Key Story Lines

Leading Off

This is the 29th and 30th meeting between the two programs. UTA is led under first-time head coach, Clay Van Hook with new assistants Mike Trapasso, Mike Taylor and Ben Breazeale. Van Hook and company look to embark on a new era in the WAC. Baseball America listed the transfer class among the top 10 in the nation at the mid-major level. Highlighted by Arkansas transfer, Gabe Starks, Texas transfer, Caden Noah and Tarleton transfer, Bryce Hackett. This is the second stint in the WAC for the Mavericks, the first coming back in 2013 where UTA were named the regular season champions. UTA hadn't grounded into a double play entering the series against Tarleton, where that streak ended with the Mavs grounding into 2 double plays during the weekend. Connery Peters has a team high 5 saves on the season, tying him for third in the national rankings. Have a 6-5 record on the road, already tripling their road wins from the previous season.

Quick hitters

UTA jumped up 67 spots in the latest NCAA RPI rankings, coming in at 86 this week compared to 153 last week. Tyson Pointer looks to continue his hot streak and extend his 15-game hitting streak. Is currently tied for third nationally in doubles per game (0.67). Leads UTA with 21 hits, 10 doubles, 16 runs driven in and a .629 slugging percentage. Is second on the team with a .339 batting average and is tied for the team lead with 1 triple and 2 homeruns. Freshman Ryan Black leads the Mavs with a .364 batting average. Has 20 hits in 55 plate appearances, 4 doubles, 2 homeruns and 13 runs driven in. Second on the team with a .545 slugging percentage. Matt Cavanagh is hitting .306 on the year with 15 hits in 49 plate appearances while driving in 7 runs. Garrison Berkley looks to remain hot, coming off a series in which he went 6 for 13, driving his batting average to .298. Has 17 hits in 57 at-bats with 4 doubles and 1 homerun.

UT ARLINGTON BASEBALL HEAD COACH: CLAY VAN HOOK

Former Oklahoma assistant coach Clay Van Hook was named the 7th head coach of the UT Arlington baseball program on July 1, 2022.

Van Hook spent the previous five seasons as the hitting coach for the Sooners, leading the lineup to unprecedented heights. Prior to his time in Norman, Van Hook – an All-Big 12 player at Texas – coached at his alma mater, in addition to McNeese and Rice.

Van Hook spent the previous five seasons as an assistant coach for Oklahoma, culminating with a College World Series Final in June of 2022. While with the Sooners, he served as the hitting coach, helped create the offensive game plan and worked with the infielders. He was also the third base coach on game days and assisted in coordinating OU's recruiting efforts.

In 2022, the Sooners were one of the top offenses in the nation. OU finished in the top five in the NCAA in base on balls (3rd, 374) and stolen bases (4th, 145). They were also ranked in the top 15 in the NCAA in runs scored (11th, 518), hits (14th, 675) and on-base percentage (14th, .412).

A native of Brenham, Texas, with deep Lone Star State recruiting roots, Van Hook served as Oklahoma's recruiting coordinator since 2021. In 2022, he was responsible for bringing in the nation's 13th-ranked recruiting class, according to Baseball America.

In the past two years, OU has had 13 players selected in the MLB Draft. Additionally, in the 2018 MLB Draft, a pair of Sooners went in the first two rounds in Kyler Murray (1st Round, Pick 9) and Steele Walker (2nd Round, 46th Overall).

Prior to Oklahoma, Van Hook spent six seasons as an assistant coach at Rice. While with the Owls, he helped guide the program to NCAA Tournament appearances all six years from 2012 to 2017 and won the 2013 Oregon Regional.

Rice's offense was nationally recognized in 2014 and 2015, finishing in the top 40 in the NCAA both seasons. During the 2014 campaign, Rice led Conference USA and had the 13th-most hits in the nation, averaging 10.2 per game.

During his tenure with Rice, the Owls claimed 11 All-Americans, 31 all-conference selections and had 28 players selected in the MLB Draft.

Before getting to Rice, Van Hook was an assistant coach at McNeese State from 2009-11. The 2009 season saw the Cowboys set a school record in batting average (.312), while the 2010 team finished with the 7th-highest in school history. During his three seasons, he helped develop 14 all-league players and witnessed six players get drafted.

His coaching career began as a student assistant coach at Texas for the 2008 season.

Personal:

Van Hook played one season at Navarro College before becoming a three-year letterman at Texas (2005-07). He was a member of the 2005 UT team which won the College World Series, and was a Second Team All-Big 12 pick that same year. Van Hook was selected by the Seattle Mariners in the 2007 MLB Draft following his senior season.

Van Hook and his wife, Selina, have a daughter, Avery, and a son, Briscoe.

Clay Gould Ballpark has been the home of record breakers, major leaguers and champions. The 1,600-seat facility originally opened in 1974 and has undergone several upgrades to keep the complex amongst the best in college baseball.

In 2015, the Mavericks opened a state-of-the-art clubhouse that gives UTA a new on-site home. The 6,000 sq. ft. facility includes a players clubhouse, an equipment and laundry room, a sports medicine training room and coaches' offices.

UTA's home was re-named Clay Gould Ballpark on April 26, 2003, after the former UT Arlington standout player and coach. The name change was at the suggestion of Dr. Allan Saxe, an associate professor of political science at UT Arlington, whom the ballpark was previously named after. In front of a crowd of nearly 1,000 people, the name change officially took place and Gould's widow, Julie, and daughter, Logan, unveiled the memorial of Clay Gould on the outside wall of the main entrance.

In 2009 a Daktronics ProStar® LED Display video board was installed and the center section of the grandstands also received an upgrade with approximately 345 new seats added. Other additions to the stadium took place in 1999, when a three-foot high brick wall spanning from dugout to dugout was added, along with a new net backstop.

In October 2018, Clay Gould Ballpark was equipped with artificial turf for the home bullpen and mounds. A turf warning track and draining system was installed in January 2020. Renovation and installation of an updated scoreboard and video board is scheduled to be completed in 2021.

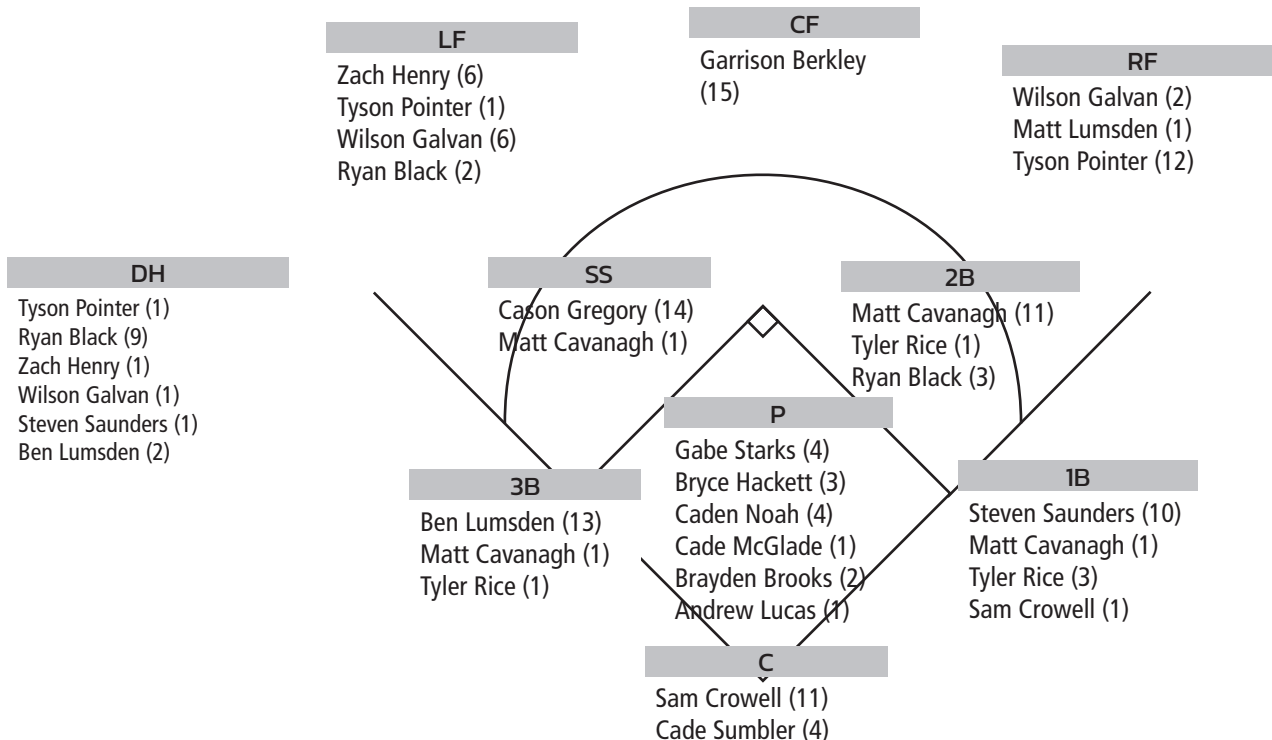

The Mocek Patio, named after John & Pattye Mocek was built in March 2019. There are still two more phases to complete the patio. Phase II will consist of adding an outdoor kitchen, while Phase III will include adding patio furniture.

The stadium was originally opened in 1974 as the Mavericks hosted TCU in what became the UT Arlington debut of head coach Butch McBroom.

Besides UTA baseball, the diamond has played host to the Texas State Junior College Tournament, the state American Amateur Baseball Congress Connie Mack and American Legion Tournaments and numerous high school playoff games. It also served as the venue for Major League tryout camps. The field has dimensions of 330 feet down the lines, 380 feet into the power alleys and 400 feet to straight away center field.
