crash course in his future profession over the last year as he has served as a security guard with the Texas Tech Police Department. Bradford chose to spend his 2020 Spring Break with TTPD in what was expected to be a one-week internship but was extended through June due to the COVID-19 pandemic that ultimately canceled spring practice. Bradford returned to TTPD this past spring and summer, occasionally even working other Texas Tech athletics events.

WOMBLE FOOTBALL CENTER

Texas Tech Athletics announced prior to the TCU game a $20 million gift from Board of Regents member Dustin R. Womble to fund construction of a new football training facility. It marks the largest one-time gift to the athletics department in its history. The lead gift will help Texas Tech continue to reshape its athletics facilities with the help of Womble, who already provided more than $10 million to fund a state-of-the-art basketball practice facility in his name, the Dustin R. Womble Basketball Center that opened this past May across from United Supermarkets Arena.

Once completed, Texas Tech will boast one of the largest investments into its football program in history as construction of the Womble Football Center is expected to be a $40-50 million project. The two-story complex will remain in its same location adjacent to both Jones AT&T Stadium and the Sports Performance Center, which has earned rave reviews since its unveiling in 2017 as one of the premier indoor football facilities in the country. As part of the project, Texas Tech will more than double its physical space in the Womble Football Center, which is slated to begin construction in early 2022 in anticipation of opening prior to the 2023 season. The state-of-the-art complex will house a nearly 14,000-square foot weight room and a 7,000-square foot locker room as well as coaches offices, position rooms, a players' lounge and space for nutrition, athletic training and recruiting.

The Womble Football Center is the second project in Texas Tech's three-part master plan for its football program, which also includes future renovations to the south end zone of Jones AT&T Stadium. The projects are among the final items for The Campaign for Fearless Champions, which has transformed Texas Tech's facilities since its inception. Overall, the campaign has funded 25 athletic facility projects to date and has invested more than $200 million into the athletics department, including critical student-athlete resources such as scholarship endowments, nutrition and the J.T. and Margaret Talkington Leadership Academy.

To date, Womble has gifted his alma mater with more than $30 million as part of The Campaign for Fearless Champions, placing him historically among one of Texas Tech University's largest individual donors and the largest athletics donor. He joins the ranks of other generous supporters such as Jim Sowell, Ed Whitacre and Jerry Rawls.

UNIFORM WATCH (Since 2009)

Over the past decade, Texas Tech has been among the most innovative teams in the country related to team uniforms. The Red Raiders have multiple uniform combinations in their wardrobe and often do not use the same combination twice in a season. MAKING IT LOOK E-Z

Erik Ezukanma has established himself as the Big 12's top wide receiver over the past two-plus seasons as he has caught 130 passes for 2,091 yards and 13 touchdowns over his career. Ezukanma became the 15th Red Raider since 2000 to reach 2,000 yards for his career against Oklahoma as he currently leads all active Big 12 players with 2,043 receiving yards since the start of the 2019 season alone.

Ezukanma hit the 100-yard mark for the third time this season against Oklahoma after catching a career-high eight passes for 123 yards and a touchdown. Ezukanma, who now has five 100-yard outings in his career, enters this weekend ranked second in the Big 12 for receiving yards per game (78.9), third in receptions per game (5.0) and fourth in total receiving yards (631).

OFFENSIVE NOTEBOOK

THOMPSON CONTINUES TO MOVE UP SCHOOL RECORD BOOK

- Texas Tech has turned to a reliable option out of the backfield in recent weeks as SaRodorick Thompson has found the end zone eight times in the last seven games. Over the last five games alone, Thompson has three multi-touchdown performances as he scored twice on the ground against both West Virginia and Kansas State and then three times versus TCU. He now has 11 multi-touchdown games during his career, which trails Taurean Henderson's 14 among Red Raiders dating back to 2000.
- Thompson's three touchdowns versus the Horned Frogs marked a career high and was the most for a Red Raider since Ta'Zhawn Henry found the end zone four times against Houston early in the 2018 season. He is the 10th Red Raider since 2000 to rush for at least three touchdowns in a game.
- Thompson's two touchdowns against Kansas State pushed him to 31 for his career, moving him into a tie for seventh all-time with Larry Isaac (1973-76). His first touchdown of the afternoon pushed him past the trio of Billy Taylor (1974-77), Zebbie Lethridge (1994-97) and Doak Walker Award winner Byron Hanspard (1994-96).
- Thompson could potentially further add to his legacy in the coming weeks as he is 174 rushing yards shy of reaching 2,000 for his career. To date, Texas Tech has had 13 players in school history eclipse the 2,000-yard mark. Thompson would be only the fifth Red Raider to do so since 2000, joining the likes of DeAndre Washington (2011-15), Taurean Henderson (2002-05), Baron Batch (2006, 2008-10) and Shannon Woods (2005-08). In addition to those already ranked in the top 10, the following three Red Raiders also rushed for 2,000 yards during their respective careers: Woods (2,249), Doug McCutchen (2,222; 1970-72) and Bobby Cavazos (2,137; 1951-53).
- Following his 2020 sophomore campaign, Thompson became the first Red Raider to lead the team in rushing back-to-back years since DeAndre Washington during the 2014-15 seasons. Thompson is only the sixth Red Raider all-time to lead the team in rushing as both a freshman and sophomore, joining an elite list that includes two Doak Walker Award winners in Byron "Bam" Morris (1991-92) and Byron Hanspard (1994-95) as well as James Gray (1986-87), Ricky Williams (1997) and Taurean Henderson (2002-03).
- Thompson could become the first Red Raider to lead Texas Tech in rushing over three-consecutive seasons since Baron Batch from 2008-10. If he and Erik Ezukanma once again lead the team in rushing and receiving yards, respectively, it would mark the first time Texas Tech has had the same two players lead each category over three-straight years since the school began tracking yearly leaders in 1951.

YES, WE RUN THE BALL HERE AT TEXAS TECH

- Texas Tech has been a force on the ground this season as the Red Raiders have totaled 1,452 rushing yards, their third-highest total through nine games dating back to 2000. Tech previously had 1,712 rushing yards at the same point in the 2015 season as well as 1,511 late in the 2019 campaign.
- Texas Tech's success on the ground has been particularly noticeable in the red zone as the Red Raiders have rushed for 24 touchdowns this season, which is tied for 13th currently in the FBS. Tech is tied for the Big 12 lead in the category with Baylor.
- The Red Raiders have totaled 12 touchdowns on the ground the past four games with four against both TCU and Kansas and then three versus Kansas State. Texas Tech had not previously found pay dirt four times on the ground in back-to-back weeks since early in the 2018 season against Lamar and Houston. It marked the first time Tech had done so versus Big 12 foes since the final two regular-season games of the 2015 season against Kansas State and Texas.
- Texas Tech rushed for a season-high 244 yards in the win at Kansas, marking the seventh time the Red Raiders have hit the 200-yard mark since 2019 and the second time in as many weeks. Texas Tech used 10 different rushers in its win over Kansas, marking its most in a game since the Red Raiders used the same amount in the 2017 season opener against Eastern Washington.
- Texas Tech's final touchdown against Kansas - a 2-yard pass from Henry Colombi to Travis Koontz - snapped a streak of 11-consecutive scores that came via the ground. It was the longest such streak for the Red Raiders since 1977 when Tech put together a similar streak from its final touchdown against Arizona to two of its next three games against Rice and TCU. Tech has scored 15 of its last 18 touchdowns on the ground entering this weekend.

TEXAS TECH KNOWS OFFENSE

■ One thing is certain when watching Texas Tech – the Red Raiders are going to find their way onto the scoreboard. Tech is currently riding a consecutive-game scoring streak that spans 300 games dating back to the 1997 season. The streak, which began against Texas A&M on Oct. 25, 1997, ranks eighth nationally and is the third-longest active streak in the Big 12 behind TCU and Oklahoma.

WAITING THEIR TURN

■ The journey to earning the starting nod didn't come without a few years of waiting for Tyler Shough at Oregon as he sat behind eventual first round selection Jordan Herbert for his first two seasons with the Ducks. Herbert, the NFL AP Rookie of the Year this past season with the Los Angeles Chargers, was Oregon's starter in each of Shough's first two seasons with the Ducks prior to him being named the starter prior to the 2020 campaign.

■ Likewise, fellow Red Raider quarterback Henry Colombi had to wait his time at behind another 2020 NFL Draft first-round selection in former Utah State signal caller Jordan Love. Colombi was the primary backup to Love during his final season at Utah State before eventually transferring to Texas Tech in the weeks leading up to the 2020 campaign. Love, who jumped up NFL draft boards as a sophomore quarterback, was chosen 26th overall by the Green Bay Packers

FUTURE IS BRIGHT IN THE QUARTERBACK ROOM

■ Sonny Cumbie entered this season feeling the future is bright in the quarterback room thanks to a pair of freshmen in Donovan Smith and Behren Morton. Smith, the son of running backs coach DeAndre Smith, arrived at Texas Tech prior to the 2020 season out of nearby Frenship High School in the Lubbock area. He threw for more than 3,000 yards and 25 touchdowns as a senior after previously starring at Bishop Gorman High School in Las Vegas.

■ Smith's role has continued to grow in the offense in recent weeks as he has relieved Colombi at various moments, giving the Red Raiders a heavy pass-run option behind center. He put together his best performance of the season at Oklahoma as he played the entire second half, completing 17-of-22 passes for 192 yards and a touchdown, while also rushing seven times for 22 yards. Smith previously rushed six times for 37 yards and a touchdown while also completing 4-of-5 passes for 70 yards at Kansas two weeks earlier. It marked the first time he has attempted a pass this season. He has 15 rushing attempts for 72 yards and two touchdowns now on the season.

■ Morton, meanwhile, is the highest-rated quarterback to ever sign with the Red Raiders after totaling more than 8,800 passing yards and 84 touchdowns in three seasons at Eastland High School. He was a consensus four-star prospect, ranking sixth nationally among pro-style quarterbacks. Morton grew up in Lubbock for part of his youth as his father was the head football coach at Monterey High School in Lubbock for 11 years.

CUMBIE KNOWS THE QUARTERBACK POSITION

■ A record-setting signal caller, himself, there's little doubt Sonny Cumbie knows the quarterback position. During his time at TCU, he coached several of the Horned Frogs' top quarterbacks in school history, namely Trevone Boykin, who was a two-time All-American and a two-time finalist for the Davey O'Brien Award. Boykin, the 2014 Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year, finished fourth in the Heisman Trophy voting as a junior in 2014 and then ninth as a senior a year later.

■ Cumbie helped push TCU to the Big 12 Championship game and a top-10 ranking in his first year as play caller in 2017 as the Horned Frogs closed the year at 11-3 overall following a 39-37 victory over No. 13 Stanford in the Valero Alamo Bowl. Kenny Hill set the TCU single-season mark for completion percentage (67.2) while leading the FBS for third-down completion percentage (67.3).

■ Max Duggan blossomed into the latest successful Cumbie protégé in 2019 as he broke the TCU true freshman records with 2,077 passing yards and 15 touchdowns after earning the starting nod in only the third game of the season. In his two seasons under Cumbie, Duggan has already thrown for 3,872 yards and 25 touchdowns, while also rushing for an additional 1,081 yards and 10 touchdowns. He was an honorable mention All-Big 12 pick following his true freshman season.

PLENTY OF EXPERIENCE UNDER CENTER FOR COLOMBI

■ Henry Colombi has recorded a pair of 300-yard performances since taking over at quarterback in the second quarter against Texas. The senior threw for 324 passing yards against the Longhorns after relieving an injured Tyler Shough, marking the first 300-yard outing of his career. He added his second 300-yard game three weeks ago with a career-high 344 yards against TCU. He came close to another 300-yard outing in the win over West Virginia with 266 passing yards.

■ Colombi powered the Red Raider offense on a game-winning drive in the closing minutes of the West Virginia win in what was his first start of the season and the fifth of his career. It was the second-consecutive year Colombi made his first start of the season against the Mountaineers as his 2020 outing versus West Virginia marked his first collegiate start.

■ Colombi was the third-highest graded quarterback (93.0) by Pro Football Focus for his performance against Texas. He trailed only the grades of Alabama starter Bryce Young (94.2) and Pittsburgh quarterback Kenny Pickett (93.3) for that week.

■ Colombi made his debut as a Red Raider at Kansas State a year ago as the then-junior replaced an injured Alan Bowman on Texas Tech's second offensive drive of the afternoon. Colombi helped lead the Red Raiders back from a 14-point halftime deficit with two touchdown passes in the second half before finishing 30-of-42 overall for 244 yards.

■ Colombi arrived at Texas Tech in the weeks leading up to the 2020 season after transferring from Utah State where he previously played from 2017-18. Colombi was granted an NCAA waiver to make him immediately eligible for 2020 season. He was later named an honorable mention All-Big 12 selection following his debut season as a Red Raider.

RED RAIDERS IN THE NFL

SPORTS LARGEST CONTRACT

- There isn't a bigger star in the NFL currently than Texas Tech's own Patrick Mahomes II. The one-time Red Raider gunslinger has transformed the NFL in only four professional seasons, claiming NFL MVP honors in 2018 before leading the Kansas City Chiefs to back-to-back Super Bowl appearances, including a win in 2020.
- With his Super Bowl win over the San Francisco 49ers, Mahomes became the youngest player in history to be named NFL MVP and also win a Super Bowl. Mahomes, who at only 24 years of age, was tabbed Super Bowl MVP after leading the Chiefs to only their second Super Bowl title in history and their first since 1970.
- In July 2020, Mahomes signed the richest contract in NFL history as he and the Chiefs agreed on a 10-year extension worth up to $503 million. It marked the second time in school history where a Red Raider has signed the richest NFL contract as Ring of Honor member Donny Anderson previously did so with the Green Bay Packers upon being drafted in 1965.
- Dating back to his time as a Red Raider, the 2016 Sammy Baugh Trophy winner is the only quarterback in history to throw for 5,000 yards at both the collegiate and NFL levels.

RED RAIDERS FIND BALANCE EARLY IN CUMBIE'S RETURN

- Sonny Cumbie has returned the Red Raiders to their high-scoring ways early in his tenure as offensive coordinator as Texas Tech is currently averaging 32.8 points per game, a steady improvement from 29.1 points per outing a year ago. The Red Raiders enter this weekend ranked 34th in the FBS and fourth in the Big 12 for scoring offense.
- Through nine games, the Red Raiders, known for various versions of the Air Raid offense since 2000, have actually attempted more rushes (304) to passes (272) to this point. It marks the first time Texas Tech has recorded more rushing attempts than passing attempts during that span since moving to a spread offense in 2000.
- A native of nearby Snyder, Texas, Cumbie helped TCU boast the Big 12's second-best conference record (38-25) and third-best overall mark (58-30) over his seven seasons, which coincided with six bowl appearances. He oversaw the Horned Frogs' quarterbacks throughout his tenure and served as the sole offensive play caller each of his final four years.
- Once the quarterback in one of Texas Tech's biggest bowl wins, Cumbie threw for 4,742 yards as a senior in 2004, the sixth-highest total in school history and one of the top-25 marks in NCAA history. Cumbie, who waited patiently as a former walk-on quarterback to finally lead the prolific Tech offense, twice led the Red Raiders to 70-point games that season en route to garnering honorable mention All-Big 12 accolades as well as Academic All-Big 12 first team honors.
- Cumbie might be best remembered, however, for his 520 passing yards in Texas Tech's 2004 Holiday Bowl victory over (then) No. 4 California, capping off an 8-4 season. Cumbie was tabbed the Holiday Bowl MVP for his performance as he still owns the Holiday Bowl and the Tech bowl records for most passing yards.

POTENT NOTABLES (OFFENSE EDITION)

- Texas Tech has been among the most explosive teams in the country this season as the Red Raiders rank tied for second nationally with 20 plays of at least 40 yards, which trails Florida International by one. Tech also ranks tied for fourth for plays of 50 yards or longer with 11 to this point.
- Texas Tech entered the Oklahoma game as the FBS leader in 40-yard or better plays this season, but was held without an explosive play of that distance for the first time all season.
- Texas Tech had two passing touchdowns versus Oklahoma compared to only one on the ground, marking the first time the Red Raiders found the end zone more times via the air rather than the running game since facing Texas to open Big 12 play.
- Texas Tech has put points on the board in 92.0 percent of its red zone appearances this season (35-of-38), which ranks 15th in the FBS and third in the Big 12 entering this weekend. The Red Raiders have found the end zone in 26 of those red zone appearances as Tech has failed to put points on the board only twice - via an early fumble against Houston, a fourth-down stop versus TCU and then the end of the half at Oklahoma.
- Austin McNamara had a quiet afternoon at Kansas as he was not called on to punt once in the blowout win. It marked the first time Texas Tech has failed to punt in a game since defeating Louisiana Tech in 2016.
- Texas Tech's success on the ground this season placed the Red Raiders in a rare circumstance against Kansas State as Texas Tech attempted nearly twice as many rushes as passes. In fact, it marked the first time since the 1999 regular-season finale against Oklahoma where the Red Raiders completed 10 or fewer passes and had under 20 pass attempts.
- Travis Koontz hauled in his third touchdown pass of the season against Kansas, giving him the team-high through nine weeks in the season. Texas Tech has not had a tight end lead the team in receiving touchdowns since moving to a spread offense in 2000.
- Kaylon Geiger Sr. has two 100-yard performances this season, giving him 11 now for his career between his time at Troy and Texas Tech. Since the start of the 2019 season, Geiger ranks tied for third among FBS receivers for 100-yard performances, trailing only the 15 from Purdue's David Bell and the 12 from former Alabama standout DeVonta Smith (currently with Philadelphia Eagles).
- Tahj Brooks returned to the backfield against Kansas State after missing four-straight games due to an injury. He received four carries in his first game back, totaling 33 yards, including a long of 23 on the day. Brooks was the breakout star for the Texas Tech offense early this season as he has carried 35 times for 284 yards and four touchdowns over the first three games. Brooks finished with a career-high 134 rushing yards against Houston and then added 103 on the ground versus SFA, marking his first two games to reach the 100-yard mark. Brooks had been explosive in finding the end zone, scoring on touchdown runs of 41 and 44 yards against Houston before breaking loose on a 67-yard scamper against SFA.
- Eric Ezukanma has found the end zone via the ground game in two of the last three games as he scampered nine yards to score at Kansas on Oct. 16 before going 45 yards on Oct. 23 against Kansas State. He is the first Red Raider wide receiver to rush for at least two touchdowns twice in a season since Jakeem Grant had the same total to close his career in 2015.
- Loic Founonji has been the recipient of a pair of long catches in recent weeks as he hauled in a 69-yard touchdown pass from Henry Colombi against Texas before converting a key 3rd-and-4 play to start the fourth quarter with a 46-yard strike at West Virginia. The touchdown at Texas marked the longest reception of Founonji's career as his previous high was 31 yards, which came on his only other career touchdown at Oklahoma State in 2020.

PLENTY OF EXPERIENCE FEATURED ALONG OFFENSIVE LINE

- Steve Farmer returned the bulk of his position room this season as the Red Raiders brought back four starters on the offensive line, including All-Big 12 second team selection Dawson Deaton at center. Texas Tech boasts 110 career starts as a Red Raider among its offensive line and 151 career starts when you factor in a pair of transfers such as Josh Burger and T.J. Stormont.
- Deaton, a two-year starter at center, ranks second on the team with 31 career starts, trailing only DaMarcus Fields' 45 career starts among returners with starts logged at Texas Tech.
- In addition to Deaton, the Red Raiders also benefit from the return of junior Weston Wright and senior Josh Burger, who both started all 10 games in 2020. Wright has now started in 27-consecutive games, while Burger, who moved from right tackle to right guard this season, has been in the starting lineup over 44-straight games dating back to his time at Wofford. Burger also played a significant role in Dawson's absence against West Virginia and Kansas, stepping in to quarterback the offensive line at center for a game.

DEFENSIVE NOTEBOOK

RED RAIDERS RELYING ON STRONG RUSHING DEFENSE

- Texas Tech recorded its sixth game of the season where its opponent rushed for less than 100 yards at Oklahoma as the Sooners were held to 72 yards on the ground. Dating back to 2000, this is the first time the Red Raiders have kept opponents under 100 rushing yards in six of the first nine games of a season. It marks the first time during that span that the Red Raiders had six or more games in a season where the opponent posted 100 rushing yards or less in a game.
- Among teams nationally, Texas Tech is one of seven FBS schools currently to hold opponents to 100 rushing yards or less six times already this season, joining the likes of Alabama, Georgia, Iowa, UTSA, San Diego State and Wisconsin.
- The Red Raiders limited Kansas State to only 81 rushing yards on Oct. 23 - roughly half the Wildcats' season average entering the game. It marked the first time this season where the Red Raiders lost despite holding opponents to less than 100 rushing yards as the Red Raiders were previously 4-0 in such games with wins over Houston, Stephen F. Austin, Florida International and West Virginia. Kansas totaled 62 of its 145 rushing yards late in the fourth quarter after Tech had turned to many of its developmental players.
- The Red Raiders allowed only one explosive play of 20 yards or longer against Kansas, marking the first time Texas Tech has done so this season.
- The Texas Tech secondary stepped up in a big way against Kansas, limiting the Jayhawks to only 128 passing yards a week after surrendering just 104 in the loss to TCU. It marked the first time the Red Raiders had kept a Big 12 opponent under 130 passing yards in consecutive games since facing Oklahoma State (94 yards) and Oklahoma (118 yards) late in the 2005 season. The Red Raiders matched their season high with seven pass breakups against Kansas.

POTENT NOTABLES (DEFENSE EDITION)

- Six different Red Raiders have picked off a pass so far this season as Texas Tech currently ranks fourth in the Big 12 with seven interceptions. Dadrión Taylor-Demerson leads the group with two after picking off his second pass of the season at Kansas. The Red Raiders haven't had six different players with an interception in a season, let alone the first nine games, since 2017 when 10 players picked off a pass.
- Texas Tech's seven interceptions this season are already two more than its entire total from the 2020 campaign. It took the Red Raiders a total of 10 games for its five interceptions a year ago.
- Tyree Wilson has recorded 6.0 of his 10.0 tackles for loss in the last four games as he set a career high 2.0 against both Kansas and Kansas State. Both of his tackles for loss against Kansas went for sacks, giving him a team-leading 5.0 now on the season. It marked the first time in Wilson's career where he had two solo sacks in a game.
- Among his Big 12 counterparts, Wilson ranks sixth in the league with his 10.0 tackles for loss. Wilson is only the second defensive lineman and the first since Brandon Sharpe in 2009 to reach double digits for tackles for loss by the ninth game of the season dating back to the start of the 2000 season.
- It didn't take long for Krishon Merriweather to emerge as one of Texas Tech's most steady forces in its linebacker core as the junior-college transfer led the team with 75 tackles a year ago and was second with 6.5 tackles for loss. He closed the season by matching his career-high with 12 tackles in the win over Kansas. Through nine games this season, Merriweather ranks tied for fifth on the team with 36 tackles, including 3.5 that have gone for a loss as part of a Red Raider defense that often rotates six linebackers.
- Riko Jeffers posted five tackles against both Kansas State and Oklahoma, giving him 51 on the season now, which ranks third overall behind only Colin Schooler and Eric Monroe. Jeffers has 278 tackles for his career after totaling at least 55 tackles in each of the last three seasons, including two with 70 or more stops.
- Texas Tech is one of 37 FBS programs and one of three in the Big 12 to own multiple defensive touchdowns this season. Tech made a knack for finding the end zone via its defense during the 2020 season as the Red Raiders ranked tied for seventh in the FBS and second in the Big 12 with three defensive touchdowns. It marked the most defensive touchdowns in a season by the Red Raiders since the 2017 campaign when Texas Tech had four over 13 games.
- Eric Monroe finished one tackle shy of his career high against Kansas State as he totaled 11 stops, marking the third time in his career to reach double digits. Each of those three games have come during his time as a Red Raider.
- Texas Tech's improved depth defensively has been evident this season as only four Red Raiders have started in all nine games. That list defensively includes linebackers Colin Schooler and Riko Jeffers as well as defensive linemen Jaylon Hutchings and Tyree Wilson.

TAKEAWAYS KEY FOR PATTERSON-LED DEFENSE

- Third-year defensive coordinator Keith Patterson, who returned eight starters on his side of the ball this season, has seen his defensive produce 10 takeaways thus far in 2021.
- Patterson's first year leading the defense was highlighted by an aggressive scheme that had Texas Tech force 19 turnovers while allowing 30.3 points per game, its lowest average since 2009. The Red Raiders have totaled 39 takeaways over Patterson's two-plus seasons.
- Patterson's defenses have long been known for their ability to create turnovers as Utah State led the nation with 32 takeaways in 2018 prior to his hire at Texas Tech. Patterson's unit has created 71 takeaways the past three-plus seasons alone, which ranks eighth nationally among active defensive coordinators.
- Patterson has mentored three Red Raiders into NFL Draft selections during his short tenure as linebacker Jordyn Brooks was selected 27th overall by the Seattle Seahawks in 2019 followed by defensive lineman Broderick Washington Jr. in the fifth round with the Baltimore Ravens. Defensive back Zech McPhearson might have benefited the most from Patterson's guidance as he jumped up draft boards to be picked in the fourth round this past spring by the Philadelphia Eagles.

ONE OF THE BEST IN FBS HISTORY

Texas Tech boasts the nation's active leader in both tackles and tackles for loss in Colin Schooler, who arrived in Lubbock as a graduate transfer from Arizona in the weeks leading up to the 2020 season. Schooler, who currently leads the Red Raiders with 63 tackles this season, hit the 400 career tackles milestone against Texas. He joins three other Red Raiders in program history who have recorded 400 career tackles at the FBS level as Schooler joins the likes of Lawrence Flugence (1999-02), Brad Hastings (1983-86) and Kevin Curtis (1998-01).

NCAA FBS ACTIVE LEADERS FOR CAREER TACKLES

1. Colin Schooler (Arizona/Texas Tech)	443
2. Carlton Martial (Troy)	393
3. Jahad Woods (Washington State)	391
4. Reed Blankenship (Middle Tennessee State)	381
5. Colby Campbell (Duke)	362

NCAA FBS ACTIVE LEADERS FOR CAREER TACKLES FOR LOSS

1. Colin Schooler (Arizona/Texas Tech)	55.0
2. DeAngelo Malone (Western Kentucky)	52.0
3. Ali Fayad (Western Michigan)	47.0
4. Carlton Martial (Troy)	46.0
5. DQ Thomas (Middle Tennessee State)	45.5

MORE ON SCHOOLER

- Colin Schooler heads into this weekend needing one more tackle for a loss to rank among the all-time greats in college football history. Schooler, who is playing his fifth season overall and second as a Red Raider, currently trails Cincinnati's Antwan Peek (2000-02) and Michigan's Brandon Graham (2006-09) by that total for 24th all-time in FBS history. Schooler totaled 5.0 tackles for a loss over nine games in 2020 in his debut as a Red Raider and has 4.0 TFLs this season.
- Schooler is already a member of the NCAA record book with 288 solo tackles over his career, which currently ranks 11th all-time in FBS history after he passed Duke's Ryan Fowler (2000-03) and former Red Raider safety Cody Davis (2009-12) against Oklahoma. Davis is currently in his ninth NFL season as a member of the New England Patriots. Schooler could move into the top 10 in FBS history with one solo tackles versus Iowa State, which would place him in a tie for 10th all-time with Iowa's Abdul Hodge.
- Schooler has now forced a fumble in two of the last three games, giving him three now for the season. He is one of 35 players in the FBS with at least three forced fumbles this season as he ranks tied for 14th nationally in forced fumbles per game (0.33). It marks the most forced fumbles in a season by a Red Raider since Justus Parker had four in 2017.
- The Oklahoma game marked the 50th start of Schooler's collegiate career as he previously made 33 during his three seasons at Arizona and then 17 now during his tenure as a Red Raider.
- Over his career, Schooler has reached double digits for tackles an impressive 16 times, which leads all active Big 12 players entering this weekend and ranks tied for third nationally among active players, trailing only Colorado's Nate Landman and his 19 as well as Troy's Carlton Martial, who has 18 over his respective career.
- Schooler hails from a football family as his father, Tom, played at Eastern Michigan, while his older brother, Brendan, played at Oregon before transferring to Texas. His mother, Christine, was also a collegiate athlete as part of the Cal State Los Angeles volleyball program.

FIELDS TO THE PROS

- Not many defensive backs in the Big 12 yet alone the country have likely seen as much playing time as DaMarcus Fields the past four seasons. Fields, entering his sixth and final season as a Red Raider, leads the team with 45 career starts at Texas Tech from his spot at cornerback where he has recorded 210 tackles, four interceptions and 44 passes defended over his career.
- For his career, Fields ranks second among active FBS players with his 44 passes defended, which trails only the 56 of Devin Taylor from Bowling Green. He is one of only four FBS players with at least 40 passes defended over their respective careers.
- His pass breakup against Kansas State pushed him past Jamar Wall (2006-09) for the most passes defended by a Red Raider since 2000. Fields previously passed Justis Nelson (2013-16) during the SFA game as he had 39 over his respective career.
- Fields became the first member of his family to receive a college degree this summer as he graduated in May as a public relations major. Fields said at the time he elected to come back for a final year in order to obtain that degree.

PLENTY OF EXPERIENCE FEATURED ON DEFENSE

- The Texas Tech defense brought back eight starters as well as the majority of its two-deep in 2021. Overall, this season's defensive roster currently features nine players with 10 or more starts over their respective careers and three players with at least 200 tackles for their career.
- Between returning linebackers Colin Schooler and Riko Jeffers and newcomer Marquis Waters, the Red Raiders had three players with a wealth of experience as all three recorded more than 200 tackles for their careers entering the season. In fact, Texas Tech was the only FBS program in the country at the start of the season with three players on its 2021 roster that boasted 225 or more tackles.
- Texas Tech added another member to the 200-tackle club against Kansas State as DaMarcus Fields recorded seven stops in the loss, giving him 202 at the time for his career as a Red Raider. He now has 210 total tackles after recording eight stops in the loss at Oklahoma.

REWRITING THE RECORD BOOK

Austin McNamara has quickly become a fixture in the Texas Tech record book in only two-plus seasons as the junior punter already owns two of the top five single-season averages in program history as well as the longest punt by any Big 12 player in league history. McNamara is on pace to place his name among the all-time greats once again as he is averaging an impressive 45.5 yards per boot this year, which would currently place him in fourth place on the school's single-season chart.

McNamara wrapped the 2020 season averaging an impressive 46.3 yards per punt, the second-highest clip in school history behind only the 46.8 average compiled by Mark Bounds in 1991. He previously averaged 45.0 yards per punt as a true freshman in 2020, which now ranks fifth in program history. He is the only Red Raider with two of the top-five punting averages currently in the school record book.

TEXAS TECH SINGLE-SEASON PUNTING AVERAGE LEADERS

1. Mark Bounds (1991)	46.8
2. Austin McNamara (2020)	46.3
3. Taylor Symmank (2015)	46.0
4. Alex Reyes (2006)	45.2
5. Austin McNamara (2019)	45.0

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTEBOOK

MORE ON THE RAY GUY AWARD CANDIDATE...

- Austin McNamara has picked up where he left off this season as he is currently averaging 45.5 yards per punt, which ranks second in the Big 12 currently entering this weekend. That average, if the season ended today, would place McNamara in fourth place all-time in the Texas Tech single-season record book. Alex Reyes is currently the only punter in school history with three of the top-10 single-season averages in program history as has the fourth, eighth and 10th-best clips currently in the school record book.
- McNamara is on pace to snap the Texas Tech career record as he is averaging 45.5 yards per punt through two-plus seasons. Taylor Symmank is the current career record holder as he averaged 43.7 yards per attempt from 2012-15 before accepting several NFL training camp opportunities.
- Among active punters, McNamara's 45.5 career average ranks fourth in the FBS, trailing only the clips of Colorado State's Ryan Stonehouse (47.7), Western Kentucky's John Haggerty (46.6) and N.C. State's Trenton Gill (46.0).
- McNamara set social media on fire midway through the 2020 season with his booming 87-yard punt against West Virginia, which marked the longest by an FBS kicker since 2017 and the longest in Texas Tech and Big 12 history. McNamara broke the Texas Tech single-game record for the longest punt that was previously set by R.W. Moyers in 1945 against West Texas State. Moyers launched an 85-yard punt in the win, which is the only other punt of 80 yards or longer in school history. He broke the previous Big 12 record of 85 yards that was set by Oklahoma's Tress Way in 2010 against Utah State.
- McNamara closed the 2020 season ranked fifth in the FBS for punting average and fourth among punters who played in at least five games. He was easily the Big 12 leader in punting as his average was five yards higher than any other specialist, earning him All-Big 12 first team honors for a second-consecutive season.
- McNamara became the first Red Raider since Le'Raven Clark in 2014-15 to collect first team honors in consecutive seasons and the first Tech specialist to do so during the Big 12 era. He joins Clark (2014-15), Michael Crabtree (2007-08), Joel Filani (2005-06), Jarrett Hicks (2004-05), Kevin Curtis (1999-00) and Montae Reagor (1997-98) as the only other Red Raiders to garner All-Big 12 first team accolades twice in a career.

GARIBAY NAMED SEMIFINALIST FOR THE LOU GROZA AWARD

- Jonathan Garibay, a semifinalist for the prestigious Lou Groza Award (nation's top kicker), is now 10-for-10 on field goal attempts this season as he is the only Big 12 kicker with at least five attempts to not record a miss this season. Garibay, who is now 18-for-21 on field goal attempts over his career, matched his career-long with a successful 48-yarder at Kansas. He previously found the uprights from 48 yards out in the 2020 win over Baylor.
- Garibay needs to make his next three field goals to match the Texas Tech record for consecutive successful attempts that was set by Clayton Hatfield during the 2018 season. Hatfield remains the most-accurate kicker in program history after making 84.7 percent of his attempts from 2015-18.
- Texas Tech is one of seven schools in the FBS that has not missed a field goal this season in at least five attempts as the Red Raiders join the likes of Ohio State, Appalachian State, Bowling Green, Oregon, South Florida and Troy.
- Garibay connected on the second game-winning field goal of his career at West Virginia as the senior found the uprights 32 yards out with only 18 seconds remaining. He was named the Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week the following Monday for his efforts, alongside Colin Dicker of Texas.
- Garibay previously pushed the Red Raiders to a victory in the final seconds against Baylor late in the 2020 season as drilled a 25-yard attempt as time expired. It was one of four field goals on the day for Garibay, who became the first Red Raider to connect on four field goals since Ryan Bustin had the same amount in a 2013 victory over Kansas. The performance earned him Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week honors for that week as well. Prior to his kick against Baylor, the Red Raiders had not previously walked off with a game-winning field goal since Bustin drilled a 28-yarder in the closing seconds of the 2012 Meineke Car Care Bowl versus Minnesota.
- Garibay was inserted into the kicker role for the first time in his Red Raider career as he is only the sixth kicker in Big 12 history to make four field goals in his career debut as the primary field goal specialist and just the second to do so versus a league opponent, joining Colorado's Jeremy Aldrich in 1998 against Nebraska.

THE GAME IS NEVER OVER HERE

The victory over Houston marked the 23rd time since 2000 where the Red Raiders have overcome a double-digit deficit to win. Below is a listing of Texas Tech's come-from-behind wins:

FIGHT LIKE LUKE

Texas Tech will wear a special helmet sticker throughout the 2021 football season in honor of the late Luke Siegel, who passed away Aug. 19 at only 15 years of age. The son of former Texas Tech men's tennis coach Tim Siegel and his wife Jenny, Luke Siegel suffered a traumatic brain injury following a golf cart accident in July 2015. Not guaranteed to survive the original accident, Siegel continued to fight in the six years since, beating the odds one time after another in his recovery. Texas Tech Athletics has established the Luke Siegel Fund to honor his memory.

MCGUIRE'S MANTRA

"You are going to hear this out of my mouth every single day, and the guys will understand it, we are going to have a brand - We are going to be the toughest, hardest working, most competitive team in the country. That is our brand. Tough teams are hard to beat."

JOEY MCGUIRE NAMED 17TH HEAD COACH IN TEXAS TECH HISTORY

Joey McGuire, a 2020 inductee into the Texas High School Coaches Association Hall of Honor, has been named the 17th head football coach in Texas Tech history, Director of Athletics Kirby Hocutt announced Monday (Nov. 8).

McGuire, who has spent the previous five seasons helping build Baylor into a Big 12 title contender following a legendary career at Cedar Hill High School, will be formally introduced in a 12 p.m. press conference Tuesday. Fans are welcome to attend the introductory press conference, which will be held on the club level of the West Stadium Building to Jones AT&T Stadium.

McGuire will join the Texas Tech athletics department immediately and will assume head coaching duties immediately following the 2021 football season. Sonny Cumbie will continue to serve as Texas Tech's interim head coach for the three remaining regular-season games and any bowl appearance.

"We are excited for this new chapter in Texas Tech Football under the direction of Coach McGuire," Hocutt said. "Our search committee was impressed from the outset not only with his significant ties throughout the state of Texas but his enthusiasm and desire to serve as the head coach at Texas Tech. We are thrilled to be able to welcome Coach McGuire and his wife Debbie to our Red Raider family."

During his five seasons in Waco, McGuire's ties throughout the state helped develop a Baylor program that appeared in the 2019 Big 12 Championship game and the Allstate Sugar Bowl, one of three times the Bears have secured bowl eligibility during his tenure. McGuire has served as Baylor's associate head coach each of the last three seasons.

McGuire made the jump to Baylor after a legendary run as head coach at Cedar Hill High School in the Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex. Over his 14 seasons, he took a Cedar Hill program that hadn't won a playoff game prior to his tenure and led the Longhorns to 12-consecutive playoff appearances and three state championships, including back-to-back titles in 2013 and 2014.

Cedar Hill was an impressive 141-42 during McGuire's tenure as the Longhorns also claimed the state title in 2006, only his fourth season as head coach. Cedar Hill was the state runner-up in 2012, starting a run where the Longhorns were among the most-dominant programs in Texas. Cedar Hill won nine bi-district titles and seven district crowns overall during McGuire's tenure.

McGuire and his wife, Debbie, have two children, a daughter Raegan and a son Garret. Garret was a quarterback at Baylor from 2017-20 before joining the coaching profession as a member of the Carolina Panthers prior to the 2021 season. Raegan is a graduate of Texas Tech University.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT JOEY MCGUIRE...

■ Bob Stoops, former Oklahoma head football coach

"I believe this is an awesome hire, I've known Joey a long time, since my first couple of years here going to recruit down in the Dallas area. He's always run a first class program, always very positive and was always close and connected with his players. The players love playing for him. I think football is relative and you do a great job, at whatever level you're playing. I think there is no reason you can't do it at a different level. He got great experience being at Baylor for the last 5 years, being with Matt Rhule, who I think is a heck of a coach. The same thing with Dave Aranda, who's doing a great job in his second year [at Baylor]. He's been influenced by two head coaches that have had really strong success. I believe that Joey is a person that connects, motivates players, and he will connect with the community and high school coaches around the state of Texas. I think he will do a great job."

■ Matt Rhule, Carolina Panthers head football coach

"I think he will be unbelievable ushering in a new era at Tech. I think that he's one in a million. There are not many people like Joey McGuire as a person, as a coach. I think that there's not ever going to be a bad day ever in that facility, those players are going to be developed, they're going to be loved, they're going to be honed, they're going to be developed in every aspect of their life. He's going to bring excitement to all West Texas, especially to Lubbock. For Red Raider Nation I think he's absolutely going to be a bolt of energy, throughout the entire athletic department and you guys are going to play really good football too."

■ Kim Mulkey, LSU head women's basketball coach

"I am so happy for Joey. Not only is he a great coach, he has the people skills to recruit. He is well connected to the Texas high school coaches. Texas Tech will love him and his wife, Debbie and their two children."

■ Mack Brown, North Carolina head football coach

"I'm thrilled Coach McGuire is receiving this opportunity at Texas Tech because he's earned it. He was a great high school coach during my time at Texas and it doesn't surprise me at all that he's worked his way to a head coaching position in the Big 12. He's a smart, innovative coach, who brings deep ties to Texas high school football with him to Lubbock. I've always admired him, and if I had a son, I would want him to play for Coach McGuire. I think Texas Tech made a smart decision here and Coach McGuire will do an excellent job for them."

■ Joe Martin, Executive Director of THSCA

"I am very proud and excited for Joey on being selected the next head football coach at Texas Tech. He is a homegrown product starting as a player at Crowley and working his way up the ranks to head coach at Cedar Hill and eventually as associate head coach at Baylor. He is a past member of the THSCA Board of Directors and has many friends in the high school coaching community across the state. Joey is as good as they come as a coach and we wish him the best!"

TEXAS TECH BOWL HISTORY

Texas Tech is looking to make its 39th postseason bowl appearance this season, which ranks among the top-25 programs all-time in bowl games played. The Red Raiders rank tied for third among current Big 12 Conference programs in bowl appearances.

TEXAS TECH UNIVERSITY

THE STATE OF TEXAS' TOP ATHLETICS DEPARTMENT

- With all the talk of conference realignment in the air, it's important to remember Texas Tech has led all schools in the state of Texas in the Capital One Cup men's standings in two of the last three complete athletic seasons after finishing third nationally in 2018-19 and then 14th for the 2017-18 athletic year. Below are several other facts regarding Texas Tech's success in competition.
- Since 2017, Texas Tech has had 15 of its 17 athletic programs compete in the NCAA postseason or a bowl game.
- Texas Tech has had six different programs finish among the top-10 teams nationally in their respective sport since 2014 alone.
- The Red Raiders have appeared in 38 bowl games in their history, which ranks tied for third among Big 12 programs and among the top-25 teams in college football history.
- Texas Tech claimed the 2019 Men's Outdoor Track and Field National Championship under head coach Wes Kittley.
- Texas Tech played in the 2019 NCAA Championship Game as well as in two-consecutive Elite Eights (2018-19). The Red Raiders are one of four men's basketball programs in the country with multiple Elite Eight appearances over the last three NCAA Tournaments.
- Texas Tech has advanced to the Men's College World Series four times in recent years (2014, 2016, 2018, 2019), which is tied for the most trips to the hallowed grounds in Omaha among teams nationally since 2014.
- Lady Raider Basketball remains one of the top programs in women's college basketball history as Texas Tech ranks 19th all-time among power-five programs with its 925 victories. Backed by the legendary Sheryl Swoopes, the Lady Raiders claimed the NCAA National Championship in 1993, the first team national championship in school history.
- Since joining the Big 12 as a charter member in 1996, Texas Tech has won 27 conference titles, with 11 of those coming in the past six years alone.
- In addition to its athletics success, Texas Tech has unveiled several new facilities in recent years with the opening of the $48 million Sports Performance Center in 2017, the Cash Family Sports Nutrition Center in 2020 and the $32.2 million Dustin R. Womble Basketball Center this past May.

THE NATION'S MOST DEDICATED FANS

- Texas Tech boasts one of the most rabid fan bases in all of college athletics as Red Raider fans have traditionally traveled in droves for bowl trips as well as to basketball games in locations like New York City, Anaheim (CA) and Minneapolis for the Final Four as well as to Omaha for the Men's College World Series.
- To date, Texas Tech has played in the highest-attended games for three bowl games, including two prominent ones in the state of Texas: the Goodyear Cotton Bowl (Dallas), the Academy Sports + Outdoors Texas Bowl (Houston) and the Holiday Bowl (San Diego).
- The Red Raiders had 88,175 fans on tap for the 2009 Cotton Bowl when the Red Raiders faced Ole Miss in the bowl's final game at historic Fair Park. It remains the highest-attended contest in the bowl's history even with the move to AT&T Stadium in Arlington, which can reach over 100,000 fans in capacity.
- Additionally, Texas Tech helped set the Texas Bowl attendance record in 2015 when the Red Raiders faced LSU in NRG Stadium. The bowl drew 71,307 fans that night to see a pair of future NFL standouts in Texas Tech's Patrick Mahomes II and Jakeem Grant.
- At home, Texas Tech has sold out of season tickets for its baseball program over seven-consecutive seasons now and will likely be looking at another sellout in 2022 after the Red Raiders advanced to the NCAA Super Regional round this past June.
- Texas Tech has sold out of season tickets in each of its last two men's basketball seasons, giving the Red Raiders the premier homecourt advantage in college basketball at 15,000-seat United Supermarkets Arena. The Red Raiders averaged a conference-leading 14,057 fans per game during the 2019-20 basketball season.
- On social media, Texas Tech student-athletes earned the highest engagement rate on their posts among peer power-five institutions over the past athletic year. Texas Tech's social media accounts accumulated over 35 million combined video views during the 2020-21 year alone.
- Texas Tech's brand has the ability to reach the nation through its creative social media usage. Texas Tech currently boasts the fifth-highest TikTok following by athletics accounts in the nation.
- Texas Tech is annually one of the top-performing schools among the Collegiate Licensing Company's (CLC) partner institutions, ranking 19th nationally in royalties generated this past year.

A PREMIER RESEARCH INSTITUTION

- Texas Tech University is the flagship institution, with a Moody Aa1 rating, of the five-member Texas Tech University System.
- Texas Tech is one of 16 universities designated as a Carnegie Very High Research Activity Institution and a Hispanic Serving Institution.
- Texas Tech has been named Higher Education Excellence in Diversity award winner in each of the last nine years. The university currently boasts 42 percent of its students identifying as racial-ethnic minorities.
- Texas Tech is a five-star Campus Pride Institution, one of two in Texas, and No. 25 on the Campus Pride Index.
- Texas Tech has awarded over $170 million in scholarships recently with over 50 percent of students receiving scholarship support.
- Texas Tech boasted more than $192 million in research expenditures in 2020 alone.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Please direct all credential requests to the online credential portal located at www.sportssystem.com/TexasTech. Confirmation of your request will be made upon review by Matt Dowdy. Credentials are limited to members of the working media who are assigned to cover Texas Tech Football.

Credentials must be requested online by 5 p.m. Tuesday each week. All requests will be held for pickup until 5 p.m. Friday at the Athletics Communications office (third floor of Whitacre Athletic Center, East Stadium Building). Credentials not picked up by 5 p.m. Friday will be available at Media Will Call located at the main entrance to United Supermarkets Arena.

No credentials will be issued to any website that is not deemed to have adequate editorial oversight, or does not follow traditional journalistic ethics protocols. Credentials will not be approved to anyone who writes or posts under an alias. Please note that Texas Tech Athletics does not grant credential requests to freelance photographers. It is not always possible to accommodate all requests. No one under 18 years of age will be issued a credential without prior approval. Credentials are non-transferable and may be revoked at any time.

WWW.TEXASTECH.COM

This is the official website of Texas Tech Athletics. Texas Tech football releases as well as a wide variety of athletics department information can be found on the web. Weekly game notes, news and statistical information can be found here throughout the football season.

WEEKLY MEDIA LUNCHEON

During the season, Texas Tech interim head coach Sonny Cumbie will host a weekly media luncheon inside the Football Training Facility, located next to Jones AT&T Stadium. The event will be held each Tuesday morning beginning on Aug. 31 and running through Nov. 23. Coach Cumbie will be joined by two requested student-athletes who are able to attend when class schedules do not conflict. A meal will follow each press conference in the officials room of the Sports Performance Center, which is directly west of the Football Training Facility.

WEEKLY AVAILABILITY SCHEDULE

In addition to the Tuesday press conference, defensive coordinator Keith Patterson as well as requested student-athletes will be available following practice each Tuesday. Matt Dowdy will provide a detailed schedule each Monday during the season.

INTERVIEW REQUESTS

Please direct all interview requests for interim head coach Sonny Cumbie, members of the Texas Tech coaching staff and student-athletes to Matt Dowdy. Contacting student-athletes or coaches directly through text message or social media is strictly prohibited and could result in loss of credentials.

TEXAS TECH PRACTICE SCHEDULE

Texas Tech will practice each day except for Monday during the regular season. Texas Tech will provide a weekly media schedule on Sunday night.

Sunday – 5:30 p.m.
Monday – OFF DAY
Tuesday – 2:20 p.m.
Wednesday – 3:20 p.m.
Thursday – 3 p.m.

LIVE STREAMING

Live video streaming of any Texas Tech Athletics event, including news conferences, on ANY social media platform is strictly prohibited without prior approval from the athletics communications office.

USE OF AUDIO/VIDEO

Any media entity collecting any sort of “video or audio materials” (film, traditional video or audio, digital video or audio, photos, etc.) from Texas Tech University Athletics game events or press conference/media events may use that material only for traditional television newscasts, web-based or print coverage, or other electronic transmission as approved by the University in writing, with a limitation of up to three (3) minutes in length from any single event. Such media entity may not offer any live video, audio or other coverage of the event without the advance, written permission of Texas Tech University Athletics. This policy includes all games, matches and events involving any of Texas Tech's athletic programs. It includes all media events -- press conferences, pre/post-practice interviews and pre/post-game interviews. An exception would be a one-on-one interview arranged through the Texas Tech Athletics Communications office with a Texas Tech, coach, athlete or administrator.

TEXAS TECH SPORTS NETWORK

The Texas Tech Sports Network from Learfield Sports will carry all the exciting action of Red Raider Football beginning with the season opener with Sam Houston State and all the way through the bowl season. Brian Jensen (play-by-play) and John Harris (color analyst) return to the broadcast booth and will be joined on the sidelines by Chris Level (sidelines).
