LUBBOCK, Texas — Joe Toussaint leads Texas Tech with 14.6 points, 4.2 assists, and a 2.5 assist-to-turnover ratio, while Warren Washington tops the team with 8.5 rebounds and 1.2 blocks going into its game against UT Arlington at 1 p.m. on Thursday at United Supermarkets Arena.

The Red Raiders (8-2) are coming off their third 20-plus point victory of the season after rolling to a 76-54 neutral-court win over Vanderbilt on Saturday night in Fort Worth, while the Mavericks (6-4) picked up a 76-73 win over Air Force in the game before Tech's at Dickies Arena. Tech finished the game against Vandy with 22 assists and were 9-for-16 (56.3 percent) on 3-pointers in a game it never trailed after jumping out to a 9-0 lead with two 3-pointers from Pop Isaacs and one from Kerwin Walton to start the game. Isaacs finished with a team-high 19 points and a career-high seven assists and was joined in double-figure scoring by Chance McMillian who had 14 points and 12 points each from Toussaint and Walton. Grant McCasland's inaugural roster at Texas Tech has 14 players on it with five returners and nine newcomers. . . McCasland was named the 19th head coach in program history on March 31, 2023, after leading North Texas to the 2023 NIT Championship. . . He is currently in his 10th season as an NCAA head coach and has a 219-91 overall record with head coaching experiences at Midwestern State, Arkansas State, and North Texas. . . He was also an assistant at Baylor from 2011-16 and won the 2007 NJCAA National Championship in his first head coaching role leading Midland College

Tech is currently second in the Big 12 by shooting 77.6 percent from the free-throw line, led by Toussaint who is 38-for-41 (92.7%). . . The Red Raiders have made 15 or more free throws in seven of 10 games this season after going 15-for-17 against Vandy. . . As a team, Tech has shot 80% or better from the free-throw line in half of its games this season

Tech has now made nine or more 3-pointers in five of 10 games this season and is 48-for-120 (40.0%) on 3-pointers in its past five games, including Walton who is 13-for-18 (72.2%), McMillian going 12-for-24 (50%), and Darrion Williams (9-for-18) in those games that started with the 73-57 win over Michigan in the Bahamas

Tech has been led in scoring by six different players in its opening 10 games after Warren Washington had his game-high 18 points against ORU following Walton scoring his career-high 22 points against Omaha a game after McMillian led the team for the second time this season with his 24 at Butler. . . Isaacs has now led Tech in scoring in nine games in his Texas Tech career after his team-high 19 against Vandy. The Red Raiders returned Lamar Washington, Pop Isaacs, D'Maurian Williams, Kerwin Walton, and Robert Jennings who are each in their second season in the program. . . Tech returned only 25.4 percent of its scoring from last season with eight departures from last year's roster. . . Isaacs is Tech's leading returning scorer after going for 11.5 points per game as a true freshman in 25 games played last season

The list of newcomers includes five players from the transfer portal in Devan Cambridge (Arizona State), Chance McMillian (Grand Canyon), Joe Toussaint (West Virginia), Darrion Williams (Nevada), and Warren Washington (Arizona State). . . All five players signed out of the transfer portal played on teams that advanced to the 2023 NCAA Tournament. . . The transfer portal additions had a combined 492 games of experience and 3,454 points scored coming into the season

Cambridge suffered a season-ending knee injury in the win over Omaha on December 6 and will miss the remainder of the year. . . A starter in all eight games before the injury, Cambridge will have the option after the season to file a medical hardship through the Big 12. . . He averaged 10.5 points and 4.5 rebounds for the Red Raiders and is currently at 983 points and 515 rebounds in his career. Tech's starting lineup for the opening eight games was: Cambridge, Isaacs, Toussaint, Warren Washington, Darrion Williams. . . Kerwin Walton made the start against ORU and Vanderbilt. Toussaint had scored in double figures in the first eight games of the season before finishing with nine against ORU for the longest double-figure scoring streak of the season. . . Jarrett Culver began the 2018-19 season with 13 straight double-figure scoring games for the previous long to start a season. Tech established a season-high with five players in double-figure scoring at Butler with McMillian (24), Isaacs (18), Toussaint (18), Cambridge (16), Warren Washington (10). . . The Red Raiders matched a previous season-high with four players scoring in double-figures against Michigan after also having four double-figure scorers against UNI and Corpus. . . Against UNI, Toussaint (21), Isaacs (18), Cambridge (10), Darrion Williams (10) after also having four against Texas A&M-Corpus Christi with McMillian (17), Toussaint (14), Warren Washington (13), Darrion Williams (10)

A season-high 11 players scored in the opener against Texas A&M-Commerce. . . Tech is coming off a game against Vandy where eight players scored

CONTINUED

Eight players have made their Tech debut this season, including Jack Francis and KyeRon Lindsay who played for their first time this season against Omaha
 Darrion Williams was McCasland's first signee on April 21, 2023
 Cambridge and Toussaint were both officially announced on July 6, 2023, to complete the roster... Six players were signed by McCasland and staff in the off-season
 Tech is a team comprised of 5th-year seniors (3), seniors (3), sophomores (6), and freshmen (2)
 Tech has players from Texas (4), California (3), Arizona (1), Minnesota (1), Nevada (1), New York (1), Oregon (1), Tennessee (1), Finland (1)

Toussaint leads the Red Raiders with 14.6 points and 4.2 assists per game this season after going for 12 points and four assists against Vandy. . . He has 28 assists over the past five games, including a career-high 12 at Butler and four assists against Omaha, ORU, and Vandy. . . He is currently sixth in the Big 12 with a 2.47 assist-to-turnover ratio, 10th in assists, and 18th in scoring. . . A Bronx native, he went for 20 points and four assists against Omaha after recording his second career double-double with 18 points and a career-high 12 assists at Butler. . . At the free-throw line, Toussaint is 38-for-41 (92.7 percent) which is second in the Big 12 and is the 19th best percentage nationally after he went 4-for-4 at the line against Vandy. . . His 12 assists in the overtime loss at Butler were the most for a Tech player since Chris Clarke had an 11-assist game in 2019 and just two back of the Tech single-game record established by Stan Bonewitz against Fresno State in 1996. . . Toussaint scored the first four points of Tech's season in the opener against Texas A&M-Commerce and finished with 10 points to go along with three rebounds and an assists in his Tech debut. . . A 6-foot guard, he is in his fifth and final season of college basketball after playing his first three seasons at Iowa and then last year at West Virginia. . . The New Yorker played against Texas Tech four times as an opponent in his career, including three times last season while at WVU and once while at Iowa in 2019. . . He scored his career-high 22 points against the Red Raiders in Lubbock after making 12 free throws and has now scored 20 or more three times in his career. . . He had his first career double-double with 11 assists and 11 points against Alabama State back on Nov. 18, 2021, while playing at Iowa. . . Toussaint has 938 points, 410 assists, 150 steals, and 285 rebounds through 142 games in his career. . . His 142 games are the most experience on this year's Tech roster and the fifth most among all active players in the nation. . . Toussaint is coming off a season at WVU where he averaged 9.4 points and had 89 assists. . . He started against Texas A&M in the exhibition game, finishing with a team-high seven assists and also having six points and three rebounds in 36 minutes of play. . . Toussaint's eight games this season in double figures now has him with 34 double-figure scoring games in his career. . . His points-assist double-double was the first for Tech since John Roberson had 12 points and 12 assists against Iowa State in 2011

Isaacs led Tech with 19 points and a career-high seven assists against Vandy in a game where he also only had one turnover. . . He is now averaging 13.9 points and 3.6 assists per game this season. . . He goes into the game against UTA with 426 points and 80 3-pointers made through 35 career games play at Tech. . . A sophomore from Las Vegas, he had nine points and a team-high five assists in the win over ORU last Tuesday night after scoring 11 points and providing four assists in the win over Omaha. . . On the road, he had 18 points and four assists at Butler, including hitting the game-tying layup as time expired in regulation to force overtime. . . Proving to be a clutch player for the Red Raiders in his sophomore season, Isaacs also hit the game-winner against UNI with 0.8 on the clock and finished with 18 points and four 3-pointers for the second straight game in the Bahamas. . . Isaacs now has 23 double-figure scoring performances and 19 games of three or more assists in his career. . . Isaacs led Tech with 16 points in the Battle 4 Atlantis opener against Villanova where he made four 3-pointers for the first time this season. . . He scored 19 points for the first time this season in the opener against Texas A&M-Commerce and has now led the team in scoring three this season and nine times in his career. . . In the preseason, Isaacs also went off for 30 points after going 6-for-10 on 3-pointers in the exhibition win over Texas A&M where he also led the team with three steals. . . Last season, he made 62 3-pointers (37.8%), including making five 3-pointers in games against Nicholls, TCU, and Texas. . . Isaacs scored a career-high 24 points in the non-conference game against Nicholls and also had 23 points at Texas after he went off by making 5-of-9 3-pointers against the Longhorns. . . Isaacs made 24 starts last year and earned Big 12 All-Freshman Team honors during his first season at Tech where he averaged 11.5 points, 2.7 assists, 1.1 steals and 2.0 rebounds per game. . . He finished third in scoring among freshmen in the Big 12 and was fourth throughout the conference by averaging 2.5 made 3-pointers per game

Darrion Williams leads Tech with three double-doubles this season after going for 15 points and 10 rebounds in the win over ORU and is now averaging 9.4 points, 7.4 rebounds, 1.5 assists, and 1.0 steals per game after scoring four and having five rebounds against Vandy. . . His three double-doubles are the third most in the Big 12, behind Hunter Dickinson of Kansas who has seven. . . Williams had recorded his second double-double of the season and third of his career after going for 13 points and 10 rebounds in the win over Michigan. . . A sophomore from Sacramento, Williams had approached a double-double against UNI with 10 points and nine rebounds before he fouled out with two minutes remaining in the second game in the Bahamas. . . Against Michigan, he had a season-high three 3-pointers which was just shy of his career-best of four 3-pointers in a game last season against Arizona State in the NCAA Tournament. . . He had made two of more 3-pointers in the past four games before going 0-for-1 against Vandy and is now 13-for-35 (37.1%) for the season from beyond the arc. . . He recorded the first double-double of the season

HEAD COACH GRANT McCASLAND

A proven winner who began his career as the Texas Tech men's basketball Director of Operations from 1999-2001, Grant McCasland returned to Lubbock as the 19th head coach in Red Raider history after stacking success at various levels for nearly 25 years. Director of Athletics Kirby Hocutt announced the hiring on March 31, 2023 along with a six-year contract.

Most recently at the University of North Texas for six seasons, McCasland is 211-89 as a head coach after leading the Mean Green to a 31-7 record this season and the National Invitation Tournament Championship. His teams have led the nation in scoring defense the past two seasons after limiting opponents to just 55.7 points per game in both seasons. UNT held 27 of its 38 opponents under 60 points this season.

"We're excited to welcome in the next era of Red Raider Basketball under the leadership of Coach McCasland," Hocutt said. "This position received tremendous interest nationally as we firmly believe this program is one of the best jobs in college basketball. Our search committee was immediately impressed not only by Coach McCasland and his ability to win at every level of college basketball, all while creating a positive culture built upon toughness, but also his passion for Texas Tech and his vision for our basketball program. We are pleased to welcome Coach McCasland, his wife, Cece, and their entire family back home to Texas Tech."

McCasland started his coaching career as the Texas Tech Director of Operations for two seasons under head coach James Dickey and took his first head coaching job at Midland College where he would win a NJCAA National Championship in 2007. The Red Raiders will be the 46-year-old McCasland's fifth head coaching job in a journey back to Texas Tech which includes leading Midland College from 2004-09, two years as the head coach at Midwestern State (2009-11), five seasons as an assistant coach at Baylor (2011-16), and one as the head coach at Arkansas State (2016-17) before amassing an impressive 135-65 (.675) record at UNT.

An Irving, Texas native, McCasland is a Baylor graduate who played for the Bears from 1995-99 as a walk-on. He earned Academic All-Big 12 honorable-mention honors as a senior and graduated from Baylor in 1999 with a degree in entrepreneurship and management before getting his master's from Texas Tech in 2001.

At North Texas, McCasland led the Mean Green to three straight Conference USA titles (2020, 2021, 2022), their first NCAA Tournament victory, first NIT victories, most single-season victories, and most single-season league victories in program history among other achievements. Along with leading the nation by limiting teams to only 55.7 points per game, UNT ranked seventh nationally by holding opponents to 39.2 percent shooting.

During his final season in Denton, McCasland led UNT to a program-record 31 wins after winning the 2023 NIT Championship with a 68-61 victory over UAB in Las Vegas. The Mean Green were second in the C-USA standings with a 16-4 conference record and a 14-2 record on their home court. The program advanced to the NIT Finals with wins over Alcorn State, Sam Houston, Oklahoma State and Wisconsin to set up its matchup against UAB. The Mean Green earned the postseason championship by jumping out to a 37-27 halftime lead and limiting UAB to only 35.6 shooting throughout the night – capping the season with another dominant defensive performance. The Mean Green reached the NIT finals with a 56-54 win over Wisconsin in the semifinals by holding the Badgers scoreless over the final nine minutes of play and to only 13 second-half points. UNT trailed 41-29 at halftime before locking down on defense and limiting Wisconsin to only 24.0 percent shooting in the second half with its final basket coming with 9:07 still on the clock.

McCasland was named the 2020 C-USA Coach of the Year and has recruited and led UNT men's basketball student-athletes to 19 all-league honors, including two Conference USA Player of the Year selections in Javion Hamlet (2020) and Tylor Perry (2023). The Mean Green won the C-USA regular-season championship in 2020 and 2022 along with winning the C-USA Tournament in 2021. He led UNT to a 12-3 record in postseason games with the program having never won a postseason game before his arrival.

Under McCasland, UNT won its first NCAA Tournament game in program history with a 78-69 overtime victory over Purdue on March 19, 2021. It was the program's fourth trip to the NCAA Tournament and its first since 2010. They earned their highest ever seeding in a NCAA Tournament with a No. 13 seed and their victory over the No. 20-ranked Boilermakers was their first AP Top 25 win since 1972. They earned the bid into the NCAA Tournament after securing the 2021 C-USA Tournament championship. The Mean Green won four games in four days to win their first league tournament title in 11 years and their first since joining C-USA.

CONFERENCE NEWS & NOTES

The Big 12 is home to two of the four remaining undefeated teams with Houston at 11-0 and Oklahoma at 10-0.

The Big 12 leads the nation with six ranked teams and four in the top 10 in both national polls. This week's rankings are No. 2/2 Kansas, No. 3/3 Houston, No. 7/8 Oklahoma, No. 10/10 Baylor, No. 17/15 BYU and No. 19/22 Texas. Cincinnati, Iowa State and TCU received votes.

The Big 12 has the lowest NET average ranking among conferences at 53.8. The Big Ten ranks second at 66.7.

The Big 12 has four of the top 10, six of the top 25 and 12 of the top 100 teams in the NET rankings with 1. Houston, 4. BYU, 6. Iowa State, 10. Oklahoma, 13. Kansas, 17. Baylor, 39. Cincinnati, 44. TCU, 56. Texas, 67. Texas Tech, 84. UCF and 92. K-State.

The Big 12 leads the nation with a .799 (115-29) win percentage with the Mountain West Conference next at .726. The Big 12's .588 (30-21) win percentage vs. the other five major leagues is the best among the group, topped by a 10-2 mark against the SEC.

The Big 12 tops the nation in scoring offense and defense, averaging 80.6 ppg while holding opponents to 64.8 ppg. The Big 12 also has the most 20-point wins with 60.

Big 12 players have recorded four of the nation's 12 triple-doubles this season. No other league has more than two.

Three Big 12 teams are ranked in the top four nationally, averaging 21-plus assists per game: 2. Kansas (21.7), 3. BYU (21.5) and 4. TCU (21.0).

TCU continues to lead the nation in fast-break points with 27.0 a game. No other team averages 20.

BYU ranks first nationally in scoring margin (27.9), assists/turnover ratio (2.17) and 3-pointers per game (12.5). Houston tops all schools in scoring defense (51.2 ppg) and field goal pct. defense (.353).

TCU's Micah Peavy (player) and Texas' Max Abmas (newcomer) picked up their first Big 12 men's basketball award after leading their team to a win over a Power Five opponent in the sixth week of the season.

TOUGHEST TEAM WINS.

You've probably heard it when Texas Tech head coach Grant McCasland talks about his vision for the program and what it takes to win championships.

Toughest Team Wins

Each word has a purpose to convey a message of being strong and united. A culture with expectations to win. In our social media society, we can condense the three words into a hashtag of #TTW. But on the court, it can become the personality of a team that has no limitations when it's fully understood and embraced.

After two months of summer workouts, each player on the roster was interviewed for this article to discuss what toughness means to them. What is tough? What is a tough basketball player? As players and people, what made them tough? Is this going to be a tough team? What does Toughest Team Wins mean to them?

Their responses tell this story.

McCasland: "Our saying 'Toughest Team Wins' means a lot to us. We're going to win because we are competitive in everything we do. We believe in each other and are going to give our hearts to each other."

Lamar Washington, sophomore from Portland, Oregon: "Toughness is doing whatever it takes to win."

Kerwin Walton, senior from Hopkins, Minnesota: "Toughness is fighting through everything obstacle, whether it's a physical or mental challenge."

Joe Toussaint, senior from New York: "Toughness to me is being calm, cool, and collected. You have poise. Being an alpha. The head of the snake. You always have your head on straight."

Pop Isaacs, sophomore from Las Vegas: "You don't get phased by anything. You find a way."

Robert Jennings, sophomore from Desoto: "You don't let the circumstances determine who you are. You find ways to push through adversity."

Darrion Williams, sophomore from Sacramento, California: "Man, how do you describe it? Toughness is fighting through no matter what is going on. You have the ability to get through anything."

Chance McMillian, junior from Vallejo, California: "It's having that grit. An edge about you. Toughness gets you through any obstacle in your way."

Devan Cambridge, senior from Nashville, Tennessee: "You never take a rep off in practice. Never rest during a game. You're diving on the floor. Fighting. You put your nose in for every rebound and are always aggressive."

Warren Washington, senior from Escondido, California: "When adversity hits, it doesn't change who you are. That's toughness. You're not affected by adversity."

Jack Francis, sophomore from Austin: "Toughness is being able to do what others aren't willing to do. The little things. Doing them correctly."

KyeRon Lindsay, sophomore from Denton: "You never give up. Even when things aren't going your way."

Eemeli Yalaho, freshman from Jyväskylä, Finland: "It's a mentality. How you pursue the game."

D'Maurian Williams, senior from Phoenix, Arizona: "Toughness is doing hard things for a better purpose."

Drew Steffe, freshman from Frisco: "You hold your own. Don't back down from anything."

Toussaint: "A tough basketball player is calm, cool, collected. You have to be very disciplined. A lot of things happen in a basketball game. Tons of ups and downs. Calls don't always go your way. A good, strong mindset, makes a tough basketball player because you can overcome anything."

Walton: "You're hardworking and are willing to do anything. Play anyone. Never back down from coaching or an opponent. Tough players will always do what it takes to win."

Yalaho: "Tough players give their heart out on the court. They do everything they can to win."

Steffe: "There's a mental toughness that you have to bring every day."

McMillian: "You have to be coachable. You have to listen and be ready to do anything to win. A tough player is willing to keep learning and not get distracted by anything."

D'Maurian Williams: "Tough teams play together. They're united. Those are the teams that have a great bond and move as one."

Lindsay: "Tough players live in the moment. They're never too high or too low."

Cambridge: "You hear the message."

Isaacs: "A tough player will do anything for their team to win. There's no ego. Scoring isn't what is the most important thing to them. They make the most sacrifices it takes to win."

Francis: "Someone who is mentally and physically tough. Tough players take coaching. They dive on the floor for 50/50 balls and block-out on every play."

McCasland: "You win in the margins and usually the tough things you do during the course of a game is what separates teams and creates championship culture."

D'Maurian Williams: "We were down 23 against Iowa State last year and came back and won. They were a top-15 in the country but we fought back and beat them in overtime. We were tough in that game. It showed me that if a team never gives up and plays together you can win. We put our unselfishness aside and won. We were the tougher team in that game."

Toussaint: "During my sophomore year of high school I won a state championship. In the semifinals we played against Bishop Loughlin who had Markquis Nowell, Keith Williams, and Julian and Justin Champagnie. They were a pro team basically. No one thought we would win. I was having an awful game. We were down the entire game and I was like 1-for-12. It came down to the last couple possessions though and I hit a 3. My mindset was always straight. I kept positive and tough. I got a steal and a layup to end the game. That was a game when I felt like I could overcome anything to win."

Lamar Washington: "No doubt I'm a tough basketball player. I felt like I was tough as a younger kid too but really started feeling that way my junior and senior year. I had no hesitation to dive on the floor for loose balls. It was never about just scoring for me. I wanted to play defense and rebound. Do the tough things to help us win. That's all I've ever cared about."

Darrion Williams: "I had a sprained ankle last season. It was pretty bad. It happened in the first half and I thought I was done. I came back in the second half though and played. It showed me that I have the mental capacity to push through a limit that I didn't think I could before that."

Jennings: "Being a freshman last year and learning what it takes was tough. You have to break through a freshman barrier. I think last year made me tougher as a person and player. To come back this year with the lessons we learned last year is really going to help us."

Warren Washington: "I played in a game last season against Arizona. It was a big game, huge crowd. People didn't think we had a chance. We fought the entire game and didn't let anything change what we were trying to do. We didn't complain about calls or let the atmosphere become too big. It was about us and staying focused on what we needed to do. We found a way to win and advanced to March Madness."

Walton: "I was a freshman in high school and we won a state championship. We were playing against a great team and the odds were not good that we would win. We came together though and won the game. My teammates were really tough in that game. I was young but saw that and followed their lead. It was a great game where I saw my teammates playing with grit in a tough environment against a great opponent." Isaacs: "I knew I was tough early on. My dad made sure of that. He yelled and pushed me to be a better player. That was in middle school. He helped me to develop into a player who doesn't get phased. I take coaching. That's important in this game. Listening to the words. Not the tone. People can try to get you emotional sometimes to weaken you. Staying strong and focused when others are pushing you or trying to beat you in a game shows toughness."

McMillian: "We got to the conference tournament in my freshman year at Grand Canyon and my hip started hurting. I played through that game and the tournament. We won the tournament. When we got back from the tournament, I found out I had torn my labrum. I had played the entire conference tournament and March Madness with a torn labrum. It showed me that you can do anything you want to as long as you put your mind to it and fight through. I was hurt. I knew that. I still pushed through because I wanted our team to keep winning."

Cambridge: "We heard from the 2019 team quite a bit over the last couple weeks. They were a tough team. You can tell that from the stories they talk about. Each guy on that team had adversity that fought through before even getting to Texas Tech. They had adversity in that season but stayed together and made it to the national championship game. I can relate. I was an underdog my freshman year at Auburn with people not thinking I would play. I had to prove myself. Still have that mentality. I think that makes you a tougher player. Feeling like you have something to prove. This team has that for sure."

Francis: "I tore cartilage in my shooting hand wrist as a sophomore in high school. It was the first game of the year. I knew the team needed me that season though and wanted to play through it. I taped it up every game and fought through the pain. It wasn't easy for sure, but it was what the team needed."

Steffe: "This summer was a gear shift for sure. I came straight from high school and have been challenged. That's tough. It's what it's all about though. I knew it wasn't going to be easy. It's a challenge, but I'm willing to put in the work."

McCasland: "In the toughest of times, I always believe we are going to win."

Toussaint: "My mom raised us by herself. She's a single parent. Seeing her work hard and sacrifice for us is something I'm really proud of her for. That's real-life toughness. She showed it every day for us and set a great example."

Lindsay: "When I was 15-years-old, I lost my best friend, my cousin, Jacob. He was also 15. It's really hard to think about. He's my motivation now. I wear 21 because of him. That was his number. I have it tattooed on me. He's always with me. His death showed me that nothing is guaranteed. I step on the court and play for him. I have to play tough because I would be letting him down if I don't. He pushes me to play harder. To play for him. I'm still not through it, but it made me see life and basketball differently. You have to live in the moment and fight for everything. You never know when it's going to be the last possession."

Isaacs: "I came home from prep school after my sophomore year for Christmas break and my mom was having to stay in a weekly hotel. She didn't have a home. Nowhere to stay. My brother, sister and her didn't have anywhere else. That was really tough to see and go through. The fact that we're in a much better situation now shows how strong my family is. Who we are. What we can get through. I was so young when we were going through that, but it motivated me. Made me a stronger person"

Darrion Williams: "My grandpa's passing is the hardest thing that I've ever had to go through. I helped my mom and sister through it too. I stayed as strong as I could. I wanted to be strong for them. Put others before myself but also made sure I was all right. It was tough and taught me a lot about who I am as a person."

Lamar Washington: "My mom is the toughest person I know. She's dealt with a lot in her life and has never given up. I've never seen any weakness in her."

Yalaho: "Even though everything may not be perfect, you still push through. Being away from home for my senior year of high school was tough. I left my family and friends in Finland behind. Getting used to meeting new people. Different languages. It's not easy adjusting to different cultures. It's made me grow faster as a person. I've seen life from different perspectives in a short amount of time."

Francis: "I had a hard time in fourth grade with a knee surgery. I wasn't able to do anything for a while. It was really hard because I loved being active and playing with my friends. I was really young and couldn't do anything. I sat on the sidelines. Looking back, it really makes me grateful and appreciative of what I'm able to do now."

McCasland: "The teams that give the most to each other are the ones that win. They are tough because they are connected and believe in each other. That's how we are going to win."

Jennings: "We came out here all summer ready to compete. We blocked out everything. Mentally and physically. We took coaching and pushed ourselves to the limit because we want to win so bad."

Lamar Washington: "This team is going to be tough. We have been this summer for sure. We are playing hard and pushing each other. Iron sharpens iron. I feel like we all have that approach. We all want to push each other to be better. To play tougher. No matter what, we play with intensity."

Lindsay: "Tough teams don't let emotions negatively affect them. I'm a young player. I know that. We have a lot of young and talented players on this team. We can't be emotional out on the court though. We have to play connected and for each other. Be mature and tough even if we're young."

Warren Washington: "A tough team is disciplined. They have grit."

D'Maurian Williams: "The toughest team is always playing hard. They are competing until the end of every game."

Darrion Williams: "I see us as a team where everyone is bought in to doing whatever it takes to win. We will be the first team on the ground. We are going to sprint back on every play. Disciplined."

Steffe: "There are no shortcuts taken. Shortcuts don't take players and teams to where they want to be."

Isaacs: "Tough teams buy in. They sacrifice for each other. Not everything is fun, but it's beneficial for the entire team."

McMillian: "A tough basketball team is always together. They believe in each other. They trust each other on and off the court."

Francis: "Toughest Team Wins means doing all the little things correctly. Doing what the other team isn't willing to do. Diving for balls. Rebounding. Getting the best shot possible. Trusting each other for the benefit of the team."

Toussaint: "We have to be connected. If a play is messed up we have to have each other's backs on the next one. Having trust in each other is important. Calm, cool, collected. It always go back to that for me. Staying composed and tough at all times is what can take this team to where we want to go."

Jennings: "Whether you're in the film room, weight room, at home, or on the court, you always have to have a tough mindset. You can't let down. When you have a team that puts it all together, that's the team that usually comes out on top. Being locked in at all times is what toughness is about."

Walton: "Tough teams play together. For each other. Same goals and aspirations. Every day and game is different. You'll have ups and downs, but if you're a team full of tough players then you can go against any challenge. Other teams don't want to play that team."

McCasland: "Tough teams win."
