UNITED SUPERMARKETS ARENA

All Texas Tech women's basketball home games are played at United Supermarkets Arena, located on the Texas Tech University main campus in Lubbock, Texas. With generous support from individual and corporate donations, the United Spirit Arena opened on Nov. 19, 1999. United Supermarkets, LLC, was a major donor and earned naming rights for the 15,000-seat multipurpose facility. It is referred to as the Entertainment Showcase of West Texas, hosting three sports for Texas Tech and bringing world-class entertainment to the South Plains region. Groundbreaking took place in March 1997.

WOMBLE BASKETBALL PRACTICE FACILITY

The Womble Center, which was funded entirely through philanthropic gifts to The Campaign for Fearless Champions, represents the premier basketball facility in the country, providing both programs a day-to-day home for player development and strength and conditioning workouts.

"This is hands-down the top basketball facility in the country," Director of Athletics Kirby Hocutt said. "When other athletic programs across the nation describe the ideal basketball facility, there's no doubt in my mind they'll point to the Womble Center. This facility would not have been possible without the support of so many of our donors, including the Womble family, who recognized our vision for our two programs and invested in their futures. We are incredibly grateful for every donor at every level for helping us make this a reality."

The opening of the Womble Center marks another milestone for The Campaign for Fearless Champions, which has transformed Texas Tech's facilities since its inception. To date, the campaign has funded 25 athletic facility projects and has invested more than $200 million into the athletics department, including critical student-athlete resources such as scholarship endowments, nutrition and the J.T. and Margaret Talkington Leadership Academy.

Texas Tech recently began utilizing the nearly 59,000-square foot Womble Center, which is located directly across from United Supermarkets Arena for quick access for both programs. The facility features practice courts for both teams as well as a 6,500-square-foot strength and conditioning area, one of the largest of its kind in the NCAA that is on-par with similar team headquarters in the NBA.

Texas Tech installed Robbins MVP wooden floors in both practice gyms, long considered the industry leader in court technology. The facility also boasts 3,355-square feet of athletic training space, which includes areas for hydrotherapy and cryotherapy as well as a physician's exam room and massage and treatment areas.

Most impressively, the Womble Center features a strong investment in technology with 97 television or video monitors throughout the facility. This includes a state-of-the-art film room for both teams and 98-inch screens in each players' lounge complete with gaming systems.

From a player-development standpoint, Texas Tech has installed a video coaching system that allows each team to run a play and then go to the video screen to immediately review team performance. Both gyms also have respective sound systems and acoustical decking that is designed to match the decibel levels at United Supermarkets Arena.

Texas Tech most recently completed its final investment in the facility with the mounting of video boards in both gyms to replicate game situations while shooting free throws or final-minute situations. It was designed to replicate the visiting team's facility complete with sound to make the situation as realistic as possible. To date, Texas Tech is the only school in the country with interactive video boards in its practice gymnasiums.

Additionally, Texas Tech will soon begin work on the Walk of Champions, which is a brick walkway from the Womble Center to United Supermarkets Arena. Fans can still purchase a customized brick to leave their own legacy at the Walk of Champions by visiting RedRaiderBricks.com.

■ Perhaps no player is more well-known or iconic as Sher-yl Swoopes. The two-time All-American led Texas Tech to the 1993 National Championship while earning numerous awards including the Naismith Player of the Year and Final Four MVP. Swoopes set a single-season school record with 955 points in 1993 - the 4th most by any player in a single season in NCAA history.

FEARLESS CHAMPIONS

■ Former Lady Raiders Plenette Pierson and Jia Perkins helped the Minnesota Lynx win the 2017 WNBA title.

■ Texas Tech graduate Plenette Pierson helped the Detroit Shock win the 2006 WNBA title. Pierson is one of nine Lady Raiders to play in the WNBA.

■ Texas Tech defeated Louisiana Monroe, 76-43 on Nov. 26, 2011 to become only the 14th program in Division I women's basketball to win 800 games. Tech's 838 wins ranks 13th all-time in Division I women's basketball.

■ For 24 years, Marsha Sharp was the face of Texas Tech women's basketball. One national championship, 572 wins and two national coach of the year honors. The West Texas native is respected as one of the premier coaches in women's basketball history and was enshrined in the WBB Hall of Fame in 2003.

■ Texas Tech defeated Ohio State, 84-82, to win its first national championship on April 4, 1993, behind 43 points by Final Four MVP and National Player of the Year Sheryl Swoopes. Her 43 points in the national championship game is a record that still stands today for most points by a man or woman in an NCAA title game.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

■ Texas Tech former student-athletes and coaches gathered together once again on Feb. 17, 2013, to celebrate the 20th anniversary of the 1993 national championship. The team was honored during half-time of the Texas Tech vs. Texas basketball games which was played exactly 20 years to the date of the first time the Lady Raiders ever beat the Texas Longhorns in Austin in 1993.

LADY RAIDERS IN GREECE

HOPPED OFF THE PLANE AT ATH

- Permissible every four according to NCAA bylaws, the Texas Tech Lady Raiders went on a foreign tour this past August. The 10-day trip began on Aug. 6 and wrapped up on Aug. 16. Flying from Dallas to Atlanta and eventually to Athens, the Lady Raiders arrived in Athens on Aug. 8 and spent four days in one of the worlds oldest cities.
- The stay in Athens included a private bike tour on Monday (Aug. 8), a tour of the Acropolis on Tuesday (Aug. 9), and a boat tour of the Aegean Sea on Thursday (Aug. 11).
- As part of the trip the Lady Raiders will able to play three games in total, two of which occurred in Athens. On Aug. 9 the Lady Raiders downed Ana Liosia Select, 80-41 and cruised to an 82-39 win over Olympiacos.
- Following the boat tour on Thursday, the scene shifted to Crete, as the Lady Raiders went to Chania on Friday. Following the quick one hour flight to the island of Crete, the travel party embarked on quick bus tour of the island. Friday night's festivities included a quick walking tour of Chania before the party embarked for free time and dinner in the Old Venetian Port of Chania.

- Saturday brought both a new day and gameday as the Lady Raiders enjoyed a four tour through the island of Crete before the third and final game of the trip came calling that night. In the end, the Lady Raiders closed a perfect 3-0 trip with a 78-53 win over Crete Select.

- After a busy day on both Friday and Saturday, the travel party was treated to a well deserved day of rest and relaxation that included a trip to the world famous Elafonissi Beach. The Lady Raiders were treated to private chairs on the beach and were able to enjoy the world famous pink sand and crystal clear waters.

- Monday the entire travel party loaded up the bus and hiked it to the airport where a quick flight back to Athens awaited. Once back in Athens, the members of the Lady Raiders travel party enjoyed one last meal in Greece before making the long trip back home

LADY R

AIDER COACHING STAFF

KRISTA GERLICH FILE

Krista Gerlich enters her third season at the helm of her alma matter in 2022-23. A national champion and Texas Tech legend during her time as a student-athlete, Gerlich was hired back in August of 2020.

Since returning to West Texas, Gerlich has started to rebuild the program she once played for. After a successful first season that included the most Big 12 Conference wins by a head coach in their first season in 14 years and the highest finish by a Lady Raider squad in a coaches first season, Gerlich continued to make strides during the 2021-22.

For the second consecutive season, Gerlich's squad defeated in-state rival Texas, 74-61. By downing the Longhorns in Austin, Gerlich became the first coach to win in Austin since the 2012-13 season and also recorded the Lady Raiders first victory over a top-10 foe since the 2010-11 season when the Lady Raiders downed No. 1 Baylor.

The win over Texas was the first of three AP Top-25 wins Gerlich's squad would record during the 2021-22 season, as the Lady Raiders also defeated No. 25 Kansas State 64-45 on Jan. 15 before downing No. 15 Oklahoma (97-87) on Feb. 16.

In addition to the three top-25 wins, Gerlich also helped senior Vivian Gray earn All-America status and Big 12 First Team status in 2021-22. Gray became just the fourth player in Big 12 Conference history to be named a first team selection four times. The forward joined a list that included Courtney Paris (2006-09), Brittney Griner (2009-13) and Oddsey Simms (2010-14).

Despite losing eight games by fewer than 10 points in conference play, the Lady Raiders showed tangible growth in year two, defeating Texas and Oklahoma in the same season for the first time since the 2001-02 season. In fact, by beating both OU and Texas on the road, the Lady Raiders recorded the first road sweep of OU and UT in the same season in program history.

During her first season back in West Texas in 2020-21, Gerlich took the first steps toward returning Lady Raider Basketball to the elite of women's college basketball.

Gerlich coached the Lady Raiders to the program's first win over in-state rival Texas since 2013. The Longhorns were ranked No. 20, and the victory also went down as the first top-25 win under a first-year Lady Raider head coach since 2007. Gerlich's squad knocked off a pair of Big 12 opponents in overtime in 2020-21 as well, which marked the first time ever that the Lady Raiders have knocked off two conference opponents in overtime in the same season.

In her first season, Gerlich oversaw the development of Lady Raider standout Vivian Gray, who became the program's 27th All-American when she was named a WBCA Coaches All-America selection. Gray had a career season in which she averaged 19.8 points, 8.2 rebounds, 2.9 assists, 1.6 blocks and 1.4 steals, while ranking in the top 20 of the Big 12 in scoring (No. 4), blocks (No. 4), minutes (No. 4), rebounding (No. 8), FG% (No. 10), FT% (No. 11), A/TO ratio (No. 16), steals (No. 16) and assists (No. 17). Gray was named a First Team All-Big 12 selection in her first season playing under Gerlich, and was a top-10 finalist for the Cheryl Miller Award, given to the top small forward in the nation.

to her arrival in Lubbock at UT-Arlington. She stands as the program's all-time winningest coach at UTA, accumulating 121 of her 289 career wins as a collegiate head coach to that point at the helm of the Lady Mav program.

During her 15-year head coaching career which also includes seven seasons at West Texas A&M, Gerlich has racked up two TABC Coach of the Year awards, three conference coach of the year honors, three conference titles, five NCAA Tournament wins and eight 20-win seasons. She has overseen eight WBCA All-Americans, six conference players of the year, one All-Big 12 recipient, 10 All-Sun Belt selections and 17 Lone Star Conference All-Conference selections.

LEADING THE LADY MAVS

Gerlich led the Lady Mavs to three 20-win seasons, including a 21-11 overall record with a 14-4 mark in Sun Belt games last season, leading to a third-place finish in the Sun Belt conference race. In the nonconference season, Gerlich's Lady Mavs tallied the program's first victory over a Power 5 school since 2006 with a 57-53 road win over Tech's Big 12 foe Kansas State. In the regular season finale at ULM, the Lady Mavs defeated the Warhawks, 74-67, to give Gerlich her 120th victory as UTA head coach and make her the all-time winningest coach in program history

Gerlich was named Sun Belt Coach of the Year in 2019, following a successful campaign in which her Lady Mavs tied the program record for single-season wins, and picked up the program's first postseason win as well as UTA's first Sun Belt women's basketball regular season title. The team earned an automatic bid to the WNIT, marking the sixth postseason tournament appearance and fourth postseason WNIT appearance in program history.

In 2016-17, Gerlich guided UTA to a 22-9 overall record, a second-place finish in the Sun Belt and a berth to the postseason as UTA went to the WNIT and participated in the postseason for the first time since 2009.

From her first season into the second, the Lady Mavs increased their win total by 13 from 4 wins to 17 wins, the second largest turnaround in Division I between the 2013-14 and 2014-15 seasons.

Among the many standouts that Gerlich coached at UTA was four-time All-Sun Belt selection Cierra Johnson, who was named Sun Belt Co-Player of the Year in 2019 and was a two-time Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Year pick (2017, 2019). She also coached 2015 Sun Belt Freshman of the Year Rebekah VanDijk and 2020 Sun Belt Newcomer of the Year Marie Benson.

NO STRANGER TO WEST TEXAS

Gerlich's success in the head coaching ranks hasn't been exclusive to her time in Arlington, as she led West Texas A&M to stellar 168-53 overall record, four consecutive South Division Lone Star Conference titles and three consecutive Lone Star Conference championships in seven seasons leading the Lady Buffs.

The quickest coach in WTAMU history to reach each of the 100, 125 and 150-win benchmarks, Gerlich led the Lady Buffs to NCAA Tournament appearances in five of her seven years leading the program, including the team's first Elite Eight appearance in 11 years in 2009. She was named the Lone Star Conference South Division Coach of the Year in 2007 and 2010.

COACHING AT HER ALMA MATER

Prior to taking her first head coaching position, Gerlich spent three years in Lubbock as an assistant coach under Hall of Fame coach Marsha Sharp at her alma mater. She helped guide the Lady Raiders to two NCAA tournament appearances, including a 24-8 overall record, a 12-4 Big 12 mark and a spot in the Sweet 16 during the 2004-05 campaign. Gerlich was heavily involved in almost every aspect of the program as she instructed preseason individual workouts, coached the perimeter players, reviewed film and handled game day preparations for the Lady Raiders. Throughout the school year she also assisted in the academic progress of the Lady Raider student-athletes.

OTHER COACHING EXPERIENCE

Before returning to coaching with Texas Tech during the 2003-2004 season, Gerlich took some time off to start a family; she spent the 2002-2003 year teaching math at Hereford High School, where her husband, Bryan, was the athletic director and head football coach.

After graduating from Texas Tech in 1993 with a degree in exercise and sports science, Gerlich got her first coaching job at Lockney High School as the head girls' basketball coach.

From 1994-1997, she was the head girls' coach at Taft High School in San Antonio, Texas. Gerlich entered the college ranks as an assistant at UTSA from 1997-1999. Gerlich followed her position at UTSA by accepting the head coaching job at San Antonio Reagan High School from 1999-2000. In the inaugural season at Reagan, the team posted a 20-5 mark.

LEGENDARY AS A PLAYER

Lady Raider fans are more than familiar with Gerlich's long resume as a player at Texas Tech. Aside from helping guide Tech to the 1993 NCAA title, she racked up three All-Southwest Conference accolades, and was named to the 1993 SWC All-Tournament team, the 1993 West Regional All-Tournament team and the 1993 Final Four All-Tournament team.

Named to the All-Time SWC team and one of the Panhandles Top 100 Athletes of the Century, Gerlich was named an honorable mention All-American in 1993. She ranks third in school history in career assists (553), third in career three-point field goals (220), fourth in three-point field goal percentage (.417) and 13th in career scoring (1,324). Her No. 21 was retired by the Lady Raider program on Dec. 5, 1993, making her one of only three former Lady Raiders to have their numbers retired.

Born in Spearman, Texas, Gerlich was a three time all-state selection in basketball while attending Sudan (Texas) High and Spearman High School. She was a member of the 1987 state championship basketball team at Sudan HS, where her father, Jim Kirkland, was her high school basketball coach. In 1988, she helped Spearman HS claim the cross country state championship and was a four time all-state selection in cross country. She placed third at the 1989 state track meet in the 1600 meters.

Gerlich is married to Bryan Gerlich, who is also a Texas Tech graduate and a former linebacker on the Red Raider football team (1987-1992). The couple has a daughter, Bryn, and a son, Brayden.

JC CARTER FILE

JC Carter is entering his third season on Krista Gerlich's Texas Tech staff in 2022-23 as associate head coach.

Carter helped guide the Lady Raiders to the program's highest conference finish under a first-year head coach in the Big 12 era, and the most Big 12 wins by a Tech team led by a first-year head coach in eight seasons. In a season highlighted by the program's first win over Texas in eight years and a pair of Big 12 overtime wins for the first time in program history, Carter also helped oversee the development of Vivian Gray, who was named the program's 27th All-American and a First Team All-Big 12 selection.

For the second consecutive season, Carter helped guide the Lady Raider squad to a win over in-state rival Texas, 74-61. By downing the Longhorns in Austin, Carter became a part of the first coaching staff to win in Austin since the 2012-13 season. Carter also helped the Lady Raiders record their first victory over a top-10 foe since the 2010-11 season when the Lady Raiders downed No. 1 Baylor.

The win over Texas was the first of three AP Top-25 wins Tech would record during the 2021-22 season, as the Lady Raiders also defeated No. 25 Kansas State 64-45 on Jan. 15 before downing No. 15 Oklahoma (97-87) on Feb. 16.

Carter came to Texas Tech after spending two seasons (2018-20) as an assistant coach at Florida State, where he helped lead the Seminoles to a 48-17 record.

One of his main responsibilities at FSU was handling the team's guard play, which included standout years by seniors Nicki Ekhomu and Nausia Woolfolk. Ekhomu garnered her first-ever All-America season as a senior, averaging 14.9 points and having a 2.0 assist/turnover ratio. Ekhomu led FSU with 16.0 points in ACC play and earned her first selection to the All-ACC First Team.

Carter played an integral role in FSU defeating six AP Top 25 teams in 2019-20 and finishing with a 24-8 overall record (11-7 in ACC play). FSU made the program's second ACC title game ever after defeating top-seeded Louisville, 62-60, in the ACC Tournament Semifinals.

Prior to his stop in Tallahassee, Carter was an assistant at Utah State for four seasons (2014-18). While with the Aggies program, he oversaw player skill development, ran summer camps and played a big role in recruiting. Under his watch, the 2015-16 season was highlighted by the Aggies ranking in the top half of the Mountain West Conference in every offensive category.

In his four seasons at Utah State, he helped two players earn Mountain West Freshman of the Year honors in guard Eliza West (2017) and fellow guard Funda Nakkasoglu (2015).

Prior to a brief stint as a men's assistant coach at John Brown University (2013-14), Carter spent two seasons at the helm of Marshfield High School (Mo.). In 2011, Carter took over the Blue Jay program at Marshfield, leading the boys' team to back-to-back conference championships. In his first season, Carter was named the Central Ozark Conference Coach of the Year as his team made an appearance in the MSHAA 4A Top-10.

He spent four seasons in multiple capacities at his alma mater, Southwest Baptist University in Bolivar, Mo. He was named the assistant men's basketball coach in 2007 and quickly helped lead the program to a Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association (MIAA) Championship in 2008. After one season with the men's program, Carter assumed his first collegiate head coaching position, taking over the SBU women's team for three seasons. His Lady Bearcat teams were known for their three-point prowess, as SBU ranked second in the nation in triples made.

Carter also spent time on the west coast, moving to Los Angeles to take charge of the Village Christian High School boys team. After two seasons (2004-06), he was offered an assistant coaching position at Cal State Northridge, where he worked for the 2006-07 season coordinating recruiting efforts, team travel and opponent scouting reports.

He started his coaching career when he went to assume the director of basketball operations position at Texas-Pan American for the 2003-04 campaign, spending a single season in Edinburg.

Carter's playing career began at Angelina College in Lufkin, Texas, where he spent one season in NJCAA competition prior to transferring to Stephen F. Austin for his sophomore campaign. In 2000, Carter transferred for his last two years at NCAA II Southwest Baptist in Bolivar, Mo., where he earned the Greg Germany 2002 Senior Leadership Award for his efforts.

ASHLEY CRAWFORD FILE

Ashley Crawford heads into her third season on staff at Texas Tech in 2021-22 following seven seasons with Krista Gerlich at UT Arlington.

Crawford has a heavy influence on the recruiting process at Texas Tech. She is responsible for all aspects of recruiting within the Lady Raider program, including organizing visits and knowing and meeting with top players locally and nationally. This past season, Crawford helped sign West Texas product and consensus top-60 recruit Bailey Maupin. A native of Gruver, Maupin was tabbed the No. 54 prospect in the 2022 class.

During her time at UTA, the Lady Mavericks were named the top recruiting class in the conference for the 2013-14 season by Dan Olsen Collegiate Girls Basketball Report (54th in Division I).

Crawford was key to the Lady Raiders' success in 2020-21, teaming up with Krista Gerlich to help guide Texas Tech to the most conference wins under a first-year Texas Tech head coach in 14 years, while also helping coach Tech to its highest conference finish under a first-year head coach in the Big 12 era. The season was also highlighted by the program's first win over in-state rival Texas in eight years, and two Big 12 overtime wins for the first time in program history.

The Lady Mavs wrapped up the 2019-20 season with a 21-11 overall record (14-4 SBC). UTA earned the No. 3 seed in the SBC Tourney and went on to defeat Texas State in the first round before falling to South Alabama in the Quarterfinals. Gerlich and the Lady Mavs were hopeful for a postseason tournament berth, but those hopes were derailed by the COVID-19 pandemic, which canceled the 2020 Sun Belt Women's Basketball Championship, the 2020 NCAA Tournament and the 2020 Postseason WNIT and WBI.

Crawford helped lead UTA to arguably the most successful season in program history in 2018-19. The Lady Mavs secured the program's first Sun Belt Regular Season championship, made their sixth postseason tournament appearance (WNIT), which was the second WNIT berth under Gerlich, and won a postseason (excluding conference tournaments) game for the first time in program history with their WNIT First Round triumph over Stephen F. Austin (60-54; Mar. 21). UTA also finished the season with 24 wins, which tied for the most in a single season with the 2006-07 squad (24-9 overall, Head Coach Donna Capps).

Helping the Lady Mavericks reach the Sun Belt Tournament Semifinals for the first time in 2017 and earning a berth in the Women's NIT (their first postseason appearance since 2009), Crawford was named the Texas Association of Basketball Coaches DI Assistant Coach of the Year in 2017.

Among the successful players Crawford coached during her time at UTA was Cierra Johnson, who was named Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Year in 2017 and Sun Belt Co-Player of the Year in 2019. Johnson finished her career at UTA with 318 steals, which still ranks first in program history.

Prior to UTA, she was a coach at Lamar under former Texas Tech assistant coach Larry Tidwell, where she helped develop some of the top guards in the Southland Conference. She helped her players rack up five all-conference selections and two conference and conference tournament MVP's. Among those guards was Kalis Loyd, who became the all time leading scorer at Lamar, was top three in all time rebounding and steals and top 10 in assists. Crawford played an important role on the 2009-2010 Lamar squad that posted a 26-8 record en route to winning the Southland Conference championship and a berth in the NCAA Tournament.

Before coaching, the Mesquite native played for the Lady Cardinals where she overcame a serious knee injury to post two solid seasons. In her final campaign, she started 26 of Lamar's 34 games, averaging 6.3 points per game while often accepting the role of shutting down the opposition's top scorer.

In the classroom, Crawford earned a bachelor's degree in kinesiology and completed her master's degree in kinesiology in 2010. She posted a perfect 4.0 GPA in her master's program during her final season on the court, earning her first-team District 6 All-Academic honors.

Crawford attended Horn High School, where she earned all-region honors as a senior. She averaged seven points per game at Trinity Valley Community College, where she set the school single-game assist record with 19. She attended UT Arlington for one season before transferring to Lamar.

Prior to her college days, Crawford was a member of one of the top summer basketball programs in the nation. As a member of the DFW Elite, she was starting back court on the founding team.

Crawford and her husband Derek have one daughter, Aariel.

PLENETTE PIERSON FILE

Texas Tech Hall of Famer Plenette Pierson returned to her alma mater back in June of 2022.

After graduating from Texas Tech in 2003, Pierson spent the last 20 years playing and coaching in the WNBA.

The sixth leading scorer in Lady Raider history, Pierson scored 1602 points in her Tech career including a career-best 624 points during the 2002-03 season. That mark is 13th all-time.

The Fourth overall pick in the 2003 WNBA Draft, Pierson spent 17 seasons in the WNBA playing for the Phoenix Mercury, Detroit Shock/Tulsa Shock, New York Liberty and Dallas Wings.

A three-time WNBA champion, Pierson also was named the inaugural WNBA Sixth Woman of the Year in 2007 after scoring 11.6 points a game. That season the forward led the Shock to the second of three consecutive WNBA Finals appearances.

Pierson also made an indelible mark on Lady Raider record books, as the Houston native is ranked inside the top-10 all-time in points (1602), points per game (15.4), field goals made (602), free throws made (398) and blocked shots (116).

A 2003 AP All-America selection, Pierson earned Big 12 Freshman of the Years honors in the 2000 season and was named to the Big 12 First Team in 2003. A true winner, Pierson helped lead the Lady Raiders to an overall record of 102-30 in her four seasons.

Tech made the the NCAA Tournament in all four of those seasons, including a 2000 Big 12 Regular Season Championship. The Lady Raiders made four Sweet Sixteen appearances and a pair of Elite Eight trips in that span.

Currently coaching with the Minnesota Lynx, Pierson will leave her post with the Lynx and join the Lady Raiders for Summer workouts.

The Lynx are coming off an extremely successful 2021 season that saw the franchise go 22-10 en route to a second-place finish in the WNBA Western Conference. Minnesota has made the playoffs in all three seasons Pierson has spent working in the Twin Cities.

JARED BOYD FILE

Jared Boyd enters his third season on staff at Texas Tech as chief of staff, following two seasons as director of operations on Krista Gerlich's staff at UT Arlington.

At Tech, Boyd manages day to day admin responsibilities including public relations and community outreach for Coach Gerlich and the Lady Raider team. He will help with scheduling of practices, coordinating scouting and film preparation and scheduling and organizing community service projects.

In his role at UTA, Boyd managed day-to-day administrative responsibilities, scheduling of practices and workouts, arranging team travel, coordinating scouting and film preparation and overseeing the student managers.

Boyd graduated with a Bachelors Degree in Sports and Exercise Science from West Texas A&M in 2012 where he served as a student assistant for Gerlich. He graduated from Texas Tech in 2015 with a Masters Degree in Sports Management.

ERIK DEROO FILE

Erik DeRoo joins the Lady Raider Basketball program after spending five seasons as assistant coach and creative recruiting coordinator for the Abilene Christian women's basketball team.

During his time at ACU, the Wildcats won the 2016-17 Southland Regular-Season championship before advancing to the second round of the WNIT, after a victory over Big 12 opponent Oklahoma State. He was also a part of the 2019 Southland Conference Tournament championship, which led ACU to their first-ever DI NCAA Tournament appearance in school history. At the conclusion of the 2019-20 campaign he was named to the WBCA 30 Under 30 list and was also a finalist for the 2019-20 DI Assistant Coach of the Year.

DeRoo's responsibilities at ACU included point guard development, where he oversaw the development of the 2019 Southland Tournament MVP and 2019-20 Southland Conference Player of the Year, Brea Wright. He also led all junior college recruiting efforts, where he signed the first two NJCAA All-Americans in ACU's DI history. Other responsibilities included traditional high school recruiting, scouting reports, creating all recruiting mail-outs and directed the male scout team players. Most importantly for his new role at Texas Tech, he oversaw all elements of ACU women's basketball social media efforts including Twitter, Instagram and Facebook. He helped grow the program's brand from the 12th-most-followed program in the Southland to the most-followed on Twitter alone by a significant margin. He also has demonstrated the ability to build a personal brand as he currently has over 69,000 followers on TikTok, which makes him one of the most-followed coaches in women's basketball on the platform.

Prior to his time at ACU, DeRoo spent two seasons as a graduate assistant for the Fresno State women's basketball team. The Bulldogs advanced to the 2nd Round of the WNIT during his two seasons in Fresno and posted consecutive top-three showings within the Mountain West standings. Fresno State was 23-10 overall and placed third in its league in 2014-15 and went on to finish second in the Mountain West in 2015-16 with a 22-12 overall record and a 15-3 mark in conference play.

DeRoo played collegiate basketball at the University of Texas at Tyler and then McPherson College (KS), which is where he received his bachelor's degree in health and physical education in 2014. He also earned his master's in kinesiology with an emphasis in sport psychology in 2016 from Fresno State.

He and his wife, Kim, were married during the summer of 2017, and have one daughter, Tatum, who was born in April 2019.

JORDAN VESSELS FILE

After spending four seasons with Krista Gerlich at UT Arlington, including two as an assistant coach, Jordan Vessels enters her third season as the Director of Basketball Operations at Texas Tech in 2022-23. At UT Arlington, she spent two years as the program's director of operations before being promoted to assistant coach in 2018.

The Lady Mavs wrapped up the 2019-20 season with a 21-11 overall record (14-4 SBC), securing the 11th overall for the Lady Mavs. UTA earned the No. 3 seed in the SBC Tourney and went on to defeat Texas State in the first round before falling to South Alabama in the Quarterfinals. Gerlich and the Lady Mavs were hopeful for a postseason tournament berth, but those hopes were derailed by the COVID-19 pandemic, which canceled the 2020 Sun Belt Women's Basketball Championship, the 2020 NCAA Tournament and the 2020 Postseason WNIT and WBI.

In 2018-19, Vessels helped lead UTA to arguably the most successful season in program history in 2018-19. The Lady Mavs secured the program's first Sun Belt Regular Season championship, made their sixth postseason tournament appearance (WNIT), which was the second WNIT berth under Gerlich, and won a postseason (excluding conference tournaments) game for the first time in program history with their WNIT First Round triumph over Stephen F. Austin (60-54; Mar. 21). UTA also finished the season with 24 wins, which tied for the most in a single season with the 2006-07 squad (24-9 overall, Head Coach Donna Capps).

A native of Canyon, Texas, Vessels was a four-year player for West Texas A&M, including three seasons playing under Gerlich from 2010-2012. Vessels served as the Lady Buffs' graduate assistant for the 2015-16 season.

Vessels graduated from West Texas A&M with her bachelor's degree in sports and exercise science and had a career that saw her play in 126 games, tied for fourth all-time in WTA&M history.

On the court, she helped the Lady Buffs to back-to-back Lone Star Conference championships in both the regular season and tournament, won back-to-back South Central Region championships and played in the 2014 National Championship Game.

KYLE JEAN FILE

Texas Tech head coach Krista Gerlich has announced the addition of Kyle Jean as the associate strength and conditioning coach.

Heading to Lubbock with nearly a decade of experience as a strength coach, Jean spent the last six years at Notre Dame where she primarily worked with baseball, women's basketball and women's golf.

In addition to her work with the programs listed above, Jean assisted with men's basketball, volleyball, swimming, football and softball. She was also responsible for Notre Dame's strength and conditioning intern program.

Prior to Notre Dame, Jean spent nine months working for Big 12 foe Kansas. During her time in Lawrence, Jean worked with a majority of Kansas' athletic programs including both basketball programs, KU's baseball and softball programs as well as Jayhawk volleyball.

A 2012 graduate of Texas A&M, Jean earned her undergraduate degree in biomedical sciences. In 2014, Jean finished her graduate assistantship at Mary Hardin-Baylor where she graduated with her masters of exercise and sport science.

Jean has already arrived in Lubbock and has begun working with the Lady Raiders ahead of the 2022-23 season.

MITCH VANYA

Vanya heads to Lubbock after spending the 2021-22 as an assistant coach at Trevecca Nazarene in Tennessee.

Prior to arriving in Tennessee, the Texas A&M graduate served as an assistant coach at Stephen F. Austin for a pair of seasons.

Vanya was on staff at SFA as an assistant when the men's basketball program pulled off an upset of No. 1 Duke at Cameron Indoor Stadium on Nov. 26, 2019. While at SFA, Vanya helped lead the Lumberjacks to a 44-8 overall record and a Southland Conference Championship.

Vanya arrived at SFA after spending three years as an assistant coach with the Rockets. He assumed the role after being promoted from his position as head video coordinator.

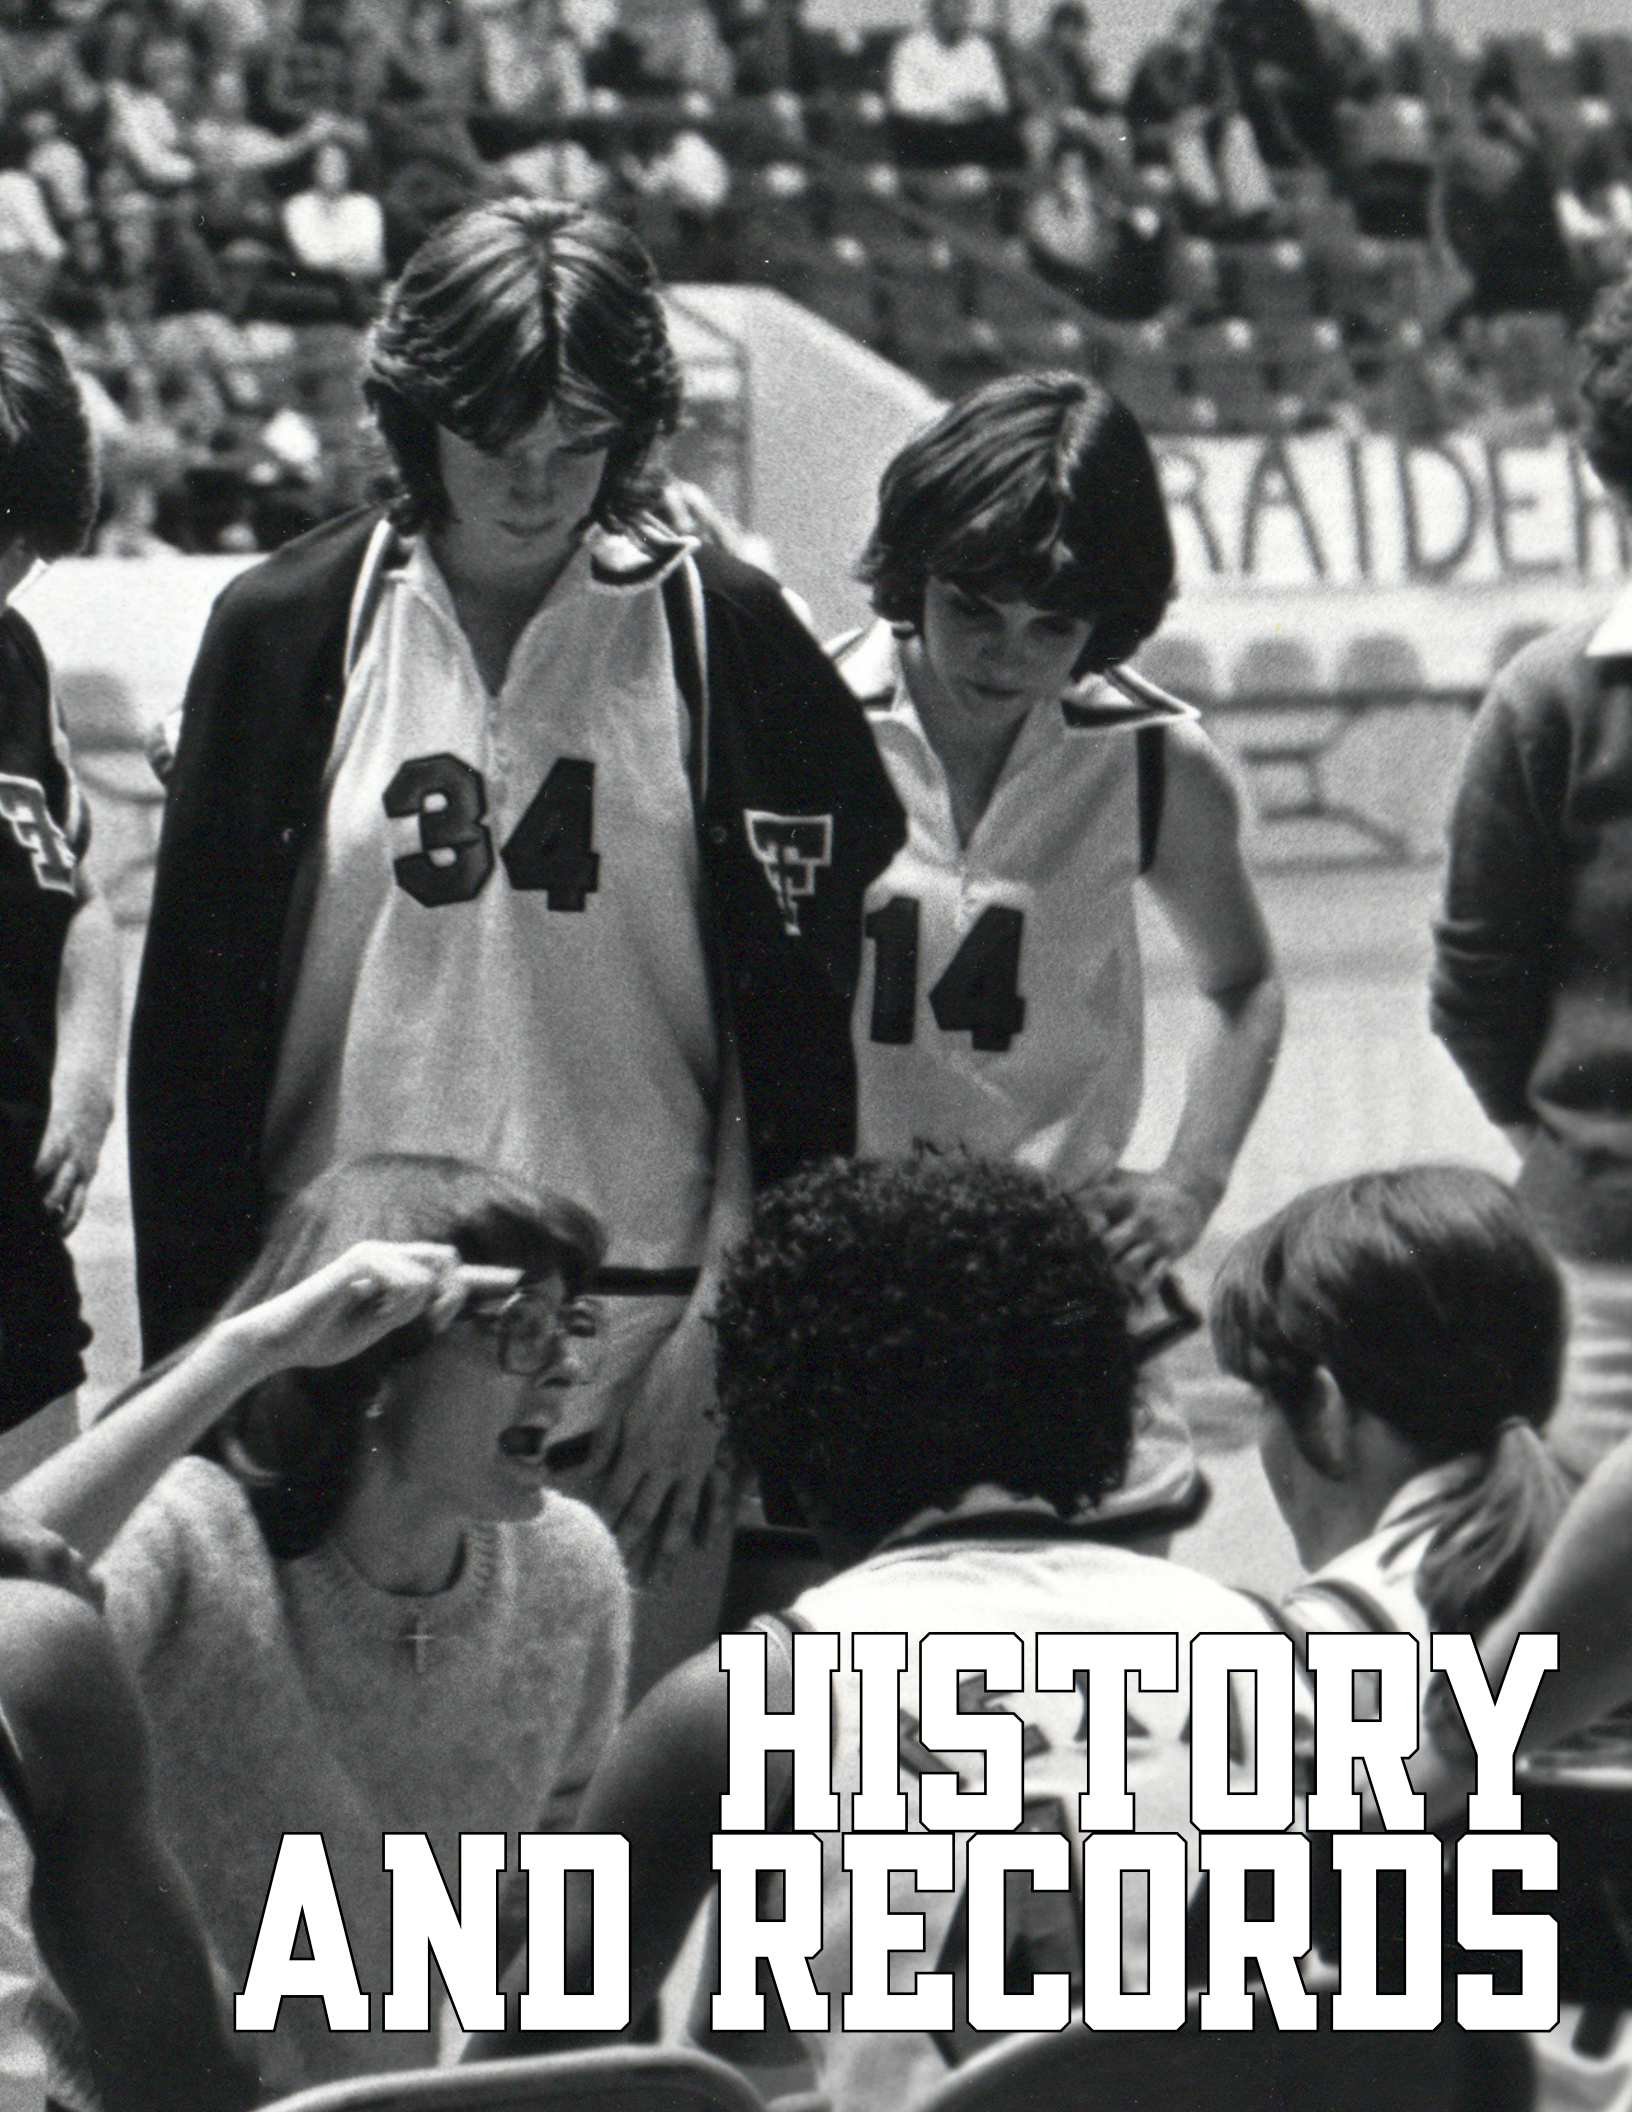

In total, the Rockets made the NBA Playoffs in six of Vanya's seven seasons, made a pair of trips to the West Conference Finals and recorded the most wins in a three-year span (2016-19) in franchise history.

Vanya began his career as the head men's student manager at Texas A&M and assisted with the Aggies video department and equipment staff. While at A&M, the Aggies made four NCAA Tournament appearances.

The Texan is a two-time A&M graduate, earning his bachelors in sports management in 2009 and his masters in higher education administration in 2011.

HISTORY AND RECORDS

JERSEY HISTORY

CAROLYN THOMPSON

Forward
1980-84
Hobbs, N.M.

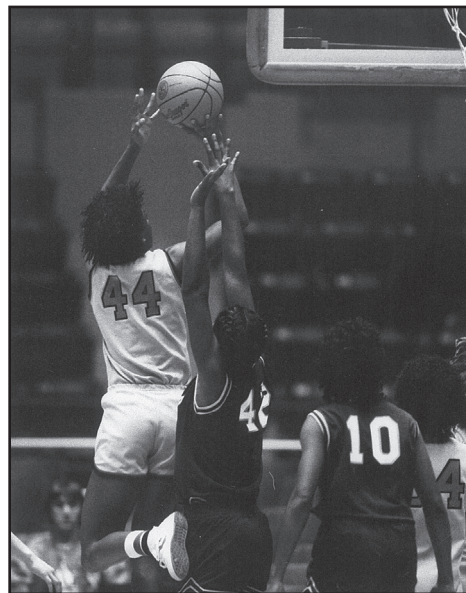

44

Although her career ended more than a decade ago, Carolyn Thompson remains Texas Tech's all-time leading scorer (men or women) with 2,655 points.

Thompson, a Hobbs, N.M., native, did not start her first collegiate game. But, she quickly made up for it by finishing her career with 120 starts and being named a three-time All-American.

Thompson, who coached for a decade at Estacado High School, held 18 school marks for either regular-season or Southwest Conference play when she graduated.

The retirement ceremony for No. 44 took place at halftime on Jan. 3, 1985, in Marsha Sharp's third year as head coach. Festivities that Thursday night were spoiled somewhat by Texas, which posted a 90-64 victory in the conference opener for both teams.

KRISTA KIRKLAND

Guard
1989-93
Spearman, Texas

21

A three-time All-Southwest Conference selection, this Spearman product started the final 96 games of her 126-game Lady Raider career, and played in 110 straight games, missing only two contests during her freshman year.

Krista Kirkland-Gerlich capped a sterling career with the NCAA Championship in 1993.

She also finished as Texas Tech -- and the Southwest Conference's -- all-time leader in three-point field goals made (220) and attempted (528).

Kirkland-Gerlich became Tech's all-time assist leader during her senior campaign, finishing with 553, 71 more than the previous record. She is also second all-time in the SWC in this category.

After averaging 15 minutes a game as a freshman, Kirkland-Gerlich played 1,091 1,101 and 1,125 minutes her last three years.

Tech routed NCAA-bound Florida International 89-59 when No. 21 was retired Dec. 5, 1993.

SHERYL SWOOPES

Forward
1991-93
Brownfield, Texas

22

Where to start? Volumes can -- and have been -- written about Sheryl Swoopes, the 1993 consensus National Player of the Year.

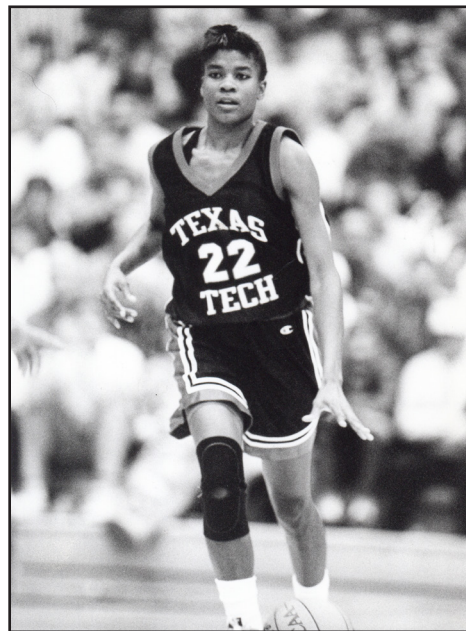

This Brownfield product was the number two scorer in the nation as a senior (955 points, 28.1 average) when the Lady Raiders took Atlanta by storm.

An All-Tournament pick in all 10 Classics Tech played in during the 1991-92 and 1992-93 seasons, it took Swoopes just 46 games to reach the 1,000-point plateau, the quickest in Lady Raider history.

She had three triple-doubles and 23 double-doubles, including 14 as a senior. Swoopes scored in double figures 64 times in her 66-game Lady Raider career including the last 38.

Ah, the records that fell; Two West Region, four Final Four, three NCAA tournament, four NCAA Championship games, eight Tech games, season, or career, four SWC single-season, and five SWC Post-Season Classic. Thirty in all!

Tech toppled Texas, 78-61, when No. 22 was retired Feb. 19, 1994.

This is a compilation of Lady Raider uniform numbers since women's basketball became a varsity sport under Intercollegiate Athletics in 1975. Rosters, with numbers, were not available until the 1978-79 season. The rosters from 1979-80 until the 1982-83 season are missing. If you have information concerning those missing years, please contact the Athletics Communications Office at (806) 742-2770.
