QUICK HITTERS

• NO INTRODUCTION NEEDED - Sophomore Kailey Wyckoff is back to form after a "slow" start to the season. While it wasn't slow in the traditional sense, the former Big 12 Freshman of the Year did take some time to get back to that level. She enters the weekend on a seven-game hitting streak including a 9-for-11 performance at the dish against BYU. Wyckoff also hit her first homer of the season and followed that up with a three-run blast in game two against New Mexico which helped her set a new career-high for RBIs in a game with four. Over her seven-game hit streak, she is slashing .667/.1048/.680 with 14 hits, two doubles, two homers and eight RBIs.

• MADDY & MADDIE - The bullpen was of some interest heading into the 2024 season. The Red Raiders have a good amount of arms, but not much experience behind those arms. Transfer Maddy Wright helped alleviate some of that when she committed to play for coach Snider following four years at Charlotte. Wright has been as advertised early on, with a 2.03 ERA and has a solid 6-2 record. A pleasant surprise early, however, has been the emergence of junior pitcher Maddie Kuehl. In her appearances she has already set new career-highs in wins, innings pitched, batters faced, saves, complete games and strikeouts. This was all highlighted by her brilliant complete game performance against Texas State where she struck out a career-high seven batters in route to her second win of the season. Kuehl then set another career high for strikeouts, sitting down nine against New Mexico State as she improved to 5-3 on the season.

• FEW BETTER THAN NO. 5 - Senior Riley Love has seemed to save the best for last as she has been on an absolute tear to start the 2024 season. Love has recorded 26 hits, nine doubles, 10 home runs, 36 RBIs and 69 total bases - all of which mark career highs. Her glove has been just as solid, having several stellar plays at the hot corner to save runs and base hits. For her impressive start she was recognized as the No. 6 ranked third baseman in the country by Softball America for the month of March. Her doubles and home runs are tied for most in the Big 12.

• IN THE RANKINGS - The Red Raiders currently sit at No. 26 in RPI and No. 25 in KPI while receiving votes in the ESPN/Softball.com Top 25 Poll. On offense, Tech ranks 2nd in the country for doubles (53), 10th in homers (35), 12th in slugging (.575), 12th in runs per game (7.09), and 30th for batting average (.326). On defense, the Red Raiders rank t-1st in double plays (17), 5th in double plays per game (.65) and 41st in fielding percentage (.972).

ADDITIONAL HEADLINES

RAINS CAREER SEASON

Senior Olivia Rains has gone along with the theme of 'saving the best for last.' The Pryor, Oklahoma native is an unblemished 6-0 on the year, setting a career high for wins, while recording a solid ERA. Her season was highlighted by a complete game 5.0 inning performance where she shutout New Mexico State and allowed just two hits.

SPEED, SPEED, SPEED

The Red Raiders welcomed freshman outfielder Logan Hallemen this year and she has immediately made an impact. Hallemen drew comparisons to former College World Series Champion and current assistant coach Morgan Klavevemann for her speed both on the base paths and in the outfield. She has started her career a perfect 14-for-14 on stolen bases, which leads the Big 12, while hitting .412 on the year.

OUTFIELD DEPTH

Carson Armijo, Gabby Rawls and Chassety Raines all saw themselves starting in the outfield at one point or another during the 2023 season. Armijo led the trio with 19 hits while batting .306 as she also sent three balls over the fence and added 19 RBIs. Armijo along with Rawls finished with a perfect 1.000 fielding percentage as well. Raines saw the most playing time of the three as she played in 31 games, recording seven hits, two home runs and 10 RBIs while batting .241. Villa also served in the outfield during the latter part of the season where she looks to remain. Villa that the best season of her career as she finished the season hitting .326 with 45 hits, eight home runs and 33 RBIs.

NEW ASSISTANTS, SAME GOAL

Coach Snider added a couple new faces to the coaching staff over the summer. Bryce Te Kulve enters his first season with the Red Raiders after spending two seasons as a graduate assistant at Florida State under one of the best pitching minds in the sport in Lonni Alameda. Te Kulve worked with three-time All-American Kathryn Sandercock in his time with the Seminoles and has experience pitching himself as he was a member of the 2023 U23 Men's National Team. Morgan Hornback also joined the coaching staff this summer as a student assistant. Although, she is not new to the program as she played five seasons for the Red Raiders before making the move to coaching.

ELDER & CRITES PROGRESSION

Junior Demi Elder is coming off a much improved second season with Texas Tech. After playing in 29 games her freshman year she became one of the more valuable players on the team, playing in 48 of the teams 51 games while batting .271 with 29 hits, 21RBIs and totaling 47 bases. Senior catcher Kennedy Crites also had a much improved season, playing 34 games while batting .267 with 20 hits and on defense, threw out 11 runners trying to steal a base in 19 tries.

PUT HER IN THE BOOKS

In her first collegiate season, Kailey Wyckoff took the Big 12 by storm on her way to winning Big 12 Freshman of the Year. She finished the regular season batting .401 with nine home runs, 15 doubles and 31 RBIs. She vaulted into the Tech record book, ranking top 10 in batting average, slugging percentage, doubles and total bases for a single season. Wyckoff was also named to the D1Softball top 100 players and Softball America's top 100 players at 88 and 52, respectively.

THE FUTURE'S NEVER BEEN BRIGHTER

Coach Snider and his staff had made it a point to recruit top-tier talent and they were rewarded with the No. 2 recruiting class for 2024 according to Extra Innings

Softball. Seven players, five of which hail from Texas, make up the best class in program history and all rank in the top 20 in their respective positions. Although the staff is excited for them to arrive next fall, the focus still remains on the 2024 campaign.

A LOOK AT THE FRESHMEN

- Mimi Blackledge comes to Lubbock from Center Point, Texas where she hit an otherworldly .704 for her career while also totaling 642 strikeouts to go alongside five no-hitters in the circle.
- Ella Hill hails from Richardson, Texas and batted .667 for her career in high school out of the catcher position. She was named Catcher of the Year and Player of the Year as well as the team's Most Valuable Player.
- Raegan Jennings is out of Atascocita, Texas where she was named a First Team All-District member in 2021 and a Second Team All-District member in 2022 for the infield.
- Makenna Mitchell hails from Santa Fe, Texas where she hit .437 and slugged .930 to help her team to a SA Co-District Championship, Bi-District Championship and an Area Championship.

WINNERS CIRCLE

The Red Raider pitching staff welcomes back Chassety Raines, Olivia Rains, Ranci Willis and Maddie Kuehl to go along with Hoover. Rains, a transfer from Oklahoma, enters her third season with the Red Raiders and pitched the third most innings on the team at 39.0. Willis and Kuehl combined for 23 appearances and six starts as they served mainly in relief roles. Raines has not pitched in the last two seasons, but is a perfect 19-0 in the circle dating back to her days at Texas Lutheran University.

SNIDER'S STRONG START

Head Coach Craig Snider enters his second year at the helm of the Texas Tech Softball program after an impressive first year, as he became just the third coach in program history to win 30-plus games and earn five or more ranked wins in their first season to go along with the best slugging team in program history.

WHO'S ON FIRST?

Tech has a tall task in replacing the production of last season's home run leader Ellie Bailey. Sophomore Dee McClarity showed flashes last season as she played in 37 games, starting seven of them. She finished the season hitting a solid .275 with 11 hits, five RBI's and 10 drawn walks for a .420 on-base percentage. Her glove was solid as well, as she finished with a perfect 1.000 fielding percentage. Transfer Aubrey Barnhart also has experience at first base along with freshman Blackledge, giving Snider and staff plenty of options.

ROCKY JOHNSON FIELD RENNOVATIONS

Former Red Raider student-athletes John and Tracy Sellers have donated to the Texas Tech Athletics Department. A portion of that donation will be allocated to the softball program for facility upgrades to Rocky Johnson Field, which includes the replacing of the grass and outfield walls as well as new field netting, an upgraded sound system and more. This is the largest commitment to Texas Tech's softball program in the last 20 years.

CRAIG SNIDER

HEAD COACH • 2nd SEASON • CENTENARY '04 • FRANKLIN, KENTUCKY

Craig Snider was named the ninth head softball coach in Texas Tech history on June 20, 2022.

One year later, Snider can look back at one of the most successful seasons in program history for a first year coach and look ahead to one of the more exciting futures in recent memory.

The Red Raiders, under Snider's tutelage, set new single-season program records for home runs (74), slugging percentage (.543), doubles (93) and set a new program record for home runs in a single game with six against Santa Clara. He also became just the third coach in program history to win 30-plus games and earn five or more ranked wins in their first season.

Snider and his staff built on the success of their on-field success with off-field success as Extra Innings Softball tabbed Tech's 2024 recruiting class No. 2 in the country only behind powerhouse program Oklahoma. With Kailey Wyckoff earning Big 12 Freshman of the Year honors last season, a solid 2023 recruiting class and next years historic class coming in the fall, there is good reason for the buzz around Snider's program.

During the last 21 seasons as an assistant, Snider has made stops at Oklahoma, Florida State and Texas A&M where he has coached 20 All-Americans and made three Women's College World Series appearances, taking home the championship trophy while on staff at Florida State in 2018.

Snider spent three seasons in College Station before coming to Lubbock where he helped transform the Aggie hitters, improving in nearly every offensive category over the last three seasons. He coached Hayley Lee to the 11th-best on-base percentage and fourth-most walks per game in the NCAA in 2022 as she earned NFCA All-America second team honors. In 2021, Lee gathered third team All-America accolades after finishing third in the NCAA in home runs, fifth in home runs per game, sixth in slugging percentage, seventh in total bases, 24th in on-base percentage and 39th in batting average.

Prior to his time at Texas A&M, Snider spent eight seasons at Florida State where he helped the Seminoles to 11 Athletic Coast Conference regular season and tournament championships, seven NCAA Super Regionals, three WCWS appearances and the 2018 National Championship.

While in Tallahassee, Snider built Florida State into one of the top offensive schools in the nation as the Seminole's set program records for home runs, batting average and RBI during the 2019 season. FSU ranked in the top 10 nationally for batting average, home runs per game, on base percentage, scoring and slugging that season alone.

During Florida State's championship run in 2018, the Seminoles ranked top 10 in doubles per game and slugging. With Snider's guidance, Sydney Sherrill led the nation in doubles, ranked ninth in hits and eighth in total bases. Three-time All-American Jessie Warren, meanwhile, ranked sixth in the NCAA in home runs, fifth in RBI and fifth in total bases.

Under Snider's direction, Seminole hitters saw tremendous success in 2017, ranking in the top five in the country for on-base percentage, scoring, slugging and triples per game, while finishing in the top 10 for home runs per game and batting average. Warren led the country in total bases and finished second in home runs, third in slugging and 10th in RBI, picking up first team All-America nods. Senior Alex Powers ranked seventh in the nation in doubles on her way to NFCA third team All-America honors.

Florida State made its second WCWS appearance in three seasons in 2016 as Snider helped the Seminole offense to a top-20 batting average and top-10 rankings in on-base percentage and scoring. The Seminoles swept NCAA Regionals and Super Regionals on the way to Oklahoma City where they would finish third nationally, falling in the semifinals.

Snider helped the Seminoles to its first WCWS in 10 years in 2014, as FSU put together a 55-9 record and ranked 12th national in scoring. Florida State was led offensively by Maddie O'Brien who finished as the nation's RBI leader with 83 runs driven in. O'Brien was named a first team All-American, ranking second nationally in home runs and slugging, third in on-base percentage and fifth in walks.

Snider came to Florida State after four seasons at Stephen F. Austin where he served as the hitting coach for the Ladyjacks from 2007-10. In 2008, he helped SFA to an NCAA Regional appearance after winning the Southland Conference tournament.

Previously, Snider spent the 2005-06 season as a graduate assistant at Oklahoma under Patty Gasso after stints as an assistant coach at Centenary (2004-05) and Lindsey Wilson College (2001-03).

A 2004 graduate of Centenary, Snider hails from Franklin, Kentucky. He has a daughter, Riley, and a son, Henry.
