QUICK HIT

- The Citadel faces VMI in the SoCon Championship play-in game on Tuesday at 10 a.m. The winner moves onto play No. 1 seed Mercer on Wednesday.
- The two teams met up in the 2016 SoCon Championship play-in game, with The Citadel winning 3-2 in 10 innings.
- JP Sears was selected the SoCon Pitcher of the Year by both the coaches and media on Monday. Sears was also placed on the All-SoCon First Team.
- Jonathan Sabo was selected to the All-SoCon Second Team by the conference coaches. Will Abbott and Bryce Leasure were named to the All-SoCon Freshman Team.
- Sears is just the 13th pitcher to record 100 strikeouts in a season for The Citadel since 1965, with the last by James Reeves in 2015.
- The left hander is now also third in the Bulldog record book in career strikeouts with 313. He passed current Bulldog pitching coach Britt Reames (295) and Mike Pendleton (298) and Asher Wojciechowski (308) in his last two starts to move into the top-three.
- As a pitching staff, The Citadel ranks eighth in Division I and first in the SoCon with 9.6 strikeouts per nine innings.
- Ben Peden, who started the team's first 37 games, was injured April 23 against Mercer. He remains out indefinitely with Joe Sabatini and Bryce Leasure splitting time at first base in his absence.
- William Kinney' extended his streak of consecutive starts to 121 games, dating back to 2015. His streak of starts at shortstop ended at 97 on April 29 at Furman.

HEAD COACH FRED JORDAN

26th Season | The Citadel, 1979

Citadel Record: 831-707 | Career Record: Same

Fred Jordan is in his 26th season as the head coach of his alma mater's baseball program with a record of 815-673, making him the winningest coach in Southern Conference history.

Jordan has instilled the ideals of belief, faith and trust into The Citadel baseball program, and players are known for playing "The Citadel Way" – Long, Hard and Fast. The Citadel baseball program has been recognized for its tenacious pace of play and tremendous discipline that Jordan sets forth in the everyday rigors of practice and throughout the season.

Over the past 23 seasons, The Citadel has averaged more than 33 wins a season including 43 in 2010, just three shy of the school record. On March 31, 2010, the Bulldogs blanked Charleston Southern 5-0 to give Jordan his 642nd career win and move him past Chal Port as the winningest coach in school history.

A 1979 graduate of The Citadel, Jordan has led the Bulldogs to seven SoCon tournament championships and berths in the NCAA Regionals (1994-95, 1998-99, 2001, 2004 and 2010) while the team has also captured five regular season conference crowns. The Citadel has an incredible mark of 60-29 (.674) in the SoCon tournament and won the title six times without suffering a loss.

The Citadel has won a game in four of its seven appearances in the NCAA tournament under Jordan, most recently a 7-2 victory over Virginia Tech in the opening round of the 2010 regional in Columbia, S.C.

At the conclusion of the 2010 season, Jordan received the SoCon Coach of the Year Award for the fourth time in his career following his selection in 1995, 1999 and 2002. In addition to the 43-win season, the Bulldogs also won 41 games in 1999 and have captured at least 31 victories in all but five campaigns with Jordan at the helm.

The success enjoyed by the Bulldogs under Jordan has been reflected in the number of players The Citadel has sent to professional baseball. Beginning with Gettys Glaze in 1992, a total of 34 players have been selected in the MLB Draft, with Dallas McPherson, current assistant coach Britt Reames and Chris McGuiness reaching "The Show."

Jordan was named The Citadel's head coach on Jan. 14, 1992, becoming the fifth man to hold that position in the program's modern-day history (beginning in 1954). He was selected to replace Chal Port, his former college head coach, when the Hall of Famer announced his retirement in 1991 after a 27-year run.

Jordan received his bachelor's degree in physical education from The Citadel in 1979 and a master's degree in education in 1987. He lettered as a pitcher for the Bulldogs from 1976-79 and won an Ace (Pitching) Award and was a member of a SoCon championship squad his senior season.

A Charleston native and 1975 graduate of Garrett High School, he is married to the former Debra Mattox of Charleston. The couple has a daughter, Kristen, who graduated from Clemson in 2004, and a son, Kyle, who played baseball for his father and graduated from The Citadel in 2010.
