BY THE NUMBERS

39

In maybe her most impressive performance of the season, goalie Madison White recorded her 39th career clean sheet on Friday night. White now has 10 more shutouts than any goalkeeper in Texas Tech history.

The Red Raiders announced a John Walker Soccer Complex record attendance of 2,364 Friday night. It's was the highest attendance in facility history and was the second-highest attendance of the second round. The Red Raiders were also second in percent capacity (117%).

The Red Raiders enter Friday's match having recorded eight straight clean sheets at home. The last goal that Tech allowed at the John Walker Soccer Complex came back on Aug. 31 a span of 80 days.

QUICK KICKS

- For the first time in program history, the Texas Tech women's soccer program will host a Round of 16 match, as the Red Raiders will play host to the University of North Carolina on Sunday afternoon. Fresh off a dramatic victory over Princeton in penalty kicks, the Red Raiders will look to advance to the NCAA Quarterfinals for the first-time in program history. Tech is making its first appearance in the Round of 16/Third Round since 2014 when the Red Raiders fell on the road to Florida, 3-2.
- After nearly setting the John Walker Soccer Complex Postseason attendance record, Red Raider Nation showed out during Round Two of the NCAA Tournament, as Tech announced a facility-record crowd of 2,346 on Friday night.
- Fresh off the program's first victory in penalty kicks since 2019, the Red Raiders will play host to 22-time National Champion UNC on Sunday afternoon at 1 p.m. in the first all-time matchup between the two teams.
- Despite winning the match in PKs, the Red Raiders did see their home winning streak snapped at 13 consecutive matches. Entering the weekend tied for the longest-winning streak in the country, Tech's last true home loss came against Texas last Sept. 25, a span of 420 days.
- Following her 13th clean sheet of the season, Texas Tech goalie Madison White needs just one more shutout to record her 40th career shutout. White is currently tied for the most shutouts in the country with North Alabama's Adriana White and Clemson's Halle Mackiewicz. North Alabama did not make the postseason while Clemson will host Georgia this afternoon.

SERIES NOTES // NORTH CAROLINA

- The Red Raiders and Tigers are meeting for just the second time in program history.
- The first matchup came back in 2018 in Lubbock and was also during the NCAA Tournament.

THE BASICS

• Texas Tech returns to the Third Round (Round of 16) of the NCAA Tournament for just the second time in program history. With a win over the Tar Heels on Sunday afternoon, the Red Raiders can advance to the NCAA Quarterfinals for the first time in program history. Tech is 0-1 all-time in the Round of 16 after dropping a 3-2 heartbreaker at Florida back in 2014. Florida used an 81st minute goal to down Tech in that match.

• Tech ended the regular season unbeaten and riding a 25-match unbeaten streak. That streak encompassed the first 18 regular season games of the 2023 season and the final seven matches of the 2022 season. The last time Tech recorded a longer streak to open the season was 2014, when the Red Raiders started 9-0 enroute to the Sweet Sixteen. The 25 match unbeaten streak (19-0-6) is the longest by a Tech team since 2013-14 when Tech also went unbeaten in 25 straight matches.

• The Red Raiders welcome 10 freshmen in 2023 and combined with three key transfers will make up the 13 newcomers on the roster this season. The freshman group is highlighted by the additions of Storie Sexton and Sam Courtwright. Both midyear additions, Sexton scored twice in the spring against ACU, while Courtwright has added singular goals against ACU and DU. The returner group also features a pair of key transfers, as Olivia Dragicovich (2021 Southland Player of the Year) from Northwestern State and Alex Kerr have joined the fold.

SCOUTING THE TAR HEELS

• Looking for their 23rd all-time National Championship in women's soccer, the North Carolina Tar Heels enter Sunday's Third Round at 12-1-8 overall. After going 5-0-5 during ACC play, the Heels suffered their lone loss of the 2023 season at home in the ACC Quarterfinals to No. 11 Pitt.

• Led by legendary head coach Anson Dorrance who has won over 1100 games, the Tar Heels advanced to the Round of 16 of the NCAA Tournament for the 40th-time in program history (42nd NCAA Tournament appearance). Carolina with a win would be making its 35th appearance all-time in the NCAA Quarterfinals.

• UNC advanced to Sunday's Third Round by virtue of Friday's 1-0 victory over fellow 2022 College Cup participant Alabama. In that match, the UNC backline held the Crimson Tide to just four total shots (two in each half) and no shots on goal. Tar Heel goalie Emmie Allen was not forced to make a save, as the Redshirt Sophomore recorded her seventh shutout of the season.

• For the fourth consecutive match, ACC Midfielder of the Year Ally Sentor found the back of the net, as her 19th minute strike off a strong run was all the offense that the Tar Heels needed to down Alabama. On the season Sentor has scored nine times to share the team lead with Avery Patterson. As a team, the Tar Heels have scored 43 goals this season.

• Sunday's match will also feature a battle between two of the best freshmen in the country, as UNC's Savvy King and Sam Courtwright will battle for the first time. The 2023 Big 12 Freshman of the Year, Courtwright has five goals and eight assists while King has logged 1850 minutes out of a possible 1890 minutes this season.

WITH A WIN, TEXAS TECH WOULD...

- Advance to the NCAA Tournament Quarterfinals for the first time in program history.
- Play for a berth in the 2023 College Cup.
- Win 17 matches for the first time since 2017 and for just the second time in program history
- Move to within one win of tying the all-time program mark in total wins in a season (18; 2012)

RED RAIDERS IN THE NWSL COLLEGE DRAFT

Since the inception of the National Women's Soccer League in 2012, Texas Tech has been represented at the NWSL College Draft five times. Jaelene Daniels stands as the highest-selected Red Raider in draft history, while 2016 marked the first time Tom Stone heard two of his players' names called on draft day.

A PROGRAM OF CONSISTENCY

A perennial bottom-dweller in the early 2000s, Texas Tech has evolved over the last 13 years into one of the top programs in both the Big 12 Conference and the national landscape of college soccer. Under the direction of head coach Tom Stone, Texas Tech has become a program of consistency – not just in winning and NCAA Tournament appearances, but in the production of players ready for the professional game upon the completion of their collegiate careers.

Currently, there are 11 Red Raider alumni playing professionally, the most of any Big 12 institution. These 11, spread across the globe, have all come in the past decade under the coaching of Stone and his staff. Two of Tech's classes have produced three pro players each: the 2018 and 2015 classes, the latter of which led the Red Raiders to the first Big 12 Championship in program history.

JOHN WALKER SOCCER COMPLEX

Finished in 2008, the John Walker Soccer Complex features a 1,500-seat grandstand designed to keep fans close to the action and includes a soccer house outfitted with team locker rooms, athletic training facilities, coaches' offices, coaches' lounge, the Red Raider lounge (a public lounge), a team lounge equipped with a state-of-the-art video system for film study, a team weight room and an Under Armour equipment room. Players enjoy a "boot room" located immediately inside the facility as a place dedicated to their footwear.

The $5 million facility underwent a massive facelift before the 2023 season, with the installation of a brand new natural grass surface. The $1 Million project began in late May and was completed in time for the Red Raiders home opener on Aug. 20 against New Mexico State. The project was made possible due to the Campaign for Fearless Champions and was funded through philanthropic giving and athletics department revenue.

Construction of the soccer complex began in 2006 with the soccer pitch installed in time for the 2008 season and the rest of the facility completed in time for the 2009 campaign. The John Walker Soccer Complex was designed by Parkhill Smith and Cooper, and features an iron entry gate emblazoned with the Double T. The gate, designed by Lars Stanley Metalworks of Austin is part of the university's award-winning public art collection. Lee Lewis Construction served as the contractor for the project.

John Walker is CEO and president of EnerVest Management Partners in Houston. He graduated from Texas Tech University in 1968 with a bachelor of business administration degree in finance.

The John Walker Soccer Complex was completed in September 2009 and was dedicated on Oct. 2, 2009, after he, his wife, Lisa, and their family contributed $2.25 million toward the project, earning the naming rights.

Also on the property is the Gerald Myers Indoor Soccer Facility, a 37,800 square foot soccer-specific, climate-controlled training facility which sits directly south of the playing field at the John Walker Soccer Complex. The facility has coaches offices as well as player meeting rooms.

LAST TIME OUT

In front of a record-breaking crowd (2346), and on the backs of two big moments from Peyton Parsons and Madison White, the second-seeded Texas Tech soccer team downed the Princeton Tigers, 4-3 on penalty kicks to advance to Sunday's Third Round of the 2023 NCAA Tournament.

After battling tooth-and-nail over the first 110 minutes of play, it all came down to PKs for Texas Tech (16-1-5), as the Red Raiders and Tigers (10-5-4) each sent five players to spot in a scoreless game.

The teams traded body blows, as the first three scorers for each side found the back of the net.

After the teams each missed on their fourth attempts of the night, Princeton's Aria Nagia stepped to the spot and ripped an attempt that White was able to kick-save away from the back of the net.

With the chance to win the game and send the Red Raiders to the Round of 16, Parsons roofed a perfect shot that Tyler McCamey was unable to save before it bounded into the net.

McCamey made a pair of saves in game action and one save during penalty kicks in the setback.

What started as a physical affair turned into a war of attrition towards the end of the match, as Tech warded off 16 Princeton shots and White made a season-high six saves in her 13th clean sheet of the season and 39th all-time.

The goalkeeper now has 10 more shutouts than any player in program history.

TRANSFORMING A PROGRAM

On May 25, 2007, Tom Stone was named the fourth head coach in Texas Tech soccer history. Prior to his arrival at Texas Tech, the team had a record of 6-63-1 in Big 12 play and had gone 0-10-0 in conference four of the previous six seasons. In Stone's first year and half as coach, the team quickly matched that win total, going 6-5-1 in conference play. In 2010 - Stone's fourth year with the team - the Red Raiders went 11-8-1, marking the program's third-ever winning record and first in 15 seasons. Two years later, the Red Raiders made the NCAA Tournament for the first time in program history and beat North Texas, 2-0, in the program's debut in postseason play. They would lose to Florida State, 2-3, in double overtime in the second round.

In 2013, the Red Raiders made another appearance in the second round after recording a program-record 18 wins. In 2014, Stone's squad won 16 games and climbed as high as sixth in the national coaches' polls before advancing to the program's first-ever Sweet Sixteen. For the breakout campaign, he was named the NSCAA Central Region Coach of the Year. In 2015, the Red Raiders won their first-ever Big 12 Championship, defeating Kansas, 1-0. The year also saw Stone pick up his 100th win at the helm of the Red Raider program when the team beat South Florida, 2-1.

The Red Raiders went .500 the following two seasons - and missed the tournament altogether in 2017 - but came back to go 14-5-3 in 2018, beating a program-record four ranked opponents and leading the nation in shutouts with 14 in the process. In 2019, the squad nearly captured its first Big 12 regular season crown ever, coming just two points from the title while going 6-1-2 in conference.

PRIOR TO TECH

Stone's first coaching job was as a part-time assistant at the University of Denver in 1996 and as a volunteer assistant at Duke in 1997. Then, from 1997-2000, Stone coached girls' soccer for the Colorado Rush youth soccer club. Under his leadership, the team won 35 state cups, 12 regional championships and eight national championships. He left the Rush to coach professionally in the Women's United Soccer Association. He led the Atlanta Beat to the league's inaugural championship game, losing in overtime on penalty kicks to the Bay Area CyberRays. He also provided soccer commentary for Fox Sports, ESPN and CBS College Sports Network.

Stone returned to college coaching in 2006 when he was hired as an assistant for the Clemson Tigers. He spent one year there, helping the Tigers to an 11-8-4 record and an appearance in the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament.

A STORIED CAREER

After being named an All-American in high school, Stone played for Duke from 1984-1987. He was a three-time First Team All-ACC selection, picking up the honors his freshman, junior and senior seasons. Stone's breakout year came in 1986 as a junior when he tallied 16 goals - the second-most in a season in program history. He also assisted on four goals to bring his points total to 36, the ninth-most in program history.

It was this season he made history, where just a minute into the second half of the NCAA Championship game Stone went bar-down after receiving a pass from teammate Joey Valenti. The goal stood as the only one scored that day, giving the Blue Devils the 1-0 win over the Akron Zips and the school's first national championship in any sport. For the accomplishment, Stone and his 1986 team were inducted into the North Carolina Soccer Hall of Fame in January 2019.

Nick Hallam arrived in Lubbock in May 2018 with 19 years of coaching experience in the state of Texas and 20 overall. Recently, he was the Director of Coaching for Lonestar SC San Antonio for seven years, while also on staff at the U.S. Soccer Training center in South Texas since 2015.

A native of the United Kingdom, Hallam played semi-professionally for nine years before moving to Texas to become a coach. Since then, he's instructed over 100 players who have gone on to play collegiate soccer over his time with various club teams and working with U.S. Soccer. He has also been a staff member of Texas Tech's Elite ID Soccer Camps since 2012.

As director of coaching with Lonestar SC San Antonio, Hallam instructed the club to a new level of recognition, qualifying his teams into the highest level of regional play. As a result, over 200 players from the club have been selected to ODP state pools, with more than 100 being offered spots on college soccer rosters. Before his seven years in San Antonio, Hallam spent three years as the Director of Coaching of Albion Hurricanes FC in Houston from 2009-2012, immediately propelling the club onto the regional & national scene. Five of the clubs teams qualified for the USYS National League, then in 2012 after success at the state, regional and national levels, was accepted into the ECNL.

Hallam is pursuing a bachelor's degree in University Studies from Texas Tech.

He lives in Lubbock with his wife, Laura, and two daughters, Maisie and Marin.

Texas Tech and head soccer coach Tom Stone has announced the hiring of former Iowa associate head coach Blair Quinn as the team's new assistant coach on Feb. 23, 2023.

Quinn heads to Lubbock from Iowa, where he has spent the last four seasons as the associate head coach of the Hawkeyes. In his time in Iowa City, he served as the goalkeepers coach and led the program to two NCAA Tournament appearances and its first Big Ten title in school history.

In his first season with Iowa, Quinn led the squad to one of the best seasons in program history as the Hawkeyes garnered their highest ranking in program history checking in at No. 17. The squad posted nine straight wins and totaled 15 on the year. That same year, Iowa made its second NCAA Tournament appearance in school history.

Prior to his four seasons with the Hawkeyes, Quinn made stops at Houston, Arizona State, New Mexico State, Loyola Marymount and Saint Mary (Kansas).

While acting as an assistant coach at Houston, Quinn also assisted with the NWSL's Houston Dash. In his two seasons at Houston, the Cougars tallied 14 wins after only winning 12 games over the last four previous seasons.

During his two stints at Arizona State, the Sun Devils made three NCAA Tournament appearances, including his last stint during 2014-15. Prior to rejoining the Sun Devils, Quinn was the head coach at New Mexico State from 2011-13, and he guided the Aggies to a single-season record 10 wins and the program's first postseason victory in the WAC Tournament.

During his playing days, Quinn played professionally from 1997-2003. He started his professional career with the Tallahassee Scorpions of the Eastern Indoor Soccer League before playing with the Sacramento Knights of the Western Indoor Soccer League. Quinn was with the Kansas City Brass of the United Systems of Independent Soccer Leagues and Arizona Thunder (WISL), before he ended his playing career with the Kansas City Comets of the Major Indoor Soccer League.

During his college tenure, he was a three-year starter at Rockhurst University (NAIA) as a goalkeeper. Quinn garnered first-team NAIA All-America and second-team National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) All-America honors. During his final campaign as a senior, he led the Hawks to the NAIA Final Four and still holds Rockhurst records for shutouts in a season (15) and career (37).

Quinn earned a bachelor's degree in communications in 2005 from Rockhurst University. He also has earned several coaching licenses, including United States Soccer Federation (USSF) National "A" License, United States Soccer Federation (USSF) National Goalkeeping License and the NSCAA National Youth Diploma.

A native of Overland Park, Kansas, Quinn and his wife, Lacey, have two sons, Aidan and Riley.
