St. Thomas Men's Basketball returns home to Schoenecker Arena for its final three game home stand of the regular season as the Tommies take on Oral Roberts and Kansas City this week, looking to bounce back from a pair of road losses in Kansas City and Tulsa earlier this season.

The Tommies host the Golden Eagles Thursday for the fourth all-time meeting, ORU currently sits atop the Summit League standings. With a 10-1 home record, the Tommies look to continue their season success in a push to reach the highest possible seed ahead of the Summit League tournament.

Earlier this season, the Tommies lost to Kansas City 81-60 on the road, and two days later dropped an 81-69 contest against Oral Roberts.

The Tommies, the league's second ranked offense (74.4 points per game) face the league's top-ranked offense in Oral Roberts (85.2 points per game) on Thursday and the league's last ranked offense in Kansas City (66.0 points per game) on Saturday.

Freshman standout, Andrew Rohde leads the Tommies with 15.6 points per game, while grad students Parker Bjorklund and Riley Miller average 14.5 and 12.9 points per game, respectively.

Reaching the Peak

Riley Miller became the first Tommie to earn the TicketSmarter Summit League Peak Performer of the Week on Nov. 21 following his performance at the Zootown Classic. Riley Miller led St. Thomas with 16.7 points per game on 43.3 percent shooting from the field (13-30) and 46.4 percent from 3-point range (13-28). He also went a perfect 11-of-11 from the free throw line while playing 32.2 minutes per game.

Just over a month later, fellow grad student Park Bjorklund earned TicketSmarter Summit League Peak Performer of the Week on Dec. 27 after a pair of career games helping the Tommies to a 2-0 start in conference action. Bjorklund scored a career-high 29 points in the team's first conference game of the year against North Dakota and followed up with a 19-point effort against North Dakota State to help the Tommies to a 2-0 start in conference action. The Chaska, Minn., native averaged 24 points per game over the first series of Summit League action, connected on 66 percent (21-of-32) from the field, and averaged 4.5 rebounds per game.

Zootown Classic

In addition to Miller's award winning performance, freshman Andrew Rohde's performance at the Zootown Classic was highlighted by the game-winning basket to lift St. Thomas over Troy. He tied Miller for a team-high 16 points against the Trojans, including shooting 7-of-7 from the free throw line, with three 3-pointers, two assists and one block. Miller and Rohde were both selected to the Zootown Classic All-Tournament Team.

Head in the Clouds

St. Thomas played four of a five game stretch at high altitude, three at the Zootown Classic (Nov. 17-19) in Missoula Mont, (3,209') and Nov. 26 at Utah (4,226'). After a two-game homestand Nov. 29 and Dec. 3, St. Thomas will close its non-conference road schedule at even higher elevation. The Purple played Montana State Dec. 8 in Bozeman, Mont., (4,793') before taking on Idaho State Dec. 10 in Pocatello, Idaho (4,462'). As part of the Summit League schedule, St. Thomas will also travel to Denver, Colo., Feb. 4 to take on Denver at its highest elevation (5,279').

The 38th Member of the Club

Riley Miller entered the 2022-23 season 27 points shy of 1,000 for his career. After scoring 13 points against No. 9 Creighton in the season opener, he scored 15 against Chicago State to hit the milestone. He became the 38th Tommie all-time to reach the mark, sinking the first of two free throws with 10:22 to play against the Cougars.

Miller began his Tommie career with 145 points as a freshman and 247 as a sophomore before further increasing his scoring average with 133 points in just seven games during the COVID-shortened 2020-21 season. Miller totaled nearly half of his career scoring total last season with 448 points while 822 of his 1,273 of his career points have come behind the 3-point line.

The 3-Point Veteran

Riley Miller surpassed 100 made 3-pointers last season and is at 278 made in his 118-game career, 19 shy of the St. Thomas all-time record set by Bryan Schnettler from 2004-07 (297). Miller made 103 treys as he converted 41 percent behind the arc last season. He was one of just four D-I shooters to make 100 or more threes and convert at 40 percent or better behind the arc.

His nine 3-pointers against Merrimack this season set a new career-high and was one shy of tying the program single-game record, set by Curt Kietzer with 10 in 1987. It's also the second-best 3-point performance in NCAA D-I this season.

Freshmen Leading the Way

Andrew Rohde has led the Tommies in scoring in 11 of his 24 games played this season and leads the team scoring 15.6 points per game, which ranks first among all Summit League freshmen and eighth overall. He has a team-high 132 field goals made and 3.5 assists per game.

Rohde scored 20 points during the Nov. 13 win over St. Francis Brooklyn, becoming the first Tommie freshman to score at least 20 points in a game since Anders Nelson recorded six games with at least 20 points in 2018-19. Rohde followed up with a career-high 22 points Dec. 8 at Montana State and recorded nine rebounds, becoming the first Tommie with at least 20 points and nine rebounds since Connor Bair with 26 points and 11 rebounds on Feb. 9, 2019 and the first freshman to do so since at least 2012-13. Rohde had his third 20-plus point outing in the Tommies first Summit League road game at USD when he scored 22 points and posted a DI era freshman scoring record with 24 points in a win over Omaha and again against South Dakota. Rohde most recently dropped 20 in a road win at Omaha.

Kendall Blue ranks fifth on the team with 7.9 points per game on 43.5 percent shooting. Blue has scored double-digit points in 12 games, including a career-high 15 against St. Francis Brooklyn and North Dakota State. Blue made his first career start Nov. 29 versus North Central.

Ahjany Lee has made four starts in 25 games this season, his first on Nov. 13 versus St. Francis Brooklyn. He set career highs of 14 points against Chicago State and eight rebounds Dec. 31. Lee leads the team with 17 blocks on the season, ranks sixth on the team with 5.0 points per game and second in rebounding, averaging 4.0 boards per game.

NCAA DI Recruiting Class: Part Two

After bringing in Ben Nau and Ryan Dufault during the 2021 Tommie Signing Class, the 2022 class was bumped up to four with the additions of Carter Bjerke (6-9, F), Kendall Blue (6-6, G), Ahjany Lee (6-9, F) and Andrew Rohde (6-6, G). The 2022 class was ranked number 52 of 368 schools according to Rivals.com. Additionally, only three of the top 50 ranked classes were mid-major schools.
