BISHOP & FREDERICK TABBED PRESEASON ALL-CAA HMs

Infielders Casey Bishop & Bryce Frederick each received Preseason All-CAA Honorable Mention designations, voted on by the league's head coaches.

Bishop was named to the 2023 CAA All-Rookie Team after finishing as the Tigers' lead man at the plate in 2023. He finished with 22 stolen bases on 23 attempts, the fifth-highest mark in the league.

Frederick was named a Collegiate Baseball National Player of the Week on April 10, 2023 after hitting walk-off home runs in back-to-back games. Frederick batted .636 (7-for-11) with two doubles, three homers and nine RBI in victories over UMBC (15-13) and George Mason (10-8) in that stretch.

BACK IN BLACK

The Tigers returned 24 letterwinners from the 2023 season, with no outgoing transfers leaving from last year's squad. Towson had just one outgoing transfer in the preseason from an incoming addition.

WELCOME TO THE JUNGLE

The 2024 roster features 16 newcomers: eight freshmen and eight transfers. Incoming transfers include College of Charleston infielder Taye Robinson, Richmond pitcher Jake Michel and OF/1B Devan Barnett from VCU. Incoming freshmen include Alex Cromwell from St. Paul's School in Baltimore and Ryder Jeske from the Pro5 Academy in Chapel Hill, N.C.

HOMEGROWN TALENT

The 2024 roster features 17 players that hail from Maryland, including ten returners and seven newcomers. Among the seven newcomers, five are transfers and two are freshmen. An additional five players are from Virginia, bringing the total to 22 players from the DMV area.

RUNS IN THE FAMILY

The Tigers have strong connections to professional sports, starting with OF Jeremy Wagner, the son of longtime MLB pitcher Billy Wagner. Another MLB connection comes from RHP Nate Nabholz, the nephew of former big league pitcher Chris Nabholz. Freshman pitcher Joey Zito is the nephew of Cy Young-winning pitcher Barry Zito. RHP Jordan Luton is the brother of Jake Luton, former NFL quarterback. Incoming freshman Brooks Lang is the son of longtime NHL hockey player Robert Lang. Transfer Ryan Williamson's grandfather, Jim Cunningham, played football for the Washington Redskins in the 1960s.

TIGERS IN THE PROS

In July, RHP Ethan Pecko was picked in the sixth round (194) of the MLB draft as the 19th Towson player in program history to be selected. Former Towson player, Richie Palacios, a third-round pick by Cleveland in 2018, made his Major League debut with the Guardians in 2022. He went 2-for-3 in his first game in the Show and finished the year batting .232 with seven runs, six doubles and 10 RBI. He did most of his damage as a pinch-hitter, where he hit .263 in 22 plate appearances with six RBI and three doubles. After starting the 2023 season in AAA with the Columbus Clippers, Palacios was traded to the St. Louis Cardinals where he batted .258 with 9 runs, six doubles, six home runs and 16 RBI in 32 Major League games. In January, Palacios was traded to the Tampa Bay Rays. Brady Policelli, a 13th-round draft pick by the Detroit Tigers in 2016, was a spring training invite in 2019, 2020 and 2021 having spent six years in the minors. Gavin Weyman has pitched in independent league ball the past four years, throwing for the High Point Rockers and the Charleston Dirty Birds in the Atlantic League in 2022.

CAA NEWCOMER

After two additions in 2023, the Campbell Camels have joined the CAA for the 2024 season. The Camels were predicted to finish third in the conference preseason poll. Three Camels received All-CAA honors in OF Lawson Harrill, C Grant Knipp and RHP Chance Daquila. The Camels enter the season as the defending Big South champions with five-consecutive regular season championships.

TOWSON PICKED ELEVENTH IN CAA PRESEASON POLL

Towson has been predicted to finish 11th in the CAA preseason coaches poll. The Northeastern Huskies finished first with eight first-place votes while UNCW finished in second with four.

TOWSON UNIVERSITY HEAD COACH MATT TYNER 6TH SEASON AS HEAD COACH

Matt Tyner enters his sixth season as the head coach of the Towson University baseball team.

Four Tigers garnered postseason conference honors following the 2023 campaign, as John Cristino, Reyce Curnane and James Moses each earned Second Team All-Coastal Athletic Association (CAA) recognition. Shortstop Casey Bishop picked up All-Rookie Team honors as well. Those four postseason distinctions mark the most of Tyner's tenure at Towson. In addition, the Tiger pitching staff set a program record 433 strikeouts while Towson hitters swatted 70 home runs, fourth all-time in team history. In July, the Houston Astros selected pitcher Ethan Pecko in the sixth round of the 2023 MLB Amateur Draft.

The 2022 season ended on a high note for the Tigers, winning the final series of the year against the CAA regular season champion Charleston Cougars. Outgoing senior Jack McLaughlin was named All-CAA Second Team while current Tiger Elijah Dickerson picked up an Honorable Mention All-CAA following the season.

In 2021, Towson earned a berth in the CAA Tournament for the first time since 2013, notching second place in the CAA North and 21 total victories, the most for the team since 2014, including series victories over Delaware and George Mason. Kody Reeser became the first pitcher since 2012 to earn All-CAA honors while the pitching staff also set a program record for strikeouts with 419. Of players who played at least 30 games, four of the top five in batting average were newcomers to the roster.

Year two in 2019 under Tyner saw the Tigers make important strides as a program, including winning two CAA series plus earning a mid-week win at Power Five opponent Penn State. Javon Fields became the first Towson player to be a CAA All-Rookie Team member since 2016 while the Towson pitching staff went from a 7.31 ERA in 2018 to a 5.59 ERA in 2019. The top five players in batting average in 2019 were all newcomers to the Towson roster.

In his first year with the Tigers in 2018, Richie Palacios was named All-CAA Second Team, hitting .301 with eight home runs and 18 doubles, and was drafted in the third round by the Cleveland Indians, the highest Tiger drafted since 1988.

Tyner comes to Towson after spending the previous four seasons as the assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Richmond. In his tenure as the team's hitting coach, the Spiders ranked at or near the top of the Atlantic 10 in several offensive categories. The final season with Richmond, Tyner helped run an offense that finished in the top five in the league in average (.280), hits (522) and doubles (103).

Prior to his time in Richmond, Tyner spent two seasons as the head coach at Bellarmine University in Kentucky. He posted a 60-46 overall record and led the Knights to the GLVC championship in his second season.

He took over the program at Bellarmine after completing two different stints as the top assistant at Butler. During his seven years in Indianapolis, Tyner also coached several youth teams, winning back-to-back under-17 national titles as an assistant for the Indiana Bulls.

A highly successful collegiate player in his own right, Tyner was a four-year starter for the University of Miami, where he helped lead the Hurricanes to three College World Series. A power hitting outfielder, Tyner was named the 1980 Baskin Robbins Player of the Year and tied the Miami home run record.

Tyner was selected by the Baltimore Orioles in the ninth round of the 1980 Major League Baseball Draft. He spent four years in the Orioles system, leading the entire organization in home runs in 1981 with 33, while hitting .301. His professional career came to a halt in 1983 after multiple surgeries for bone chips in his right elbow.

A native of Decatur, Illinois, Tyner completed his bachelor's degree in business communications at Concordia University's Indianapolis campus.
