SATURDAY STORYLINES

THE TEXAS FARM BUREAU SHOOTOUT

- Texas Tech will look to close the regular season with a victory Saturday when the Red Raiders travel to Waco to face No. 8 Baylor in an 11 a.m. kickoff from McLane Stadium. The Red Raiders, already bowl eligible after a win over Iowa State two weekends ago, are hoping to clinch their first winning season since 2015 with a victory over the Bears.
- This will be the 80th all-time meeting between Texas Tech and Baylor in what is dubbed the Texas Farm Bureau Shootout as the two schools have historically played each other close as the series is tied 39-39-1 entering this weekend. Tech is 18-7 against Baylor during the Big 12 era.

GETTING BACK ON TRACK OFFENSIVELY

- Interim head coach Sonny Cumbie will look to get the Red Raiders back on track offensively this weekend against what is another stout defense on the opposite side of the field with Baylor. Texas Tech is coming off a 23-0 loss this past weekend to No. 9 Oklahoma State, which snapped a streak of 302-consecutive games where the Red Raiders found the scoreboard.
- Just a week before, Texas Tech lit up a stingy Iowa State defense as the Red Raiders clinched bowl eligibility with a 41-38 victory that saw Donovan Smith throw for 322 yards and three touchdowns in his first career start. The Red Raiders enter this weekend averaging 30.5 points per game.

ANOTHER STRONG WEEK FOR SPECIALISTS

- Texas Tech has turned in back-to-back record-setting weeks from its specialists as Jonathan Garibay connected on a 62-yard field goal versus Iowa State, the longest game-winner (less than a minute) in FBS history, while Austin McNamara set the FBS record with eight punts of 50 yards or longer last weekend against Oklahoma State.
- McNamara averaged 56.4 yards per punt overall against Oklahoma State, which finished just shy of the Texas Tech single-game record of 57.0 yards. It marked the second-highest average for an FBS punter this season and the third-highest among punters with at least nine attempts since 2000.

TEAM NOTEBOOK

TEXAS TECH, BAYLOR SET FOR 80TH ALL-TIME MEETING

- Texas Tech and Baylor will meet for the 80th time this weekend in a back-and-forth series that is now tied at 39-39-1 all-time entering this weekend. The Red Raiders tied the series last season following a come-from-behind 24-23 victory that was capped by a 25-yard game-winning field goal from Jonathan Garibay as time expired.
- The two schools are in their third year of returning the Texas Farm Bureau Shootout back to campus sites after playing the previous 10 meetings in the Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex. The Red Raiders were only 4-6 against the Bears during that span but are 18-7 over the course of the Big 12 era.
- The Bears escaped with a win in Texas Tech's last visit to Waco as Baylor needed double overtime to edge the Red Raiders, 33-30. It marked Tech's only loss to the Bears in Waco during the Big 12 era as the Red Raiders were previously 6-0 at Floyd Casey Stadium, Baylor's previous home before moving to McLane Stadium.
- The Red Raiders have now won three of the last five meetings against Baylor after claiming back-to-back victories in 2016 and 2017 and then last year's in Lubbock. Baylor claimed the two other games in that span with a 35-24 victory in the final game played at AT&T Stadium in Arlington followed by its double-overtime win in 2019.
- Texas Tech and Baylor combined for only 47 points in the 2020 meeting between the two schools, the fewest since the Red Raiders pulled off a 20-13 victory in 2009. In the 10 meetings in between those two games, both teams averaged more than 35 points per game against each other as the Red Raiders and Bears scored at least 30 points each in all but one of those games.
- Texas Tech and Baylor boast one of the longest-running series in the Big 12 as the two schools have met annually since 1956 dating back to their time in the Southwest Conference. Baylor controlled a 19-17 advantage over the Red Raiders during their SWC tenure but immediately lost its next 15 games in the series upon entering the Big 12 in 1996.

TEXAS TECH-BAYLOR CONNECTIONS

- Baylor head coach Dave Aranda has experience on the Texas Tech sidelines as he was a graduate assistant for the Red Raider defense from 2000-02, the first three seasons under Mike Leach. He earned his master's degree in interdisciplinary studies from the university in 2002 before accepting the linebackers coach position at Houston for the 2003-04 seasons.
- Aranda accepted the Baylor job after helping lead LSU to the College Football Playoff national title. He was assisted on the LSU staff by current Texas Tech linebackers coach Kevin Cosgrove, who was a senior defensive analyst for the Tigers in 2019. Baylor defensive line coach Dennis Johnson was also an analyst on the LSU staff that same season before accepting his current position with the Bears.
- Aranda's staff also features a former Texas Tech great in Lubbock native and cornerbacks coach Kevin Curtis, who was a two-time All-American and three-time All-Big 12 safety for the Red Raiders from 1998-01. Following his successful playing career, Curtis was drafted in the fourth round of the NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers where he spent three seasons. He returned to his alma mater in 2013 as the defensive backs coach under Kliff Kingsbury, a position he held for three seasons. He and Tech interim head coach Sonny Cumbie spent one year together on the same staff in 2013 as Cumbie departed Lubbock following that season to accept the quarterbacks coach role at TCU.
- The Baylor roster features defensive back Byron Hanspard Jr. on their roster, the son of Texas Tech Hall of Fame member and Doak Walker Award winner Byron Hanspard. The elder Hanspard remains the Texas Tech career rushing yards leader after totaling 4,219 yards on the ground to go with 29 touchdowns over his Red Raider career from 1994-96.
- Texas Tech named its 17th head coach in program history on Nov. 9 when Director of Athletics Kirby Hocutt announced the hiring of Joey McGuire, who was in the midst of his fifth season on the Baylor staff. McGuire, who will assume head coaching duties immediately following the completion of the 2021 season, served in a variety of roles at Baylor, coaching the tight ends from 2017-18, the defensive ends in 2019 and then the outside linebackers in 2020-21. He was promoted to associate head coach prior to the 2019 season. McGuire, who is not expected to travel to Waco this weekend, has already hired one member of the Baylor staff in James Blanchard, who will serve as Texas Tech's new Director of Player Personnel.

STAT NOTABLES vs. BAYLOR

- Tahj Brooks recorded the first multi-touchdown game of his career in the 2020 matchup against Baylor as the then-freshman carried 14 times for 48 yards and a pair of touchdowns. Both of Brooks' touchdowns came in the second half as Texas Tech erased an 11-point deficit to top the Bears.
- This will be the fifth time DaMarcus Fields has faced Baylor during his career as the super senior has 22 tackles, two pass breakups, and a forced fumble during that span against the Bears.
- The 2020 contest between Texas Tech and Baylor marked the debut of Jonathan Garibay, who was a perfect 4-for-4 on field goal attempts in his first game as Texas Tech's primary kicker. Garibay found the uprights from 48, 28, 46 and 25 yards in the win with the final one coming as time expired. It marked the most successful field goals for a Red Raider since Ryan Bustin also had four in a 2013 victory over Kansas. Prior to his kick, the Red Raiders had not previously walked off with a game-winning field goal since defeating Minnesota in the 2012 Meineke Car Care Bowl. He also punted five times in the win, averaging an impressive 49.4 yards while splitting duties.

- Riko Jeffers has 24 career tackles versus Baylor, including 2.5 that have come behind the line of scrimmage. Jeffers posted three tackles as a true freshman in 2017 and followed with eight in 2018, six in 2019 and then seven a year ago.
- Colin Schooler made one of the most memorable stops by a Red Raider in recent history last season against Baylor as he dropped Bears quarterback Charlie Brewer with a hard-hitting tackle at the goal line. The tackle, one of 11 on the day by Schooler, forced Baylor to attempt a field goal late in the third quarter to extend its lead to 11 points, a deficit the Red Raiders would eventually overcome. It was the first time Schooler notched double digits for tackles as a Red Raider as he has done so 17 times now over his career.
- SaRodrick Thompson recorded a career-high 153 yards on the ground against the Bears in 2019 as the then-redshirt freshman found the end zone twice, both in the second half. It marked the first 100-yard game of his career and the first 150-yard performance by a Red Raider since Justin Stockton tallied 161 yards versus Kansas in 2017. In addition, his 153 rushing yards matched Ricky Williams' total from 2001 as the most by a Red Raider against Baylor dating back to the move to a spread offense in 2000. His 28 carries in the game, meanwhile, marked the most by a Red Raider versus the Bears in that span as Tre King (2017) is the only other running back to boast 20 or more attempts. Thompson followed with 13 carries for 69 yards this past season against Baylor, giving him 41 attempts for 222 yards and a pair of touchdowns over his career to go along with six receptions for 54 yards.
- On the Texas Tech staff, outside receivers coach Joel Filani recorded one of the best performances all-time against Baylor as he posted 212 receiving yards in the 2006 meeting between the two schools, still the most by a Red Raider over 78 meetings.

RED RAIDERS VERSUS RANKED OPPONENTS

- The Red Raiders will be looking to knock off a top-25 opponent for the first time since the 2019 season Saturday against No. 8 Baylor. Texas Tech's last win over a top-25 team came early in the 2019 campaign when the Red Raiders surprised No. 21 Oklahoma State with a 45-35 victory inside Jones AT&T Stadium.
- Baylor represents the third top-10 foe for the Red Raiders this season as Texas Tech previously fell 52-21 to then-No. 4 Oklahoma on Oct. 25 in Sonny Cumbie's debut as head coach and then 23-0 this past weekend to No. 9 Oklahoma State. The Red Raiders are looking to knock off a top-10 team for the first time since routing No. 4 West Virginia, 49-14, at home during the 2012 season. Texas Tech has not upset a top-10 team on the road since shocking top-ranked Oklahoma, 41-38, midway through the 2011 season.
- Baylor wraps a challenging final two weeks of the regular season for the Red Raiders as this is the first time Texas Tech has closed the regular season against back-to-back ranked opponents since falling at No. 15 Texas and upsetting No. 3 Oklahoma to close the 2007 regular season. It is only the fourth time in school history the Red Raiders have closed a regular season against back-to-back top-10 opponents as Tech previously did so in 1978 (No. 5 Houston, at No. 8 Arkansas), 2002 (No. 3 Texas, at No. 4 Oklahoma) and 2003 (No. 6 Texas, No. 1 Oklahoma), winning at least one game in two of those three years (1978, 2002).
- Prior to the Oklahoma State game, Texas Tech's remaining schedule ranked as the third-toughest in the FBS as Oklahoma State and Baylor were a combined 17-3 at the time. Georgia Tech and Ohio State were the only other two FBS programs with a more challenging slate over the final two weeks as each of their final two opponents were a combined 18-2 overall.
- Cumbie will face three ranked opponents since taking over as interim head coach prior to the Oklahoma game. It marks the first time since 2011 where the Red Raiders have closed the regular season with three of their final four games against ranked opponents as Texas Tech also had similar difficult final stretches of the regular season with three ranked opponents to close both the 1998 and 2008 campaigns.
- Since the start of the 2007 season, the Red Raiders have knocked off at least one ranked opponent in nine of the past 14 years. Texas Tech failed to record a top-25 win over a four-year stretch from 2014-17 before breaking that streak at No. 15 Oklahoma State in 2018.

WE'RE GOING BOWLING

- The Red Raiders secured their postseason fate after Texas Tech captured its sixth win of the year with a 41-38 victory over Iowa State on Nov. 13. The win helped the Red Raiders avoid their first four-year bowl absence since staying home from postseason play over eight consecutive seasons from 1978-85. Texas Tech's most-recent bowl absence (2017-20) was the longest the Red Raiders had gone without a bowl trip since missing the postseason from 1990-92.
- Texas Tech entered this season ranked tied for 21st all-time with 38 career bowl appearances, matching the totals of fellow Big 12 member West Virginia as well as Ole Miss, BYU and Notre Dame. The Red Raiders are tied for third among current Big 12 members for bowl appearances, trailing only Texas (57) and Oklahoma (54).
- Many Red Raider fans will be keeping up with possible bowl scenarios over the upcoming weeks. The projections are scattered to this point with possible destinations primarily focused on the Guaranteed Rate Bowl in Arizona as well as the Liberty Bowl in Memphis. Texas Tech will officially learn its bowl destination on Dec. 5 following the completion of conference championships.

CUMBIE COLLECTS FIRST CAREER WIN AS HEAD COACH

- Sonny Cumbie earned his first career win as a head coach against Iowa State as the Texas Tech alumnus led the Red Raiders to a dominating first half versus the Cyclones, building a 17-point lead before eventually winning the game on a 62-yard field goal from Jonathan Garibay as time expired. The victory pushed the Red Raiders to bowl eligibility for the 39th time in school history, giving Cumbie another opportunity to lead his alma mater.
- Since taking over the head coaching role, Cumbie has encouraged the Red Raiders to have a "pump jack mentality," a reference to the major West Texas oil industry. The Red Raiders have awarded a special "pump jack chain" following practice each day over the past two weeks and have a replica pump jack on the sidelines now to celebrate following each big play.
- Texas Tech Director of Athletics Kirby Hocutt announced Oct. 25 a change in leadership for the Red Raider football program after head coach Matt Wells was relieved of his duties, effective immediately. Hocutt tabbed Cumbie to serve as interim head coach for the remainder of the season. He has continued in his role as offensive coordinator during this transition.
- Over its now 96 seasons of football, Cumbie is only the third interim head coach in program history, joining both Ruffin McNeil and Chris Thomsen. McNeil and Thomsen both led the Red Raiders to a victory in their only games as head coach, which came at the 2009 Alamo Bowl as well as the 2012 Meineke Car Care Bowl of Texas. Cumbie was an assistant on the Tech staff in both of those seasons and was the Red Raiders' play-caller for its win over Minnesota in 2012. Cumbie is the first head coach in the history of the program who took over in the middle of the season.

Recap: Sonny Cumbie pushed the Red Raiders to their seventh win to close the regular season after throwing for 281 yards and three touchdowns in an upset victory Oklahoma State. The win propelled the Red Raiders to an eventual appearance in the Holiday Bowl where Tech, behind another memorable performance from Cumbie, shocked No. 4 California, which featured two future NFL greats in Aaron Rodgers and Marshawn Lynch. Tech was held to just a Trey Haverly touchdown in the first half before Cumbie found Jarrett Hicks on 2 and 14-yard scoring strikes after the break to go along with a Taurean Heanderson six-yard touchdown run with less than three minutes remaining. The Red Raider defense, meanwhile, kept the Oklahoma State offense out of the end zone, marking the first time Tech has done so since winning at New Mexico in 2002.

THE PREVIOUS MEETING

TEXAS TECH 24, BAYLOR 23

Date: Nov. 14, 2020

Location: Lubbock, Texas | Attendance: 12,914

Recap: Jonathan Garibay connected a 25-yard field goal as time expired to send Texas Tech to a 24-23 victory over Baylor. It was the fourth field goal of the game for Garibay in his first time out as the starting kicker for the Red Raiders. Tech was able mount a rally from 11 points down to start the fourth quarter thanks in part to a Colin Schooler key stop on the goal line.

RED RAIDERS IN REGULAR-SEASON FINALES

■ Texas Tech enters this weekend's tilt at Baylor with a 47-46-4 all-time record in regular-season finales, which includes a 14-11 mark during the Big 12 era (1996-present). The Red Raiders have closed the regular season with wins in four of the past six seasons after topping Texas in both 2015 and 2017, Baylor in 2016 and then Kansas a year ago.

■ The Red Raiders are no stranger to closing the regular season against Baylor as the two schools have done so seven times since 2008 alone with Texas Tech going 3-4 in those contests. The only other time in history where Tech has closed its regular season came in 1976 when the Red Raiders downed No. 18 Baylor, 24-21, in Lubbock to secure its first share of the Southwest Conference title. Rodney Allison rushed for 111 yards and two touchdowns in that game as the quarterback for a Tech program under the direction of head coach Steve Sloan that also featured two future NFL head coaches in Romeo Crennel and Bill Parcells.

RANDOM TIDBITS HEADING INTO BAYLOR WEEK

■ The victory over Iowa State followed Texas Tech's only open weekend oG the 2021 season as the Red Raiders improved to 18-13 during the Big 12 era in the week following an open date. The Red Raiders have now won three of their last five games following an open date after topping West Virginia during both the 2019 and 2020 seasons. Tech also had losses to No. 8 Texas and No. 23 Oklahoma State last season during that span.

■ With a win over Baylor or a future bowl opponent, Texas Tech will clinch its first winning season since 2015 when the Red Raiders finished 7-6 overall after a loss in the Texas Bowl. The Red Raiders advanced to a bowl in 2017, finishing 6-6 in the regular season before a loss to South Florida in the Birmingham Bowl.

■ Texas Tech opened the month of November with a victory for the second time in the last three seasons as the Red Raiders previously went on the road to top West Virginia, 38-17, in 2019. Prior to that win, Tech had not previously started the final month of the regular season with a win since a 27-17 victory over No. 14 Missouri in 2010.

■ The month of November hasn't been overly kind to the Red Raiders in recent years as Texas Tech has finished with multiple wins just twice since the start of the 2011 campaign. During that span, the Red Raiders were able to notch a pair of wins during the 2015 and 2017 seasons. Prior to that, the Red Raiders had won at least two games during the final month of the regular season in 12-consecutive years, beginning in 1999 and running up until 2010. Of note, Tech did close the 2020 season with wins in two of its last three games, but the final contest against Kansas did not come until Dec. 5 as part of an altered schedule due to COVID-19.

■ Texas Tech owns three wins away from home this season after victories already at a neutral site against Houston and then at West Virginia and Kansas. If the Red Raiders are able to close the regular season with a win at Baylor, it would mark the most victories on the road or a neutral site since 2017 when the Red Raiders headed home with victories over Houston, Kansas, Baylor (AT&T Stadium - Arlington) and Texas.

■ Texas Tech's first two conference wins this season came on the road as the Red Raiders won at West Virginia and Kansas. It marked the first time Tech has secured back-to-back Big 12 road wins since 2018 when the Red Raiders opened their league slate with a 41-17 rout of No. 15 Oklahoma State and then followed with a 17-14 victory at TCU.

LACK OF PENALTIES CONTINUE TO IMPROVE

■ Texas Tech currently ranks 38th in fewest total penalties (59) and fewest penalties per game (5.36), and then 32nd for fewest penalty yards (492) and fewest penalty yards per game (44.7). The Red Raiders' 59 penalties this season and 492 penalty yards are the lowest amounts for Tech through the first 11 games in a season dating back to 2000.

■ Texas Tech was flagged only one time for five yards at Kansas as a false start penalty in the fourth quarter pushed Jonathan Garibay back for a 48-yard field goal attempt. It marked a school-record fifth time the Red Raiders were only penalized one time as Texas Tech also had only one flag in 1988 versus Arkansas, 1991 versus Rice, 1992 against Texas A&M and 2016 at TCU. Texas Tech's school record for fewest penalty yards also came in three of those games previously with the lone exception being the 1991 contest with Rice.

■ The performance against Kansas followed similar disciplined approaches against both West Virginia (2 penalties, 20 yards) and TCU (4 penalties, 25 yards) where the Red Raiders combined for only six flags for 45 yards. Texas Tech was flagged 12 times for 90 yards over a four-game stretch against West Virginia, TCU, Kansas and Kansas State before committing five penalties for 60 yards in the loss to Oklahoma and five for 50 yards in the win over Iowa State.

YOU'RE ON SCHOLARSHIP

■ Four Red Raiders closed preseason camp by hearing the three words every walk-on dreams of: "you're on scholarship." The Texas Tech staff gave that opportunity to four different Red Raiders prior to the season as sophomore offensive lineman Aaron Castro, sophomore linebacker Bryce Ramirez, junior tight end Henry Teeter and senior defensive lineman Troy Te'o were all recognized for their hard work.

■ The presentation was set up, in part, by now interim head coach Sonny Cumbie, a former walk-on himself who discussed his journey to eventually earning a scholarship and then becoming the Red Raiders' starter behind center. Cumbie remains one of the most successful walk-ons in school history after leading the Red Raiders to a memorable win at the 2004 Holiday Bowl to close his career.

■ Texas Tech has made it a habit to reward at least one walk-on with a scholarship in recent years, a list that includes three other current Red Raiders in senior wide receiver Dalton Rigdon (presented in 2019), junior place kicker Trey Wolff (honored following 2019 season) and junior running back Xavier White (earned in 2020).

DEGREES IN HAND

■ Texas Tech entered the 2021 season with 16 student-athletes who are current college graduates, including seven who earned their undergraduate degrees in Lubbock. The list of Tech graduates includes Seth Collins, Dawson Deaton, Riko Jeffers, McLane Mannix, DaMarcus Fields and Nelson Mbanasor. In addition, nine other Red Raiders transferred to Texas Tech after earning their degrees at various other universities. That list features Brandon Bouyer-Randle (Michigan State), Josh Burger (Wofford), Eric Monroe (LSU), Jacob Morgenstern (Duke), Colin Schooler (Arizona), Chadarius Townsend (Alabama), Marquis Waters (Duke), Tyler Shough (Oregon) and T.J. Storment (Colorado State) and Matthew Young (New Mexico State).

CHAMPIONSHIP EXPERIENCE

■ Texas Tech has three members of its program with national championship rings in former Alabama running back Chadarius Townsend and LSU safety Eric Monroe. Townsend was a redshirt on Alabama's 2017 national championship team and later played in the Crimson Tide's College Football Playoff run in 2018. Monroe, meanwhile, saw action in 12 games during the 2019 campaign, including both of LSU's victories in the CFP. Texas Tech linebackers coach Kevin Cosgrove was also part of LSU's national championship run in 2019 as he was a senior defensive analyst for the Tigers.

NEW TO TOWN BUT NOT TO THE GAME

- One of the goals for former head coach Matt Wells and his staff upon their arrival in Dec. 2018 was making the Red Raiders older as a roster. Since that time, the staff signed 22 scholarship transfers from four-year colleges, including 17 that appear on the 2021 roster, mainly in starting roles.
- An area, in particular, Wells and his staff took advantage of was transfers with multiple years of eligibility remaining as Texas Tech signed 14 players during his tenure that will ultimately play multiple seasons for the Red Raiders. That total includes nine Red Raiders who are entering their second season at Texas Tech this season and three more who will have multiple seasons of eligibility after arriving in Lubbock this past January.
- Texas Tech has signed the bulk of its transfers from other power-five schools as 14 players have arrived after playing in the ACC, Big 12, Big Ten, SEC or Pac-12. Seven of Texas Tech's transfer additions for this season came from power-five schools as the Red Raiders signed the likes of Malik Dunlap (N.C. State), Reggie Pearson Jr. (Wisconsin), Jesiah Pierre (Florida), Tyler Shough (Oregon), T.J. Stormont (TCU), Marquis Waters (Duke) and Rayshad Williams (UCLA).
- A few have garnered notice from the Athletic's Max Olson and Bruce Feldman as part of their College Football Transfer Portal Top 100 that was released prior to the season: Tyler Shough (No. 21), Marquis Waters (No. 49), T.J. Stormont (No. 74).

A NEW TERM FOR 2021 - SUPER SENIORS

- Media and fans alike have likely heard a new term throughout the 2021 season - Super Seniors. The phrase describes many of the seniors across the country who decided to utilize the extra year granted by the NCAA for the 2020 season.
- The defense was the greatest benefactor of the Super Senior movement, retaining a collective 156 career starts between seven players entering this season. The group is led by Colin Schooler, the team's most veteran player, who owned 41 career starts between his playing time at Arizona (33) and Texas Tech (9), entering 2021.
- The offense boasts five Super Seniors who owned a collective 58 starts among them entering this season. The most experienced of that group is shared by a pair of transfers in Kaylon Geiger (19) and T.J. Stormont (19), who each arrived in Lubbock as Super Seniors.
- For Texas Tech, the Red Raiders lead the Big 12 Conference with 12 super seniors according to preseason research by the Associated Press. The list of returnees includes nine players that were on Tech's roster this past fall as well as three others in T.J. Stormont, who transferred to join the Red Raiders this spring following one season at TCU, Kaylon Geiger Sr., a veteran wide receiver from Troy, and Marquis Waters, who started in 35 games over his career at Duke.
- According to the Associated Press' research this past spring, Texas Tech is tied for fifth among power-five programs with 12 super seniors as the Red Raiders only trail the likes of Illinois (17), Arizona State (14), USC (14) and Rutgers (13) and are tied with Pittsburgh (12). The arrival of Geiger pushed the Red Raiders ahead of Arizona (11), Utah (11) and Tennessee (11).

TEXAS TECH FOOTBALL HELPS ESTABLISH LOCAL SCHOLARSHIP

- The Texas Tech football program, in conjunction with 100 Black Men of West Texas, established a community scholarship this summer that will benefit a local student each year that plans to attend the university. The scholarship will cover all tuition and fees for one full year, providing a life-changing opportunity for a local student. The scholarship recipient will be selected each year by a committee comprised of representatives from the 100 Black Men of West Texas organization as well as Red Raider football student-athletes.

UNIFORM WATCH (Since 2009)

Over the past decade, Texas Tech has been among the most innovative teams in the country related to team uniforms. The Red Raiders have multiple uniform combinations in their wardrobe and often do not use the same combination twice in a season. Here's a look at Texas Tech's record in various uniform combinations:

WOMBLE FOOTBALL CENTER

Texas Tech Athletics announced prior to the TCU game a $20 million gift from Board of Regents member Dustin R. Womble to fund construction of a new football training facility. It marks the largest one-time gift to the athletics department in its history. The lead gift will help Texas Tech continue to reshape its athletics facilities with the help of Womble, who already provided more than $10 million to fund a state-of-the-art basketball practice facility in his name, the Dustin R. Womble Basketball Center that opened this past May across from United Supermarkets Arena.

Once completed, Texas Tech will boast one of the largest investments into its football program in history as construction of the Womble Football Center is expected to be a $40-50 million project. The two-story complex will remain in its same location adjacent to both Jones AT&T Stadium and the Sports Performance Center, which has earned rave reviews since its unveiling in 2017 as one of the premier indoor football facilities in the country. As part of the project, Texas Tech will more than double its physical space in the Womble Football Center, which is slated to begin construction in early 2022 in anticipation of opening prior to the 2023 season. The state-of-the-art complex will house a nearly 14,000-square foot weight room and a 7,000-square foot locker room as well as coaches offices, position rooms, a players' lounge and space for nutrition, athletic training and recruiting.

The Womble Football Center is the second project in Texas Tech's three-part master plan for its football program, which also includes future renovations to the south end zone of Jones AT&T Stadium. The projects are among the final items for The Campaign for Fearless Champions, which has transformed Texas Tech's facilities since its inception. Overall, the campaign has funded 25 athletic facility projects to date and has invested more than $200 million into the athletics department, including critical student-athlete resources such as scholarship endowments, nutrition and the J.T. and Margaret Talkington Leadership Academy.

To date, Womble has gifted his alma mater with more than $30 million as part of The Campaign for Fearless Champions, placing him historically among one of Texas Tech University's largest individual donors and the largest athletics donor. He joins the ranks of other generous supporters such as Jim Sowell, Ed Whitacre and Jerry Rawls.

THE OFFENSIVE STANDARD

Texas Tech has long been considered the offensive standard since the Red Raiders moved to a passing attack in 2000. In fact, the numbers don't lie when it pertains to the high-octane Red Raider offense. MAKING IT LOOK E-Z

Erik Ezukanma has established himself as the Big 12's top wide receiver over the past two-plus seasons as he has caught 136 passes for 2,151 yards and 15 touchdowns over his career. Ezukanma became the 15th Red Raider since 2000 to reach 2,000 yards for his career against Oklahoma as he currently leads all active Big 12 players with 2,103 receiving yards since the start of the 2019 season alone.

Ezukanma hit the 100-yard mark for the third time this season against Oklahoma after catching a career-high eight passes for 123 yards and a touchdown. Ezukanma, who now has five 100-yard outings in his career, notched the second multi-touchdown performance of his career as he caught two touchdowns in the win over Iowa State. His other outing with two receiving touchdowns came in the 2020 meeting at Oklahoma State.

OFFENSIVE NOTEBOOK

THOMPSON CONTINUES TO MOVE UP SCHOOL RECORD BOOK

- Texas Tech has turned to a reliable option out of the backfield in recent weeks as SaRodorick Thompson has found the end zone nine times this season despite missing the first two games of the year. Thompson has three multi-touchdown performances this season as he scored twice on the ground against both West Virginia and Kansas State and then three times versus TCU. He now has 11 multi-touchdown games during his career, which trails Taurean Henderson's 14 among Red Raiders dating back to 2000.
- Thompson's three touchdowns versus the Horned Frogs marked a career-high and was the most for a Red Raider since Ta'Zhawn Henry found the end zone four times against Houston early in the 2018 season. He is the 10th Red Raider since 2000 to rush for at least three touchdowns in a game.
- Thompson's 13-yard touchdown run early in the fourth quarter against Iowa State pushed him to 32 for his career, moving him into a tie with Bobby Cavazos (1951-53) for sixth all-time in program history. With another rushing touchdown this season, he will move into a tie for fifth alongside Shannon Woods (2005-08), who had 33 during his Red Raider career.
- Thompson could potentially further add to his legacy in the coming weeks as he is 117 rushing yards shy of reaching 2,000 for his career. To date, Texas Tech has had 13 players in school history eclipse the 2,000-yard mark. Thompson would be only the fifth Red Raider to do so since 2000, joining the likes of DeAndre Washington (2011-15), Taurean Henderson (2002-05), Baron Batch (2006, 2008-10) and Shannon Woods (2005-08). In addition to those already ranked in the top 10, the following three Red Raiders also rushed for 2,000 yards during their respective careers: Woods (2,249), Doug McCutchen (2,222; 1970-72) and Bobby Cavazos (2,137; 1951-53).
- Following his 2020 sophomore campaign, Thompson became the first Red Raider to lead the team in rushing back-to-back years since DeAndre Washington during the 2014-15 seasons. Thompson is only the sixth Red Raider all-time to lead the team in rushing as both a freshman and sophomore, joining an elite list that includes two Doak Walker Award winners in Byron "Bam" Morris (1991-92) and Byron Hanspard (1994-95) as well as James Gray (1986-87), Ricky Williams (1997) and Taurean Henderson (2002-03).
- Thompson could become the first Red Raider to lead Texas Tech in rushing over three-consecutive seasons since Baron Batch from 2008-10. If he and Erik Ezukanma once again lead the team in rushing and receiving yards, respectively, it would mark the first time Texas Tech has had the same two players lead each category over three-straight years since the school began tracking yearly leaders in 1951.

YES, WE RUN THE BALL HERE AT TEXAS TECH

- Texas Tech has been a force on the ground this season as the Red Raiders have totaled 1,684 rushing yards, their fourth-highest total through 11 games dating back to 2000.
- Texas Tech's success on the ground has been particularly noticeable in the red zone as the Red Raiders have rushed for 26 touchdowns this season, which is tied for 21st currently in the FBS. Tech is tied for second in the Big 12 for the category only behind Baylor.
- The Red Raiders totaled eight touchdowns on the ground over a two-game stretch with four against both TCU and Kansas. Texas Tech had not previously found pay dirt four times on the ground in back-to-back weeks since early in the 2018 season against Lamar and Houston. It marked the first time Tech had done so versus Big 12 foes since the final two regular-season games of the 2015 season against Kansas State and Texas.
- Texas Tech rushed for 207 yards in the win over Iowa State, marking the third time this season and the eighth time since 2019 that the Red Raiders have hit the 200-yard mark. This is only the fourth time since 2000 where the Red Raiders have rushed for at least 200 yards at least three times in a season as Tech did so six times in 2015, four times in 2014 and then three times in 2020.
- Texas Tech rushed for a season-high 244 yards in the win at Kansas as the Red Raiders used 10 different rushers in the win, marking its most in a game since utilizing the same amount in the 2017 season opener against Eastern Washington.
- Texas Tech's final touchdown against Kansas - a 2-yard pass from Henry Colombi to Travis Koontz - snapped a streak of 11-consecutive scores that came via the ground. It was the longest such streak for the Red Raiders since 1977 when Tech put together a similar streak from its final touchdown against Arizona to two of its next three games against Rice and TCU.

TIME TO START A NEW STREAK

- Texas Tech's streak of 302-consecutive games with points came to an end last weekend versus Oklahoma State as the Red Raiders previously boasted the eighth-longest active run in the FBS. The streak ends as the 11th-longest in FBS history and the third-longest all-time among current Big 12 programs.
- The streak originally began on Oct. 25, 1997, against Texas A&M after the Red Raiders were blanked 29-0 at No. 2 Nebraska. Texas Tech had not been previously shut out at home suffering a 31-0 loss to No. 20 Arkansas on Oct. 10, 1987.

SMITH PUTS TOGETHER WINNING FORMULA IN FIRST CAREER START

- Donovan Smith shined in his first career start against Iowa State as the redshirt freshman completed 25-of-32 passes for 322 yards and three touchdowns in the win. He became the ninth Red Raider since 1999 to throw for at least 300 yards in his starting debut, joining a list that includes Nic Shimonek, Davis Webb, Baker Mayfield, Steven Sheffield, Taylor Potts, Graham Harrell, Cody Hodges and his offensive coordinator Sonny Cumbie. Of that group, only Sheffield (2009 vs. Kansas State) and Webb (2013 versus Iowa State) were able to do so against Big 12 foes.
- Smith was the seventh Texas Tech freshman to make his first career start at quarterback during the Big 12 era, joining Kliff Kingsbury (1999), Seth Doege (2009), Mayfield (2013), Webb (2013), Patrick Mahomes II (2014) and Alan Bowman (2018). Among that group, Smith was the fifth quarterback to make his first career start against a Big 12 foe as Texas Tech is now 4-1 in those games.
- Smith's 322 passing yards ranked second only to Webb's 415 yards and three touchdowns among freshmen who were making their first career starts in a Big 12 game. Webb's performance, ironically, also came in a win over Iowa State. Smith also rushed 14 times for 50 yards in his starting debut.
- Texas Tech is an impressive 16-2 since 1999 when its quarterback is making his first career start as the Red Raiders' only two losses during that span came with Patrick Mahomes II against Texas in 2014 and then Jackson Tyner at Oklahoma in 2019. Mahomes was injured early in that loss to Texas and did not return to the game.
- This is the fifth-consecutive season where the Red Raiders have debuted a new quarterback who was making his first career start. It is also the third time in the past four years where Texas Tech has utilized three different starting quarterbacks in a season and the fifth-consecutive year multiple signal callers have garnered at least one start behind center.

CUMBIE KNOWS THE QUARTERBACK POSITION

- A record-setting signal caller himself, there's little doubt Sonny Cumbie knows the quarterback position. During his time at TCU, he coached several of the Horned Frogs' top quarterbacks in school history, namely Trevone Boykin, who was a two-time All-American and a two-time finalist for the Davey O'Brien Award. Boykin, the 2014 Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year, finished fourth in the Heisman Trophy voting as a junior in 2014 and then ninth as a senior a year later.
- Cumbie helped push TCU to the Big 12 Championship game and a top-10 ranking in his first year as play-caller in 2017 as the Horned Frogs closed the year at 11-3 overall following a 39-37 victory over No. 13 Stanford in the Valero Alamo Bowl. Kenny Hill set the TCU single-season mark for completion percentage (67.2) while leading the FBS for third-down completion percentage (67.3).
- Max Duggan blossomed into the latest successful Cumbie protégé in 2019 as he broke the TCU true freshman records with 2,077 passing yards and 15 touchdowns after earning the starting nod in only the third game of the season. In his two seasons under Cumbie, Duggan threw for 3,872 yards and 25 touchdowns, while also rushing for an additional 1,081 yards and 10 touchdowns. He was an honorable mention All-Big 12 pick following his true freshman season.

FUTURE IS BRIGHT IN THE QUARTERBACK ROOM

- Sonny Cumbie entered this season feeling the future is bright in the quarterback room thanks to a pair of freshmen in Donovan Smith and Behren Morton to go along with experienced veterans such as Tyler Shough and Henry Colombi. Smith, the son of running backs coach DeAndre Smith, arrived at Texas Tech prior to the 2020 season out of nearby Frenship High School in the Lubbock area. He threw for more than 3,000 yards and 25 touchdowns as a senior after previously starring at Bishop Gorman High School in Las Vegas.
- Prior to making his first career start against Iowa State, Smith's role continued to grow in the offense in recent weeks as he has relieved Henry Colombi at various moments, giving the Red Raiders a heavy pass-run option behind center. He came off the bench at Oklahoma to play the entire second half, completing 17-of-22 passes for 192 yards and a touchdown, while also rushing seven times for 22 yards. Smith previously rushed six times for 37 yards and a touchdown while also completing 4-of-5 passes for 70 yards at Kansas two weeks earlier. It marked the first time he has attempted a pass this season. He has 47 rushing attempts for 128 yards and two touchdowns now on the season.
- Morton, meanwhile, is the highest-rated quarterback to ever sign with the Red Raiders after totaling more than 8,800 passing yards and 84 touchdowns in three seasons at Eastland High School. He was a consensus four-star prospect, ranking sixth nationally among pro-style quarterbacks. Morton grew up in Lubbock for part of his youth as his father was the head football coach at Monterey High School in Lubbock for 11 years.

RED RAIDERS IN THE NFL

SPORTS LARGEST CONTRACT

- There isn't a bigger star in the NFL currently than Texas Tech's own Patrick Mahomes II. The one-time Red Raider gunslinger has transformed the NFL in only four professional seasons, claiming NFL MVP honors in 2018 before leading the Kansas City Chiefs to back-to-back Super Bowl appearances, including a win in 2020.
- With his Super Bowl win over the San Francisco 49ers, Mahomes became the youngest player in history to be named NFL MVP and also win a Super Bowl. Mahomes, who at only 24 years of age, was tabbed Super Bowl MVP after leading the Chiefs to only their second Super Bowl title in history and their first since 1970.
- In July 2020, Mahomes signed the richest contract in NFL history as he and the Chiefs agreed on a 10-year extension worth up to $503 million. It marked the second time in school history where a Red Raider has signed the richest NFL contract as Ring of Honor member Donny Anderson previously did so with the Green Bay Packers upon being drafted in 1965.
- Dating back to his time as a Red Raider, the 2016 Sammy Baugh Trophy winner is the only quarterback in history to throw for 5,000 yards at both the collegiate and NFL levels.

RED RAIDERS FIND BALANCE EARLY IN CUMBIE'S RETURN

- Sonny Cumbie has returned the Red Raiders to their high-scoring ways early in his tenure as offensive coordinator as Texas Tech is currently averaging 30.5 points per game. Tech had averaged at least 30 points per game over 20-consecutive seasons up until finishing with a 29.1 clip a year ago.
- Through 11 games, the Red Raiders, known for various versions of the Air Raid offense since 2000, have actually attempted more rushes (364) to passes (336) to this point. Texas Tech has not finished a season with more rushing attempts than passes since 1999, the final year under head coach Spike Dykes.
- Texas Tech's success on the ground this season placed the Red Raiders in a rare circumstance against Kansas State as Texas Tech attempted nearly twice as many rushes as passes. In fact, it marked the first time since the 1999 regular-season finale against Oklahoma where the Red Raiders completed 10 or fewer passes and had under 20 pass attempts.
- A native of nearby Snyder, Texas, Cumbie helped TCU boast the Big 12's second-best conference record (38-25) and third-best overall mark (58-30) over his seven seasons, which coincided with six bowl appearances. He oversaw the Horned Frogs' quarterbacks throughout his tenure and served as the sole offensive play-caller each of his final four years.
- Once the quarterback in one of Texas Tech's biggest bowl wins, Cumbie threw for 4,742 yards as a senior in 2004, the sixth-highest total in school history and one of the top-25 marks in NCAA history. Cumbie, who waited patiently as a former walk-on quarterback to finally lead the prolific Tech offense, twice led the Red Raiders to 70-point games that season en route to garnering honorable mention All-Big 12 accolades as well as Academic All-Big 12 first team honors.
- Cumbie might be best remembered, however, for his 520 passing yards in Texas Tech's 2004 Holiday Bowl victory over (then) No. 4 California, capping off an 8-4 season. Cumbie was tabbed the Holiday Bowl MVP for his performance as he still owns the Holiday Bowl and the Tech bowl records for most passing yards.

POTENT NOTABLES (OFFENSE EDITION)

- Texas Tech has been among the most explosive teams in the country this season as the Red Raiders are tied for first in the Big 12 and fourth in the FBS after totaling 21 plays of at least 40 yards. Tech also ranks tied for sixth for plays of 50 yards or longer with 12 to this point.
- Texas Tech has put points on the board in 91.0 percent of its red zone appearances this season (39-of-43), which ranks 16th in the FBS and fifth in the Big 12 entering this weekend. The Red Raiders have found the end zone in 30 of those red zone appearances as Tech has failed to put points on the board only four times - via an early fumble against Houston, a fourth-down stop versus both TCU and Iowa State and then the end of the half at Oklahoma.
- Myles Price had a career day versus Iowa State as the sophomore hauled in nine passes for 175 yards and a touchdown. His nine catches in the win marked the most by a Red Raider this season and the most since KeSean Carter hauled in 11 in the 2019 season finale at Texas. Price nearly snapped his career-high by 100 yards as his previous high mark was his 79 yards last season versus West Virginia.
- Kaylon Geiger Sr. has two 100-yard performances this season, giving him 11 now for his career between his time at Troy and Texas Tech. Since the start of the 2019 season, Geiger ranks tied for fifth among FBS receivers for 100-yard performances, trailing only the 15 from Purdue's David Bell and the 12 from former Alabama standout DeVonta Smith (currently with Philadelphia Eagles), UTEP's Jacob Cowing and Memphis' Calvin Austin III.
- Eric Ezukanma has found the end zone via the ground game twice this season as he scampered nine yards to score at Kansas on Oct. 16 before going 45 yards on Oct. 23 against Kansas State. He is the first Red Raider wide receiver to rush for at least two touchdowns twice in a season since Jakeem Grant had the same total to close his career in 2015.
- Texas Tech could potentially have three 500-yard receivers after the Oklahoma State game if Price is able to gain 49 yards and Geiger is able to go for 20 yards. Ezukanma leads the team with 691 receiving yards over 10 games this season.
- Texas Tech posted season highs for yards per play (7.9) and explosive plays of at least 20 yards in the win over Iowa State despite facing a Cyclones defense that entered the game allowing 18.2 points per game (14th-best in FBS) and only 282.4 yards per game (4th-best in FBS).

BROOKS BACK IN THE MIX TO BOOST RUNNING GAME

- Tahj Brooks put together his best performance against Iowa State since returning from an injury that caused him to miss the first four games in Big 12 play. The sophomore carried nine times for 80 yards and a touchdown and also hauled in two catches for 21 yards in the win. Brooks now leads the Red Raiders with 421 rushing yards this season, 18 more than teammate SaRodorick Thompson.
- Brooks was the breakout star for the Texas Tech offense early this season as he has carried 35 times for 284 yards and four touchdowns over the first three games. Brooks finished with a career-high 134 rushing yards against Houston and then added 103 on the ground versus SFA, marking his first two games to reach the 100-yard mark.
- Brooks had been explosive in finding the end zone, scoring on touchdown runs of 41 and 44 yards against Houston before breaking loose on a 67-yard scamper against SFA and a 51-yard rush against Iowa State. He is tied for eighth nationally with four rushes this season of at least 40 yards, a category he ranks third in among Big 12 rushers.

PLENTY OF EXPERIENCE FEATURED ALONG OFFENSIVE LINE

- Steve Farmer returned the bulk of his position room this season as the Red Raiders brought back four starters on the offensive line, including All-Big 12 second team selection Dawson Deaton at center. Texas Tech boasts 120 career starts as a Red Raider among its offensive line and 161 career starts when you factor in a pair of transfers such as Josh Burger and T.J. Stormont.
- Deaton, a two-year starter at center, ranks second on the team with 33 career starts, trailing only DaMarcus Fields' 47 career starts among returners with starts logged at Texas Tech.
- In addition to Deaton, the Red Raiders also benefit from the return of junior Weston Wright and senior Josh Burger, who both started all 10 games in 2020. Wright has now started in 29-consecutive games, while Burger, who moved from right tackle to right guard this season, has been in the starting lineup over 46-straight games dating back to his time at Wofford. Burger also played a significant role in Dawson's absence against West Virginia and Kansas, stepping in to quarterback the offensive line at center for a game.

DEFENSIVE NOTEBOOK

POTENT NOTABLES (DEFENSE EDITION)

- Seven different Red Raiders have picked off a pass so far this season as Texas Tech currently ranks third in the Big 12 with nine interceptions. Dadrion Taylor-Demerson leads the group with three after picking off his third pass of the season against Iowa State. The Red Raiders haven't had seven different players with an interception in a season, let alone the first 11 games, since 2017 when 10 players picked off a pass.
- Texas Tech's nine interceptions this season are already four more than its entire total from the 2020 campaign. It took the Red Raiders a total of 10 games for its five interceptions a year ago.
- The Red Raiders have found multiple ways to find the end zone this season as Texas Tech currently ranks tied for 19th nationally with two defensive touchdowns, which have come from interceptions by both Riko Jeffers and Marquis Waters. Baylor, TCU and Oklahoma State are the only other Big 12 programs with multiple defensive touchdowns so far this season. Tech made a knack for finding the end zone via its defense during the 2020 season as the Red Raiders ranked tied for seventh in the FBS and second in the Big 12 with three defensive touchdowns. It marked the most defensive touchdowns in a season by the Red Raiders since the 2017 campaign when Tech had four over 13 games.
- If the season ended today, Texas Tech would have, statistically, accomplished one of its better seasons in recent memory in stopping the run as opponents are only averaging 141.1 yards per game on the ground. That average would rank as the Red Raiders' lowest since giving up only 135.1 yards per game in 2009.
- Tyree Wilson has recorded 7.5 of his 11.5 tackles for loss in the last six games as he set a career-high 2.0 against both Kansas and Kansas State. Both of his tackles for loss against Kansas went for sacks, giving him a team-leading 5.0 now on the season. It marked the first time in Wilson's career where he had two solo sacks in a game.
- Among his Big 12 counterparts, Wilson ranks tied for seventh in the league with his 11.5 tackles for loss. Wilson ranks tied for second among Red Raider defensive linemen for tackles for loss through 11 games as Brandon Sharpe had 14.0 at the same point in the 2009 season while Kerry Hyder had a similar 11.5 total.
- Riko Jeffers posted 19 tackles over the last four games, giving him 60 on the season now, which ranks third overall behind only Colin Schooler and Eric Monroe. Jeffers has 287 tackles for his career after totaling at least 55 tackles in each of the last three seasons, including two with 70 or more stops.
- Eric Monroe finished one tackle shy of his career high against Kansas State as he totaled 11 stops, marking the third time in his career to reach double digits. Each of those three games have come during his time as a Red Raider. He is second on the team with 69 stops so far this season.
- Texas Tech's improved depth defensively has been evident this season as only four Red Raiders have started in all 11 games. That list defensively includes linebackers Colin Schooler and Riko Jeffers as well as defensive linemen Jaylon Hutchings and Tyree Wilson.
- The Texas Tech secondary stepped up in a big way against Kansas, limiting the Jayhawks to only 128 passing yards a week after surrendering just 104 in the loss to TCU. It marked the first time the Red Raiders had kept a Big 12 opponent under 130 passing yards in consecutive games since facing Oklahoma State (94 yards) and Oklahoma (118 yards) late in the 2005 season. The Red Raiders matched their season-high with seven pass breakups against Kansas.

RED RAIDERS RELYING ON STRONG RUSHING DEFENSE

- Texas Tech recorded its seventh game of the season where its opponent rushed for less than 100 yards against Iowa State as the Cyclones were limited to only 89 yards on the ground just two weeks after the Red Raiders held Oklahoma to just 72 rushing yards. Dating back to 2000, it marks the first time during that span that the Red Raiders had six or more games in a season where the opponent posted 100 rushing yards or less in a game.
- Among teams nationally, Texas Tech is one of eight FBS schools currently to hold opponents to 100 rushing yards or less seven times already this season, joining the likes of Alabama (8), Georgia (8), Iowa (8), San Diego State (8), Ohio State (7), Pittsburgh (7) and Wisconsin (7).
- Texas Tech is 5-2 this season when keeping its opponent under 100 rushing yards as the Red Raiders' two losses came versus Kansas State and then at No. 4 Oklahoma. The Red Raiders limited Kansas State to only 81 rushing yards on Oct. 23 - roughly half the Wildcats' season average entering the game.
- Kansas totaled 62 of its 145 rushing yards late in the fourth quarter after Tech had turned to many of its developmental players. The Red Raiders allowed only one explosive play of 20 yards or longer against Kansas, marking the first time Tech has done so this season.

TAKEAWAYS KEY FOR PATTERSON-LED DEFENSE

- Third-year defensive coordinator Keith Patterson, who returned eight starters on his side of the ball this season, has seen his defense produce 12 takeaways thus far in 2021.
- Patterson's first year leading the defense was highlighted by an aggressive scheme that had Texas Tech force 19 turnovers while allowing 30.3 points per game, its lowest average since 2009. The Red Raiders have totaled 41 takeaways over Patterson's two-plus seasons.
- Patterson's defenses have long been known for their ability to create turnovers as Utah State led the nation with 32 takeaways in 2018 prior to his hire at Texas Tech. Patterson's unit has created 73 takeaways the past three-plus seasons alone, which ranks eighth nationally among active defensive coordinators.
- Patterson has mentored three Red Raiders into NFL Draft selections during his short tenure as linebacker Jordyn Brooks was selected 27th overall by the Seattle Seahawks in 2019 followed by defensive lineman Broderick Washington Jr. in the fifth round with the Baltimore Ravens. Defensive back Zech McPhearson might have benefited the most from Patterson's guidance as he jumped up draft boards to be picked in the fourth round this past spring by the Philadelphia Eagles.

ONE OF THE BEST IN FBS HISTORY

Texas Tech boasts the nation's active leader in both tackles and tackles for loss in Colin Schooler, who arrived in Lubbock as a graduate transfer from Arizona in the weeks leading up to the 2020 season. Schooler, who currently leads the Red Raiders with 74 tackles this season, hit the 400 career tackles milestone against Texas. He joins three other Red Raiders in program history who have recorded 400 career tackles at the FBS level as Schooler joins the likes of Lawrence Flugence (1999-02), Brad Hastings (1983-86) and Kevin Curtis (1998-01).

NCAA FBS ACTIVE LEADERS FOR CAREER TACKLES

1. Colin Schooler (Arizona/Texas Tech)	462
2. Carlton Martial (Troy)	435
3. Jahad Woods (Washington State)	415
4. Reed Blankenship (Middle Tennessee State)	405
5. Jaylin Thomas (Ball State)	382

NCAA FBS ACTIVE LEADERS FOR CAREER TACKLES FOR LOSS

1. Colin Schooler (Arizona/Texas Tech)	56.5
2. DeAngelo Malone (Western Kentucky)	53.0
3. Ali Fayad (Western Michigan)	52.5
4. DQ Thomas (Middle Tennessee State)	48.0
5. Devin Lloyd (Utah)	42.0

MORE ON SCHOOLER

- Colin Schooler placed his name in the FBS record book against Iowa State as he registered his 56.0 career tackle for loss. Schooler, who is playing his fifth season overall and second as a Red Raider, matched the totals of Cincinnati's Antwan Peek (2000-02) and Michigan's Brandon Graham (2006-09) to move into a tie for 24th all-time in FBS history. Schooler totaled 5.0 tackles for a loss over nine games in 2020 in his debut as a Red Raider and now has 5.5 already this season.
- Schooler is already a member of the NCAA record book with 301 solo tackles over his career, which currently ranks eighth all-time in FBS history after he passed Boston College's Luke Kuechly and West Virginia's Grant Wiley (2000-03). Schooler previously moved past another former Red Raider in safety Cody Davis (2009-12) against Oklahoma. Davis is currently in his ninth NFL season as a member of the New England Patriots. Schooler could push into the top five over his final two games as he needs seven solo stops to match the totals of E.J. Henderson of Maryland and UCLA's Eric Kendricks, who are tied for fifth currently in FBS history.
- Schooler has now forced a fumble in two of the last four games, giving him three now for the season. He is one of 51 players in the FBS with at least three forced fumbles this season as he ranks tied for 21st nationally in forced fumbles per game (0.27). It marks the most forced fumbles in a season by a Red Raider since Justus Parker had four in 2017. He notched his first interception as a Red Raider and the fifth of his career against Iowa State.
- The Oklahoma game marked the 50th start of Schooler's collegiate career as he previously made 33 during his three seasons at Arizona and then 19 now during his tenure as a Red Raider.
- Over his career, Schooler has reached double digits for tackles an impressive 17 times, which leads all active Big 12 players entering this weekend and ranks third nationally among active players, trailing only Colorado's Nate Landman and his 19 as well as Troy's Carlton Martial, who has 20 over his respective career.
- Schooler hails from a football family as his father, Tom, played at Eastern Michigan, while his older brother, Brendan, played at Oregon before transferring to Texas. His mother, Christine, was also a collegiate athlete as part of the Cal State Los Angeles volleyball program.

FIELDS TO THE PROS

- Not many defensive backs in the Big 12 yet alone the country have likely seen as much playing time as DaMarcus Fields the past four seasons. Fields, in his sixth and final season as a Red Raider, leads the team with 47 career starts at Texas Tech from his spot at cornerback where he has recorded 217 tackles, four interceptions and 47 passes defended over his career.
- For his career, Fields ranks second among active FBS players with his 47 passes defended, which trails only the 56 of Devin Taylor from Bowling Green. He is one of only five active FBS players with at least 40 passes defended over their respective careers.
- His pass breakup against Kansas State pushed him past Jamar Wall (2006-09) for the most passes defended by a Red Raider since 2000. Fields previously passed Justis Nelson (2013-16) during the SFA game as he had 39 over his respective career.
- Fields became the first member of his family to receive a college degree this summer as he graduated in May as a public relations major. Fields said at the time he elected to come back for a final year in order to obtain that degree.

PLENTY OF EXPERIENCE FEATURED ON DEFENSE

- The Texas Tech defense brought back eight starters as well as the majority of its two-deep in 2021. Overall, this season's defensive roster currently features 12 players with 10 or more starts over their respective careers and four players with at least 200 tackles for their career.
- Between returning linebackers Colin Schooler and Riko Jeffers and newcomer Marquis Waters, the Red Raiders had three players with a wealth of experience as all three recorded more than 200 tackles for their careers entering the season. In fact, Texas Tech was the only FBS program in the country at the start of the season with three players on its 2021 roster that boasted 225 or more tackles.
- Texas Tech added another member to the 200-tackle club against Kansas State as DaMarcus Fields recorded seven stops in the loss, giving him 202 at the time for his career as a Red Raider.

THE LOU GROZA AWARD CANDIDATE

Jonathan Garibay, a semifinalist for the prestigious Lou Groza Award (nation's top kicker), is now 12-for-12 on field goal attempts this season as he is the only Big 12 kicker to not record a miss and one of only two in the FBS who remain perfect entering this weekend. Garibay, who is 20-for-23 on field goal attempts over his career, connected on two field goals against Iowa State, none more memorable than his 62-yarder to win the game as time expired.

Garibay's 62-yard field goal marked the longest by an FBS kicker this season and was the longest in Texas Tech history, snapping the school record of 57 yards by Bill Adams against Texas A&M in 1977. As seen below, it is one of only six field goals from 62 yards or longer to find the uprights since 1988.

LONGEST FIELD GOALS BY AN FBS KICKER SINCE 1988

1. Martin Gramatica, Kansas State (1998 vs. Northern Illinois).....	65
2. Jose Martinez, UTEP (2008 vs. UCF).....	64
3. Jonathan Garibay, Texas Tech (2021 vs. Iowa State).....	62
Zach Hintze, Wisconsin (2019 vs. Purdue).....	62
Jason Hanson, Washington State (1991 vs. UNLV).....	62
Terance Kitchens, Texas A&M (1999 vs. Southern Miss).....	62

Note: The NCAA disallowed the use of kicking tees prior to the 1988 season.

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTEBOOK

GARIBAY CONNECTS ON LONGEST GAME-WINNER IN FBS HISTORY

- Jonathan Garibay was tabbed the conference's top special teams performer for the second time this season and the third time in his career Nov. 15 as he was previously honored following each of his other two game-winning field goals, which came earlier this year at West Virginia and in 2020 after a win over Baylor. He is only the second Red Raider in program history to garner Special Teams Player of the Week honors three times in a career, joining Wes Welker, who earned the accolade four times over his Hall of Fame career from 2000-03.
- The Lou Groza Award semifinalist matched the second-longest kick in Big 12 history as it was only the fourth successful try of 60 yards or longer all-time among conference kickers. In addition, it was the longest for a kicker all-time in a game between two Big 12 schools. It was the longest game-winning field goal all-time in FBS history (less than a minute remaining).
- Garibay, who has found the uprights in all 12 attempts this season, needs to do so again in his next try to match the Texas Tech record for consecutive successful field goals that was set by Clayton Hatfield during the 2018 season. Hatfield, who was successful in 13-consecutive tries, remains the most-accurate kicker in program history after making 84.7 percent of his attempts from 2015-18.
- Texas Tech is one of three schools in the FBS and the only power-five program that has not missed a field goal this season in at least five attempts as the Red Raiders join the likes of Bowling Green and Troy.
- Garibay connected on the second game-winning field goal of his career at West Virginia as the senior found the uprights from 32 yards out with only 18 seconds remaining. He was named the Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week the following Monday for his efforts, alongside Colin Dicker of Texas.
- Garibay previously pushed the Red Raiders to a victory in the final seconds against Baylor late in the 2020 season as he drilled a 25-yard attempt as time expired. It was one of four field goals on the day for Garibay, who became the first Red Raider to connect on four field goals since Ryan Bustin had the same amount in a 2013 victory over Kansas. The performance earned him Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week honors for that week as well. Prior to his kick against Baylor, the Red Raiders had not previously walked off with a game-winning field goal since Bustin drilled a 28-yarder in the closing seconds of the 2012 Meineke Car Care Bowl versus Minnesota.
- Garibay was inserted into the kicker role for the first time in his Red Raider career against Baylor as he is only the sixth kicker in Big 12 history to make four field goals in his career debut as the primary field goal specialist and just the second to do so versus a league opponent, joining Colorado's Jeremy Aldrich in 1998 against Nebraska.

ANOTHER RECORD GOES DOWN FOR MCNAMARA

- Austin McNamara has become accustomed to breaking records during his time as a Red Raider as the junior snapped another one against Oklahoma State after bombing eight punts of at least 50 yards. The performance broke the previous FBS record of seven that was set by Colorado's Mark Mariscal in a 2002 home game against Southern California.
- McNamara averaged 56.4 yards per punt overall against the Cowboys, which finished just shy of the Texas Tech single-game record of 57.0 yards an attempt that was set by Alex Reyes in a 2004 win versus Baylor (only three attempts). It marked the second-highest average for an FBS punter in a game this season and the third-highest for any punter with at least nine attempts in a game dating back to 2000, trailing only the clips from Wake Forest's Dom Maggio in a 2019 contest at Clemson (57.7) and San Diego State's Matt Araiza and his 56.8 average earlier this year versus New Mexico State.
- McNamara has quickly become a fixture in the Texas Tech record book in only two-plus seasons as the junior punter already owns two of the top five single-season averages in program history as well as the longest punt by any Big 12 player in league history. McNamara is on pace to place his name among the all-time greats once again as he is averaging an impressive 48.5 yards per punt this year, which would potentially break the Tech single-season record of 46.8 that was set by Mark Bounds in 1991. McNamara wrapped the 2020 season averaging an impressive 46.3 yards per punt, the second-highest clip in school history behind only the average compiled by Bounds. He previously averaged 45.0 yards per punt as a true freshman in 2020, which now ranks fifth in program history. He is the only Red Raider with two of the top-five punting averages currently in the school record book.
- McNamara is currently second in the Big 12 currently entering this weekend for punting average as he trails only Oklahoma's Michael Turk (52.7). He led the Big 12 in the category a year ago and ranked fourth nationally among punters who played in at least five games.
- McNamara is on pace to snap the Texas Tech career record as he is averaging 46.3 yards per punt through two-plus seasons. Taylor Symmank is the current career record holder as he averaged 43.7 yards per attempt from 2012-15.
- Among active punters, McNamara's 45.6 career average ranks fifth in the FBS, trailing only the clips of Colorado State's Ryan Stonehouse (47.8), Western Kentucky's John Haggerty (46.6), N.C. State's Trenton Gill (46.3) and Georgia's Jake Camara (45.7).
- McNamara set social media on fire midway through the 2020 season with his booming 87-yard punt against West Virginia, which marked the longest by an FBS kicker since 2017 and the longest in Texas Tech and Big 12 history. McNamara broke the Texas Tech single-game record for the longest punt that was previously set by R.W. Moyers in 1945 against West Texas State. Moyers launched an 85-yard punt in the win, which is the only other punt of 80 yards or longer in school history.

THE GAME IS NEVER OVER HERE

The victory over Houston marked the 23rd time since 2000 where the Red Raiders have overcome a double-digit deficit to win. Below is a listing of Texas Tech's come-from-behind wins:

FIGHT LIKE LUKE

Texas Tech will wear a special helmet sticker throughout the 2021 football season in honor of the late Luke Siegel, who passed away Aug. 19 at only 15 years of age. The son of former Texas Tech men's tennis coach Tim Siegel and his wife Jenny, Luke Siegel suffered a traumatic brain injury following a golf cart accident in July 2015. Not guaranteed to survive the original accident, Siegel continued to fight in the six years since, beating the odds one time after another in his recovery. Texas Tech Athletics has established the Luke Siegel Fund to honor his memory.

MCGUIRE'S MANTRA

"You are going to hear this out of my mouth every single day, and the guys will understand it, we are going to have a brand - We are going to be the toughest, hardest working, most competitive team in the country. That is our brand. Tough teams are hard to beat."

HEAD COACH JOEY MCGUIRE

Joey McGuire, a 2020 inductee into the Texas High School Coaches Association Hall of Honor, has been named the 17th head football coach in Texas Tech history, Director of Athletics Kirby Hocutt announced Nov. 8. McGuire, who has spent the previous five seasons helping build Baylor into a Big 12 title contender following a legendary career at Cedar Hill High School, will join the Texas Tech athletics department immediately and will assume head coaching duties immediately following the 2021 football season. Sonny Cumbie will continue to serve as Texas Tech's interim head coach for the remaining regular-season games and the bowl appearance.

"We are excited for this new chapter in Texas Tech Football under the direction of Coach McGuire," Hocutt said. "Our search committee was impressed from the outset not only with his significant ties throughout the state of Texas but his enthusiasm and desire to serve as the head coach at Texas Tech. We are thrilled to be able to welcome Coach McGuire and his wife Debbie to our Red Raider family."

During his five seasons in Waco, McGuire's ties throughout the state helped develop a Baylor program that appeared in the 2019 Big 12 Championship game and the Allstate Sugar Bowl, one of three times the Bears have secured bowl eligibility during his tenure. McGuire has served as Baylor's associate head coach each of the last three seasons.

McGuire made the jump to Baylor after a legendary run as head coach at Cedar Hill High School in the Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex. Over his 14 seasons, he took a Cedar Hill program that hadn't won a playoff game prior to his tenure and led the Longhorns to 12-consecutive playoff appearances and three state championships, including back-to-back titles in 2013 and 2014.

Cedar Hill was an impressive 141-42 during McGuire's tenure as the Longhorns also claimed the state title in 2006, only his fourth season as head coach. Cedar Hill was the state runner-up in 2012, starting a run where the Longhorns were among the most-dominant programs in Texas. Cedar Hill won nine bi-district titles and seven district crowns overall during McGuire's tenure.

McGuire and his wife, Debbie, have two children, a daughter Raegan and a son Garret. Garret was a quarterback at Baylor from 2017-20 before joining the coaching profession as a member of the Carolina Panthers prior to the 2021 season. Raegan is a graduate of Texas Tech University.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT JOEY MCGUIRE...

■ Bob Stoops, former Oklahoma head football coach

"I believe this is an awesome hire, I've known Joey a long time, since my first couple of years here going to recruit down in the Dallas area. He's always run a first class program, always very positive and was always close and connected with his players. The players love playing for him. I think football is relative and you do a great job, at whatever level you're playing, I think there is no reason you can't do it at a different level. He got great experience being at Baylor for the last 5 years, being with Matt Rhule, who I think is a heck of a coach. The same thing with Dave Aranda, who's doing a great job in his second year [at Baylor]. He's been influenced by two head coaches that have had really strong success. I believe that Joey is a person that connects, motivates players, and he will connect with the community and high school coaches around the state of Texas. I think he will do a great job."

■ Matt Rhule, Carolina Panthers head football coach

"I think he will be unbelievable ushering in a new era at Tech. I think that he's one in a million. There are not many people like Joey McGuire as a person, as a coach. I think that there's not ever going to be a bad day ever in that facility, those players are going to be developed, they're going to be loved, they're going to be honed, they're going to be developed in every aspect of their life. He's going to bring excitement to all West Texas, especially to Lubbock. For Red Raider Nation I think he's absolutely going to be a bolt of energy, throughout the entire athletic department and you guys are going to play really good football too."

■ Kim Mulkey, LSU head women's basketball coach

"I am so happy for Joey. Not only is he a great coach, he has the people skills to recruit. He is well connected to the Texas high school coaches. Texas Tech will love him and his wife, Debbie and their two children."

■ Mack Brown, North Carolina head football coach

"I'm thrilled Coach McGuire is receiving this opportunity at Texas Tech because he's earned it. He was a great high school coach during my time at Texas and it doesn't surprise me at all that he's worked his way to a head coaching position in the Big 12. He's a smart, innovative coach, who brings deep ties to Texas high school football with him to Lubbock. I've always admired him, and if I had a son, I would want him to play for Coach McGuire. I think Texas Tech made a smart decision here and Coach McGuire will do an excellent job for them."

■ Joe Martin, Executive Director of THSCA

"I am very proud and excited for Joey on being selected the next head football coach at Texas Tech. He is a homegrown product starting as a player at Crowley and working his way up the ranks to head coach at Cedar Hill and eventually as associate head coach at Baylor. He is a past member of the THSCA Board of Directors and has many friends in the high school coaching community across the state. Joey is as good as they come as a coach and we wish him the best!"

TEXAS TECH UNIVERSITY

THE STATE OF TEXAS' TOP ATHLETICS DEPARTMENT

- With all the talk of conference realignment in the air, it's important to remember Texas Tech has led all schools in the state of Texas in the Capital One Cup men's standings in two of the last three complete athletic seasons after finishing third nationally in 2018-19 and then 14th for the 2017-18 athletic year. Below are several other facts regarding Texas Tech's success in competition.
- Since 2017, Texas Tech has had 15 of its 17 athletic programs compete in the NCAA postseason or a bowl game.
- Texas Tech has had six different programs finish among the top-10 teams nationally in their respective sport since 2014 alone.
- The Red Raiders have appeared in 38 bowl games in their history, which ranks tied for third among Big 12 programs and among the top-25 teams in college football history.
- Texas Tech claimed the 2019 Men's Outdoor Track and Field National Championship under head coach Wes Kittley.
- Texas Tech played in the 2019 NCAA Championship Game as well as in two-consecutive Elite Eights (2018-19). The Red Raiders are one of four men's basketball programs in the country with multiple Elite Eight appearances over the last three NCAA Tournaments.
- Texas Tech has advanced to the Men's College World Series four times in recent years (2014, 2016, 2018, 2019), which is tied for the most trips to the hallowed grounds in Omaha among teams nationally since 2014.
- Lady Raider Basketball remains one of the top programs in women's college basketball history as Texas Tech ranks 19th all-time among power-five programs with its 925 victories. Backed by the legendary Sheryl Swoopes, the Lady Raiders claimed the NCAA National Championship in 1993, the first team national championship in school history.
- Since joining the Big 12 as a charter member in 1996, Texas Tech has won 27 conference titles, with 11 of those coming in the past six years alone.
- In addition to its athletics success, Texas Tech has unveiled several new facilities in recent years with the opening of the $48 million Sports Performance Center in 2017, the Cash Family Sports Nutrition Center in 2020 and the $32.2 million Dustin R. Womble Basketball Center this past May.

THE NATION'S MOST DEDICATED FANS

- Texas Tech boasts one of the most rabid fan bases in all of college athletics as Red Raider fans have traditionally traveled in droves for bowl trips as well as to basketball games in locations like New York City, Anaheim (CA) and Minneapolis for the Final Four as well as to Omaha for the Men's College World Series.
- To date, Texas Tech has played in the highest-attended games for three bowl games, including two prominent ones in the state of Texas: the Goodyear Cotton Bowl (Dallas), the Academy Sports + Outdoors Texas Bowl (Houston) and the Holiday Bowl (San Diego).
- The Red Raiders had 88,175 fans on tap for the 2009 Cotton Bowl when the Red Raiders faced Ole Miss in the bowl's final game at historic Fair Park. It remains the highest-attended contest in the bowl's history even with the move to AT&T Stadium in Arlington, which can reach over 100,000 fans in capacity.
- Additionally, Texas Tech helped set the Texas Bowl attendance record in 2015 when the Red Raiders faced LSU in NRG Stadium. The bowl drew 71,307 fans that night to see a pair of future NFL standouts in Texas Tech's Patrick Mahomes II and Jakeem Grant.
- At home, Texas Tech has sold out of season tickets for its baseball program over seven-consecutive seasons now and will likely be looking at another sellout in 2022 after the Red Raiders advanced to the NCAA Super Regional round this past June.
- Texas Tech has sold out of season tickets in each of its last two men's basketball seasons, giving the Red Raiders the premier homecourt advantage in college basketball at 15,000-seat United Supermarkets Arena. The Red Raiders averaged a conference-leading 14,057 fans per game during the 2019-20 basketball season.
- On social media, Texas Tech student-athletes earned the highest engagement rate on their posts among peer power-five institutions over the past athletic year. Texas Tech's social media accounts accumulated over 35 million combined video views during the 2020-21 year alone.
- Texas Tech's brand has the ability to reach the nation through its creative social media usage. Texas Tech currently boasts the fifth-highest TikTok following by athletics accounts in the nation.
- Texas Tech is annually one of the top-performing schools among the Collegiate Licensing Company's (CLC) partner institutions, ranking 19th nationally in royalties generated this past year.

A PREMIER RESEARCH INSTITUTION

- Texas Tech University is the flagship institution, with a Moody Aa1 rating, of the five-member Texas Tech University System.
- Texas Tech is one of 16 universities designated as a Carnegie Very High Research Activity Institution and a Hispanic Serving Institution.
- Texas Tech has been named Higher Education Excellence in Diversity award winner in each of the last nine years. The university currently boasts 42 percent of its students identifying as racial-ethnic minorities.
- Texas Tech is a five-star Campus Pride Institution, one of two in Texas, and No. 25 on the Campus Pride Index.
- Texas Tech has awarded over $170 million in scholarships recently with over 50 percent of students receiving scholarship support.
- Texas Tech boasted more than $192 million in research expenditures in 2020 alone.

TEXAS TECH BOWL HISTORY

Texas Tech is looking to make its 39th postseason bowl appearance this season, which ranks among the top-25 programs all-time in bowl games played. The Red Raiders rank tied for third among current Big 12 Conference programs in bowl appearances.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Please direct all credential requests to the online credential portal located at www.sportssystem.com/TexasTech. Confirmation of your request will be made upon review by Matt Dowdy. Credentials are limited to members of the working media who are assigned to cover Texas Tech Football.

Credentials must be requested online by 5 p.m. Tuesday each week. All requests will be held for pickup until 5 p.m. Friday at the Athletics Communications office (third floor of Whitacre Athletic Center, East Stadium Building). Credentials not picked up by 5 p.m. Friday will be available at Media Will Call located at the main entrance to United Supermarkets Arena.

No credentials will be issued to any website that is not deemed to have adequate editorial oversight, or does not follow traditional journalistic ethics protocols. Credentials will not be approved to anyone who writes or posts under an alias. Please note that Texas Tech Athletics does not grant credential requests to freelance photographers. It is not always possible to accommodate all requests. No one under 18 years of age will be issued a credential without prior approval. Credentials are non-transferable and may be revoked at any time.

WWW.TEXASTECH.COM

This is the official website of Texas Tech Athletics. Texas Tech football releases as well as a wide variety of athletics department information can be found on the web. Weekly game notes, news and statistical information can be found here throughout the football season.

WEEKLY MEDIA LUNCHEON

During the season, Texas Tech interim head coach Sonny Cumbie will host a weekly media luncheon inside the Football Training Facility, located next to Jones AT&T Stadium. The event will be held each Tuesday morning beginning on Aug. 31 and running through Nov. 23. Coach Cumbie will be joined by two requested student-athletes who are able to attend when class schedules do not conflict. A meal will follow each press conference in the officials room of the Sports Performance Center, which is directly west of the Football Training Facility.

WEEKLY AVAILABILITY SCHEDULE

In addition to the Tuesday press conference, defensive coordinator Keith Patterson as well as requested student-athletes will be available following practice each Tuesday. Matt Dowdy will provide a detailed schedule each Monday during the season.

INTERVIEW REQUESTS

Please direct all interview requests for interim head coach Sonny Cumbie, members of the Texas Tech coaching staff and student-athletes to Matt Dowdy. Contacting student-athletes or coaches directly through text message or social media is strictly prohibited and could result in loss of credentials.

TEXAS TECH PRACTICE SCHEDULE

Texas Tech will practice each day except for Monday during the regular season. Texas Tech will provide a weekly media schedule on Sunday night.

Sunday – 5:30 p.m.
Monday – OFF DAY
Tuesday – 2:20 p.m.
Wednesday – 3:20 p.m.
Thursday – 3 p.m.
Friday – TBD

LIVE STREAMING

Live video streaming of any Texas Tech Athletics event, including news conferences, on ANY social media platform is strictly prohibited without prior approval from the athletics communications office.

USE OF AUDIO/VIDEO

Any media entity collecting any sort of “video or audio materials” (film, traditional video or audio, digital video or audio, photos, etc.) from Texas Tech University Athletics game events or press conference/media events may use that material only for traditional television newscasts, web-based or print coverage, or other electronic transmission as approved by the University in writing, with a limitation of up to three (3) minutes in length from any single event. Such media entity may not offer any live video, audio or other coverage of the event without the advance, written permission of Texas Tech University Athletics. This policy includes all games, matches and events involving any of Texas Tech's athletic programs. It includes all media events -- press conferences, pre/post-practice interviews and pre/post-game interviews. An exception would be a one-on-one interview arranged through the Texas Tech Athletics Communications office with a Texas Tech, coach, athlete or administrator.

TEXAS TECH SPORTS NETWORK

The Texas Tech Sports Network from Learfield Sports will carry all the exciting action of Red Raider Football beginning with the season opener with Sam Houston State and all the way through the bowl season. Brian Jensen (play-by-play) and John Harris (color analyst) return to the broadcast booth and will be joined on the sidelines by Chris Level (sidelines).
