SAM HOUSTON BASEBALL

Offensive explosion

Sam Houston is currently riding a five-game winning streak with wins over Texas A&M, a three-game series sweep at Stephen F. Austin and at No. 22 UTSA. The Kats have scored 73 runs during the streak which is the most in school history during a five-game stretch since moving up to the Division I level in 1987. Sam Houston has 84 hits the past five games with 10 doubles and 18 home runs.

Tyler Davis

Davis is fourth in the country in batting average, hitting .449 through 48 games. He was named the WAC Hitter of the Week last week after hitting .642 in four games with eight RBIs, eight runs scored, two home runs, four doubles, two walks and two stolen bases. The Bearkats went 4-0 last week with a 9-2 midweek win at Texas A&M and a sweep of Stephen F. Austin in Nacogdoches.

He is on the watch list for the Bragan National Collegiate Slugger Award which is awarded to a Division I player based on performance at the plate, academics and personal integrity.

Immediate impact

Joe Redfield is putting together an impressive first season with Sam Houston. The Temple College transfer is 11th in the country in batting average at .423. He leads the team with 10 home runs and is second in doubles with 16. The starting center fielder has driven in 40 runs.

Staff ace

Coltin Atkinson has been solid as the Friday night starter this season. He leads the staff with a 7-2 record, 3.16 ERA and has recorded 50 strikeouts in 57.0 innings. One of his best outings of the season came in a 6-0 victory over Iowa to open the Karbach Classic on Feb. 24. He scattered two hits in seven strong innings with seven strikeouts.

Standout freshman

Jake Tatom has really taken off since moving into a starting role midway through the season. He is hitting .405 in 26 appearances with 20 starts. He has six doubles, a triple, a home run and 15 RBIs since he was elevated to starting at designated hitter or third base. He had a walk-off two-run double in a 4-3 victory over Abilene Christian on April 8.

Last outing

Justin Wishkoski hit a pair of three-run home runs as the Bearkats crushed No. 22 UTSA 18-2 on Tuesday in San Antonio. Clayton Chadwick, reigning WAC Player of the Year Carlos Contreras and Easton Loyd also homered as Sam Houston cranked out 18 total hits, six that went for extra bases.
