SATURDAY STORYLINES

RED RAIDERS SET FOR 40TH BOWL GAME

- Texas Tech will take part in its 40th bowl appearance in program history Dec. 28 when the Red Raiders face Ole Miss in the TaxAct Texas Bowl hosted at NRG Stadium in Houston. This is the fifth time in program history the Red Raiders have participated in the Texas Bowl and the sixth time for a bowl game in the city of Houston.
- The Red Raiders will have plenty of support backing them in Houston as Texas Tech quickly sold out of its allotment of 6,000 tickets for the game. The city is home to several prominent Red Raiders, including Tony Bradford Jr., Adrian Frye, Dennis Wilburn, Mason Tharp and Trey Wolff.

TECH, OLE MISS FAMILIAR BOWL FOES

- There is not a more-familiar bowl opponent for the Red Raiders historically than Ole Miss as the Texas Bowl will mark the fourth time the two schools have met in the postseason. The Rebels are one of only four schools in program history Texas Tech has faced multiple times in its now 40 all-time bowl appearances.
- The Red Raiders will be facing a school from the state of Mississippi in a bowl for a second-straight season as Texas Tech previously routed Mississippi State, 34-7, to close the 2021 campaign to improve to 15-23-1 all-time in bowl games.

BUILDING OFF SUCCESSFUL DEBUT YEAR

- Texas Tech will look to build off a successful first season under Joey McGuire in the Texas Bowl as the Red Raiders will be searching for their first eight-win season since 2013. Texas Tech is one of only two power-five programs in the state of Texas returning to a bowl in consecutive years.
- The Red Raiders wrapped Big 12 play at 5-4 record, marking their most wins against conference opponents since 2009 and the first time Texas Tech has defeated both Texas and Oklahoma in the same season. The successful debut made McGuire the first head coach since David McWilliams in 1986 to post an above-.500 conference record.

RED RAIDERS BY THE NUMBERS

2

Texas Tech enters bowl season as one of only two programs nationally to rank in the top 10 of the FBS for both red zone offense (8th) and red zone defense (9th), joining top-ranked Georgia.

27

Number of college graduates who will appear on Texas Tech's roster for the TaxAct Texas Bowl, which includes seven Red Raiders who have already obtained their master's degree from the university.

1,000

Texas Tech is only the second FBS program since 1996 to have three different quarterbacks throw for at least 1,000 yards in a season, joining Oklahoma State from the 2012 campaign.

TEAM NOTEBOOK

RED RAIDERS, REBELS MEET FOR SEVENTH TIME

- Texas Tech and Ole Miss will face each other for the seventh time in history at the TaxAct Texas Bowl as the Rebels control a 4-2 all-time record versus the Red Raiders, including a perfect 3-0 mark in bowl games. The two schools previously met in the 1986 and 1998 Independence Bowls as well as the 2009 Cotton Bowl.
- Texas Tech's two victories all-time in the series versus the Rebels came in a home-and-home agreement during the 2002-03 seasons. The Red Raiders topped Ole Miss, 42-28, behind 270 passing yards and two touchdowns from Kliff Kingsbury to defeat a Rebels team quarterbacked by Eli Manning at the time in Lubbock. B.J. Symons followed a year later with 661 passing yards - a Texas Tech and Big 12 record at the time - and six touchdowns to lead the Red Raiders past Manning and the Rebels again in Oxford.
- This will be a rematch of the 2018 AdvoCare Texas Kickoff that started the 2018 season at NRG Stadium in Houston. The Rebels topped the Red Raiders that afternoon, 47-27, to improve to 4-0 in neutral-site games between the two schools.
- Adrian Frye is the only Red Raider remaining on the roster who participated in the 2018 contest against Ole Miss. Frye, who was making his collegiate debut versus the Rebels as only a true freshman, went on to earn Freshman All-America accolades that season by the FWAA as well as All-Big 12 first team honors.

TEXAS TECH-OLE MISS CONNECTIONS

- Texas Tech offensive coordinator Zach Kittley will be more than familiar with his counterpart from Ole Miss in co-defensive coordinator Maurice Crum as the two spent the 2021 season together at Western Kentucky. Kittley was the Hilltoppers' offensive coordinator that season with Crum as defensive coordinator for a Western Kentucky program that finished 9-5 overall with a win in the Boca Raton Bowl.
- Texas Tech offensive line coach Stephen Hamby was also a member of that Western Kentucky staff in 2021 as he worked three seasons total with Crum from 2019-21. Hamby was also a player of Texas Tech's 2009 team that faced Ole Miss in the Cotton Bowl.
- The bowl will place two of the youngest offensive coordinators in the country against each other in Kittley (31 years old) against Charlie Weis Jr. (29 years old). Weis was the youngest offensive coordinator in the country heading into the 2022 season followed by Tommy Rees of Notre Dame (30 years old) and then Kittley.
- Texas Tech associate head coach Kenny Perry spent one season on the same SMU staff as Ole Miss defensive line coach Randall Joyner. Perry was a special teams analyst for the Mustangs in 2020, while Joyner was closing a three-year run as SMU's defensive line coach.
- The Rebels also have a Red Raider on their staff in offensive analyst Seth Doege, who still ranks fourth all-time in Texas Tech history with 8,646 passing yards, 69 touchdowns, 1,187 attempts and 819 completions over his four-year career from 2019-12. Doege, a native of Wolfforth just outside of Lubbock, is in his first season as an analyst for Ole Miss.

TEXAS TECH ALL-TIME VERSUS THE SEC

- Texas Tech will be facing an opponent from the Southeastern Conference in a bowl for a second-consecutive season after routing Mississippi State, 34-7, a year ago in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. It will be only the 13th time the Red Raiders have faced an SEC opponent since becoming a Big 12 Conference member in 1996.
- The Red Raiders are 7-17-2 all-time against members of the SEC, excluding former Big 12 Conference members Missouri and Texas A&M, who both departed the league following the 2011 season. Missouri faced the Red Raiders only one time as non-conference foes - a 41-14 rout for Texas Tech early in the 1995 season - before joining the Big 12 prior to the 1996 campaign. Texas A&M and Texas Tech, meanwhile, were longtime Southwest Conference and Big 12 rivals from 1960 up until the Aggies departed for the Big 12 in 2011.
- The Red Raiders are 4-8 against SEC members since joining the Big 12 with two of those three victories coming against Ole Miss. Texas Tech swept a home-and-home agreement with the Rebels during the 2002 and 2003 seasons and then topped Arkansas in Fayetteville early in the 2015 campaign as well as Mississippi State in the 2021 AutoZone Liberty Bowl.
- This will be the 11th time in history where the Red Raiders have faced an SEC opponent in a bowl as Texas Tech is 3-6-1 all-time in those games. In addition to its win over Mississippi State, Texas Tech topped No. 17 Auburn in the 1953 Gator Bowl and No. 20 Tennessee in the 1973 Gator Bowl.

ON THIS DATE...

TEXAS TECH 34, MINNESOTA 31

Date: Dec. 28, 2012 (Meineke Car Care Bowl)

Location: Houston, Texas | Attendance: 50,386

Recap: Texas Tech's bowl game will come on Dec. 28 for a second-straight season and the fifth time in history as the Red Raiders are 3-0-1 on the date. In addition to last season's win over Mississippi State in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl, the Red Raiders also recorded a memorable win over No. 20 Duke in the 1989 All-American Bowl hosted at Legion Field in Birmingham, Alabama as well as Minnesota in the 2012 Meineke Car Care Bowl.

Seth Doege (pictured above), who is now a member of the Ole Miss staff, threw for 271 yards and a touchdown and rushed for one other to earn MVP honors following a thrilling finish that saw the Red Raiders score their final 10 points with under two minutes remaining. Doege found Eric Ward on a 35-yard scoring strike to tie the game at 31-31 with 1:10 remaining before getting the ball back only 27 seconds later on D.J. Johnson's second interception of the game. Ryan Bustin drilled a 28-yard field goal as time expired.

The Red Raiders were led that evening by interim head coach Chris Thomsen following the departure of Tommy Tuberville. The Red Raider staff also featured the likes of offensive coordinator Sonny Cumbie, who would later serve as Texas Tech's interim head coach for its 2021 victory over Mississippi State in the Liberty Bowl.

RED RAIDERS AND THE CITY OF HOUSTON

■ The Texas Bowl was a welcome selection for many members of Texas Tech's roster as there are 14 Red Raiders who hail from the Houston area. That list includes regulars such as defensive back Adrian Frye (Houston), linebacker Tyrique Matthews (Houston), place kicker Trey Wolff (Spring), offensive lineman Dennis Wilburn (Humble), tight end Mason Tharp (Klein) and defensive lineman Tony Bradford Jr. (Houston).

■ This will be Texas Tech's 10th trip to the city of Houston since joining the Big 12 Conference in 1996 as the Red Raiders are 5-4 in those games. It will be the Red Raiders' fifth visit to the city in an eight-year span. Texas Tech will soon become a steady traveler to the city as the University of Houston will become a Big 12 member starting in July 2023.

■ For offensive coordinator Zach Kittley, he returns to the city of Houston where he spent three seasons in a similar role at Houston Christian (previously Houston Baptist). Kittley was the Huskies' offensive coordinator from 2018-20, his first full-time role after serving as a graduate assistant and student assistant at Texas Tech for the previous five seasons under head coach Kliff Kingsbury. While there, Kittley mentored future NFL Draft selection and the NCAA single-season passing leader Bailey Zappe before the two later went to Western Kentucky together.

■ Texas Tech associate head coach Kenny Perry is a graduate of the University of Houston where he was a four-year letterwinner from 1988-91 as a defensive back. He began his coaching career with the Cougars shortly after as a graduate assistant for his alma mater during the 1992-94 seasons.

TEXAS TECH ALL-TIME IN BOWL GAMES

■ The Red Raiders advanced to a bowl game for the 40th time in school history after closing the regular season with three-consecutive wins over the likes of Kansas, Iowa State and Oklahoma. Texas Tech ranks tied for 21st among NCAA FBS teams with its Texas Bowl opponent Ole Miss as well as BYU and Notre Dame for the most bowl appearances in history.

■ Among Big 12 programs, Texas Tech is now in sole possession of third place in all-time bowl appearances, trailing only Texas (58) and Oklahoma (55). The Red Raiders will enter the 2023 football season tied for third place with incoming Big 12 member BYU for the most all-time bowl appearances.

■ Texas Tech is 15-23-1 all-time in bowl games with wins in 10 of its last 14 contests. The Red Raiders are making consecutive bowl appearances for the first time since the 2012-13 seasons when Texas Tech took part in the Meineke Car Care Bowl (2012) and the Holiday Bowl (2013), both victories.

■ The Red Raiders are no stranger to bowl games in the state of Texas as this will be Texas Tech's 33rd all-time bowl appearance inside the Lone Star State, including its fifth at the TaxAct Texas Bowl. The Red Raiders are 5-17 all-time in bowl games held in the state of Texas, which includes a 2-2 record at the Texas Bowl.

■ Texas Tech's two wins all-time in the Texas Bowl came in 2003 with a 38-14 rout of Navy in the formerly named Houston Bowl as well as a 34-31 victory over Minnesota in the 2012 Meineke Car Care Bowl. The Red Raiders made their first-ever appearance in the Texas Bowl in 2000, falling to East Carolina, 40-27, in what was called the GalleryFurniture.com Bowl at the time. Texas Tech's last visit to the Texas Bowl came in 2015 in a 56-27 loss to No. 22 LSU.

■ Among its all-time bowl destinations, Texas Tech's now five trips to the Texas Bowl ranks second only behind its nine appearances in the Sun/John Hancock Bowl. The Red Raiders have also made four appearances in their history at both the Gator Bowl and Cotton Bowl.

■ While this will be Texas Tech's fifth all-time appearance in the Texas Bowl, it will be its sixth bowl trip to the city of Houston as the Red Raiders faced No. 9 Nebraska in the 1976 Bluebonnet Bowl held in the Astrodome. Nebraska edged the Red Raiders, 27-24, in that game to end one of Texas Tech's most memorable seasons at 10-2 overall.

■ Ole Miss is Texas Tech's most frequent bowl opponent in program history as this will be the fourth bowl game between the two schools. Texas Tech has only faced three other schools - Minnesota, Iowa and Georgia Tech - multiple times in a bowl game in its history.

■ Texas Tech will be facing an SEC opponent in a bowl game for the third time in its last four bowl trips and for the 11th time in program history. The Red Raiders are 3-6-1 all-time in bowl games versus SEC schools.

THERE'S SOME HISTORY WITH THE TEXAS BOWL

■ Joey McGuire will be making his second trip to the Texas Bowl as he was part of the Baylor staff that traveled to Houston in 2018. The Bears defeated Vanderbilt, 45-38, in what was McGuire's first bowl experience at the collegiate level after joining the Baylor staff in 2017 from Cedar Hill High School.

■ This will be Dimitri Moore's second career trip to the Texas Bowl as he was on the opposite sideline of McGuire with Vanderbilt for the 2018 contest. Moore, who played for McGuire at Cedar Hill High School, recorded five tackles in the loss, including one tackle for a loss.

■ Tim DeRuyter will be taking part in a bowl game for the 19th time in his coaching career, which includes his second career trip to the Texas Bowl. In his last visit to Houston, DeRuyter was the interim head coach for Texas A&M, leading the Aggies to a 33-22 victory over Northwestern. It was his final game with the Aggies prior to beginning a five-year run as the head coach at Fresno State.

■ In addition to McGuire, tight ends coach Josh Cochran and offensive analyst Kirk Bryant were both offensive graduate assistants for Baylor's 2018 appearance in the Texas Bowl.

■ Texas Tech's last appearance in the Texas Bowl, meanwhile, featured a few current members of the Red Raiders' staff, including offensive coordinator Zach Kittley (graduate assistant), offensive line coach Stephen Hamby (graduate assistant) and passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach Emmett Jones (director of player development).

TEXAS TECH SELLS OUT OF TICKET ALLOTMENT

■ It didn't take long for Texas Tech to sell out of its allotment of 6,000 tickets for the TaxAct Texas Bowl as Red Raider Club members and season ticket holders purchased 4,100 tickets during the request period before the remaining tickets were sold in only a day once they went on sale to the public. Students claimed more than 400 discounted tickets in Texas Tech's allotment thanks to tremendous support, including a line that formed early on Dec. 7 that stretched around the south end zone construction area all the way to University Avenue. Joey McGuire and his staff joined the line early that morning, handing out various breakfast items to students who began to form a line hours before the official public on-sale time.

■ Texas Tech's last visit to the Texas Bowl with LSU in 2015 drew 71,307 fans in attendance, filling NRG Stadium to near its capacity. It remains the highest attendance in Texas Bowl history. Texas Tech also has the attendance records to this day for the Cotton Bowl as 88,175 fans packed Cotton Bowl Stadium for the 79th edition of the game on Jan. 2, 2009.

A $200 MILLION INVESTMENT

■ Texas Tech announced its largest investment into the Red Raider football program to date in July as the athletics department unveiled plans for an approximate $200 million facilities project to construct a new south end zone building to Jones AT&T Stadium, which will connect to the new Dustin R. Womble Football Center. The newly-constructed facilities will include over 300,000 combined square feet and blend world-class modern design and technology elements with Spanish architecture well known to Texas Tech supporters.

■ Texas Tech will relocate its coaches' offices to the third floor of the south end zone, which will overlook Cody Campbell Field at Jones AT&T Stadium and connect to both the Womble Football Center and the Sports Performance Center through a skybridge. Plans are for the Womble Football Center to be constructed on the same land that currently occupies the present Football Training Facility, featuring two stories in height as well as the expansion to Sixth Street to further increase the overall square footage of the facility.

■ Texas Tech will maintain its football strength and conditioning, sports medicine and equipment areas on the main level of the Womble Football Center as part of the new layout. The second floor will connect to the skybridge, housing many of the football program's meeting spaces, including individual position rooms and the Spike Dykes Team Meeting Room. This floor will also feature a revolutionary 6,000-plus square foot multi-purpose walkthrough area designed to allow for large-scale indoor team strategy implementation, instruction and technique evaluation.

■ Between the south end zone project and the Womble Football Center, the two facilities will contain space for both recruiting and players' lounges, a new player locker room, a television studio for gameday and social media content as well as a significant investment into technology through digital signage and displays.

■ Construction crews officially began work on the project Nov. 27 with the start of the removal of the historic Double T Scoreboard.

PRESEASON POLL PROVES WRONG

■ The thing about preseason polls is they tend to be wrong. That's why Joey McGuire and his team were unfazed when the Red Raiders were picked ninth in the preseason, only to finish in sole possession of fourth place in the conference standings. It marked Texas Tech's highest finish in the conference standings since the Big 12 moved to a 10-team format to start the 2011 season as the Red Raiders were ultimately a win over K-State away from appearing in the conference championship.

NEWS & NOTES HEADING INTO BOWL WEEK

■ The victory over Oklahoma improved the Red Raiders to 6-1 at home this season, marking their most wins at Jones AT&T Stadium since Texas Tech had a similar record in front of its fans in 2009. It is the 11th time in program history Texas Tech has won six or more home games in a season and the fifth time as a Big 12 member (2000, 2005, 2008, 2009, 2022).

■ Texas Tech closed the regular season with three-consecutive victories for the first time since 1995 as the Red Raiders topped Kansas, Iowa State and Oklahoma. The Red Raiders closed that 1995 season with four-straight wins after a 55-41 victory over Air Force in the Copper Bowl.

■ Texas Tech closed the regular season with its third-consecutive Big 12 victory, its longest streak since opening the 2013 conference slate with four-straight wins.

■ With a win over Ole Miss, Texas Tech will secure its first eight-win season since 2013, which marked the debut season of then head coach Kliff Kingsbury. It would mark Texas Tech's 12th season as a Big 12 member with eight or more wins.

■ Texas Tech's win over Oklahoma to close the regular season helped the Red Raiders lock in consecutive winning seasons for the first time since the 2012-13 campaigns. The Red Raiders will enter 2023 looking to extend that streak to three-straight years, which would mark Texas Tech's longest successful run since boasting a .500 or better record over 18-consecutive seasons from 1993-2011.

■ Texas Tech has become a regular at NFL stadiums, especially in the state of Texas, as this will be Texas Tech's sixth visit to NRG Stadium. The Red Raiders have made 14 visits to NFL stadiums since 2009 alone as Texas Tech previously faced Baylor nine times at AT&T Stadium in Arlington from 2009-18 as well as Arizona State at Qualcomm Stadium in San Diego for the 2013 Holiday Bowl.

■ Texas Tech closed the regular season having played nine bowl teams this season, including two in non-conference play in Houston and N.C. State. The Red Raiders were 4-5 in those games with wins over Houston, Texas, Kansas and Oklahoma.

■ Texas Tech has had 42 different players start a game this season, which currently ranks tied for 10th nationally in the FBS and fourth among power-five schools. Of the 11 schools with at least 42 different starters this year, the Red Raiders are joined with SMU and BYU as the only schools with at least seven wins entering bowl season.

■ Texas Tech has only had two true freshmen play more than four games this season in defensive lineman Joseph Adedire and linebacker Wesley Smith. Adedire has appeared in 11 of 12 games, recording 17 tackles, including 3.0 for a loss, while Smith has been inserted into six games, normally on special teams. Fellow true freshmen Bryson Donnell, Coy Eakin and Ty Kana have played in three games each.

MIDDLE EIGHT GOING THE RED RAIDERS' WAY

■ One of the key components of Joey's McGuire's official "Plan to Win" at Texas Tech is for the Red Raiders to win the middle eight minutes (last four of second half, first four of third quarter). The Red Raiders were successful in doing so during the regular season, especially during the final minute before halftime where Texas Tech found the end zone twice and took advantage of four Trey Wolff field goals, including three as time expired.

■ The Red Raiders scored a touchdown heading into the half in five different games - Murray State, Houston, N.C. State, Kansas State and Oklahoma (twice). Texas Tech rallied from an 18-point deficit against Oklahoma thanks in part to its efforts prior to halftime as the Red Raiders used touchdown runs from SaRoderick Thompson and Donovan Smith before a Wolff field goal as time expired. The touchdowns versus both Houston and N.C. State came with less than a minute remaining and were the result of explosive plays from Myles Price, who went 54 yards to the end zone against the Cougars and 24 yards versus the Wolfpack.

■ Texas Tech went into the half feeling good at Kansas State after 10 quick points before the clock ran out as Nehemiah Martinez caught a six-yard touchdown pass with 1:24 remaining and Trey Wolff nailed a 51-yard field goal as time expired. The field goal from Wolff marked the longest of his career.

■ Points isn't the only thing that matters in McGuire's metrics as Texas Tech's ability to force turnovers helped the Red Raiders pull away from West Virginia. Texas Tech went into the half rolling after a Dadrión Taylor-Demerson interception with 13 seconds remaining and proceeded to pick off another after the break thanks to a Malik Dunlap interception of his own. That led to an Xavier White 55-yard touchdown strike from Behren Morton just two plays later to give the Red Raiders a 24-3 lead with 13:14 remaining in the quarter. Taylor-Demerson added another interception to pull Texas Tech even closer before the half against Oklahoma as well.

SENIOR DECISION UPDATES

- Texas Tech will return the bulk of its defense a year from now thanks to several seniors who have elected to utilize the extra year of eligibility afforded by the NCAA for the COVID-shortened 2020 season. That list includes two key pieces up front in defensive linemen Tony Bradford Jr. and Jaylon Hutchings as well as defensive backs Malik Dunlap, Dadrión Taylor-Demerson and Rayshad Williams.
- Texas Tech's remaining list of returnees who will utilize a super senior season also include wide receiver Xavier White, defensive back Tyler Owens, linebacker Tyrique Matthews and offensive linemen Dennis Wilburn and Cade Briggs. Texas Tech currently projects 14 super seniors to appear on its roster in 2023 (full chart located on left sidebar).
- Texas Tech, meanwhile, has had four Red Raiders declare for the NFL Draft, a list that includes running back SaRodorick Thompson, outside linebacker Tyree Wilson, place kicker Trey Wolff and offensive lineman Weston Wright.

KEEP THOSE FLAGS IN YOUR POCKET

- Texas Tech has, for the most part, avoided hurting itself with penalties this season as the Red Raiders have been flagged 71 times for 561 yards entering the Texas Bowl. That marks the second-lowest number of penalties and resulting yardage in a season dating back to 2000, excluding the COVID-shortened 2020 season that was limited to only 10 games. The Red Raiders' current numbers trail only the 59 flags for 492 yards the Red Raiders were penalized with a year ago.
- It is quite the improvement for a Red Raider football program that ranked no higher than 101st in the FBS from 2011-18 and then 73rd in 2019 and 90th in 2020 for fewest penalties per game. The Red Raiders also ranked in triple digits over six-consecutive seasons from 2004-09 as well as 94th in 2003.
- The Red Raiders enter bowl season ranked 38th in the FBS for fewest penalty yards per game (46.8) and 61st in fewest penalties per game (5.6). If the season ended today, Texas Tech's 46.8 penalty yards per game would rank as its third-best finish since the NCAA began tracking penalties in its national rankings in 2000.
- Texas Tech's one penalty against Iowa State matched the school record that had been previously set five times in program history. The Red Raiders previously had only one penalty in 1988 versus Arkansas, 1991 versus Rice, 1992 versus Texas A&M, 2016 at TCU and 2021 at Kansas.

FOURTH DOWN SUCCESS

- Much has been said about Joey McGuire's aggressive approach to fourth downs this season as Texas Tech is 28-of-46 on conversion attempts already this season. The philosophy is one he gained an appreciation for while at Baylor last season as the Bears were among the most aggressive teams in college football, going 22-of-35 on fourth down attempts en route to a run to the Big 12 title. Baylor closed the 2021 season ranked tied for 10th nationally in most successful fourth-down conversions, which resulted in 86 points compared to only 17 points allowed for failed attempts.
- Texas Tech enters bowl season as the FBS leader with 28 successful fourth-down conversions as the Red Raiders lead Baylor with 27, Navy with 23 and then the trio of Buffalo, Tennessee and West Virginia with 22. The Red Raiders' 46 attempts this season are easily the most in the FBS, five more than Baylor and six ahead of Northwestern.
- Texas Tech's 28 successful fourth down conversions are already the highest total during the Big 12 era (1996-present). Texas Tech previously moved the sticks 25 times on fourth down in 2002 when the Red Raiders were 25-of-40 overall.
- Texas Tech has converted 60.9 percent of its fourth down tries, resulting in 106 points. Failed fourth downs have only resulted in 51 points for opponents thus far, with seven of those not being the fault of the Red Raider defense as N.C. State took a fourth down interception back for a touchdown.
- McGuire's aggressive nature was a key reason for Texas Tech's victory in its Big 12 opener against Texas as the Red Raiders were 6-of-8 on fourth downs, marking their most conversions in a game dating back to 2000. The Red Raiders matched that total by going 6-for-7 on fourth downs against West Virginia, which were all in the first half.
- Dating back to 2013 when the NCAA began tracking single-game highs for fourth down conversions, Texas Tech is the only school to successfully move the sticks six times on fourth downs in two separate games in a season. Only UTEP, South Alabama and UCF have converted the same number of fourth downs in an FBS game this year as the Miners were also 6-of-8 on Oct. 8 against Louisiana Tech. South Alabama was a perfect 6-for-6 on fourth down attempts Nov. 12 in its victory over Texas State, while UCF was 7-for-10 on Dec. 3 against Tulane.
- Texas Tech turned its six successful fourth down conversions into a season-high 27 points against the Longhorns, while its two failures did not hurt the Red Raiders as Texas was unable to convert into scoring drives of its own. The Red Raiders were 4-for-6 on fourth down tries in the second half of that game, which led to 20 key points down the stretch leading into an overtime victory.
- Texas Tech is 7-1 this season when it is tied or leading the plus/minus scale on its fourth-down decisions with the lone loss coming at Oklahoma State. That loss came despite the Red Raiders gaining 24 points on drives continued via a successful fourth down with only seven points against due to an inability to convert. The plus-17 advantage marked Texas Tech's second-highest clip this season.

PLENTY OF EXCITEMENT FOR MCGUIRE ERA

- The excitement over Joey McGuire's hire has been felt across Texas Tech Athletics since his arrival as the athletics department saw significant increases in ticket sales this season. Texas Tech boasted more than 7,000 new season ticket holders this year, pushing its total to more than 28,000, which ranked in the top 10 all-time in school history.
- In addition to the rise in ticket sales, McGuire experienced sold out crowds throughout the state of Texas as part of the Red Raider Club Wreck'Em Tour. McGuire, who spoke to more than 50 groups since his hire this past year, sold out events in Dallas, Fort Worth, Midland, Abilene, San Antonio and Houston as part of the tour to greet donors and supporters throughout the state. Texas Tech also benefited from sold out crowds in Lubbock with more than 1,300 fans who attended the Red Raider Club Kickoff Luncheon prior to the season.
- Game one of the Joey McGuire era marked the largest home opening crowd (58,823) since 2016 when Texas Tech hosted Stephen F. Austin (60,097). The attendance mark against Murray State ranked just outside the top-10 all-time in Jones AT&T Stadium history.
- Texas Tech announced a sellout for its win over Texas as 60,975 fans enjoyed the Red Raiders' victory over their in-state rival. That attendance number marked the fourth-highest in Jones AT&T Stadium history and its highest all-time in the series versus Texas. It was the first sellout for Texas Tech since doing so in back-to-back weeks late in the 2018 season against Oklahoma and Texas. Texas Tech recorded its second sellout of the season against Baylor as 60,705 fans packed Jones AT&T Stadium.
- Texas Tech averaged 57,149 fans per game this season, which marked its highest season average since the 2016 season. Texas Tech closed the year ranked 25th nationally after filling Jones AT&T Stadium at 94.5 percent throughout the year and was 30th overall and fourth in the Big 12 for average season attendance.

60 MINUTES JUST ISN'T ENOUGH

- Texas Tech is now 10-7 all-time in overtime games and 3-0 this year after going past regulation to defeat No. 25 Houston, No. 22/19 Texas and Oklahoma during the regular season. The win over Houston snapped a three-game losing streak in overtime contests as the Red Raiders' last overtime win came in 2016 with a 27-24 victory at TCU.
- Texas Tech overcame a 14-point deficit in the second half to defeat Texas, its largest since overcoming a similar amount in the 2021 season opener against Houston. Additionally, it marked the first time the Red Raiders had rallied from a deficit of at least 14 points to win a Big 12 game at the time since trailing by 20 points in a 45-34 victory at Kansas in 2011. The Red Raiders later needed to rally from an 18-point deficit to top Oklahoma to conclude the regular season.
- This is the first time in program history Texas Tech has won three or more overtime games in a season and only the third time it has won multiple games since the NCAA began allowing games to go past regulation in 1996. The Red Raiders also scored multiple overtime wins in 2012 (Kansas, at No. 21 TCU) as well as 2006 (at UTEP, bowl game versus Minnesota). The victory over Texas marked the first time in program history that the Red Raiders won back-to-back home games in overtime.
- Texas Tech is now 4-4 all-time in overtime games against ranked opponents as, prior to this season, the Red Raiders had only recorded wins over No. 23 Texas A&M in a memorable 2002 victory and then No. 21 TCU in 2013.
- Texas Tech is one of only four FBS schools to play in at least three overtime games this season, joining the likes of Houston, Navy and UTSA. Of that group, the Red Raiders were the only team to record a win in all three of their overtime games.

DEGREES IN HAND

- Texas Tech entered the 2022 season with 20 student-athletes who are current college graduates, including 10 who earned their undergraduate degrees in Lubbock. The list of Tech graduates includes Tony Bradford Jr. (Sociology), Patrick Curley (Mechanical Engineering), Kosi Eldridge (University Studies), Adrian Frye (Sport Management), Jaylon Hutchings (Kinesiology), Krishon Merriweather (University Studies), Gabe Oladipo (University Studies), Xavier White (University Studies), Tyree Wilson (University Studies) and Weston Wright (General Studies).
- In addition, 10 other Red Raiders transferred to Texas Tech after earning their degrees at various other universities. That list features Keyon Blankenbaker (American Studies; Wyoming), Myles Cole (Kinesiology; Louisiana-Monroe), Dimitri Moore (Cinema and Media Arts; Vanderbilt), Vidal Scott Jr. (Health Studies; Arkansas State), Tyler Shough (General Social Science; Oregon), Cole Spencer (Masters of Business Administration; Western Kentucky), Chadarius Townsend (Human Environmental Science; Alabama), Marquis Waters (Sociology; Duke), Matthew Young (Business Marketing; New Mexico State).
- The Red Raiders added nine new graduates to its list as part of the university's December commencement exercises prior to traveling to the Texas Bowl. Texas Tech's list of December graduates included Jackson Baggett (Kinesiology), Matik Dunlap (University Studies), Reggie Pearson Jr. (University Studies), Jesiah Pierre (University Studies), Henry Teeter (University Studies), SaRodorick Thompson (University Studies), Cameron White (University Studies), Rayshad Williams (University Studies) and Trey Wolff (Ag & Applied Economics). An additional six Red Raiders received their master's degrees, including Patrick Curley, Jaylon Hutchings, Dimitri Moore, Tyler Shough, Marquis Waters and Matthew Young.

JONES AT&T STADIUM HISTORY

- Jones AT&T Stadium, home of Red Raider Football since Nov. 29, 1947, is arguably one of the most electric gameday atmospheres in all of college football. Armed with 60,000-plus rabid fans, Dave Curtis of The Sporting News proclaimed in May of 2010 that Jones AT&T Stadium was the "best home field advantage in all of college football."
- Since 2003, Texas Tech has invested $150 million into the facility with four major renovations, making Jones AT&T Stadium one of the best on-campus football facilities in the country. The renovations have included a $52 million West Stadium Building, the $34 million East Stadium Building and the $16 million north end zone renovation.
- The stadium was officially renamed from Jones Stadium to Jones SBC Stadium in 2000 following major corporate gifts (in excess of $25 million) from SBC Communications (now AT&T). The stadium was renamed again in 2006 to Jones AT&T Stadium after SBC Communications formally changed its name to AT&T. The "Jones" in Jones Stadium comes from former Texas Tech president Clifford B. Jones and his wife Aubrey. The stadium was named in their honor upon its opening in 1947.
- In addition to consistent renovations to Jones AT&T Stadium, Texas Tech unveiled the $48 million Sports Performance Center in 2017. The facility includes the Petersen Family Indoor Football Practice Facility, an indoor track and field competition complex with seating for 1,500 fans, a strength and conditioning area, the Becky and Kelly Joy Nutrition Center and the PlainsCapital Bank Sports Medicine Center.
- Outside of the 2020 season where attendance was restricted to only 25 percent, Texas Tech has averaged more than 55,000 in all but two seasons (2019, 2021) since 2010 with a record mark of 58,934 fans during the 2014 campaign.

ONE OF TOUGHEST SCHEDULES IN AMERICA

- Texas Tech faced arguably one of the most challenging schedules in college football this season with six ranked opponents overall and nine bowl-bound teams. The Red Raiders were 2-4 against ranked opponents this season with wins over then-No. 25 Houston and No. 22/19 Texas and losses in all four road trips to No. 16/12 N.C. State, No. 25 Kansas State and No. 7 Oklahoma State and No. 7 TCU.
- Following the TCU game, Texas Tech was one of only two schools at that point in the season (nine games) to face at least six teams ranked in the top 25 of the Associated Press poll at the time of the game, joining Tennessee.
- Texas Tech's start to its season marked the first time in program history where the Red Raiders had five ranked opponents fall in the first six games of their schedule. In fact, the challenging start to the season ranked among the most difficult in recent memory as Texas Tech was only the fourth team since 1980 to face an Associated Press top-25 opponent in five of the first six games of a season. According to research from STATS, Inc., Texas Tech joined the likes of Michigan State (1987), Tennessee (1991) and Ohio State (1995) in facing similar challenging starts against AP top-25 teams.
- Of those four schools, Texas Tech is the only school to feature a first-year head coach in Joey McGuire. He became the first head coach in the FBS since 1980 to face five AP top-25 opponents in the first six games of his debut season.
- The five-straight games against ranked opponents matched the longest streak in school history that was previously set in 2012.
- With its win over Texas, the Red Raiders recorded multiple wins over ranked opponents in the same season for the first time since 2012 when Texas Tech topped No. 4 West Virginia and No. 21 TCU in consecutive games. The victory over Texas also marked the first time in program history that Texas Tech defeated multiple ranked opponents in the first four games of a season.
- For Joey McGuire, he became only the second head coach in program history to defeat a top-25 team in his first game against a ranked opponent after topping Houston. He joins Kliff Kingsbury as the only other head coach to do so after the Red Raiders edged No. 24 TCU, 20-10, in what was only the third game of Kingsbury's tenure in 2013.
- The win over Texas, meanwhile, helped McGuire join both Kingsbury and JT King (1961) as the only two head coaches in program history to record multiple wins against ranked opponents in their debut season. Kingsbury also topped No. 16 Arizona State in the Holiday Bowl to wrap the 2013 season, while King led the Red Raiders to victories over No. 21 TCU and No. 23 Baylor in 1961.
- Since both Houston and N.C. State remained in the top-25 polls prior to their matchups with the Red Raiders, it marked the first time since 2002 that Texas Tech has faced multiple ranked non-conference opponents in a season. The Red Raiders previously started the 2002 campaign at No. 12 Ohio State before traveling later to face No. 16 N.C. State in the fourth week of the season. It was only the sixth time Tech faced multiple ranked non-conference opponents in a regular season since joining the Southwest Conference in 1960.
- Prior to the season, Texas Tech was one of only four power-five conference schools that were slated to face at least two non-conference opponents ranked in the preseason Associated Press top 25. That list also included Pac-12 programs Oregon and Stanford along with the SEC's Arkansas.
- There was just one power-five program, Mississippi State, that had more preseason AP top-25 teams on its season schedule than Texas Tech with six. The Red Raiders' schedule pit them against five AP preseason top-25 ranked opponents as Texas Tech was one of 10 power-five teams that was faced with that type of 2022 schedule (Georgia Tech, Louisville, North Carolina, Syracuse, Stanford, Arkansas, Auburn, South Carolina and Vanderbilt).

RAIDER WALK RETURNS FOR MCGUIRE'S DEBUT AT TEXAS TECH

- The Raider Walk returned in 2022 under head coach Joey McGuire. Prior to every home game at Jones AT&T Stadium this season fans greeted the Red Raiders roughly two hours and 15 minutes prior to kickoff as the team buses made a drop off south of the Sports Performance Center, allowing the team to walk north down Drive of Champions Avenue to the home tunnel. With fans lining the streets, the Goin' Band from Raiderland and Texas Tech spirit squads led the line each week to help cheer on the Red Raiders as they made the walk toward the stadium before starting their pregame preparations.

NEW MASKED RIDER, HORSE MAKES DEBUT

- One of the best traditions in college football will had several new faces this season as Texas Tech will debuted a new Masked Rider in Caroline Hobbs as well as a new horse. The horse's official name, Centennial Champion, was unveiled Friday, Sept. 2 through the Texas Tech spirit programs following a fan vote with proud corporate partner, United Supermarkets.
- This was the fifth time in history where Texas Tech will debuted a new Masked Rider, horse and head coach all in the same season as the occurrence also took place in 1961 with head coach J.T. King, horse Tech Beauty and rider Kelley Waggoner, 1978 with head coach Rex Dockery, horse Happy VI and rider Lee Puckitt, 1987 with head coach Spike Dykes, horse Midnight Rider and rider Kim Saunders and 2013 with head coach Kliff Kingsbury, horse Fearless Champion and rider Corey Waggoner.

SUPER SENIORS

- Any time a new head coach is introduced in this era of college football, many begin to wonder how that will impact the next year's roster in terms of transfers. For Texas Tech, the process worked in favor of Joey McGuire and his staff, who made it their first priority to acclimate themselves with members of the current roster. As a result, Texas Tech had six super seniors off last year's roster choose to return for one additional year of eligibility. That list includes linebackers Krishon Merriweather, Kosi Eldridge and Matthew Young, wide receiver Chadarius Townsend and defensive backs Adrian Frye and Marquis Waters.
- McGuire and his staff were also able to add experienced depth to the roster through the transfer portal, signing the likes of five super seniors in linebacker Dimitri Moore (Vanderbilt/Missouri State), defensive back Keyon Blankenbaker (Wyoming), offensive lineman Cole Spencer (Western Kentucky) and defensive lineman Vidal Scott Jr. (Arkansas State). Spencer, in particular, arrived at Texas Tech with 44 starts over his career at Western Kentucky where he earned first team All-CUSA honors a year ago under now Texas Tech offensive coordinator Zach Kittley and offensive line coach Stephen Hamby.
- Texas Tech picked up its final super senior early in preseason camp as three-time Big 12 throws champion Gabe Oladipo joined the program. Oladipo, who holds the Texas Tech school records in both the hammer (211 feet) and weight throws (73'-7.25"), adds significant size to Texas Tech's defensive front, has recorded bench presses of 440 pounds and squad lifts of 875 pounds during his career.

OH BROTHER

■ Texas Tech has a pair of brothers on its team this year in super senior linebacker Dimitri Moore and true freshman defensive back Jalon Peoples. The pair, who previously starred at Cedar Hill High School where Joey McGuire was once the head coach, are the first set of brothers to appear on the Red Raider roster since Tony and Alfredo Morales were both members of the offensive line in 2015.

MAHOMES ENTERS TEXAS TECH RING OF HONOR

■ Texas Tech great Patrick Mahomes II became the eighth member of the prestigious Ring of Honor during a halftime ceremony presented by American State Bank during the Baylor game. Mahomes, who was also enshrined in the Texas Tech Hall of Fame that same weekend, joined a select group in the Ring of Honor consisting of legends such as Donny Anderson (2012), E.J. Holub (2012), Dave Parks (2012), Gabe Rivera (2014), Zach Thomas (2016), Michael Crabtree (2021) and Elmer Tarbox (2021).

■ Mahomes was surprised with the announcement of his upcoming Ring of Honor induction on Aug. 20 following the Kansas City Chiefs' preseason win over the Washington Commanders. Texas Tech Director of Athletics Kirby Hocutt and President Lawrence Schovanec joined Mahomes on the field to unveil his upcoming enshrinement as part of a video presentation on the Arrowhead Stadium screens. Mahomes was inducted into both the Texas Tech Hall of Fame and Ring of Honor following a unanimous vote of the Ring of Honor committee this summer.

CRABTREE ENTERS THE COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

■ Michael Crabtree, the two-time Biletnikoff Award winner and 2021 inductee into the Texas Tech Ring of Honor, became the sixth Red Raider in program history to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame on Dec. 6 in Las Vegas. Crabtree was selected in only his first year as a nominee following a national vote by the National Football Foundation. He joined a prestigious group of fellow Red Raiders already in the College Football Hall of Fame, a list consisting of E.J. Holub (inducted in 1986), Donny Anderson (1989 class), Dave Parks (2008 class), Gabe Rivera (2012 class) and Zach Thomas (2015 class).

KITTLEY BACK HOME AS OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

■ Texas Tech fans saw a familiar face return to the Red Raider sideline this season in offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach Zach Kittley. Kittley previously served in various roles under Kliff Kingsbury from 2013-17, rising from a student assistant to graduate assistant and assistant quarterbacks coach in his final three seasons. Kittley worked alongside Kingsbury in the development of Patrick Mahomes II, tutoring the future NFL MVP into becoming the nation's leading passer in 2016 and an eventual top-10 selection by the Kansas City Chiefs.

■ Mahomes is one of two NFL quarterbacks to tutor under Kittley as he spent the last three years mentoring Bailey Zappe at both Houston Baptist and Western Kentucky. Zappe, who heard his name called in the fourth round of the NFL Draft this past May by the New England Patriots, set the NCAA FBS records for single-season passing yards (5,967) and passing touchdowns (62) as a senior for the Hilltoppers, both records that were previously held by former Red Raider B.J. Symons (2003).

■ Kittley, who turned 31 in August, ranks as the third-youngest power-five offensive coordinator in the country, trailing only Charlie Weis Jr. at Ole Miss (29) and Tommy Rees at Notre Dame (30).

DERUYTER RETURNS TO THE LONE STAR STATE

■ Following three stops on the West Coast, first-year Texas Tech defensive coordinator Tim DeRuyter is back in the state of Texas having last coached in the Lone Star State as the defensive coordinator at Texas A&M from 2010-11.

■ DeRuyter's last three stops included Fresno State (head coach, 2012-16), California (2017-20) and Oregon (2021).

→ Oregon: DeRuyter's lone season on staff ranked No. 21/22 in the final polls after compiling a 10-4 record, which featured appearances in the Pac-12 Championship and the Valero Alamo Bowl. The Ducks boasted one of the nation's most opportunistic defenses in 2021 as Oregon closed the year ranked fifth in the FBS with 17 interceptions and 26th nationally with 22 total takeaways. DeRuyter's unit featured two of the nation's top players in defensive end Kayvon Thibodeaux and safety Verone McKinley III. Thibodeaux, who became the first Oregon defensive standout to earn unanimous first team All-American accolades was selected with the fifth overall pick in the 2022 NFL Draft by the New York Giants, marking only the second time in Oregon history a defensive player has been chosen in the top five. McKinley, meanwhile, was a consensus All-American after sharing the FBS lead with six INTs from his spot in the back end of the Oregon defense.

→ Cal: The Bears ranked 127th in scoring defense the season before DeRuyter's arrival in Berkeley, but immediately improved to the point where Cal ranked No. 22 in 2018 (20.4 ppg) and No. 33 in 2019 (21.9 ppg). The Golden Bears followed that by only giving up 26.5 points per game during his final season in 2020.

→ Fresno State: The Bulldogs had their first unanimous All-American in program history in defensive back, Phillip Thomas, under DeRuyter. He was also one of three finalists for the Jim Thorpe Award as he led the nation with eight interceptions in 2012. Fresno State won conference titles in DeRuyter's first two seasons and led the Bulldogs to a ranking as high as No. 13 during the 2013 season behind current NFL standouts Derek Carr and Davante Adams.

→ Texas A&M: Future NFL great Von Miller flourished under DeRuyter's direction with the Aggies, claiming the prestigious Butkus Award in 2010 as the nation's top linebacker. Miller garnered first team All-America honors for the second time in his career that season before eventually being selected No. 2 overall the next spring by the Denver Broncos during the 2011 NFL Draft.

■ A&M was one of eight stops as a defensive coordinator for DeRuyter, who has also served in a similar role at Air Force (2007-09), Nevada (2005-06), Ohio (1995-98, 2002-04) and Navy (1999-00). DeRuyter coordinated one of the nation's most successful defenses at Air Force in 2009 when they were No. 5 in pass defense (154.31), No. 10 in scoring defense (15.69) and No. 11 in total defense (288.31).

HOMETOWN PRIDE

Texas Tech will recognize the hometowns of every student-athlete on its roster this season with a special decal on the back of each gameday helmet. The decal will feature a throwback Masked Rider logo with the area code associated with each student-athlete's hometown as part of a new initiative under head coach Joey McGuire in his first season.

REMEMBERING MIKE LEACH

Texas Tech will honor the memory of the late Mike Leach at the Texas Bowl with a special pirate flag decal that will be on the back of every helmet. Leach, the winningest coach in program history, passed away Dec. 13 at the age of 61. Below is Texas Tech's statement from his passing:

"Texas Tech Athletics joins the countless others across the game of football who mourn the passing of Mike Leach. Coach Leach will be forever remembered as one of the most innovative offensive minds in college football history. His impact on Texas Tech Football alone will live on in history as one of the greatest tenures in the history of our program. From his 84 wins to his record-setting offenses, Coach Leach quickly built a legacy here at Texas Tech that will never be forgotten. Our thoughts and prayers are with Coach Leach's wife, Sharon, and their entire family during this difficult time."

Leach remains Texas Tech's all-time winningest coach after finishing 84-43 overall over his 10 seasons leading the Red Raiders from 2000-09. His tenure was highlighted by the Red Raiders' 11 regular-season wins in 2008, which matched the Texas Tech single-season record for victories. The Red Raiders defeated No. 1 Texas that season, pushing Texas Tech to as high as No. 2 in the national rankings on its way to an appearance in the Cotton Bowl.

Following his tenure at Texas Tech, Leach spent eight seasons at Washington State, pushing the Cougars to a 55-47 record. He was in the midst of completing his third season as the head coach of Mississippi State at the time of his passing.

Texas Tech has two members of its current football staff that previously played for Leach in associate athletic director Antonio Huffman (2003-06) as well as offensive line coach Stephen Hamby (2005-08). Huffman was the Defensive MVP in one of the most-memorable wins of Leach's tenure in the 2006 Insight Bowl where the Red Raiders overcame a 31-point deficit to defeat Minnesota. That remains tied for the largest come-from-behind victory in bowl history. Hamby, meanwhile, was the starting center for the Red Raiders in the 2008 Cotton Bowl where Texas Tech played Ole Miss.

QB TYLER SHOUGH

SHOUGH NOW 7-1 AS TEXAS TECH'S STARTER

- Tyler Shough returned as Texas Tech's starting quarterback over the final three games of the regular season as he led the Red Raiders to wins over Kansas, Iowa State and Oklahoma. Shough is now 7-1 as Texas Tech's starting quarterback and 11-4 over his career after previously finishing 4-3 in his lone season as Oregon's starter in 2020. Oregon ended that season with appearances in the Pac-12 Championship and the Fiesta Bowl.
- Of Shough's eight career starts at Tech, the first was in the same building as the 2022 TaxAct Texas Bowl. The Red Raiders led off the 2021 season at NRG Stadium which coincided with Shough's debut as a Red Raider. He completed 17-of-24 passes for 231 yards in the Red Raiders' memorable come-from-behind victory over Houston. Shough also rushed for one other score en route to pushing the Red Raiders to 31 unanswered points in the second half.
- Shough enters bowl season coming off possibly the best performance of his career as he completed 31-of-50 passes for 436 yards and two touchdowns, while also rushing nine times for 44 yards in the win over Oklahoma. Shough set career highs for completions, attempts, passing yards, total offensive plays and yards of total offense in the win, which snapped a nine-game losing streak to the Sooners. It marked the second-most passing yards by a Big 12 quarterback this season.
- Shough racked up 480 yards of total offense in the Oklahoma contest, giving him the 13th-best single game of total offense in the FBS this season. It's the best showing by a Big 12 player this season and one of eight performances in 2022 of 480 total yards or better against a power-five program.
- Shough started and finished a game for the first time since Sept. 18, 2021 versus FIU on Nov. 12, 2022 against Kansas. After exiting the season-opener versus Murray State, a game which he started, he returned to the starting role against the Jayhawks. The senior completed 20-of-33 passes for 246 yards and a touchdown, while also rushing 12 times for another 76 yards and a score. The victory was Texas Tech's first win over a Big 12 opponent with Shough as its starter. His first action back in the lineup was in the fourth quarter versus Baylor and he also saw time the next week versus TCU but did not start.
- While known as an efficient passer in the pocket, Shough frustrated Kansas with his legs as he moved the sticks or found the end zone via either designed run plays or scrambles which amounted to 76 yards rushing, nine yards shy of his career-best of 85 recorded against Stanford in 2020 while at Oregon. Seven of his 12 carries versus Kansas were designed runs.
- Shough rushed a career-high 14 times at Iowa State, resulting in 33 yards. His final three carries all came on Texas Tech's final drive as he totaled 12 yards to create a much-needed first down that allowed the Red Raiders to go to a victory formation to run out the remainder of the clock. His 14 carries were one more than his previous high of 13 that was set in 2020 against Cal.
- Texas Tech's first scoring drive at Iowa State went 14 plays and 96 yards for a touchdown, marking Texas Tech's fourth 90-yard or better drive of the season. It was the longest drive surrendered by a notoriously tenacious Iowa State defense since the 2020 Fiesta Bowl (a game coincidentally against an Oregon team with Shough on it although he did not lead this particular drive). Three of Texas Tech's four drives of 90 yards or better this season have been orchestrated with Shough behind center.
- Shough was limited to only four games in 2021 after suffering a season-ending shoulder injury in the Big 12 opener at Texas. He had completed 69.6 percent of his passes to that point (64-of-92), throwing for 872 yards and six touchdowns in that span.

EARNED IT

- This was the second year in a row at Texas Tech, and third overall, that Tyler Shough competed and earned a starting job out of preseason camp.
- In front of the 2022 season, Shough was named Texas Tech's starting quarterback on Aug. 21, besting a group Joey McGuire tabbed as one of the best qb rooms in the country. Shough earned the job after a three-way competition between himself, sophomore Donovan Smith and redshirt freshman Behren Morton. Smith previously started the final four games of the 2021 season after Shough was injured, earning AutoZone Liberty Bowl MVP honors after leading the Red Raiders past Mississippi State.
- Shough beat out Henry Columbi prior to the 2021 season. At the time, Shough became only the second Red Raider since 2000 to be named the starting quarterback out of preseason camp that did not begin his career at Texas Tech. Nic Shimonek garnered the starting nod for the Red Raiders in 2017 after originally beginning his collegiate career at Iowa before later transferring to Texas Tech.
- The journey to earning the starting nod didn't come without a few years of waiting for Tyler Shough at Oregon as he sat behind eventual first round selection Justin Herbert for his first two seasons with the Ducks. Herbert, the NFL AP Rookie of the Year in 2020 with the Los Angeles Chargers, was Oregon's starter in each of Shough's first two seasons with the Ducks prior to him being named the starter prior to the 2020 campaign.

NIL DONE RIGHT

- With the topic of Name-Image-Likeness so prevalent in college athletics, it'd be hard to ignore the success Tyler Shough has made in this area as the senior utilized a sponsorship agreement for his engagement ring to propose to his now fiance, Jordan Wormdahl. The couple got engaged this past May as part of a summer vacation. Wormdahl is a former student-athlete, herself, as a soccer standout at the University of Oregon.

THE RED BEHREN

When called upon this season, Behren Morton displayed to Red Raider fans the potential that had him labeled as Texas Tech highest-rated quarterback in history when he signed out of Eastland High School in 2020.

With two quarterbacks coping with injuries, Morton made his first career start at No. 7 Oklahoma State on Oct. 8 and threw for 379 yards and two touchdowns in the loss but had Pokes head coach Mike Gundy simply say in postgame comments learning he was a redshirt freshman in the league say, "that's not good." His performance against Oklahoma State marked the 10th time since 1999 where a Red Raider has thrown for 300 yards in his first career start.

The son of a high school coach, Morton was the highest-rated quarterback to ever sign with the Red Raiders after totaling more than 8,800 passing yards and 84 touchdowns in three seasons playing for his father at Eastland High School. He was a consensus four-star prospect, ranking sixth nationally among pro-style quarterbacks. Morton grew up in Lubbock for part of his youth as his father, James Morton, was the head football coach at Monterey High School in Lubbock for 11 years.

OFFENSIVE NOTEBOOK

THE DEEPEST QUARTERBACK ROOM IN THE COUNTRY

- After head coach Joey McGuire pushed the Red Raiders' quarterback battle from spring to preseason camp, he reminded offensive coordinator Zach Kittley that he'd likely never experience this type of talent in one single room possibly ever again in his career. Through the first 12 games of the season, that depth has paid off as the Red Raiders have used three different starters behind center in senior Tyler Shough (four games), sophomore Donovan Smith (four games) and redshirt freshman Behren Morton (four games).
- All three gunslingers registered better than 1,000 yards passing this season with their opportunities under center. Texas Tech is only the second FBS program since 1996 to have three different quarterbacks throw for at least 1,000 yards in a season, joining Oklahoma State from the 2012 campaign.
- While it is the only FBS program to have three 1,000-yard passers, Texas Tech is one of seven FBS programs to have multiple 1,000-yard passers joining Tulsa, Arizona State, Boston College, Kansas, Liberty and Kansas State.
- Due to the even share of playing time for the quarterback room, you will not find a Texas Tech quarterback atop any individual leaderboards but the Red Raiders passing offense ranks No. 13 in the FBS averaging 307.0 passing yards per game. A category Texas Tech leads the Big 12 in thanks to its trio of quarterbacks.
- The Red Raiders will be without Smith in the Texas Bowl as the sophomore entered the transfer portal after the conclusion of the regular season. Shough is the projected starter versus Ole Miss with Morton backing him up.

MORTON SHINES IN OPPORTUNITY

- During the Big 12 era (1996-present), Behren Morton's 379 passing yards in his debut versus Oklahoma State were the third-most yards for a Red Raider making his starting debut against a conference opponent. He trailed only the 490 passing yards Steven Sheffield compiled versus Kansas State in 2009 and the 415 yards Davis Webb totaled against Iowa State in 2013. Webb's outing is the only freshman performance that has topped Morton's numbers from the Oklahoma State game.
- Morton didn't stop there as he made it back-to-back 300-yard performances in his first two starts as he finished 28-of-45 for 325 yards and a pair touchdowns against the West Virginia and was later named the Big 12 Newcomer of the Week for the effort.
- Morton is the eighth Red Raider in the Big 12 era to throw for at least 300 yards in his first two career starts, joining the likes of Nic Shimonek (2017), Webb (2013), Mayfield (2013), Taylor Potts (2009), Graham Harrell (2006), Cody Hodges (2005) and Cumbe (2004). Of that group, Webb is the only other Red Raider to do so versus Big 12 opponents.
- Despite it being his first career start, that didn't stop offensive coordinator Zach Kittley from airing it out as Morton recorded 62 passing attempts, the second-highest total for a Red Raider in his starting debut during the Big 12 era behind Sonny Cumbe's 66 attempts in 2004. It marked the most passing attempts for a FBS freshman making his starting debut since Jared Goff had 64 on Aug. 31, 2013, in Cal's season-opening loss to Northwestern.

NEWS AND NOTES ON THE OFFENSE

- Texas Tech's high-tempo offense leads the FBS with 1,006 total plays and 83.8 offensive plays per game thus far. The Texas Tech single-season record for total plays is 1,155 that was set in 2002 when the Red Raiders averaged 81.7 offensive plays per game over 14 contests (including a bowl game).
- Texas Tech enters the Texas Bowl averaging 33.6 points per game, putting the Red Raiders in position to end the season averaging at least 30.0 points per game for the 21st time in the past 22 years. Texas Tech's current average is its highest currently since 2018.
- Texas Tech's 436 passing yards against Oklahoma in the regular-season finale marked its most against a Big 12 opponent since the Red Raiders torched Texas with 454 yards through the air late in the 2018 season. It marked only the fourth time since 2000 where the Red Raiders threw for more than 400 yards against the Sooners after also doing so in 2007, 2011 and 2016.
- Texas Tech has had 13 different Red Raiders catch a touchdown so far this year, its most in a single season since 2009 when the Red Raiders had 14 different touchdown pass catchers. Texas Tech currently ranks second in the FBS this year for number of players with a receiving touchdown, trailing only N.C. State with 15.
- Myles Price set a career-high for receptions (13) in the Red Raiders' win over Texas on Sept. 24. It still stands as a Red Raider best this season and it ties for the seventh-most single game receptions in the FBS heading into bowl season. It is one of 15 performances in the FBS this season for an individual to catch 13 passes in a single game. It also marked the most receptions by a Red Raider since Antoine Wesley set a single-game record for receiving yards off a similar 13 receptions in a 2018 victory over Houston.
- Xavier White's performance of nine catches for 120 yards and a touchdown at Kansas State on Oct. 1 placed him in a select category as he joined Taurean Henderson as the only Red Raiders since 2000 to record multiple games with at least 100 rushing yards as well as two or more 100-yard receiving performances. White hit the 100-yard mark on the ground as a running back in 2020 versus Kansas State (113) and Kansas (135) and previously had 107 yards in the 2019 season opener versus Montana State. He topped 100 yards once against two weeks later, this time setting a new career-high with 139 yards on Oct. 22 versus West Virginia.

THOMPSON RECORD BOOK WATCH

SaRodorick Thompson will have the opportunity this season to further cement his status as one of the top running backs in school history as he already ranks in the top five all-time in career rushing touchdowns and recently entered the top 10 for career rushing yards. Thompson has led the Red Raiders in rushing yards in two of the past three years heading into his senior campaign. Below is where he ranks in the Texas Tech record book.

1-2 PUNCH PROVES TRUE IN RUNNING GAME

■ Joey McGuire wasn't lying when he said he felt the Red Raiders had a true 1-2 punch at running back this season with SaRodorick Thompson and Tahj Brooks. Entering bowl season, not much separates the two as Thompson leads the Red Raiders with 670 yards and six touchdowns on 132 carries, while Brooks has 601 rushing yards and seven touchdowns on 133 attempts.

■ Thompson is already one of the most prolific Red Raiders in school history in finding the end zone as his 39 rushing touchdowns rank third in program history. Thompson is currently tied for fourth among active FBS players in career rushing touchdowns, trailing only Malik Cunningham (Louisville), Mohamed Ibrahim (Minnesota), Adrian Martinez (Kansas State), while being tied with Zach Charbonnet of UCLA. He and Brooks lead all FBS duos with 57 combined rushing touchdowns as Brooks has 18 for his career, including a team-leading seven this season.

■ If Thompson is able to hold onto the team rushing title following the Texas Bowl, he will have done so for the third time in his career, placing him in an elite level of Red Raiders to do so historically. That list also includes the likes of Baron Batch (2008-10), Taurean Henderson (2002-05), Ricky Williams (1997-98, 2000-01), Byron Hanspard (1994-96), Byron Morris (1991-93), James Gray (1986-89), Larry Isaac (1974-76), Donny Anderson (1963-65) and Bobby Cavazos (1951-53).

■ Texas Tech currently boasts a pair of 600-yard rushers for only the fourth time in the Big 12 era (1996-present) as the Red Raiders also featured similar two-back systems in 2008 with Shannon Woods and Baron Batch, in 2010 with Batch and Eric Stephens and in 2017 with Justin Stockton and Tre King. The 2008 season was the only year during that span where Tech had two 700-yard rushers in the same year.

■ Texas Tech is one of only 13 power-five schools in the FBS currently to boast two 600-yard rushers and one of two from the Big 12, joining Kansas State. The remainder of that list includes Michigan and Penn State from the Big Ten, Oregon, USC and UCLA from the Pac-12 and then Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Ole Miss and Tennessee from the SEC.

■ The Red Raiders recorded a season-high 264 rushing yards against Kansas, marking its most yards on the ground in a Big 12 game since totaling 293 in the Jayhawks' last visit to Lubbock in 2020. It marked the seventh time Texas Tech has notched at least 260 rushing yards in a Big 12 game since 2000.

■ The Red Raiders' performance on the ground versus Kansas marked the first time since the start of the 2000 season that Texas Tech featured four different players with at least 50 rushing yards in a game. Tyler Shough led the group with 76 rushing yards followed by Thompson with 66, Cam'Ron Valdez with a career-high 66 and Brooks with 51.

BRADLEY, THE FRESHMAN ALL-AMERICAN

■ Jerand Bradley has developed into Texas Tech's key threat in the passing game in his first full season as the redshirt freshman enters the Texas Bowl as the team leader with 656 receiving yards and five receiving touchdowns this season. Bradley, who also ranks second on the team for receptions, is currently on pace to become only the sixth freshman since 1972 to lead the team in receiving yards, joining the likes of Erik Ezukanma (2019) newly-enshrined College Football Hall of Fame inductee Michael Crabtree (2007), Taurean Henderson (2002), Sheldon Bass (1994) and Wayne Walker (1985).

■ Bradley currently ranks fourth among Texas Tech freshmen all-time for single-season receiving yards, trailing only Crabtree's NCAA freshman record of 1,962 yards in 2007 as well as the 806 yards from Alex Torres in 2009 as well as Ezukanma's 664 yards from 2019.

■ Bradley currently ranks fourth among FBS freshmen for receiving yards this season, trailing only Coastal Carolina's Jared Brown, California's J. Michael Sturdivant and Arizona's Tetairoa McMillan. Of that group, only Brown is slated to play in a bowl game.

■ Bradley has three 100-yard receiving performances this season, which leads all power-five freshmen nationally. He hauled in six catches for 108 yards and two touchdowns in the season opener against Murray State before adding eight catches for 119 yards and another score midway through the year at Oklahoma State. He wrapped the regular season with an impressive eight catches for 173 yards and a touchdown in the win over Oklahoma.

■ Bradley's 173 receiving yards against the Sooners marked the most by an FBS freshman this season and the most by a Red Raider receiver since Myles Price totaled 175 yards through the air late in the 2021 season against Iowa State. It marked the most receiving yards by a Red Raider freshman since Crabtree finished with 195 yards in Texas Tech's 2007 contest at Texas.

TYREE WILSON: ALL-AMERICAN

Tyree Wilson became the 32nd Red Raider all-time to be named a first team All-American on Dec. 9 when the Football Writers Association of America announced the honor for the senior outside linebacker. In total, Wilson received three of the five All-American designations recognized by the NCAA this postseason.

- FWAA First Team All-American
- AP Second Team All-American
- AFCA Second Team All-American

Coupled with measurables such as an 86-inch wingspan at 6-foot-6 and 270 pounds, the Red Raiders' edge rusher is projected as a first round NFL Draft pick by multiple media outlets.

Wilson announced his intention to enter the NFL Draft on Nov. 20 and began the recovery process for a foot injury suffered on Nov. 12 during the second half of the Red Raiders' game versus Kansas, officially ending his run being one of the most impactful players to ever wear the scarlet and black.

WILSON'S 10-GAME RESUME

(Statistics of as Nov. 13 following last game played; exited early in Nov. 12 contest with two tackles, 0.0 TFLs)

- Tyree Wilson led the power five with 50 pressures and ranked second in the FBS according to Pro Football Focus.
- He ranked tied for third in the power five for tackles for loss (14.0) and tied for ninth in the FBS.
- He led the FBS with 8.5 tackles for loss against opponents that were ranked in the Nov. 13 AP Top 25 poll. He also led the power five with 9.0 TFLs in true road games and ranked fourth in the FBS for the category.
- Wilson ranked tied for 25th in the FBS for total sacks (7.0) despite often facing double teams on passing downs. He led the FBS with 5.0 sacks against opponents that were ranked in the top 25 of the Nov. 13 AP poll.
- Wilson, was not just a pass rusher, as he was third on the team with 61 tackles after 10 games this season, easily the most in his career. Wilson was one of only two power-five players at the time and one of seven players in the FBS to record 60 tackles on the season, at least 10.0 tackles for loss and at least 6.0 sacks.

ONE OF THE BEST TO WEAR THE SCARLET & BLACK

- Despite missing the final two games due to injury, Tyree Wilson remains one of the nation's leaders with 14.0 tackles for loss entering bowl season, which still leads the Big 12 and ranks 12th in the FBS for per game average (1.40). He is also the Big 12 leader in sacks per game (0.70) after totaling 7.0 on the season from his spot on the edge of Texas Tech's defensive front.
- Wilson is the first Red Raider to be named a first team All-American since Antoine Wesley in 2018 and the first edge rusher/defensive end standout to do so since Montae Reagor in 1998.
- Wilson was named one of 20 semifinalists for the Chuck Bednarik Award on Nov. 1. An award presented annually to the college defensive player of the Year.
- Wilson produced multiple TFLs in five of the Red Raiders' 10 games.
- Wilson's 7.0 sacks ranked tied for 25th in the FBS and were the second-most in the Big 12 trailing Kansas State's Felix Anudike-Uzomah (7.5).
- Wilson wreaked havoc on No. 16 N.C. State on Sept. 17, amassing a career-high 3.5 tackles for a loss. It was the most in a single game by a Red Raider since Jordyn Brooks produced 4.0 versus Oklahoma State on Oct. 5, 2019. It also marked only the sixth time since 2003 (last 20 years) that a Red Raider notched 3.5 tackles for a loss in a game.
- Wilson shined once again on the road at No. 25 Kansas State, tallying up 2.0 sacks in a game for the second time in 2022 and for the fourth time in his career. In addition, he forced a fumble and also recovered a fumble to go with six tackles. The performance earned Wilson national accolades as he was tabbed the Defensive Player of the Week by the Reese's Senior Bowl the following Monday.
- Wilson registered 2.5 tackles for loss, 0.5 sacks and eight total tackles on the road against College Football Playoff representative TCU on Nov. 5.
- Productivity for Wilson has skyrocketed in the tackles category in this year's defensive scheme. Looking back to 2021, Wilson owned 29 tackles after 10 games en route to 38 for the season (2.92/game). With 61 tackles after 10 games, that's a single season career-high. Wilson owned 6.10 tackles per game, which was the 18th-best per game tackle rate in the Big 12.
- Wilson led Texas Tech with a career-high 11 tackles against No. 16 N.C. State. The 11 tackles marked the most by an edge, defensive line type player since Pete Robertson collected the same total in Texas Tech's victory at the 2013 Holiday Bowl.
- The senior built on his breakout junior season with an even more dominant senior season, shifting from a down lineman to a stand-up stance in the "EDGE" pass rusher role in first-year defensive coordinator Tim DeRuyter's system. DeRuyter has led a few of the more major menaces to the quarterback in recent history, including Kayvon Thibodeaux last season at Oregon and Von Miller at Texas A&M, both top-five NFL Draft selections.
- While playing in two different systems in his last two seasons, Wilson set the tone as the team leader for both tackles for loss and sacks at Texas Tech in both his junior and senior seasons. He led the team with 13.5 TFLs and 7.0 sacks in 13 games in 2021 before his 14.0 TFLs and 7.0 sacks over 10 games this year.
- Wilson's junior year accolades consisted of being named an honorable mention All-Big 12 selection by the conference coaches before going on to earn Defensive MVP honors of the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. He was also recognized on the Associated Press All-Bowl Team for his performance in the Red Raiders' bowl win over Mississippi State.

ON THE BIG BOARD

■ Mel Kiper, ESPN.com NFL Draft Analyst

"(Wilson) has rare power for an edge rusher with a 6-foot-6 frame, and he gets good push in the run game," Kiper said. "He's an explosive player with the lateral quickness to change direction to chase down quarterbacks with ease, too."

Mel Kiper Big Board Rankings (last released, Monday, Dec. 12)

No. 11. Tyree Wilson, DE, Texas Tech

"I wrote about Wilson in our draft notebook last month, and my guy Jordan Reid has been on him since he watched the 2021 tape. Wilson has been a consistent menace off the edge for the Red Raiders. He has seven sacks and 15 total tackles for loss, showing explosion at the snap as a pass-rusher and taking on blockers and holding his ground in the run game. For edge rushers, it's all about physical traits and tools, and the 6-foot-6 Wilson has everything teams want in that regard. He has a high ceiling."

Todd McShay's Top 32 Prospects (last released, Tuesday, Dec. 13)

No. 4. Tyree Wilson, DE, Texas Tech

"Wilson has great length and finishing power. He can shoot his hands and overpower pass-blockers, and while he doesn't have elite bend, he has improved as a hands fighter. Wilson displays the strength to stack blockers and set a hard edge against the run, and he chases with good effort and flashes good stopping power. The Texas A&M transfer had seven sacks, 73 tackles, 15 tackles for loss (tied for 22nd in the country), 36 pressures (tied for 13th) and 15 run stops on the season before declaring for the draft and opting to skip his team's bowl game."

THE PUMPJACK MENTALITY

Texas Tech has continued to sport a miniature pumpjack on its sideline this season, representing the Red Raiders' desire to always "be pumping" no matter the circumstances. The pump jack sideline prop was created out of an idea from former interim head coach Sonny Cumbie and continued this year by Joey McGuire.

DEFENSIVE NOTEBOOK TACKLING MACHINE

■ Everyone knew Krishon Merriweather was a guy that could make tackles when he came to Texas Tech. He joined the Red Raiders after leading the nation at the NJCAA level, registering 153 stops as a sophomore in 2019 at Garden City Community College in Kansas. Merriweather was an NJCAA second team All-American, totaling 153 tackles over 11 games, which led the junior college ranks with 13.9 tackles per game. He also chipped in 10.0 for a loss and 3.5 sacks.

■ Sticking to that trend, Merriweather leads Texas Tech with 104 tackles, which is 22 more than the second-most on the team. With at least five tackles versus Ole Miss, Merriweather will have the most stops in a season by a Red Raider since Micah Awe had 126 in 2015.

■ Merriweather is one four Big 12 players that has reached the century mark in tackles in 2022. His 8.67 tackles per game ranks as third-highest clip per game in the league.

■ With one more game on the schedule, Merriweather already owns the seventh-most tackles in a season by a Red Raider in the last 20 years (2003-present). If Merriweather records his per game average in the Texas Bowl, he would project to finish the 2022 season with 112 tackles, which would be the fourth-most tackles in a single season by a Red Raider during that time span. He is already one of nine Red Raiders to own triple-digit tackles in the last 20 years.

■ It would take 141 tackles to enter the all-time Texas Tech career top 10. Lawrence Flugence is the Red Raiders' all-time single-season leader with 193 in 2002 (in 14 games). It also stands as the all-time record in the NCAA FBS record book.

■ In now his third season as a Red Raider, Merriweather is up to 231 career tackles at the FBS level. He had 75 in his debut season in 2020 (nine games) and 52 stops in 2021 (13 games).

■ Merriweather ranks No. 123 on the FBS active career tackles leader rankings in his three seasons, which is only second to Red Raiders' safety Marquis Waters (No. 37, 299 tackles in six seasons).

■ Merriweather set a single game career-high in tackles with 17 in his performance at Oklahoma State. It marked the most stops by a Red Raider since Jordyn Brooks notched 19 versus the Cowboys in 2019. The senior performance is one of 32 individual performances in the FBS this season in which 17-plus tackles were recorded in a single game.

FIGURING IT OUT

■ It was a slow start for outside linebacker Jesiah Pierre to start the 2022 season, recording five tackles over the first five games of the year. But it's clicking now. Entering the season, Pierre had never played outside linebacker before in his career. He'd been an inside linebacker over his past three seasons of collegiate football.

■ In a three-game span (at TCU, vs. Kansas, at Iowa State), the transfer from Florida racked up 18 tackles, 6.0 tackles for loss and 3.5 sacks. Pierre exited the season finale versus Oklahoma early with an injury and had two tackles at the time.

■ His 2022 season numbers over 12 games are 38 tackles, 7.0 tackles for loss and 4.5 sacks.

■ Pierre recorded a career-high 2.5 TFLs at No. 7 TCU (Nov. 5).

■ Pierre had a season-high six pressures at No. 7 TCU, according to Pro Football Focus.

■ Pierre recorded a career-high seven tackles and career-high 2.0 sacks versus Kansas (Nov. 12).

■ Late season highlights include a strip-sack of Kansas' Jason Bean (Pierre's first career forced fumble) at the Jayhawks' own eight-yard line in the fourth quarter to help extend an 8-point lead to 15 late in the game. At Iowa State, Pierre recorded a TFL on 4th and 1 from the Tech 2-yard line to help Tech retain a slim 7-3 lead.

■ Pierre has two seasons of eligibility remaining; his senior season in 2023 plus should he opt to take it and an additional year of eligibility due to the 2020 Covid season.

THE RIGHT FIT

■ Known for his versatility throughout his Texas Tech career, fifth-year senior Kosi Eldridge has found his place on the Red Raider defense as its starting "Will" Linebacker (weak-side linebacker). Eldridge, in his third season as a Red Raider, was utilized in multiple linebacker spots and a hybrid defensive back role in 2020, and as a defensive back in 2021, but was shifted to weak-side linebacker in fall camp and earned the starting job.

■ Eldridge ranks second on the team in total tackles this season with 82 after the Red Raiders' 12 game regular-season schedule.

■ Eldridge's senior season tackles total accounts for 82 if his 113 career FBS tackles. He entered the 2022 season with 31 career tackles over his previous three seasons with the Red Raiders.

■ Over the last four games of the regular season, Eldridge had a 12 tackle performance versus Baylor and a career-best 14 tackles versus Oklahoma.

■ Eldridge's 12 tackles versus Baylor were all solo stops. It remains ranked as tied for the fifth-best performance in the FBS this season entering the postseason. He and 15 others are responsible for 12 solo stops or better in 2022.

■ One of his most stops may have been his first sack since 2020 on a 3rd-and-4 from the TTU15 on Sept. 10 that set Houston back 15 yards and forced an attempted 47-yard field goal that was missed on 4th and 19 late in the third quarter.

■ Because why not? With everything else going Eldridge's way in 2022, he registered his first career interception in the second quarter against Kansas. Postgame he said it was the first time since his high school career at Denton Ryan he got his hands on the ball.

WATCH OUT! THE DEFENSE IS BEHIND THE LINE OF SCRIMMAGE

■ With 83 team tackles for loss in the regular season, the Red Raiders have the opportunity in the Texas Bowl to record the most TFLs in a single season in the last 10 seasons (2013) with one TFL or the last 20 seasons with 11 versus Ole Miss.

■ Texas Tech ranks No. 20 in the FBS in TFLs per game with 6.9. Texas Tech's 83.0 TFLs are the 17th-most in the FBS among teams that have played 12 or less games (no conference championships).

THIS-N-THAT

- If Texas Tech holds its current scoring defense mark (29.5/ppg) after the Texas Bowl, it would be the first time a Tech defense registered as season allowing under 30 points per game since 2009 (22.6/ppg).
- In its seven wins this season, 11 of Texas Tech's 13 takeaways were registered.
- Texas Tech has blocked four kicks this season, ranking tied for ninth-best in the FBS. The four blocks tie for the most in a season for the Red Raiders during the Big 12 era with the 2000 and 2020 squads, respectively. Tech has never had five in this time period.
- Texas Tech enters the Texas Bowl averaging 248.1 passing yards allowed per game, which is on pace to be its lowest clip since 2013 when the Red Raiders surrendered 217.1 yards per contest through the air.
- Three Red Raiders recorded double-digit tackles in its contest versus Baylor (Kosi Eldridge-12, Krishon Merriweather-12, Tyree Wilson-10). It was the first time since Nov. 7, 2015 at West Virginia that three players (Micah Awe, D'Bonta Hinton, Jah'Shawn Johnson) posted double-digit tackles in the same game.
- The Red Raiders' defense recorded season highs in 2022 for tackles for loss (10) and sacks (4) versus an FBS team at TCU -- Tech posted 13.0 TFLs and four sacks in its season opener versus FCS Murray State. It was the most tackles for loss for the Red Raider defense versus a Big 12 team since recording 12 versus Kansas on Dec. 5, 2020.

RED ZONE BUSTERS

- Texas Tech limited its opponents in the red zone to converting 11-of-23 (47.8%) times over the last four games of the season, vaulting the Red Raiders' FBS ranking from No. 125 to No. 9 over that four week span.
- The Red Raiders' red zone defense went from being ranked No. 125 in the FBS after their eighth game versus Baylor, up to No. 84 after holding TCU to 3-for-6 on its trips to the red zone, climbed to No. 45 after holding Kansas to 3-for-6 on its trips to the red zone and all the way up to No. 14 after holding Iowa State 1-for-5. Oklahoma converted on four of its six trips to the red zone that aided the Red Raiders to move into the FBS Top 10 for red zone defense.
- Opponents are converting at an 73.6 clip (39-of-53) in the red zone against Texas Tech, which is No. 1 in the Big 12.
- While no points are obviously the preference, Texas Tech has been holding opponents to field goals as much as any team in the nation. In fact, 16 of Tech's 39 opponent red zone conversions have been field goals, which is one FG short of the national lead 17.
- With Texas Tech's aggressive nature on fourth downs, the philosophy to hold opponents to just a field goal is part of Joey McGuire and Tim DeRuyter's challenge to the defense to "put out the fire."

STAR OF THE SHOW

- Marquis Waters, a defensive back that plays the "STAR" in DeRuyter's system, ranks second on the team in tackles for loss with 12.5, only trailing first round NFL Draft pick hopeful Tyree Wilson's 14.0.
- Waters 12.5 TFLs this season currently leads all defensive backs nationally.
- Waters 12.5 TFLs rank as the most by a Red Raider defensive back dating back to the 2000 season.
- Waters has registered at least 0.5 tackles for loss in 10-straight games and has recorded at least one full TFL in 8 of the last 9 games.
- The sixth-year senior recorded a career-high 3.0 tackles for loss on Oct. 22 against West Virginia. It was the first time since Oct. 6, 2012 that a Texas Tech defensive back posted 3.0 TFLs or better as he joined Cornelius Douglas' performance vs. Oklahoma. He's the only other DB to do so since 2000.
- Four different Red Raiders have registered games with 3.0 TFLs or better this season. Philip Blidi (Gm. 1 vs. Murray State), Tyree Wilson (Gm. 3 vs. NC State), Waters (Gm. 7 vs. West Virginia) and Tony Bradford Jr. (Gm. 8 vs. Baylor).

FORCE(S) UP FRONT

- With Jaylon Hutchings' last start in the regular season finale, the staple of the front line made his team leading 45th-consecutive start for the Red Raiders.
- Hutchings is the third highest-graded interior defensive lineman (84.0) by Pro Football Focus in the Big 12 this season, and this ninth-highest graded interior linemen from a Power Five program. He is one of four in the Big 12 that owns a grade above 80.0 and one of 18 Power Five interior lineman above 80.0 this season.
- Among down-linemen, the nose tackle owns a team-best 44 tackles. He sports the seventh-most tackles on the team.
- Not many defensive linemen in college football have a carry on their career stat sheet, let alone three. Hutchings can proudly boast he might be the rare exception, however, as he was used on two offensive snaps during the regular season finale against Oklahoma. On the first play he was targeted on a pass attempt that was out of his reach but on the very next play Hutchings rushed the ball for a 1-yard touchdown. He also totaled nine yards on the ground in 2019 as part of two fake punt attempts. Hutchings, a former running back despite his size at Forney High School, was included this summer on the annual "Freaks List" column by Bruce Feldman of The Athletic.
- Hutchings' classmate on the line Tony Bradford Jr., posted a career-high 3.0 TFLs against Baylor. It bested his 2.5 TFLs versus Kansas in 2020. The duo of Hutchings and Bradford have started 69 games and made 42.5 career TFLs and 18.5 career sacks AND both announced on Dec. 6 their intentions to return for one more season of football with the Red Raiders.

WHO DOESN'T LOVE A PAIR OF 6-3 CORNERS

- Also, who doesn't love a pair of 6-3 senior corners who have both elected to return for Super Senior season in 2023? Texas Tech certainly does as both Malik Dunlap and Rayshad Williams have announced their respective decisions to return the Red Raiders' backfield in 2023. Each will be sixth-year players next season.
- Both own similar journeys as both arrived at Texas Tech following three seasons elsewhere. Dunlap spent three seasons at N.C. State and has been at Tech the last two seasons while Williams experienced three seasons at UCLA before the last two at Texas Tech.
- The duo recieved postseason all-conference honors; Dunlap was named a second-team All-Big 12 player while Williams earned an honorable mention nod.
- Dunlap has used his size to be one the top pass defenders in the country in 2022 as he led the Big 12 with 11 pass breakups during the regular season and sits tied for 24th in the FBS in that category heading into bowl season.
- Dunlap started 10 of the 11 games he played in during his second season with the Red Raiders, an injury being the setback that kept him out of all 12 games.
- Meanwhile, Williams, who owns seven pass breakups for the season, had one of the top performances by a Red Raider in recent memory as he logged five pass breakups in a single game at No. 7 Oklahoma State. It was the most in a single game since Justis Nelson recorded five pass breakups on Oct. 25, 2014, at TCU.
- Williams leads the Red Raiders with 830 defensive snaps this season.
- Since not getting the start in his first career game as a Red Raider last year, Williams' has started the last 24 games in a row. It's the second longest streak on the defense and third longest on the team.
- While these two have plenty to be proud of swatting the ball away from receivers, Dunlap and Williams broke through in the same game (vs. West Virginia) with their first career interceptions, respectively.

AFCA GOOD WORKS TEAM

Texas Tech senior defensive lineman Tony Bradford Jr. has made it his mission since arriving on campus to better the community he now calls home. That determination earned him a significant honor this season as he has been named to the 2022 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team.

Bradford is one of 11 student-athletes from the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) and 11 more from the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS), Division II, Division III and NAIA ranks as well as one honorary head coach to make up the final roster of 23 award recipients from across college football on the Good Works Team. He is the only Big 12 student-athlete named to the prestigious team.

Bradford becomes the fourth Red Raider student-athlete all-time to be recognized on the Good Works Team, joining the likes of Brian Duncan (2008), Montae Reagor (1998) and Dane Johnson (1997). Former head coach Matt Wells was previously the honorary head coach on the 2021 team.

Over his four years on campus, Bradford has been a vocal proponent in getting the Red Raiders active in the Lubbock community on a regular basis and also seeking positive change throughout West Texas.

Bradford is the driving force behind a Texas Tech football program that has committed more than 2,000 hours of community service the past two years alone, contributing to visits to local elementary and junior high schools, the Ronald McDonald House, the Texas Boys Ranch, South Plains Food Bank, Habitat for Humanity, Burgers and Badges and area children's homes.

Possibly his biggest impact has been felt on the youth of tomorrow as Bradford regularly meets with local youth athletes to encourage them to be a positive example for their community. Following the murder of George Floyd, Bradford helped organize community cleanups and voter registration drives in East Lubbock not far from the Texas Tech campus. While there, he was able to encourage and ultimately brighten the day of many underserved youth in East Lubbock through pick-up basketball games and various other activities. Bradford also helped organize peace walks on the Texas Tech campus and in East Lubbock to promote injustice issues and need for peace in communities.

In addition to his role in the community, Bradford has taken steps to advance his future career in law enforcement by serving as a security guard with the Texas Tech Police Department. Bradford, who lists becoming a police chief as his goal after football, has worked with the police department each of the past three springs to gain valuable knowledge of the profession. Thus, during the spring, Bradford will often go from a morning workout, to a class to potentially riding along with a member of the Texas Tech police department to protect his peers on campus.

He regularly worked Texas Tech's home basketball events, assisting with traffic control and in-venue security. His future work in law enforcement stems from his desire to not only help others but also to "be the change in the community." In his words, for society to change for the better, it will take leaders like himself to be part of that positive change.

The respect Bradford has gained off the field has led to a bigger voice for important topics on campus and within the Big 12 Conference. Bradford is a longtime member of the Texas Tech Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and was selected this year to represent the university as part of the Big 12 Champions for Life campaign. With that, he was able to attend the Big 12's annual meetings this May as a student-athlete voice and to also be recognized for his work in the community. Bradford was previously selected this past fall as one of two Big 12 representatives on the NCAA Division I Football Oversight Committee Student-Athlete Connection Group.

AN ALL-TIMER

Senior punter Austin McNamara has firmly cemented his name in the program's record book as one of the best to have ever done it at Texas Tech. The senior punter started the 2022 season at the top of all three major punting categories in school history - career average leader (46.3), single-season average leader (48.2), and longest punt (87) in a game - and remains on top entering game No. 13 of his fourth season.

McNamara not only leads the way in the Texas Tech record book, but the Big 12 record book as well. It started with the longest boot by any Big 12 player in league history when he launched an 87-yard punt on Oct. 24, 2020 in Lubbock versus West Virginia. His career average entering the 2022 season (46.3) was the highest of any Big 12 player before him, and McNamara remains in the hunt to get the top spot back.

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTEBOOK

MORE ON MCNAMARA...

- Punter Austin McNamara entered the 2022 season with the top career average (46.3) in the FBS among career active leaders with at least a minimum of 100 career punts. That average has dropped to 45.8 but he remains in the Top 5 with the fifth-best career average among all FBS punters. The average has slightly dipped due to his 44.4 yards per punt average after the 12-game regular season.
- While McNamara currently owns his lowest season average since his freshman year, the 44.4 average would still rank eighth on the all-time single season average Top 10 at Texas Tech and it ranks as the 20th-best average in the FBS for the 2022 season.
- McNamara set the program record for single season punting average (48.2) in 2021 after booting 42 punts for 2,023 yards. It smashed the Tech single-season record of 46.8 that was set by Mark Bounds in 1991. He is the only Red Raider with two of the top-five punting averages currently in the school record book.
- By bombing eight punts of at least 50 yards in a single game, McNamara set a new single game FBS record on Nov. 20, 2021 against Oklahoma State. The performance broke the previous FBS record of seven that was set by Colorado's Mark Mariscal in a 2002 home game against Southern California. McNamara averaged 56.4 yards per punt overall against the Cowboys, which finished just shy of the Texas Tech single-game record of 57.0 yards an attempt that was set by Alex Reyes in a 2004 win versus Baylor (only three attempts).
- For games that included nine or more punts, McNamara's 56.4 average ranked as the second-best performance in all of FBS football in 2021 behind San Diego State's Matt Araiza's 56.8 average (nine attempts) in a home game against New Mexico State. It marked the third-highest for any punter with at least nine attempts in a game dating back to 2000, trailing only the clips from Wake Forest's Dom Maggio in a 2019 contest at Clemson (57.7) and Araiza and his 56.8 average versus New Mexico State.
- McNamara set social media on fire midway through the 2020 season with his booming 87-yard punt against West Virginia, which marked the longest by an FBS kicker since 2017 and the longest in Texas Tech and Big 12 history. McNamara broke the Texas Tech single-game record for the longest punt that was previously set by R.W. Moyers in 1945 against West Texas State. Moyers launched an 85-yard punt in the win, which is the only other punt of 80 yards or longer in school history.

SPECIAL SEASON FOR WOLFF

- Senior kicker Trey Wolff finished the regular season as one of the most accurate kickers the FBS, converting 18-of-21 (85.7) attempts with some memorable kicks that won't be forgotten around Lubbock for a long time as his foot propelled the Red Raiders to wins against both Texas and Oklahoma in 2022.
- Wolff has been perfect in 2022 on kicks inside 39 yards, converting 12-of-12. He is 4-of-7 from 40-49 and perfect from 50-plus going 2-of-2 on a pair of 51-yard kicks (career-long).
- Wolff has converted on 11-straight kicks dating back to Oct. 8, should he extend that streak at the Texas Bowl he could potentially set or tie the school record for consecutive makes which is 13. That record is held by two Red Raiders which includes last year's kicker, Jonathan Garibay, who unseated Wolff for primary duties in 2021, as well as Clayton Hatfield in 2018.
- Wolff sits in solo third for the most single season makes in program history with 18 in 2022. Coincidentally, of the two leaders in front of him, one is his own 2019 season mark of 20 while the top spot is owned by Ryan Bustin who made 23 field goals in 2013.
- For his career, Wolff ranks No. 8 at Texas Tech for career field goals with 39 (39-of-48). Wolff started his career very strong, going 20-for-22 on field goals in 2019, ranking him as one of the most accurate kickers in the country. He became only the second Tech player since 2000 to record a field goal percentage of 90.0 or higher (90.9), joining then-school-record holder Clayton Hatfield (92.9 percent) from 2016. Wolff went 1-for-5 in 2020 and did not attempt a field goal in 2021.
- Wolff played hero three times this season (vs. Houston, Texas, Oklahoma). He put a then-career-long 47-yarder between the uprights with 0:03 remaining on the game clock to push the Houston contest into the first of two overtime periods. Versus the Longhorns, Wolff connected on a 45-yard try with 0:21 left in regulation to give Texas Tech a 34-31 lead. Texas' kicker countered to tie the game, but it was Wolff who hit the game-winning 20-yard field goal in overtime to win the game. His last kick in Lubbock, a 35-yard field goal, pushed Texas Tech past Oklahoma in overtime.
- At K-State, Wolff closed the first half with a career-long 51 yarder; at home vs. Kansas he again closed the half with a 51-yarder.
- Wolff connected for his first field goal since Nov. 7, 2020, a 25-yarder, in the first qtr. against Houston on Sept. 10.
- Wolff announced on Dec. 6 he will forego his final season of eligibility to pursue a professional career in the NFL following the Red Raiders' appearance in the TaxAct Texas Bowl. Gino Garcia, meanwhile, transferred to Texas Tech from Houston Baptist prior to the 2022 season and will be in line for duties in 2023. Garcia was a 2021 first-team honoree on the All-Southland Conference team.

HEAD COACH JOEY MCGUIRE

There's been a key ingredient to Joey McGuire's success throughout his career: authentic relationships.

It's the reason he became beloved as a high school coach, leading Cedar Hill to three state championships despite inheriting a program that had never won a playoff game prior to his promotion. It's also why he was so successful in transitioning to the collegiate level, helping rebuild a Baylor program that turned into a Big 12 contender during his tenure.

Now, McGuire will look to do the same at Texas Tech where he enters his first season as head coach. McGuire, a 2020 inductee into the Texas High School Coaches Association Hall of Honor and a 2022 member of the Texas High School Football Hall of Fame, was named the 17th head coach in program history by Director of Athletics Kirby Hocutt on Nov. 9, 2021.

In the short time since his hire, it hasn't taken long to quickly see McGuire's extensive ties to the state of Texas at work as Texas Tech has already established itself as the unofficial home to the Texas High School Coaches Association (THSCA). Those ties have already paid dividends early in his tenure as McGuire and his staff were able to sign an impressive 2022 class that ranked in the top-40 nationally. It marked the highest-ranked recruiting class for the Red Raiders since the 2012 class.

Texas Tech's success on the recruiting trail has stemmed, in part, due to the relationships McGuire has formed throughout the state through his connections with the THSCA. It can also be contributed to the charter staff he assembled shortly after his hire, namely with several successful assistant coaches who, like McGuire, began their careers at the high school level.

McGuire created one of the most-memorable turnaround stories in Texas high school football history during his 14 seasons leading Cedar Hill. The Longhorns not only won at a high level under McGuire, but they transformed into one of the state's most dominant programs with its first state title in 2006 and then back-to-back state crowns in 2013 and 2014.

Cedar Hill was an impressive 141-42 during McGuire's tenure, going from an unknown to a state champion in only his fourth season as head coach. The Longhorns' dynasty featured 12-consecutive playoff appearances, nine bi-district titles and seven district crowns under McGuire, including another appearance in the state title game in 2012 where Cedar Hill fell to Katy.

McGuire, at only the age of 31, was promoted to head coach at Cedar Hill prior to the 2003 season following six seasons as an assistant coach. Cedar Hill had not recorded a winning season in the eight years prior to his promotion, a streak he quickly ended with a 6-4 campaign in his debut. McGuire was previously an assistant coach at his alma mater, Crowley High School, during the 1995 and 1996 seasons prior to his move to Cedar Hill.

The back-to-back state titles provided McGuire with several opportunities to depart for the collegiate level, a move he wouldn't make until after the 2016 season when Matt Rhule contacted him shortly after his hire as the new head coach at Baylor. Needing someone with extensive ties throughout the state of Texas, Rhule hired McGuire initially as his tight ends coach. The move was perfect timing for McGuire, who had remained at Cedar Hill to coach his son, Garret, for his final two seasons.

Baylor reached bowl eligibility three times with McGuire on staff and were in the midst of an eventual run to the Big 12 crown and a second appearance in the Allstate Sugar Bowl when McGuire was tabbed as Texas Tech's new head coach late in the 2021 season. McGuire served as Baylor's associate head coach during each of his final three seasons as he oversaw three different position groups during his tenure: tight ends (2017-18), defensive ends (2019) and outside linebackers (2020-21).

Following his success helping rebuild the Baylor program, Texas Tech was an ideal fit for McGuire, whose daughter, Raegan, was a recent graduate of the university. McGuire had visited Lubbock numerous times previously either to see his daughter or earlier in life when several life-long friends attended the university. McGuire likes to say he would have attended Texas Tech, himself, had he not met his wife, Debbie. He eventually earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from the University of Texas at Arlington in 1995.

The couple's two children are also highly successful in their own walks of life as Garret is entering his third season as a member of the Carolina Panthers coaching staff. He was previously a quarterback at Baylor from 2017-20 before joining the coaching profession. Raegan, meanwhile, is a fashion designer for AMUR in New York City. She is engaged to her fiancé, Joe Tocco.

INSIDE JOEY MCGUIRE & THE BRAND

THE BRAND

The core tenant of the Texas Tech football program under McGuire revolves around The Brand, which stands for his desire that the Red Raiders become the "toughest, hardest-working, most-competitive team in the country." On his final interview for the Texas Tech position, McGuire described his vision for the Red Raider program using The Brand, which President Lawrence Schovanec said "describes West Texas."

THE HALL OF FAMER

There likely isn't a power-five football program in the state of Texas with better ties to its high school coaches than at Texas Tech as McGuire hired five members of his charter coaching staff that have ties to the Texas High School Coaches Association. McGuire, himself, is already a legend at the prep level as a member of the THSCA Hall of Honor and the Texas High School Football Hall of Fame.

COVER GUY

McGuire received one of the highlights of his career this past summer as he graced the cover of Dave Campbell's Texas Football alongside longtime friend and UTSA head coach Jeff Traylor. The publication, dubbed the football Bible of Texas, documented McGuire and Taylor's rise from state champion high school coaches to successful collegiate head coaches with the appropriate title, "Forged on Fridays."

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING...

■ Bob Stoops, former Oklahoma head football coach

"I believe this is an awesome hire, I've known Joey a long time, since my first couple of years here going to recruit down in the Dallas area. He's always run a first class program, always very positive and was always close and connected with his players. The players love playing for him. I think football is relative and you do a great job, at whatever level you're playing, I think there is no reason you can't do it at a different level. He got great experience being at Baylor for the last 5 years, being with Matt Rhule, who I think is a heck of a coach. The same thing with Dave Aranda, who's doing a great job in his second year [at Baylor]. He's been influenced by two head coaches that have had really strong success. I believe that Joey is a person that connects, motivates players, and he will connect with the community and high school coaches around the state of Texas. I think he will do a great job."

■ Matt Rhule, Nebraska head coach, former HC at Baylor

"I think he will be unbelievable ushering in a new era at Tech. I think that he's one in a million. There are not many people like Joey McGuire as a person, as a coach. I think that there's not ever going to be a bad day ever in that facility, those players are going to be developed, they're going to be loved, they're going to be honed, they're going to be developed in every aspect of their life. He's going to bring excitement to all West Texas, especially to Lubbock. For Red Raider Nation I think he's absolutely going to be a bolt of energy, throughout the entire athletic department and you guys are going to play really good football too."

■ Kim Mulkey, LSU head women's basketball coach

"I am so happy for Joey. Not only is he a great coach, he has the people skills to recruit. He is well connected to the Texas high school coaches. Texas Tech will love him and his wife, Debbie and their two children."

■ Mack Brown, North Carolina head football coach

"I'm thrilled Coach McGuire is receiving this opportunity at Texas Tech because he's earned it. He was a great high school coach during my time at Texas and it doesn't surprise me at all that he's worked his way to a head coaching position in the Big 12. He's a smart, innovative coach, who brings deep ties to Texas high school football with him to Lubbock. I've always admired him, and if I had a son, I would want him to play for Coach McGuire. I think Texas Tech made a smart decision here and Coach McGuire will do an excellent job for them."

■ Joe Martin, Executive Director of THSCA

"I am very proud and excited for Joey on being selected the next head football coach at Texas Tech. He is a homegrown product starting as a player at Crowley and working his way up the ranks to head coach at Cedar Hill and eventually as associate head coach at Baylor. He is a past member of the THSCA Board of Directors and has many friends in the high school coaching community across the state. Joey is as good as they come as a coach and we wish him the best!"

■ Glen West, Assistant Executive Director of THSCA

"Joey is one of our own. He is a personable friend to many. In the world we live in today where fewer and fewer coaches have fewer communication with college coaches than in the past, this is a refreshing change. We feel there will be an open dialogue with all the high school coaches in the state, and he will get our full support. Joey is never too busy for you. He's the same guy he was at Baylor as he was when he was the head coach at Cedar Hill High School. Parents will love him. Players will love him. It's going to be a fun time. We are over the top excited for his hire at Texas Tech."

THE UNOFFICIAL HOME OF THE THSCA

Since his hire as Texas Tech's head coach, Joey McGuire has made it a point to brand the Red Raiders the "unofficial home of the Texas High School Coaches Association." Already a Hall of Famer, himself, McGuire hired a charter staff filled with experience at both the collegiate and high school levels with five assistant coaches who have previous ties to the THSCA as well as a slew of support staff members.

FIRST YEAR SUCCESS UNDER MCGUIRE

■ The 98th season of Texas Tech Football featured a new look on the sidelines this fall with the start of the Joey McGuire era as the 17th head coach in program history. Below is a list of facts related to McGuire's successful start as Texas Tech's head coach.

■ McGuire became the eighth head coach in program history to lead the Red Raiders to a bowl game in his debut season following Texas Tech's win over Iowa State. The win over Oklahoma, meanwhile, helped him become the 12th head coach in program history to lead the Red Raiders to a winning record in his first year.

■ McGuire led the Red Raiders to a 5-4 record in Big 12 play, becoming the first head coach to notch a winning conference record (above .500) in his debut season since David McWilliams did so in 1986.

■ The success the Red Raiders had in Big 12 play pushed Texas Tech to its most conference wins since 2009 and a fourth-place finish in the standings, its highest since the league went to a 10-team format in 2011. McGuire is the only head coach in program history to defeat both Texas and Oklahoma in the same year.

■ McGuire is the sixth head coach all-time to inherit a football program coming off a bowl appearance, joining the likes of Steve Sloan, Rex Dockery, Spike Dykes, Tommy Tuberville and Kliff Kingsbury. Of that group, McGuire joins Tuberville and Kingsbury in returning Texas Tech back to a bowl game during debut season.

■ Texas Tech is one of only two power-five schools in the state of Texas to return to a bowl game for a second-consecutive season, joining McGuire's former school in Baylor.

■ Of the head coaches in Texas Tech's history, McGuire resembles Dykes likely the best, not only for his charm and engaging personality but also his ties as a former high school head coach. Dykes spent a decade at the prep level with stops as an assistant in Eastland, Ballinger, San Angelo Central and then head coaching roles at Coahoma, Belton, Big Spring, Alice and Midland Lee.

RECRUITING SUCCESS UNDER MCGUIRE

■ Texas Tech has reaped the benefits of McGuire's ties to the state of Texas in the year following his hire as the Red Raiders have signed two of their best classes now in history. The 2022 class, boosted by McGuire's hiring in November 2021, was ranked as high as 39th nationally by Rivals, a steady improvement from its spot in the 70s prior to his hire.

■ Texas Tech is currently ranked in the top-25 nationally for the 2023 class by both 247Sports and Rivals. Texas Tech has signed 27 high school prospects and three transfers thus far for only its second top-25 signing class in history.

■ One of the key factors in Texas Tech's recruiting success was the hiring of James Blanchard as Director of Player Personnel. Blanchard, who flew alongside McGuire to Lubbock as soon as he received the head coaching position, was recently named one of the top rising personnel and recruiting staffers in the country by the On3.com website. Blanchard received a two-year contract extension on Dec. 2, 2022.

CEDAR HILL CONNECTIONS

■ Joey McGuire made his name in the coaching profession during his 14 seasons leading Cedar Hill High School in the Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex. In his first season as Texas Tech's head coach, he'll have five former Cedar Hill standouts on his roster in super senior linebacker Dimitri Moore, redshirt freshman outside linebacker Charles Esters III and then three true freshmen in defensive lineman Harvey Dyson III, defensive lineman Syncere Massey and defensive back Jalon Peoples.

■ The draw of playing for McGuire was so large for Texas Tech's three true freshmen from Cedar Hill that all three committed the night McGuire was named the Red Raiders' new head coach. Their signing plus several other commitments following McGuire's hiring helped push Texas Tech to its best signing class since 2012.

■ Dimitri Moore is the only Red Raider on the 2022 roster who can actively say he knows exactly what it's like playing for McGuire. The sixth-year senior was on McGuire's final team at Cedar Hill in 2016 before embarking on a successful collegiate career with stops at Vanderbilt and Missouri State. Moore was a member of McGuire's final state championship team at Cedar Hill as a sophomore in 2014.

■ While he did not graduate from Cedar Hill, Jordan Brown attended the high school up until his senior year as he was a freshman when McGuire departed for Cedar Hill. His older brother, Laquionte Gonzalez, was on a Cedar Hill team under McGuire that played in the Class 6A state title game as a senior in 2012.

NOT THE ONLY COACH IN THE FAMILY

■ Turn on a television any weekend this fall and you could possibly see another McGuire roaming the sidelines as Garret McGuire is currently in his third season as an offensive assistant with the Carolina Panthers. Garret McGuire previously played under his father at quarterback at Cedar Hill High School before enjoying four years as a backup at Baylor.

TEXAS TECH ROUTS MISSISSIPPI STATE IN LIBERTY BOWL WIN

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Donovan Smith threw for 252 yards and a touchdown and ran for another score, and Texas Tech beat Mississippi State 34-7 in the Liberty Bowl on Tuesday night.

Tahj Brooks rushed for 107 yards and a touchdown and SaRodorick Thompson ran for 80 yards and a score for the Red Raiders (7-6), who finished with a winning record for the first time since 2015. They were appearing in their first bowl game since 2017.

Mississippi State (7-6) fell short in coach Mike Leach's first game against a former program of his. Leach, who went 84-43 at Texas Tech from 2000-09, fell short in his bid to become the first Bulldogs coach to end each of his first two seasons with a bowl victory. Mississippi State was playing in its 12th straight bowl game.

Red Raiders interim head coach Sonny Cumbie, a former player at Texas Tech under Leach, ended his five-game run with a 2-3 record. Cumbie, who is departing to become Louisiana Tech's coach, took over for Matt Wells in October.

Leach's prolific offense never could get rolling against the Red Raiders and the resulting lopsided loss dropped the Southeastern Conference to 0-4 in the postseason. The Bulldogs were held scoreless in the second half and finished with 344 yards, 105 below their average.

Texas Tech put the game out of reach with two third-quarter touchdowns. Smith scored on a 1-yard run to cap a 95-yard drive, the Red Raiders' second-longest of the season. Smith, who was named the game's MVP, completed passes of 39 and 52 yards during the drive. He added a 14-yard touchdown pass to J.J. Sparkman with 2 seconds remaining in the quarter. Thompson scored his touchdown on a 1-yard run midway through the final quarter for a 34-7 lead.

Texas Tech established the run at the outset, gaining 145 yards in the first quarter and using its physical play to take a 10-0 lead. The Red Raiders moved 75 yards — all on the ground — on the game's opening possession, scoring on a 19-yard run by Brooks. Texas Tech added a 31-yard field goal by Jonathan Garibay later in the quarter.

Mississippi State answered on its next series with Will Rogers converting on third-and-11 on the Red Raiders 38 to extend the drive. Rogers evaded a strong rush before finding Jo'quavious Marks for 18 yards to the 20. Two plays later, Rogers fired a 17-yard scoring pass to Rara Thomas.

The Red Raiders took advantage of a Bulldogs miscue in the closing seconds of the half to go up 13-7. Mississippi State punt returner Austin Williams muffed a Texas Tech punt inside the Bulldogs 20-yard line and Jake Bishop recovered at the 14 with 31 seconds remaining. Garibay added a 26-yard field goal with 13 seconds left. Mississippi State was held to 126 yards in the first half. Rogers, averaging 372 yards passing per game, managed 103 yards on 10-of-17 passing in the half and finished with 290.

TEXAS TECH ROUTS MURRAY STATE 63-10 IN MCGUIRE'S DEBUT

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) — Donovan Smith came off the bench to throw four touchdown passes, Tajh Brooks ran for three scores and Texas Tech blew out lower-division Murray State 63-10 in coach Joey McGuire's debut Saturday night.

Smith had scoring tosses on his first two passes after replacing Tyler Shough in the first half. McGuire indicated he planned to play both, but said at halftime Shough was injured and probably wouldn't return. Shough was on the sideline in the second half with a sling on his left (non-throwing) shoulder.

Brooks finished with 50 yards and scoring runs of 14, 3 and 23 yards, the last giving the Red Raiders a 42-10 lead late in the first half on the way to their 23rd consecutive victory in a home opener.

Texas Tech's first meeting with Murray State and 20th consecutive victory over an FCS opponent was similar to the lower-division matchups from 2010-19, when the average margin of victory was 40 points.

McGuire, a lifelong Texan who was a Baylor assistant the past five years after winning three Texas high school state championships, didn't have to worry for long about becoming the fifth consecutive Texas Tech coach since 2000 to win his opener.

Murray State quarterback DJ Williams, the Ohio Valley Conference freshman of the year last season, sustained an apparent right leg injury on the final play of the first half.

Williams was scrambling before setting up to throw with the Racers trying to get a touchdown as time ran out before the break, and his right leg buckled as he lost control of the ball and crumpled to the turf. Williams was helped off the field, unable to put any pressure on his right leg.

Loic Fouonji and Jerand Bradley had two touchdown catches apiece. Fouonji opened the scoring on a 30-yard catch from Shough before Smith's first TD toss, a 30-yarder to Bradley.

Fouonji's 39-yard catch from Smith gave Texas Tech a 28-10 lead early in the second quarter, and Bradley's 14-yard scoring grab made it 56-10 early in the third.

Bradley, a sophomore, had his first career 100-yard game with 108 yards on six catches, and Fouonji finished with four catches for 77 yards.

Smith was 14 of 16 for 221 yards without an interception before getting replaced by Behren Morton in the third quarter. Shough was 6 of 10 for 154 yards as Texas Tech finished with 472 yards passing and 605 total.

SMITH'S HEROICS IN 2ND OT PUSH TECH PAST NO. 25 HOUSTON

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) — Donovan Smith put Texas Tech at risk of losing with his arm. The sophomore quarterback rescued the Red Raiders with his legs.

Smith ran 9 yards for a touchdown in the second overtime, lifting Texas Tech to a 33-30 victory over No. 25 Houston on Saturday.

A back-and-forth finish ended with the Red Raiders (2-0) beating a ranked nonconference opponent in the regular season for the first time since 1989, a span of 14 games.

It was the last meeting between the former Southwest Conference rivals before they become league foes again when the Cougars move from the American Athletic to the Big 12 next year.

After Houston's Bubba Baxa opened the second OT with a 20-yard field goal, Smith broke into the open field and ran untouched to the end zone, sending Texas Tech students and fans streaming onto the field.

Baxa kicked a go-ahead 35-yard field goal with 37 seconds remaining in regulation after Gervarrius Owens returned Smith's third interception to the Texas Tech 21 in the final two minutes.

Smith answered with a 27-yard scramble on the next play, sparking a drive to a tying 47-yard field goal from Trey Wolff with three seconds to go. Wolff replaced Gino Garcia, who missed from 45 earlier in the fourth quarter.

"It's always what coach (Joey) McGuire preached, you could look at this game and that's exactly what he said, 'What's next?'" said Smith, who threw for 351 yards with three picks and six sacks that cut his rushing total from 86 to 28 yards.

"That's something I did this game. Everyone on the sideline was encouraging and, 'Hey, what's next? We got this, we don't got to worry about nothing.'"

The Cougars (1-1) erased a 17-3 halftime deficit, getting even early in the fourth quarter when Jayce Rogers stepped in front of a pass from Smith and returned it 54 yards for a TD. Still, Houston's 12-game regular-season winning streak ended.

Houston had 11 penalties for 121 yards, including two personal fouls on the same possession that twice let the Red Raiders keep the ball when the Cougars would have taken possession in the first half.

TEXAS TECH FALLS AT NO. 16 NC STATE, 27-14

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) -- Aydan White returned one of his two interceptions 84 yards for a touchdown to lead a strong defensive effort that carried No. 16 North Carolina State past Texas Tech, 27-14 on Saturday night.

Facing the Bowl Subdivision's top passing offense, N.C. State's veteran defense harassed quarterback Donovan Smith and shut down any ground game the Red Raiders tried to muster. The highlight was White's fourth-down pick of Smith's overthrown second-quarter ball, with White taking the interception down the left side with three teammates sprinting to escort him all the way to the end zone.

White also had a sack on a cornerback blitz, one of four for the Wolfpack (3-0). Jakeen Harris came up with a fourth-down interception near midfield with 8:38 left as Texas Tech (2-1) tried to make a late push.

The defensive effort offset a shaky day by the Wolfpack's offense, which had its own troubles with stalled drives and score-negating mistakes. Demie Sumo-Karngbaye — who lost a sure TD catch when he was stripped near the goal line and fumbled out of the end zone — scored twice, the second on a 38-yard catch off a trick-play pass from Thayer Thomas for a 27-7 lead early in the fourth.

Smith ran and threw for scores to lead the Red Raiders, as his 3-yard keeper cut the deficit to 27-14. But after Texas Tech forced a three-and-out to get the ball back, Smith fired incomplete on three straight passes before Harris picked him off over the middle to keep the Wolfpack in control.

The Red Raiders elevated expectations for first-year coach Joey McGuire, whose team was picked to finish ninth in the 10-team Big 12 but upset a ranked Houston team last weekend. The defense made things difficult on the Wolfpack. But the team didn't get its offense going until falling behind and lost a muffed punt to go with its three picks.

N.C. State: Much of the attention has focused on the presence of preseason Atlantic Coast Conference player of the year Devin Leary at quarterback. But the defense that returned 10 starters from a unit that ranked 14th in FBS in scoring defense (19.7) and 21st in total defense (331.6 yards) carried this win as N.C. State managed 270 total yards. Lineman C.J. Clark had two sacks while the Wolfpack smothered the Red Raiders' rushing game by allowing 54 yards on 26 carries.

Texas Tech linebacker Bryce Ramirez was carted off in the first quarter with a serious leg injury. He was injured when teammates tackled Wolfpack running back Jordan Houston, with the pile rolling over Ramirez's left leg that was planted in the turf. The leg was twisted abnormally as he laid on the grass, with team training staffers using a towel to cover the lower left leg as they began treating him. He was later taken to a hospital trauma center.

WOLFF OVERTIME FIELD GOAL PUSHES TEXAS TECH PAST NO. 22 TEXAS, 37-34

LUBBOCK, Texas – Texas Tech fans flooded the field in celebration for the second straight home game after Trey Wolff drilled a 20-yard field goal for a 37-34 overtime win over No. 22 Texas on Saturday at a sold-out Jones AT&T Stadium.

The Red Raiders (3-1, 1-0 Big 12) opened Big 12 play with the thrilling overtime victory over the Longhorns (2-2, 0-1 Big 12) after Wolff had given Tech a 34-31 lead with a 45-yard field goal with 21 seconds remaining in regulation. Texas drove down the field in three plays and hit a 48-yard field goal to force overtime but would see running back Bijan Robinson fumble after a hit by Krishon Merriweather on the first play of overtime. Reggie Pearson Jr., who had an interception earlier in the game, recovered the fumble to set Tech up to win the game.

Tech trailed 24-14 at halftime after the Longhorns scored two touchdowns in the final six minutes of the half. The Red Raiders had led 14-10 after a Smith touchdown pass to Brooks before Texas regained momentum to scored on its final two possessions. Smith threw for 104 yards and a touchdown on 18-for-23 passing in the first half along with rushing for one touchdown and running for 14 yards on three carries. Thompson led Tech with 35 yards rushing on nine rushes, while Brooks had 29 yards on five carries and Price had six receptions for 38 yards going into the second half. Texas had 229 of total offense in the first half led by Card who was 13-for-18 passing with 168 yards and one touchdown.

The Red Raiders trailed by 10 at the break after they had taken their first lead of the game at 14-10 after a 17-yard touchdown pass from Smith to Brooks with 12:06 remaining in the second quarter. The screen pass to the home sideline came on a 2nd and 10 and capped a 13-play, 83-yard drive.

Tech seemed to grab momentum with Pearson picking off a pass from Card at the 20 and returned it 25 yards to the Tech 45-yardline on the next possession. A three-and out by the Red Raiders was followed the Longhorns regaining the lead at 17-14 on a 39-yard connection between Card and Worthy with 6:07 remaining until halftime. The lead grew to 24-14 on an 8-yard touchdown run by Robinson with 24 seconds remaining in the opening half. Robinson's run had him at 44 yards rushing on six carries in the first half.

Both teams opened the game with first-drive touchdowns with Robinson hauling in a 35-yard touchdown pass from Card on the Longhorns opening possession followed by Smith running it in from 4 yards out for the first Red Raider touchdown. Smith's touchdown came on 4th and 5 to complete an 18-play, 75-yard drive. It was his third rushing touchdown of the season and sixth of his career.

TECH COMES UP SHORT AT NO. 25 K-STATE

MANHATTAN, Kan. (AP) -- Adrian Martinez rushed for 171 yards and three touchdowns and threw for another score, leading No. 25 Kansas State past Texas Tech 37-28 on Saturday.

Martinez was 12-for-19 passing for 116 yards for Kansas State (4-1, 2-0 Big 12), while Deuce Vaughn had 170 rushing yards for the Wildcats, who extended their winning streak against the Red Raiders to seven games. Donovan Smith was 34-for-48 passing for 359 yards and two TDs for Texas Tech (3-2, 1-1). Smith also rushed for a touchdown.

Tech cut the lead to 13-7 with 1:24 left in the first half. After gaining just 48 yards of total offense, the Red Raiders went 86 yards on nine plays, capped by a 6-yard touchdown pass from Smith to Nehemiah Martinez. Trey Wolff kicked a 51-yard field goal for Tech before the break, then tied the score at 20-20 with a 39-yard field goal midway through the third quarter.

K-State answered with its second two-play drive of the game. Vaughn ran 69 yards to the Tech 8-yard line on the first play after the kickoff. Following an offensive holding penalty, Martinez found Phillip Brooks with an 18-yard touchdown pass.

The lead didn't last long, as Smith hit Xavier White with a 12-yard touchdown pass to cap a seven-play, 75-yard drive. Wolff missed a 42-yard field goal, denying Tech its first lead of the game.

Martinez then scored on his second big run of the day, 69 yards untouched up the middle of the field. Tennant's 32-yard field goal gave the Wildcats a 30-20 lead with 9:07 left. A fumble on the next series gave K-State the ball at the Tech 27-yard line and the Wildcats iced the game with Martinez's third rushing touchdown.

Smith scored from 3 yards out for Tech's final touchdown with 2:23 left.

RED RAIDERS FALL AT NO. 7 OKLAHOMA STATE

STILLWATER, Okla. (AP) — Spencer Sanders ran for two touchdowns and passed for another and No. 7 Oklahoma State beat Texas Tech 41-31 on Saturday.

Sanders passed for 297 yards and ran for 56, and Bryson Green had five catches for a career-high 115 yards for the Cowboys (5-0, 2-0 Big 12). Texas Tech redshirt freshman Behren Morton got his first career start in place of Donovan Smith. He completed 39 of 62 passes for 379 yards and two touchdowns for the Red Raiders (3-3, 1-2).

Jerand Bradley caught eight passes for 119 yards and a touchdown and Trey Cleveland caught nine passes for 110 yards for a Texas Tech team that was playing its fifth straight ranked opponent and already had claimed wins over Houston and Texas. Morton completed 24 of 39 passes for 220 yards and both scores in the first half to help the Red Raiders take a 24-20 lead at the break. Tech gained 347 yards on 57 plays in the first two quarters.

Sanders rolled out and scored on a 2-yard touchdown run to trim Texas Tech's lead to 31-29 in the third. Sanders' shovel pass to Jaden Bray tied the score with 3:18 left in the third quarter. On Texas Tech's next possession, Morton made one of his few mistakes. Oklahoma State linebacker Mason Cobb intercepted him and returned the ball 13 yards to the Tech 19. Tanner Brown's fourth field goal of the game gave the Cowboys a 34-31 lead with 3 seconds left in the third quarter.

Texas Tech: The Red Raiders were again competitive against a top-flight opponent. It was just a matter of a few plays here and there. Tech's other losses were 27-14 at North Carolina State and 37-28 at Kansas State. Four of Tech's final six games are at home.

TECH CRUISES PAST WEST VIRGINIA, 48-10

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) — Behren Morton threw two touchdown passes, Tahj Brooks ran for two scores and Texas Tech used a fast start to beat West Virginia 48-10 on Saturday.

Coming off a bye week and playing in Lubbock for the first time in nearly a month, the Red Raiders (4-3, 2-2 Big 12) scored 17 points off of turnovers, broke a two-game losing streak and improved to 3-0 at home. Texas Tech seized control with touchdowns on its first two drives and the Red Raiders' high-tempo offense kept West Virginia off balance. Texas Tech surpassed 100 offensive plays, including 55 in the first half when it converted six of seven times on fourth down.

"I was proud of this team for bouncing back," Texas Tech coach Joey McGuire said. "I was really proud of the way they responded, how fast we played. I thought they showed what kind of shape our guys are in." Brooks had 17 carries for a season-high 107 yards, including first-quarter TD runs of 1 and 19 yards. Morton, a redshirt freshman, was solid again in his second straight start. He completed 28 of 45 passes for 325 yards after throwing for 379 two weeks ago in a loss at No. 11 Oklahoma State.

McGuire said Morton, who had been nursing a sore ankle, woke up sick on Saturday. McGuire said Morton's performance was a testament to the team's medical staff to get him ready to play. Upon learning that Morton was throwing up, McGuire recalled that head athletic trainer Andrew Krueger told him, "Well, he probably won't worry about his ankle today, so that's probably a good thing." "He gets an IV before the game and comes out and does everything we ask."

After Texas Tech's Malik Dunlap intercepted an underthrown ball on West Virginia's first drive of the third quarter, the Red Raiders' Xavier White caught a pass from Morton and weaved 37 yards through traffic for a 55-yard touchdown. White later had a 27-yard catch along the sideline to set up Morton's 12-yard scoring toss to Loic Fouonji for a 31-3 lead. White had eight catches for a career-high 139 yards.

Texas Tech entered the game with one of the worst turnover margins in the Bowl Subdivision. The Red Raiders intercepted three passes and recovered a CJ Donaldson fumble near midfield. After the fumble recovery, SaRodorick Thompson scored on a 13-yard run for a 38-10 lead to start the fourth.

Texas Tech kicked a short field goal after JT Daniels' career-high third interception. It marked the fifth road loss of at least 25 points for West Virginia under fourth-year coach Neal Brown.

TEXAS TECH DROPS HOME GAME TO BAYLOR

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) — Freshman Richard Reese ran for 148 yards and three touchdowns, AJ McCarty returned an interception for a score and Baylor beat Texas Tech 45-17 on Saturday night.

Second among NCAA freshmen in yards rushing coming in, Reese had 53 of the 75 yards on a drive to his tiebreaking 1-yard TD in the second quarter as Baylor (5-3, 3-2 Big 12) dominated time of possession. Baylor ended a 10-game losing streak in Lubbock while handing Texas Tech (4-4, 2-3) its first home loss under coach Joey McGuire, the lifelong Texan who was a Baylor assistant the past five seasons.

On a night Texas Tech celebrated star Kansas City quarterback Patrick Mahomes as its eighth ring of honor member, the Red Raiders ended up throwing five interceptions while trying all of their top three QBs. Tyler Shough entered trailing 31-17 in the fourth quarter for the first time since injuring his shoulder as the opening day starter, and McCarty stepped in front of his first pass and ran untouched 18 yards down the sideline. Freshman Behren Morton was 4 of 17 with two interceptions and three sacks after a pick in the first minute of the second half set up Blake Shapen's 9-yard TD pass to Hal Presley for a 24-3 Baylor lead.

Morton responded with two touchdowns, including his 8-yard run on fourth-and-7 to get Texas Tech within 24-17 after a fumble by Reese. The Red Raiders were up to four interceptions — three from Morton and another from Donovan Smith on one of his two passes when McGuire turned to Shough, who the coach said would be available next week.

Reese's third TD was a 1-yard plunge to cap an 11-play, 75-yard drive after the Red Raiders had pulled within seven.

Morton finished 11 of 33 for 152 yards and three interceptions. Shapen was much more efficient, going 19 of 30 for 211 yards with a TD and no interceptions.

TECH FALLS ON THE ROAD TO NO. 7 TCU

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) — Derius Davis returned the first punt 82 yards for a touchdown, Kendre Miller ran for the go-ahead score early in the fourth quarter and No. 7 TCU pulled away in a 34-24 victory over Texas Tech on Saturday.

Davis caught one of Max Duggan's two fourth-quarter TD passes as the Horned Frogs reached 9-0 for the first time since 2010, a 13-0 season that ended with a Rose Bowl victory and No. 2 national ranking.

The Red Raiders (4-5, 2-4) went ahead 17-13 in the third quarter on Tyler Shough's 33-yard touchdown pass to J.J. Sparkman, but ended up falling to 2-4 against ranked teams in coach Joey McGuire's first season. Defensive standout Tyree Wilson made the first big play for Texas Tech with a fourth-down tackle for loss when TCU was driving up 7-0 after Darius' return up the right sideline and back toward the middle.

Wilson, though, sparked the Horned Frogs' go-ahead drive with a facemask penalty when his sack of Duggan would have put TCU in third and long. A pass interference penalty in the end zone put the ball at the 2-yard line, and Miller extended his rushing TD streak to 10 games on the next play for a 20-17 lead.

Miller surpassed 100 yards rushing for the sixth time in seven games, finishing with a season-high 158 yards on 21 carries. Duggan was 12 of 23 for 195 yards without an interception, giving him 24 TDs and two picks. The Red Raiders started 3 of 3 on fourth down, but failed on consecutive possessions in their territory after Miller's TD, setting up Duggan's 23-yard scoring pass to Davis and a 16-yarder to Emari Demercado.

Freshman Behren Morton started strong for Texas Tech, going 7 of 10 with a 47-yard touchdown to Jerand Bradley. But he left with an lower left leg injury in the first half. Shough, the opening day starter who has missed most of the season with a shoulder injury, went 9 of 22 for 84 yards and had a short touchdown run late.

SHOUGH, RUSHING ATTACK LEADS TEXAS TECH PAST KANSAS

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) — Tyler Shough threw a touchdown pass and ran for a score and Texas Tech outlasted Kansas 43-28 on Saturday night.

Shough rushed for a 9-yard touchdown on the first play of the fourth quarter to give Texas Tech (5-5, 3-4 Big 12 Conference) a 33-21 lead. It was the first score by either team in the second half. Tahj Brooks sealed the victory with a 5-yard touchdown run with 3:33 remaining in the game. Four different Red Raiders scored four rushing touchdowns in the win.

Shough was 16-for-25 passing for 246 yards and a touchdown in his first start since the opening week of the season. Texas Tech totaled 506 yards of offense with 260 of them on the ground. The Red Raiders used a brief two-quarterback system with Shough and Donovan Smith. Smith rushed for a 6-yard touchdown on the opening drive where Shough was responsible for 57 of the 75 yards on the drive. SaRodorick Thompson Jr. rushed for 68 yards with a 36-yard touchdown for the Red Raiders. Mason Sharp caught a 1-yard touchdown pass from Shough to give the Red Raiders a 24-7 lead midway through the first half.

The Jayhawks managed to claw back to trail 27-21 at halftime on Jason Bean's 16-yard touchdown run and his 3-yard scoring toss to Devin Neel. Quentin Skinner and Bean connected for a 20-yard touchdown to pull the Jayhawks within 33-28 with eight minutes remaining in the game, but the Red Raiders used a Trey Wolff field goal from and a strip sack that led to the final touchdown to hold on for the win.

Bean was 17-for-28 passing for 270 yards. He threw three touchdown passes and ran for a score in his fourth start of the season after taking over for the injured Jalon Daniels. Jared Casey and Luke Grimm were the benefactors of two Bean passing scores in the first half. Kansas accumulated 525 yards and 293 came through the passing game.

The Red Raiders entered the game eighth in the conference in rushing offense averaging 143.5 yards per game. Shough led the way as the Red Raiders accumulated 260 rushing yards. The secondary couldn't slow the Jayhawks giving up 15.4 yards per completion.

Texas Tech won its fifth home game of the season. It was the first time since 2009 the Red Raiders recorded five or more wins at home in a season. With one final game in Lubbock slated on the schedule, Texas Tech could match the 6-1 home record of its 2009 squad. Texas Tech needs one win to become bowl-eligible.

TECH EARNS BOWL ELIGIBILITY WITH WIN AT IOWA STATE

AMES, Iowa (AP) — Tyler Shough put together two long scoring drives and Texas Tech defeated Iowa State 14-10 on Saturday night.

Shough gave the Red Raiders (6-5, 4-4 Big 12 Conference) the lead on a 4-yard touchdown pass to Baylor Cupp with 6:10 remaining in the game, capping a 13-play, 77-yard drive. Shough finished 15-of-21 passing for 141 yards.

At one point, Iowa State (4-7, 1-7) had gained more than twice as many yards as Tech (338 to 151), but the Cyclones failed to reach the end zone, thanks to a pair of third-quarter goal-line stands by the Red Raiders defense. The Cyclones ran five plays from the 2-yard line or closer without scoring a touchdown. They finally broke through when Hunter Dekkers found Easton Dean open down the sideline for a 24-yard touchdown. Dean leaped over a defender on his way to giving Iowa State a 10-7 lead with 11:18 left to play.

Dekkers finished with 294 yards on 23-of-35 passing for the Cyclones. Xavier Hutchinson caught eight passes for 101 yards.

Texas Tech drove 96 yards in 14 plays for the lone touchdown of the first half. Donovan Smith capped it with a 1-yard run, giving the Red Raiders a 7-0 lead.

Drake Nettles kicked a 36-yard field goal to get Iowa State within 7-3 at halftime. Nettles missed an earlier attempt and had another blocked as time expired in the second quarter.

Texas Tech has bounced back after losing four of five games and earned a bowl bid. It's been a season of growing pains for Iowa State, which has younger players at key positions, including sophomore quarterback Dekkers.

WOLFF'S OVERTIME KICK LEADS TECH PAST OKLAHOMA

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) — Trey Wolff made a 35-yard field goal in overtime after a tying kick in the final seconds of regulation, and Texas Tech erased an 18-point deficit in a 51-48 win over Oklahoma on Saturday night.

Dillon Gabriel threw for 449 yards and six touchdowns, but the OU quarterback was knocked out for a play in OT after a hard hit from safety Reggie Pearson Jr. on a catch on a throwback play. The Sooners were unsettled on offense and had to settle for a 34-yard field goal try from Zach Schmit after Gabriel was sacked. The kick was wide right.

After Wolff's winner, Texas Tech fans stormed the field just as they did after an OT victory over Texas in September. The Red Raiders ended a 10-game losing streak against OU and beat the Sooners and Longhorns in the same season for the first time in coach Joey McGuire's first season. Texas Tech (7-5, 5-4 Big 12) secured a winning conference record for the first time since 2009.

The Sooners (6-6, 3-6) couldn't hold a 24-6 second-quarter lead, finishing without a winning record in the regular season for the first time since 1998 in a disappointing debut for coach Brent Venables.

Texas Tech drove 96 yards in 14 plays for the lone touchdown of the first half. Donovan Smith capped it with a 1-yard run, giving the Red Raiders a 7-0 lead. Texas Tech's Tyler Shough threw for a career-high 436 yards with two scores, but he was intercepted by C.J. Cordon to set up Schmit's tiebreaking 43-yard field goal with four minutes remaining.

Shough put the Red Raiders in position for the tie in the final seconds. Wolff's first kick was blocked by Josh Ellison, but Venables had called a timeout. Wolff made the 43-yarder on the second try.

Oklahoma's Marvin Mims Jr. had a career-high 162 yards receiving and two touchdowns, and Brayden Willis also had two TD grabs. Eric Gray rushed for 161 yards.

Jerard Bradley also finished with a career best in receiving yards with 173 for Texas Tech, and he had a 44-yard tiebreaking TD catch in the fourth quarter, one of six lead changes in the second half or overtime. First-year play-caller Zach Kittley dug deep into the bag of tricks with backup quarterback Donovan Smith scoring on a run and a pass and 310-pound defensive tackle Jaylon Hutchings rumbling in from the 1.
