BREAKING DOWN THE TOMMIES

LAST TIME OUT | NORTH DAKOTA

Three-point shooting woes hindered the Tommies on Saturday evening as St. Thomas men's basketball suffered a 74-64 loss against the North Dakota Fighting Hawks. St. Thomas moves to 14-8 on the season and 4-3 in conference play. St. Thomas shot 43.1 percent overall (22-51) and 23.5 percent from 3-point range (4-17) while going 16-of-19 from the free throw line. North Dakota shot 48.4 percent (30-62) from the field and 36 percent (9-25) from beyond the arc while winning the rebound margin 37-26 over the Tommies. After trailing 38-27 at halftime, the Purple outscored the Fighting Hawks 37-36 in the second half.

THE CAST | VS NORTH DAKOTA

Despite the defeat, graduate student Raheem Anthony recorded a season-high 32 points on 10-of-16 shooting including 3-of-4 from beyond the arc, and 9-of-10 from the charity stripe. He also recorded a team high eight rebounds in addition to two steals and a block in an all-around performance. Anthony continued the Tommie 30-point streak as he followed up fellow graduate student Parker Bjorklund's 32-point performance in the previous game against North Dakota State.

DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE

The Toms' defense has been the best in the Summit League to start the conference schedule, holding its league opponents to 67.4 points per game, which is 6.2 points fewer than the next lowest. St. Thomas' conference scoring margin of +8.3 is the best in the league, 4.5 more than the next highest. Overall, the Toms rank tied for 16th in the nation with 63.7 points allowed per game.

TAKE CARE OF THE BALL

Tauer's teams have historically taken care of the basketball and this season is no different. The Tommies are currently 9th nationally in fewest turnovers per game (9.2) after ranking tied for 11th nationally in the fewest total turnovers (327) last season and leading the category in 2021-22. Only Houston and Virginia have a better scoring defense and fewer turnovers per game than St. Thomas nationally.

SUSTAINED EXCELLENCE

Head Coach Johnny Tauer's excellence within the Tommie Men's Basketball program dates back to his days as an Academic All-American that led to his induction to the St. Thomas Athletics Hall of Fame in 2001. As a student-athlete from 1991-95, Tauer was an All-MIAC player, first team All-West Region, and as a senior led the 1994-95 Toms to a school-record 27-0 start, including an MIAC Championship with an unprecedented 20-0 record. He helped the Toms to NCAA DIII Tournament berths in 1992-93, 1993-94, and 1994-95, including a run to the Final Four in 1993-94. Tauer ranks 25th in career scoring (1,219 points) and 23rd in career rebounding (482) at St. Thomas, and was the school 3-point leader until 1999-2000.

After earning master's and PhD degrees at Wisconsin, Tauer joined the Tommie Men's Basketball coaching staff as an assistant coach and ran the St. Thomas defense for two seasons (2001-03) and also directed the Tommies' offensive sets that had consistently ranked among the best in NCAA basketball in overall offensive efficiency, field-goal percentage, 3-point proficiency, fewest turnovers, and assist-to-turnover ratio. With Tauer serving as an assistant, the Toms won the 2010-11 DIII National Championship title, made a run to the 2008-09 Final Four, and totaled seven DIII National Tournament runs.

With the retirement of longtime head coach Steve Fritz in 2011, Tauer took over the program and continued its storied tradition with another national title in 2015-16, a Final Four run in 2012-13, and five DIII National Tournament appearances.

As a student-athlete, assistant coach, and head coach at St. Thomas, Tauer has helped the Tommies to 594 wins in 28 seasons, averaging out to over 20 wins per season. He's been part of 19 conference titles, 15 national tournament appearances, three Final Fours, and two national championships.

A GRACEFUL TRANSITION

St. Thomas is one of 11 teams currently making the transition into NCAA Division I. Of those 11 teams, the Tommies are the only one making the jump from the Division III ranks (while the other 10 were previously members of Division II). Among those teams, St. Thomas is tied for the lead with 14 wins and is second in both the Ken Pom and NET Rankings.

ALL BUSINESS FOR BJORKLUND

Bjorklund became the 39th member of the 1,000-point club at St. Thomas Saturday, Jan. 6 during the win over Sacramento State. He's the most recent Tommie to cross 1,000 career points since Riley Miller did so in November 2022, excluding current Tommie Raheem Anthony who began his career in the Purple with over 1,000 points. Bjorklund has 1,080 career points following a career high 32 Jan. 25 in a win over North Dakota State along with 429 career rebounds, 16 shy of tying Joe Buri (1996-2000) for 29th all-time at St. Thomas.

READY FOR THE HOME STRETCH

The 2023-24 schedule is down to the final nine games of the regular season, including four at home for St. Thomas. The Tommies set their top five attendance marks over its final five games of the 2022-23 season, while its most three most recent home games have topped that previous fifth-highest attendance number (1,505) set Jan. 26, 2023 against South Dakota State.

Following its current road trip, St. Thomas returns to Schoenecker Arena Thursday, Feb. 8 versus Oral Roberts presented by Wings Credit Union. The two programs drew a facility record crowd of 2,013 on Feb. 9, 2023, a 95-88 win by ORU.

BACK-TO-BACK FOR 32 POINTS

Bjorklund and Anthony recorded back-to-back 32-point performances during its home series against North Dakota State on Jan. 25 and North Dakota on Jan. 27, marking the first Tommie teammates with at least 32 points in consecutive games since at least the 2008-09 season.

Prior to the duo's 32-point games, the Tommies hadn't had multiple 30-point performances in a single season since 2019-20 when Anders Nelson scored 42 points Jan. 6 and 33 points Feb. 5.

THE 1,500-POINT/NEWCOMER CLUB

Newcomer Raheem Anthony, a transfer from NCAA DIII Saint Mary's University in Winona, Minn., eclipsed 1,500 career points Dec. 6, 2023 during a 75-71 win over Milwaukee. He was a two-time All-American (NABC, D3hoops.com) in 2022-23 after averaging 24.6 points, 9.2 rebounds, 4.6 assists and 1.5 steals per game, and shooting 54.5 percent from the field. Anthony started all 78 games played in at Saint Mary's and averaged 19.3 points in three games against St. Thomas during the 2019-20 season.

St. Thomas has five members of the 1,500-point club, all besides Anthony scored the entirety of their points in the Purple and Gray. Anthony is the first Tommie to reach the 1,500 mark since Karnell James (1993-97) who finished his career with 1,854. Six Tommies have transferred into the program and ended their careers with at least 1,000 points. Anthony has 1,662 career points and also 722 career rebounds, including 620 at Saint Mary's, which ranks 11th at St. Thomas.

Anthony is second on the Tommies with 12.1 points per game and leads with 2.9 assists per game, with at least three assists in 11 games this season and an eight-assist performance Dec. 10 in a win at Chicago State. He scored a previous season-high 23 points on 7-of-9 shooting to push him over the 1,500 point mark against Milwaukee.

PICK YOUR LEADER

The Tommies have seen eight different student-athletes lead the way in scoring and six lead in rebounds through their first 21 games. Anthony and Bjorklund have led in rebounds eight times followed by Blue four times, Lee twice, and Nau and Allen twice.

Bjorklund has led in scoring nine times while the next highest is Anthony with five, senior Drake Dabbs with three, graduate student Brooks Allen with two, and Carter Bjerke, Kendall Blue, Ahjany Lee and Ben Nau all with one.

HOME COOKING

The Tommies have embraced playing in front of the hometown crowd, going 21-4 over its last 25 games at Schoenecker Arena. St. Thomas closed out the 2021-22 season with a home win and went 12-2 last season, including a 10-game home winning streak, before opening the 2023-24 season with seven straight home wins. The only three home losses over that span came Jan. 28, 2023 to South Dakota, Feb. 9, 2023 to Oral Roberts, and Jan. 11, 2024 to South Dakota State.

LEE & PENNY ANDERSON ARENA

The Lee and Penny Anderson Arena will be the new home for Tommie Men's and Women's Basketball. Located on the University's South Campus in St. Paul, the arena will also include state-of-the-art practice facilities. The Lee & Penny Anderson Arena is scheduled to open in fall 2025.

A $75-million gift from Lee and Penny Anderson surpasses a previous $60-million donation made by the Andersons in 2007 for the construction of the Anderson Student Center, Anderson Athletic & Recreation Center, and Anderson Parking Facility. At that time, the gift was the largest-ever single donation made to any university in Minnesota. In addition to being the largest gift in St. Thomas' 138-year history, this latest donation is the ninth-largest gift to college athletics nationally.

In total, the Andersons have donated nearly $140 million – including multiple gifts to scholarships and in support for veterans resources – to the mission-driven, Catholic university. Lee and Penny Anderson's most recent contribution to the University of St. Thomas has launched the campaign for the Lee & Penny Anderson Arena.

GAME #23: ST. THOMAS at OMAHA

The Tauer File

Johnny Tauer built a elite Division III program over his first 10 seasons, and now he's busy leading his program's historic transition into Division I basketball.

Tauer, who is on pace to coach his 350th game with the Tommies this season, is entering his 13th year as head coach of St. Thomas men's basketball team in 2023-24. That puts him first in tenure among the nine Summit League head coaches at their schools, and in the top 50 for longevity in their current role among all D-I men's basketball coaches.

An elite group welcomed Tauer into the mix following his 250th win Nov. 19, 2023 against Portland State. Not only did he become the fastest in program history to reach 250 career wins, but he also became one of five active head coaches among all of NCAA to reach the milestone with a winning percentage of at least .740, all at one school.

Tauer's basketball playing success here from 1991-95 led to his induction into the Tommie Athletics Hall of Fame. He joins Tommie women's hoops head coach Ruth Sinn to put St. Thomas on a short list of only five D-I institutions that feature alumni in both of their basketball head coaching roles.

Tauer's Tommies took a big step forward during the 2022-23 season. In moving from 10 wins in season one to 19 victories last season, the Purple had a strong finish to the season that included the program's first NCAA Division I postseason victory. After entering the 2022-23 season picked to finish eighth in the Summit League Preseason Coaches' Poll, Tauer led the Tommies to a fourth place finish and a run to the semifinals of the league's postseason tournament. The Purple nearly doubled their win total from the previous season, finishing with a 19-14 record overall and a 9-9 mark in the Summit League. Additionally, St. Thomas went 12-2 at Schoenecker Arena to rank among the top 25 percent of NCAA D-I teams in home win percentage.

The Toms' national rating by Ken Pom improved 102 spots from 305 at the end of 2021-22 to 203 at the end of 2022-23, in the top six-percent of improvement among all D-I MBB programs. Tauer's squad took 30-win Oral Roberts to the wire in the Summit League playoff semifinals, losing 70-65. The Purple beat eight of the Summit League opponents at least once. They also took a road victory at 21-win UW-Milwaukee; beat 20-win Troy; and split with 19-win South Dakota State. The Toms also beat an 18-win Merrimack team that won its conference championship. They played two Power 5 teams on the road: Against nationally-ranked Creighton, a 21-win team thus far, the Purple played the Bluejays even for 30 minutes before losing by 12. The Toms also lost to a 17-win Utah team. A quick comparison with other recent reclassifying universities provides more good signs for the Tommies. Of the 50 schools to reclassify into D-I over the last 25 years, in men's basketball, St. Thomas has the second-best improvement from year one to year two – plus-9 wins (10-20 to 19-14).

Tauer coached two 2022-23 All-Summit League honorees in Andrew Rohde and Parker Bjorklund. Rohde also was named the Freshman of the Year and made the All-Summit League Newcomer Team. From year one to year two of the NCAA Division I era, Tauer and the Tommies improved by six conference wins, had a plus-five point scoring margin, doubled its block total, and improved its 3-point field goal defense in conference play by nearly 10 percent. St. Thomas' first postseason victory of the D-I era came in a 67-60 win over Western Illinois during the quarterfinal round of the Summit League Championships.

Twice named a Division III National Coach of the Year, in 2013 by Basketball Times, and in 2016 by both the National Basketball Coaches' Association and by D3 News, Tauer has also received five West Region Coach of the Year honors and five MIAC Coach of the Year Awards. Among Division III men's coaches, he was the second fastest in history to 200 victories and is believed to have won more games in his first five seasons than any coach in Division III history. His .813 win percentage through 2021 ranked first among active Division III coaches, and in the top five among all active NCAA men's coaches. He was the first MIAC coach to sweep conference and playoff championships in each of his first two seasons as head coach. He's also the lone conference individual, and one of a small number of coaches nationally, to have played in, been an assistant coach, and been a head coach at the Division III Final Four. In addition, he is the first MIAC coach to win regular-season titles in each of his first six seasons.

Prior to being named the head coach at St. Thomas, Tauer was an assistant coach for 11 years. An All-MIAC and Academic All-America Tommie player in the 1990s, Tauer is in his 27th season with Tommie basketball. During his time as an assistant coach, he ran the St. Thomas defense for two seasons (2001-2003) and he has also directed the Tommies' offensive sets. UST's offense during that time has consistently ranked among the best in NCAA basketball in overall offensive efficiency, field-goal percentage, 3-point proficiency, fewest turnovers, and assist-to-turnover ratio.

Tauer was inducted into the St. Thomas Athletic Hall of Fame in 2001. He was an All-MIAC player, first team All-West Region, and Academic All-America, and as a senior led the 1994-95 Toms to a school-record 27-0 start, including an MIAC championship with an unprecedented 20-0 record. Tauer ranks 14th in career scoring (1,219 points) and 15th in career rebounding (482) at St. Thomas, and was the school 3-point leader until 1999-2000. He ranks sixth on the MIAC all-time list for 3-point baskets. He also helped the 1993-94 Toms to a berth in the Division III Final Four.

An NCAA Postgraduate Scholar and Academic All-America honoree, Tauer earned Master's and PhD degrees in Social Psychology at UW-Madison. Tauer returned to campus and joined the St. Thomas faculty in 2000. He is also a tenured member of the faculty, one of the only head college basketball coaches in the nation who also has a doctorate in sport-related psychology. Tauer is a Professor of Psychology where he studies factors that affect academic and athletic motivation. He published a book in 2016 on youth sports, parents, and motivation, titled "Why Less is More for WOSPs (Well-Intentioned, Overinvolved Sports Parents): How to be the best Sports Parent You Can Be," and has also published his work in top academic journals.

Prior to attending St. Thomas, Tauer graduated from Cretin-Derham Hall, where he was named all-state in both basketball and baseball, captain of both sports, and won state championships in baseball (1990) and basketball (1991).

Tauer lives in St. Paul with his sons Jack, Adam, and RQ, his daughter Issa, and his wife Chancey, who co-founded Prodeo Academy, a network of charter schools in the Twin Cities.
