ON THIS DATE IN CITADEL BASKETBALL HISTORY

The Citadel is 18-13 all-time on Feb. 21. The Bulldogs boast wins over Wofford (1921, 1925, 1927, 1928, 1929), College of Charleston (1922), Newberry (1930, 1934, 1939, 1947, 1953), Davidson (1931), Furman (1940), Arkansas State (1963), Charleston Southern (1979), VMI (1993, 1994) and Chattanooga (2000).

THE HISTORY WITH CHATTANOOGA

Chattanooga holds a 64-18 all-time record over The Citadel, including a 29-10 mark in Charleston, but the Bulldogs won the last two meetings in the Holy City. Last season, the 'Dogs downed the Mocs 110-101 in overtime on Jan. 13. The season before, The Citadel held on for an 85-76 win over Chattanooga on Feb. 27.

SCOUTING THE MOCS

Chattanooga enters the week with an 11-16 record overall, including 3-10 on the road and 6-8 in Southern Conference action. Chattanooga is currently averaging 72.7 points per game, while their opponents have scored 74.7 points per outing. The Mocs are hitting on 44.7 percent of their shots compared to 45.8 percent by their foes, but the Mocs have converted 9.3 3-pointers per game compared to 7.4 by the opposition.

THE MOCS INDIVIDUALLY

Four Mocs are currently averaging double-digit points led by Kevin Easley's 14.7 points per contest. Donovan Toatley averages 11.5 point per game, Jerry Johnson, Jr. has chipped in 10.9 points per contest and Ramon Villa has added 10.5 points per outing, but in just 17 games. Villa leads the team from the floor, shooting 60.3 percent with Easley shooting 46.0 percent. Thomas Smallwood has connected on 50.4 percent of his attempts from the field, including 53.8 percent from beyond the arc. Johnson leads the team with 52 made 3-pointers, just six more than Easley. Easley is connecting on 40.0 percent of his 3-point attempts, while Johnson has converted 36.4 percent of his 3-point attempts. Easley leads the team with 6.5 rebounds per game and Toatley leads the team with 74 assists. Easley and Jonathan Scott have started all 27 games, while Johnson has missed one game. Smallwood boasts 14 starts and Vila has made 13 starts. Jean-Baptiste has started 17 games and Toatley has started eight.

THE BULLDOGS NATIONALLY

The Citadel entered the week in the top 50 in NCAA Division I in five statistical categories. The Bulldogs are second in both 3-pointers made per game (12.0) and 3-pointers attempted (880). The 'Dogs are also fifth with 299 total 3-pointers made and scoring (86.2 points per game). The 'Dogs are also 44th in assists per game (15.6).

STALLWORTH NATIONALLY

Lew Stallworth enters this week in the top 65 in the nation in five categories. The Los Angeles, California native is 19th in assists per game (6.1), tied for 24th with 152 total assists, tied for 27th in field goals made (191), tied for 47th in scoring (19.9 points per game) and tied for 63rd in NCAA Division I for field goal percentage (.537).

FRIERSON NATIONALLY

Matt Frierson is currently in the top 20 in three 3-point field goal statistical categories. Frierson is tied for 10th in 3-pointers made per game (3.63), tied for 18th with 87 total 3-pointers made and 16th with 227 3-point field goal attempts.

NAJDAWI NATIONALLY

Zane Najdawi is currently tied for 71st in the nation with 43 blocked shots and he is tied for 74th with an average of 1.72 blocks per game.

STALLWORTH WITH A 30 PIECE

After scoring 37 points at Western Carolina, Lew Stallworth now boasts two career 30-point games. He joins Zane Najdawi and Matt Frierson as the only current Bulldogs to have eclipsed the 30-point mark multiple times in their careers. 18 Bulldogs have scored 30 or more points multiple times in their careers. Stallworth's 37 points are tied for the 10th-most points scored in a single game by one Bulldog. Najdawi scored 37 last season against Chattanooga (Jan. 13, 2018).

BLOCK PART FOR ZANE

Zane Najdawi swatted away two shots at Western Carolina, marking the 54th game in his career he has recorded multiple blocks in a game. He boasts 14 multi-block games this season. For the year, Najdawi boasts 43 blocks. The mark has his 2018-19 season seventh in program history for blocks in a single season. Najdawi already boasts four of the program's top-10 performances for blocks in a single season.

THE BULLDOGS AS A TEAM AGAINST ETSU

The Bulldogs' 83-point performance at ETSU was the highest points scored for the 'Dogs since scoring 84 against VMI at home on Jan. 26. The Citadel's 17 made 3-pointers Thursday night are the most by the 'Dogs since converting 17 on the road at Samford on Jan. 17. The Bulldogs' 51.5 percent (17-of-33) shooting performance from beyond the arc marked the highest completion percentage from three for the 'Dogs since converting 57.5 percent (23-of-40) against High Point on Nov. 27, 2018. The 46 points scored in the first half by The Citadel were the most since scoring 64 at home against Johnson & Wales on Dec. 5, 2018.

GET YOU A BIG MAN WHO CAN DO BOTH

In the game at ETSU, Zane Najdawi converted five 3-pointers, marking a new career high for the senior.

ZANE TRAIN ROLLING

Zane Najdawi's 29-point performance at ETSU marked the 22nd time in his career, and third time this season, that he has scored at least 20 points. The 29 points scored against the Bucs are a season high for the big man.

ONE OF JUST SIX

Zane Najdawi is one of just six players in Southern Conference history, and is the only player in school history, to score at least 1,500 career points while also bringing down over 650 rebounds and swatting away 150 shots.

STALLWORTH WITH ASSIST

At ETSU, Lew Stallworth recorded his sixth double-double of the year as he had 10 assists to go along with 18 points. The 10 assists by Stallworth mark the most since he had 10 in the Bulldogs' win over Johnson & Wales earlier this season on Dec. 5, 2018.

WHAT THE WIN OVER MERCER MEANS

The six-point road win over Mercer marked the first time The Citadel has defeated Mercer in back-to-back games since the 1926-27 season. That year, the Bulldogs beat Mercer four times, including twice on the road. With the 2017-18 win in Macon and the 2018-19 win on the road, the Bulldogs have beat Mercer in Macon in back-to-back seasons for the first time in program history.

COACH BAUCOM IN THE WIN COLUMN

The Bulldogs boast 11 wins on the year, marking the fifth straight year the 'Dogs have won at least 10 games. It is the first time since the stretch from the 1993-94 season to the 1997-98 season that The Citadel has posted double-digit wins in five-straight seasons. The four straight double-digit wins in Duggar Baucom's first four years mark the first time since Norm Sloan from the 1956-57 season to the 1959-60 campaign that a head coach has won at least 10 games in his first four seasons. Sloan and Baucom are the only head coaches in program history to win double-digit games in each of their first four seasons in Charleston.

900-POINT CLUB

With his 27-point performance at Mercer, Lew Stallworth eclipsed the 900-point mark for his collegiate career.

3 FOR 3

Matt Frierson, who set the program record for career made treys in the game at UNCG (Jan. 24), now boasts 307 triples, including 87 this season. Frierson's 87 3-pointers this year are the fourth-most in program history for treys in a single season. Frierson's 114 triples during last season's campaign are the program bench mark.

FRIERSON IN SOCON HISTORY

Matt Frierson is currently seventh in Southern Conference history with 307 made 3-pointers in his career. He is third among active players, behind Wofford's Fletcher Magee (first, 472) and UNCG's Francis Alonso (fourth, 373).

FRIERSON RISING THROUGH THE RANKS

Matt Frierson is currently 28th in program history with 1,084 career points. He is two points behind Noy Castillo (1993-97) in 27th and 11 behind Kent Hill (1985-88) in 26th.

WHAT CAN BROWN DO FOR YOU?

With his 10 points and career-high 11 rebounds at Mercer, sophomore Hayden Brown recorded his third double-double of the season.

NAJDAWI WITH THE DOUBLE-DOUBLE

Zane Najdawi finished the VMI game with his second straight double-double, scoring 18 points and bringing down 10 rebounds. He is the first Bulldog since Lew Stallworth earlier this season to post back-to-back double-double performances. Najdawi had 12 points and 10 boards at UNCG. The double-double is the 15th of Najdawi's career, a mark that has him sixth all-time in program history. His next double-double will tie him with Craig Burgess (1983-87) and Matt Newman (1994-98) for fourth all-time for career double-doubles. Najdawi's six double-doubles so far this season match his sophomore campaign (2016-17) and are tied for 10th for most double-doubles in a single season. His next double-double will move him up into a tie for sixth with Regan Truesdale (1983-84), Kent Hill (1988-89) and J'Mel Everhart (2004-05, 2005-06).

THE STARTING FIVE GETTING THE JOB DONE

Seven times this season four of the Bulldogs' starting five finished a game in double figures at UNCG. Matt Frierson led the way with 18 points, Zane Najdawi chipped in 12 points, and Hayden Brown and Lew Stallworth contributed 10 points each.

MR. 300, THE RECORD SETTER

With his second 3-pointer of Thursday night's game at UNCG, Matt Frierson set the program record for 3-pointers made in a career. The senior finished the night with six treys, giving him 300 for his career.

500 FIELD GOALS

With 12:40 to go in the first half of Thursday's game at UNCG, Zane Najdawi slammed home his second dunk of the night, marking his third made bucket of the game. The dunk was the 500th made field goal of Najdawi's illustrious career. Najdawi ended the night with six made field goals, giving him 503 for his career, a mark that has him in sole possession of ninth in program history. Najdawi is one of just four Bulldogs in program history to score 1,000 career points, corral in 600 career rebounds and convert 500 career field goals. He joins Mike Groselle (2009-13), Regan Truesdale (1981-85) and Cameron Wells (2007-11) in the honor. Najdawi is the only Bulldog to ever do all three and add over 100 blocks in his career.

FORCING THE TURNOVERS AGAINST WESTERN CAROLINA

Against Western Carolina, the Bulldogs forced 29 turnovers and recorded 15 steals. The 29 WCU turnovers are the most since the Bulldogs forced High Point to turn the ball over 31 times last season on Dec. 16, 2017. The Bulldogs' 15 steals against the Catamounts are tied for fifth most in program history for team steals in a SoCon game.

ECLIPSING THE 30-POINT MARK

Lew Stallworth's 32 points against Western Carolina marked a career high for the graduate transfer. It is the first time since Matt Frierson scored 30 against Johnson (Nov. 14, 2018) that a Bulldog has scored at least 30 points in a game. Stallworth's 12 field goals made are also a career high.

HIGH-SCORING BULLDOGS

The Bulldogs have eclipsed the 100-point mark four times this season, including a season-high 148 points against Mid-Atlantic Christian. The 148 points scored against MACU are the most points scored by an NCAA Division I program this season and are the third-most scored in Southern Conference history. The Bulldogs boast three of the top-10 scoring performances of the season in the nation, including 137 points against Johnson (Fla.), the sixth-most points scored this season, and 127 against Johnson & Wales (N.C.), the eighth-most points scored this season.

ECLIPSING 700 POINTS FOR HIS CAREER

With his 23 points scored against Furman, Lew Stallworth eclipsed the 700-point mark for his collegiate career. He now has 719 career points to go along with 310 career assists, including 94 this season.

JOINING THE 1,000-POINT CLUB

With his six points against Wofford, Matt Frierson has now scored 1,001 career points. He is the 34th player in program history to accomplish the feat. Both Frierson and fellow 1,000-point scorer Zane Najdawi netted their 1,000th-career point off free throws.

FIRST COLLEGIATE START FOR RICE

In the game at Wofford, Kaiden Rice made his first collegiate start, while Alex Reed made his first start of the season. Rice joins Derek Webster, Jr. as Bulldogs who have made their first collegiate starts this season.

NAJDAWI NAMED SOCON STUDENT-ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

Citadel men's basketball standout Zane Najdawi was named the Southern Conference Student-Athlete of the Week on Jan. 2. Najdawi is the first Citadel Bulldog to earn the honor since tennis cadet-athlete Willem van Zyl earned the distinction last spring. A native of Midlothian, Virginia, Najdawi boasts a 3.447 grade-point average as a sport management major, and finished the Fall 2018 semester with a 4.0, the second 4.0 semester of his career (Spring 2018, Fall 2018). He was also named to the 2017-18 National Association for Basketball Coaches (NABC) Honors Court and earned the 2017-18 SoCon Commissioner's Medal. Najdawi is a two-time SoCon Honor Roll (2017-18, 2016-17) selection and was a Spring 2018 Southern Conference Academic All-Conference honoree.

NON-CONFERENCE SCHEDULE

The Bulldogs' 8-3 record in non-conference games is the best since the 2001-02 team also went 8-3 before Southern Conference play.

FAST START UNDER BAUCOM

The Bulldogs' 9-2 start through the first 11 games marked the best start since the 1979-80 team.

WINNING BEFORE CHRISTMAS

The nine wins by the Bulldogs to start the season are the most wins before Christmas by a Bulldog team in program history. The 2016-17 and 1964-65 teams both won seven games before Christmas.

STALLWORTH NAMED COLLEGE SPORTS MADNESS SOCON PLAYER OF THE WEEK

For the third time this season, Citadel men's basketball player Lew Stallworth has been named the College Sports Madness Southern Conference Player of the Week on Dec. 26. Stallworth was also named the College Sports Madness SoCon Player of the Week on Nov. 26 and Dec. 3, and he has twice been named the SoCon Player of the Week by the league office (Nov. 27, Dec. 4).

BEATING CAMPBELL

The win over Campbell was the first for The Citadel since the 1982-83 team beat the Camels 68-50 on Jan. 8, 1983. It is also the first-ever win for the 'Dogs in Buies Creek.

MILESTONE WIN FOR COACH BAUCOM

The win over the Camels was the 230th of head coach Duggar Baucom's head coaching career.

NAJDAWI BREAKING INTO THE TOP 10 IN REBOUNDING

With his 13 rebounds against Campbell, Zane Najdawi moved up into the top 10 in program history for total rebounds.

CAREER HIGH FOR STALLWORTH

Lew Stallworth had a career-high 11 rebounds and just missed out on a triple-double as he finished his 38 minutes of work with 21 points, 11 boards and seven assists.

ECLIPSING THE CENTURY MARK UNDER BAUCOM

With the 127-93 win over Johnson & Wales, the Bulldogs improved to 18-3 all-time under head coach Duggar Baucom when scoring at least 100 points. The 'Dogs have eclipsed the century mark in four games this season and are 4-0 in those games after going 5-1 last season and 7-2 two years ago.

SCORING 60 POINTS IN A HALF

The Bulldogs scored 64 points in the first half against Johnson & Wales, marking the 11th-most points scored in an opening stanza in program history. It is the fourth time this season the 'Dogs have scored at least 60 in a first half. The 'Dogs netted 63 points in the second half, tied for the 12th-most points scored in a second half in program history. It is the third time this season The Citadel has scored at least 60 points in a second half.

DOUBLE-DOUBLE DUO

Zane Najdawi and Lew Stallworth each finished the win over Johnson & Wales with a double-double, marking the second time this season a duo has accomplished the feat together. The last time it happened, Stallworth finished with 13 points and 13 assists and Hayden Brown scored 15 points to go with 10 rebounds in the win over Johnson (Fla.).

CENTURY START FOR NAJDAWI

The game against Johnson & Wales marked the 100th career start for Zane Najdawi. He is just the 10th Bulldog to start 100 games.

STALLWORTH WITH THE DOUBLE-DOUBLE

Lew Stallworth recorded his fourth double-double of the year against Johnson & Wales. It was the fifth of his career and his third in a row as he finished his 28 minutes of work with 19 points and 10 assists. In the Bulldogs' last five games, Stallworth has averaged 19.4 points, 7.6 assists and 6.6 rebounds per game.

127 POINTS AGAINST JOHNSON & WALES

The 127 points scored on Dec. 5 against Johnson & Wales are the seventh-most points scored in a single game in program history.

STALLWORTH PICKS UP SECOND STRAIGHT SOCON WEEKLY HONOR

Lew Stallworth was named the Southern Conference Player of the Week by both the league office and College Sports Madness for the second straight week on Dec. 4. Stallworth is the first back-to-back and repeat winner of the weekly award this season. The last player to earn back-to-back SoCon Player of the Week honors from the league office was UNCG's Derrell Armstrong during the 2011-12 season (Jan. 24, Jan. 31). Bulldog great Regan Truesdale was the last Citadel player to earn the award in back-to-back weeks during the 1984-85 season (Week 1, Week 2).

BREAKING A 91-YEAR STREAK

On Dec. 1, The Citadel defeated Mercer 79-69, marking the first win over Mercer for the Bulldogs in Charleston since March 5, 1927. The 1926-27 Bulldogs defeated the Bears 42-41 in the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association Tournament. The last regular-season win in Charleston for The Citadel over Mercer came back on Feb. 12, 1927, a 38-33 win.

WINNING THE SOCON OPENER

The win over Mercer marked the first time the Bulldogs won the Southern Conference opener since the 2010-11 season. That Citadel team defeated Georgia Southern at home, 65-52, on Dec. 2.

ECLIPSING THE 600-POINT MARK

With his 16 points scored against Mercer, Lew Stallworth eclipsed the 600-point mark for his career.

STALLWORTH NAMED SOCON PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Citadel men's basketball player Lew Stallworth was named the Southern Conference Player of the Week by both the league office and College Sports Madness. In the Bulldogs' two road wins at James Madison and South Florida, Stallworth averaged 24 points, 36 minutes, 5.5 rebounds and 5.5 assists per game, while shooting 56.3 percent from the field and 91.7 percent from the free throw line.

112 POINTS AGAINST HIGH POINT

The 112 points scored on Nov. 27 against High Point are tied for the second most in program history against another Division I opponent. Baucom's 2016-17 team set the record with a 116-point performance in the 116-112 road win over Stetson on Nov. 18, 2016. The 1988-89 team scored 112 in a 112-75 win over Indiana State on Dec. 20, 1988.

SETTING THE 3-POINT RECORD IN DOMINATING FASHION

The 'Dogs connected on 23 of their 40 3-point attempts against High Point. The 23 treys ties the overall program record for 3-pointers made in a game, set earlier this season against Mid-Atlantic Christian (Nov. 12), but it also sets a new program record for treys made against an NCAA Division I opponent. The previous high against a D-1 opponent was 19, set during the 2016-17 season against UMBC on Dec. 19, 2016.

SHOOTING LIGHTS OUT

The Citadel connected on 62.3 percent of their field goals in the win over High Point (Nov. 27), marking the 15th-best shooting percentage in a single game. Against Division I opponents, the 62.3 percent shooting percentage ranks 12th.

GETTING OFF TO A FAST START IN THE FIRST HALF

The Bulldogs scored 63 points in the first half against High Point, marking the 11th-most points scored by a Bulldog team in the opening half of a game. The 63 points against HPU were also the most ever scored in the first stanza against an NCAA Division I opponent.

STRONG NIGHT FOR RICE AGAINST HIGH POINT

Sophomore sharpshooter Kaiden Rice scored a game and season-high 26 points against High Point, marking the fourth time in his career, and the third time this season, that Rice has eclipsed the 20-point mark. The 26 points were just two shy of his career high, set in last season's regular-season finale at Western Carolina (Feb. 25, 2018). Rice made a game-high eight 3-pointers, matching his career high set last season in the road game at WCU. Rice scored his first 15 points in his first four minutes off the bench.

IT'S BEEN A WHILE

The 84-81 win over South Florida on Nov. 24 marked the first win against the Bulls since Jan. 7, 1973, a span of close to 45 years. The 1972-73 Bulldogs defeated USF in Charleston by a score of 65-56.

WINNING BACK-TO-BACK GAMES ON THE ROAD

The Citadel won back-to-back, non-conference road games (at James Madison, at South Florida) for the first time since the 1986-87 season, when the Bulldogs bested South Alabama (84-76) on Nov. 28, 1986 before going to Army for a victory (69-65) on Dec. 4, 1986 with a home win over Coker sandwiched in between. The back-to-back road wins marked the first time The Citadel won two non-conference road games without a home game in between since the 1970-71 season, when the Bulldogs bested George Washington 73-68 on Dec. 17, 1970 and defeated Xavier 73-68 on Dec. 19. The 2015-16 team won three games away from Charleston, with two being neutral site contests at USC Upstate's Palmetto State Shootout Tournament held in Spartanburg. The 2014-15 team was the last team to win back-to-back road games with SoCon wins over Samford on Feb. 2, 2015 and Furman on Feb. 19, 2015 with a home loss to VMI sandwiched in between.

OVERTIME ON THE ROAD

The 91-82 win over James Madison marked the first overtime road victory for the Bulldogs since defeating Wofford 104-103 on Jan. 2, 2017.

CAREER HIGH FOR STALLWORTH

Lew Stallworth's 26 points in the overtime road win over James Madison (Nov. 20) set a career high for the graduate transfer. Stallworth went 10-of-18 from the field and 6-of-7 at the charity stripe with six assists and five rebounds. Through his first five games as a Bulldog, Stallworth has averaged a team-best 17.2 points and 6.2 assists per game.

CAREER HIGH FOR REED

Sophomore Alex Reed set a career high for points in the win over JMU with 22 points. Reed went 6-of-12 from the field, including a team-best 4-of-6 from 3-point range. He was also 6-of-7 from the free throw line and added six rebounds.

100 GAMES

Matt Frierson and Zane Najdawi both played in their 100th career games at The Citadel on Friday, Nov. 16 against Texas, and Quayson Williams played his 100th career game on Tuesday, Nov. 20 at James Madison. They are the 59th, 60th and 61st players in program history to have played at least 100 games at The Citadel.

137 POINTS AGAINST JOHNSON

The 137 points scored on Nov. 14 against Johnson were the third-most in program history.

BULLDOG BLOCK PARTY

The Citadel swatted away 14 shots on Nov. 14, matching the program record set against Wingate on Dec. 14, 1996.

CORRALLING THEM IN AS A TEAM

The Bulldogs brought down 45 defensive rebounds against Johnson, setting a program record. The 62 total rebounds are tied for sixth-most boards in a single game.

CONTINUING TO SHARE THE ROCK

The Bulldogs' 28 assists against Johnson on 47 shots are tied for 14th most in a single game.

STALLWORTH WITH THE ASSIST RECORD

Lew Stallworth set a program and personal record on Nov. 14 against Johnson with 13 assists, eclipsing the previous Citadel mark of 12 that was set by Marshall Harris, III on March 1, 2014 in a game against Georgia Southern. Stallworth recorded his first double-double as a Bulldog with 13 points and 13 assists. He was close to recording a triple-double as he finished his 20 minutes of work with six rebounds.

FRIERSON WITH THE HOT HAND

Senior Matt Frierson finished his 20 minutes of work against Johnson (Nov. 14) with a game-high 30 points off 10 3-pointers. The 30 points were one off his career high of 31, but the 10 treys sets a new personal record for the senior. He matched teammate Quayson Williams for tops on the 3-pointers made in a game list. Williams accomplished the feat as a freshman in a game against Mid-Atlantic Christian on Nov. 19, 2015.

FIRST CAREER DOUBLE-DOUBLE FOR BROWN

Sophomore Hayden Brown notched a double-double of 15 points and 10 rebounds Wednesday night. It is the first double-double of his collegiate career, and the 10 boards mark a career high for him.

THAT'S A RECORD

On Nov. 12, the Bulldogs set four program records against Mid-Atlantic Christian, including scoring 148 points in a game to eclipse the previous marks of 146 set on Nov. 13, 2016 against Johnson. The 148 team points scored are third in the SoCon record book as Furman scored 154 against The Citadel on Jan. 8, 1955 and 149 against Newberry the season before on Feb. 13, 1954. The Bulldogs also set program records with 57 made field goals, 23 made 3-pointers and 51 3-point attempts, and tied the program record for defensive rebounds in a game with 40.

WINNING IN DOMINATING FASHION

The Bulldogs won the games against Mid-Atlantic Christian and Johnson by 73 and 77 points. The 77-point margin over the Suns on Wednesday marked the second-largest margin of victory in program history. The mark edged the previous second-best mark of 73, set on Monday against the Mustangs. The 2005-06 team bested Florida Christian by 83, 126-43, on Nov. 28, 2005.

EVEN SCORING

In Monday's game against MACU, the Bulldogs scored 75 points in the first half and 73 points in the second half. The 75 points scored in the first half were the third-most points scored in a first half by the Bulldogs in program history. The 73 points scored in the second half were the second-most points scored in a second half in program history.

SHARING THE ROCK

The Bulldogs' 37 assists on 57 made field goals against the Mustangs of MACU were the second most by a Bulldog team in a regular-season game. The record is 42, set against MACU on Nov. 17, 2015.

FROM LONG RANGE AS A TEAM

The Bulldogs converted 23 treys Monday night against Mid-Atlantic Christian, marking the seventh game in a row The Citadel has made at least 10 3-pointers. It was also the 99th game in a row with at least five treys, the 139th straight game with multiple 3-pointers made and the 362nd game in a row with at least one trey converted.

POINT GUARDS TAKING CARE OF THE BALL

Against Mid-Atlantic Christian (Nov. 12), the Bulldogs' three point guards (Lew Stallworth, Quayson Williams and Jerry Higgins, III) combined for 24 assists and just one turnover. Williams had a career-high 10 assists, tied for the eighth-most assists by an individual in a single game.

THE BULLDOGS VERSUS TOP-25 OPPONENTS

Against No. 22 Clemson, the Bulldogs finished in the top 10 in program history in 11 different statistical categories for games against top-25 teams. The Bulldogs scored 40 points in both halves, marking the second-most points ever scored against a top-25 opponent in the first half. The 40 points scored in the second half are tied for the 4th-most. The Bulldogs took 27 3-pointers against the nationally-ranked Tigers, the third-most in program history while the 10 made treys is tied for third. The Bulldogs' 18 made free throws are tied for the fourth most against a top-25 team, while the 25 free throw attempts are the fifth most. The 22 defense rebounds are tied for the seventh most. The Bulldogs' seven steals are tied for seventh-most, the 44.8 percent shooting percentage from the field is the ninth-best and the 14 turnovers are tied for the 10th fewest.

LEADING THE NATION IN 3-POINTERS

Over the last three seasons (2015-16, 2016-17, 2017-18), The Citadel has been the top 3-point shooting team in the country, converting 1,146 treys over that span. That is 66 more than Akron, the team with the second most 3-pointers over the last three seasons.

ONE OF THE MOST EXPERIENCED TEAMS IN THE NATION

The Citadel went from one of the least experienced teams last season to one of the most experienced this season. In 2017-18, the Bulldogs had six freshmen, three sophomores and three juniors with no seniors or graduate transfers on the team. This season, the 'Dogs have two graduate transfers and three seniors. The team entered the 2018-19 campaign having scored 4,561 collegiate points collectively, third-most in the nation.

NAJDAWI NAMED PRESEASON ALL-SOCON

Senior forward Zane Najdawi was tabbed to the 2018 Preseason All-Southern Conference Team prior to the start of the season. Najdawi is coming off a breakout junior season that saw him earn First-Team All-SoCon honors from both the media and coaches after he became just the 27th player in SoCon history, and second player in program history, to eclipse 1,000 points, 500 rebounds and 100 blocks for his career. He is just the fourth player in program history to earn first-team honors from both the media and coaches, and was named to the NABC All-District 22 First Team. He also garnered SoCon Player of the Week honors twice (Jan. 15 & Feb. 6) and was tabbed the College Sports Madness SoCon Player of the Week on Jan. 14. He enters his final year of eligibility 18th in program history for points scored in a career (1,206) and third for blocked shots (140). Last year, he averaged 15.5 points, 5.0 rebounds and 1.4 blocks per game overall and 19.5 points, 6.2 rebounds and 2.1 blocks per SoCon game. He finished the year shooting 51.3 percent from the field, which was second in the league, and ended the season in the top 20 in the conference in six other statistical categories, including third in scoring, fourth in both blocks per game and total blocks, 11th in free throw percentage, 14th in defensive rebounds per game and 17th in rebounding.

BAUCOM IN THE RECORD BOOK

Head coach Duggar Baucom is the first coach in program history to improve his Southern Conference record in each of the first three seasons at the helm, and is just the fifth coach in program history to post double-digit wins in each of his first three seasons. During the 2017-18 season, he became the first head coach to notch a win in the SoCon Tournament in back-to-back seasons, and his 33 wins through his first three years in Charleston are tied with Ed Conroy and George Hill for third-most wins through the first three campaigns for a head coach.

AGAINST THE BEST IN THE SOCON

Last season, the Bulldogs defeated three teams ranked in the CollegeInsider.com Mid-Major Top 25. The Bulldogs defeated fifth-ranked ETSU, 84-82, on the road on Feb. 20, 17th-ranked Wofford, 80-78, on Feb. 1 and 19th-ranked Furman, 100-92, in overtime on Feb. 3. The 'Dogs have increased their SoCon win total in each of the last three years under head coach Duggar Baucom and staff and won a game in the SoCon Championships in back-to-back years under the same head coach for the first time in program history.

BEFORE EMBRACE THE PACE, THERE WAS URBANUS

NCAA.com's Daniel Wilco compiled a list of the top 77 3-point shooters this century (2000s). Citadel great Zach Urbanus (2007-11) checks in at No. 59 on the list, a list that features Wofford's Fletcher Magee (No. 9), Duke's J.J. Redick (No. 10) and Davidson's Steph Curry (No. 15), just to name a few. Urbanus holds the program record for 3-pointers made with 295, is 4th all time in program history with a .421 career 3-point percentage, and is tied for 10th all time with 1,321 career points.

FRIERSON, GEORGIADIS, NAJDAWI ALL GAIN EXPERIENCE OVERSEAS

Seniors Matt Frierson and Zane Najdawi, and freshman Dimitri Georgiadis all took separate trips overseas to expand their basketball talents over the summer. Frierson competed in East Asia with the U.S.A. Eagles Basketball team, while Najdawi trained with the Jordanian National Team as the team competed in the 2019 Fédération Internationale de Basketball (FIBA) World Cup qualifiers. Georgiadis played for the Romanian U20 team after playing with the U18 team, while averaging 15.1 points and 10.1 rebounds per game in 2017.

SETTING THE SINGLE SEASON RECORD

Last season, Frierson set the program record for 3-pointers made in a season with 114 treys. 12 more than the previous mark set by Travis Cantrell during the 2001-02 campaign.

FRIERSON NATIONALLY LAST SEASON

Matt Frierson ended his junior season sixth in NCAA Division I for both 3-pointers attempted (314) and 3-pointers made per game (3.56), and he was 11th with 114 total treys made.

IN ELITE COMPANY

With nine seconds remaining in the first half of the regular-season finale at Western Carolina on Sunday, Feb. 25, Zane Najdawi brought down his fourth rebound of the game and the 500th of his career. Najdawi finished the game with nine boards and became just the 27th player in SoCon history, and second in Citadel history, to record at least 1,000 points, 500 rebounds and 100 blocks.

1,000 CAREER POINTS FOR NAJDAWI

On Thursday, Feb. 1 against Wofford, junior Zane Najdawi scored his 1,000th-career point when he connected on the second of two free throws with 17:40 to play in the second half. Najdawi became just the second player in program history to score 1,000 points, collect 400 rebounds and block 100 shots, joining Matt Newman (1994-98) for the honor. Najdawi is just the 10th player in program history to score 1,000 career points in three years and is only the fifth Bulldog to do so as a junior. Five Bulldogs scored 1,000 career points in three years while the NCAA restricted freshmen from playing varsity basketball. Najdawi joined two other SoCon players in reaching the 1,000-point mark on Thursday, Feb. 1 as UNCG's Marvin Smith and Mercers Jordan Strawberry also accomplished the feat.

30 AND 30

In the Saturday, Jan. 13, 2018 game against Chattanooga, Zane Najdawi and Matt Frierson became the first Bulldogs to score at least 30 points since Preston Parks netted 37 last season at Samford on Feb. 25, 2017. They are believed to be the first two Bulldogs to score 30 points in the same game. The last player to score at least 40 points for The Citadel was Patrick Elmore on Feb. 10, 1990 vs. ETSU. Najdawi's 37 points and Frierson's 31 were career highs for both.

NAJDAWI, FRIERSON NAMED TO NABC HONORS COURT

Zane Najdawi and Matt Frierson were named to the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) Honors Court last season. Nine total student-athletes from the Southern Conference were honored, including Najdawi and Frierson, as well as three from UNCG and four from Mercer. Najdawi boasts a cumulative grade-point average of 3.393 as a sport management major after posting a 4.0 for the Spring 2018 term. Frierson, also a sport management major, takes a 3.383 GPA into his senior year after earning his own 4.0 last semester. Both were named to the Southern Conference Spring 2018 Academic All-Conference Team as well as the 2017-18 SoCon Academic Honor Roll.

NAJDAWI NAMED TO ALL-SOCON FIRST TEAM

Zane Najdawi was named to the All-Southern Conference First Team by both the league's coaches and the media and earned his second-straight All-SoCon nod from HoopsHD.com. Najdawi is just the fourth player in program history and the first Bulldog since Ashton Moore to earn first-team honors from both the coaches and the media. He is only the fourth player in program history to be named to the media's all-conference first team and is only the 11th player in program history to garner all-conference honors from the league's coaches.

LAST TIME VS. CHATTANOOGA: DESPITE LATE-GAME HEROICS, BULLDOGS DROP ROAD GAME AT CHATTANOOGA

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. – With just over five seconds left on the game clock, Chattanooga's Jonathan Scott missed the second of two free throws. Lew Stallworth brought down the defensive rebound and streaked down to the opposite end of the court weaving in and out of defenders. As the seconds ticked off, Stallworth drove the lane and put up a floating layup that could have tied the game to force overtime, but the shot was just off the mark and The Citadel basketball team fell 73-71 to the Mocs in Southern Conference action.

KEY STATS AND PLAYS

- Chattanooga opened the game on a 5-0 run before Zane Najdawi got the Bulldogs on the board with a jumper in the paint.
- Just over four minutes into the game, Hayden Brown hit his first 3-pointer of the game, giving him five points at the time, to pull the Bulldogs to within one, 8-7, of the Mocs.
- After Chattanooga stretched things back out to a six-point, 16-10 lead with 13:10 to go in the first half, Kaiden Rice and Jerry Higgins, III combined forces to pull the 'Dogs back to within one, 16-15, with a pair of free throws from Rice and a big three from Higgins.
- On the next Bulldog possession, Derek Webster, Jr. gave The Citadel its first lead of the afternoon with a field goal just outside of the paint and then Matt Frierson stretched it out to a four-point, 20-16 lead with his first 3-pointer of the game.

- With 8:47 to go in the first half, Donovan Toatley hit a jumper in the paint to give the Mocs the lead back, a lead they didn't relinquish until the 7:22 mark of the second half.
- After chipping away at the lead for much of the early going of the second half, Stallworth hit a 3-point field goal that made it a two-point, 60-58 Bulldog lead.
- After a turnover by Toatley, Rice converted a fast-break layup to make it a four-point advantage for the Bulldogs.
- Down the stretch, the two teams traded the lead back and forth five times.
- With 1:18 to play in regulation, Frierson hit his third 3-pointer of the game to make it a two-point, 69-67 Citadel advantage, but Kevin Easley matched him on the other end for the go-ahead bucket.
- In the final 19 seconds, the Mocs went 3-for-6 at the free throw line, leaving the door open for the Bulldogs to make a move.
- With just over five seconds left on the clock, it appeared the Bulldogs were poised to make some noise as Scott missed his second of two free throws and Stallworth came up with the defensive board. With the Bulldogs down just two points, Stallworth drove the length of the floor and put up a floater in the paint, but the shot bounced off the iron as time expired.
- For the game, the Bulldogs shot 42.0 percent (29-of-69) from the field, but struggled from beyond the 3-point arc, connecting on just 21.6 percent (8-of-37) of their 3-point attempts.
- The Mocs shot 48.1 percent (26-of-54) from the field for the game and made seven treys.
- Stallworth and Easley each scored a game-high 22 points. Stallworth added six rebounds and a pair of assists, while Brown chipped in 10 points, including a pair of 3-pointers, a block and three offensive rebounds.

DUGGAR BAUCOM

HEAD COACH (FOURTH SEASON)

Duggar Baucom was named the 30th head men's basketball coach in The Citadel's history on March 30, 2015. Overall, Baucom is 221-242 as a head coach, including a 184-223 mark at the Division I level and a 33-64 record in three years at The Citadel.

Baucom is the first coach in program history to improve his Southern Conference record in each of his first three seasons at the helm, and he is just the fifth coach in program history to post double-digit wins in each of his first three seasons. During the 2017-18 season, he became the first head coach in program history to notch a win in the SoCon Tournament in back-to-back seasons, and his 33 wins through his first three years in Charleston is tied with Ed Conroy and George Hill for third-most wins through the first three campaigns for a head coach.

The 2017-18 campaign saw Baucom and staff field one of the youngest and smallest teams in all of NCAA Division I. The Bulldogs' scholarship roster included six freshmen, four sophomores and three juniors, with no seniors. Even so, the Bulldogs finished the campaign in the top-25 in the nation in eight statistical categories, including second in 3-pointers made per game (12.1), third in 3-pointers attempted (1,133), fourth in total 3-point field goals made (386), tied for fourth in steals per game (9.4) and fifth in total steals (301). Baucom's Bulldogs were also sixth in turnovers forced (542), 20th in scoring (82.5 ppg) and 21st in assists per game (16.5).

The Bulldogs' 386 made 3-pointers, 528 assists and 301 steals are all second in program history to Baucom's 2016-17 team that converted 397 treys, finished with 561 assists and had 306 steals. The 2017-18 campaign also saw the 'Dogs finish fourth in program history for assist-to-turnover ratio (1.107) and seventh in blocks (99).

In February, the 'Dogs earned three wins over teams ranked in the CollegeInsider.com Mid-Major Top 25. On Feb. 1, the 'Dogs downed in-state rival Wofford 80-78 with the Terriers ranked No. 17 in the poll. Two days later, The Citadel notched an exciting 100-92, overtime win over Furman with the Paladins 19th in the poll. Possibly one of the biggest wins in recent history came on Feb. 20 as the Bulldogs went on the road to defeat ETSU 84-82. The Buccaneers entered the game atop the SoCon standings and ranked the fifth-best mid-major program by CollegeInsider.com at the time. The Bucs ended the season ranked 16th in the poll. Two weeks prior to that win, the Bulldogs had lost a close, 73-71, game to the Bucs at home after defeating Mercer on the road, 76-74, on Jan. 27. The win over the Bears marked the first win for The Citadel over Mercer in Macon, Georgia since the 1926-27 campaign.

Under Baucom and his staff's guidance, junior Zane Najdawi was named to the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) All-District 22 First Team as well as the All-Southern Conference First Team by the league coaches, media and HoopsHD.com. Najdawi became just the fourth player in program history to pick up first-team all-conference honors from both the coaches and the media. In the regular-season finale at Western Carolina on Sunday, Feb. 25, Najdawi became just the 27th player in SoCon history, and second in program history, to eclipse 1,000 points, 500 rebounds and 100 blocks for his career. Najdawi scored his 1,000th-career point in the home win over Wofford on Feb. 1 and brought down his 500th rebound in the game regular-season finale at Western Carolina.

Known for his fast-paced, high-scoring offense, the Bulldogs eclipsed the 100-point mark in six games, going 5-1 in those contests. In three years under Baucom, the Bulldogs are now 14-3 when scoring at least 100 points.

Prior to his time in Charleston, Baucom amassed a 151-159 record with the Keydets of VMI. The Charlotte, North Carolina, native left VMI as the school's all-time leader in wins. His 10 years represents the third-longest coaching tenure in Keydet history. Baucom, who led the Keydets to three Big South Tournament championship games, is one of two VMI head basketball coaches to post two 20-win seasons. His 2008-09 team won 24 games, the second most in school history trailing only the 1976-77 team that advanced to the Sweet 16 in the NCAA Tournament. VMI's second-place finish in the Big South that season was easily its best since joining the league in 2003-04. It also resulted in Baucom being named the NABC District Three Coach of the Year. In 2013-14, VMI advanced to the semifinals of the CollegeInsider.com Tournament, which was its first postseason appearance in 37 years. Baucom's feverish style resulted in VMI leading the nation in scoring offense six times in an eight-year span including 2006-07 (100.9 ppg), 2007-08 (91.3), 2008-09 (93.8), 2009-10 (88.6) and 2010-11 (87.9) and 2013-14 (88.3). The Keydets also made three appearances in the Big South Conference final and witnessed two national scoring titles by Reggie Williams (2006-07, 28.1 ppg; 2007-08, 27.8 ppg) in that stretch.

His head coaching career began at Tusculum, where he posted a 37-19 overall record. Baucom was responsible for guiding the Pioneers to their first South Atlantic Conference (SAC) Tournament championship and automatic berth in the NCAA Division II Tournament (2004-05). In his first season at the helm, Baucom led Tusculum to a 19-8 overall record, including a 10-4 mark in conference action, and earned the conference's Coach of the Year honor.

Baucom made his move to Greeneville, Tennessee, after serving as an assistant for three years at Western Carolina. While with the Catamounts he oversaw the recruiting efforts and landed several top players including guard Kevin Martin, a 2004 first-round draft pick of the Sacramento Kings.

DANIEL WILLIS

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH
(FOURTH SEASON)

Daniel Willis, who has coached alongside head coach Duggar Baucom for 18 years, has been with The Citadel basketball program for three seasons as the associate head coach.

While Willis was with Baucom at VMI, the Keydets led the nation in scoring offense six times in an eight-year span including 2006-07 (100.9 ppg), 2007-08 (91.3), 2008-09 (93.8), 2009-10 (88.6) and 2010-11 (87.9), and 2013-14 (88.3). The Keydets also made three appearances in the Big South Conference finals and witnessed two national scoring titles by Reggie Williams (2006-07, 28.1 ppg; 2007-08, 27.8 ppg) in that stretch.

In his first season at VMI, Willis filled in admirably for Baucom in 2005-06 when the head coach was sidelined for seven games during the month of January. Willis guided the Keydets to conference wins over Coastal Carolina and Liberty.

Willis was also an assistant under Baucom at Tusculum as the pair played a key role in the Pioneers' memorable run in 2004-05 season. Together they led Tusculum to an 18-11 overall record, the program's first South Atlantic Conference Tournament championship and automatic berth in the NCAA Division II Tournament.

Before his stint at Tusculum, Willis served as an assistant coach for three seasons (2001-04) at Western Carolina alongside Baucom, who was then an assistant with the Catamounts. Willis spent his first two seasons in Cullowhee, North Carolina, as a graduate assistant coach while earning a master's degree, before being escalated to full-time status on the WCU staff in 2003-04.

Willis graduated from Lenoir-Rhyne in Hickory, North Carolina, in 2001 with a B.S. in Sports Management and minor in Business Administration. He left as the South Atlantic Conference's all-time leading scorer and was a consensus All-American guard, where he recorded 1,980 points for the Bears from 1997-2001. That earned him a spot in the Lenoir-Rhyne and SAC Hall of Fame in 2014 and 2010, respectively.

Among his honors as a player include National Association of Basketball Coaches/NCAA Division II All-American Second Team, Daktronics/NCAA II All-American Second Team and the Lutheran Brotherhood College All-American First Team.

WILLIE BELL

ASSISTANT COACH

Willie Bell has been on head coach Duggar Baucom's staff in Charleston for three seasons. In his role as assistant coach, Bell aids with player development, focusing on post players, and scouting.

Under Bell's guidance, Zane Najdawi was named to the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) All-District 22 First Team as well as the All-Southern Conference First Team by the league coaches, media and HoopsHD.com. Najdawi became just the fourth player in program history to pick up first-team all-conference honors from both the coaches and the media. In the regular-season finale at Western Carolina on Sunday, Feb. 25, Najdawi became just the 27th player in SoCon history, and second in program history, to eclipse 1,000 points, 500 rebounds and 100 blocks for his career. Najdawi scored his 1,000th-career point in the home win over Wofford on Feb. 1 and brought down his 500th rebound in the game regular-season finale at Western Carolina.

Bell joined Baucom's Citadel staff after serving as the head coach at Warwick High School (Newport News, Va.) in 2014-15. He led the Raiders to a 12-11 overall record, including a 6-1 finish in the Pen South Conference, as he captured league Coach of the Year honors. Bell's unit garnered a pair of first and second team All-Pen South members.

In 2013-14, as the head junior varsity and varsity assistant coach, Bell helped lead Warwick to a 13-13 record. The nine-win improvement at the varsity level from the previous season resulted in the Raiders finishing second in the Conference 9 regular season and postseason tournament.

His first coaching experience came at Louisiana-Monroe in 2009-10 under head coach Orlando Early. Bell, who worked primarily as the skills development coordinator with guards and forwards, was responsible for the organization of team's travel plans.

Bell also has coaching experience on the AAU circuit with the Boo Williams Summer League 15u Elite Team (2014) and with the Newport Legends (2010-11). He was also camp counselor for basketball camps at Davidson (2009) and VMI (2006-10).

Bell, a two-sport athlete at VMI, played under Baucom for four seasons (2005-09) and was a member of the Big South Conference Tournament runner-up teams in 2007 and 2009. He was team captain of the 2008-09 unit that posted a 24-8 record, the second-best record in program history, while capturing a 111-103 victory over Kentucky at Rupp Arena. He earned his degree in business economics from VMI in 2009.

JACK CASTLEBERRY

ASSISTANT COACH
(THIRD SEASON)

Jack Castleberry, who has nine years of coaching experience at the collegiate level, has been with The Citadel men's basketball program for two seasons, one as an assistant coach after serving for one season as the Director of Basketball Operations, and has coached under head coach Duggar Baucom for six seasons. Castleberry works with the Bulldogs' guards.

Matt Frierson saw his offensive production take off during the 2017-18 campaign with Frierson ending the year ranked sixth in all of NCAA Division I for 3-point field goals attempted (314) and 3-pointers made per game (3.6). Frierson set the program record for treys made in a season with 114, and was named the Sixth Man of the Year for the SoCon by HoopsHD.com.

Prior to coming to Charleston, he served as an assistant coach for the women's basketball program at Siena College from 2012-14.

Castleberry attended Virginia Military Institute and walked on to the Keydets' basketball team. Following Castleberry's sophomore season, VMI hired Coach Baucom, who steered the Keydets to new heights of success. Castleberry played a major role in setting the precedent for that success as his relentless motor and work ethic on the court earned him a full scholarship. Coach Baucom named him team captain for the 2006-07 campaign and he led the Keydets to the most victories in a season in more than a decade.

Upon graduation, Castleberry immediately landed an assistant coaching position at the University of Tennessee-Martin. Following a year there, he returned to VMI and worked under Coach Baucom from 2008-12, assisting in player development, recruiting and scheduling and serving as the team's academic coordinator.

KYLE COMBS

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS
(THIRD SEASON)

Kyle Combs is entering his third season at The Citadel and second as the Bulldogs' Director of Basketball Operations. Combs oversees the administrative areas of the Bulldogs' basketball program, including practice coordination, team travel and supervision of graduate assistants along with other responsibilities involving the day-to-day running of the program.

A four-year starter and letter winner at Methodist University, Combs came to The Citadel after teaching health and physical education at Reid Ross Classical School. While teaching at Reid Ross Classical, Combs returned to his alma mater to serve as the assistant men's basketball coach for both the varsity and junior varsity squads. During his time as assistant coach for the Monarchs, Combs served as strength and conditioning coordinator, coordinated workouts for the team and assisted with recruiting. He also assisted with scouting and creating practice and game schedules.

While at Methodist as a player, Combs was voted Most Improved Player following his sophomore season and was named team captain for his senior campaign. In 2013, he also served as the Vice President on the Student Athletic Advisory Committee (SAAC).

Combs, a native of Fayetteville, North Carolina, earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Health and Physical Education from Methodist University in 2013. He is currently pursuing a Master of Science degree in Leadership at The Citadel.
