LAST TIME...

To end their fall season, both Tiger teams competed in the Golfweek Classic in Florida. The Tiger men finished 25th while the women finished 16th. Overall, the fall season was successful for both teams. Trinity finished in the top three in all other tournaments and set multiple career lows throughout the season. So, through a competitive fall season, the Tigers are ready for their return and put together another dominant spring season.

SCOUTING THE COURSE

The Tigers will go to Houston and play in the Space City Classic from Monday, February 26th, and Tuesday, February 27th. This will be the first time in this tournament for the men. However, the women competed in 2023 and got first out of eight teams, winning by one stroke.

Lineups:

Women:

- 1 - Alejandra Sanchez De la Fuente Molio (Marbella, Spain / Atalaya)
- 2 - Erin Flynn (League City, Texas / Clear Falls)
- 3 - Lauren Huttleston (Anthem, Arizona / Boulder Creek)
- 4 - Marlo Zamora (San Antonio, Texas / Reagan)
- 5 - Kiona Hsiu (Missouri City, Texas / Elkins)
- IND - Jessica Mason (Westminster, Colorado / Holy Family)

Men:

- 1 - Jacob Mason (Westminster, Colorado / Holy Family)
- 2 - Carter Code (Calgary, Canada / Manning)
- 3 - Grant Clark (College Grove, Tennessee / Page)
- 4 - Dennis Butts (Houston, Texas / Stratford)
- 5 - Neel Sandhu (Southlake, Texas / Carroll)
- IND - Aiden Marlow (San Antonio, Texas / Churchill)

Scouting Gus Wortham: The Tigers will play at Gus Wortham Park Golf Course in Houston, Texas. Noted as the “Gem of the East End”, Gus Wortham is a 71 par and 71.2 rated course. The course is full of challenges including elevated tee boxes and uphill greens. The park also had short par fours. However, each of these is presented with its own challenge, such as hole seven. Hole seven is a 350-yard par four with a creek running through just before the green. While some may elect to drive the green, the uphill slope of the land calls for a layup. Holes like these will require players to give their shots much thought to be successful. This course will be an excellent first challenge back for Trinity.
