LEADER OF THE PACK:

The reigning Skip Prosser Man of the Year, Pat Skerry enters his 13th season on the sidelines leading the Tigers. Skerry and the Tigers are coming off another 20-win season that saw Towson reach the Coast Athletic Association (CAA) Semifinals, finishing third in the standings during the regular season.

The Massachusetts native has rebuilt the Tiger program, which has the highest Graduation Success Rate (GSR) in the CAA. Over the last ten seasons, Towson has won 18+ games seven times.

Skerry has used his platform as a head coach to start Autism Awareness in college basketball. What started as two guys with an idea has turned into a national event where hundreds of coaches wear the prominent blue puzzle piece pin. The effort put forth by Skerry was recognized as he was honored with the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) Guardians of the Game Service Award.

TOWSON, MORGAN STATE, UMBC CREATE CHARM CITY HOOPS CLASSIC:

Towson, Morgan State, and UMBC have agreed to play each other every year in both men's and women's basketball in what is being billed as the Charm City Hoops Classic. The three schools participated in the Battle of Baltimore series for six seasons from 1997-98 through 2002-03. Season ticket holders from each school will receive a complimentary ticket for the game(s) on the road - equal to the number of season tickets purchased.

GUESS WHO'S BACK, BACK AGAIN:

The Tigers return eight players from last season's 20-win team that reached the Coastal Athletic Association (CAA) semifinals led by graduate student Charles Thompson and sophomore Christian May. Thompson enters his fifth season with the Tigers after being named to the CAA All-Defensive Team for the third straight season and All-CAA Second Team for the second consecutive season.

In addition to May and Thompson, juniors Rahdir Hicks and Tyler Coleman, redshirt freshmen Dylan Williamson and Cole Paar, graduate student Chase Paar and redshirt junior Brandon Held will suit up again for the Tigers in 2023-24.

CHARLES IN CHARGE:

The big man in the middle for the Tigers, Charles Thompson, is back for his fifth season at Towson and is looking to cap his prolific career by leading the Tigers to a CAA championship. Thompson is coming off another strong campaign that saw him earn CAA All-Defensive Team and All-CAA Second Team honors last season after averaging 12.2 ppg and 8.0 rpg shooting 56.5 percent from the floor.

Thompson ranks in the top 10 in program history in six different categories. He is currently third in field goal percentage (.561), fourth in blocked shots (156), sixth in rebounds (775), sixth in games played (123), ninth in minutes played (3,084), 10th in starts (89) and is 23rd in scoring (1,092).

WELCOME TO TOWSON:

2023-24 TOWSON MEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES - GM 7 - VS. MORGAN STATE - 11/26

Towson will welcome seven newcomers for the 2023-24 season that includes three freshman and four transfers. Marcus Watson, Nendah Tarke and Mesiah Jones join the Tigers from Division I programs with Tomiwa Sulaiman joining the Tigers from Division II Indiana University of Pennsylvania.

Jones joins the Tigers after a four-year career at Wofford where he played in 93 games, shooting 63 percent from the floor and being named to the All-SoCon Freshman Team and SoCon Academic Honor Roll. Watson comes from CAA rival North Carolina A&T where he averaged 13.4 points per game and 5.2 rebounds per game in 61 total games with the Aggies. Tarke made the short trek up to Towson from nearby Coppin State where he was a three-time All-MEAC performer and led the nation in steals during the 2021-22 season.

Sulaiman spent three seasons at IUP, earning PSAC West Freshman of the Year in 2022 and All-PSAC West First Team honors last season. During his career with the Crimson Hawks, Sulaiman led the team to a pair of PSAC titles and an NCAA DII Final Four appearance.

Jaiden Cole, Mekhi Lowery and Tyler Tejada will be making their collegiate debut for the Tigers in 23-24, all coming off prolific prep careers. Cole comes from the NBA Academy Latin America after leaving at the eighth-highest scorer in academy history. Lowery left his mark at Oswego East High School as the program's all-time leading rebounder and as a nominee for the McDonald's All-American game. Tejada was a three-time all-league player at Teaneck High School, earning All-New Jersey Second Team honors last season.

HOME COURT ADVANTAGE:

Towson has had a major home court advantage over the last nine years at TU Arena. Since moving into the arena from the Towson Center in 2013, the Tigers have gone 93-41, including a 22-4 record in the last two years. Towson has had a winning record in home games in seven of the nine seasons, including winning the 2022 CAA regular season title against Delaware at home.

NATIONAL EXPOSURE:

The Tigers will play eight total regular season games in front of a national television audience including four Coastal Athletic Association games in January and February. The Tigers will play Elon (February 12, 9 p.m.) and Charleston (February 24, 12 p.m.) on CBS Sports Network at TU Arena and will be on the road on CBS Sports Network against Delaware (January 27, 2 p.m.) and Hofstra (February 3, 6 p.m.).

In addition to the CBS Sports Network games, Towson will open the season on Pac 12 Network against Colorado and will have all three games at the Charleston Classic air on the ESPN family of networks.

The Tigers will also air on local linear television with seven home games on Monumental Sports Network (formerly NBC Sports Washington) as well as their game against UMBC on MASN.

2023-24 SLATE:

The Tigers will open the season on November 6 with a road trip to Colorado before returning to Maryland to face Coppin State on the road just three days later. Towson will make its home debut on November 12 against Robert Morris.

Following the game against the Colonials, the Tigers will head to South Carolina to take part in the Shriner's Children's Charleston Classic with games on November 16, 17 and 19, with the Tigers opening the tournament against Houston. The field will also feature St. John's, Wake Forest, Utah, North Texas, Dayton and LSU. Towson will close out November with a home game against

Morgan State on November 26.

Towson will open December with a neutral site contest against South Dakota State at the historic Pentagon in Sioux Falls, S.D. on December 1. Atlantic 10 foe Massachusetts comes to Towson on December 6, one of two home games in the month. The Tigers will travel across I-695 to renew a rivalry with UMBC (Dec. 9) before heading out on the road for the final time against Bryant on December 16. The game with the Bulldogs will be played as part of Holiday Hoopfest at UBS Arena on Long Island.

The Tigers will close out the non-conference slate at home against Nicholls State on December 22 and Arcadia on December 30.

Towson will have home and homes with Delaware, Monmouth, UNCW, Northeastern and Charleston during the CAA season with home games against Stony Brook, Drexel and Elon and road contests at Hofstra, William & Mary, Hampton and North Carolina A&T.

CAA OUTLOOK:

Charles Thompson earned his second consecutive All-CAA Preseason First Team honor. The graduate student is coming off a season that saw Thompson earn All-CAA Second Team and All-Defensive Team honors for the second straight year in 2022-23. The Fort Washington native had his best season as a Tiger last season averaging 12.2 ppg, 8.0 rpg with 56 blocks and 29 steals. He shot 56.5 percent from the floor in just under 30 minutes per game.

Charleston was chosen as the preseason favorite with 10 first-place votes. UNCW and Drexel also garnered first-place votes with three and one respectively. Hofstra was picked just ahead of Towson and Delaware in fourth. Northeastern, William & Mary, Stony Brook and Elon rounded out the top ten with Monmouth, Campbell, Hampton and North Carolina A&T completing the 14-team field.

Towson University Head Coach Pat Skerry

13th Season as Head Coach

When Pat Skerry was announced as the 13th men's basketball head coach at Towson University on April 5, 2011, he took over a program that had endured 15-straight losing seasons.

The gritty Medford, Massachusetts native has revitalized the Towson men's basketball program, leading the Tigers to consistent success in the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA). In addition, under Skerry's leadership, Towson has the highest Graduation Success Rate (GSR) in the CAA.

Towson enters the 2023-24 season having won at least 18 games in eight seasons in the last 11 years.

The 2021-22 season saw the Tigers capture their first CAA Regular Season title and a berth in the National Invitational Tournament after a 25-8, 15-3 CAA season.

The Tigers have participated in two postseason tournaments since the 2013-14 campaign. In 2015-16 and 2016-17, Towson finished with at least 20 wins, the second time in school history that Towson has won 20 games in consecutive seasons. Towson's 25-win year in the 2013-14 campaign was the highest amount of victories in a season in Division I and most since 1977-78.

The Tigers enjoyed a strong 2019-20 campaign that resulted in 19 victories and a third-place finish in the CAA for the third time in five years. The Tigers won a program record seven CAA road games and had a seven-game winning streak during the month of January.

Brian Fobbs and Allen Betrand finished in the top-11 in the CAA in scoring and earned All-CAA Second Team and Third Team respectively while Nicolas Timberlake was the CAA Sixth Man of the Year. In addition, Dennis Tunstall made the CAA All-Defensive Team plus Jason Gibson was on the CAA All-Rookie Team.

Skerry has used his platform as a head coach and teamed up with Tom Herrion to start Autism Awareness in college basketball. What started as two guys with an idea has turned into a national event where hundreds of coaches wear the prominent blue puzzle piece pin. The effort put forth by both Skerry and Herrion were recognized as the duo was honored with the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) Guardians of the Game Service Award.

Skerry took over at Towson after spending one season as an assistant coach at Pittsburgh. In his lone season, he helped the Panthers capture the BIG EAST regular season championship with a 28-6 record. During his tenure at Pitt, he once again helped refill the talent pool for the Panthers as they added one of the Top 15 recruiting classes in the country according to ESPN.com, including two of the Top 60 incoming players. He has also been a head coach at Curry as well as an assistant coach at Providence, Rhode Island, Charleston, William & Mary, Northeastern, Stonehill and Tufts.

Skerry earned both of his collegiate degrees from Tufts, earning his bachelor's degree in psychology in 1992 and his Master's Degree in education in 1995. Pat and his wife, Kristen, have two sons, Ryan and Owen.

2023-24 TOWSON MEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES - GM 7 - VS. MORGAN STATE - 11/26

LAST TIME OUT...

TOWSON MEN'S BASKETBALL CLOSES CHARLESTON CLASSIC WITH 65-39 LOSS AGAINST NORTH TEXAS

CHARLESTON, S.C. – Towson men's basketball fell 65-39 in their finale at the Shriners Children's Charleston Classic against North Texas on Sunday afternoon. Christian May led the Tigers with 12 points, the lone Tiger in double figures.

Towson (2-4) had eight players score in the contest with Mekhi Lowery chipping in eight points in the loss. The eight points resets his career high that he had against Houston on Thursday.

Towson would get a bucket on the opening possession with Tyler Tejada converting on a driving layup. However, the Mean Green would go on a quick 5-0 run to force an early Towson timeout.

The Mean Green would get out to a seven-point lead at the under 12 timeout, holding Towson scoreless over a 2:49 stretch.

The Tigers would continue to struggle from the floor going scoreless over six minutes as North Texas extended their lead to nine. Messiah Jones would end the drought with a tough layup.

Towson would get a driving layup from Tomiwa Sulaiman and free throws from Christian May at the end of the half to make it 40-18 at the break. May led the Tigers with five points.

Towson would hold the Mean Green scoreless over a two-minute stretch that saw Mekhi Lowery hit a hook shot in the lane. That would spark a run that saw Christian May hit a three and Lowery finish off a steal to force a UNT timeout.

North Texas would respond with a 7-0 run over a 3:22 span to push the lead back over 20 points. The Tigers would battle late but drop a 65-39 decision to the Mean Green on Sunday.

Lowery went 3-5 from the floor with a team-high seven rebounds, adding an assist, two steals and two blocked shots.

The Tigers assisted on nine of their 14 field goals and corralled 11 offensive rebounds.

Charles Thompson moved into sixth place in career games played with 123, passing Nicolas Timberlake at 122. He also moved into tenth with 89 games started.

Mekhi Lowery reset his career high with eight points and has scored at least seven points in three of his last four games.
