then split the first two games of the series against North Carolina A&T by the identical score.

Hutchins Debut

Ben Hutchins made the most of his first career start as he singled in each of his first two career at-bats. He finished the game 2-for-3 with a RBI.

Pilarski Earns First Victory

Right hander Jake Pilarski had an outstanding outing against North Florida as the graduate transfer tossed six shutout innings to earn his first victory as a Bulldog.

Beckley Closes Door

Right hander Devin Beckley closed the door on the Bulldogs first victory against Longwood. He did not allow a hit over the final two innings, striking out three. In his two outings, Beckley has eight strikeouts over 4.0 innings.

Crosby Jones came through for the offense on opening weekend as he went 4-for-12 with four RBIs. He collected at least one hit and one RBI in each contest.

Reeves' Streak Ends at 29.0

Sophomore Cameron Reeves saw his impressive streak of not allowing an earned run come to an end at 29.0 innings. He did not allow an earned run over the first 3.1 innings of his first start this season after not giving one up over the final 25.2 innings of 2020.

15 Strikeouts

Three Bulldog pitchers combined to strikeout 15 Longwood hitters in the middle game of the series. Starter Cameron Reeves struck out nine over 6.0 innings. Devin Beckley fanned five over 2.0 innings and Logan Barker had one strikeout in his 1.2 innings of work.

Graudate Transfers

The 2021 roster features four graduate transfers. Infielder Logan Taplett joined the Bulldogs from Furman. The list also includes three pitchers, Logan Barker (Liberty), Zack Jones (Rockford) and Jake Pilarski (Virginia Wesleyan).

Brown Sets the Table

Senior outfielder Jeffery Brown will once again set the table at the top of the Bulldog lineup. The center fielder has been at the top of the order for most of the last three seasons.

Two-Sport Star

Right fielder Ryan McCarthy has excelled in both football and baseball in his time at The Citadel. After leading the Bulldogs with four catches in the abbreviated fall season, McCarthy will concentrate on baseball during the spring.

Experience Up the Middle

The Bulldogs will have plenty of experience up the middle as shortstop Tilo Skole and second baseman Tyler Corbitt enter their third season as a double-play tandem.

Quickest to 10 Wins

The Bulldogs got their 10th win of the 2020 season in the 13th game. That was the quickest they reached the 10-win mark since the 2010 team started 10-3.

Best 10-Game Start

Second baseman Tyler Corbitt was a preseason selection to the All-Southern Conference team.

On Deck

The Bulldogs hit the road for a three-game Southern Conference series at Wofford on May 7 and May 9. The teams will not play on May 8 to allow the Bulldogs to return to campus for graduation.

TONY SKOLE

4TH SEASON • THE CITADEL, 1991

OVERALL RECORD - 618-706-1 • RECORD AT THE CITADEL - 52-111

The Citadel Athletics Hall of Famer, and 23-year head coaching veteran, Tony Skole, enters his third season as the Bulldogs' head coach.

Skole was officially announced as the head coach at his alma mater on June 8, 2017.

He enters the 2020 season with an overall head coaching record of 597-672-1, including going 502-613 at the Division I level.

Skole was tasked with returning the Bulldog program back to one of the top teams in the Southern Conference. Skole started by building the culture of playing hard on the field and doing what is right in the corps. Skole has also put an emphasis on academics as the team has bolstered a grade-point average over 3.00 in every semester since he took over.

The 2019 Bulldog team featured a lineup that included mainly freshmen and sophomores. The lone senior in the lineup, Ben Peden, put together his best season as a Bulldog. He hit .299 with 15 doubles, eight home runs and 36 RBIs. Freshmen Tyler Corbitt led the team with a .333 average on his way to earning All-Southern Conference Freshman Team honors.

In his first season back in the Lowcountry, Skole led the Bulldogs to its most conference wins in three years. The young squad improved in nearly every offensive category, including raising the batting average by 28 points and reducing the number of strikeouts by 99.

Skole returned home after spending 17 years as the head coach at ETSU, accumulating a program record 471 wins. He led the Bucs to a pair of 36-win seasons, including the 2013 season that saw ETSU capture the Atlantic Sun tournament championship and participate in the Vanderbilt Regional.

Skole has earned a national reputation as an elite recruiter and developer of student-athletes. He has coached 64 all-conference selections, two conference players of the year and ETSU's first conference pitcher of the year. Five Bucs were selected in last year's MLB Draft, matching the program record set in 2006 and adding to his total of more than 30 of athletes who have continued their playing career in the professional ranks.

Skole's ETSU teams showcased his balanced approach with multiple school records falling on offense and defense during his 18 years at the helm. In 2010, the Bucs broke single-season school records with 503 runs scored, 724 hits, 93 home runs and 142 doubles. His 2017 squad pounded out 654 hits for the second-highest single-season total in school history. ETSU has broken the school's record for strikeouts in a season each of the last three years. The 2015 staff recorded 431 strikeouts, shattering the previous record by 73 Ks, before the 2016 staff registered 436 punchouts and the 2017 staff pushed the record to 461.

In 2004, Skole tutored catcher Caleb Moore to Southern Conference Player of the Year and All-America honors after Moore led Division I with a .455 batting average and an average of .60 doubles per game. In 2010, first baseman Paul Hoilman was the Atlantic Sun Player of the Year and Scholar-Athlete of the Year and was a first-team All-American after leading Division I with a slugging percentage of .860. The 2013 season featured ETSU's first conference Pitcher of the Year courtesy of right-hander Kerry Doane. Doane ranked first in Division I with 12 complete games and 147.0 innings pitched and became the school's third first-team All-American.

Skole's first head-coaching position came at Lincoln Memorial University, where he was elevated to the top position in 1997 after four years as an assistant coach for the Railsplitters. During his three seasons in charge at LMU, Skole led the team's transition from NAIA to a Division II program that rose as high as No. 13 in the national rankings. He earned 95 wins and coached seven MLB Draft picks, including pitcher Scot Shields, during his time at LMU. Shields helped the Anaheim Angels win the 2002 World Series and was considered one of MLB's top relief pitchers for most of the decade.

Skole is a 1991 graduate of The Citadel, where he lettered in baseball and football. As a third baseman, he helped the baseball team win two Southern Conference championships and a berth in the 1990 College World Series. He hit a home run at Miami to win the Atlantic Regional over the Hurricanes and clinch the trip to Omaha. In Omaha, Skole had a game-winning hit in the 12th inning against Cal State Fullerton. On the gridiron, Skole started 35 consecutive games as a defensive back and helped the Bulldogs to two appearances in the NCAA I-AA playoffs. He was voted a team captain for the 1990 season and also led the SoCon in interceptions that season. In 2011, he was inducted into The Citadel Athletic Hall of Fame.

Skole and his wife, Jody, have three sons, Tilo, Jack and Gehrig.
