Hutchins Earns Weekend Spot

Ben Hutchins, who served as the backup catch last season, has earned a spot in the weekend rotation. He may still see time as a designated hitter and behind the plate.

Two-Sport Dogs

This year's team will feature a pair of two-sport athletes, both members of the football team. Ryan McCarthy (wide receiver) is joined by Dominick Poole (Defensive Back) on the team this year.

McCarthy Named Preseason All-SoCon

Senior outfielder Ryan McCarthy was named a Preseason First-Team All-Southern Conference selection by the head coaches.

CWS Comes Through The Joe

In each of the last two seasons played (2019, 2021), one of the team's that played in the CWS Championship Series played a game at Joseph P. Riley, Jr. Park during the regular season. In 2019, national runner-up Michigan played a three-game series in Charleston in February, while defending national champion Mississippi State played a midweek game at The Joe in May.

CWS Coaching Staff

All three members of the Bulldog coaching staff appeared in the College World Series during their playing days. Head Coach Tony Skole delivered the game-winning RBI against Cal State Fullerton for the Bulldogs in the 1990 CWS. Assistant Blake Cooper was an All-American on South Carolina's 2010 National Championship team, while assistant Zach Lucas made a pair of appearances in Omaha while playing at Louisville.

On Deck

The Bulldogs welcome No. 1 Texas to The Joe for a midweek contest on March 16. First pitch against the Longhorns is set for 7 p.m.

TONY SKOLE

5TH SEASON • THE CITADEL, 1991

OVERALL RECORD - 627-720-1 • RECORD AT THE CITADEL - 59-125

The Citadel Athletics Hall of Famer, and 25-year head coaching veteran, Tony Skole, enters his third season as the Bulldogs' head coach.

Skole was officially announced as the head coach at his alma mater on June 8, 2017.

He enters the 2022 season with an overall head coaching record of 619-717-1, including going 524-660-1 at the Division I level.

Skole was tasked with returning the Bulldog program back to one of the top teams in the Southern Conference. Skole started by building the culture of playing hard on the field and doing what is right in the corps. Skole has also put an emphasis on academics as the team has bolstered a grade-point average over 3.00 in every semester since he took over.

The 2019 Bulldog team featured a lineup that included mainly freshmen and sophomores. The lone senior in the lineup, Ben Peden, put together his best season as a Bulldog. He hit .299 with 15 doubles, eight home runs and 36 RBIs. Freshmen Tyler Corbitt led the team with a .333 average on his way to earning All-Southern Conference Freshman Team honors.

In his first season back in the Lowcountry, Skole led the Bulldogs to its most conference wins in three years. The young squad improved in nearly every offensive category, including raising the batting average by 28 points and reducing the number of strikeouts by 99.

Skole returned home after spending 17 years as the head coach at ETSU, accumulating a program record 471 wins. He led the Bucs to a pair of 36-win seasons, including the 2013 season that saw ETSU capture the Atlantic Sun tournament championship and participate in the Vanderbilt Regional.

Skole has earned a national reputation as an elite recruiter and developer of student-athletes. He has coached 64 all-conference selections, two conference players of the year and ETSU's first conference pitcher of the year. Five Bucs were selected in last year's MLB Draft, matching the program record set in 2006 and adding to his total of more than 30 of athletes who have continued their playing career in the professional ranks.

Skole's ETSU teams showcased his balanced approach with multiple school records falling on offense and defense during his 18 years at the helm. In 2010, the Bucs broke single-season school records with 503 runs scored, 724 hits, 93 home runs and 142 doubles. His 2017 squad pounded out 654 hits for the second-highest single-season total in school history. ETSU has broken the school's record for strikeouts in a season each of the last three years. The 2015 staff recorded 431 strikeouts, shattering the previous record by 73 Ks, before the 2016 staff registered 436 punchouts and the 2017 staff pushed the record to 461.

In 2004, Skole tutored catcher Caleb Moore to Southern Conference Player of the Year and All-America honors after Moore led Division I with a .455 batting average and an average of .60 doubles per game. In 2010, first baseman Paul Hoilman was the Atlantic Sun Player of the Year and Scholar-Athlete of the Year and was a first-team All-American after leading Division I with a slugging percentage of .860. The 2013 season featured ETSU's first conference Pitcher of the Year courtesy of right-hander Kerry Doane. Doane ranked first in Division I with 12 complete games and 147.0 innings pitched and became the school's third first-team All-American.

Skole's first head-coaching position came at Lincoln Memorial University, where he was elevated to the top position in 1997 after four years as an assistant coach for the Railsplitters. During his three seasons in charge at LMU, Skole led the team's transition from NAIA to a Division II program that rose as high as No. 13 in the national rankings. He earned 95 wins and coached seven MLB Draft picks, including pitcher Scot Shields, during his time at LMU. Shields helped the Anaheim Angels win the 2002 World Series and was considered one of MLB's top relief pitchers for most of the decade.

Skole is a 1991 graduate of The Citadel, where he lettered in baseball and football. As a third baseman, he helped the baseball team win two Southern Conference championships and a berth in the 1990 College World Series. He hit a home run at Miami to win the Atlantic Regional over the Hurricanes and clinch the trip to Omaha. In Omaha, Skole had a game-winning hit in the 12th inning against Cal State Fullerton. On the gridiron, Skole started 35 consecutive games as a defensive back and helped the Bulldogs to two appearances in the NCAA I-AA playoffs. He was voted a team captain for the 1990 season and also led the SoCon in interceptions that season. In 2011, he was inducted into The Citadel Athletic Hall of Fame.

Skole and his wife, Jody, have three sons, Tilo, Jack and Gehrig.
