ADDITIONAL HEADLINES

OPENING WEEKEND

Surprisingly, future Big 12 rivals Texas Tech and Houston have only faced each other six times in program history with the Cougars holding a 4-2 series advantage including the last three wins over Tech. The last meeting between the two schools came in February of 2020 when Tech fell to the Cougars in Houston by a score of 2-1. Tech and UTSA have met on 27 occasions with the Red Raiders getting the best of the Roadrunners in 16 of those meetings. The last time the two teams played on March 3, 2018, Tech came out on top 5-0 in Lubbock.

FRESH FACES

Coach Ward took full advantage of the transfer portal in the offseason adding six transfers to the squad in addition to seven freshmen for a total of 13 newcomers in the 2022 season. The Red Raiders added Carson Armijo from UCLA, Molly Grumbo, Riley Ehlen and Page Mindedahl from Loyola Marymount and pitchers Kendall Fritz from Nevada and Olivia Rains from Oklahoma.

Armijo returns to her home state where she had a standout career at Plano East High School after one season at UCLA. She made just one appearance for the Bruins in her freshman season.

Grumbo, Ehlen and Mindedahl each played for Ward at LMU. Grumbo brings plenty of experience after four seasons with the Lions where she played in 169 games, starting 167 of those behind the plate. She recorded a .347 career average with 182 hits, 69 of which were extra base hits and 69 RBI. Ehlen played and started in 86 games at LMU, with 63 hits, 10 home runs and 48 RBI. Mindedahl served primarily as a pinch runner for the Lions, scoring nine runs in her two seasons.

Kendall Fritz joins the Red Raiders after three seasons at Nevada where she earned Mountain West All-Conference Second Team honors last season tallying an 11-6 record in the circle with a team-leading 3.12 ERA and 115 strikeouts. Rains brings championship experience to the bullpen after coming off a national championship season with Oklahoma. The Oklahoma native played in 29 games over two seasons, getting six starts in the circle with a perfect 2-0 record. She was a part of 12 combined shutouts by the Sooner pitching staff and held an ERA of 2.24 holding opponents to a .179 batting average.

The Red Raiders large freshman class bolsters seven with pitchers Maddie Kuehl, Erna Carlin and Ranci Willis, infielders Breezy Hayward and Kaylee Lyon, outfielder Demi Elder and catcher Karson Jennings.

FINISHING STRONG

Tech entered the Big 12 Tournament as underdogs, with the lowest seed in the field last season, but the team had other plans. The Red Raiders knocked off Baylor 8-6 in the opening game of pool play, thanks to a 10-hit performance including long balls from Peyton Blythe and Ellie Bailey. The win set up a matchup with top-ranked Oklahoma for a chance to play in the Big 12 Championship game.

The Red Raiders held their own against the Sooners, leading 2-1 after three innings before Oklahoma used a three-run fourth inning to pull away. Tech would fall 8-2 to Oklahoma, landing themselves in the third-place game where they would face the second seed, No. 10 Texas.

Tech closed the season on a high-note, defeating the top-ten Longhorns 5-1 to take third place in the Big 12 Championship. The Red Raiders finished the season 21-26 but ended winning three of their final four contests, building some momentum and excitement to end Ward's first season at the helm.

DEFENSE IMPRESSES

The Red Raiders recorded the highest fielding percentage in program history (.975) last season with just 31 errors, ranking 21st in the country on defense. Tech's defense was anchored by a couple of rookie middle infielders as Riley Love and Arriana Villa took home All-Big 12 Freshman Team honors. Love was a unanimous selection, starting 39-of-44 games at shortstop making just two errors on the season for a .981 fielding percentage. Love went errorless through the first 25 games of the season. Villa ranked second on the team in RBI (16), doubles (5) and home runs (3) while finishing fourth in batting average .235 and hits (24). Defensively, Villa was involved in seven of Tech's 16 double-plays.

UP TO THE TASK

The Red Raiders will be thrown into the fire early in the season as they face nine NCAA Tournament teams from a season ago in the first three weekends. In total, Tech will face off against 2021 NCAA Tournament teams in 24 of its 46 contests, with seven matchups against three different Women's College World Series participants, including a three game homestand against defending the national champion Oklahoma Sooners.

ON THE ROAD AGAIN

Texas Tech will spend the first month of the season on the road, opening at the University of Houston for a tournament featuring the Cougars and UTSA Feb. 11-13. From there, the Red Raiders will make their way to the Sunshine state for their second appearance in the St. Pete Clearwater Elite Invitational where Tech will face six NCAA Tournament teams: Auburn, Clemson, Northwestern, UCF, Washington and LSU. The tournament begins Feb. 17 and runs through Feb. 20 with games featured on ESPN+, SEC Network and ACC Network.

The Red Raiders will stay on the road for one more week when they make their way across the country to Cathedral City, Calif. for the Mary Nutter Collegiate Classic Feb. 24-27. Tech will open the tournament with Cal Baptist before playing Missouri, UCLA and Long Beach State followed by a rematch against Northwestern to close the tournament.

STANDING TALL

The Texas Tech bullpen will bolster some serious height this season as two of the six Red Raider pitchers stand at six feet tall. The shortest pitcher on the roster, Kendall Fritz stands at 5'9" and the average height for the Red Raider hurlers is 5'11". Freshman Maddie Kuehl stands above the rest at 6'1". Ranci Willis measures at six feet while Morgan Hornback and Erna Carlin stand at 5'11" and Olivia Rains at 5'10".

SAMI WARD

HEAD COACH • 2nd SEASON • LOYOLA MARYMOUNT '04 • KEIZER, OREGON

Sami Ward enters her second season at the helm of Texas Tech softball after being named the eighth head coach in program history on Oct. 16, 2020.

In her first season at Tech, Ward led the Red Raiders to a 21-26 record, finishing the season strong by placing third at the Big 12 Championship after going 2-1 in the tournament with a win over #10 Texas in the third place game.

Under Ward's direction, Riley Love and Arriana Villa garnered Big 12 All-Rookie Team honors, Love being a unanimous selection. The Red Raiders finished the season with the highest fielding percentage in program history (.975) which ranked 21st in the NCAA and third in the Big 12.

The Red Raiders made history under Ward in her first season, with the largest win in program history on March 21, 2021 as Tech defeated Tarleton State 23-0, tying an NCAA record with three grand slams in a game and two grand slams in an inning. Texas Tech super senior Karli Hamilton tied the NCAA record with two grand slams in the game and set the program record for RBI with nine. Missy Zoch also threw a no-hitter in the contest, the eighth in program history.

Ward came to Lubbock from her alma mater, Loyola Marymount, where she was a three-time West Coast Conference Coach of the Year.

Loyola Marymount developed into one of the top softball programs on the west coast under Ward's watch as the Lions were 138-109 overall during her five seasons, including an impressive 38-21 during WCC play. The Lions finished second in the WCC standings three times during her tenure, which was highlighted by three seasons with at least 30 wins as well as a 40-win campaign in 2019, their most since the 2007 season.

Ward was named the WCC Coach of the Year following the 2016, 2018 and 2019 seasons, the final two of which resulted in National Invitational Softball Championship (NISC) appearances. Loyola Marymount claimed the NISC title in 2018 after defeating both UT Arlington and UC Riverside in the championship series and Northern Colorado and South Dakota State in the regional round.

The Lions were on pace for another postseason trip this past season as Loyola Marymount topped No. 4 LSU and No. 13 Michigan, both perennial Women's College World Series participants, prior to the 2020 campaign being cut short due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

"I'm so grateful for the opportunity to be the next leader of the Red Raider softball program," Ward said. "We have a great deal of talent already in the club, and I am looking forward to continuing to develop them as well as building for the future. I want to thank Kirby Hocutt, Tony Hernandez, Ginger Kerrick, Grace Hernandez and President Schovanec for the amazing privilege to serve Texas Tech."

Ward was tabbed the seventh head coach in Loyola Marymount history following a 2015 season where the Lions finished 26-28 overall and 8-7 in WCC play, a seven-win conference improvement from prior to her arrival. Ward mentored left-handed pitcher Rachael Farrington to a 20 wins in the circle that season, which culminated in first team All-WCC honors.

Prior to returning to her alma mater, Ward served as co-head coach with her husband, Randy Ward, at Academy of Art University, a Division-II program in San Francisco that was in its first year as a full-fledge NCAA member. Academy of Art marked her third head coaching position as Ward previously oversaw the softball programs at North Dakota (2008-11) and Dakota Wesleyan University (2006-07).

North Dakota claimed its first conference championship in program history under Ward in 2010 as the Fighting Eagles finished a perfect 3-0 to win the Great West Conference Tournament. Ward was instrumental in North Dakota transitioning to the highest level of collegiate softball as the 2010 season was only the Fighting Eagles' second as a Division-I member.

In addition to her time as a head coach, Ward has also served as an assistant coach at Saint Mary's (2012) and Louisiana Tech (2004-05) during her career. During her time as a student-athlete, Ward was also a player and assistant coach for the Ireland National Team in 2002.

Ward joined the coaching profession shortly after ending her playing career at Loyola where she remains one of the most storied players in school history as both a pitcher and utility player. To this day, Ward still ranks in the career top 10 for at-bats (633), hits (192), RBI (110), doubles (34), home runs (29), pitching appearances (110), wins (42), complete games (30), saves (4), innings pitched (438.2), strikeouts (223) and ERA (2.28).

Ward was tabbed the Pacific Coast Softball Conference Player of the Year in 2003 after leading the Lions to the league's inaugural championship. She also garnered first team All-WAC honors in 2002 and first team All-PSCS accolades in 2003 and 2004 as well as NFCA All-Region honors those final two seasons.

Ward earned her bachelor's degree in liberal studies with a minor in sociology from Loyola in 2004. She went on to obtain her master of arts in curriculum and instruction from Dakota Wesleyan in 2008.

A native of Keizer, Oregon, Ward and her husband, Randy, are parents to two daughters, Ryli and Hayli.
