2008 (Co-South Division Champions)	Mike Leach
------------------------------------	------------

▲ The home of Red Raider Football will have a new name beginning with the 2026 season in GALAXY STADIUM. Texas Tech entered into a landmark 15-year partnership with Galaxy in July that not only rebrands Texas Tech's stadium but also includes NIL opportunities as well as meaningful community involvement across West Texas.

▲ JOEY MCGUIRE led Texas Tech to an 8-1 mark against conference opponents during the 2025 season, marking the most league wins for the Red Raiders in school history. The Red Raiders are joined by Kansas State as the only Big 12 programs to record five or more league wins in each of the past four years.

YEAR-BY-YEAR RESULTS

▲ The first TEXAS TECH football team in 1925 went by the name "Matadors" and were guided by head coach E.Y. Freeland and assistant coach Grady Higgenbotham. The two coaches issued a call for preseason training on Sept. 15 with more than 120 candidates answered the call to train to be the first football team. A crowd of approximately 4,500 witnessed the first game on Oct. 3 as the Matadors tied McMurry College, 0-0.

RIVALRY TROPHY

BATTLE FOR THE SADDLE TROPHY - TCU

Texas Tech and TCU brought back an old tradition in 2017 with the return of the Saddle Trophy. The two schools played for the Saddle Trophy for 10 seasons from 1961-70 before the trophy suddenly disappeared. After discussions between both schools, a new saddle was created by M.L. Leddy's Boots and Saddlery in Fort Worth. It sits on a stand and includes the logos for both TCU and Texas Tech. The Red Raiders shut out a 21st-ranked TCU team in the first-ever battle for the Saddle Trophy in 1961, which at the time was dubbed the "West Texas Championship." The two schools ultimately finished 5-5 against each other during the "West Texas Championship" era and then continued to face each other annually from 1971 until the Southwest Conference's closure in 1995. The 2026 contest between Texas Tech and TCU in Lubbock will mark the 68th all-time meeting.

THE HEISMAN TROPHY

Presented annually to the nation's top player by the Heisman Trophy Trust, Texas Tech has had eight Red Raiders finish in the top 10 of the voting since the award's inception in 1935. Donny Anderson and Graham Harrell are Texas Tech's highest finishers all-time in the voting, finishing fourth overall in 1965 and then 2008. Jacob Rodriguez became the first defensive player, and latest player overall, to finish in the top 10 in 2025 to cap an award-filled month for the senior linebacker.

DOAK WALKER AWARD

Presented annually to the nation's top running back by the PwC SMU Athletic Forum based in Dallas.

Byron "Bam" Morris • 1993

Morris was only the fourth all-time winner of the Doak Walker Award in 1993 as he rushed for 1,752 yards to break Earl Campbell's single-season Southwest Conference rushing record. Morris snapped the Texas Tech single-season marks for rushing yards and rushing touchdowns after finding the end zone 22 times via the ground, a record that still stands to this day. He led the FBS that season for points per game and ranked second in total points and rushing yards.

Byron Hanspard • 1996

Hanspard became only the sixth player in FBS history to rush for 2,000 yards in a season en route to winning the Doak Walker Award in 1996. Hanspard snapped Morris' previous single-season rushing record with 2,084 yards, needing only five games to reach the 1,000 yard mark alone, the fastest any player had done so in NCAA history. He remains the Texas Tech single-season record holder for rushing yards and attempts to this day as well as the all-time leader for career rushing yards (4,219). Hanspard was tabbed a unanimous All-American selection en route to leading the Red Raiders to an appearance in the Alamo Bowl. Hanspard, a second round selection in the 1997 NFL Draft, became only the third unanimous All-America honoree in program history.

NATIONAL AWARDS

CHUCK BEDNARIK AWARD

Established in 1995, the Chuck Bednarik Award is one of the most-prestigious honors in college football, awarded annually to the most outstanding defensive player. This accolade recognizes exceptional talent, tenacity and impact on the defensive side of the ball. The award is named in tribute to Chuck Bednarik, a revered figure in football history known for his remarkable career as a linebacker.

Jacob Rodriguez • 2025

The Bednarik Award represented the fifth national award of the 2025 postseason for Rodriguez. He was tabbed the winner of the Bednarik Award during the College Football Awards Show live on ESPN on Dec. 12. Rodriguez was the first Red Raider in program history to win the Bednarik Award, which is presented annually by the Maxwell Football Club to the nation's top defensive player. The Bednarik Award selected Rodriguez over Ohio State safety Caleb Downs and Texas A&M defensive end Cashius Howell.

LOMBARDI AWARD

Established by the Rotary Club of Houston in 1970, the Lombardi Award™ has honored the nation's top college lineman or linebacker while fueling the fight against cancer. The award celebrates athletes who exemplify Coach Vince Lombardi's legacy of character, discipline, and excellence.

Jacob Rodriguez • 2025

Rodriguez was named the 2025 winner of the Lombardi Award on Dec. 10 during its annual gala held in Houston, recognizing the senior as the nation's top lineman or linebacker. It was the first time in school history a Red Raider received the Lombardi Award since its inception in 1970. The club selected Rodriguez over his teammate David Bailey (defensive end), who was also in attendance with head coach Joey McGuire, as well as over Texas A&M defensive end Cashius Howell and Alabama offensive lineman Kadyon Proctor.

BRONKO NAGURSKI TROPHY

Created in 1993 by the Football Writers Association of America, the Bronko Nagurski Trophy is awarded to the best defensive player in college football and is presented by the Charlotte Touchdown Club. The award was established to complement the Heisman Trophy Award, which at the time had never been presented to a defensive player.

Jacob Rodriguez • 2025

Rodriguez was named the winner of the 2025 Bronko Nagurski Trophy on Dec. 8 at an awards banquet in Charlotte, North Carolina. Rodriguez was the first Red Raider to win the Nagurski Trophy in program history and the first Big 12 recipient since 2009. He was the lone linebacker among a talented group of finalists that included Ohio State safety Caleb Downs, Texas A&M defensive end Cashius Howell, and Notre Dame cornerback Leonard Moore. Rodriguez was Texas Tech's first finalist for the award since Pro Football and College Football Hall of Famer Zach Thomas in 1995.

BUTKUS AWARD

Instituted in 1985, The Butkus Award is one of the elite individual honors, originally given each year to one player in college football: the most impactful linebacker in the game. In 2008, The Butkus Foundation, took stewardship of the award to fully realize the original purpose of honoring athletic achievement and service to the community. Since that time, the award has honored the nation's best high school, college and professional linebackers.

Jacob Rodriguez • 2025

In a surprise presentation at Texas Tech's team hotel on Dec. 5, the evening prior to the Big 12 Championship Game in Arlington, Matt Butkus formally revealed Jacob Rodriguez as the 2025 collegiate recipient of the Butkus Award. Butkus, the son of the award's late namesake Dick Butkus, did so alongside DeMarcus Ware, a previous Butkus Award honoree as a Dallas Cowboy in 2008 and in front of his Red Raider teammates. At the time, Rodriguez became the first Butkus Award winner in Texas Tech history and the first Red Raider to garner a national award since Patrick Mahomes II claimed the Sammy Baugh Trophy in 2016. Rodriguez would go on to garner multiple national awards in an unprecedented month for a Red Raider individual.

NATIONAL AWARDS

BILETNIKOFF AWARD

Presented annually to the nation's top receiver, regardless of position, by the Tallahassee Football Club Foundation.

Michael Crabtree • 2007, 2008

Crabtree became the first two-time winner of the Biletnikoff Award in 2008, cementing his status as one of the top wide receivers in college football history. Crabtree was the first Big 12 player to ever garner the prestigious award as well as the first player from a state of Texas school. To date, he remains one of only two players in history to be recognized with the trophy twice in a career.

Crabtree became the first freshman to win the Biletnikoff Award and the 14th overall winner when he took home the trophy for the first time in 2007. He set the Texas Tech single-season marks as well as the NCAA freshman records for receptions (134), receiving yards (1,962) and receiving touchdowns that season. His impressive debut has not been matched to this date as he still ranks third all-time in NCAA history for single-season receiving yards and first among power-five receivers. Crabtree followed with 1,165 yards and 19 touchdowns through the air as a sophomore en route to leading the Red Raiders to an appearance in the Cotton Bowl. His highlight moment came against Texas that season where he hauled in the game-winning catch from Graham Harrell, a 28-yard strike with one second remaining to top No. 1 Texas. It marked the first time in school history Texas Tech had defeated a top-ranked opponent.

PAUL WARFIELD TROPHY

Presented annually to the nation's top wide receiver by the Touchdown Club of Columbus. The trophy ceased to exist after the 2018 season.

Michael Crabtree • 2007, 2008

Like the Biletnikoff Award, Crabtree became the first two-time winner of the Paul Warfield Trophy as he earned the accolade following each of his two seasons as a Red Raider.

JOHNNY UNITAS GOLDEN ARM AWARD

Presented to the nation's top quarterback by the Johnny Unitas Foundation.

Graham Harrell • 2008

Harrell capped his legendary Red Raider career by being named the winner of the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award following a memorable senior season. Harrell threw for 5,111 passing yards and 45 touchdowns as a senior en route to becoming the first Texas Tech quarterback to earn first team All-America honors. Behind Harrell's arm, Texas Tech won its first 10 games that season, rising to as high as No. 2 in the polls after downing top-ranked Texas with his memorable touchdown pass to Michael Crabtree in the final seconds. Texas Tech matched its school record with 11 wins on its way to the fourth Cotton Bowl appearance in program history.

SAMMY BAUGH TROPHY

Presented to the nation's top quarterback by the Touchdown Club of Columbus. The award ceased to exist after the 2018 season. Texas Tech is one of only three FBS schools in the nearly 60-year existence of the award to have four different winners.

Kliff Kingsbury • 2002

Kingsbury became Texas Tech's first-ever recipient of the Sammy Baugh Trophy in 2002 after he threw for a then-school record 5,017 yards and 45 touchdowns en route to leading the Red Raiders to a 9-5 record and a victory over Clemson in the Tangerine Bowl. At the time, Kingsbury was only the third quarterback in FBS history to record 5,000 passing yards in a season as he closed his collegiate career as the NCAA record holder for completions, passing attempts and total offensive plays.

B.J. Symons • 2003

Symons replaced Kingsbury a year later and kept the Red Raider offense rolling to the tune of an NCAA-record 5,833 passing yards. In the history of the award, it marked only the third time where two different quarterbacks had claimed the Sammy Baugh Trophy in consecutive seasons. Symons ran away with the award as he led the nation in nearly every passing category, setting FBS records for passing yards and passing touchdowns (52).

Graham Harrell • 2007

Texas Tech had to wait until the 2007 season for its third all-time winner of the Sammy Baugh Trophy as Harrell claimed the award following a strong junior campaign. Harrell was only the sixth quarterback in FBS history to throw for 5,000 yards in a season at the time as he blistered opposing defenses to the tune of 5,705 passing yards and 48 touchdowns. Texas Tech boasted the nation's top passing offense again that season as the Red Raiders ultimately finished 9-4 overall with a win over No. 20 Virginia in the Gator Bowl.

Patrick Mahomes II • 2016

Mahomes was named Texas Tech's fourth winner of the Sammy Baugh Trophy in 2016 as he became the fifth Red Raider all-time to lead the country in passing yards. Mahomes did it in only 12 games, becoming only the third quarterback in FBS history to record at least 5,000 passing yards in 12 games or less. Mahomes was also a threat with his legs, rushing for 285 yards and 12 touchdowns to become only the third FBS quarterback in history to record 5,000 yards of total offense twice in a career. Mahomes, in his final season as a Red Raider, ranked sixth all-time in FBS history for total offense and 12th for passing yards.

NATIONAL AWARDS

PONY EXPRESS AWARD

The Pony Express Award, established in 2011 but shelved until 2024, honors college football's most-outstanding teammate duo, regardless of position. The award is named in honor of former SMU running backs Eric Dickerson and Craig James. The award embodies teammates putting team first, while uplifting the team and its individuals through production, leadership and core values. The Pony Express Award is determined by a vote of current college football players, making it one of the most unique recognitions in the sport.

David Bailey & Jacob Rodriguez • 2025

Bailey and Rodriguez helped build one of the nation's top defenses for the Red Raiders in 2025, a team that led the FBS in rushing defense and was third nationally for both scoring and total defense. Bailey finished tied as the nation's leader in sacks (14.5) in 2025, while Rodriguez led the nation with seven forced fumbles as one of the top takeaway creators in recent memory. Bailey and Rodriguez were named the winners of the 2025 Pony Express Award over fellow talented duos in Ohio State quarterback Julian Sayin and wide receiver Jeremiah Smith, Georgia linebackers CJ Allen and Raylen Wilson and Notre Dame running backs Jeremiyah Love and Jadarian Price.

Since 2009, the NCAA recognizes All-Americans selected by the Associated Press (AP), Football Writers Association of America (FWAA), American Football Coaches Association (AFCA), Walter Camp Foundation (WCFF) and Sporting News (TSN, from its historic name of The Sporting News) to determine consensus and unanimous All-Americans.

To be selected a consensus All-American, players must be chosen to the first team on at least half of the five official selectors as recognized by the NCAA. Second- and third-team honors are used to break ties. Players named first-team by all five selectors are deemed unanimous All-Americans.

ALL-BIG 12 CONFERENCE

THIRD TEAM

The 2025 campaign was the first season the Big 12 expanded its selections to a third team as well as changes to the positional format with the addition of one wide receiver and the transition of a dedicated fullback to a tight end/h-back flex spot to better represent those positions on offense. On the defensive side, an additional linebacker spot was added. Special teams was pulled out of the offense and defense categories and into a standalone category. These honorees include one kicker, one punter, one returner and one specialist, which encompasses a standout from outside those three positions (longsnapper, gunner, etc.).

NOTE: The AFL held drafts from 1960-66, starting in 1967, after the NFL agreed to merge with the AFL, the two leagues conducted a "common draft" for three seasons, which was in turn replaced with the modern NFL Draft in 1970, upon the completion of the AFL/NFL merger.

The AFL Redshirt Draft was a supplemental draft held by the American Football League for players who had delayed their graduation by taking a redshirt year in college, thus still having a year of eligibility. This allowed the AFL to draft players who would be available for their teams in the following year.

NOTE: The All-America Football Conference (AAFC) was a major professional American football league that challenged the established National Football League (NFL) from 1946 to 1949. One of the NFL's most formidable challengers, the AAFC attracted many of the nation's best players. However, the AAFC was ultimately unable to sustain itself in competition with the NFL.

After it folded, three of its teams were admitted to the NFL: the San Francisco 49ers, the Cleveland Browns and the original Baltimore Colts (not to be confused with the second Baltimore Colts franchise that revived the name in 1953 and later moved to Indianapolis).

SUPER BOWL ACCOLADES

SUPER BOWL MVP

Patrick Mahomes II (2020, 2023, 2024)

Mahomes earned Super Bowl MVP honors following each of Kansas City's now three world titles during his reign as quarterback as he received the Pete Rozelle Trophy after Super Bowl LIV (2020), LVII (2023) and LVIII (2024). Mahomes, at only 24 years of age, became the youngest player in NFL history to collect Super Bowl MVP honors after Super Bowl LIV. After he was named Super Bowl MVP for the third time, he established a list of three alongside Tom Brady (five times) and Joe Montana (three times) who have earned Super Bowl MVP honors three or more times. Mahomes, Brady and Montana are also in rarefied air among the game's greatest quarterbacks as the only trio to have also won two MVPs and three Super Bowl MVPs.

NFL HONORS

▲ ZACH THOMAS became the first Red Raider to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, as a member of the 2023 class. Thomas was a five-time All-Pro selection and one of the top tacklers in NFL history over his 13 professional seasons with the Miami Dolphins and Dallas Cowboys.

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

ZACH THOMAS, LINEBACKER

CLASS OF 2023

Long regarded as one of the top linebackers in NFL history, Zach Thomas will now officially have his place in Canton to prove it as the Texas Tech and Miami Dolphins great has been announced as a member of the 2023 class for the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Thomas becomes the first Red Raider in program history to be named an inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Thomas is already a member of the College Football Hall of Fame as a 2015 inductee as well as the Texas Tech Ring of Honor and Hall of Fame.

Thomas, a five-time first team All-Pro selection, was one of nine NFL greats selected for enshrinement as part of the 2023 class, joining the likes of cornerback Ronde Barber, linebacker Chuck Howley, defensive tackle Joe Klecko, cornerback Darrelle Revis, cornerback Ken Riley, left tackle Joe Thompson, fellow linebacker DeMarcus Ware and head coach Don Coryell.

Over his 13 NFL seasons, including 12 in Miami, Thomas quickly established himself as one of the league's most-consistent players not long after being selected in the fifth round of the 1996 NFL Draft. There were 153 players picked in that draft class prior to Thomas, but few, if any, possessed the same drive that defined his career. Once considered too small for the position, Thomas silenced his doubters with 10 seasons of at least 100 tackles, eventually finishing his career with 1,734 stops, the fifth-highest total in league history (since records began in 1987). He was a seven-time selection to the Pro Bowl, the most all-time for a Dolphins defender, and a two-time NFL Linebacker of the Year honoree.

Behind Thomas, the Dolphins developed into one of the NFL's top defensive units. Thomas was named the 1996 AFC Defensive Rookie of the Year and soon after, helped push Miami to a run of seven-consecutive seasons in the league's top 10 for total defense. His prowess for reading opposing offenses earned Thomas the reputation from opposing quarterbacks, including Peyton Manning, as one of the most difficult players to either get out of position.

Thomas becomes the third Dolphins defensive player in team history to be named to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, joining linebacker Nick Buoniconti and defensive end Jason Taylor. He is the 11th player or coach from the Miami Dolphins to earn the NFL's greatest honor.

The 2023 class for the Pro Football Hall of Fame will be formally inducted Aug. 5 at Tom Benson Hall of Fame Stadium in Canton, Ohio.

NFL MVP HONORS

Patrick Mahomes II (2018, 2022)

Mahomes was named the NFL MVP for both the 2018 and 2022 seasons, becoming the first Red Raider in program history to earn the league's highest athletic honor. Mahomes is only the ninth quarterback to earn MVP honors twice and the 10th player all-time to do so. He was also recognized as the NFL Offensive Player of the Year in 2018, his first season as the Kansas City Chiefs' starter.

He became a household name his senior year after his game-winning interception against Texas A&M, which he returned 23 yards for a touchdown with 30 seconds remaining in one of the most memorable plays in Texas Tech history.

GRAHAM HARRELL, QUARTERBACK, 2006-08
