SERIES NOTES

THIS WEEK'S TILT: After going 3-1 at home last week, California Baptist University is heading back on the road for four more games. The Lancers will visit 11th-ranked Texas Tech on Tuesday and then play a three-game Western Athletic Conference series at NM State this weekend. The Lancers have a 5-6 record against ranked teams in their NCAA Division I era, which dates back through the 2019 season. CBU earned its first ranked win over No. 25 UC Santa Barbara on March 17, 2019 and went 4-3 against ranked teams in 2021. The Lancers claimed a 2-1 series win against No. 33 Pepperdine to open the 2021 season (Feb. 19-21) and split a series at No. 29 Grand Canyon to end the 2021 WAC season (May 20-22).

MR. 600: Coach Gary Adcock secured his 600th career victory as a head coach and at CBU last season. His career record is 644-317-1 in his 19 seasons in Riverside. The Lancers have been a perennial power under Adcock. Fourteen of his 15 eligible teams have qualified for the postseason, winning eight conference championships, including a four-year run from 2010 to 2013. Twenty-four of his players have been All-American, 21 were named national scholar-athletes and 24 were selected in the MLB Draft.

A LOOK AT THE POLLS: CBU has received votes in the NCBWA's NCAA Division I Top 30 Poll in all six weeks this season. The Lancers were also receiving votes in the Collegiate Baseball Newspaper's 2022 Pre-Season Top 50 Poll and were picked to finish third in the WAC's West Division Preseason Poll. CBU is coming off a banner season in 2021. CBU won a share of the Western Athletic Conference regular-season championship in its second-straight opportunity and logged a 40-16 overall record, including a 29-7 run in the WAC. The Lancers also received votes in the NCBWA twice in 2019 (Feb. 25 and May 21).

EARLY LOOK AT THE NUMBERS: CBU enters this week hitting .316, slugging .482 and maintaining a .417 on-base percentage as a team. A total of seven of the Lancers' regular starters are hitting above .300: Michael Carpentier (.464), David Martin (.452), Jake Skipworth (.444), Harrison Spohn (.365), Chad Castillo (.357), Russell Stevenson (.333) and Josh Paino (.324).

As a pitching staff, CBU maintains a 4.13 earned-run average, 1.41 WHIP and .251 batting average against. Jared Villalobos has emerged as the most effective reliever to date with a team-high nine appearances. He has a 0.93 ERA, 0.72 WHIP and .149 BAA over 19.1 innings pitched. Spencer Bengard and Brett Finnel have each made seven appearances primarily out of the bullpen, while Ryan Delgado, Seth Mattox and Liam Rocha each have six.

HOT STREAKS: Jake Skipworth is off to one of the best starts to a season any Lancer has ever had. He has a base hit in all 17 games he's logged a plate appearance this year, which is tied for the longest hitting streak in a single season of CBU's NCAA era (2014-22). Overall, he is hitting .444, slugging .651 and maintaining a .493 on-base percentage, with 28 hits, seven doubles, 21 RBI and 13 runs scored this year. Russell Stevenson is also on a 12-game hitting streak for CBU, while Harrison Spohn and David Martin have respective streaks of nine and eight.

WHERE CBU'S TRANSITION RANKS: The Lancers are the second team to win 40 games in one of its first two full transition seasons to Division I out of 49 teams that have made the move since 1998. Forty wins are a new single-season high for CBU in the D-I era after it won 35 games in 2019. The Lancers are 88-41 over their first three full years in Division I (2019, 2021-22), which is already tied for the ninth most wins by a program in its first three full D-I seasons.

Overall, CBU has gone 95-49 in Division I seasons. Its win total is 12 games off top-10 standing among first-year Division I teams since 1998, despite the 2020 season being canceled just 15 games in due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The Lancers' 65.9 winning percentage ranks first among transitioning D1 programs, with Stony Brook (64.7, 112-61); Florida Gulf Coast (63.1, 139-81) and Dallas Baptist (61.2, 139-88) being the only teams to win at least 110 games at 60-percent clip or higher.

STAT STANDOUTS: Several Lancers rank highly in the WAC this season in a number of stats coming into this week. CBU has the top-two batting averages in David Martin (.452) and Jake Skipworth (.444), while Skipworth ranks fifth in RBI (21). Harrison Spohn ranks second in stolen bases (7). On the mound, Jared Villalobos ranks first with a 0.93 ERA and CJ Culpepper is fifth with 31 strikeouts.

CALIFORNIA BAPTIST UNIVERSITY AT A GLANCE

CBU is among the nation's largest private Christian colleges and universities located in Southern California, with a fall 2021 enrollment of 11,491 students. It ranked eighth among the fastest-growing colleges in the United States during a recent 10-year period in "Almanac 2018-19" published by the Chronicle of Higher Education and reflects the institution's enrollment growth from 2006 through 2016.

In 2006, CBU enrollment totaled 3,409 students. A decade later, in 2016, enrollment at CBU was 9,157 students, an increase of 168.6 percent. The No. 8 ranking compared CBU with other private non-profit institutions classified as "Master's Colleges & Universities" in the Carnegie Classification of Institutions of Higher Education. Among the 392 institutions in that classification, enrollment growth averaged 15.7 percent over the same 10-year period.

In September 2021, CBU was ranked No. 40 for "Best Regional University" by U.S. News and World Report. It marked the eighth consecutive year CBU has received a top-50 ranking in the category for public and private colleges in the West. It was also the 16th year that CBU has appeared in the Best Colleges list.

California Baptist also placed 13th for "Most Innovative Schools," No. 23 for "Best Colleges for Veterans," No. 25 for "Best Value Schools" category; and No. 52 for "Top Performers on Social Mobility" (graduating large proportions of disadvantaged students awarded with Pell Grants) in the USN&WR report.

CBU offers more than 150 majors, minors and concentrations as well as more than 40 graduate programs and seven doctoral programs.

CBU's beautiful 162-acre main campus in Riverside, Calif. is situated in the heart of the historic Magnolia Avenue district just a short drive from popular beaches and mountain resorts. The Lancers are in their fourth and final year of reclassification to NCAA Division I after they completed a transition from NAIA to NCAA Division II in 2013-14. CBU is primarily a member of the Western Athletic Conference, and if all goes according to plan would be D-I postseason eligible in the 2022-23 season.

<< LEARFIELD CUP CHAMPIONS >>

The Lancers left NCAA Division II in just about the best way possible, winning the 2017-18 NCAA Division II Learfield Directors' Cup with 905 points last season. It essentially recognized CBU as the most well rounded and successful institution in all of Division II.

CBU steadily moved up the standings each season since joining the NCAA in 2013-14. CBU finished 26th in the Division II standings in 2014, moved up to 16th in 2015, fourth in 2016 and second in 2017 before winning it all in 2018.

Fifteen of the Lancers' 18 NCAA-sponsored sports qualified for the postseason in 2017-18, with eight being represented at the Division II Championships and securing top-14 finishes.
