- WVU's Cam Cook (193 yards), OSU's Caleb Hawkins (180 yards) and Utah's Wayshawn Parker (174 yards) finished fourth, fifth and sixth respectively in rushing in FBS for Week Four. The trio also gave the Conference back-to-back weeks of three 170+ yard rushing performances for the first time since 1997.

CONFERENCE NEWS & NOTES

- The Big 12 Conference will publicly provide player availability reports for all Conference games this season at Big12Sports.com/FBReporting, beginning three days before a game.
- Oklahoma State is the first Power Four team in 30 years to have a 175+ yard rusher (Caleb Hawkins) and a 175+ yard receiver (Wyatt Young) in its conference opener. It is just the second time in the last 15 years that any FBS team has had such a duo in its first conference game.
- Oklahoma State-West Virginia was the third Big 12 game this century to feature opposing players each rushing for at least 175 yards (Caleb Hawkins, Cam Cook). The other games were Baylor-Texas in 2016 (Terence Williams, D'Onta Foreman) and Oklahoma State-Texas in 2005 (Mike Hamilton, Vince Young).
- The Big 12 is a combined 86-0 against FCS programs since the start of 2019. It is the only FBS conference to be undefeated against FCS schools during that time.

College Football Playoff (CFP) Selection Process

The College Football Playoff (CFP) is the event that crowns the national champion in college football. The CFP Selection Committee ranks the top 25 teams at the end of the season, and the 12 playoff participants consist of the five highest-ranked conference champions, plus the next seven highest-ranked teams. The four highest ranked conference champions will be seeded one through four and receive a first-round bye. The schools seeded five through eight will host those seeded nine through 12 in first-round games. The quarterfinals and semifinals rotate annually among six bowl games – the Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic, Vrbo Fiesta Bowl, Capital One Orange Bowl, Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl, Rose Bowl Game presented by Prudential and the Allstate Sugar Bowl. This year's quarterfinals will take place on December 31, 2025, and January 1, 2026, while the semifinals will be January 8-9, 2026. The College Football Playoff National Championship will be Monday, January 19, 2026, at Hard Rock Stadium in Miami.
