QUICK HITTERS

• Troy has scored 13 runs in the first inning this season and the Trojans are batting .370 with a .987 OPS as a team in the opening frame; the Trojans are 6-1 when scoring first this season.

• Since joining the Sun Belt Conference in 2006, Troy has finished third or better in eight of the 11 seasons. Troy is tied with UL Lafayette for the most top-three finishes over that time period -- South Alabama is third with four.

• Troy used 14 different pitchers in the series with Xavier; of those 14 pitchers, eight made their first appearance in a Troy uniform and six were freshmen.

• Troy has hit nine home runs through its first 15 games of the season; Troy's fifth home run didn't come until the 15th game of the year in 2016. Troy's sixth home run of the 2016 season came in game 16, while the seventh home run didn't come until the 28th game of the season.

• Troy stole eight bases in the series opener at New Orleans; it was tied for the second most in a game in school history.

• Marc Skinner has moved into fourth place in Troy history with 11 career saves; he is seven shy of tying Josh Storm for the all-time record. Additionally, Skinner is third all-time in Troy history with 90 career appearances -- he is 15 shy of setting a new school record.

• Three different players have recorded a save for the Trojans this season; Troy is the lone school in the Sun Belt to have multiple pitchers record more than one save so far on the season.

• Troy has posted a 281-131 (.682) record at home during Mark Smartt's 15-season tenure on the coaching staff.

A two-time national champion as a player at Troy, Mark Smartt begins his second season as the program's head coach in 2017. Smartt, who was officially named the baseball head coach at Troy University on June 2, 2015, began his journey to the head coach position in the fall of 1985 as he arrived in Troy to begin his junior year in college.

In his first season as head coach, Smartt led the Trojans to a 32-26 record and a third place finish in the Sun Belt Conference. To begin the year, Smartt helped propel the Trojans to a 7-0 start, and was the first head coach in Troy's history to start off his first year 7-0 dating back to 1970.

Smartt was recruited to play for legendary head coach Chase Riddle as a second baseman by then assistant coach Mike Russell. No one at that time, including him, could envision he would eventually ascend to the head coach position he currently holds.

"I owe so much to both Coach Mike Russell and Coach Chase Riddle", Smartt said. "They afforded me the opportunity to play at Troy, and when I chose to attend Troy, it easily one of the best decisions I have ever made. I played on two great teams, played for one of the greatest coaches in college baseball, and met my future wife, Deborah, who is a Troy graduate. Troy has been wonderful to me for many years now."

Smartt played for Riddle on the 1986 and 1987 NCAA Division II National Championship teams that went a combined 82-18 and posted a perfect 22-0 postseason record. He was the second-leading hitter (.405) on the '86 championship team, which is the sixth highest single-season average in school history. Smartt ended his career with a .379 batting average, the fourth-highest career average in school annals.

Smartt was named All-Gulf South Conference in 1986 and 1987 and earned second team all-region honors in 1987. He was also named to the College World Series All-Tournament Team in 1987 after hitting .333 while not committing an error in 24 chances. His playing career was punctuated by his induction into the Troy University Baseball Hall of Fame in 2002.

Smartt began his coaching career with Riddle and the Trojans as he was first a student assistant in 1988 and then a graduate assistant in 1989. Those teams combined to post a 64-33 record, win a Gulf South Conference title and play in the NCAA Division II Regionals.

"Coach Riddle allowed me to begin my coaching career as a young, unproven coach in 1988," Smartt said. "I was very quiet and listened to everything he had to say both years. He knew more baseball than any man I have ever known, and I was very fortunate to be around him both as a player and a young coach."

Smartt spent 11 seasons as a coach at the University of West Alabama, serving as the head coach from 1995-2000. He arrived in Livingston as the school's first full-time assistant coach in 1990 under then head coach Mark Hogan. His recruiting efforts helped produce a 1992 Division II College World Series appearance after capturing Gulf South Conference and South Central Regional championships along the way. The Tigers captured a GSC West Division Championship in 1994, his last season as an assistant.

In 1995, Smartt was elevated to the head coaching position and compiled a 164-163 record in six seasons. During his tenure, his teams broke or tied 38 school records while producing two All-Americans, seven all-region and 10 All-GSC selections. Under his leadership, UWA also finished in the top five in national attendance in five of his six seasons, including setting a single-game home crowd record of 2,019 in his last season.

Smartt returned to his alma mater in July of 2002, accepting an assistant coaching position under then head coach Bobby Pierce.

"I am indebted to Coach Bobby Pierce for hiring me in 2002," Smartt said. "It gave me the chance to come back to the school I love and the place that means so much to me and my wife. Being able to coach at my alma mater and wear the Troy uniform again is very special."

During his 13 years as the assistant at Troy, the Trojans won four conference championships, appeared in four NCAA Regionals, had 17 players earn All-America honors and saw 30 players sign professional contracts.

Over 17 seasons as a player and assistant coach, Smartt has participated in 1,013 games in a Troy uniform, which is the most of any player or coach in school history. He has been involved in 598 wins, six conference championship teams and six NCAA postseason teams. Smartt either played with or coached 30 of the 51 All-American players the Trojans have produced.

"It is an honor and privilege to be the head coach at Troy baseball, and I will forever be grateful for this opportunity," Smart said. "I would not be the head coach without the support of Bobby Pierce, who did a great job leading our program for 13 seasons. He put me in position to succeed, much like he did for his players throughout his career.

"When I first arrived here in 1985, I never imagined I could follow in the footsteps of coaches like Chase Riddle and Bobby Pierce. I will strive to represent them and every former player and coach with the proper respect this job requires. There is no place I would rather be than here in Troy."

Smartt and his wife Deborah have a daughter, Taylor, who is an assistant coach of the Troy softball team and a Troy graduate, and a son, Chase, who is currently a member of the Troy baseball team.

SUN BELT CHANGES FOR 2017

Beginning with the 2017 season, the conference will conduct its baseball regular season with divisional play. Two divisions – East and West – will include six teams and divisional champions will be awarded at the end of the year based on the winning percentage against all teams, regardless of division.

East - Appalachian State, Coastal Carolina, Georgia Southern, Georgia State, South Alabama, Troy

West - Arkansas State, Little Rock, UL Lafayette, ULM, UT Arlington, Texas State

The 2017 Sun Belt Conference Baseball Championship will be seeded with the division winners as the No. 1 and No. 2 seeds, with the No. 1 seed being awarded to the divisional winner with the best conference winning percentage. Seeds No. 3- No. 10 will be selected based off winning percentage in conference play, regardless of division.

RACKING UP THE KS

Troy pitches combined for 48 strikeouts over the four-game series against Xavier ... the Trojans averaged 11.7 strikeouts per nine innings in the series.-

The Trojans matched last year's season high with 16 strikeouts in the season opener -- last year's 16 Ks came in a 16-inning game against Jacksonville State. Troy followed with 15 strikeouts in game two, 11 in game three and six in the finale.

THE CHASE SMARTT STORY

Doctors delivered the news that nerve damage at birth caused Chase Smartt, the 2½-year-old son of Mark and Deborah Smartt, to be deaf.

That was 1998. Fast forward to today, as Chase Smartt is settling in nicely as a true freshman playing college baseball.

After his diagnosis – doctors say he's "profoundly deaf," meaning he can't hear anything – the Smartt family opted to have a cochlear implant -- a small, electronic device designed to help provide a sense of sound to the deaf -- installed behind Chase's ear. Cochlear implants include an external microphone, which is now the only obvious sign that Chase has a hearing impairment.

Through it all, he's undergone several surgeries, mostly to replace cochlear implants that no longer worked.

Chase also needed intense speech therapy to learn how to talk clearly, but his father said they always tried to treat him like a normal kid.

"My family just pushed me every day," Chase said. "Being around my dad all those years, it's all about a baseball. After soccer, we would talk about baseball or his practice. My sister played softball, so we talked softball and baseball. ... You come to our house, you're probably going to hear an hour and a half about baseball."

PLAYING FOR DAD

Sophomore Chase Smartt is the second player in program history to be a player with his father as a head coach.

The only other pair to do that was Logan Pierce and Bobby Pierce. Logan played for his father from 2011-2013.

TROY IN THE SUN BELT

In 11 seasons as a member of the Sun Belt Conference, Troy has finished third or better in the league in eight seasons.

That is tied with UL Lafayette for the most in the league over the same time period. Additionally, Troy's lowest finish in the league was a tie for sixth place, while the Cajuns finished last in the league in 2012.

HOME FOR THE TROJANS

The Troy roster is again very heavily loaded with home-grown players. A total of 16 members of the squad hail from Alabama.

The roster also includes players from Florida (9), Georgia (4), Tennessee (3), Louisiana (1), Mississippi (1).

THE SKINNY ON RIDDLE-PACE

The patch of land that would later become Riddle-Pace Field hosted its first baseball game in 1931. Earlier games were played on the Shackelford Quad, but the number of broken windows in Shackelford Hall led to a change in venue.

The field is named for former mathematics professor Matthew Downer Pace and legendary head coach Chase Riddle.

Originally constructed as the home field for the university's football and baseball teams, Pace Field stood at the location of the current Riddle-Pace Field.

It is one of the original locations where the Alabama-Florida Class D Deep South Baseball League teams played. They provided players to the Cleveland Indians (1939), the Cincinnati Reds (1940) and the Detroit Tigers (1947-49).

The current stadium provides 300 chairback seats and 1,700 bleacher seats. Approximately 30 percent of the stadium seating behind home plate is covered by an awning for protection from the sun or rain.

With the turf playing surface, Riddle-Pace Field could drain water at an incredible 10 inches per hour.

RENOVATION TIMELINE

1931: All home games moved to current location
 1987: Triple-A quality lighting installed
 1991: Infield leveled, rebuilt ... Irrigation system installed
 2002: Stadium renovations included a new grand stand and press box
 2008: $4.7 million renovation included Lott Baseball Complex, right field wall, new lighting and ProGrass turf
 2010: Weight room moved to second floor of press box
 2013: Home plate turf removed and replaced with dirt
 2014: New lighted signs installed to Riddle-Pace Field entrance. Banners added to outer facing grand stand; conference championship and All-American banners replaced
 2015: Playing surface replaced. Home plate area turf restored. Turf installed in both bullpen areas. Visitors dugout widened by four feet. Backstop padding replaced

Constructed in 2008, the wall in right field houses the Riddle-Pace Field scoreboard and sound system.

Prior to 2008, an 8-foot fence with a tall net was all that protected motorists on University Avenue. A ball hit into the net was ruled a home run. Measured at just 310 feet down the right field line, home runs were not uncommon and often incorrectly ruled.

The wall is 27-feet tall and 30-feet at the scoreboard.

TROJANS IN THE PROS

The Troy University baseball program currently has five players active at various levels of professional baseball.

Clint Robinson (2004-07) is set for his third season with the Washington Nationals. He enters the 2017 season with 243 career games played at the MLB level with 133 hits and 15 home runs.

Robinson won the Texas League (AA) triple crown in 2010 and hit .326/.399/.533 with 23 home runs, 35 doubles and 100 RBIs in 134 games at AAA Omaha in 2011.

He made is MLB debut with the Kansas City Royals in 2012.

T.J. Rivera (2010-11) made is MLB debut with the New York Mets last season and finished the season with a .333 batting average and .821 OPS as he had four doubles, a triple and three home runs in just 105 at-bats.

Rivera posted a .323 batting average over his six seasons in the minors, which was the best of any active Minor League Baseball player when he was promoted.

Chase Whitley (2010) begins his second season with the Tampa Bay Rays. He pitched in just five games -- four out of the bullpen -- in 2016 after recovering from Tommy John surgery.

Whitley has appeared in 33 games in his MLB career after making 28 appearances and 16 starts with the New York Yankees (2014-15).

Trae Santos (2013) begins his fifth season in the San Diego Padres organization. He played 21 games in AA and 90 games at High A in 2016 -- Santos has 30 home runs and a .710 OPS over 346 MiLB games and 1,179 at-bats.

Shane McCain (2010-14) enters his fourth season in the Texas Rangers organization. He spent the entire 2016 season at High A with the High Desert Mavericks and posted a 7-4 record with a 3.39 ERA over 41 games and 74.1 innings pitched.

Logan Hill (2015) enters his third season of professional baseball. Hit .254 with 13 home runs in 93 games and 335 at-bats for the Pittsburgh Pirates' class A affiliate in West Virginia.

Lucas Brown (2015-16) made his professional debut last summer playing 11 games after being drafted by the Baltimore Orioles. He split time between rookie and A (short season).

FRIENDLY CONFINES

Since coach Mark Smartt joined the Troy coaching staff, in 2003, the Trojans have been hard to beat at home.

In his 15 seasons, Troy has a 281-125 (.692) record at home.

Troy is 855-339-1 (.716) all-time at Riddle-Pace Field in 48 seasons.

STOLEN BASE FRENZY

Troy stole eight bases in the series opener at New Orleans, including four by Steven Whitaker.

The team total was one shy of the school record of nine set against Huntingdon (1990) and Campbell (2005).

Whitaker's four stolen bases were the most by a Trojan since Adam Godwin's six stolen bases in that same game against Campbell - Godwin led the NCAA with 84 stolen bases that season.

The last time Troy stole eight bases in a game was on April 3, 2015, at Appalachian State.

Matt Sanders joined the stolen base frenzy when he also stole four bases -- second and third twice -- during the series opener against Hofstra.

POWER SURGE

Troy has hit nine home runs through its first 15 games of the season; Troy's fifth home run didn't come until the 15th game of the year in 2016, while Troy's sixth home run of the 2016 season came in game 16. Troy's seventh home run didn't come until the 28th game of the season.

Dating back to last season, Troy has hit 17 home runs over its last 19 games.

The Trojans hit a home run in six straight games (Xavier, UNO x3, UAB, Seton Hall) ... it marked the first time since 2013 that a Troy team had done so.

FIRST PITCH STRIKES

Austin Crook started batters with a strike 68 percent of the time (17-of-25) in his first start of the season, which was his first appearance on a mound in game action since May 2015. On the year; he has thrown a first-pitch strike 66.7 percent of the time.

SWINGING THE STICKS EARLY

The Trojans have started games quickly this season and the numbers prove it.

Troy is batting .328 as a team in the first inning with 16 runs through 15 games in the opening frame. Troy has a team OPS of .937 in the first inning this season with five extra-base hits.

TWO-OUT HITS ARE BACK

Troy struggled to get two-out hits during the early part of the season, but saw an uptick during the Cox Diamond Invitational.

After only five two-out RBIs through the first eight games, Troy had eight two-out RBIs in its three games in Pensacola.

The Trojans hit .359 with two outs (14-for-39) over the weekend, after entering hitting .205 with two outs (18-for-88).

Troy continued its two-out resurgence against Hofstra as the Trojans hit .372 (16-of-43) with 12 two-out RBIs; Troy had 13 two-out RBIs all season entering the series.
