McCasland selected to USA Basketball position

LUBBOCK, Texas – Texas Tech head coach Grant McCasland has been selected to join the 2024 USA Basketball Men's Junior National Team coaching staff. USA Basketball announced on Feb. 2 the 2024 USA Men's U18 National Team will be led by Arizona head coach Tommy Lloyd who will be assisted by McCasland and Notre Dame head coach Micah Shrewsberry.

"Being a part of USA Basketball is something you dream about growing up," McCasland said. "To represent our country coaching basketball is humbling and a great honor."

Coaching staff selections for the USA Men's U18 National Team were made by the USA Basketball Junior National Team Committee. All selections were approved by the USA Basketball Board of Directors.

Lloyd, McCasland and Shrewsberry will lead the Americans at the 2024 FIBA U18 Men's AmeriCup. The date and location of the tournament will be announced by FIBA at a later date.

McCasland is in his first season at Texas Tech. Previously, while the head coach at UNT, he led the Mean Green to three Conference USA titles (2020, 2021, 2022), their first NCAA Tournament victory and two postseason tournament championships (2018 CBI, 2023 NIT). He enters his first USA Basketball coaching assignment after serving as a court coach for the 2021 U19 National Team.

Lloyd took the reins at Arizona in 2021 and has led the Wildcats to record-breaking success. His 61 victories during his first two seasons set the NCAA record. In his first season with Arizona in 2022, Lloyd was named National Coach of the Year by NABC, USBWA and Associated Press. Lloyd was previously an assistant at Gonzaga University for 22 seasons. He will be serving his first USA Basketball head coaching assignment as he was a court coach for the 2022 USA Men's U18 National Team. He has previously served USA Basketball as a committee member.

"I can't imagine getting to work with better coaches than Tommy Lloyd and Micah Shrewsberry," McCasland said. "Both are amazing basketball minds and great leaders that genuinely care about people."

Shrewsberry is in his first season at Notre Dame after an accomplished career spanning the NBA and college ranks. Shrewsberry's coaching resume includes being the head coach at Pennsylvania State University (2021-23) and Indiana University South Bend (2005-07); and an assistant coach at Purdue (2019-21, 2011-13), Boston Celtics (2013-19), Butler University (2008-11), DePauw University (2001-03) and Wabash College (1999-00). He will also make his USA Basketball coaching debut but was previously a court coach for the 2023 U19 National Team.

The FIBA U18 Men's AmeriCup takes place every two years with the USA winning 10 gold medals, including six straight.

Bob Knight led the Red Raiders from 2001-08 where he had an impressive 138-82 record, including five seasons of 20-plus wins. He earned NABC District Coach of the Year during the 2001-02 season after leading Tech to a 23-9 record in his first season in Lubbock and led his 2004-05 to a 22-11 record and the NCAA Sweet 16. The Red Raiders advanced to the NCAA Tournament four times under Knight, reaching the 2005 Sweet 16 after earning wins over UCLA and Gonzaga to open the tournament. Knight passed former North Carolina coach Dean Smith as the then-winningest Division I men's coach Jan. 1, 2007, getting career win No. 880 with a 70-68 Red Raider win over New Mexico and the United Supermarkets Arena.

"Texas Tech joins college basketball fans across the country who mourn the passing of legendary head coach Bob Knight. Coach Knight, from his 902 career wins, three national titles and 24 NCAA Tournament appearances, will forever be remembered as one of the top coaches in not only Texas Tech history but all of college basketball. He truly changed the game with not only his motion offense but his insistence that his teams be defined by their defense. His impact was felt off the court, too, as he was a profound supporter of student-athletes receiving a quality education, which was evident by his teams annually producing a near-perfect graduation rate. Coach Knight's impact on our basketball program will forever be cherished as one of the greatest tenures in our history. Our thoughts and prayers are with the Knight family during this difficult time."

The Red Raiders are wearing a "BK" patch on their jerseys throughout the season to honor Knight.

Knight was among the winningest coaches in the sport, finishing his career with 902 victories in 42 seasons at Army, Indiana, and Tech. He also coached the U.S. Olympic team to a gold medal in 1984.

HEAD COACH GRANT McCASLAND

A proven winner who began his career as the Texas Tech men's basketball Director of Operations from 1999-2001, Grant McCasland returned to Lubbock as the 19th head coach in Red Raider history after stacking success at various levels for nearly 25 years. Director of Athletics Kirby Hocutt announced the hiring on March 31, 2023 along with a six-year contract.

Most recently at the University of North Texas for six seasons, McCasland is 211-89 as a head coach after leading the Mean Green to a 31-7 record this season and the National Invitation Tournament Championship. His teams have led the nation in scoring defense the past two seasons after limiting opponents to just 55.7 points per game in both seasons. UNT held 27 of its 38 opponents under 60 points this season.

"We're excited to welcome in the next era of Red Raider Basketball under the leadership of Coach McCasland," Hocutt said. "This position received tremendous interest nationally as we firmly believe this program is one of the best jobs in college basketball. Our search committee was immediately impressed not only by Coach McCasland and his ability to win at every level of college basketball, all while creating a positive culture built upon toughness, but also his passion for Texas Tech and his vision for our basketball program. We are pleased to welcome Coach McCasland, his wife, Cece, and their entire family back home to Texas Tech."

McCasland started his coaching career as the Texas Tech Director of Operations for two seasons under head coach James Dickey and took his first head coaching job at Midland College where he would win a NJCAA National Championship in 2007. The Red Raiders will be the 46-year-old McCasland's fifth head coaching job in a journey back to Texas Tech which includes leading Midland College from 2004-09, two years as the head coach at Midwestern State (2009-11), five seasons as an assistant coach at Baylor (2011-16), and one as the head coach at Arkansas State (2016-17) before amassing an impressive 135-65 (.675) record at UNT.

An Irving, Texas native, McCasland is a Baylor graduate who played for the Bears from 1995-99 as a walk-on. He earned Academic All-Big 12 honorable-mention honors as a senior and graduated from Baylor in 1999 with a degree in entrepreneurship and management before getting his master's from Texas Tech in 2001.

At North Texas, McCasland led the Mean Green to three straight Conference USA titles (2020, 2021, 2022), their first NCAA Tournament victory, first NIT victories, most single-season victories, and most single-season league victories in program history among other achievements. Along with leading the nation by limiting teams to only 55.7 points per game, UNT ranked seventh nationally by holding opponents to 39.2 percent shooting.

During his final season in Denton, McCasland led UNT to a program-record 31 wins after winning the 2023 NIT Championship with a 68-61 victory over UAB in Las Vegas. The Mean Green were second in the C-USA standings with a 16-4 conference record and a 14-2 record on their home court. The program advanced to the NIT Finals with wins over Alcorn State, Sam Houston, Oklahoma State and Wisconsin to set up its matchup against UAB. The Mean Green earned the postseason championship by jumping out to a 37-27 halftime lead and limiting UAB to only 35.6 shooting throughout the night – capping the season with another dominant defensive performance. The Mean Green reached the NIT finals with a 56-54 win over Wisconsin in the semifinals by holding the Badgers scoreless over the final nine minutes of play and to only 13 second-half points. UNT trailed 41-29 at halftime before locking down on defense and limiting Wisconsin to only 24.0 percent shooting in the second half with its final basket coming with 9:07 still on the clock.

McCasland was named the 2020 C-USA Coach of the Year and has recruited and led UNT men's basketball student-athletes to 19 all-league honors, including two Conference USA Player of the Year selections in Javion Hamlet (2020) and Tylor Perry (2023). The Mean Green won the C-USA regular-season championship in 2020 and 2022 along with winning the C-USA Tournament in 2021. He led UNT to a 12-3 record in postseason games with the program having never won a postseason game before his arrival.

Under McCasland, UNT won its first NCAA Tournament game in program-history with a 78-69 overtime victory over Purdue on March 19, 2021. It was the program's fourth trip to the NCAA Tournament and its first since 2010. They earned their highest ever seeding in a NCAA Tournament with a No. 13 seed and their victory over the No. 20-ranked Boilermakers was their first AP Top 25 win since 1972. They earned the bid into the NCAA Tournament after securing the 2021 C-USA Tournament championship. The Mean Green won four games in four days to win their first league tournament title in 11 years and their first since joining C-USA.

Each Big 12 men's and women's basketball team will don the shooting shirt during warmups of select games in February. Each shooting shirt prominently features Ali's celebrated mantra, "If your dreams don't scare you, they aren't big enough."

College GameDay Covered by State Farm will broadcast live at Allen Fieldhouse on Saturday, Feb. 10 in advance of the Baylor at Kansas matchup. ANNUAL REBOUNDS LEADERS - ALL GAMES - BIG 12 ERA

TOUGHEST TEAM WINS.

You've probably heard it when Texas Tech head coach Grant McCasland talks about his vision for the program and what it takes to win championships.

Toughest Team Wins

Each word has a purpose to convey a message of being strong and united. A culture with expectations to win. In our social media society, we can condense the three words into a hashtag of #TTW. But on the court, it can become the personality of a team that has no limitations when it's fully understood and embraced.

After two months of summer workouts, each player on the roster was interviewed for this article to discuss what toughness means to them. What is tough? What is a tough basketball player? As players and people, what made them tough? Is this going to be a tough team? What does Toughest Team Wins mean to them?

Their responses tell this story.

McCasland: "Our saying 'Toughest Team Wins' means a lot to us. We're going to win because we are competitive in everything we do. We believe in each other and are going to give our hearts to each other."

Lamar Washington, sophomore from Portland, Oregon: "Toughness is doing whatever it takes to win."

Kerwin Walton, senior from Hopkins, Minnesota: "Toughness is fighting through everything obstacle, whether it's a physical or mental challenge."

Joe Toussaint, senior from New York: "Toughness to me is being calm, cool, and collected. You have poise. Being an alpha. The head of the snake. You always have your head on straight."

Pop Isaacs, sophomore from Las Vegas: "You don't get phased by anything. You find a way."

Robert Jennings, sophomore from Desoto: "You don't let the circumstances determine who you are. You find ways to push through adversity."

Darrion Williams, sophomore from Sacramento, California: "Man, how do you describe it? Toughness is fighting through no matter what is going on. You have the ability to get through anything."

Chance McMillian, junior from Vallejo, California: "It's having that grit. An edge about you. Toughness gets you through any obstacle in your way."

Devan Cambridge, senior from Nashville, Tennessee: "You never take a rep off in practice. Never rest during a game. You're diving on the floor. Fighting. You put your nose in for every rebound and are always aggressive."

Warren Washington, senior from Escondido, California: "When adversity hits, it doesn't change who you are. That's toughness. You're not affected by adversity."

Jack Francis, sophomore from Austin: "Toughness is being able to do what others aren't willing to do. The little things. Doing them correctly."

KyeRon Lindsay, sophomore from Denton: "You never give up. Even when things aren't going your way."

Eemeli Yalaho, freshman from Jyväskylä, Finland: "It's a mentality. How you pursue the game."

D'Maurian Williams, senior from Phoenix, Arizona: "Toughness is doing hard things for a better purpose."

Toussaint: "A tough basketball player is calm, cool, collected. You have to be very disciplined. A lot of things happen in a basketball game. Tons of ups and downs. Calls don't always go your way. A good, strong mindset, makes a tough basketball player because you can overcome anything."

Walton: "You're hardworking and are willing to do anything. Play anyone. Never back down from coaching or an opponent. Tough players will always do what it takes to win."

Yalaho: "Tough players give their heart out on the court. They do everything they can to win."

McMillian: "You have to be coachable. You have to listen and be ready to do anything to win. A tough player is willing to keep learning and not get distracted by anything."

D'Maurian Williams: "Tough teams play together. They're united. Those are the teams that have a great bond and move as one."

Lindsay: "Tough players live in the moment. They're never too high or too low."

Cambridge: "You hear the message."

Isaacs: "A tough player will do anything for their team to win. There's no ego. Scoring isn't what is the most important thing to them. They make the most sacrifices it takes to win."

Francis: "Someone who is mentally and physically tough. Tough players take coaching. They dive on the floor for 50/50 balls and block-out on every play."

McCasland: "You win in the margins and usually the tough things you do during the course of a game is what separates teams and creates championship culture."

D'Maurian Williams: "We were down 23 against Iowa State last year and came back and won. They were a top-15 in the country but we fought back and beat them in overtime. We were tough in that game. It showed me that if a team never gives up and plays together you can win. We put our unselfishness aside and won. We were the tougher team in that game."

Toussaint: "During my sophomore year of high school I won a state championship. In the semifinals we played against Bishop Loughlin who had Markquis Nowell, Keith Williams, and Julian and Justin Champagnie. They were a pro team basically. No one thought we would win. I was having an awful game. We were down the entire game and I was like 1-for-12. It came down to the last couple possessions though and I hit a 3. My mindset was always straight. I kept positive and tough. I got a steal and a layup to end the game. That was a game when I felt like I could overcome anything to win."

Lamar Washington: "No doubt I'm a tough basketball player. I felt like I was tough as a younger kids too but really started feeling that way my junior and senior year. I had no hesitation to dive on the floor for loose balls. It was never about just scoring for me. I wanted to play defense and rebound. Do the tough things to help us win. That's all I've ever cared about."

Darrion Williams: "I had a sprained ankle last season. It was pretty bad. It happened in the first half and I thought I was done. I came back in the second half though and played. It showed me that I have the mental capacity to push through a limit that I didn't think I could before that."

Jennings: "Being a freshman last year and learning what it takes was tough. You have to break through a freshman barrier. I think last year made me tougher as a person and player. To come back this year with the lessons we learned last year is really going to help us."

Warren Washington: "I played in a game last season against Arizona. It was a big game, huge crowd. People didn't think we had a chance. We fought the entire game and didn't let anything change what we were trying to do. We didn't complain about calls or let the atmosphere become too big. It was about us and staying focused on what we needed to do. We found a way to win and advanced to March Madness."

Walton: "I was a freshman in high school and we won a state championship. We were playing against a great team and the odds were not good that we would win. We came together though and won the game. My teammates were really tough in that game. I was young but saw that and followed their lead. It was a great game where I saw my teammates playing with grit in a tough environment against a great opponent."

TOUGHEST TEAM WINS.

Isaacs: "I knew I was tough early on. My dad made sure of that. He yelled and pushed me to be a better player. That was in middle school. He helped me to develop into a player who doesn't get phased. I take coaching. That's important in this game. Listening to the words. Not the tone. People can try to get you emotional sometimes to weaken you. Staying strong and focused when others are pushing you or trying to beat you in a game shows toughness."

McMillian: "We got to the conference tournament in my freshman year at Grand Canyon and my hip started hurting. I played through that game and the tournament. We won the tournament. When we got back from the tournament, I found out I had torn my labrum. I had played the entire conference tournament and March Madness with a torn labrum. It showed me that you can do anything you want to as long as you put your mind to it and fight through. I was hurt. I knew that. I still pushed through because I wanted our team to keep winning."

Cambridge: "We heard from the 2019 team quite a bit over the last couple weeks. They were a tough team. You can tell that from the stories they talk about. Each guy on that team had adversity that fought through before even getting to Texas Tech. They had adversity in that season but stayed together and made it to the national championship game. I can relate. I was an underdog my freshman year at Auburn with people not thinking I would play. I had to prove myself. Still have that mentality. I think that makes you a tougher player. Feeling like you have something to prove. This team has that for sure."

Francis: "I tore cartilage in my shooting hand wrist as a sophomore in high school. It was the first game of the year. I knew the team needed me that season though and wanted to play through it. I taped it up every game and fought through the pain. It wasn't easy for sure, but it was what the team needed."

McCasland: "In the toughest of times, I always believe we are going to win."

Toussaint: "My mom raised us by herself. She's a single parent. Seeing her work hard and sacrifice for us is something I'm really proud of her for. That's real-life toughness. She showed it every day for us and set a great example."

Lindsay: "When I was 15-years-old, I lost my best friend, my cousin, Jacob. He was also 15. It's really hard to think about. He's my motivation now. I wear 21 because of him. That was his number. I have it tattooed on me. He's always with me. His death showed me that nothing is guaranteed. I step on the court and play for him. I have to play tough because I would be letting him down if I don't. He pushes me to play harder. To play for him. I'm still not through it, but it made me see life and basketball differently. You have to live in the moment and fight for everything. You never know when it's going to be the last possession."

Isaacs: "I came home from prep school after my sophomore year for Christmas break and my mom was having to stay in a weekly hotel. She didn't have a home. Nowhere to stay. My brother, sister and her didn't have anywhere else. That was really tough to see and go through. The fact that we're in a much better situation now shows how strong my family is. Who we are. What we can get through. I was so young when we were going through that, but it motivated me. Made me a stronger person"

Darrion Williams: "My grandpa's passing is the hardest thing that I've ever had to go through. I helped my mom and sister through it too. I stayed as strong as I could. I wanted to be strong for them. Put others before myself but also made sure I was all right. It was tough and taught me a lot about who I am as a person."

Lamar Washington: "My mom is the toughest person I know. She's dealt with a lot in her life and has never given up. I've never seen any weakness in her."

Yalaho: "Even though everything may not be perfect, you still push through. Being away from home for my senior year of high school was tough. I left my family and friends in Finland behind. Getting used to meeting new people. Different languages. It's not easy adjusting to different cultures. It's made me grow faster as a person. I've seen life from different perspectives in a short amount of time."

Francis: "I had a hard time in fourth grade with a knee surgery. I wasn't able to do anything for a while. It was really hard because I loved being active and playing with my friends. I was really young and couldn't do anything. I sat on the sidelines. Looking back, it really makes me grateful and appreciative of what I'm able to do now."

McCasland: "The teams that give the most to each other are the ones that win. They are tough because they are connected and believe in each other. That's how we are going to win."

Jennings: "We came out here all summer ready to compete. We blocked out everything. Mentally and physically. We took coaching and pushed ourselves to the limit because we want to win so bad."

Lamar Washington: "This team is going to be tough. We have been this summer for sure. We are playing hard and pushing each other. Iron sharpens iron. I feel like we all have that approach. We all want to push each other to be better. To play tougher. No matter what, we play with intensity."

Lindsay: "Tough teams don't let emotions negatively affect them. I'm a young player. I know that. We have a lot of young and talented players on this team. We can't be emotional out on the court though. We have to play connected and for each other. Be mature and tough even if we're young."

Warren Washington: "A tough team is disciplined. They have grit."

D'Maurian Williams: "The toughest team is always playing hard. They are competing until the end of every game."

Darrion Williams: "I see us as a team where everyone is bought in to doing whatever it takes to win. We will be the first team on the ground. We are going to sprint back on every play. Disciplined."

Isaacs: "Tough teams buy in. They sacrifice for each other. Not everything is fun, but it's beneficial for the entire team."

McMillian: "A tough basketball team is always together. They believe in each other. They trust each other on and off the court."

Francis: "Toughest Team Wins means doing all the little things correctly. Doing what the other team isn't willing to do. Diving for balls. Rebounding. Getting the best shot possible. Trusting each other for the benefit of the team."

Toussaint: "We have to be connected. If a play is messed up we have to have each other's backs on the next one. Having trust in each other is important. Calm, cool, collected. It always go back to that for me. Staying composed and tough at all times is what can take this team to where we want to go."

Jennings: "Whether you're in the film room, weight room, at home, or on the court, you always have to have a tough mindset. You can't let down. When you have a team that puts it all together, that's the team that usually comes out on top. Being locked in at all times is what toughness is about."

Walton: "Tough teams play together. For each other. Same goals and aspirations. Every day and game is different. You'll have ups and downs, but if you're a team full of tough players then you can go against any challenge. Other teams don't want to play that team."

McCasland: "Tough teams win."
