- Valdes had a season-high 15 points on 5-5 shooting against West Georgia earlier this season.

THE REDSHIRTS

- Kerrington Kiel, a native of Birmingham, Ala., is a lengthy forward who adds to the defensive side of the ball, while also bringing a strong jumper and 3-point game on the offensive side.
- Jerrell Bellamy, a native of Phenix City, Ala., is a 6-9 forward who can score at all three levels and is an excellent rebounder. Bellamy had a career-high 18 points against ECU on 5-7 shooting, including 8-8 from the free throw line.
- Bellamy is also one of Troy's best shot-blockers. His 23 blocks is second on the team. He's been a key reason why the Trojans are second in the Sun Belt in blocks per game this year (4.7).

THE RED MAMBAS

- Brothers Cooper and Cobi Campbell, who go by the nickname "The Red Mambas", are new additions to the team this season.
- Cooper comes to Troy after playing at Phoenix Prep in Arizona, and is an elite shooter of the basketball. He was named to the Second-Team All-UAA in the summer of 2023 after averaging 20 points and six assists per game while shooting 42 percent from 3-point distance.
- Cooper is one of Troy's best pure shooters, and is averaging 5.2 points this season.
- Cooper has started three games at the point guard position this season.
- In his second career and first road start, he had a team and career-high 16 points against ULM.
- Cobi is out for the season with an injury, and is redshirting.

BUILT RJ TOUGH

- One of the toughest players on the team, Randarius Jones was a key member of the bench last season on both offense and defense.
- This year, Jones has been a crucial bench player and leads the team with a 62.5 percent shooting clip. He had eight rebounds in a career-high 21 minutes against Texas State on Feb. 25.
- Jones made his first collegiate start on senior day against Coastal Carolina on Feb. 22 in Trojan Arena.
- Jones tied his career-high with 15 points against LaGrange on Dec. 17, 2024.

TAKE THE STAIRS

- A mantra that head coach Scott Cross has used for the past decade, "Take The Stairs" has become the slogan for Troy men's basketball since Cross was hired in 2019.
- The saying comes from the mentality that the team never takes shortcuts, and always does things the tough way. Why take the elevator when you can take the stairs?

HEAD COACH SCOTT CROSS

A consistent winner over 27 years in the coaching profession, Scott Cross enters his sixth season as the head coach at Troy in 2024-25, his 18th overall season as a collegiate head coach. In five seasons, Cross has built the Troy program into one of the perennial leaders in the Sun Belt as the Trojans enter the upcoming campaign as the only league program with back-to-back-to-back 20-win seasons and the only Sun Belt program with 10-plus league wins in three consecutive seasons.

The 2023-24 season saw Troy win 20 regular season games for the third consecutive season, as well winning double-digit conference games for the third straight year. The Trojans are the only team in the Sun Belt to achieve that mark. The Trojans finished the regular season third in the Sun Belt, which is the highest they have finished during Cross' tenure. Troy was picked eighth in the coaches preseason poll. Troy played three nationally televised games and forced Oregon State into a double overtime showdown in Corvallis, Ore.

Troy racked up postseason honors as Christyon Eugene – who eclipsed the 1,000 career-point mark in the final regular season – was named All-Sun Belt First Team. Myles Rigbsby was named the Sun Belt Freshman of the Year and Tayton Conerway was named the Sun Belt Sixth Man of the Year. In addition, graduating seniors Eugene and Aamer Muhammad each signed professional deals in the summer of 2024.

Despite losing five of his top six scorers, including the top three, from the 2021-22 team, Cross led the Trojans to a 20-13 overall record in 2022-23, including an 11-7 Sun Belt record and berth in the Sun Belt Tournament quarterfinals. The non-conference slate saw the Trojans knock off Florida State, 79-72, in Tallahassee; Troy's first victory over a major-conference opponent since 2012 and first against an ACC opponent since a 1981 victory over Georgia Tech. Troy also led national-runner up San Diego State by eight points midway through the second half of a 5-point loss to the Aztecs, one year after Cross and the Trojans defeated another Final Four program in Florida Atlantic on its home court. Zay Williams earned All-Sun Belt and all-district distinction after he finished one rebound shy of becoming Troy's all-time leader in the category.

Cross led Troy to its first 20-win season in five years and back to the postseason in 2021-22 as the Trojans finished 20-12 overall and a 10-6 mark in the Sun Belt. The Trojans returned to the postseason for the first time since its 2016 NCAA Tournament run with an appearance in the College Basketball Invitational. Troy finished with the third-most Sun Belt wins and advanced to the Sun Belt Tournament semifinals despite being picked to finish last in the league during the preseason.

The 20-win season was just Troy's fourth since 2000, and the Cross-led Trojans won eight road games, the most by the program since the 2009-10 season. Troy was also well represented on the Sun Belt postseason awards lists, with Efe Odigie earning the league's Newcomer of the Year award and Duke Deen taking home Freshman of the Year honors. Odigie also earned all-district second team honors and All-Sun Belt First Team distinction.

Two Trojans hit the professional circuit following their careers under Cross' guidance this past summer as his first class of recruits for Troy in Khalyl Waters and Nick Stampley both signed professional contracts to play in Finland in the Korisliiga league.

Troy has shattered Trojan Arena box-office records in Cross' first four seasons, including new single-season records in each of the last two seasons, with 3,036 fans in 2022-23 and 2,758 in 2021-22. Additionally, four of Troy's top-10 highest-attended games have come in the last two seasons.

Cross preceded his current run at Troy with a brief stint as an assistant coach at TCU under Jamie Dixon in 2018-19.

Cross helped lead the Horned Frogs to the Big 12 quarterfinals and a No. 1 seed in the 2019 NIT in his one year. TCU finished the season with 23 wins, the second most in program history, and Cross helped develop current Memphis Grizzlies' star Desmond Bane.

The bulk of Cross' coaching career came at his alma mater UT Arlington where he presided over the most successful era of men's basketball in UTA history with five postseason appearances and five 20-win seasons.

He inherited a program that averaged 10 wins per season and made just one postseason appearance in its 47-year history and transformed the Mavericks into a premier program at the mid-major level. In addition to leading UTA to an average of 19 wins per season, he also chaired the top four seasons in program history plus signed and developed the first player in UTA history to be selected in the first two rounds of the NBA Draft when Kevin Hervey was selected with the 57th pick of the 2018 Draft.

Among UTA's postseason appearances under Cross was a quarterfinal appearance in the 2017 NIT. The historic 2017 season produced the program's first-ever Sun Belt Conference regular season title.

Throughout the course of just more than a decade, Cross guided the Mavericks to postseason tournament appearances with trips to the NCAA Tournament (2008), NIT (2012 & 2017) and CIT (2013, 2016). In addition, UT Arlington won the Southland Tournament Championship in 2008 and the 2012 regular season Southland Conference Championship.

Cross was named 2012 Southland Conference Coach of the Year, 2012 NABC District 23 Coach of the Year and was a 2012 finalist for the Hugh Durham National Coach of the Year. Cross' efforts on and off the court were recognized once again in 2016 when he was announced a finalist for the 2016 Skip Prosser Man of the Year Award.

In 2017, he earned Sun Belt and NABC District Coach of the Year honors after leading the Mavericks to a program-record 27 wins. Cross, who has coached 19 players to professional contracts, was named a Prosser Award finalist for the second time and earned finalist honors from the Hugh Durham Award. The Mavs defeated Texas for the first time in school history, marking UTA's first win over an AP top-25 team in program history. UTA went on to win NIT games at BYU and against Akron and posted two of the largest UTA basketball crowds in College Park Center history.

The 2016 squad helped put UTA basketball on the Division I men's basketball map. Crowned the best rebounding team in the nation and ranked in the top 10 in four team categories, UTA knocked off national powers Ohio State and Memphis on the road en route to its best start in school history (14-3).

Cross was named the head coach of his alma mater in 2006 after serving as an assistant for the previous eight seasons. In his second season, he led the Mavericks to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history. During that season, the Mavericks were ranked for the first time in the collegeinsider.com Mid-Major Top 25, reaching a high of No. 14 in Dec. 2007.

From the end of the 2007 season throughout the 2008 season, Cross led the Mavericks to a school-record 17 consecutive home wins. In UTA's final season in the Southland (2011-12), the Mavs set a school record with 16 straight victories, which included their first 15 league games. UTA went on to finish the season 24-9 and advance to the NIT.

A three-year letter winner at UT Arlington from 1995-98, Cross gained a reputation as both a fierce competitor on the court and a scholar-athlete off the floor. Cross appeared in 82 games for UTA as a player, including 58 in the starting lineup. As a senior, Cross averaged 11.9 points, 3.7 rebounds and 3.4 assists per game while converting a team-high 41.5 percent of his 3-point shots, second best in the Southland Conference.

In the classroom, Cross set the standard for UT Arlington basketball. He was a two-time GTE/College Sports Information Director of America Basketball Academic All-American, earning third-team as a junior and second-team honors as a senior. Cross graduated with a perfect 4.0 grade-point-average in marketing.

Cross is married to the former Jennifer Harris, and the couple has three sons, Austin, Cody and Tyler. Austin joined the Troy men's basketball team as a freshman for the 2024-25 season.

NEW CONFERENCE TOURNAMENT BRACKET

While the league will continue to take all 14 members to the Sun Belt Men's and Women's Basketball Championships and will maintain its seven-day tournament format, rest days will be eliminated from the postseason events.

In an effort to prioritize the value of the 18-game conference regular-season, the No. 1 and No. 2 seeds will now receive byes to the tournament semifinals. The No. 3 and No. 4 seeds will maintain byes to the tournament quarterfinals, which had previously been given to the top four seeds.

With the elimination of rest days, higher-seeded teams will no longer face a lower-seeded team coming off a rest day.

"The new Sun Belt Basketball Championship brackets will reward our top seeds for their accomplishments during the regular season, ensuring they receive the advantage they've earned for their on-court performance," said Sun Belt Conference Commissioner Keith Gill.

Women's basketball tournament games will be contested during the morning sessions each day, with games tipping off primarily at 11:30 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. Men's basketball tournament games will be played during the evening sessions, with games scheduled primarily at 5:00 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.

SUN BELT NATIONALLY TELEVISED GAMES

Four Sun Belt league matchups will be part of the wildcard appearances during 2025 portion of the schedule. The wildcard windows are Thursday, January 23 (9 p.m. ET / 8 p.m. CT, ESPN2), Wednesday, February 5 (9 p.m. ET / 8 p.m. CT, ESPNU), Saturday, February 15 (8 p.m. ET / 7 p.m. CT, ESPN2/ESPNU), and Friday, February 28 (9 p.m. ET / 8 p.m. CT, ESPN2/ESPNU). Game selections will be determined at a later date.

All games that are televised on an ESPN network will also be available on the ESPN App. In addition, every men's basketball conference game and home non-conference game within the Sun Belt will air on ESPN+.
