Coach Donald Bunch served as the Head Tennis Coach at The Citadel for 30 years.

He was the Dean of Southern Conference Tennis Coaches until his death on April 20, 1987.

Coach Bunch compiled a 282-235-2 overall record for the Bulldogs, a winning percentage of .545.

He was at The Citadel for 38 years and was a retired professor from the business administration department.

His teams won one league title in 1961 and he produced two singles champions and four doubles championships. During one 10-year stretch, the Bulldogs never finished lower than third place in the Southern Conference including three occasions, when his teams finished only one point out of first place.
