SATURDAY STORYLINES

RED RAIDERS HEAD TO LITTLE APPLE

Texas Tech enters this Saturday's game seeking its best nine-game start to a season since 2008, as well as its first road win at Kansas State since 2008, when traveling for a 2:30 p.m. kick at Bill Snyder Family Stadium. The Wildcats enter the week having won eight straight in the series, as Texas Tech's last win came in a home game in 2015. A victory in the Little Apple would be an important one in the Big 12 race for the Red Raiders, who are one of four teams with one loss or less in the Big 12 standings, and are chasing a spot in Arlington in December.

WE PLAY DEFENSE AT TEXAS TECH

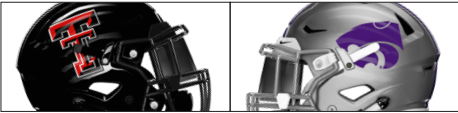

The Red Raiders are coming off a 42-0 victory versus Oklahoma State last weekend, marking their first shutout win over a Big 12 opponent since blanking Baylor in 2005. The win was another milestone for a Red Raider defense that continues to perform among the nation's top units. Texas Tech enters this weekend as the FBS leader in rushing defense, allowing only 68.1 yards per game on the ground. The Red Raiders are giving up just 12.4 points per game, which ranks fourth in the FBS and is on pace to be Texas Tech's lowest single-season average since 1964.

PUT J-ROD ON YOUR BALLOT

Jacob Rodriguez should be on every national ballot this year as not only one of the nation's top linebackers but also one of the top players in general. The leader for one of the nation's top defenses, Rodriguez the second-highest graded defensive player in college football, according to Pro Football Focus, as his 92.7 grade trails only Miami's Rueben Bain Jr. (94.7). Rodriguez enters this week with a share of the FBS lead with five forced fumbles, including one he forced and later returned 69 yards for a touchdown last Saturday in the win over Oklahoma State.

SERIES NOTEBOOK

INSIDE THE SERIES

- Texas Tech will look to reverse its recent fortunes against Kansas State next weekend as the Red Raiders are riding an eight-game losing streak to the Wildcats. It is the longest winning streak by either team in the series as Kansas State is 15-9 all-time in the series after winning 12 of the last 13 contests overall.
- The Red Raiders will be looking for their first win over Kansas State since late in the 2015 season when Texas Tech downed the Wildcats, 59-44, at Jones AT&T Stadium. Texas Tech has not won in Manhattan since the 2008 season when the Red Raiders downed K-State, 58-28. Kansas State has won six-consecutive games in the Little Apple.
- DeAndre Washington rushed for a career-high 248 yards and three touchdowns in a 59-44 victory in the 2015 victory over the Wildcats as he became the first Red Raider to rush for at least 200 yards in a game at the time since Shaud Williams did so against Colorado in 1999. Patrick Mahomes II also threw for 248 yards and three touchdowns in that win.
- The Red Raiders have gone down to the wire against Kansas State over the course of the eight-game losing streak as six of those losses have been determined by 10 points or less with four of them being one-possession games. Texas Tech is only 1-6 all-time in games determined by eight points or less versus the Wildcats with its lone win coming in the first-ever meeting between the two schools, a 6-0 victory in 1933.
- The two schools have only met three times outside of Big 12 play with the first coming in a 6-0 victory by the Red Raiders in 1933. The two schools also played in Lubbock during the 1963 and 1986 seasons, both Texas Tech victories.

TEXAS TECH-KANSAS STATE CONNECTIONS

- On the opposite sideline, the Kansas State staff features former Texas Tech head coach Matt Wells, who is in his second year with the Wildcats and his first as offensive coordinator. This will be the second time Wells has faced the Red Raiders since departing as Texas Tech's head coach during the 2021 season. He was previously in the role of advisor to the head coach when Oklahoma traveled to Lubbock for its final regular-season contest as a Big 12 member in 2022. Texas Tech won that game, 51-48, in overtime. Wells was the 16th head coach in school history, finishing 13-17 overall over the course of the 2019-21 seasons. The Kansas State staff also features Luke Wells as tight ends coach, who served in a similar capacity with the Red Raiders during that same time span.

- The lone other connection between the Texas Tech and Kansas State coaching staffs is with associate head coach Kenny Perry, who worked alongside K-State defensive ends coach Buddy Wyatt at Kansas in 2018. Wyatt was a senior analyst for the Jayhawks that season, while Perry was in his fourth and final year as special teams coordinator and recruiting coordinator.
- On the K-State roster, the Wildcats have one former Red Raider in senior wide receiver Jerand Bradley, who spent three seasons at Texas Tech (2021-23) before transferring to Boston College following the 2023 season. He arrived at Kansas State prior to this season. Bradley combined to catch 92 passes for 1,274 yards and 10 touchdowns over his Red Raider career with the bulk of that total coming as a redshirt freshman in 2022. Bradley led the Red Raiders in receiving that season after hauling in 51 passes for 744 yards and six touchdowns en route to earning honorable mention All-Big 12 accolades and second team Freshman All-America honors.
- Texas Tech Director of Athletics Kirby Hocutt was a four-year letterman linebacker at Kansas State where he led the Big 8 Conference in tackles as a junior in 1993. Hocutt, who was elected captain his senior year under legendary K-State head coach Bill Snyder, was named to the All-Big 8 Conference team following his junior season. The Sporting News selected him in 1993 as one of the nation's top-20 "most underrated" players. He earned his degree in political science from Kansas State in 1995.

AIR IT OUT VERSUS THE WILDCATS

- Since moving to a wide-open passing offense in 2000, Texas Tech has thrown for at least 300 yards in 14 of the 18 meetings against Kansas State with the lone exceptions coming recently in 2018, 2020, 2021 and 2023.
- Texas Tech fell two yards shy of hitting the 300-yard mark in the last meeting against Kansas State in 2023 as then-sophomore Behren Morton threw for 125 yards on 14-of-21 passing before departing at halftime due to injury, while true freshman Jake Strong threw for 173 yards and a touchdown.

THE LAST MATCHUP
KANSAS STATE 38, TEXAS TECH 21

Location: Lubbock, Texas | Attendance: 56,200

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) - Freshman quarterback Avery Johnson ran for five touchdowns, a first in the FBS during the 2023 season, while sharing time with starter Will Howard, and Kansas State beat Texas Tech, 38-21, on Saturday night.

Johnson finished with 91 yards rushing as the Wildcats (4-2, 2-1 Big 12) bounced back from a surprising loss at Oklahoma State with an eighth consecutive victory in the series for the defending Big 12 champions.

Jake Strong led a 99-yard drive to the only lead for Texas Tech (3-4, 2-2) in his debut in the third quarter after replacing injured starter Behren Morton. But the freshman threw three interceptions after the Wildcats had gone back in front.

Morton, who was starting because of the third long-term injury in as many seasons to Tyler Shough, was slow to get up several times in the first half and was ruled out after the break because of an undisclosed injury.

Strong's second series started at the Texas Tech 1-yard line, but his 13-yard pass got the drive going. Strong ran 54 yards to set up an 8-yard scoring pass on third down, when he lofted a pass just as he was hit hard in the pocket and Jerand Bradley got a foot down as he fell out the back of the end zone to give the Red Raiders a 21-17 lead.

Johnson, whose only other touchdown came in a blowout of Southeast Missouri State in the opener, replaced Howard on the third series and scored on a 2-yard run for a 10-0 lead.

Howard, a senior closing in on 30 career games, returned several times in the first half, but it was Johnson's show after the break.

His 30-yard run put Kansas State back in front for good at 24-21, and Johnson's 11-yard score put the Wildcats up 10 the first play after VJ Payne's 17-yard return of Strong's first interception. After Kobe Savage corralled Strong's third interception in the end zone, Johnson led an 80-yard drive to the game-sealing score, a 3-yard run for his fifth TD.

Treshaun Ward had 118 yards rushing as the Wildcats finished with 273 yards on the ground, the most allowed by Texas Tech this season.

Tahj Brooks ran for 98 yards and a touchdown for Texas Tech, and Morton scored on a 1-yard plunge.

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) - It was as risky a pass as Graham Harrell has ever thrown. Also the most important.

With the final seconds ticking off and Texas Tech trailing by a point, the Texas Tech quarterback saw Michael Crabtree in double coverage and let it fly. The All-American wide receiver snagged it on the sideline, shook off a defender and ducked into the end zone with one second left.

With that stunning 28-yard touchdown, the No. 6 Red Raiders turned near-heartbreak into a wild victory, 39-33 over No. 1 Texas on Saturday night.

Texas Tech showed it's tops in the Lone Star State - and maybe even the best team in the land.

"Play 60 minutes," Texas Tech coach Mike Leach said. "You may have a second to spare."

That's what it came down in a West Texas-style shootout that had the Longhorns (8-1, 4-1 Big 12) rally from a 19-0 deficit in the first half and from 29-13 in the third quarter to take a 33-32 lead with Vondrell McGee's 4-yard TD run with 1:29 to play.

The problem was, Texas left Harrell too much time.

Harrell drove the Red Raiders (9-0, 5-0) 62 yards to the touchdown in six plays, slinging the long pass to Crabtree, who broke the tackle of Curtis Brown, kept his balance, stayed in bounds and scooted the last few yards for a score.

Thousands of Texas Tech fans poured onto the field and had to be sent off while the play was under review to make sure Crabtree didn't step out of bounds. Once the fans were chased off the field and Tech kicked the extra point, the Red Raiders were penalized and forced to kick off from their own 7.

When Texas couldn't pull off a miracle kickoff return, the fans ran back on the field to celebrate the biggest win in Texas Tech history. The victory not only gave the Red Raiders command of the Big 12 South, it put them smack in the chase for the national title..

BEHREN MORTON VERSUS THE WILDCATS

■ Behren Morton is expected to return to his role as Texas Tech's starting quarterback Saturday versus the Wildcats. It will only be the second time in Morton's career that he's faced Kansas State and the first time to do so on the road. Morton, who did not play as a redshirt freshman in Texas Tech's visit to Manhattan in 2022, departed the 2023 contest at halftime due to injury, finishing 14-of-21 overall with 125 yards, while rushing six times for eight yards and a score.

OTHER NOTABLE KANSAS STATE OUTINGS

■ John Curry made his collegiate debut on special teams in the 2023 matchup against the Wildcats. He's seen then developed into one of Texas Tech's top defensive standouts as he's currently fourth on the team with 39 tackles this season to go along with a fumble recovery, two pass breakups and a quarterback hurry.

■ Coy Eakin recorded his first career 100-yard game against Kansas State in the last time the two teams faced each other, as he finished with five catches for 102 yards. It is one of three 100-yard receiving outings now in Eakin's career, as he later went for 106 yards that same season against Cal in the Independence Bowl and then 123 yards earlier this season versus Oregon State.

■ Lee Hunter will be one of only a handful of Red Raiders who have played inside Bill Snyder Family Stadium in Manhattan as his UCF team traveled to the Little Apple to start Big 12 play in 2023, the Knights' first as Big 12 members. Hunter had six tackles and a pass breakup in a losing effort, including one shared stop that went for a loss.

■ Brenden Jordan saw his role increase significantly during his true freshman season in 2023, beginning with the Kansas State game. Jordan recorded a season-high six tackles in the loss, including his first stop behind the line of scrimmage and his first career pass breakup.

■ A.J. McCarty has actually faced Kansas State three times already in his career, all while he was at Baylor during the 2020-22 seasons. McCarty has made only one tackle in those three games, but recovered a fumble in Baylor's visit to Manhattan late in the 2021 campaign.

■ Ben Roberts led the Red Raiders with a team-high 11 tackles in the 2023 matchup against the Wildcats. It was his fourth career game with double-digit tackles at the time, as he went on to earn Big 12 Defensive Freshman of the Year honors that season and was a second-team Freshman All-American by The Athletic. Roberts, who earlier made his collegiate debut on special teams at Kansas State in 2022, is one of four Red Raiders to record a tackle in that game who remain on the Texas Tech roster, joining Brenden Jordan (6), Charles Esters III (2), and E'Maurion Banks (1).

RED RAIDER NOTEBOOK

THIS WEEK IN THE TOP-25 POLLS

■ Texas Tech moved up again in the national rankings this week as the Red Raiders are now No. 13 in both the Associated Press and the USA Today Coaches polls. The Red Raiders were previously ranked as high as No. 7 prior to their loss at Arizona State, their highest appearance in either poll since late in the 2008 season.

■ The Red Raiders have been ranked inside the top 25 of both major polls every week thus far this season. Texas Tech entered the 2025 season ranked inside the top 25 of both major polls for the first time since 2008 as the Red Raiders were No. 23 in the Associated Press poll and No. 24 in the AFCA coaches poll. Texas Tech was previously ranked No. 24 in the 2023 AFCA preseason poll before falling out after a season-opening loss at Wyoming.

■ It was the first time the Red Raiders had appeared in the Associated Press poll since Sept. 23, 2018, when Texas Tech was No. 24 nationally after starting its season 3-1 overall with wins over Lamar, Houston, and at No. 15 Oklahoma State, and the lone loss coming in the opener to Ole Miss.

WHERE TEXAS TECH'S START RANKS

■ Texas Tech will be looking to improve to 8-1 on the season with a win over Kansas State. It would mark the 12th time in school history the Red Raiders have opened a season with an 8-1 record or better and the first time since their memorable 2008 campaign.

■ Texas Tech has only started five seasons since joining the Southwest Conference in 1960 with an 8-1 record as the Red Raiders previously did so twice under Mike Leach in 2005 (8-1) and 2008 (9-0) as well as under JT King in 1965 (8-1), 1973 under Jim Carlen (8-1) and 1976 under Steve Sloan (1976). Texas Tech captured at least a share of a conference title in two of those seasons as the SWC co-champion in 1976 and the Co-Big 12 South Division champion in 2008.

■ Texas Tech's current 7-1 start to its season marks its best record through eight games since the Red Raiders had a similar mark during the 2013 season. The Red Raiders proceeded to lose their ninth game of the season that year, falling to No. 12 Oklahoma State, 52-34, at home.

■ Each of Texas Tech's six seasons with 10 or more wins has been the result of at least an 8-1 start. The Red Raiders have finished with fewer than nine wins only twice when starting 8-1 overall, which came via a nine-game schedule in 1933 and then an 8-3 mark in 1965.

ULTIMATE GOAL: GET TO ARLINGTON

■ Texas Tech began this season with the ultimate goal of finding its way to AT&T Stadium in Arlington, the site of the Big 12 Championship game. That goal is still very much in reach as the Red Raiders are tied for third in the Big 12 standings at 4-1 overall. Texas Tech is now one of four Big 12 programs at 4-1 or better in Big 12 play, joining unbeaten BYU (5-0), Cincinnati (5-0) and then Houston (4-1).

■ The Red Raiders will be searching for only their third 5-1 start to Big 12 play since joining the conference in 1996. Texas Tech previously put together 5-1 starts in 2005 and 2008, ultimately finishing with Cotton Bowl appearances both years.

■ Texas Tech secured its second 3-0 start to Big 12 play in as many years with its 42-17 victory over Kansas. It marked the sixth time since joining the Big 12 in 1996 that the Red Raiders opened league play with three-straight victories and the eighth time overall since becoming a member of the SWC in 1960.

■ With a win over Kansas State, Texas Tech will have secured its fourth-consecutive season with a winning conference record for the third time since joining the Southwest Conference in 1960. The Red Raiders previously enjoyed a seven-year span with an above-.500 league record under Spike

THE NATION'S TOP TRANSFER CLASS

Texas Tech landed On3's top transfer portal class following the 2024 season as Joey McGuire and his staff signed 21 transfers to add to an already-talented list of returners. The class, which also ranked in the top five nationally by ESPN, The Athletic and 247Sports, delivered 10 players who were ranked among the top-100 portal entrees by one of the four publications.

Dykes from 1991-97, which covered Texas Tech's late tenure in the Southwest Conference and the beginning two years as a Big 12 member. Texas Tech also went four-straight seasons with a winning SWC record from 1967-70 under JT King and Jim Carlen.

TEXAS TECH DOMINANT OVERALL

- The Red Raiders have been dominant in their seven victories this season, winning all seven games by at least 24 points while outscoring opponents, 349-99, overall. Texas Tech currently ranks second nationally in average points differential as the Red Raiders are outscoring opponents to the tune of a 31.3 margin this season, which trails only Indiana (34.5) and barely leads top-ranked Ohio State (30.6).
- Texas Tech is the only team in the country with seven or more wins by 24 or more points this season. The only other school nationally with at six wins by at least 24 points this season is fellow Big 12 member Utah, which suffered a 34-10 loss to the Red Raiders to open conference play.
- Texas Tech's seven wins by at least 24 points are the most by a Big 12 team in a single season since TCU also had seven in 2014. The Red Raiders are plus-254 in victories this season, the fifth-highest margin for a Big 12 program through seven wins in league history and the highest since Baylor in 2013.
- Texas Tech has secured its four Big 12 wins by an 28.8 average margin thus far this season, which is on pace to be the highest for a Big 12 program with a minimum of four league victories since Oklahoma in 2015 (31.0).
- Prior to their loss at Arizona State, the Red Raiders were one of four FBS teams in the last 30 years to start a season winning their first six games by 20-plus points while holding each opponent to under 20 points. Texas Tech joins Michigan (2023), Stanford (2011) and Wisconsin (2011), all of which eventually won at least 11 games in those respective seasons. Texas Tech did not trail in a single game over that stretch, becoming the final FBS team to finally fall behind on the scoreboard at Arizona State.

FROM A HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE...

- This is the fourth time in school history the Red Raiders have won seven or more games in a season by 20 points and the first time since 2009 (7). Texas Tech also won seven or more games by a 20-point margin in 1953 (9) and 1932 (8).
- The Red Raiders have won at least nine games in each of their previous seasons with seven or more wins by 20-plus points. Texas Tech finished 11-1 overall in 1953, 10-2 in 1932, and was 9-4 in 2009.
- Texas Tech's current average points margin of 31.3 points would rank as its highest in school history. That record dates back to 1953, when Texas Tech outscored opponents to the tune of 29.6 points per game. Since joining the Southwest Conference in 1960, Texas Tech's highest average point differential is its 20.6 margin from 2005.
- Texas Tech's previous 6-0 start to its season - all by wins of at least 20 points - marked the first time since the 1953-54 seasons the Red Raiders won six-straight games by at least that margin. Texas Tech closed the 1953 season with five-straight wins by 20 or more points and then opened the 1954 campaign with a 41-9 victory at Texas A&M and a 33-7 win over West Texas State. The Red Raiders set the Texas Tech single-season record with nine of their 11 victories in 1953 coming by 20 or more points.

NOTES

- This will only be the third all-time meeting between Texas Tech and BYU and the second since the Cougars joined the Big 12 prior to the 2023 season. The two schools have split the previous two meetings with the Red Raiders edging BYU, 21-20, all the way back in 1940 with the Cougars winning the lone Big 12 matchup with a 27-14 victory in 2023.
- Texas Tech's victory over BYU in 1940 was part of a memorable 9-1-1 season for the Red Raiders in their final season under then head coach Pete Cawthon. It was the third of eight-consecutive victories that season for the Red Raiders, who would not face the Cougars again for 80-plus years.
- Texas Tech had never played a football game in the state of Utah prior to their trip to Provo midway through the 2023 season. The Cougars jumped out to a 24-7 lead at halftime en route to dropping the Red Raiders to 3-5 on the season thanks to a 27-14 victory. Texas Tech responded by winning its next three games to finish the regular season at 6-6 overall before a victory over Cal in the Independence Bowl.
- BYU forced five turnovers in that victory, turning those in 13 points. It marked the most giveaways by the Red Raider offense since falling to Baylor midway through the 2022 season.
- Texas Tech started Jake Strong in the loss as he became the seventh true freshman in school history to start a game at quarterback and the fifth to do so against conference opponent. Of that group, Strong was the first true freshman quarterback to make his starting debut on the road, joining Aaron Keessee, who did so in 1984 at Arkansas.

NOVEMBER GOOD TO TECH UNDER MCGUIRE

- The month of November has been good for the Red Raiders under Joey McGuire as Texas Tech has finished 3-1 over the final month of the season in each of his first three seasons. The Red Raiders will need another strong finish to their season to reach their ultimate goals as Tech kicks off the month at Kansas State before hosting No. 10 BYU and UCF in consecutive weeks. The Red Raiders will end the season at West Virginia following their second open date on the schedule.
- In his nearly three full seasons, McGuire is now 9-3 in games played in November, a drastic improvement for a Texas Tech program that was a combined 10-31 (.244) during the month over the previous 11 seasons.
- Joey McGuire is 9-3 during the month of November, which is the second-highest winning percentage for a Texas Tech head coach in regular-season games in November or December through his first three seasons. McGuire trails only Dell Morgan (1941-50), who was 8-2-1 during the month of November early in his tenure. McGuire's nine overall wins in November are tied with Steve Sloan (9-4 from 1975-77) for the most all-time among head coaches in their first three seasons.
- Texas Tech's 9-3 record in November since the start of the 2022 season leads the Big 12 among programs that have been in the conference each of those two years.

THE SCHEDULE THUS FAR...

- The only real criticism the Red Raiders have received so far this year is regarding their non-conference schedule. As a reminder, two other current top-15 teams in No. 6 Oregon and No. 18 Oklahoma, faced two of Texas Tech's non-conference opponents this season, with both winning by a smaller margin of victory. Oregon topped its in-state rival Oregon State, 41-7, on Sept. 20 in Eugene, one weekend after the Red Raiders downed the Beavers, 45-14, at home. Oklahoma, meanwhile, shut out a Kent State program, 44-0, that was blown out by the Red Raiders, 62-14, in week two.
- The Big 12 has five teams ranked in the top-25 this week with the Red Raiders having road wins over two of them in No. 22 Houston and No. 24 Utah. Those two schools are a combined 7-1 in Big 12 play when not factoring in their loss to the Red Raiders. In fact, Texas Tech is the only team to defeat Houston this week as the Cougars are tied with the Red Raiders at 4-1 in the Big 12 standings.
- Dating back to joining the Southwest Conference in 1960, Texas Tech has opened conference play with a 2-0 record as a result of road wins only once previously, which came during its memorable 1976 season. The Red Raiders shared the Southwest Conference title that season with a 7-1 league record, finishing 10-2 overall under Steve Sloan. Texas Tech began Big 12 play by delivering a 34-10 victory at previously-No. 16 Utah and then a 35-11 win at Houston, giving the Cougars what is still their only loss this season. Utah, meanwhile, is 5-2 overall.

- The Red Raiders, who closed last season with November road wins at No. 10 Iowa State and Oklahoma State, were in the midst of their longest conference road winning streak since 1996-97 until their loss at Arizona State. Texas Tech closed the 1996 campaign with three-consecutive Big 12 road wins over Kansas, Texas A&M and Oklahoma before beginning league play a year later with a victory at Baylor.
- Texas Tech went 3-1 overall during October, their best record in the month since the Red Raiders were 2-1 under Kliff Kingsbury in 2018.

HOME SWEET HOME

- Texas Tech is a perfect 5-0 this season inside the friendly confines of Jones AT&T Stadium, where the Red Raiders are now 20-5 under Joey McGuire since his hiring prior to the 2022 campaign. Texas Tech slightly leads Kansas State for the highest home winning percentage among Big 12 members during that span, entering this weekend. Texas Tech is 12-4 at home against Big 12 opponents under McGuire and an impressive 8-1 during non-conference play.
- This is the 14th time in program history and the third time in a four-year span that Tech has hosted seven games in a season, continuing its recent trend of prioritizing home games. The Red Raiders are slated to host seven home games in two of the next three seasons, with 2027 being the lone exception.

BEST BIG 12 HOME WINNING PERCENTAGES SINCE 2022
School	W-L	Pct.
1. Texas Tech	20-5	.800
2. Kansas State	19-5	.792
3. TCU	18-5	.783
4. BYU	17-5	.773
5. Utah	17-6	.739

SEARCHING FOR ANOTHER ROAD WIN

- Texas Tech returns to the road this week for its fourth Big 12 game away from home this season, all over a six-game stretch. The Red Raiders are 2-1 in road games this season after delivering a 34-10 victory at previously-No. 16 Utah and then a 35-11 win at Houston with the lone loss coming at Arizona State in their last game away from home.
- With a win over Kansas State, the Red Raiders will have three Big 12 road wins in the same season for the first time since 2008, when Texas Tech won at Kansas State, Texas A&M, and No. 19 Kansas.
- The loss at Arizona State snapped a four-game winning streak for the Red Raiders in Big 12 road games dating back to the end of the 2024 season. The Red Raiders, who closed last season with November road wins at No. 10 Iowa State and Oklahoma State, were in the midst of their longest conference road winning streak (no neutral sites) since Texas Tech closed the 1996 campaign with three-consecutive Big 12 road wins over Kansas, Texas A&M and Oklahoma before beginning league play a year later with a victory at Baylor.

RED RAIDERS IN ONE-POSSESSION GAMES

- Texas Tech has ranked among the nation's most successful teams in one-possession games since hiring Joey McGuire in 2022. The Red Raiders are 13-5 in such games under McGuire — a drastic improvement for a program that went a combined 13-20 in the seven seasons prior to his arrival. Texas Tech was 4-0 in one-possession games during McGuire's debut season in 2022, followed by a 3-3 mark in 2023 and a 6-1 record last year.
- The Red Raiders, who had beaten opponents by no fewer than 24 points per game through their first six contests (6-0), dropped their lone one-possession game of the year at Arizona State, a 26-22 loss that came down to a 28-yard Hail Mary on the final play, which fell just outside the grasp of a Red Raider receiver.
- Among teams nationally with at least eight one-possession games since 2022, Texas Tech leads the Big 12 for winning percentage, besting the likes of Houston (13-6, .684), BYU (12-6, .667) and West Virginia (10-6, .625). Texas Tech is ninth nationally for winning percentage in one-possession games during that same stretch.
- Texas Tech is an impressive 8-1 at home in one-possession games under McGuire, with the lone loss coming early in the 2023 season to No. 13 Oregon. The Red Raiders are 5-4 on the road, including three wins this past season at Arizona, Iowa State and Oklahoma State. Texas Tech also won a one-possession game at Iowa State in 2022 and at Kansas in 2023.

THE HOTTEST TICKET IN TOWN

- Texas Tech sold out of season tickets for the third-consecutive season in early May as Red Raider fans purchased more than 33,000 season passes for the 2025 campaign. This total does not include seats reserved for Texas Tech's student body, either. Texas Tech also sold out its entire premium seating inventory in all areas of Jones AT&T Stadium, which includes more than 100 luxury suites and 1,600 club seats.
- Texas Tech has added more than 14,000 season tickets since Joey McGuire's hiring in November 2021. Texas Tech previously sold 28,000 season tickets for McGuire's debut season in 2022, which, like this year's total, ranks among the top-10 highest season ticket counts in program history.
- Texas Tech has played in front of a sold-out crowd in four of its first five home games of the season, as 60,229 fans were on hand for the Arkansas-Pine Bluff, Kent State, Oregon State, and Kansas wins. The Red Raiders are already scheduled for one other advanced sellout this season as tickets are also already sold out for the Nov. 8 contest against BYU, making the regular-season finale against UCF the only game still available.

- At its current pace, Texas Tech is on course to easily snap the school's single-season average attendance record of 58,934 fans that was set over six games in 2014.

THE BIG 12 LEADER IN BOWL APPEARANCES

- Texas Tech secured its 43rd bowl appearance in its history and fifth in as many years with the win over Kansas, which leads all active Big 12 Conference teams. Texas Tech ranks tied for 20th nationally in all-time bowl appearances as the Red Raiders have one more than fellow Big 12 member BYU and two more than West Virginia.
- Texas Tech is currently in the midst of its longest bowl streak since its 2000-10 stretch, primarily under Mike Leach. That 11-year run represents the only time in program history that Texas Tech has made the postseason in five consecutive seasons. This is the third time in program history the Red Raiders have reached a bowl game in four-straight years, as Texas Tech also did so from 1993-96 under Spike Dykes.
- Joey McGuire is the first head coach in program history to lead the Red Raiders to a bowl appearance in each of his first four seasons. Texas Tech is 2-1 in bowl games under McGuire after topping Ole Miss in the 2022 TaxAct Texas Bowl and Cal in the 2023 Independence Bowl, while falling this past season to Arkansas in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

HOMETOWN PRIDE

- Texas Tech will continue to recognize the hometowns of every student-athlete on its roster this season with a special decal on the back of each gameday helmet. The decal will feature a throwback Masked Rider logo with the area code associated with each student-athlete's hometown as part of an initiative started in 2022 by head coach Joey McGuire.

THE BRAND NUMBER

Here at Texas Tech, there is only one available jersey number that is protected: No. 3. The jersey represents the player or players who best represent the core tenets of "The Brand," which represents Texas Tech's daily quest to be the "toughest, hard-working, most competitive team in the country."

The Red Raiders have two players wearing the jersey this season in returning linebacker Bryce Ramirez and wide receiver Coy Eakin. Ramirez was awarded the jersey prior to the 2023 season in recognition of his determination and leadership in response to a catastrophic leg injury suffered the year before at N.C. State.

Eakin, meanwhile, is coming off his best season as a Red Raider as he caught 49 passes for 652 yards and a team-leading seven touchdowns as only a sophomore this past season. He has 85 catches now for his Red Raider career, totaling 1,068 yards and nine touchdowns in 27 games. Eakin finished as Texas Tech's third-leading receiver this past season, trailing only departed senior Josh Kelly and returning senior Caleb Douglas. Eakin will move to Kelly's previous spot in Texas Tech's inside receiver position beginning this spring under new offensive coordinator Mack Leftwich.

In addition to representing the standards of "The Brand," the No. 3 jersey is designated to honor the life of the late Luke Siegel, who passed in August 2021 after inspiring countless others across the nation with his fighting spirit in the wake of a golf-cart accident. The No. 3 represented Siegel's favorite number.

DEGREES EARNED

The Red Raiders will enter the 2025 season with 21 student-athletes who are current college graduates, including 12 who earned their degree from Texas Tech University.

HEAD COACH JOEY MCGUIRE

THE HALL OF FAMER

- There likely isn't a power conference football program in the state of Texas with better ties to its high school coaches than at Texas Tech as McGuire hired six members of his charter coaching staff who have ties to the Texas High School Coaches Association (THSCA). McGuire, himself, is already a legend at the prep level as a member of the THSCA Hall of Honor and the Texas High School Football Hall of Fame.
- McGuire, owner of three state titles as head coach of Cedar Hill High School in the Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex, was inducted into the THSCA Hall of Honor (THSCA) in 2020 and then the Texas High School Football Hall of Fame in 2022 in the months after accepting the Texas Tech position. McGuire is still an avid speaker at the annual THSCA Convention and regularly hosts clinics for high school coaches each year.

NOT THE ONLY COACH IN THE FAMILY

- Texas Tech will have a second member of the McGuire family on its sidelines this season with Garret McGuire joining the staff as running backs coach. The younger McGuire previously played under his father at quarterback at Cedar Hill High School before enjoying four years as a backup quarterback at Baylor. He joined the coaching profession immediately after, serving as an offensive assistant with the NFL's Carolina Panthers (2021-22) and then as the wide receivers coach for Nebraska the past two seasons (2023-24).
- Garret isn't the only McGuire building an impressive career, either, as Raegan McGuire is a fashion designer for AMUR in New York City. Her designs have been worn by several high-profile figures, including Natalie Biden, the granddaughter of President Joe Biden, as well as Taylor Swift during her spring 2023 Eras Tour.

AN NFL FRONT OFFICE

- Under McGuire, Texas Tech's personnel department resembles an NFL front office, a first-in-its-kind approach in the world of college football. Texas Tech's personnel department is overseen by James Blanchard, who began the rise of the general manager role in college football soon after joining McGuire in Lubbock as his first hire after accepting the Texas Tech position.
- Few, if any, general managers across college football have the autonomy Blanchard enjoys under McGuire. Blanchard and his staff are responsible for identifying every prospect Texas Tech ultimately offers a scholarship opportunity, allowing McGuire and his coaching staff to prioritize player development and opponent scouting, especially during the season.
- The setup has helped Texas Tech land several of the nation's top recruits, especially in the lucrative footprint of the state of Texas. The Red Raiders began McGuire's tenure with a 2023 class that ranked as high as No. 23 by Rivals, its highest recruiting record in more than a decade. Texas Tech followed with another highly-rated class in 2024, which led the Big 12 and again ranked as high as No. 23 overall nationally.
- For McGuire, the Red Raiders have consistently prioritized recruiting the top high school talent in Texas, leaning into his staff's ties to the high school coaches throughout the state. Texas Tech has complemented that approach with several additions via the transfer portal where McGuire and his staff have delivered successful results via the likes of All-Big 12 selections like linebacker Jacob Rodriguez, wide receiver Josh Kelly, tight end Jalin Conyers and defensive back C.J. Baskerville, among others. Texas Tech landed On3's top transfer portal class this offseason as McGuire and his staff landed 21 newcomers to an already talented roster.

THE BRAND

The core tenant under McGuire revolves around The Brand, which stands for his desire that the Red Raiders be the "toughest, hardest-working, most-competitive team in the country." On his final interview for the Texas Tech position, McGuire described his vision for the Red Raider program using The Brand, which President Lawrence Schovanec said "describes West Texas."

WHAT'S NEXT!

Step into any Texas Tech practice and the phrase "What's Next" is one you'll hear early and often. No matter if something good or bad happens on the field, McGuire and his staff stress a "What's Next!" mentality, emphasizing that the focus should be on the next play or rep. And for reference, the phrase is always a statement, never a question, as evidenced by its exclamation point at its end.

TAKE THREE UNIVERSITY

McGuire, a defensive coach at heart, heavily utilizes the phrase "Take Three" as a program. The phrase has transformed into a rallying cry from the defense with in-house video production signaling "one," "two" or "three" each time the Red Raiders create a takeaway. McGuire, prior to each game, regularly wears a t-shirt designed for the defense that says "Take Three University."

THE UNOFFICIAL HOME OF THE THSCA

Since his hire as Texas Tech's head coach, Joey McGuire has made it a point to brand the Red Raiders the "unofficial home of the Texas High School Coaches Association." Already a Hall of Famer, himself, McGuire has hired a staff filled with experience at both the collegiate and high school levels, with five assistant coaches who have previous ties to the THSCA as well as a slew of support staff members.

That list includes associate head coach and special teams coordinator Kenny Perry (Bowie, Halton City and Sam Houston H.S.), offensive coordinator Mack Leftwich (Kirkland H.S.), offensive run game coordinator Josh Cochran (Lindale H.S.), offensive passing game coordinator Justin "Juice" Johnson (Plano West and Berkner H.S.) and defensive line coach Zarnell Fitch (Lincoln H.S.). Five support staff members also have THSCA experience in assistant defensive backs coach Jah'Shawn Johnson (Ennis H.S.), assistant linebackers coach Taylor Young (Richardson H.S.), Director of Player Personnel Brian Nance (Temple H.S.), Director of Player Development Dave Martin (Cedar Hill) and assistant strength coach Brandon Stevenson (Midland Christian and Lake County Christian H.S.).

Texas Tech defensive coordinator Shiel Wood and senior defensive analyst Jack Teachey, meanwhile, both have experience at the high school level on the East Coast.

SUCCESS IN BIG 12 PLAY

- Texas Tech has ranked among the most-consistent Big 12 programs during Joey McGuire's three-plus seasons as head coach, winning 20 conference games in that span. Dating back to Texas Tech's acceptance into the Southwest Conference in 1960, McGuire is one of two head coaches in history to have 20 or more league wins in his first 32 games. Jim Carlen was also 20-12 at the same point in his tenure, which spanned the 1970-74 seasons. Steve Sloan also had a strong league record early in his tenure, finishing 15-8 overall in Southwest Conference play during his three seasons from 1975-77.
- McGuire has returned the Red Raiders to being one of the Big 12's most competitive teams as Texas Tech was 5-4 in each of his first two seasons and then 6-3 in 2024. Prior to his debut 2022 season, Texas Tech had not recorded a winning conference record since 2009 as the Red Raiders were a combined 36-71 (.336) in the 12 years before McGuire's arrival with no seasons of at least a .500 record.
- In fact, the Red Raiders are joined by Kansas State as the only two Big 12 programs to boast an above-.500 conference record in each of the past three seasons, regardless of league affiliation.
- Prior to his arrival, Texas Tech had finished with at least five conference wins in three-straight years only once in its history from 1995-97 while transitioning from the Southwest Conference to the Big 12. That stretch coincided with a seven-year period with a winning conference record from 1991-97.

NEWS & NOTES ON MCGUIRE...

- McGuire is only the second head coach in program history to lead the Red Raiders to bowl games in each of his first four seasons, joining the late Mike Leach, who pushed Texas Tech to a bowl game in each of his 10 seasons.
- Texas Tech has hit the 40-point mark 17 times during McGuire's tenure as the Red Raiders are a perfect 17-0 in those games during his three-plus seasons.
- There is defense in West Texas as Texas Tech is 21-1 overall under McGuire when holding opponents to 25 or fewer points. Texas Tech has limited its opponents to 25 or fewer points 14 times during Big 12 play under McGuire and has done so in each of its two bowl victories.
- Texas Tech recorded six Big 12 wins during the 2024 season, marking the third time the Red Raiders have done so since joining the league in 1996. McGuire joins Steve Sloan as the only head coaches to win six conference games within their first three seasons in school history after Sloan pushed Texas Tech to a 7-1 mark in SWC play in 1976.

JACOB RODRIGUEZ, THE TAKEAWAY KING

Jacob Rodriguez has established himself as one of the nation's top players the past two seasons, not only for his tackling ability for his ability to create turnovers for the Red Raider defense. Rodriguez, the Big 12 Preseason Defensive Player of the Year and an All-American candidate, has had his hand in 14 takeaways over his career, including four already in Big 12 play this season. The Red Raiders are 10-1 in games that he creates a takeaway with the one loss coming in the 2023 season opener where he departed with a significant injury on the same play he forced and recovered a fumble.

DEFENSIVE NOTEBOOK

RODRIGUEZ NOT ALONE IN TAKEAWAYS

- For as good as Jacob Rodriguez has been in creating takeaways during his career, he's not alone on the Red Raider roster. Between not only Rodriguez but also fellow linebacker Ben Roberts and edge linebacker David Bailey, Texas Tech has three of the nation's active leaders in career forced fumbles as the trio has combined for 27 entering this weekend. Texas Tech is the only school in the FBS boasting two players with seven or more career forced fumbles, let alone three.
- Rodriguez ranks second in the FBS with 11 career forced fumbles, including four from this season alone. He trails only Buffalo's Red Murdock, who leads the nation with 16 forced fumbles of his own. Bailey is tied for third nationally with nine forced fumbles in his career, followed by Roberts and six others in a tie for seventh overall with seven.
- Rodriguez shares the FBS lead with Murdock with five forced fumbles this season, with his most recent coming last weekend when he pulled the ball loose and returned it 69 yards for a touchdown against Oklahoma State. He previously had another key forced fumble at Utah before adding an interception to help seal the victory late in the fourth quarter. Rodriguez has forced a fumble in three of the past four games, with Roberts and Bailey doing the same twice during that same span.

THE NATION'S TOP DEFENSIVE PLAYER

- Joey McGuire often refers to Jacob Rodriguez as the "quarterback of the defense." It's a fitting description for Rodriguez, who was a standout high school quarterback at Wichita Falls Rider High School and later signed with Virginia to play offense. Rodriguez has adapted that quarterback mentality into becoming the nation's top inside linebacker, both in his ability to stop the run and also assist in coverage.
- Rodriguez enters this week as the highest-graded inside linebacker with at least 200 snaps by Pro Football Focus, as he's grading out at 92.7 overall through the first eight games of the season. That grade ranks tied second nationally among players of all positions, trailing only Miami's Rueben Bain Jr. (94.7). The next-closest power conference linebacker to Rodriguez is CJ Allen of Georgia at 84.7 overall.
- Rodriguez leads the country (all positions) with a 97.3 grade in rush defense, while his 87.9 grade in coverage ranks second among linebackers and 20th overall.

NOT THE ONLY "TOUGH" RODRIGUEZ

- Jacob Rodriguez considers himself a tough guy. It makes sense knowing he's one of the few players who could go from quarterback to an All-Big 12 linebacker in only a matter of years. Rodriguez will tell you he's not the toughest member of his family, though. That honor belongs to his wife, Emma, who is an active-duty helicopter pilot in the U.S. Army. The couple was married in July 2023 in a surprise ceremony in Houston, beginning a journey in different parts of the country with Jacob in Lubbock and Emma at Fort Riley in Junction City, Kan.

"TAKE THREE DEFENSE" AMONG NATION'S BEST

- "Take three" has long been the mantra of Joey McGuire, dating back to his days leading Cedar Hill High School in the Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex. The phrase describes Texas Tech's continual goal to force at least three takeaways per game, which McGuire credits as greatly increasing his team's chances to walk away with a victory.
- The Red Raiders have reached the "take three" mark in two of five games to open Big 12 play as Texas Tech created four takeaways at Utah before following with three at Houston. Texas Tech is 9-1 under Joey McGuire when "taking three" and is 25-3 when leading or tied in the turnover margin.
- Texas Tech is tied for 12th in the FBS with 15 takeaways this season, which is also third in the Big 12, trailing only Kansas State (17) and BYU (16). The Red Raiders are also tied for 22nd nationally at plus-5 in the turnover margin.

CAN'T RUN ON US

- Texas Tech enters this weekend as the FBS leader for rushing defense as the Red Raiders are giving up only 68.1 yards per game on the ground this season. That is a significant improvement from a year ago when Texas Tech ranked 73rd nationally after surrendering 152.1 rushing yards per game.
- Four of Texas Tech's first five Big 12 opponents entered the matchup with the Red Raiders averaging at least 170.0 rushing yards per game before failing to come even close to that mark. Utah, which currently ranks fifth in the FBS with 267.1 rushing yards per game, was limited to only 101 yards, while Houston managed only 103 yards. Of the total versus Utah, 28 yards came on its final drive after the Red Raiders had already put the game away with a 34-10 lead.
- Texas Tech followed those two performances by only giving up 47 rushing yards versus Kansas, the fewest by a Big 12 opponent since Baylor was limited to only 17 yards on the ground midway through the 2023 season. The Red Raiders previously only allowed eight rushing yards in their win over Oregon State, the fewest rushing yards since Texas Tech stuffed Kansas State to negative-12 yards in the first-ever Big 12 game to open the 1996 season.
- Texas Tech is the only team in the country to allow less than 110 rushing yards in eight or more games this season, besting Indiana (7) and six other schools with six contests.
- The Texas Tech record for rushing defense average was set in 1964 when the Red Raiders gave up 115.6 yards per game. Texas Tech's best rush defense during the Big 12 era came in 1998 when the Red Raiders allowed only 118.9 yards per game.

THE NATION'S SACKS LEADER

- Texas Tech made splash after splash across college football this offseason with the signing of the top transfer portal class in the country. The loudest splash, however, came in early April with the signing of outside linebacker David Bailey, who committed to join the Red Raiders after three seasons at Stanford and is considered a potential NFL first-round selection next spring.
- Bailey has lived up to his billing as he enters this week as the FBS leader with 10.5 sacks already this season. Bailey, the highest-rated returning edge player in college football, has found the quarterback at least once in seven of eight games this season, combining for 8.0 sacks during Big 12 play alone, which also easily leads the FBS. In fact, Bailey easily leads the country for most sacks against conference opponents as Michigan's Derrick Moore and Texas A&M's Cashius Howell rank second overall with 6.5 sacks each.

- Bailey entered the top 10 in Texas Tech single-season history with his 2.0 sacks at Arizona State as he is now tied for seventh all-time with 10.5 sacks this year. Bailey is more than halfway to the school record of 15.0 sacks that was set by Brandon Sharpe in 2009. He enters this weekend's trip to Kansas State set to potentially tie or pass the likes of Pete Robertson (2014) and Aaron Hunt (2001) for fourth place at 12.0 sacks and Shawn Jackson (1992) for sixth with 11.0 sacks.
- Bailey currently leads the FBS with 50 total pressures, according to Pro Football Focus, with 13 of those coming against Houston, earning him the publication's National Defensive Player of the Week honors. His 50 pressures lead the country as Adam Trick of Miami (Ohio) ranks second in the FBS with 35 pressures. Bailey's teammate in Romello Height is tied for third among power-conference players with 37 pressures of his own.
- Bailey matched his career high with 3.0 sacks against Kansas and then followed with 2.0 at Arizona State, giving him 25.0 now for his career. Bailey ranks third among active FBS players for career sacks, trailing only Trey Moore of Texas (29.5) and Akheem Mesidor of Miami (26.5).

STRENGTH IN THE MIDDLE

- The middle of Texas Tech's defensive line received a significant boost with the signing of Lee Hunter, Skyler Gill-Howard and A.J. Holmes Jr. this offseason. That trio alone has combined for 336 tackles, including 60.0 for a loss and 21.0 sacks, forming one of the top interior defensive line units, possibly in college football.

NUMBERS TO KNOW

Texas Tech committed only one penalty versus Oklahoma State, marking the eighth time in history the Red Raiders have done so and the third time under Joey McGuire.

Texas Tech has allowed only two explosive rushing attempts of 20-plus yards by an opponent all season, making the Red Raiders one of only eight FBS teams to do so.

Texas Tech joins Toledo as one of only two FBS teams to lead their conference in both scoring offense and scoring defense entering this weekend.

Texas Tech has had an explosive return in four-straight games with three via Coy Eakin punt returns and the other from a J'Koby Williams kickoff return for a touchdown.

Texas Tech has held opponents under 300 yards of total offense six times this season (6-0) after having done so only five times in Joey McGuire's first three years.

Texas Tech set a single-game school record with nine sacks in its win over Kansas, breaking the previous mark of eight that was set in a 1993 win at SMU.

Texas Tech is one of only nine FBS schools that have converted three or more 2-point conversions this season. The Red Raiders need one more to match the FBS high.

14

Jacob Rodriguez has contributed to 14 takeaways over his career with the most recent being his strip fumble returned for a touchdown versus Oklahoma State.

20

Cameron Dickey is tied for fifth in the FBS with nine explosive runs of 20-plus yards. His 71-yard rushing TD versus Kansas was the longest by a Red Raider since 2020.

30

Teams with Shiel Wood as its defensive coordinator are a combined 30-1 when scoring at least 30 points since he was promoted at Army in 2021.

30

Joey McGuire secured his 30th career win last weekend, which marked the fourth time a Tech coach has reached the mark in 47 games and first since Jim Carlen (1970-74).

57

Texas Tech enters this weekend ranked third in the FBS with 57 offensive plays from scrimmage that have gone for 20 or more yards, including 39 through the air.

61

Texas Tech has scored 61 points off takeaways so far this season, which is the most in the Big 12 and the fifth-most in the FBS.

250

Texas Tech has outscored opponents by 250 points this season as the Red Raiders rank second in the FBS with an average win margin of 31.3 points per game

WOOD EXPERIENCED IN TURNING AROUND DEFENSES

- Shiel Wood is in his first season as Texas Tech's defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach, bringing a reputation of immediately improving defenses from stops at Army (2021), Troy (2022), Tulane (2023) and Houston (2024).
- Wood's defenses have ranked inside the top 35 for total defense in all four seasons since he was first named co-defensive coordinator at Army in 2021. In addition, opposing offenses have averaged less than 23.0 points per game against Wood's defenses since his promotion to play-caller at Army in 2021. Texas Tech, meanwhile, has not allowed less than 25.0 points per game since 2009.
- Wood has built a reputation for immediately improving defenses, particularly through turnovers. Both his defenses at Troy and Tulane ranked in the top 10 nationally for takeaways as his defenses are averaging 22.3 takeaways per season over the past four years. His defenses have increased their takeaway total from the previous year in each of his last three stops as a defensive coordinator. Texas Tech is more than halfway to that average through seven games as the Red Raiders are 12th nationally with 15 takeaways this season.
- Wood has certainly impressed early in his tenure after inheriting a Red Raider defense that surrendered 34.8 points per game a year ago. Texas Tech has seen immediate returns on his hiring as the Red Raiders enter this weekend ranked in the top-15 nationally for rushing defense (1st), takeaways (12th), scoring (4th), and total defense (10th).

- Texas Tech's front is as impressive as the Red Raiders have boasted in recent years, with PFF's Max Chadwick ranking the defensive line third nationally entering the 2025 season behind only Clemson and Alabama. The trio of Red Raider newcomers has backed up that preseason ranking with their performance on the field with all three ranking among the top-30 interior defensive linemen in the country thus far by PFF.

GETTING TO THE QUARTERBACK

- One of Texas Tech's biggest weaknesses defensively a year ago was its ability to get to the quarterback. The Red Raiders have already proven to be much-improved in that area with the addition of outside linebackers David Bailey and Romello Height as well as defensive tackles Lee Hunter, A.J. Holmes Jr., and Skyler Gill-Howard. Texas Tech is currently ranked as the top-ranked defense by Pro Football Focus with a 96.9 overall grade and the nation's third-best pass rushing unit (90.8).
- The edge-rushing duo of Bailey and Height has more than paid dividends for the Red Raiders thus far as they have combined for 15.5 sacks and 87 pressures alone. The duo ranks among the top players in college football with Height credited with a 92.3 overall grade followed by Bailey at 92.2, which ranks third and tied for fourth nationally.

- Texas Tech set a school record with nine sacks in the win over Kansas, snapping the previous mark of eight that was set in a 1993 win at SMU. It remains tied for the most sacks by an FBS team this season, joining the likes of Minnesota, New Mexico, and Oklahoma. In addition, it was the fifth time in Big 12 history that a conference team notched 9.0 or more sacks and was the first since Oklahoma had the same total in a 2020 victory over Kansas.
- Texas Tech has already surpassed its sacks total from a year ago with 26.0 on the season, which ranks eighth in the FBS and leads the Big 12 entering this weekend. Texas A&M is currently the nation's leader with 32.0 sacks this year.
- The Red Raiders have recorded 17.0 of their 26.0 sacks during Big 12 play, which is tied for the fourth-highest total in college football behind only Texas A&M (23.0), Indiana (21.0) and Minnesota (18.0).

ROBERTS OFF TO GREAT START

- Ben Roberts heads into this weekend with 241 tackles already in his career and is yet still a junior. Roberts has a long way to reach the Texas Tech career list, but the successful start has put the thought in reach over the next two seasons as he is more than halfway to reaching Ryan Aycock for 10th all-time in program history. Aycock, a member of this year's Texas Tech Hall of Fame class, compiled 338 tackles as a Red Raider safety from 2000-03.
- Roberts ranks tied for 11th nationally and fifth among players currently at a power-conference school with his 241 tackles since the 2023 season alone. The only active Big 12 player with more tackles during that span than Roberts is Oklahoma State linebacker Bryan McCoy, who has combined for 263 stops between his time at Akron and with the Cowboys.

MORTON AGAINST OTHER RETURNING QBs

There was a misconception this offseason that Behren Morton isn't among the top returning quarterbacks in college football. The senior gunslinger, fully healthy for the first time since his redshirt freshman season, is coming off a gritty 2024 campaign where he threw for 3,335 yards and 27 touchdowns to only eight interceptions. In fact, he is one of only six quarterbacks nationally to return this season after throwing for at least 3,000 yards and 20 touchdowns a year ago with eight or fewer interceptions.

OFFENSIVE NOTEBOOK

WINNING IS THE NAME OF THE GAME

- In the second episode of the Texas Tech documentary series "The Brand," Behren Morton details how he wants to be best remembered - a winner. Since the start of the 2023 season, Texas Tech is 18-4 in games Morton starts and does not depart due to injury, which includes a 12-3 mark during Big 12 play.
- During that span, Morton has departed four games due to injury, leaving the Kansas State loss in 2023 and the TCU road trip in 2024 at halftime with the Red Raiders locked in a one-possession game. He departed both the Big 12 opener at Utah just after halftime with the Red Raiders leading 10-3 at the time and then again against Kansas with Texas Tech enjoying a 21-0 lead at the time.
- Texas Tech has won each of its last eight games Morton has started as the Red Raiders closed the 2024 regular season with back-to-back wins over Oklahoma State and West Virginia before opening this year with a 6-0 record. Morton missed Texas Tech's appearance in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl a year ago to begin rehab from offseason surgery.
- Since becoming Texas Tech's primary starting quarterback beginning with the Houston win in 2023 - the fifth game of that season, Morton has missed only three starts during that span, sitting out the road trip to BYU in 2023, the AutoZone Liberty Bowl in 2024 and then last weekend at Arizona State. The Red Raiders are unfortunately 0-3 in those games.
- Overall, Morton has helped lead the Red Raiders to 21 wins over his 30 career starts, marking the most for a Texas Tech quarterback since Graham Harrell pushed the Red Raiders to a combined 28 victories in his three seasons as a starter from 2006-08. Harrell will be inducted into the Texas Tech Ring of Honor this Saturday, as well as the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame. Kliff Kingsbury also led the Red Raiders to 24 wins as a starter from 1999-02, as he and Harrell represent the two-winningest quarterbacks for Texas Tech in the Big 12 era.

MORTON OFF TO A STRONG START

- Behren Morton has combined to throw for 1,501 yards and 13 touchdowns to only three interceptions this season despite playing only one full game to this point. In fact, Morton has combined to play roughly only 14 quarters thus far as he departed the season opener versus Arkansas-Pine Bluff midway through the second quarter before leaving at halftime versus Kent State and then after the third quarter against Oregon State. He played all four quarters at Houston, throwing for 345 yards and a touchdown.

- Even with limited time, Morton enters this week among the FBS passing leaders, ranking in the top 30 nationally for yards per pass attempt (2nd), passing efficiency (4th), passing yards per completion (6th), completion percentage (19th) and passing yards a game (28th). He has led a Red Raider offense that is 12th in the FBS with 300.1 passing yards per game.

MORTON IN THE RECORD BOOK

- Morton moved into seventh place all-time on the career passing yards chart with his career-high 486 passing yards versus Oregon State, passing both Zebbie Lethridge (1994-97) and Billy Joe Tolliver (1985-88) in the victory. Morton now has 7,710 passing yards over 39 games as a Red Raider, as he trails Taylor Potts (2007-10) by 125 yards for sixth in program history and Robert Hall (1990-93) by 198 yards for fifth.
- With a strong finish to the season, Morton could end his Red Raider career ranked as high as fourth on Texas Tech's all-time passing chart. Seth Doege currently ranks fourth as he totaled 8,646 passing yards over his career after leading the Red Raider offense from 2009-12. His total is separated by 936 yards from Morton to this point.
- Morton has needed little time to find the end zone 13 times through the air this season as he now has 62 scoring tosses over his career. He enters this weekend tied with Potts for fifth all-time in program history as he needs seven to match Doege for fourth place in program history.

THE OFFENSIVE STANDARD

Texas Tech has long been considered the offensive standard since the Red Raiders moved to a passing attack in 2000. In fact, the numbers don't lie when it pertains to the high-octane Red Raider offense. Below is where Texas Tech ranks nationally in several offensive categories since the start of the 2000 season:

PLENTY OF DEPTH AT QUARTERBACK

- Joey McGuire has raved about his depth at quarterback since the start of preseason camp, with two talented backups in Will Hammond and Mitch Griffis, who have both led teams to wins during their respective careers. Texas Tech will need that depth the rest of the year with Griffis as the primary backup to Behren Morton after Hammond was ruled out for the season.
- Hammond was in the midst of his third career start and second of the season when he suffered an injury during the second quarter of Texas Tech's victory over Oklahoma State. He had thrown for 680 yards and seven touchdowns to that point on 69-of-109 passing (63.3 percent), while also ranking as Texas Tech's third-leading rusher with 43 carries for 299 yards and five touchdowns. He is only the fifth Texas Tech quarterback to rush for five or more touchdowns in a season during the Big 12 era, joining Zebbie Lethridge (1995-97), B.J. Symons (2003), Graham Harrell (2008), Patrick Mahomes II (2015-16), and Donovan Smith (2022).
- Hammond gave McGuire more reason to brag in the Big 12 opener at Utah as the redshirt freshman completed 13-of-16 passes for 169 yards and two touchdowns in the second half in place of an injured Behren Morton. The performance earned Hammond not only Big 12 Freshman of the Week honors but also one of the league's top offensive accolades.
- Griffis in his first season as a Red Raider after a year away from football. He previously was a captain and starter at Wake Forest, where he threw for 1,957 yards and 15 touchdowns over 10 starts from 2020-23. Griffis relieved Hammond against the Cowboys, throwing for 172 yards and a touchdown on 9-of-13 attempts, while also rushing for another score.

REPLACING TECH'S ALL-TIME RUSHER

- Texas Tech has filled its void at running back this season following the graduation of Tahj Brooks, who departed as the school's all-time leading rusher after back-to-back 1,500-yard rushing seasons. He snapped the Texas Tech career rushing record previously set by Byron Hanspard, while finishing fourth all-time on the Big 12 rushing chart with 4,557 yards over 56 games played from 2020 to 2024.
- The Red Raiders have not slowed down with the sophomore tandem of J'Koby Williams and Cameron Dickey, who have combined to outpace Texas Tech's rushing output from a year ago. Texas Tech has combined for 1,594 rushing yards and 19 touchdowns on the ground this season, a steady improvement from a year ago when the Red Raiders had 1,351 rushing yards and 15 touchdowns at the same point.
- The duo has combined for 1,068 rushing yards and 13 touchdowns this season alone, with Dickey carrying 113 times for 678 yards and nine scores, while Williams has added 390 yards and four touchdowns on 75 carries of his own.
- Texas Tech was fortunate to experience life in a post-Brooks world after he sat out the AutoZone Liberty Bowl to close the 2024 season. Williams earned the start against Arkansas, rushing for a career-high 123 yards and a touchdown, while Dickey added 74 rushing yards on a similar 15 carries.
- Williams rushed for 109 yards and two touchdowns at Houston, marking the second 100-yard outing in his young career. Dickey came close to giving the Red Raiders multiple 100-yard rushers as he finished with 96 yards on 20 carries to go along with a 69-yard touchdown reception.

DICKEY PLACES HIS NAME IN RECORD BOOK

- Cameron Dickey placed his name in the Texas Tech record book against Kansas after rushing for 263 yards and two touchdowns in the win. It marked the fifth-highest single-game rushing total by a Red Raider in school history and the most since Byron Hanspard set the Texas Tech record with 287 yards against Baylor in 1996.
- Dickey's performance remains the most single-game rushing yards in the FBS this season and the most for a Big 12 rusher since Iowa State's Abu Sama went for 276 yards on Nov. 25, 2023, at Kansas State.
- Dickey hit the 100-yard mark for the first time in his career in the first half alone as he opened the game with a 71-yard sprint into the end zone on Texas Tech's first play. He later found the end zone again via a 55-yard scamper early in the fourth quarter that pushed the lead to 35-17 with 14:12 remaining. As a team, the Red Raiders rushed for 372 yards, their most since racking up 453 yards on the ground against Louisiana early in the 1997 season.
- Dickey enters this weekend with at least a share of the Big 12 lead for both rushing touchdowns (9) and total touchdowns (10), ranking in the top-15 nationally in both categories. He also ranks 24th in the FBS and third in the Big 12 with 678 rushing yards. Dickey is averaging 6.0 yards per carry this season, which ranks 31st nationally and leads all Big 12 rushers entering this weekend.

LIGHTING UP THE SCOREBOARD

- Texas Tech enters this weekend ranked fourth in the FBS for scoring offense as the Red Raiders are averaging an impressive 43.6 points per game this season. The Red Raiders trail only North Texas (46.1, Tennessee (45.6) and Indiana (45.4) nationally heading into this weekend's matchup with Kansas State.
- Since moving to a spread offense in 2000, the Red Raiders are averaging 35.9 points per game, the fourth-highest clip during that span behind only Oklahoma (38.2), Boise State (37.9) and Oregon (37.6). Texas Tech has averaged at least 30.0 points per game in all but three of those seasons.

BIG PLAY THREATS ALL AROUND

- When Mack Leftwich took over as Texas Tech's offensive coordinator, he stated he wanted his version of the Air Raid offense to be more 50-50 in terms of play calls, focusing heavily on running the football and capitalizing on big plays in the passing game. The Red Raiders have done just that as Texas Tech enters this week as one of only two teams in the country to have thrown for at least 2,400 yards this season, while also rushing for at least 1,500 yards, joining Tennessee.
- Texas Tech ranks third in the FBS with 57 offensive plays already this season that have gone for at least 20 yards. The Red Raiders have capitalized on 39 passing plays of that distance this year, which ranks second in the FBS, while their 18 explosive rushing attempts are tied for the ninth-highest total in the country.

5. Boise State/Indiana/Washington	8	52

IT STARTS UP FRONT

- Texas Tech entered the 2025 season with one of the most experienced offensive line units in the country with a combined 165 career starts between its list of newcomers and returners. In fact, Texas Tech entered the season with the fourth-most combined career starts in the FBS. The added experience has paid off as Texas Tech is the 11th-highest graded pass blocking team in the country, according to Pro Football Focus. The Red Raiders have given up only 11.0 sacks so far this season, an improvement from the 25.0 allowed a year ago.

PLENTY OF OPTIONS AT RECEIVER

- The Red Raiders have proven to be among the deepest teams at wide receiver so far this season as Texas Tech shares the FBS lead with five players with at least 290 receiving yards this season in Coy Eakin (455), Caleb Douglas (512), tight end Terrance Carter Jr. (297), Reggie Virgil (363) and running back J'Koby Williams (295). Texas Tech is also one of only six schools nationally with six or more players with multiple touchdown catches this season with true freshman Bryson Jones joining the aforementioned group.
- Texas Tech had three different players eclipse 100 yards receiving versus Oregon State in Eakin (123), Williams (116)

LEFTWICH TAKES OVER OC DUTIES

- Texas Tech has a new offensive coordinator for the first time in Joey McGuire's tenure following the departure of Zach Kittley to accept the head coaching position at Florida Atlantic. In his place, McGuire landed Mack Leftwich, who had quickly developed into one of the fastest-rising offensive playcallers in college football following successful stints at both Incarnate Word and Texas State.
- Leftwich arrived at Texas Tech following two seasons at Texas State where he developed one of the nation's top offenses as the Bobcats led the Sun Belt Conference and ranked in the top 15 nationally for total offense and scoring during the 2023-24 campaigns. Texas State's success offensively pushed the Bobcats to their first two bowl appearances in school history and 16 combined victories.
- Leftwich inherited a Texas State offense that ranked 110th in the country for scoring at only 21.1 points per game prior to his arrival in 2022. He quickly changed that narrative, however, as Texas State used a balanced attack to average 36.7 points and Carter Jr. (102). It marked the first time Texas Tech boasted three 100-yard receivers in the same game since Jakeem Grant, Bradley Marquez and DeAndre Washington did so versus Baylor in 2014.

- Virgil and Carter lead the Red Raiders with five receiving touchdowns each, making Texas Tech one of seven teams in the country with multiple players with five or more this season. Carter is tied for second in the FBS among tight ends.
- Texas Tech's balance was also on display against Houston, marking the first time since last year's regular-season finale against West Virginia, where the Red Raiders featured a 300-yard passer in Behren Morton, a 100-yard rusher in J'Koby Williams and a 100-yard receiver in Caleb Douglas.

MCGUIRE ON FOURTH DOWNS

- Much has been said about Joey McGuire's aggressive approach to fourth downs over his four seasons. Even with an evolved approach last season, Texas Tech has been among the most active teams in the country in going for it on fourth down 127 times, which ranks as the fifth-highest total since 2022.
- The Red Raiders are a combined plus-151 over Joey McGuire's four seasons in the plus/minus scale, which is determined based on the result of Texas Tech's ongoing drive or points scored by an opponent on a failed attempt. Texas Tech ranks second in the Big 12 and tied for 21st nationally with a 59.1 fourth-down percentage (75-of-127) since 2022.
- In total, the Red Raiders have gone for it on fourth down at least five times in 10 different games under McGuire. Texas Tech has attempted at least one fourth-down conversion in all but six games under McGuire, with three of those in 2024 and two others this year at Utah and against Kansas.

per game in 2023 and then 36.5 points in 2024, easily its highest two single-season averages since the Bobcats joined the FBS level in 2012.

- Leftwich coached the quarterback position in each of his five seasons at Incarnate Word, helping identify three of the best in program history in Jon Copeland (2018-19), Cameron Ward (2020-21) and Lindsey Scott Jr. (2022). Ward, the No. 1 pick in the 2025 NFL Draft after finishing his career at Miami, combined for 6,908 passing yards and 71 touchdowns during his two seasons, which remain the most in school history.

MCGUIRE ERA DRAFT PICKS

- Five Red Raiders have heard their names called during the NFL Draft during Joey McGuire's tenure (2022-pres.). Most recently, the Las Vegas Raiders drafted offensive lineman Caleb Rogers in the third round (98th overall) in the 2025 Draft, and in the sixth round, the Cincinnati Bengals selected the Red Raiders' all-time leading rusher, Tahj Brooks. Defensive back Dadrion Taylor-Demerson went in the fourth round in 2024, followed by rush end Myles Cole going in the seventh round to Jacksonville. During Tech's first spring offseason under McGuire, the Red Raiders had only one draft pick, but it came quickly, as the Raiders made Tyree Wilson the highest-drafted defensive player in school history at No. 7 overall.

THREE-TIME SUPER BOWL CHAMPION

- Patrick Mahomes II became the first Red Raider in school history to win three career Super Bowls after he helped lead the Kansas City Chiefs to a 25-22 overtime victory over the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl LVIII in 2024. It was the second-straight Super Bowl title for the Chiefs and their third in five years. Mahomes guided Kansas City to its third consecutive Super Bowl appearance last season but was denied a three-peat by the Philadelphia Eagles.
- With his first Super Bowl win (2020) over the San Francisco 49ers, Mahomes was named Super Bowl MVP at only 24 years of age, making him the youngest player in NFL history to earn Super Bowl MVP honors.

FIRST ROUND DRAFT PICKS

- Texas Tech currently has three first-round NFL Draft picks active heading into the 2025 NFL season. In addition to Patrick Mahomes II being the 10th overall pick by the Kansas City Chiefs in 2017, and while maybe not known for its defense in recent years, the two others include linebacker Jordyn Brooks and defensive end Tyree Wilson.
- The Miami Dolphins selected Jordyn Brooks 27th overall in the 2020 draft and has since moved on to the Miami Dolphins. Meanwhile, Tyree Wilson was the seventh overall selection in the 2023 draft, making him the highest-drafted defensive player in program history.

COME-FROM-BEHIND WINS

The victory over Cincinnati at home on Sept. 28 marked the 27th time since 2000, and fourth time under Joey McGuire, that the Red Raiders overcame a double-digit deficit to win. Below is a listing of Tech's come-from-behind wins during that span:

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTEBOOK

KP KNOWS KICKERS

■ Texas Tech has ranked among the most-accurate teams in the country for field goals under special teams coordinator Kenny Perry, the past four seasons, despite often splitting duties between multiple kickers. This year is no different, with Stone Harrington and Upton Bellenfant combining to find the uprights on 14-of-17 attempts, marking the ninth-most successful tries in the country.

■ Bellenfant is a perfect 6-for-6 on field goal attempts this season, while Harrington is responsible for all three misses at 8-for-11 overall. Bellenfant has made each of his six field goals from within 40 yards, while Harrington's three misses are from 40-plus yards.

■ Harrington recorded a memorable performance at Utah, where he was 2-for-2 on field goal attempts, which included a 58-yarder just before halftime. It marked the second-longest field goal in program history, trailing only the 62-yard attempt Jonathan Garibay connected on as time expired in Texas Tech's victory over Iowa State in 2021. He was named the Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week following the win over Houston as he connected on three of Texas Tech's five field goals, a new single-game record.

■ Needless to say, Perry knows the right buttons to push at the kicker position. In fact, his kickers have made 80.3 percent of their field goal attempts since he became a quality control analyst at SMU in 2020. He was promoted to special teams coordinator at SMU in 2021 before joining Joey McGuire's charter staff at Texas Tech a year later, where he has already developed two of the top kickers in program history in Garcia and Trey Wolff.

EXPLOSIVENESS IN RETURN GAME

■ Coy Eakin has found another role in recent weeks in addition to being one of Texas Tech's top wide receivers, as he's taken over as the primary punt returner. Eakin has made six returns since moving into the role at Houston, as he's totaled 119 yards at a 19.8 average. He had a 36-yard return at Arizona State, marking the third consecutive week he's brought back a punt of at least 30 yards. He also had a 30-yard return against Houston and another 36-yard return versus Kansas.

■ Eakin currently does not meet the minimum number of punt returns to enter the NCAA stat rankings. If he did, however, his 19.8 yards per return average would rank fifth nationally and lead the Big 12.

■ Texas Tech has also been boosted by J'Koby Williams on kick returns in recent weeks, as he has three returns for 186 yards (62.0) average, which included a 99-yard return for a touchdown to kick off the Oklahoma State win. It was the first opening kickoff returned for a touchdown by a Red Raider since Keke Coutee went 92 yards versus Baylor in 2017. Williams was named the Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week for his efforts.

BURGESS AMONG NATION'S TOP PUNTERS

■ Jack Burgess was singled out by head coach Joey McGuire during a preseason press conference, praising him for his offseason work and a notable 5-yard distance improvement he had observed. He's been called on to punt only 25 times this season as he's averaging 43.4 yards per attempt with 13 that have been downed inside the 20.

SWAT PATROL

■ Texas Tech has blocked 14 kicks in the four seasons under Joey McGuire and special teams coordinator Kenny Perry, which leads the Big 12 Conference since 2022 and ranks tied-sixth nationally since 2022.

■ Texas Tech enters this weekend as the FBS leader with five blocked kicks already this season, all on punt returns. The Red Raiders have got their hands on a punt in each of the past two weeks as Oliver Miles III and A.J. McCarty both have two blocks this season, while Mikal Harrison-Pilot has the other.

■ A.J. McCarty got his hands on two punts against Kent State, marking the first time a Big 12 player had blocked a pair of kicks since Oklahoma State's Korie Black did so in its 2023 season opener against Central Arkansas. The performance alone marked the first time Texas Tech had blocked multiple kicks in the same game as a team since the Red Raiders traveled to New Mexico in 2010.

■ E'Maurion Banks has been one of the Red Raiders' biggest disrupters on those lines as he has recorded one block in each of the past two seasons against UCF in 2023 and then against Arizona State a year ago. Both blocks came in pivotal moments in the second half of the two victories.

SOUTH END ZONE & WOMBLE FOOTBALL CENTER

- Texas Tech moved into the South End Zone and Dustin R. Womble Football Center in 2024, which features more than 340,000 combined square feet of space with a blend of world-class modern design and technology elements with Spanish Renaissance architecture well known on the Texas Tech campus. The $242 million project marks the largest contiguous football facility in the country, connecting the south end zone building to the Womble Football Center and the Sports Performance Center, which opened in 2017 as Texas Tech's indoor football practice facility and indoor track and field venue.
- Joey McGuire and his staff's offices are on the second floor of the south end zone building, giving them a stunning view overlooking Cody Campbell Field at Jones AT&T Stadium. The office location places McGuire and his staff steps from each position room and the skybridge connected to the Womble Football Center where offensive and defensive breakout rooms are located as well as a team meeting space and a state-of-the-art walkthrough area on the second level.
- The Womble Football Center is a two-story building that maintains its football strength and conditioning, sports medicine and equipment areas on the main level as part of the new layout. The Red Raiders' main locker room is located in the Womble Football Center, which includes space for 120-plus athletes and modern primary designs from Hollman that are fully ventilated and contain USB charging ports and DreamSeat technology for every player.
- The second floor of the Womble Football Center features a revolutionary 4,500-plus square foot multi-purpose walkthrough area designed for large-scale indoor team strategy implementation, instruction and technique evaluation only a few steps from the team meeting space and position rooms. The space boasts a 25-by-20 yard turf surface in front of a 70-foot wide by 10.5-foot high LED screen that will be the largest in both college football and the NFL for walkthrough areas. The LED screen will allow Texas Tech's coaches to simulate an opponent's formation and scheme, giving the Red Raiders real-time feedback through the advanced technology during game preparations.

- Texas Tech now boasts a 15,000-square-foot, two-level weight room, one of the largest in college football. The weight room area is located in the southwest corner of the Womble Football Center, giving the Red Raiders direct access into the Sports Performance Center and the outdoor practice fields.
- The entire facility significantly upgraded the amenities provided to the Red Raiders on a daily basis, notably with a two-story players' lounge, the "Uncommon Man" barber shop, a state-of-the-art hydrotherapy recovery suite and a primary 12,000-square-foot locker room located in the Womble Football Center.
- The Red Raiders enter Jones AT&T Stadium each gameday through the Gary Petersen Field Club, a 12,000-square-foot premium space that is among the first of its kind in college football. It is one of several new premium areas as Texas Tech has added 17 new luxury suites to go along with 500 club and loge box seats and two spacious party decks.
- The opening of the South End Zone Building to Jones AT&T Stadium officially closed The Campaign for Fearless Champions, one of the most-successful fundraising initiatives in university history that raised more than $500 million to transform Texas Tech's athletic facilities across every sport, while also pouring resources into the student-athlete experience through scholarship endowments and the creation of the J.T. and Margaret Talkington Office of Student-Athlete Development.
- In addition to the large-scale construction, Texas Tech also enhanced its gameday experience as part of the project, adding nine LED displays through Daktronics as well as a state-of-the-art sound system by Clair Audio, a national leader in large venue audio production. The added LED displays include the main videoboard on the north end of the stadium, expanding it to 37-feet high by 136-feet wide in size with 10-millimeter pixel spacing for excellent image clarity and contrast. Texas Tech also constructed two new video displays atop its south end zone measuring 28-feet high by 48-feet wide, featuring content zoning abilities that are already a staple of the north end zone videoboard. All three new videoboards feature 10mm pixel pitch, providing every fan in the 60,000-plus seat stadium with the highest resolution display in college football.

TEXAS TECH COACHING STAFF

KENNY PERRY

Assoc. HC/Special Teams Coordinator
4th Season at Tech
Game Day Location: Sideline

Career Breakdown: Perry, a legendary high school head coach in the DFW metroplex, had one of the nation's top running backs in 2024 with Tahj Brooks, who went on to become Tech's all-time leading rusher and a sixth round pick of the Cincinnati Bengals in the 2025 NFL Draft. Perry spent the previous three seasons serving as Tech's running backs coach.

MACK LEFTWICH

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks
1st Season at Tech
Game Day Location: Sideline

Career Breakdown: One of the top young play-callers in the country, Leftwich arrived to Texas Tech following two seasons at Texas State. The Bobcats' offense ranked nationally in the top 15 both seasons, leading the Sun Belt in scoring, finishing seventh in the FBS in 2023 and then 11th in 2024. Leftwich is credited with helping discover Cameron Ward, the No. 1 pick in the 2025 NFL Draft who began his career at Incarnate Word. Leftwich was on the staff from 2018-22.

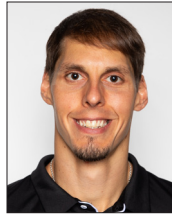

SHIEL WOOD

Defensive Coordinator/ILB Coach
1st Season at Tech
Game Day Location: Sideline

Career Breakdown: Wood arrives to Lubbock after one season in the same role at conference foe Houston. One of the top up-and-coming defensive coaches in the country, Wood's defenses have ranked inside the top 35 for total defense since 2021. His previous stops include Army (2020-21), Troy (2022) and Tulane (2024). Opposing offenses have averaged less than 23.0 ppg against his units since his promotion to play-caller at Army his final year there.

JOSH COCHRAN

Running Game Coord./Tight Ends Coach
4th Season at Tech
Game Day Location: Pressbox

Career Breakdown: Cochran shifted over to coach the tight ends under Joey McGuire after spending the previous two seasons as the co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Austin Peay. Cochran, who was named in July 2022 to Dave Campbell's Texas Football "40 under 40" coaches list, is a one-time THSCA member as he began his career in the prep ranks at Lindale High School in East Texas.

JUSTIN JOHNSON

Asst. HC/Passing Game Coord./WR Coach
3rd Season at Tech
Game Day Location: Sideline

Career Breakdown: Johnson, nicknamed "Coach Juice" throughout his career, arrived in Lubbock after a three-year stint at Baylor. Johnson oversaw the running backs room at both Baylor and then Houston, his alma mater, in 2019, but returns to coaching wide receivers with the Red Raiders. He previously was the wide receivers coach at Kansas in 2018, the same position he starred at during his own four-year career at Houston.

CLAY MCGUIRE

Offensive Line Coach
2nd Season at Tech
Game Day Location: Sideline

Career Breakdown: McGuire (no relation to Joey McGuire) returned to his alma mater following two seasons as the offensive line coach at Washington State, his second stint with the Cougars after serving in a similar capacity for six years under Mike Leach from 2012-17. Texas Tech stalwart tackle Caleb Rogers was the first Red Raider to hear his name called in the 2025 NFL Draft as the Las Vegas Raiders took him 98th overall in the third round.

GARRET MCGUIRE

Running Backs Coach
1st Season at Tech
Game Day Location: Pressbox

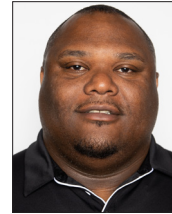

Career Breakdown: This season will mark McGuire's fifth year at either the collegiate or professional level and first overseeing the running backs position. He was previously the wide receivers coach at Nebraska (2023-24) after starting his career with the Carolina Panthers as a coaching assistant in 2021.

C.J. AH YOU

Outside Linebackers Coach
4th Season at Tech
Game Day Location: Sideline

Career Breakdown: Ah You mentored Tyree Wilson to first team All-America honors during his debut season on the Red Raider staff as Texas Tech, behind Wilson the Red Raiders ranked in the top 20 nationally for tackles for loss. His hiring marked his return to the Big 12 where he previously starred at Oklahoma (2005-06) before enjoying a six-year NFL career with the St. Louis Rams.

ZARNELL FITCH

Defensive Line Coach
4th Season at Tech
Game Day Location: Sideline

Career Breakdown: Fitch, another one-time Texas High School Coaches Association member, is no stranger to the Big 12 as he previously served in a similar role at TCU prior to his arrival in Lubbock. Fitch has mentored 13 players who have earned All-Big 12 honors during his career, a list that features Texas Tech's Tony Bradford Jr. and Jaylon Hutchings, who were one of only three FBS duos to record at least 30 pressures each in 2022.

ROB GREENE

Safeties Coach
1st Season at Tech
Game Day Location: Pressbox

Career Breakdown: Greene arrived to Texas Tech following two seasons at Tulane where the Green Wave combined for 20 wins and played for two American Athletic Conference titles. This is Greene's third stint working alongside defensive coordinator Shiel Wood as the two were previously on staff together at Wofford in 2017 and Tulane in 2023.

DARCEL MCBATH

Cornerbacks Coach
1st Season at Tech
Game Day Location: Sideline

Career Breakdown: One of the top defensive backs in Tech history, McBath enters his first season (second overall) with the Red Raiders as their cornerbacks coach after being promoted from analyst during the 2024 season. A longtime assistant under the last Mike Leach, McBath returns to his alma mater following four seasons at Mississippi State (2020-23) and two additional years in a similar capacity at Washington State (2018-19).

WEEKLY AVAILABILITY REPORT

Beginning with the 2025-26 season, the Big 12 Conference will publicly provide player availability reports for all Conference games in football, men's basketball, and women's basketball. Approved by all member institutions, the policy will include updates in the days leading up to each game, as well as a final report 90 minutes prior to kickoff.

Big 12 football programs will be required to submit daily reports beginning three days before each game. All reports will be housed exclusively at Big12Sports.com. For football, student-athletes must be designated as available, probable, questionable, doubtful, or out.

OFFENSIVE DEPTH CHART: NOTES

LEFT TACKLE 79 HOWARD SAMPSON Jr. 6-8 340 - A transfer from North Carolina dubbed by ESPN as the No. 2-ranked OT in the transfer portal, where he played one season, starting all 12 games at left tackle. Sampson's favorite movie of all time is Ratatouille because, as he says, "that lil rat has some power." Soccer is his second-favorite sport. 65 D'ANTHIS UPSHAW R-Fr. 6-5 305 - Did not see any playing time in 2024 as he was primarily a member of the scout team. Attended Irving HS in the DFW metroplex, where he starred on both the offensive and defensive lines. You can see Upshaw playing TE at various points this season.	LEFT GUARD 76 WILL JADOS Sr. 6-7 305 - Arrives to Lubbock via Miami (Ohio) where he was the starter at left tackle the past three seasons. During that time, Jados only allowed nine sacks in 1,124 pass-blocking opportunities. His high school, Westerville Central, celebrated its first graduating class in 2006. 71 VINNY SCIURY R-Sr. 6-4 295 - Appeared in only two games in first year at Tech in 2024, both starts, before suffering a season-ending injury at Washington State (9/7). Was Texas Tech's starter at left guard up until that point. Had not previously used a redshirt.	CENTER 72 SHERIDAN WILSON Jr. 6-5 300 - His father, Jon Wilson, was a four-year starter (DL) for Auburn from 1988-91 under Hall of Fame Coach and AD, Pat Dye, who Auburn named its field after in 2005. "Sheri" as he's referred to by his teammates, started all 13 games last season at center. 52 CASH CLEVELAND So. 6-2 305 - Arrived at Texas Tech following one season at Colorado. Earned Freshman All-America honors from the likes of On3, 247Sports and Pro Football Focus and became the first Colorado true freshman walk-on to start at center for the Buffaloes in school history.	RIGHT GUARD 56 DAVION CARTER S-Sr. 6-0 295 - Started 12 of 13 games at right guard last season in his first season with Tech. This offseason, Carter bench pressed 425 lbs and squatted 655 lbs. According to PFF, he was Tech's second-highest graded o-lineman. From Pearl, Miss.; a member of Pearl's 2017 6A state championship team. 74 DANIEL SILL So. 6-5 310 - Made his collegiate debut in the 2024 season-opener versus Abilene Christian. Attended high school at A&M Consolidated and was listed No. 58 among OTs in the country by ESPN. He chose Texas Tech over Baylor, Rice, Stanford, Utah, and Washington State.	RIGHT TACKLE 70 JACOB PONTON R-Fr. 6-8 305 - Made his first career start in the 2024 Liberty Bowl and became the first TTU true freshman offensive lineman to make a start since Caleb Rogers (2020). Was considered a 4-star prospect by On3 and listed as the nation's No. 15 OT prospect. Owned the weight room this offseason, going from 280 to 305. 57 HUNTER ZAMBRANO S-Sr. 6-5 310 - Started his career in 2020 at Illinois State (FCS), playing in 30 games with 26 starts before redshirting in 2024. Born and raised in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Zambrano is an avid fisherman and says he's one of the best ping pong players on the team.
WIDE RECEIVER (Slot) 3 COY EAKIN Jr. 6-2 210 "Cowboy Coy" played in all 13 games, making 12 starts in 2024, ranking third on the team after catching 49 passes for 652 yards and a team-leading 7 TDs. Wears the No. 3 jersey, which is reserved for the player who best represents the standards of "The Brand" on both sides of the ball. 6 KELBY VALSIN So. 6-1 195 - Appeared in 12 of 13 games either on special teams or as a wide receiver in 2024. Attended Bowie High School in his hometown of Arlington, Texas ... one of the top wide receiver prospects in the state of Texas. Considered a three-star prospect by the likes of 247Sports, Rivals, ESPN and On3.com	WIDE RECEIVER (Y) 1 REGGIE VIRGIL Sr. 6-3 190 - A transfer from Miami (Ohio), Virgil is a true fourth-year senior having played in 36 games the past three seasons. Coming off a breakout year with the Redhawks, where he caught 41 passes for 816 yards and 9 TDs. Considers himself one of the best bowlers on the team. 14 MICAH HUDSON So. 6-0 200 - Appeared in eight games with one start (Washington State) as he battled injuries throughout 2024. Caught 8 passes for 123 yards overall with a reception in five different games. Consensus five-star recruit; highest signed TT player during the internet signing era.	WIDE RECEIVER (Z) 5 CALEB DOUGLAS Sr. 6-4 205 - Coming off a breakout year in his first season with Texas Tech. Finished as Tech's second-leading receiver after catching 60 passes for 877 yards and 6 TDs - easily the highest single-season numbers of his career. His father, Cedric, played quarterback at both Vanderbilt and Texas Southern. 4 T.J. WEST So. 6-1 195 - Primarily a scout team member that saw action in two games last season against UNT (9/14) and the AutoZone Liberty Bowl (12/27). Houston native and attended Humble HS. Closed his senior season with 41 receptions for 685 yards and 8 TDs.	TIGHT END 9 JOHNCARLOS MILLER II Sr. 6-5 240 - Returns to Tech for his 2nd season after catching 10 passes for 122 yards and three touchdowns (1 of 5 Red Raiders with three or more TDs). 7 TERRANCE CARTER JR. Jr. 6-2 245 - Coming off a 2024 season in which he earned All-Sun Belt first team honors with Louisiana, where he played his first three seasons. A receiver trapped in a tight end's body, "TC" as his teammates call him, enjoys trail riding when he's not playing football. Snagged a career single-game high 2 TDs vs UABP.
QUARTERBACK 2 BEHREN MORTON Sr. 6-2 210 - Ranks sixth in the Texas Tech record book for career completions (678), sixth for career touchdown passes (62), sixth for career pass attempts (1,083), and seventh for career passing yards (7,619). Will have the opportunity this season to become the fourth Red Raider in program history to throw for 10,000 career passing yards, joining a prestigious list that includes Graham Harrell (15,793), Kliff Kingsbury (12,429), and Patrick Mahomes II (11,252). The Red Raiders boast a 18-4 record since the start of the 2023 season in games Morton starts and finishes, which includes a 12-3 mark at home. Became the first Red Raider quarterback to start all 12 regular-season games last season since Mahomes II's final year in 2016. Completed 63.3 percent of his passes on the season (295-of-466), throwing for 3,335 passing yards and 27 touchdowns to only 8 interceptions. He owns six donkies on his farm back home named Blondie, Joseph, Lefty, Mark, Mary, and Pancho. 12 MITCH GRIFFIS Sr. 6-0 195 - Joined the Red Raiders as a midyear enrollee prior to spring ball. Griffis was a member of the Wake Forest football team where he played from 2020-23 and was named a team captain prior to the 2023 season. He passed for 1,957 career yards at Wake Forest over four seasons, completing 157-of-263 attempts (59.7 percent) for 15 touchdowns and eight interceptions. The vast majority of his yardage came during his 2023 junior season where he was able to use his legs to extend plays, rushing 123 times as a Demon Deacon for 141 yards and two touchdowns. Griffis stepped away from football in June of 2024 after graduating from WF, moved in with his parents and got a job in construction pouring concrete. Owns an instagram account called "quarterbackscience", displaying drills and exercises for the position.		RUNNING BACK 8 CAMERON DICKEY So. 5-10 215 "Cam" was one of three Texas Tech true freshmen in 2024 to not redshirt and play more than the maximum four games to retain one. Appeared in 12 of 13 games, splitting backup duties behind Tahj Brooks for most of the season with fellow true freshman running back J'Koby Williams. Touted as one of the most prolific athletes in Austin ISD history, out of Crockett High School. Played both ways throughout a four-year varsity career, while also serving as punter. On offense, he primarily played quarterback, combining for 2,963 passing yards and 33 touchdowns, while also rushing for 4,065 yards and 61 touchdowns over his four seasons. Helped lead his high school to its first playoff win in 26 years during his senior season. In his first career start in the 2025 season opener vs UAPB, Dickey rushed for a career-high 90 yards on 13 carries with one touchdown, leading a group of Red Raiders that rushed for a team total 294 yards. 20 J'KOBY WILLIAMS So. 5-10 185 - Joined his counterpart Cameron Dickey as one of three true freshmen to not redshirt as he appeared in 10 games, making one start, which came in the Autzone Liberty Bowl. In that bowl game, Williams gained 123 yards on 15 carries, including one touchdown (54-yard run) and added four catches for 32 yards. Williams was recognized as the Offensive Player of the Game (visiting team) for the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. Despite coming from a 2A high school, Williams was tabbed a four-star prospect by On3, ranking 27th nationally among running backs and at No. 55 among prospects from the state of Texas. Chose Texas Tech over the likes of Baylor, Houston, LSU, Michigan, SMU, TCU, Texas, and UCF, and others.

TACKLE

33 A.J. HOLMES JR.
Jr. | 6-3 | 300

• Houston transfer after playing under new defensive coordinator Shiel Wood in 2024 where he started all 12 games at DT. Coming off a single-season career highs in tackles (40) and TFLs (8.5). The "A" in A.J. stands for Anthony.

NOSE

2 LEE HUNTER
Sr. | 6-4 | 330

• Began his career at Auburn (2021) before going to UCF when Guz Malzahn accepted the Knights' job. Rated by ESPN as the No. 2-ranked DT in the transfer portal and named the top returning interior defensive lineman in the Big 12 by PFF. Nickname is "The Fridge" and enjoys trash talking/trolling.

DOG

9 ROMELLO HEIGHT
Sr. | 6-3 | 240

• Appeared in all 12 games in his only season with Georgia Tech last season - Auburn (2020-21), USC (2022-23). Ranked as the No. 2 OLB in the transfer portal by ESPN. Height, who is from Dublin, Ga., opened his season in 2024 playing in Dublin, Ireland as GT defeated Florida State, 24-21.

18 TERRELL TILMON
Sr. | 6-5 | 240

• Ended the 2024 season at the AutoZone Liberty Bowl with his first career start in his 39th career game. Emerged late in 2024 as a top pass rusher. Entering third season at Tech after first two years at Oregon.

88 AMIER WASHINGTON
So. | 6-2 | 270

• Appeared in 12 of 13 games as a redshirt freshman with three starts at outside linebacker in 2024. Finished with 10 tackles (5 solo), which all came during Big 12 play or in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. High school district and area champion in the shot put and discus.

51 JAYDEN COFIELD
So. | 6-2 | 330

• Appeared in all 13 games in 2024, recording two starts - at Washington State (9/7) and the Liberty Bowl (12/27). Enters this season having put on an extra 20 lbs during the offseason.

END

31 DAVID BAILEY
Sr. | 6-3 | 250

• Among the most disruptive edge players in college football with 22.5 tackles for loss and 14.5 sacks during his three seasons at Stanford. Ranked as the highest-rated returning edge player by PFF with a 90.9 grade last season. Does not wear gloves because he wants to feel as tight as possible when playing.

11 CHARLES ESTERS III
Sr. | 6-3 | 270

• After missing the first four games last year, Esters III became a regular starter at OLB, playing in all nine games the rest of the way. Capped off the year recording 18 tackles (five solo), including 2 TFLs and half a sack. He goes by the nickname "Chuck."

WILL

10 JACOB RODRIGUEZ
Sr. | 6-1 | 235

• Big 12 2025 Preseason Defensive Player of the Year. Rodriguez was 1 of 7 players on the team to start all 13 games last year, leading the team with 127 tackles (77 solo), 10.5 TFLs, and 5 sacks. Preseason Lombardi, Bednarik, Butkus, and Bronko Nagurski watch list honoree entering 2025.

MIKE

13 BEN ROBERTS
Jr. | 6-3 | 240

• Followed up his freshman All-American season by starting all 13 games in 2024, being 1 of 5 players on defense to do so. Ranked 2nd behind Jacob Rodriguez in tackles with 83 (38 solo), including 4.5 TFLs.

6 JOHN CURRY
So. | 6-2 | 235

• Born in Lubbock to Red Raider parents Ryan and Jolee Luce. Ryan was on the football and track teams (1999-01) while his mother was a standout WBB player under Marsha Sharp (2000-04). Started his career at 195 lbs, then moved up to 225 lbs in his second season, and enters his 3rd year at 235 lbs.

3 BRYCE RAMIREZ
S-Sr. | 6-2 | 235

• 2025 marks the second-straight season Ramirez is a team captain. Limited to only seven games in 2024 after missing the final six contests due to a complication from his previous 2022 injury. Recorded 4 tackles including 1st career sack vs UAPB.

STAR

6 JOHN CURRY
So. | 6-2 | 235

• Born in Lubbock to Red Raider parents Ryan and Jolee Luce. Ryan was on the football and track teams (1999-01) while his mother was a standout WBB player under Marsha Sharp (2000-04). Started his career at 195 lbs, then moved up to 225 lbs in his second season, and enters his 3rd year at 235 lbs.

CORNERBACK

20 DONTAE BALFOUR
Sr. | 6-1 | 185

• Spent his first two seasons (2021-22) of collegiate career at North Carolina and the next two at Charlotte (2023-24). Started at cornerback in all 12 games in 2024, serving as a game captain in six of those. Grew up in Starke, Fla., which is about 45 minutes SW of Jacksonville. His favorite cornerback growing up was Jalen Ramsey.

STRONG SAFETY

7 BRENDEN JORDAN
Jr. | 6-0 | 205

• Appeared in all 13 games in 2024, making two starts - at Iowa State and the Autozone Liberty Bowl. Ranked sixth on the team with 36 tackles (18 solo) to go along with three pass breakups in the secondary. Recorded his first interception on the road at Houston this season.

FREE SAFETY

5 COLE WISNIEWSKI
Sr. | 6-4 | 220

• Arrived at Texas Tech following five years at FCS powerhouse North Dakota State with two national championships during that span (2021, 2024). Missed the entire '24 season with a foot injury he suffered during summer workouts. Lettered on the high school cheer team one year for being the mascot.

CORNERBACK

14 BRICE POLLACK
Jr. | 6-0 | 195

• Began his collegiate career at Mississippi State (2023-24), where he appeared in 11 games (3 starts) as a true freshman before starting all 12 games at corner last season. Previously was recruited by and played for Texas Tech cornerbacks coach Darcel McBath. Leads the Red Raiders' secondary with 3 INTs.

1 A.J. MCCARTY
Sr. | 6-0 | 195

• Appeared in all 13 games, making 11 starts in 2024. Recorded 32 tackles on the season (20 solo), including 6.5 TFLs and a shared sack. He ranked second on the team in tackles for loss, trailing only linebacker Jacob Rodriguez (10.5). The "A" in A.J. stands for Adonis.

4 MAURION HORN
Jr. | 5-11 | 190

• Was 1 of 2 defensive backs last season to start in all 13 games and 1 of 7 on both sides of the ball to do so. Finished fourth on the team with 56 total tackles (31 solo), including 3 TFLs. A consensus 4-star recruit by 247Sports, Rivals and ESPN, Texas Tech was his first offer.

17 PEYTON MORGAN
R-Fr. | 6-0 | 180

• Appeared in two games late in the season at Oklahoma State and against Arkansas in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. A top-100 recruit by On3, coming in at No. 82 overall and No. 7 among safeties nationally. Texas Tech was his first offer.

24 MALIK ESQUERRA
R-Fr. | 6-3 | 205

• Utilized his redshirt in 2024 before appearing in the final two games of the season against West Virginia (11/30) and the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. Towards the final month of the year, Esquerra made himself onto the two-deep, listed as C.J. Baskerville's backup.

27 AMIER BOYD
Jr. | 6-2 | 190

• Spent the first three seasons of his career at UTEP (2022-24), seeing action in 20 games with five career starts. Four of those came in 2024, where he played in nine games with 16 tackles, 1 TFL, 2 INTs, 3 pass breakups, 1 FF, and 1 FR. Favorite childhood memory is going to Disney World with his grandpa.

TEXAS TECH SPORTS NETWORK

The Texas Tech Sports Network from Learfield Sports will carry all the exciting action of Red Raider Football beginning with the season opener versus Arkansas-Pine Bluff and all the way through the bowl season. Brian Jensen (play-by-play) and John Harris (color analyst) return to the broadcast booth and will be joined on the sidelines by Chris Level (sidelines).

Fans outside the coverage area will once again be able to listen to Red Raider games live on the Internet through TexasTech+. By logging onto www.TexasTech.com, live play-by-play of Texas Tech Football is just a click away. The games also are carried on Sirius/XM Satellite Radio (channel varies).

All games will also be available on the Varsity Network App, available for download in your iTunes or Android store.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Please direct all credential requests to the online credential portal located at www.sportssystem.com/TexasTech. Confirmation of your request will be made upon review by Matt Dowdy. Credentials are limited to members of the working media who are assigned to cover Texas Tech Football. Credentials must be requested online by 5 p.m. Tuesday each week. All requests will be held for pickup until 5 p.m. Friday at the Athletics Communications office (third floor of Whitacre Athletic Center, East Stadium Building). Credentials not picked up by 5 p.m. Friday will be available at Media Will Call located on the northwest side of Jones AT&T Stadium.

WEEKLY MEDIA LUNCHEON

During the season, Texas Tech head coach Joey McGuire will host a weekly media luncheon inside the South End Zone, on the field club level. The event will be held each Monday during the regular season, excluding the bye week. McGuire will be joined each week by defensive coordinator Shiel Wood and offensive coordinator Mack Leftwich. Lunch will be served at 11:30 a.m. each Monday followed by a 12:30 p.m. press conference.

WEEKLY AVAILABILITY SCHEDULE

In addition to the Monday press conference, select student-athletes will be available prior to practices each Tuesday inside the Sports Performance Center. Associate Coach Kenny Perry will speak first each Tuesday, followed by select players. All specific student-athlete requests should be submitted by 10 a.m. Monday each week during the season.

INTERVIEW REQUESTS

Please direct all interview requests for head coach Joey McGuire to Matt Dowdy; members of the Texas Tech coaching staff and student-athletes to Matt Dowdy or Matt Burkholder. Contacting student-athletes or coaches directly through text message or social media is strictly prohibited and could result in loss of credentials.

USE OF TEXAS TECH PHOTOGRAPHY

The use of Texas Tech photos is prohibited without prior approval from the athletics communications office. Texas Tech does not grant permission for use of its photos for social media content purposes. Texas Tech will provide courtesy headshots and action shots upon requests for editorial purposes.

VIDEO HIGHLIGHTS/NEWS CONFERENCE

Video from news conferences and games will be available to the media via YouTube. Broadcast quality video footage (game highlights, post-practice interviews, post-game interviews, etc) are available by request through the athletics communications office.

PHOTO REQUESTS

Please submit your requests to Chris Duarte.

COLLEGE PRESS BOX.COM

Collegepressbox is the official media website for Division I football. Access and download game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides, headshots, logos and more for all FBS schools, conferences, postseason games, awards and the College Football Playoff. For access, please register for an account at collegepressbox.com/register.

LIVE STREAMING

Live video streaming of any Texas Tech Athletics event, including news conferences, on ANY social media platform is strictly prohibited without prior approval from the athletics communications office.

USE OF AUDIO/VIDEO

Any media entity collecting any sort of "video or audio materials" (film, traditional video or audio, digital video or audio, photos, etc.) from Texas Tech University Athletics game events or press conference/media events may use that material only for traditional television newscasts, web-based or print coverage, or other electronic transmission as approved by the University in writing, with a limitation of up to three (3) minutes in length from any single event. Such media entity may not offer any live video, audio or other coverage of the event without the advance, written permission of Texas Tech University Athletics. This policy includes all games, matches and events involving any of Texas Tech's athletic programs. It includes all media events -- press conferences, pre/post-practice interviews and pre/post-game interviews. An exception would be a one-on-one interview arranged through the Texas Tech Athletics Communications office with a Texas Tech, coach, athlete or administrator.
