TODAY'S GAME NOTES

Tomcats fall to Titans on Homecoming

The Thiel College football team dropped a Presidents' Athletic Conference (PAC) game to the Westminster Titans, 58-6, Saturday afternoon at Alumni Stadium.

Westminster took the ball first and marched down the field with an eight-play, 69 yard drive to take a quick 7-0 lead.

Thiel got their first drive of the game, but could not get anything from it.

On the ensuing punt, Westminster's Brice Butler returned the punt 64 yards for the touchdown to give the Titans a 14-0 lead.

Westminster would take a 21-0 lead early in the second quarter on a three-yard touchdown run.

A field goal and a touchdown would give the Titans a 31-0 lead at halftime.

Thiel started the second half with a three-and-out.

Westminster first drive of the second half resulted in a touchdown, with the Titans covering 40 yards in six plays, capped off by a two-yard touchdown run.

On the ensuing Thiel drive, a fumble on the third play of the drive recovered by Westminster gave the Titans excellent field position inside the Tomcat 20 yard-line.

Westminster would then be able to punch in the Thiel turnover to take a 44-0 lead.

The Titans would score 13 points in the fourth quarter.

For Thiel, freshman quarterback Robert Doyle scored his first collegiate touchdown on the last play of the game, capping of an 8-play, 59-yard drive to finish the game.

Thiel was led by Doyle who went 4-for-4 with 57 yards and a rushing touchdown. Daniel Rennie went 9-for-12 for 43 yards.

On the ground for the Tomcats, Deon Logan led the team with 72 yards on 14 carries. Marquis Tarver rushed for six yards.

Adam Kreais led the Tomcats receiving, catching two passes for 31 yards. Ja'mani Morales (Ocala, Fla./Lake Weir) caught one pass for 24 yards.

Defensively, Jake Badger recorded 10 tackles, including an assisted tackle for a loss. Luke Faber recorded seven tackles, including two tackles for a loss, while Jaellen Rose recorded six tackles.

For Westminster, Ty McGowan went 14-for-19 for 139 yards and two touchdowns.

On the ground for the Titans, Ryan Gomes ran for 60 yards in 12 carries. McGowan rushed for 31 yards, while Sean O'Shea rushed for 31 yards.

Through the air, Gomes caught one pass for 46 yards and a touchdown.

Defensively, Kevin Wright recorded five tackles, including 1.5 tackles for a loss. Wesley Donner recorded three tackles, including a sack.

Westminster thumps Allegheny

The visitors from Westminster College spoiled Blue and Gold Weekend for the Allegheny College football team, as the Titans won Saturday's matchup under the lights at Frank B. Fuhrer Field, 42-7.

Although the turnover bug didn't bite the Gators (1-2) the way it did in their Week 2 game against Saint Vincent College, the offense couldn't find a crack in the Titan's (2-0) armor. Allegheny managed just over 200 yards of total offense and was out-gained twofold by the Titans.

The lone exception was a fourth-quarter drive that included two explosive plays and ended with a touchdown. Senior quarterback Trevor Brncic eluded pressure in the pocket and found Chris Gisewhite crossing over the middle on the fourth play of the series. The 29-yard catch-and-run was the longest play of the night for the Gators. Dominic Berarducci followed up with his longest rush, as the first-year running back dashed up the middle and broke a few tackles on his way to a 17-yard scamper. Berarducci was rewarded with a one-yard score three plays later.

Blake

Allegheny managed to recover a pooch kick on the ensuing kickoff, but the Titans halted all the momentum the Gators had with an interception return for a touchdown on the following drive.

Last year against Allegheny

Allegheny defeated Thiel 27-3 last year at Frank B. Fuhrer Field.

Thiel's Andy Plowden led the team with 78 rushing yards on 14 carries.

Jamar Jeter led the Tomcats with 4 catches for 14 yards.

Defensively, Chad Morningstar recorded seven tackles, including 1.5 tackles for a loss. Jaellen Rose and Luke Faber each recorded four tackles, while Faber also blocked an extra point.

Remember When

Thiel's last win over Allegheny came as a 44-21 win in 2016.

Ryan Radke went 8-for-12 with 148 yards passing and one touchdown.

On the ground, Nick Barca rushed for 123 yards on 20 carries and one touchdown. James Lewis rushed for touchdowns.

Ryan Rowland caught two passes for 25 yards and a touchdown.

Defensively, Joe Krimm recorded nine tackles, including two sacks and 2.5 tackles for a loss.

PAC Schedule Week 4

This week's PAC schedule is as follows:

Saturday, Oct. 12

- Allegheny at Thiel, 1 PM
- Geneva at W&J, 1:05 PM
- Carnegie Mellon at Grove City, 2 PM
- Westminster at Bethany, 4:30 PM
- Saint Vincent at CWRU, 7 PM

Looking ahead

The Tomcats head Cleveland, Ohio for a matchup against Case Western Reserve. The PAC game is slated to begin at 6 p.m.

MIKE MCKINNEY, ED.D. '02

VP STUDENT LIFE & ATHLETICS

Mike McKinney, Ed.D. '02 began working for his alma mater after graduating in 2002. He started his career as a resident director while attending graduate school at Youngstown State University.

He holds a master's degree in counseling/higher education from YSU. His original two-year appointment has grown into a 22-year career. McKinney rose to Dean of Students in 2009 and began serving on the President's Cabinet by the time he was 29. Four years later, he became Vice President of Student Life.

McKinney was recognized as an influential leader in 2016 as one of the Mercer County chambers of commerce's "40 under Forty."

In 2018, McKinney was among a group of Thiel faculty and staff who were selected by the Council of Independent Colleges to participate in the inaugural Diversity, Civility, and the Liberal Arts Institute. He completed his education doctorate at the University of Pittsburgh in 2022.

In 2023, McKinney's role was expanded to include oversight of Thiel's Athletics Department and later that year he was selected for the NCAA's Athletics Direct Report (ADR)

Professional Development Program.

The ADR program is designed to engage Division III ADR's in best practices to oversee and manage athletics programs and improve the relationship between ADR's and their presidents, athletic directors, and conference commissioners.

McKinney is married to Erin (Wright) McKinney '02. They live in Greenville with their two children.

SUSAN TRAVERSO, PH.D.

COLLEGE PRESIDENT

Susan Traverso, Ph.D., is in her ninth year as President of Thiel College. Under her leadership, Thiel is a creative and energetic college that is experiencing enrollment growth through strong undergraduate programs and robust co-curricular offerings. The College has also expanded into graduate education with master's degree programs in clinical mental health counseling, communication and leadership, business administration, physician assistant studies, and speech-language pathology.

With a strategic focus on allied health and sciences, including nursing, the College completed $7.5 million in renovations of the Rhodehouse Science Building, which includes updated lab and classroom spaces and collaborative and lounge areas as well as a new human anatomy lab.

Successful fundraising and strong financial management over the past five years are supporting more than $40 million in capital improvements in the campus's academic, athletic, and residential facilities. These enhancements are aligned with the College's new strategic plan, "Thiel 2026: Launching the Leaders the World Needs Now." Among the campus improvements are important renovation projects supporting athletics and Wellness. A three-phase renovation of the Rissell-Beeghly complex began this summer, upgrading the competitive court, installing new flooring, bleachers, modern lighting as well as an advanced heating and cooling system throughout the building. Accessibility for people with disabilities was improved in the gym as part of the Rissell-Beeghly improvements. Additionally, the College doubled the size of the tennis complex, adding three additional courts, making it possible to host a variety of activities including intramurals, camps, clinics and community use.

A recognized leader in higher education, Dr. Traverso is active with several national organizations including the Council of Independent Colleges and the Network for Vocation in Undergraduate Education.

She is the president for the Network of ELCA colleges and universities. Locally, she serves on the board of the Penn-Northwest Economic Development Corporation, and she and her husband, Kent Taylor, are active in the Greenville community.

Before her appointment on August 1, 2016, as Thiel College's 20th and first female president on, Dr. Traverso served as the Provost/Senior Vice President at Elizabethtown College (Elizabethtown, Pa.) and Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at the University of Redlands (Redlands, Calif.).

A scholar of American social and political history and an expert in U.S. women's history, she is the author of "Welfare Politics in Boston, 1910-1940 (University of Massachusetts Press)."

Dr. Traverso earned her bachelor's degree in history and communication from Simmons College (Boston, Mass.), and doctoral and master's degrees in history from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

In recent years, the College has been recognized as a Top North Region college in Western Pa. and a top college for social mobility in Western Pa. according to U.S. News and World Report; an Arbor Day Foundation Tree Campus USA; and as a Grateful Graduates institution by Forbes magazine. The College also joins Princeton, Carnegie Mellon and the University of Pittsburgh as one of just six Dietrich Foundation higher education institutions in the United States.

SAM BAUMAN

HEAD COACH | THIRD SEASON

Sam Bauman is in his third season as the head football coach at Thiel College in 2023.

Last season, Bauman led the Tomcats to three wins, including their first homecoming win since a 21-20 win over Saint Vincent in 2014.

Bauman coached six All-PAC Players in 2023, including All-PAC Second Teamers Donelle Thomas and Luke Faber.

Bauman was the linebackers coach at the College of Wooster from 2013-2021. He served as the team's defensive coordinator for seven seasons and was the special teams coordinator in 2013 and 2014.

Bauman was part of a new coaching staff at the College of Wooster in 2013 that took a two-win team in 2012 to seven wins in 2013. The 2013 team ranked fifth in the nation in Division III in turnover margin (+16). In 2015 and 2021, Bauman's defense ranked in the top 20 in forced fumbles. In 2019, the team ranked third in the country in red zone defense and 24th in scoring defense.

Bauman began his coaching career in 2010 as the assistant defensive backs coach at the University of Chicago, a position he held for two seasons. He
