LAST MEETING: UNH-57, TOWSON-7, 10/3/09 @ TOWSON: The sixth-ranked UNH football team rolled out to a 30-0 lead in the first quarter and never looked back at Johnny Unitas Stadium. Making the first start of his career, Kevin Decker completed 11-of-19 passes for 104 yards and two touchdowns passing, adding a rushing score as well. The ferocious UNH defense created eight turnovers, six of them interceptions. Dino Vasso had a 31-yard pick-six, and Ryan McGuinness returned an interception 96 yards for a score. On special teams, Sean Jellison took a kickoff 81 yards for a touchdown. The Tigers were held to 201 total yards.

SCOUTING THE TIGERS: Towson is seeking to snap an eight-game skid following a 28-18 home setback versus Maine last Saturday. The Tigers' lone win was a five-overtime 47-45 triumph over Coastal Carolina at Unitas Stadium on Oct. 11. Towson's last CAA victory was Oct. 10, 2009, at Rhode Island, 36-28. The Tigers' struggles include the league's lowest-ranked scoring offense (15.2), scoring defense (34.1), rushing defense (185.3), pass defense efficiency (140.2) and red zone defense (97.9%).

PLAYERS TO WATCH: Towson QB Chris Hart is the CAA's leading rushing quarterback, averaging 64.8 yards per game and 518 yards. Hart also passes for 126.6 yards per contest, giving him 191.4 yards of total offense, good for 6th-best in the league. Hakeem Moore leads the CAA in all-purpose yardage, averaging 129.5 yards per game. The senior ranks 10th in receiving yards (46.9 per game) and 7th in kick return average (21.6). Senior DT Yaky Ibia is second in the CAA in tackles for loss (13.5), while sophomore DE Frank Beltre is tied for fourth with 12.0 tackles for loss. Sophomore DB Jordan Dangerfield has compiled a team-leading 90 tackles, good for a tie for 8th in the conference.

UNH-TOWSON ALL-TIME SERIES (UNH LEADS, 6-0): The Wildcats have never fallen to the Tigers, including a perfect 4-0 record since the teams became conference rivals in 2004. UNH has won by an average margin of 55-16 since the teams became conference rivals in 2004. The Wildcats have defeated the Tigers by an average score of 55-16, with no score closer than a 42-14 decision Oct. 25, 2008, at Cowell Stadium.

LAST TIME OUT: UNH-31, VILLANOVA-24: UNH defensive end Brian McNally strip-sacked Villanova quarterback Chris Whitney on a 2nd-and-goal play from the UNH five-yard line, and Cody Muller recovered with 13 seconds left in the fourth quarter to preserve the 17th-ranked football team's 31-24 upset victory over the ninth-ranked Villanova Wildcats on Nov. 13 at Villanova Stadium. Dontra Peters carried 12 times for 157 yards and a touchdown, and R.J. Toman passed for two touchdowns and ran for another for UNH, which improved to 6-4 overall and 4-3 in the CAA after earning its school-record fourth win against a ranked opponent this season. Toman went 11-of-22 for 158 yards and one interception, and he added 23 rushing yards on 14 attempts. The senior signal caller moved into second place on UNH's all-time passing yards' list with 7,784, surpassing Ryan Day (7,670) and Bob Jean (7,742). Whitney went 16 of 36 for 192 yards through the air and led 'Nova with 88 rushing yards on 24 carries with two touchdowns. Aaron Ball added 82 yards on 19 carries, but Villanova saw its chances to defend its national championship damaged, falling to 6-4, 4-3 in the CAA. The loss also snapped its 15-game home winning streak, as 'Nova fell to 23-2 in its last 25 home games.

EVANS REMAINS TOP STOPPER IN CAA: With 128 tackles, Matt Evans leads the CAA in that category and is tied for 2nd in the nation in tackles. Here is a glance at the Top 5 in FCS football:

Rank	Player/College	Tackles
1.	Kyle Glazier/Western Illinois	129
T-2.	Matt Evans/UNH	128

5.	Bryce Smith/Samford	120

EVANS ADDED TO BUCHANAN WATCH LIST: New Hampshire linebacker Matt Evans is one of the latest additions to the 2010 Buck Buchanan National Defensive Player of Year Award Watch List, sponsored by Fathead.com. Evans' addition to the 20-player list was announced Nov. 12. The Buchanan Award is in its 16th season and will be presented to the FCS National Defensive Player of the Year on Thursday, Jan. 6 in Frisco, Texas - the night before the national championship game.

D-LIGHTFUL: The UNH defense is ranked third in the CAA and sixth in the nation in scoring defense (15.9 ppg). The Wildcats boast the CAA leaders in tackles (Matt Evans-128), sacks (Brian McNally-9.0), passes defended (Dino Vasso-12) and interceptions (Vasso-T) 5).

TOMAN & FOX A 1-2 PUNCH: Senior QB R.J. Toman leads the CAA in total offense (234.0 yds/gm.) and ranks second in passing yards per game (218.3), and his favorite target, senior WR Terrance Fox, is No. 1 in the CAA in receptions per game (5.8) and fourth in receiving yards per game (61.8).

V IS FOR VASSO: Senior cornerback Dino Vasso has reached five interceptions in a season for the third straight year. His career total of 17 interceptions is three shy of the school record of 20, held by Bill Pappas (1952-54). He is tied for the CAA lead in picks and one more interception will move him into a tie for eighth all-time in conference history.

VASSO, YOUNG, TOMAN UNDER FINAL CONSIDERATION FOR FCS SENIOR SCOUT BOWL :

Seniors Dino Vasso (CB), R.J. Toman (QB) and Steve Young (DT) are all under final consideration to participate in the FCS Senior Scout Bowl on Dec. 11, 2010. The Collegiate Development Football League (CDFL) is proud to present the "FCS Senior Scout Bowl." This game will showcase the talent of FCS Division Senior Football players at the conclusion of the 2010 season. Eighty-six players will compose two teams in a North vs. South format all-star game to be held in the Metro New York area. The selected players will have earned the right to play against their peers in a showcase game for all to recognize their talent. For more information on the FCS Senior Scout Bowl, visit www.fcsseniorbowl.com.

(CFPA) Linebacker of the Year. The purpose of the College Football Performance Awards is to provide the most scientifically rigorous conferments in college football. Recipients are selected exclusively based upon objective scientific rankings of the extent to which individual players increase the overall effectiveness of their teams. As prominent scholars from a wide variety of disciplines note, CFPA eliminates the politics and biases that vitiate balloting-based awards. Furthermore, CFPA is the only awards organization to receive praise from both Republican and Democratic White House officials for promoting objectivity and fairness in college football.

WILDCAT TIDBITS:

- UNH is 5-0 this season when winning the turnover battle, as it did last week Villanova. The Wildcats are +10 in turnover margin, good for 2nd in the CAA.

- UNH has outscored FCS opponents 51-7 in the third quarter this season.

- UNH has defeated a school-record four ranked teams this season (Richmond, James Madison, UMass, Villanova) and Lehigh, which wasn't ranked at the time UNH knocked it off on Sept. 25, entered the Top 25 in this week's polls.

- The Wildcats snapped Villanova's 15-game home winning streak last weekend. Earlier this season, UNH ended Richmond's 11-game FCS road winning streak Oct. 9.

- UNH's win at Villanova was its first in the road white uniforms since an NCAA championship first-round victory at McNeese State, 49-13, on Nov. 28, 2009.

- With his 158 passing yards in the win over Villanova, R.J. Toman leapfrogged Ryan Day (No. 4) and Bob Jean (No. 3) to claim sole possession of 2nd place on UNH's all-time passing yards list (7,784). He is still a distant 4,405 behind all-time leader Ricky Santos.

- Dino Vasso's five interceptions are three more than Towson has amassed as a team (two) this season.

- Senior Kevon Mason is the only Wildcat with at least one reception in every game. He has a streak of 14 straight games with at least one grab and, dating back to the 2009 season opener, has made at least one catch in 20 of the last 21 games.

- Dontra Peters owns two of the CAA's top four rushing performances this season: 197 vs CCSU (9/4/#2) and 157 at Villanova (11/13/#4).

- R.J. Toman needs 354 yards of total offense to place among the CAA's career Top 10 in that department.

DOZEN AT THE DUNGEON: UNH won a school-record 12 consecutive games at Cowell Stadium (a.k.a. The Dungeon) from Oct. 25, 2008-October 9, 2010. The streak was preceded by a loss to William & Mary on Oct. 11, 2008, and the Tribe put an end to the string with a win over the Wildcats on Nov. 6, 2010. The previous school-record winning streak of 11 in a row was established from Oct. 5, 1929-Nov. 14, 1931. Here is a game-by-game breakdown of the Dozen at the Dungeon:

Date	Opponent	Score	Streak
10/9/10	Richmond	17-0	12
9/25/10	Lehigh	31-10	11
9/4/10	CCSU	33-3	10

10/25/08	Towson	42-14	1

SIX YEARS OF SUCCESS: The Wildcats have qualified for the NCAA Div. I FCS postseason for six consecutive seasons. Only Montana (17) and Southern Illinois (seven) have longer current streaks. Both UNH and Montana needs victories this week to hope to extend their respective streaks, while the unranked Salukis will not qualify for the postseason.

JEANNOT NAMED COSIDA/ESPN ACADEMIC ALL-DISTRICT:

Junior tight end Chris Jeannot was selected to the 2010 CoSIDA/ESPN Academic All-District football team Nov. 4. Jeannot, who is majoring in kinesiology: exercise science, has a cumulative 3.80 grade-point average. As a member of the University Division All-District team, Jeannot will be placed on the national ballot for Academic All-America consideration. The Academic All-America team will be announced Tuesday, Nov. 23. Nominations and voting for the All-America programs are conducted by members of the College Sports Information Directors of America. Jeannot set career highs with 12 catches for 110 yards in UNH's loss at Pittsburgh on Sept. 11. Overall, Jeannot has compiled 181 receiving yards and one touchdown, averaging 45.2 receiving yards per game.

EVANS HITS 20 TACKLES VS W&M-NOV. 6: Matt Evans' career-high 20 tackles versus William & Mary on Nov. 6 were the most registered in one game by a Wildcat since Jeff Pammer tallied 21 tackles against Northeastern on Nov. 3, 2007. The 20 stops match the most by an individual in the CAA this season (URI's Matt Hansen vs W&M, Oct. 9).

EVANS IS CLASS OF THE CLASH-10/23:

UNH sophomore linebacker Matt Evans won the 25th anniversary edition of the Bill Knight Trophy, which goes to the MVP of the annual UNH-UMass football game. Evans recorded a game-high 13 tackles, tallied an interception and forced a fumble in the Wildcats' 39-13 defeat of the Minutemen at Gillette Stadium on Oct. 23. Evans was feted as the CAA Defensive Player of the Week for the second week in a row, and the Hanover, Mass., native became the second consecutive UNH linebacker named 'Matt' to win the trophy, following Matt Parent's 2008 honor. Parent joined former winners Bob Jean (1987), Mike Foley (1994), Stephan Lewis (2000-02) and David Ball (2005) as Honorary Captains on the sidelines.

LARGEST CAA CROWD EVER:

UNH made history by winning the inaugural Colonial Clash, 39-13, over UMass at Gillette Stadium on Oct. 23. The first college football game ever played at the home of the NFL's New England Patriots drew 32,848 fans, the largest crowd to ever witness a CAA conference game. Strangely enough, that's only the second-largest crowd to see UNH play a game -and both have come this year. The largest was the audience of 50,120 who took in the Pitt-UNH game at Heinz Field, home of the Pittsburgh Steelers, on Sept. 11.

BEST TV RATING IN CAA HISTORY: Not only was the Colonial Clash the highest-attended CAA league game in history, it was also the most viewed Comcast SportsNet New England telecast in conference history. The UNH/UMass game pulled in a 0.88 rating.

EVANS ON EARTH-10/16: UNH sophomore linebacker Matt Evans was named the ECAC Football Division I Championship Subdivision Player of the Week, the CAA Co-Defensive Player of the Week and received the prestigious Gold Helmet Award from the Gridiron Club of Boston after his performance in the Wildcats' 28-14 victory at James Madison on Oct. 16. Evans returned a fumble for a touchdown, forced a fumble and racked up a game-high 14 tackles, matching a then-career best.

GETTING INTO GREER-10/9: UNH senior safety John Greer was named the CAA Defensive Player of the Week, a College Sporting News All-Star and the ECAC D-I Championship Subdivision Defensive Player of the Week following his two-interception performance, highlighted by a 40-yard pick-six, in the Wildcats' 17-0 victory over Richmond on Oct. 9. The 6-0, 213-pound defensive back added four tackles in UNH's first CAA victory of the season and school-record 12th consecutive home triumph. The Wildcats' defense forced seven turnovers, including six interceptions, in limiting the Spiders to only 71 passing yards. The six picks were one shy of a school record, and the shutout was the first notched by UNH since a 56-0 triumph over Iona on Nov. 12, 2005.

TOMAN NAMED CAA OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF WEEK-9/27: UNH quarterback R.J. Toman was named the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) Offensive Player of the Week and received the prestigious Gold Helmet Award from the Gridiron Club of Greater Boston on the heels of his career-high 348 passing yards and four touchdown passes in the Wildcats' 31-10 victory over Lehigh on Sept. 27 at Cowell Stadium. Toman was 26-for-37 through the air, distributing passes to seven different receivers.

HAPPY HOMECOMING FOR JEANNOT-9/11: Playing in front of over 100 friends and family members from nearby Moon Township, Pa., TE Chris Jeannot hauled in 12 catches for 110 yards -both career highs- in the Wildcats' 38-16 loss at Pittsburgh on Sept. 11. Jeannot's 12 receptions represented one more than he tallied during his entire sophomore season. His double-digit catch game was the first for a Wildcat since TE Scott Sicko's 10-catch performance at UMass last season.

FOX NAMED SPECIAL TEAMS PLAYER OF WEEK-9/4: After missing the entire 2009 season, senior kick returner Terrance Fox wasted no time making his presence felt in 2010. Fox took the opening kickoff of the opening game versus Central Connecticut State 91 yards for a touchdown and was named the CAA Special Teams Player of the Week for Week 1. Fox, playing in his first game since the 2008 season, sparked the Wildcats' 33-3 triumph over Central Connecticut State at Cowell Stadium. The 5-foot-8, 166-pound Piscataway, N.J., native added 42 yards on two punt returns and five yards rushing in the contest for a total of 138 all-purpose yards. Fox's kick-return score was the first for UNH since Sean Jellison's 81-yard return at Towson on Oct. 3, 2009.

BEST RUSHING PERFORMANCE SINCE 2001: In his first career start on Sept. 4, sophomore running back Dontra Peters rushed 19 times for 197 yards and two TDs, all career highs, scoring on carries of 47 and 15 yards in the win over Central Connecticut State. He added a personal-best 60-yard scamper later in the game. The 197 rushing yards were the most recorded by a Wildcat since Stephan Lewis rumbled for 258 yards versus UMass on Oct. 13, 2001.

MILESTONE WATCH:

- Sean Jellison needs 32 more rushing yards to reach 1,000 for his career.
- Terrance Fox is three receptions away from cracking the Top-10 in UNH career history.
- Hugo Souza needs seven tackles to become No. 5 all-time in UNH history.
- Dino Vasso is eight tackles shy of joining the career Top 10.
- R.J. Toman needs 24 more completions to become No. 2 all-time in school history and 32 completions to set a personal single-season best.

TOMAN AMONG BEST SIGNAL CALLERS IN SCHOOL HISTORY: Senior quarterback R.J. Toman has already moved into the top-5 in every major passing category in UNH history. Here is a look at how the Mission Viejo, Calif, native stacks up against the all-time great Wildcat QBs:

BEST FCS-FBS WIN STREAK EVER: UNH's loss at Pittsburgh Sept. 11 ended the best FCS-vs-FBS winning streak in college football history. Prior to the 38-16 setback against the Panthers, the Wildcats had registered an unprecedented five straight victories against FBS schools. Here is a look at the unmatched five-game winning streak:

Year	Opponent	Score	Streak
2009	Ball State	23-16	5
2008	Army	28-10	4
2007	Marshall	48-35	3
2006	Northwestern	34-17	2
2004	Rutgers	35-24	1

VASSO NAMED PRESEASON FCS ALL-AMERICAN: UNH senior cornerback Dino Vasso was named a preseason football All-American by the FCS Senior Scout Bowl selection committee. The FCS Senior Scout Bowl is a postseason all-star game showcasing the talent of senior players from the NCAA FCS Division I football level. The bowl game is presented by the Collegiate Developmental Football League and will be held on Dec. 11, 2010, at the Joseph St. Lawrence Sports Complex Stadium in Ramapo, N.Y. UNH senior defensive tackle Steve Young was named a second-team preseason FCS Senior Scout Bowl Team All-American, and senior quarterback R.J. Toman received honorable mention. The preseason team recognizes the achievements of senior players who are entering their final season on the FCS level. The selection committee will review player performances throughout the 2010 season in a committed effort to bring 86 of the top players, represented in a North versus South format, to the New York city metropolitan area for the bowl game. For more information on the FCS Senior Scout Bowl, visit www.fcsseniorbowl.com.

VASSO, McNALLY NAMED PRESEASON ALL-CAA: UNH senior defensive back Dino Vasso and junior defensive end Brian McNally were each named to the 2010 Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) Preseason All-Conference Team, and the Wildcats were picked to finish third overall in the new-look CAA football standings. Vasso, a team captain, earned a spot on the preseason all-conference squad for the second consecutive year after ranking second on the Wildcats in interceptions (five) and fifth in tackles (76) a year ago. The 2009 All-CAA Second-Team performer is a starter at cornerback for a fourth straight season. McNally, the 2008 CAA Defensive Rookie of the Year, garners his first preseason all-conference honor after tallying 29 tackles, including 17 solo efforts, at defensive end last year.

PRESEASON CAA POLL: Defending national champion Villanova was predicted to finish atop the conference, followed by 2009 national semifinalist William & Mary and then UNH, which received two first-place votes. Only Villanova (17) compiled more first-place votes than New Hampshire. Here is the complete list of preseason polling conducted by the league's 10 head coaches and media personnel:

PREDICTED ORDER OF FINISH (first-place votes):

1. Villanova (17)
2. William and Mary
3. UNH(2)
4. James Madison
5. Delaware (1)
6. Richmond
7. Maine
8. Massachusetts
9. Rhode Island

UNH COACH'S SHOW: Join UNH head coach Sean McDonnell and host Mike Murphy on the UNH Coach's Show, presented by Bud Light, each Monday night during the football season from 7-8 p.m. on the Wildcat Sports Radio Network. Coach Mac will break down each game and look ahead to upcoming matchups from Ballard's Restaurant in Durham, Kelley's Row in Dover and The Page in Portsmouth. The UNH Coach's Show will be carried all across the Network: flagship WGIR 610-AM (Manchester); WGIN 930-AM (Rochester); 96.7 FM The Wave (Portsmouth); WNTK 99.7 FM/WUVR 1490 AM (New London), WASR 1420-AM (Wolfeboro) and WCNL 1010-AM (Newport). Here is the upcoming schedule of shows:

Date	Location	City
11/22	Kelley's Row	Dover

VIDEO STREAMING OF ALL HOME GAMES: UNH is once again

partnering with Pack Network to provide online streaming of UNH football in 2010. In addition to streaming all live home games, the Wildcat All-Access Pass on UNHwildcats.tv also provides an in-depth archive section, interviews, highlight packages and much more. It is the ideal way for Wildcats' fans, alumni and other supporters to keep track of their favorite teams all season long when they can't make it to the games in Durham.

WILDCAT SPORTS RADIO NETWORK: All UNH football games, home and away, can be heard on the Wildcat Sports Radio Network. The voice of the Wildcats, Jim Jeannotte, will be joined by first-year analyst Loren Foxx. The pregame show begins 30 minutes before kickoff on the seven stations of the Network: flagship WGIR 610-AM (Manchester); WGIN 930-AM (Rochester); 96.7 FM The Wave (Portsmouth); WNTK 99.7 FM/WUVR 1490 AM (New London), WASR 1420-AM (Wolfeboro) and WCNL 1010-AM (Newport). Plus, each game is streamed live at UNHWildcats.com, powered by Stretch Internet, and games are subsequently archived and made available for future enjoyment on a Mac, PC or downloadable mp3 device.

WILDCATS ON TELEVISION: The Wildcats will be featured in televised games seven times during the 2010 campaign. Here is the complete television schedule:

Date	Opponent	Television Outlet

DURHAM, N.H. -The ninth-ranked University of New Hampshire football team opened up the 2010 season in impressive fashion, dominating Central Connecticut State University, 33-3, before a crowd of 7,419 at Cowell Stadium on Saturday, Sept. 4. Senior Terrance Fox set the tone by returning the game's opening kickoff 91 yards for a touchdown, and sophomore running back Dontra Peters rushed 19 times for a career-high 197 yards and two scores. UNH (1-0) jumped in front just 16 seconds into the game when Fox, making his first appearance since the 2008 season, registered the first kick-return score of his career. The two-point conversion attempt failed, and the Wildcats had a 6-0 lead. New Hampshire added another big play later in the first quarter when Peters burst through the line on a 4th-and-1 play, making the gamble pay off when he raced 47 yards for a touchdown. Sophomore kicker A.J. DeLago tacked on the extra point, capping an eight-play, 79-yard drive that gave the Wildcats a 13-0 lead with 8:07 remaining in the opening period. The lead increased to 19-0 with 10:22 remaining in the first half when Peters ran inside left tackle, going 15 yards for his second scoring run of the afternoon. The extra point went wide right. The scoring drive took seven plays and covered 53 yards in 3:11. The 'Cats moved in front, 26-0, with 6:23 left in the second quarter. Facing 3rd-and-goal from the three-yard line, senior quarterback R.J. Toman lobbed a scoring pass to junior tight end Chris Jeannot in the back of the end zone, and DeLago added the extra point to finish off the four-play, 30-yard drive. Central Connecticut State (0-1) got on the board when freshman kicker Steven Calitri (Gilman, Conn.) booted a 29-yard field goal on the final play of the first half, cutting New Hampshire's lead to 26-3. The only points scored in the second half came courtesy of UNH sophomore defensive lineman Randi Vines, who intercepted a pass from Blue Devils junior quarterback Gunnar Jespersen and took it back 30 yards for a pick-six with 12:50 left in the fourth quarter. An extra point by freshman kicker Mike MacArthur provided the final margin. Sophomore linebacker Matt Evans spearheaded the ferocious Wildcats' defensive effort with a game-high 14 tackles, including five solo stops and a half-sack. Senior safety John Greer added 10 tackles (five solo) and a sack. UNH held CCSU's vaunted ground attack to a grand total of 220 yards of offense and only 86 rushing yards on 39 carries (2.2 yards per carry).

PITTSBURGH, Pa. - The University of New Hampshire football team, ranked #5 in the nation in the FCS, was defeated 38-16 by FBS representative University of Pittsburgh in front of 50,120 fans Saturday afternoon at Heinz Field. Both teams are now 1-1 overall. UNH starting quarterback R.J. Toman completed 15 of 29 pass attempts for 183 yards. Kevin Decker entered the game in the fourth quarter and led the Wildcats to a scoring drive. He went 6-for-8 for 42 yards, including an 11-yard scoring pass play to Sean Cullen, and was the team's leading rusher with 27 yards on three carries. Junior tight end Chris Jeannot recorded career highs in both receptions (12) and receiving yards (110). Sean Jellison and Terrance Fox were the next top targets with 46 and 42 receiving yards, respectively. UNH's defensive effort was led by Hugo Souza (eight tackles), Devon Jackson and Matt Evans, who finished with seven tackles apiece. Ryan McGuinness recorded an interception while both John Murray and Lance Mailloux tallied sacks. Pitt was led on the ground by Ray Graham (nine carries, 115 yards, two TDs), while reigning Big East Player of the Year Dion Lewis was held to a career-low 27 yards on 10 carries. Tino Sunseri went 24 of 34 for 275 yards and two TDs. Jon Baldwin was the top target with six receptions for 100 yards. An opportunistic Pittsburgh defense made an instant impact on the game's first play from scrimmage. Sophomore free safety Jarred Holley intercepted Toman's pass intended for Fox, giving the Panthers possession at the Wildcats' 16-yard line. Though Pitt only managed one yard of offense on the ensuing four-play drive, the home team took a 3-0 lead on senior kicker Dan Hutchins' 32-yard field goal with 13:45 to go in the first quarter. The Panthers upped their lead to 10-0 with 3:52 left remaining in the opening stanza when, on their very next possession, they marched 54 yards on 11 plays before Lewis powered his way into the end zone from two yards out to cap off a drive that lasted six minutes, seven seconds. New Hampshire got on the board at 11:57 of the second quarter on the first career field goal by sophomore A.J. DeLago, a 22-yarder that came at the conclusion of a 10-play, 75-yard drive, reducing Pittsburgh's lead to 10-3. The big play of the drive came when Toman, rolling to his right, found fellow captain Jellison sprinting down the left side of the field for a 38-yard pass play that brought the ball to the Panthers' five-yard line. The Panthers would head to the halftime break with a 17-3 advantage courtesy of Sunseri's two-yard touchdown pass to Cameron Saddler with just 18 seconds remaining in the second quarter. Sunseri accounted for 54 of the 62 yards on the eight-play drive that took just one minute, highlighted by a 26-yard run to the UNH 11-yard line. On the opening drive of the second half, the Wildcats' defense caused its first turnover when McGuinness intercepted Sunseri at the UNH 16-yard line, halting a Pitt drive inside the UNH red zone. The Panthers, though, responded with a three-and-out defensive stance and, on the first play of their next offensive possession, Baldwin took a swing pass from Sunseri on the right sideline and broke free for a 56-yard touchdown, building the Pittsburgh lead to 24-3 with 10:18 left in the third quarter. New Hampshire pulled within 24-10 at 7:10 on a two-yard run up the gut by Dontra Peters and the ensuing PAT by DeLago. Pitt reestablished a 24-point lead, 31-10, on an eight-yard rush by Graham at 2:20 of the third quarter. It capped a nine-play, 80-yard drive that consumed 4:50 off the clock. Graham's 64-yard scamper made the score 38-10 at 10:43 of the fourth quarter. UNH closed the scoring, 38-16, with 1:13 remaining in the game when Decker lofted an 11-yard TD pass to Cullen in the front-left side of the end zone. It was Cullen's first-career touchdown grab.

KINGSTON, R.I. – Terrance Fox (Piscataway N.J.) established career bests with 11 catches for 118 yards and two touchdowns, but the University of Rhode Island football team defeated the eighth-ranked University of New Hampshire, 28-25, at Meade Stadium on Saturday afternoon in the Colonial Athletic Association opener for both schools. Trailing 25-21 with 2:23 remaining in the fourth quarter, Rhode Island defensive end Victor Adesanya sacked UNH senior quarterback R.J. Toman (Mission Viejo, Calif.), forcing a fumble that was recovered and returned 39 yards for a touchdown by defensive lineman James Timmins, allowing the Rams to grab the lead for the third and final time, 28-25. New Hampshire (1-2 overall, 0-1 CAA) had its last drive halted when Toman's pass on 3rd-and-11 from the URI 42-yard line was intercepted by safety Matt Urban, preserving Rhody's first victory over the Wildcats since 2003. Toman finished the day 31 of 44, both career highs, for 284 yards and two touchdowns and was the Wildcats' leading rusher with 15 carries for 25 yards and a score. Rhode Island parlayed an early UNH turnover into a 3-0 lead with 10:37 left in the first quarter on Louis Feinstein's 20-yard field goal. The Wildcats struck right back on their first drive, going 70 yards in just six plays to grab a 7-3 lead with 7:59 remaining in the first quarter. Sophomore wide receiver Joey Orlando (Bethlehem, Pa.) made his first two catches of the season during the drive, including a 25-yard reception from Toman on a fade along the right sideline to put the ball in Rhode Island territory. Two plays later, Toman faked a handoff, rolled to his right, found a lane and then outran the Rams' defense for a 28-yard touchdown. The UNH defense shut down URI's next drive, highlighted by the first career sack for sophomore defensive tackle Randi Vines (Santa Clara, Calif.), making his first career start, on 3rd-and-20. The Rams were forced to punt from their own 16, and Fox returned the punt 16 yards to the Rams' 44-yard line. Fox would reap the benefits of the great field position by concluding a six-play, 44-yard drive at 3:47 of the opening stanza with his first touchdown reception of the season. Fox took a Toman screen pass and followed a key block from senior wide receiver Kevon Mason (Quincy, Mass.) along the right sideline for a 19-yard score. Junior quarterback Kevin Decker (Armonk, N.Y.) hooked up with senior wide receiver Chris Chandler (Wakefield, Mass.) for the successful two-point conversion, staking the 'Cats to a 15-3 advantage. Rhode Island trimmed the deficit to 15-10 with 13:14 left in the second quarter on a five-yard pass from Probst to junior wide receiver Anthony Baskerville. On Rhode Island's next scoring drive, Probst called his own number and rumbled 58 yards down to the UNH 6-yard line. Again, the Wildcats' defense held, and all the Rams would come away with was Feinstein's second field goal of the game, a 23-yarder with 3:04 left in the half, cutting New Hampshire's lead to 15-13. At the start of the second half, Toman accounted for all 57 yards of a 10-play drive, completing six passes for 55 yards and rushing for two yards before freshman Mike MacArthur (North Hampton, N.H.) kicked a 26-yard field goal, the first of his career, staking New Hampshire to an 18-13 lead with 11:38 remaining in the third period. The UNH defense forced turnovers on each of URI's next two possessions, with senior defensive back Ryan McGuinness (Howell, N.J.) picking off Probst at the Rhode Island 42-yard line with :45 remaining in the third quarter, and Dino Vasso (Crum Lynne, Pa.) registering his first interception of the year, snatching a Probst throw at the UNH 42-yard line with 12:45 remaining in the fourth period. The Rams finally broke through with an eight-play, 80-yard drive culminating in Probst's two-yard touchdown run with 8:13 remaining. Probst kept it himself for the two-point conversion, as Rhody reclaimed the lead, 21-18. Toman then went to work, orchestrating a four-play, 60-yard drive in just 1:17 to put the Wildcats back in front. The signal caller went 4-for-4 on the drive, connecting with Orlando (career-highs: 6 catches-81 yards) for passes of four and 33 yards before Fox hauled in a two-yard pass and then was on the receiving end of Toman's 50th career touchdown pass, a 21-yarder with 6:56 left that lifted the UNH to a 25-21 lead following MacArthur's PAT.

DURHAM, N.H.- Senior quarterback R.J. Toman (Mission Viejo, Calif.) passed for a career-high 348 yards and threw four touchdown passes as the 16th-ranked University of New Hampshire football team defeated Lehigh, 31-10, in front of a sun-drenched crowd of 8,144 at Cowell Stadium on Saturday afternoon. The 'Cats matched a school record by earning their 11th straight home victory. Toman went 26 of 37, adding 19 yards rushing on eight carries. Senior Terrance Fox (Piscataway, N.J.) went over the 100-yard receiving mark for the second consecutive game, catching nine passes for a career-high 134 yards and a touchdown, and sophomore Joey Orlando (Bethlehem, Pa.) set new career benchmarks with 10 receptions, 81 yards and two touchdowns against his hometown team. The UNH defense turned in a stirring performance, holding Lehigh to just 129 total yards (60-rushing, 69-passing) and tallying three interceptions. Making his second straight start at middle linebacker in place of injured captain Devon Jackson (Williamstown, N.J.), sophomore Alan Buzbee (Chester, N.J.) recorded a game-high and career-best 13 tackles, including six solo stops and a forced fumble. Sophomore running back Dontra Peters (Annapolis, Md.) rushed 19 times for 93 yards (4.9 yards per carry), pacing a Wildcats' ground attack that compiled 165 yards on 51 carries. UNH (2-2, 0-1 Colonial Athletic Association) scored first on a 37-yard field goal from freshman Mike MacArthur (North Hampton, N.H.) with 9:36 remaining in the opening quarter for a 3-0 lead. MacArthur's field goal capped a 13-play, 44-yard drive, including a 26-yard pass play from Toman to senior wide receiver Kevon Mason (Quincy, Mass./two catches-77 yards) on a 3rd-and-10 play, extending the drive and putting the ball at the Mountain Hawks' 28-yard line. Lehigh (2-2, 0-0 Patriot League) evened the score, 3-3, on a 42-yard field goal from Jake Peery with 5:34 to go in the first quarter. UNH recaptured the lead, taking a 10-3 advantage courtesy of a three-play, 67-yard drive culminating in a one-yard scoring toss from Toman to Orlando, who caught a fade over his right shoulder in the back right corner of the end zone. Toman began the drive by finding Mason deep along the left sideline for a 51-yard pass play to the Lehigh 16. It was the 'Cats longest pass play of the season. Peters carried for 15 yards on the next play, setting up Orlando's first scoring reception with 4:13 remaining in the first. Lehigh would bounce back to tie the game, getting a fortuitous bounce on a 3rd-and-11 play when Buzbee forced a fumble from Colvin (10 of 28, 69 yards, three interceptions), only to see Hawks' tight end Alex Wojdowski fall on the loose ball at the New Hampshire 11 for a first down. Lehigh capitalized on the break, with tailback Jay Campbell racing into the end zone on the next play. The PAT knotted the score at 10 with 14:04 to go in the first half. The seesaw swung back in UNH's direction four minutes later when Toman hooked up with Fox on a 21-yard touchdown pass. Fox snared Toman's throw on a crossing route inside the Lehigh 10-yard line and fought his way the final few yards for the touchdown. The Wildcats' defense once again flexed its collective muscle on Lehigh's next drive, with junior defensive end Brian McNally (Cornwall, N.Y.) sacking Colvin for a 10-yard loss, one of McNally's seven tackles (four solo) on the afternoon. Two plays later, sophomore linebacker Matt Evans (Hanover, Mass./10 tackles) applied pressure on Colvin, forcing an errant pass that was intercepted by Dino Vasso (Crum Lynne, Pa.) at Lehigh's 35-yard line. The Wildcats took a 24-10 lead into the locker room after amassing a methodical 10-play, 80-yard drive that took five minutes off the clock. Toman went 5-for-5 on the drive for 50 yards, completing passes to five different receivers—Orlando; Fox; senior Chris Chandler (Wakefield, Mass./two catches-27 yards); senior Sean Jellison (Amherst, N.H./one catch-4 yards/15 carries-35 yards) and Peters, who took a swing pass in for a 14-yard score with 1:04 remaining in the half. UNH added to its lead on the opening possession of the second half when Toman threw his fourth touchdown pass of the game, finding a leaping Orlando in the left corner of the end zone with a 14-yard, back-shoulder fade, bumping the lead to 31-10 with 7:40 remaining in the third quarter. The highlight of the drive was Fox's 33-yard reception at the Lehigh 19.

ORONO, Maine – Freshman kicker Mike MacArthur kicked two field goals, including a career-best 47-yarder that gave the 14th-ranked University of New Hampshire a 13-6 lead with 2:47 remaining in regulation, but the Maine Black Bears blocked his 33-yard, game-winning attempt and got a 37-yard field goal from Brian Harvey in overtime to post a 16-13 victory over the Wildcats on Saturday night at Alfond Stadium. The victory allowed the Black Bears (2-3, 1-1 Colonial Athletic Association) to snap a seven-game losing streak against the Wildcats (2-3, 0-2) and take possession of the Brice-Cowell Musket, which goes to the winner of the annual rivalry match-up. With the score tied 13-13 at the end of regulation, UNH had the opening possession in overtime. Following a one-yard loss on first down, quarterback R.J. Toman lofted a pass towards the left slot for Joey Orlando, but Maine defensive back Jerron McMillian cut in front of the intended receiver for an interception, Maine's third of the game. Maine began its overtime possession with a four-yard run by Jared Turcotte. On second down at the 21-yard line, Turcotte (21 rushes-71 yards) carried the ball for one yard and recovered his own fumble at the 20. Turcotte was stopped by Matt Evans and Alan Buzbee (12 tackles) for no gain on third down. Following a UNH timeout, Harvey, who had a PAT blocked in the second quarter, connected on his 37-yard field goal attempt to end the game. After MacArthur's 47-yarder, which bounced off the crossbar and through the uprights, gave New Hampshire a 13-6 lead late in the fourth quarter, Maine responded with a seven-play, 57-yard drive culminating in a 16-yard touchdown pass from Warren Smith (19 of 28, 253 yards, 2 TD, 2 INT) to Derek Buttles (three catches-48 yards-TD). The extra point knotted the score, 13-13, with 1:12 remaining. The Wildcats then drove 50 yards on five plays, including a 39-yard pass from Toman (26-for-38, TD, 3 INT) to junior tight end Sean Cullen, setting the stage for MacArthur's attempt with two seconds remaining. Brent Rice blocked the field goal, forcing UNH's first overtime game since the two teams met here in 2006. New Hampshire, which trailed 6-3 at halftime, claimed its first lead of the contest by marching 57 yards on seven plays on its initial drive of the third quarter. Orlando (six catches-62 yards) drew a pass interference penalty for a first down at the Black Bears' 17. Facing a 3rd-and-4 just three plays later, Orlando went up the ladder to snatch a six-yard reception from Toman, putting the ball at the Maine 5. On the very next play, senior Terrance Fox, who had a game-high eight catches for 81 yards, went airborne at the right pylon to nab his team-leading fourth touchdown reception of the season and Toman's eighth scoring toss. The extra-point from MacArthur gave the 'Cats a 10-6 lead with 10:54 remaining in the third quarter. On Maine's ensuing drive, the Wildcats' defense came up with back-to-back big stops on short-yardage rushing plays. Facing a 3rd-and-2 at the UNH 35, Turcotte was held to one yard, absorbing a crushing hit from senior safety John Greer. On 4th-and-1, senior safety Hugo Souza (game-high 13 tackles) met Smith head-on, with assistance from Buzbee (12 tackles), on a quarterback keeper, as the Wildcats held and took over possession at the 34. After a scoreless first period, Maine struck first with 13:25 remaining in the second quarter on an 11-yard touchdown pass from Smith to tight end Jeff Falvey, who made a leaping catch on a seam route along the right hash marks for his first touchdown catch of the season. UNH sophomore defensive tackle Jared Smith blocked the extra point, however, keeping the Black Bears' lead at 6-0. Maine threatened to build on the lead on its next drive, advancing to the UNH 23 before Kyle Flemings intercepted Smith's pass in the end zone for his second pick in as many weeks. Greer was the catalyst for New Hampshire's first points of the game, as the senior registered his first career interception, picking off Smith's pass at the Wildcats' 45 and taking it back 15 yards to the Maine 40 with a little over five minutes remaining in the second quarter. Toman then connected with Cullen (career-high five catches-91 yards) for a 17-yard pick-up, putting the ball on the Black Bears' 23-yard line. Four plays later, UNH trimmed the deficit to 6-3 with 3:10 remaining in the first half on MacArthur's 32-yard field goal.

DURHAM, N.H. – Senior safety John Greer grabbed two of the University of New Hampshire football team's six interceptions, returning his first pick 40 yards for a touchdown, and the 22nd-ranked Wildcats recorded their school-record 12th consecutive home victory by shutting out No. 11 Richmond 17-0 Saturday afternoon before a Homecoming crowd of 12,095 at Cowell Stadium. Senior safety Mike Perkins also notched two interceptions for UNH (3-3, 1-2 Colonial Athletic Association), while junior cornerback Kyle Flemings and senior cornerback Dino Vasso each recorded his third interception of the season for a Wildcats' defense that posted its first shutout since a 56-0 triumph over Iona on Nov. 12, 2005. The loss snapped an 11-game FCS road winning streak for Richmond (2-3, 0-2). UNH continually harassed Richmond backup quarterback Nick Hicks, who finished the day 9-for-27 for 64 yards and five interceptions after replacing injured starter Aaron Corp (2 of 3, INT, seven yards) following the Spiders' first offensive series. That first series ended with the Wildcats securing a 7-0 lead with 12:40 remaining in the opening quarter when Greer intercepted a third-and-3 pass from Corp along the left sideline, sprinting untouched 40 yards for his first career touchdown. Freshman kicker Mike MacArthur added the extra-point. Corp was injured on the play and did not return. The UNH defense forced a second turnover with 5:11 to go in the first when senior safety Ryan McGuinness (four tackles) knocked the ball loose from Spider running back Tyler Kirchoff (17 rushes-108 yards), and sophomore linebacker Matt Evans recovered for the 'Cats at the UNH 42. Evans finished the game with 12 tackles, including the first individual sack of his career; and senior safety Hugo Souza matched Evans with a team-leading 12 stops. The Wildcats' defense created a third turnover with 12:15 remaining in the second quarter. Facing pressure from junior defensive end Brian McNally, Hicks under-threw a deep pass to the left side that was picked off by Perkins at the UNH 35. After being held to only 64 yards of offense in the first half, the Wildcats gained 61 yards on six plays on their opening drive of the third quarter, culminating in a 20-yard touchdown pass from senior quarterback R.J. Toman to sophomore wide receiver Joey Orlando. Orlando (seven catches-93 yards) fought off defensive back Tremayne Graham to snatch Toman's corner-route pass just inside the left pylon with 12:11 to go in the third quarter, helping the Wildcats go in front, 14-0. It was the ninth touchdown pass of the season for Toman, who went 20 of 29 for 166 yards, and Orlando's third scoring reception of the year. The key play of the drive was another Toman-to-Orlando connection, as the duo hooked up for a 28-yard pass play on a 3rd-and-2 over-the-shoulder fade down the left sideline, spotting the ball at Richmond's 25. New Hampshire increased its lead to 17-0, courtesy of MacArthur's 34-yard field goal from the left hash mark with 2:25 remaining in the third. The field goal was set up by Greer's second interception of the afternoon, a pick of Hicks that was returned 20 yards from the Richmond 35 to its 15. The Spiders' best threat came late in the third quarter, when Justin Rogers (91 all-purpose yards) returned a punt 54 yards to the UNH 11-yard line. Again, though, the defense refused to yield. Perkins (five tackles) stuffed Kirchoff for two yards on first down; Rogers was wrapped up by Evans and Souza for two yards on second down; sophomores Jared Smith (career-high six tackles) and Alan Buzbee (seven tackles); combined for a sack of Hicks on third down and Hicks' fourth-down pass went incomplete. Senior Sean Jellison led the Wildcats' ground game with 15 carries for 40 yards.

HARRISONBURG, Va. – Matt Evans returned a fumble for a touchdown, forced another and amassed a game-high and career-high-tying 14 tackles as the 15th ranked University of New Hampshire football team upset sixth-ranked James Madison, 28-14, on Saturday afternoon at Bridgeforth Stadium. The Wildcats outscored the Dukes, 18-0, in the second half to record their first win at JMU since Sept. 28, 1996. Dino Vasso added two interceptions for a UNH defense that tallied four sacks, forced three turnovers and held the Dukes to only 11 first downs in the game. R.J. Toman went 22 of 40 for 248 yards and a touchdown; Dontra Peters carried the ball 11 times for 60 yards and a score and Terrance Fox hauled in a team-leading six receptions for 52 yards and a touchdown. The Wildcats' defense, which forced seven turnovers in last weekend's shutout of Richmond, produced the first points of the game at 12:04 of the first quarter. On a 2nd-and-4 play from the JMU 20, Duke quarterback Drew Dudzik (10-of-23, 157 yards, 2 INT) kept the ball up the middle, but Hugo Souza (five tackles, forced fumble) jarred the ball loose and Evans recovered the fumble, returning it 17 yards untouched into the end zone. UNH led 7-0 at 12:04 following the ensuing PAT by Mike MacArthur. James Madison (4-2, 1-2 Colonial Athletic Association) responded on its next possession with an eight-play, 77-yard drive that was capped off with a two-yard touchdown run by Scott Noble (19 carries-100 yards-2 TD) to tie the score, 7-7, with 8:19 remaining in the first quarter. Noble's 44-yard scamper on 3rd-and-2 from the JMU 31 extended the drive and put the Dukes in scoring position. On its first offensive possession of the game, UNH (4-3, 2-2) marched 42 yards in seven plays to regain the lead, 10-7, on MacArthur's 30-yard field goal with 6:05 to go in the opening period. That score was set up by a 22-yard run by Peters that advanced the ball to the JMU 13. Dae'Quon Scott's 53-yard punt return gave JMU excellent field position at the UNH 11 and set up the game's next score. A defensive pass interference on 3rd-and-13 extended the Dukes' drive, and one play later Noble ran outside the left tackle untouched into the end zone from two yards out to give the home team its first lead of the game, 14-10, with 7:32 remaining in the first half. On the opening kickoff of the second half, Peters' 41-yard return gave New Hampshire the ball on the JMU 40. Toman connected with Sean Cullen down the right sideline for a 25-yard gain to the Dukes' 10 to set up MacArthur's 26-yard field goal that pulled the 'Cats within 14-13 at 12:17. Cullen finished the day with four catches for a game-leading 66 yards. JMU marched to the UNH 28 on its next possession, but lost two yards on consecutive running plays and then Brian McNally and Lance Mailloux combined on an eight-yard sack to force the Dukes to punt. UNH regained the lead for good, 21-14, with an eight-play, 64-yard drive that spanned the third and fourth quarters. The drive opened with 59 seconds left in the third and on 2nd-and-14, Fox spun out of a tackle at the 40 and picked up 10 more yards to give the 'Cats first down at midfield. Toman completed a 25-yard pass to Cullen and a 14-yard pass to Peters to advance the ball to the JMU 16. Facing 3rd-and-9 at the 13, Fox went in motion, caught the ball in the left flat and scampered untouched into the end zone behind a lead block by Joey Orlando. UNH converted a 2-point conversion on a shovel-pass from Toman to Sean Jellison. On the Dukes' ensuing possession, Vasso made an athletic play to intercept the ball at the UNH 22. With 10:38 remaining in the game, the 'Cats began an eight-play, 78-yard drive that consumed 4:13 off the clock and extended the advantage to 28-14 at 6:25. After a three-yard loss on first down, Toman's pass attempt to Cullen was jarred out of the tight end's arms but caught in mid-air by senior wide receiver Chris Chandler (Wakefield, Mass.) for a nine-yard gain. The Wildcats proceeded to keep the ground for the final six plays on the drive, with Jellison (nine carries-58 yards; three receptions-30 yards) gaining 33 yards on three carries and Peters finishing off the drive with a 14-yard touchdown sweep around the left end. Vasso added his second interception of the game when he grabbed Dudzik's deep pass that caromed off Souza's shoulder pad at the UNH 24-yard line with 6:04 remaining, allowing the Wildcats to snap a 10-game CAA road losing streak in Virginia.

FOXBORO, Mass. – The ninth-ranked University of New Hampshire football team made history with a 39-13 victory over arch-rival and 12th-ranked Massachusetts before a Colonial Athletic Association record crowd of 32,848 in the inaugural Colonial Clash, the first-ever collegiate football game at Gillette Stadium. UNH sophomore linebacker Matt Evans was the 25th recipient of the prestigious Bill Knight Trophy as the game's MVP after recording a game-high 13 tackles, notching his first career interception and forcing a fumble for the Wildcats. Sophomore running back Dontra Peters gained 98 yards on 23 carries, scoring a pair of rushing touchdowns, and senior quarterback R.J. Toman ran for two scores and threw for another. Toman was 14 of 26 for 176 yards and a touchdown. New Hampshire, the designated home team at the home of the New England Patriots, jumped out to a 29-0 lead over Massachusetts en route to its third straight win over a ranked league opponent and its 13th consecutive home victory. The 'Cats capitalized on an early UMAs turnover to take the lead with 6:10 remaining in the opening quarter. A 33-yard punt from senior Kyle Auf-fray grazed the leg of a Massachusetts player, and junior cornerback Kyle Flemings alertly pounced on the loose ball at UMAs's 14-yard line. Three plays later, Toman carried in from one yard out, and UNH converted the two-point conversion on a pass play from Kevin Decker to Chris Chandler for an 8-0 advantage. UMAs had one threat denied when Caleb Violette was wide right on a 45-yard field goal attempt with 12:17 to go in the first half. Later in the quarter, the Minutemen drove to the UNH 35-yard line, but a fumble from Jonathan Griffin was recovered by Brian McNally at the 36. The Wildcats then went on a 12-play, 64-yard drive with Peters taking it in from three yards out and Mike MacArthur tacking on the extra point to make it 15-0 with 5:44 to go in the half. UNH went on a systematic 10-play, 99-yard drive midway through the third quarter with Toman finishing it off with his second one-yard touchdown plunge of the game and third rushing score of the season, making the score 22-0. Toman went 3-for-4 on the drive, completing a 29-yard pass to senior Kevon Mason and a 26-yard pass to Terrance Fox. Fox (three catches, 31 yards; 3 carries, 24 yards) made an additional grab for one yard and then set the stage for Toman's touchdown by taking a reverse 17 yards, down to the UMAs 1. That margin would balloon to 29-0 when Toman found Joey Orlando in the deep right corner of the end zone for an 11-yard touchdown with 2:26 remaining in the third quarter. Peters accounted for 22 yards on four carries during the drive, and Orlando (four catches, 50 yards) preceded his fourth touchdown reception of the season with a nifty back-shoulder grab on a fourth-and-1 play, gaining 21 yards to the UMAs 37. Peters' second scoring run, a two-yarder with 7:42 to go in the game, staked UNH to a 36-6 lead. Dino Vasso returned UMAs's onside kick 17 yards, giving the Wildcats a short field to work with at the Massachusetts 23. Sean Jellison ran twice for 10 yards; Decker (1-for-2, 11 yards; four rushes, 19 yards), in relief of Toman, hooked up with Mike Greene for 11 yards before calling his own number and scampering 13 yards to the UMAs 2. Peters concluded the drive with his second scoring run, a two-yarder with 7:42 in the game, staking UNH to a 36-6 lead. A.J. Delago provided the game's final points with an 18-yard field goal with 3:38 remaining. It was DeLago's second made field goal of the season and first attempt since a 22-yard make at Pittsburgh on Sept. 11. UMAs scored all 13 of its points in the fourth quarter. Rob Blanchflower recovered a fumble from Anthony Nelson, forced by Evans, in the end zone with 10:28 to go, and Julian Talley caught a 14-yard pass from Kyle Havens with 5:47 remaining. Havens went 32-of-55 for a career-high 450 yards, but was intercepted by Evans at the UNH 17 on the first play of the fourth quarter. Nelson made a game-high 11 catches for 190 yards in the loss. The previous record crowd for a CAA game came Oct. 16, 2010, at Delaware Stadium, where the Blue Hens hosted Rhode Island.

DURHAM, N.H.- Sophomore linebacker Matt Evans recorded a career-high 20 tackles, and the eighth-ranked University of New Hampshire football team held No. 4 William & Mary to only 171 yards of total offense, but the Tribe snapped the Wildcats' school-record 12-game home winning streak with a 13-3 victory Saturday afternoon at Cowell Stadium. William & Mary improved to 7-2 overall and remained atop the Colonial Athletic Association with a 5-1 mark. UNH slipped to 5-4 overall and 3-3 in the CAA. Nine of Evans' 20 tackles were solo stops, giving him a CAA-leading 113 tackles on the season. Junior defensive end Brian McNally matched a career high with 1.5 sacks, bringing his league-leading total to 7.0, and Hugo Souza made a season-high 14 tackles, eight solo, jumping three spots to sixth on UNH's all-time tackles' list with 309 career stops. Senior quarterback R.J. Toman went 26 of 44 for 232 yards and an interception. The 44 attempts matched a career high, and Toman's 14 rushing yards on 13 carries, including three sacks, led a Wildcats' ground game that managed only 39 yards on 31 rushes. Senior wide receiver Terrance Fox made eight receptions for 70 yards—both game-highs—and his 126 all-purpose yards also set the pace. The Wildcats were held to just three points for the first time since Sept. 21, 2002. Tribe running back Jonathan Grimes rushed 30 times for 114 yards and a touchdown in the victory, offsetting an impotent W&M passing game that amassed only 30 yards with third-string quarterback Brent Caprio going 5-for-10 in his first career start. After a scoreless first period, the Wildcats took a 3-0 lead on the first play of the second quarter, courtesy of a 40-yard field goal from freshman kicker Mike MacArthur. A 19-yard punt return from Souza put UNH in terrific field position at the Tribe's 39-yard line to begin the drive. Sean Jellison (five carries, 12 yards/four receptions, 27 yards) carried twice for six yards, and Toman completed a four-yard pass to Fox and a two-yard pass to Dontra Peters (10 carries, 11 yards/two catches, 11 yards), advancing inside the red zone for the only time in the contest. William & Mary nabbed a 6-3 lead with 7:41 remaining in the first half when Caprio connected with wide receiver Chase Hill for a 19-yard touchdown pass in the far left corner of the end zone. It was Caprio's first career scoring toss and Hill's first touchdown reception of the season. The PAT failed. The Wildcats threatened late in the half, moving the ball to the Tribe 21 with :29 to go when Toman's pass intended for sophomore Joey Orlando (one catch, 20 yards) in the end zone was picked off by safety Jake O'Connor, preserving the College's 3-0 lead at the intermission. William & Mary capitalized on a muffed punt by Fox, which was recovered by Jabrel Mines at the UNH 35 with 2:00 left in the third quarter. Grimes then ran the ball three straight times, gaining nine yards, 25 yards and plunging in from one yard out for his eighth rushing touchdown of the season. Drake Kuhn atoned for his earlier miss by connecting on the extra point, staking the Tribe to a 13-3 lead with 1:04 left in the third quarter. Neither team scored in the fourth period, as William & Mary defeated New Hampshire for the eighth time in a row. In fact, the Tribe's win was the first by a visiting time at Mooradian Field since William & Mary's 38-34 victory over UNH on Oct. 11, 2008.

VILLANOVA, Pa.— UNH defensive end Brian McNally strip-sacked Villanova quarterback Chris Whitney on a 2nd-and-goal play from the UNH five-yard line, and Cody Muller recovered with 13 seconds left in the fourth quarter to preserve the 17th-ranked football team's 31-24 upset victory over the ninth-ranked Villanova Wildcats on Saturday afternoon at Villanova Stadium. Dontra Peters carried 12 times for 157 yards and a touchdown, and R.J. Toman passed for two touchdowns and ran for another for UNH, which improved to 6-4 overall and 4-3 in the CAA after earning its school-record fourth win against a ranked opponent this season. Toman went 11-of-22 for 158 yards and one interception, and he added 23 rushing yards on 14 attempts. The senior signal caller moved into second place on UNH's all-time passing yards' list with 7,784, surpassing Ryan Day (7,670) and Bob Jean (7,742). Whitney went 16 of 36 for 192 yards through the air and led 'Nova with 88 rushing yards on 24 carries with two touchdowns. Aaron Ball added 82 yards on 19 carries, but Villanova saw its chances to defend its national championship damaged, falling to 6-4, 4-3 in the CAA. The loss also snapped its 15-game home winning streak, as 'Nova fell to 23-2 in its last 25 home games. Villanova committed a turnover on the first play from scrimmage when Whitney fumbled on an option run, with UNH senior safety Ryan McGuinness recovering on 'Nova's 24-yard line. New Hampshire failed to capitalize, however, as a 40-yard field goal from A.J. DeLago was negated by a false-start penalty, forcing the 'Cats to punt. On the very next series, the UNH defense forced a Villanova three-and-out, with junior defensive end James Jenkins (career-high-tying seven tackles) sacking Whitney for a six-yard loss to highlight the series. Hugo Souza returned the subsequent punt 12 yards, giving UNH possession at its own 42. Three plays later, Peters took a pitch around the right edge and dashed 51 yards for a touchdown, his team-leading seventh rushing score of the year. Redshirt-freshman H-back Chris Setian sealed the edge with the key block, allowing Peters to gain the sideline. Following DeLago's extra point, it was a 7-0 UNH lead with 10:49 remaining in the opening quarter. Villanova fumbled the ensuing kickoff, and UNH senior safety Mike Perkins (four tackles) dove on the loose ball at the 'Nova 16. Peters' 12-yard cutback run gave UNH first-and-goal at the Villanova 4, but New Hampshire had to settle for three when DeLago connected for a 22-yard field goal, upping the lead to 10-0 with 9:09 to go in the first. The home team got on the scoreboard with 10:40 remaining in the first half by putting together a systematic 17-play, 86-yard drive that took 8:41 off the clock and ended in a 10-yard touchdown run from Angelo Babbaro (six carries-43 yards-TD) on an option pitch, trimming UNH's lead to 10-7. The Wildcats struck back by employing the hurry-up offense, accounting for 64 yards on seven plays in just 1:39. Toman took in a 10-yard keeper off the left side for a score, giving UNH a 17-7 lead with 8:54 left in the half. Villanova scored on its next possession, with kicker Mark Hamilton hitting a 29-yard field goal—the first of his career—to cap a seven-play, 43-yard drive with 5:53 left in the first half, reducing New Hampshire's lead to 17-10. UNH would go in front, 24-10, with 5:32 remaining in the half when Toman hit Joey Orlando in stride deep down the middle for a 56-yard touchdown pass, the longest pass play of the season and a career-best reception for the sophomore wide receiver. Villanova would answer one more time before the intermission, scoring when Whitney called his own number, bulldozing his way in for a five-yard touchdown with 3:23 remaining in the second, slicing UNH's lead to 24-17 at the break. That lead ballooned to 14 points for the second time in the game as Fox was on the receiving end of a Toman touchdown pass just inside the right edge of the end zone for a 31-17 lead with 5:08 left in the third. Fox made a team-high five receptions for 56 yards and a touchdown. Villanova would climb back within a touchdown just 10 seconds into the fourth quarter when Whitney carried in from two yards out for his second scoring run of the afternoon, dropping UNH's advantage to 31-24. The 31 points scored by the Wildcats matched the most this season allowed by a Villanova defense that came into the game tied for third in the nation in scoring defense (14.2 ppg).
