JON SUMRALL

FIRST SEASON (7-2)

One of the most respected recruiters in the country, Jon Sumrall was named Troy's football head coach on December 2, 2021. Sumrall returns to Troy after spending three seasons (2015-17) as the assistant head coach on Neal Brown's staff.

Recently promoted to co-defensive coordinator on Mark Stoops' staff at Kentucky, Sumrall coached the Wildcats' inside linebackers for the squad that finished the season with a 10-3 record and ranked as high as No. 22 in the country. Kentucky finished second in the SEC East, marking the first time since the league split into divisions in 1992 that UK ended the season in sole possession of second place in the East. The Wildcats allowed 17 or fewer points in seven of its 12 games in 2021 and held No. 1 Georgia to its second-lowest offensive output of the season.

Kentucky finished with the nation's No. 25 defense in addition to ranking third in fourth-down defense, 20th in rushing defense and 13th in defensive touchdowns.

During his tenure at Troy, Sumrall helped lead the Trojans to a pair of bowl victories, the school's first since 2010, the 2017 Sun Belt Conference title, and a stunning victory at LSU. The Trojans won a school-record 11 games in 2017, and the Troy defense ranked first in the nation in red zone defense (.614), second in tackles for loss per game (8.6), seventh in rushing defense (105.3), 11th in scoring defense and 24th in total defense per game (336.6).

In his first season at Troy, the Trojans finished with the second-best turnaround nationally in opponent 3rd-down percentage (14.62 percent), the fourth-best turnaround in yards per play allowed (-1.13), the fifth-best improvement in tackles for loss per game (2.59) and 16th-best improvement in total defense (-62.7).

Troy held opponents to 391.2 yards per game, an improvement of 62.8 yards from the previous season and under 400 yards for the first time since the 2008 season. The Trojans scored five defensive touchdowns, the third-most in the country and most by a Troy team since 2004.

Troy finished the 2016 season 10-3 with a victory in the Dollar General Bowl, the first top-25 ranking in school and Sun Belt Conference history and the best win-improvement in the country. The Trojans finished the year second nationally in passes intercepted, fourth in turnovers forced, 17th in rushing defense, 21st holding opponents to 22.1 points per game and 28th in third-down defense.

Sumrall departed Troy for Ole Miss before the 2018 season and returned to his alma mater in Lexington, Kentucky the following year.

Sumrall oversaw an effective four-man rotation at the middle and weakside linebacker positions in his first season at Kentucky. UK's defense kept every opponent at or below 30 points, the first time the Wildcats have done that since 1979. UK ended the season with a thrilling win over Virginia Tech in the Belk Bowl, UK's fourth straight bowl appearance.

Sumrall's starting linebackers, Jamin Davis and DeAndre Square, were two of the top three tacklers in 2020, combining for 162 total tackles. Davis made a significant impact under Sumrall's tutelage, making 144 tackles, 5.0 tackles for loss, 2.5 sacks, five interceptions, three pass break ups, three quarterback hurries, one blocked kick, one fumble recovery and one forced fumble. He ranked fourth in the SEC in tackles per game (10.2) and was first-team All-SEC by Pro Football Focus and second team All-SEC by Phil Steele. Davis was a first-round draft pick by the Washington Football Team in the 2021 NFL Draft.

Kentucky capped the most unusual of seasons with an impressive victory in the TaxSlayer Gator Bowl, the program's third consecutive bowl victory, tying the school record set from 2006-08. The 23-21 victory over No. 24 NC State also marked the second win over a ranked team in the 2020 season. UK also defeated No. 18 Tennessee.

Sumrall was a three-year letterwinner at middle linebacker at Kentucky from 2002-04. He started every game in 2004, leading the Wildcats with 72 tackles. He also excelled off the field as he was named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll and was selected to the Frank G. Ham Society of Character. After earning his degree in finance in 2005, Sumrall served as a graduate assistant for the Wildcats during the 2005 and 2006 seasons under head coach Rich Brooks.

He left Kentucky in 2007 and spent five seasons under head coach Ron Caragher in various positions at San Diego, including defensive coordinator during his final two seasons. He served as the defensive line coach, recruiting coordinator and camp coordinator for the first three years before assuming the defensive coordinator and linebackers coaching role in 2010. During his final season with the Toreros, Sumrall was promoted to assistant head coach.

Before joining the Troy staff in 2015, Sumrall spent three seasons at Tulane (2012-14), where he coached the defensive line the first two seasons before coaching the linebackers his final season.

Sumrall was a three-year letterman at middle linebacker for Kentucky from 2002-04. He started every game as a senior and led the Wildcats with 72 tackles. Sumrall was a two-time all-state performer and a four-year letterman at Grissom High School in Huntsville, Alabama. Sumrall completed his bachelor's degree in finance in 2005 and has completed coursework on a master's degree in sports leadership.

He is married to the former Ginny Nixon, also of Huntsville, and the couple has four children, Sam, Sadie, Stella and Selah.

O P5, WHERE ART THOU

- The 2020 season marked the first for Troy since 2000 that the Trojans did NOT play a team from a Power 5 conference. The Trojans were scheduled for a home game against NC State and road game at Tennessee before the ACC & SEC altered their schedule models.
- Troy's match up with Ole Miss in the season opener is Troy's 27th (3-23) against the current members of the SEC. The Trojans have played an SEC school in 16 of 21 seasons since moving to the FBS ranks in 2001.
- Troy is 6-48 all-time against the current members of Power 5 conferences ... the only conference that Troy has not played a current or former member from is the Pac 12.
- Troy has at least one win over each of the four Power 5 conferences in which it has played a game against.
- Troy's last P5 win came in 2018 at Nebraska, while it's last SEC win came in 2017 at LSU.

TROY'S PRO PIPELINE

- Troy is home to the first underclassman to be drafted from the league when Jonathan Massaquoi was selected in the fifth round of the 2012 Draft.
- Massaquoi was the 33rd Trojan to be selected in the NFL Draft and the ninth in Troy's short history in the Sun Belt Conference.
- The Trojans have twice had players taken in the first round of the draft, with Leodis McKelvin (BUF, 11th overall) going in 2008 and DeMarcus Ware (DAL, 11th overall) going in 2005. Troy is also home to the highest selected offensive lineman in Sun Belt history in Antonio Garcia (NE, 85th overall, 2017).

Former Trojans in the NFL

Player	Team
Mario Addison	Buffalo Bills

Former Trojans in the CFL

Player	Team
Blace Brown	Saskatchewan Roughriders
Chandler Worthy	Montreal Alouettes

- Troy's NFL pipeline also includes six players who have recently retired. Osi Umenyiora, Jerrel Jernigan, DeMarcus Ware, Lawrence Tynes, Sherrod Martin, Steve McLendon and Leodis McKelvin have recently stepped away from the game.

- Troy players in Super Bowls has been a common sight recently. Since 2003, seven former Trojans have made 10 appearances in a Super Bowl. All told, 11 former Trojans have made 13 total appearance in the Super Bowl.

- Virgil Seay (Washington) 1983 (XVII) & 1984 (XVIII); Jack Peavey (Denver) 1988 (XXII); Kerry Jenkins (Tampa Bay) 2003 (XXXVII); Osi Umenyiora (NY Giants) 2008 (XLII) & 2012 (XLVI); Steve McLendon (Pittsburgh) 2011 (XLV) & (Tampa Bay) 2021 (LVI); Lawrence Tynes (NY Giants) 2012 (XLVI); Jerrel Jernigan (NY Giants) 2012 (XLVI); DeMarcus Ware (Denver Broncos) 2016 (50); Mario Addison (Carolina Panthers) 2016 (50).

- Former Troy quarterback Kaleb Barker led the Northern Arizona Wranglers to a 15-4 record and the Indoor Football League title in 2022 as a rookie.

NEW COACHES

- As expected with a new head coach in charge, Troy's overall coaching staff saw an overhaul as well.
- Bam Hardmon (bandits/spears) and Gary Banks (receivers) are the only two full time coaches to return from last year's staff. Al Pogue was originally set to return for 2022, but accepted a position on the Missouri staff.
- Off the field, Rusty Whitt (strength), Jamaal Smith (chief of staff) and Caleb Ross (director of operations) all remained on staff.
- Troy's staff features a pair of Trojan alums in Gary Banks and Evan McKissack.
- OL coach Cole Popovich spent six seasons with the New England Patriots and is the owner of two Super Bowl rings.

TROY IN SEASON OPENERS

- The Trojans are 11-11 in season openers since moving to the FBS in 2001.
- Troy is 54-42-6 all-time in season openers and 19-11 as a NCAA Division I (FCS & FBS) member (1993-present).

PLAYS PER GAME

- Troy's plays per game have taken a steady decrease each of the last three seasons and that trend will be interesting to follow in 2022 as the Trojans move to a Pro Style offense under OC Joe Craddock.
- Troy ranked 15th nationally in 2019 averaging 73.58 plays per game and had two games in which it ran 92-plus plays.
- Troy slipped to 44th nationally in 2020 averaging 71.27 plays per game. The Trojans ran 93 plays in the season opener and hit the 81 play mark three times.

- The 2021 season saw a dramatic drop as Troy ranked 100th nationally averaging just 65.42 plays per game. The Trojans ran just 40 plays against App State and 49 against Liberty with a season-high 76 coming in the season finale.

- Troy went off script in the opener running 81 plays, which ranked as the 11th most in the country.
- Troy ran 70 plays against Alabama A&M and it dropped to 65 plays against App State. Troy had just nine offensive possessions in the game at App State, which included the final drive where the Trojans tried to run out the clock.
- Troy ran a season-low 56 plays against Marshall, but racked up 421 yards for a 7.5 yards-per-play average, it's highest output of the season.
- After nine games, Troy is 81st at 66.78 plays per game.

- Troy ranks 45th nationally with 49.58 percent of its plays being passing plays ... that number dropped from fourth, to sixth, to 14th, to 20th, to 26th, 33rd and to 50th ... the Louisiana game marked the first time the number dropped...

- On the flip side, Troy's defense has been on the field for the 42nd most plays in the country per game; Troy opponents are averaging 70.56 plays per game.

- Troy's plays per game -- Ole Miss (81), Alabama A&M (70), App State (65), Marshall (56), Western Kentucky (76), Southern Miss (59), Texas State (62), South Alabama (60), Louisiana (71).

• Troy averaged 7.5 yards per play against Marshall despite running a season-low 56 plays. Marshall entered the game 23rd in the country allowing only 280.7 total yards and 54th allowing 201.7 passing yards ... Troy finished with 421 total yards and 321 yards through the air.

• Tez Johnson became just the sixth player in Troy's DI history (2001) to throw a touchdown pass and catch a touchdown pass in the same game and the first since John Johnson did so against UMass in 2016 when he did so against WKU. Troy WR coach Gary Banks also did so against North Texas in 2007.

• Tez Johnson became the 20th player in program history to reach the 100-reception mark for their career.

• Troy rushed for a then season-high 135 yards in the victory at WKU behind a season-high 122 yards by DK Billingsley; he is Troy's first 100-yard rusher since Kimani Vidal topped the century mark at Texas State in 2021.

• Tez Johnson's 7-yard touchdown pass in the third quarter at WKU to Gunnar Watson was Troy's first by a non-quarterback since a 35-yard touchdown pass by Luke Whittemore in 2018 against Coastal Carolina.

THE STORY ON GUNNAR

- Gunnar Watson enters his fifth-year with the program and second going into the season as the starter. Watson took over starting duties in week six last season.
- Two-time all-state selection at Taylor County (Ga.) High School and was ranked the 23rd best pro-style QB in the country by Rivals ... led Taylor County to a 19-5 record his final two seasons and did not throw in interception during the regular season of his senior season.
- Became the seventh player in program history to top the 5,000-yard mark during the Marshall game.
- Completed 12-of-13 passes against App State after throwing an interception on his first attempt; would have been 14-of-15 without a drop by his receiver.

- In the opener at Ole Miss, his 72.3 completion percentage is the sixth highest in Troy's DI history among passers with at least 45 attempts. His 47 attempts were the 18th most in a game in Troy's DI history while his 34 completions were tied for the eighth most in school history.
- Followed by completing 23-of-34 passes for 351 yards and four touchdowns against Alabama A&M.
- Came off the bench at South Alabama and completed all four of his pass attempts, including back-to-back passes of 36 yards and 14 yards, both to Tez Johnson, to open a drive that resulted in a 51-yard field goal in the fourth quarter.
- Completed 16-of-25 passes for 195 yards and two touchdowns in the second half at Louisiana.
- In 2020, started nine games and led the Sun Belt averaging 237.9 yards per game. Ranked seventh nationally, completing 70.1 percent of his passes and 11th with 23.44 completions per game.
- Became the first Troy quarterback since Corey Robinson in 2010 to win his Trojan debut.
- Completed 26-of-37 passes for 248 yards and two touchdowns in his first career start at MTSU. Troy took the foot off the gas in the second half -- Watson was 24-of-33 for 195 yards in the first half.
- Completed 35-of-41 passes for 297 yards and three touchdowns at South Alabama in 2020; Watson's 82.9 completion percentage was the fifth best in Troy's Division I history among quarterbacks with at least 15 pass attempts and the most among quarterbacks with more than 35 pass attempts.
- Last season, returned as Troy's starting quarterback in the Trojans' victory over Georgia Southern ... completed 24-of-36 passes for 270 yards and a touchdown.
- Completed 29-of-55 passes for 350 yards against Louisiana.
- Take out 17 drops by Troy receivers last season, Watson's completion percentage rises to 64.1 percent.
- Averaged 220.6 yards per game in his seven starts last season, which would have been good for fourth in the Sun Belt.

LATE ADDITION

- Troy received a late member to the quarterback room with the addition of West Virginia transfer Jarret Doege to the roster.
- Doege transferred to Western Kentucky in the offseason before leaving the Hilltoppers during fall camp. He arrived in Troy on Aug. 17 and began practice with the Trojans on Aug. 18. He is immediately eligible to play.

the Hilltoppers.

- Started Troy's win over Southern Miss; completed 17-of-24 passes for 237 yards and a touchdown.

- He entered the season as the FBS active leader in career passing yards (10,494) and passing touchdowns (79). Began his career at Bowling Green and has played in 46 career games at the FBS level, completing 952-of-1,488 passes averaging 228.13 yards per game. Last season for the Mountaineers, Doege completed 65 percent of his passes with 19 touchdown strikes and 234.5 yards per game.
- Completed his only pass attempt in the season opener at Ole Miss; entered the game after Gunnar Watson lost his helmet on the previous play. Made the tackle on the play after a fumble following his completion.
- Played most of the fourth quarter against Alabama A&M and completed 5-of-11 passes for 113 yards and a touchdown.

OFF THE BENCH

- Beyond Gunnar Watson and Jarret Doege, Troy offensive coordinator Joe Craddock has a strong room to find a replacement if the need arises.
- Four-star transfer Peter Costelli joined the Trojans in the summer after transferring out of Utah following spring practice.
- Costelli was rated as the No. 27 overall quarterback and No. 10 dual threat quarterback in the 2021 class by 247 Sports.

- Troy's linebacker corp is the most experienced unit on the defensive side of the ball with Carlton Martial, KJ Robertson and Jayden McDonald with significant starts under their belts.
- The trio have combined to start 92 games despite the Trojans only playing two linebackers in their 4-2-5 scheme.
- The linebacker depth was tested against Alabama A&M as Robertson missed the game with a lower-body injury and Martial suffered a lower-body injury early in the third quarter.

- Walk-on redshirt freshman Terry Thomas responded with three tackles and an interception. He followed that up with eight tackles at App State after Martial missed the whole game and McDonald missed most of the contest.

SECONDARY NOTES*NO-NONSENSE REDDY

- Reddy Steward has quietly become one of the top defenders in the Sun Belt and the country... not known for being over the top in his antics, Steward is certainly catching the eyes of opposing coaches.
- Troy's top-rated coverage corner per Pro Football Focus with a 70.0 grade in 2020 ... Posted 26 tackles, four tackles for loss, a pair of sacks, an interception and five pass break ups on the year.
- He was Troy's top-rated coverage cornerback (No. 2 rated CB in the Sun Belt) once again with a 80.6 grade last season. Missed just two tackles, was not been called for a penalty and defended 20-of-28 pass attempts.
- Ranked 25th nationally per PFF (min. 375 snaps) among cornerbacks with an 80.0 defensive grade and 22nd overall defensively among cornerbacks with an 80.6 coverage grade.
- Ranked second nationally (min. 25 targets) holding opponents to a 28.6 reception percentage (8-of-28).
- Among players with 20 or more targets, allowed the fewest receiving yards on the year with just 81 on the eight catches against him.
- Allowed just 37 yards after the catch ... Finished the year with an NFL Passer Rating Against of 24.7, the fifth-best in the country among cornerbacks with at least 200 coverage snaps.
- The longest reception that Steward allowed last season is 10 yards, also best among that group.

2022

- Opponents have receptions on just 57.9 percent of targets this year and are averaging 8.2 yards after the catch.
- Forced Troy's only turnover in its victory at South Alabama with an interception.
- Named Troy's Defensive Player of the Week for its victory at Western Kentucky - Had four tackles and a PBU, posted a 58.3 NFL passer rating against and defended 4-of-8 passes against him while limiting those catches to 11 yards after the reception.
- Ranks 17th nationally per PFF in coverage grade and second in yards per reception (8.2) min. 330 coverage snaps.

SCHOLARSHIP = EARNED

- Two of Troy's top four players in the safety room are former walk-ons.
- The Troy coaching staff bestowed a scholarship upon Craig Slocum on the opening day of fall camp in 2020 and it didn't take long to prove them correct.
- Named to the Pro Football Focus National Team of the Week after posting a 91.5 overall grade with an interception and three tackles (per PFF, was only officially credited with one tackle) at Middle Tennessee.

- Slocum intercepted a pass in the second quarter and returned it for a touchdown. However, it was called back after a questionable block in the back penalty.

- Keyshawn Swanson earned a scholarship at the end of Troy's T-Day spring game in 2022 after playing a key role on the 2021 squad and making an impression on the new staff during spring practice.

- Both players made a big impact in the opener at Ole Miss; Swanson forced a fumble and tied a career-high with five tackles. He was Troy's highest-rated player per PFF in the game with an 86.5 overall defensive grade. His performance ranked 29th nationally among players with at least 33 snaps.

- Slocum added a career-high 10 tackles, a pass break up and a fumble recovery in the game.

- Slocum has played Troy's second-most overall snaps this season (539), while Swanson has played 150 snaps and is Troy's highest rated defensive player (min. 150 snaps) per PFF.

SECONDARY SHUFFLE

- Dell Pettus is making the fourth move of his young career.
- Pettus, now a junior, was originally slotted to play cornerback for the Trojans but shifted to free safety and thrived in the role earning Freshman All-America honors. In 2020, Pettus was on the move again to strong safety, and in 2021 he has moved back to free safety. Pettus is on the move again this season moving back to strong safety.
- He ranked 23rd nationally (players min. 500 snaps) for his tackling efforts, 13th among defensive backs and eighth among safeties in 2021.
- Ranked 12th among all Group of Five defenders in tackling (min. 500 snaps) and second in the Sun Belt; seventh among all G5 defensive backs and first in the Sun Belt.
- Played 562 defensive snaps, fourth-most on the team and missed just three tackles all season.
- This season, his 510 snaps are the fourth-most on the team and his five missed tackles are the fewest among Troy's regulars on defense.

MARTIAL'S STORY

- Carlton Martial's story is a remarkable one. He came to Troy as a 5-foot-9 walk-on with no FBS offers, three FCS offers (Alabama A&M, Alcorn State, Jackson State) and four DII offers (North Alabama, West Alabama, Tuskegee, West Florida).
- Named one of the top three returning linebackers in the country for the 2021 season by Pro Football Focus.
- Entered the 2022 campaign just 104 tackles shy of setting the all-time FBS record.
- Is one of just two players at the FBS level since 2000 to record more than 425 tackles, 47 tackles for loss and five interceptions in their career – he has 442 tackles, 47 tackles for loss and five interceptions
- Is the nation's leading tackler since the start of the 2018 season, with 442 tackles: 66 more than the next closest player.
- He redshirted the 2017 season and made his mark on the scout team, so much so that former head coach Neal Brown put Martial on scholarship before he ever played a collegiate snap.
- He took the Sun Belt by storm his freshman season en route to Freshman All-America honors ... was rated by PFF as the 20th best defensive player in the country and fifth nationally against the run – three of the four players ahead of him were selected within the first 13 picks of the NFL Draft (minimum of 375 snaps).
- In 2019, he was named to the Pro Football Focus All-America Second Team and was named the No. 35 player in the country by PFF ... Became just the 12th player and first underclassman in the last 20 years at the FBS level to finish a season with at least 100 tackles, 15 tackles for loss and three interceptions ... Named to the All-Sun Belt First Team ... Closed the year with 126 tackles, the most by a Troy player since 2000, and 18.5 tackles for loss, the fifth most in a season in Troy history, and three picks ... Only player in the country to rank in the top eight nationally in tackles (10.5) and tackles for loss per game (1.54).

• His 126 tackles stand as the most by a Troy player since 2000. That is significant because the NCAA changed the rule how defensive stats were measured prior to the 2004 season.

• Added to the rule book in 2004 was the statement – "Defensive numbers compiled by the coaching staff or other university/college personnel using game film will not be considered 'official' NCAA statistics."

• Layman's terms? Prior to 2004, schools would adjust defensive tackle numbers quite considerably based on the loose definition by coaches when they broke down the game film on Sundays after games – players tackle totals would regularly double from Saturday to Monday and clog up the record books with totals that seem unreachable.

2020 Season

• Tied for the nation's lead with 113 tackles on the season (Auburn's Zakoby McClain).

• His 9.50 tackles per game in the month of October ranked as the second most in the conference and the 18th most nationally among players who have played at least three games.

• Among players with at least three games played, ranked 11th in the month of November with 11.0 tackles per game.

• Rated as the sixth-best defensive player in the country per PFF with a 82.4 overall defensive grade and the fourth-best defender against the run with a 82.4 grade

2021 Season

- Named one of three finalists for the Burlsworth Trophy, which is presented annually to the nation's top player who began his career as a walk-on.
- Finished the regular season with 24 more tackles than anyone else in the Sun Belt – seven more overall despite playing two fewer games – and was the only player averaging double-digit tackles per game.
- Ranked sixth nationally with 10.6 tackles per game and ended the season just 17 tackles shy of the all-time Sun Belt record.
- Posted six games with double-digit tackles, including games with 18 and 19 tackles.
- Among linebackers with at least 650 snaps, ranked eighth per Pro Football Focus with an overall 81.8 defensive grade and second with an 87.1 rush defense grade – among all players, his rush defense-grade ranks 17th.
- One of just three players in Troy history – Boris Lee and Jerrel Jernigan – to earn a trio of All-Sun Belt First Team honors.

2022 Season

- Became the Sun Belt Conference's all-time leading tackler with his third tackle against Marshall.
- Missed game at App State after suffering an injury against Alabama A&M -- snapped a 42-game consecutive start streak.
- Recorded 18 tackles in his return from injury against Marshall; it was tied for the third-most tackles in a game in his career.
- Martial's 18 tackles are tied for the second-most in a game this season nationally and the sixth-most in a game in Troy history.
- 21st-rated linebacker per PFF (min. 475 snaps).

BURLSWORTH FINALIST

- Carlton Martial was one of three finalists for the Burlsworth Trophy, which is presented annually to the nation's top player who began his career as a walk-on.
- The other two finalists were National Championship winning quarterback Stetson Bennett from Georgia and Arkansas linebacker Grant Morgan.

UNTIED SHOE

- Every player has their own superstitions but Carlton Martial might be alone with his.
- Look down at his left foot during the game and you'll noticed that he left shoe is untied. Why? No good reason other than it would never stay tied his freshman year at McGill-Toolen High School so he just left it untied and a tradition was born.

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

THE BUCE JUICE

- Brooks Buce was a first team all-state kicker out of Atlanta Christian High School and served as Georgia No. 2 kicker each of the last three seasons prior to joining the Troy roster in 2021.
  - Buce didn't get a chance to kick a field goal, but converted on 7-of-8 extra points at Georgia.
  - Buce's field goal against ULM in 2021 was his first attempt in a game in 1,751 days (high school his last attempt).
  - Buce was named the Sun Belt Special Teams Player of the Week after kicking a pair of field goals, including the game-winner, against Georgia Southern.
  - Held opponents to an average starting field position of the 26.8-yard line on his kickoffs.
  - Ranked 13th nationally among kickers with nine attempts with his 88.9 success rate on field goals.
  - Made 24 straight extra-point attempts to end the season (two misses came due to poor protection).
  - Buce is 20-for-23 since the start of the 2021 season. His 87.0 percent success rate ranks eighth among players with at least 20 attempts combined in 2021 and 2022.
  - Outscored Marshall, 10-7, after kicking three field goals and an extra point.
  - Made a 51-yard field goal at South Alabama in the fourth quarter to game the Trojans a four-point lead.

BLOCKING MACHINE

- Defensive tackle Will Choloh turned into a blocking machine with a pair of blocked kicks in two straight games in 2020. He tied for fourth nationally with the two blocked kicks and was the first Trojan with two blocks in a season since Marcus Webb had two in 2017.
  - Troy's three blocked kicks in 2020 ranked sixth nationally.
  - Dell Pettus picked up Troy's first block of the 2021 season as he blocked a Liberty field goal late in the fourth quarter to set up a Troy score.
  - Choloh got into the mix again last blocking an extra point at Southern Miss.
- This season, Caleb Ransaw blocked a Marshall field goal as time expired in the first half to maintain Troy's 10-0 lead.
