DEAR TROJANS:

The 2025-2026 year for TROY Athletics was highlighted by overall program consistency and sustained success for our athletes and coaches. This report provides a valuable snapshot of our progress.

We are one of the most competitive programs in the Sun Belt Conference. The headlines, however, focused on our baseball team. The Trojans finished the season with a trip to Omaha for the Men's College World Series, their first appearance in program history.

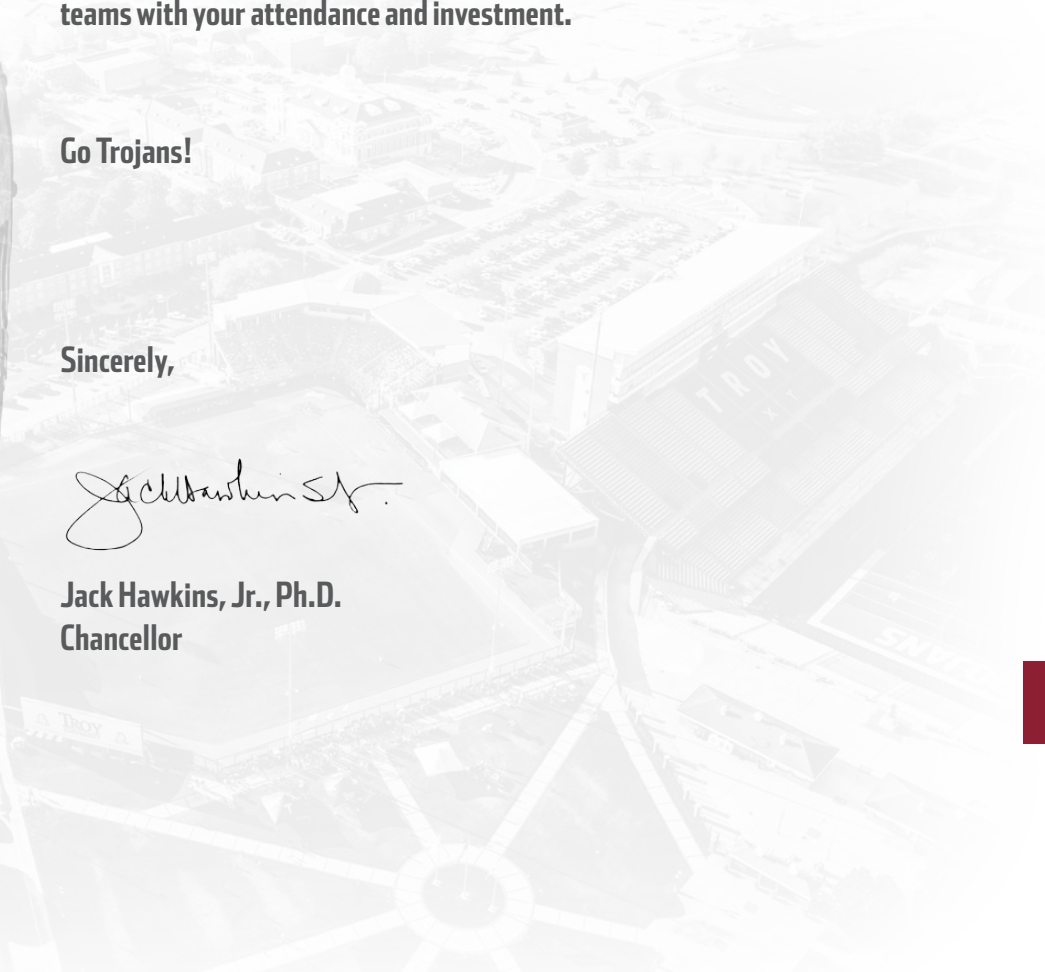

Our basketball programs made their marks as well. Our men's basketball team made the NCAA Tournament for the second year in a row, and our women's team made their first appearance in the WBIT. Our football team also returned to form, making a postseason appearance and playing for the conference championship.

In the classroom, 13 of our 15 sports posted a 3.0 GPA or higher. In fact, eight of our teams posted a 3.5 GPA or higher. We delve into these stories and more inside these pages. The future of TROY Athletics shines brightly. Please read this report carefully, and please continue to support our athletic teams with your attendance and investment.

Go Trojans!

Sincerely,

Jack Hawkins, Jr., Ph.D.
Chancellor

TROJAN NATION:

As we look back on the 2025-2026 athletic year, the word that I keep coming back to is “Grateful”. I am grateful to Chancellor Jack Hawkins, Jr. for the opportunity to lead this proud Athletics Department. I am grateful for the work put in by our coaches, staff and student-athletes that produced the most successful athletic year in our Division I history. And I am grateful for how all of Trojan Nation rallied together to support our student-athletes and make history, together.

This past year was filled with incredible success stories. We officially unveiled the brand-new Indoor Practice Facility in October 2025. Our football program won the Sun Belt West Division for the 3rd time in the last four years. Our women’s basketball program won 25 games and advanced to postseason play for the third consecutive year. Our men’s basketball program won 20 games for the 5th consecutive season and won back-to-back Sun Belt Regular Season and Postseason Championships on the way to their 2nd consecutive appearance in March Madness. And our baseball program made a magical run to Omaha with incredible victories in Gainesville, Florida to win an incredibly talented regional before hosting our first-ever Super Regional at Riddle-Pace Field in front of record-setting crowds.

Troy Athletics was the only Group of Six program to have our football program in a bowl game, our men’s basketball program in March Madness and our baseball program in an NCAA Regional. Truly historic by every account and the momentum continues to build as we prepare for the start of the 2026-2027 athletic year ahead.

Beyond the playing fields and courts, our student-athletes continued to make us proud in the classroom and the community. Collectively, our student-athletes had a 3.2 GPA for the Spring semester and 57 of our student-athletes were named to the Chancellor’s Honor List with a 4.0 GPA. Our student-athletes also produced the most community service hours in program history.

Your continued support, passion and generosity allow for us to make an impact in the lives of our student-athletes. Thank you for all that each of you do to support these young men and women. Thank you for making 2025-2026 one of our most successful years ever – here’s to more as we turn the page to 2026-2027 and I ask that you continue to invest in our success!

Go Trojans!

Sincerely,

Kyle George
Director of Athletics

Every college baseball season starts with a dream of Omaha ... For the first time in program history, Troy turned that dream into reality as the Trojans finished No. 6 in the country following its first-ever trip to the College World Series.

Led by Sun Belt Player of the Year and All-American Jimmy Janicki, Troy rallied through the loser's bracket in the Gainesville Regional, defeating Miami and Florida in consecutive games on Sunday, then coming back to defeat the 8th-ranked Gators again on Monday in the Regional Final.

Troy's first-ever Regional Championship led to even more history as the Super Regional took place at Riddle-Pace Field against Little Rock; Troy became just the eighth No. 3 seed to host a Super Regional.

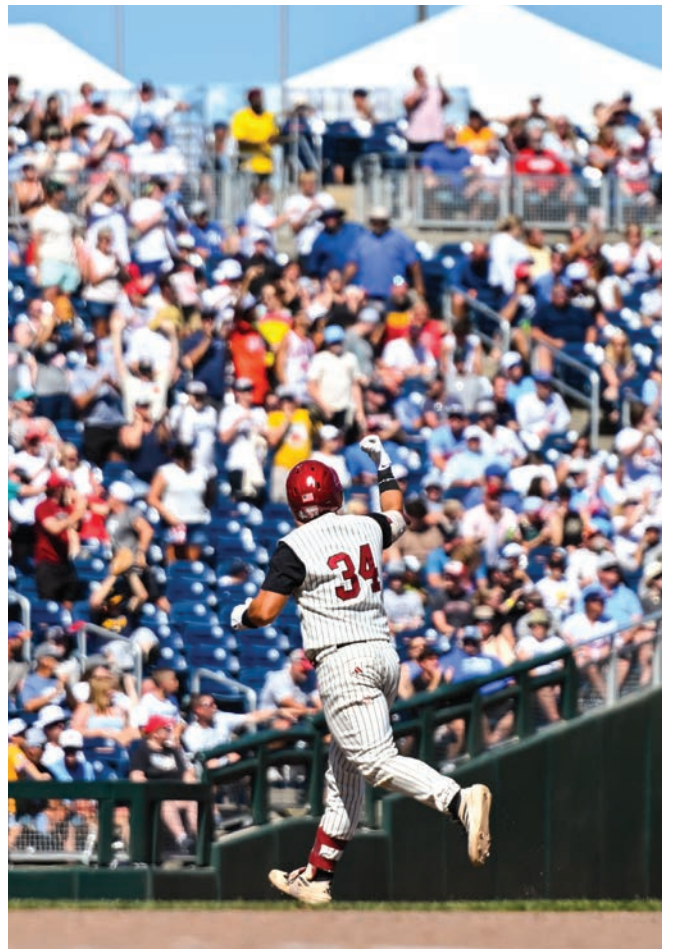

More than 14,000 fans packed Riddle-Pace Field and Tailgate Terrace as Troy swept Little Rock by a combined 19-4 margin to win the Troy Super Regional and advance to the College World Series.

In Omaha, Troy battled West Virginia in the opener before defeating Ole Miss, 12-8, to bounce the Rebels from the College World Series and hand Troy its first-ever victory at the CWS.

Troy finished the season with the nation's most difficult non-conference schedule, winning seven games over ranked opponents, including four wins over teams ranked inside the Top 10.

For the first time in program history, Troy made back-to-back appearances in March Madness after winning both the Sun Belt regular-season and tournament titles for a second straight season.

Led by Sun Belt Coach of the Year Scott Cross and All-Sun Belt selections Thomas Dowd and Victor Valdes, Troy finished with 22 wins - its fifth straight 20-win season -, including the highest-ranked KenPom win in program history (Nov. 18 at San Diego State). Troy earned the highest seed in program history as the No. 13 seed in the South Region.

Dowd finished the year ranked 10th nationally in double-doubles and 11th in rebounding, and he went on to set the program's Division I single-season rebounding record, while Valdes set the program's record for free-throw attempts.

In addition to the season-defining victory at San Diego State, Troy defeated Akron, an NCAA Tournament team, on national television in the backend of the SBC-MAC Challenge and took USC to triple-overtime, just two days after its triple-overtime affair with the Aztecs.

Second-year head coach Gerad Parker led Troy back to the postseason as the Trojans won the Sun Belt West Division title for a third time in four seasons, advancing to the Sun Belt Championship Game and eventually the IS4S Salute to Veterans Bowl.

Troy rolled off five straight wins to open Sun Belt Conference play, all against teams that had defeated the Trojans the previous year, including South Alabama in the “Battle for the Belt”.

Needing a victory in the final game of the season, Troy traveled to Hattiesburg, Miss., and defeated Southern Miss, 28-18, to finish league play 6-2.

The Trojans were led by a trio of All-Sun Belt First Team defenders in Donnie Smith, Jordan Stringer and Devin Lafayette, with Smith leading the Sun Belt and ranking 11th in the country in sacks. On special teams, Evan Crenshaw earned a pair of All-America first team honors, the first player in the program’s FBS history to earn multiple All-America honors.

Troy’s trip to Montgomery for the IS4S Salute to Veterans Bowl completed the Alabama cycle of bowl games for the Trojans (Birmingham, Mobile, Montgomery) – Troy is the only program in the country to play in all three Alabama bowl games. It was a fitting tribute to the late Johnny Williams, who helped lead Troy from Division II to Division I during his time as Athletics Director. Williams later created the bowl game in Montgomery, which began as the Camellia Bowl.

Chanda Rigby and making history at Troy go hand in hand, as the duo combined for another record-breaking season in 2025-26. On a personal level, Rigby won her 275th game at Troy, becoming the all-time winningest coach in Troy women's basketball history. On the team side, the Trojans played in the Sun Belt Tournament Championship Game and earned a berth in the WBIT (NCAA-sponsored tournament).

Troy finished the season ranked No. 13 in the Mid-Major Top 25, having swept Arkansas State in both regular-season meetings and again in the Sun Belt Tournament Semifinals.

Zay Dyer was named the SBC Defensive Player of the Year in a season in which she broke both the Troy career and single-season rebounding records and finished second nationally in double-doubles.

It was Troy's ninth postseason appearance in 15 years under Rigby, after Troy won just a single game in the season prior to her arrival. The Trojans played in the WNIT Championship Game in 2025, the WNIT Fab Four in 2024, and made their first-ever appearance in the WBIT in 2026.

TROY HIRES ADAM HOWARD AS MEN'S BASKETBALL HEAD COACH

One of the top assistant coaches in the country, Adam Howard begins his first season as Troy's head coach for the 2026-27 season; he is the eighth head men's basketball coach in Troy program history.

Howard brings 16 years of coaching experience to Troy and has built a reputation as one of the game's premier offensive minds and an elite recruiter. He was selected to participate in the 2023 and 2024 TopConnect Basketball Symposiums, an annual event featuring many of the nation's top assistant coaches.

Howard, who has participated in five NCAA Tournaments as a player and coach, begins his second stint as a Trojan, having served as an assistant coach with Troy from 2016-18, where he helped guide the Trojans to their first NCAA appearance in almost 15 years.

Howard joins the Trojans following one season at NC State, where he served as an assistant on Will Wade's staff, helping guide the Wolfpack to an NCAA Tournament appearance while overseeing the team's offense.

NC State ranked ninth nationally in 3-point percentage (38.8), 28th in 3-pointers per game (10.2) and 29th in scoring (83.2 points per game).

Prior to his time in Raleigh, Howard spent three seasons on Nebraska's bench under head coach Fred Hoiberg.

During the 2023-24 season, the Huskers finished 23-11, the second-most wins in program history, and earned their first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2014. Nebraska averaged 77.7 points per game, its highest mark since the 1995-96 season, and exceeded expectations after being picked 12th in the preseason Big Ten poll, finishing tied for third — its best conference finish in more than 30 years.

The season included two wins over top-10 opponents, highlighted by an 88-72 victory over No. 1 Purdue, the program's first win over a top-ranked team since 1982.

Prior to Nebraska, Howard spent four seasons at South Alabama from 2018-22, where he was promoted to associate head coach prior to his final season.

His defenses ranked among the nation's best, finishing in the top 50 nationally in each of his final two years. The Jaguars recorded 200 or more steals in multiple seasons and averaged nearly seven per game.

South Alabama posted a 75-51 record during his tenure after entering his arrival on a five-year stretch of losing seasons.

In his first season with the Trojans, Troy earned a bid to the 2017 NCAA, the program's first since 2003. The 22 wins were also the most since that year and a 13-win improvement from the year prior. Howard was instrumental in the development of Jordan Varnado and Wesley Person, who rank first and second on Troy's all-time scoring list.

Troy also posted the highest GPA among Sun Belt programs in both seasons Howard was on staff.

Prior to Troy, Howard spent the 2014 season at Tennessee, where he helped develop Josh Richardson. Richardson, a First Team All-SEC selection, was the 40th pick in the 2015 NBA Draft.

Howard was also responsible for signing Kevin Punter to the Vols, who was 12th in the nation in scoring as a senior and holds the Tennessee record for most points by a two-year player with 905.

Howard spent two seasons with Southern Miss from 2012-14, with the Golden Eagles compiling a 56-17 record with two postseason appearances during his time on staff. Winning a share of the Conference USA title, Southern Miss won a school record of 29 games during the 2013-14 season.

Howard began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Morehead State in 2009, and the following season was promoted to a full-time role.

In his second season on staff, the Eagles went 25-10 and earned a berth to the NCAA Tournament, where they upset No. 4-seeded Louisville in the first round. Two players from that Morehead State team went on to play professionally, including first round pick Kenneth Faried.

A four-year letterwinner, Howard played collegiately at Western Kentucky from 2004-08. He was part of three teams that advanced to postseason play, including a run to the Sweet 16 in 2008.

Western Kentucky won 96 games during Howard's four seasons, as he was a three-time recipient of the Danny Rumph Most Outstanding Teammate Award.

A native of Ashland, Ky., Howard and his wife, Renee, have two sons, Eli and Easton, and a daughter, Emma.

TROY HIRES JAKE WYMAN AS WOMEN'S SOCCER HEAD COACH

Troy has named Jake Wyman as the program's new women's soccer head coach after he led Montevallo to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances and three overall in his career with the Falcons, Director of Athletics Kyle George announced Thursday.

The 2019 Gulf South Coach of the Year, Wyman, led the Falcons to an 78-36-17 record, playing in one of the top NCAA Division II conferences in the country. Under his leadership, Montevallo advanced to the Gulf South Tournament Championship Game in each of the last three seasons and won a tournament title in 2019.

Wyman led the Falcons for seven seasons as head coach following a three-year run as an assistant coach. All told, 21 student-athletes earned All-Gulf South honors and 16 earned all-region honors during his tenure at Montevallo. The Falcons' three trips to the NCAA Tournament under Wyman were the school's first appearances in the NCAA postseason since 2008.

The Falcons set numerous records during his tenure leading the program, including a run of seven straight victories and 11 shutouts during the 2023 season, while their 15 goals allowed were the fewest in program history aside from the COVID-shortened 2020 campaign.

Wyman's six winning seasons rank as the most by any head coach in program history, and the 2020 squad posted the best start to a season in Falcons' history, which included victories over three nationally ranked opponents.

Montevallo is coming off a pair of seasons in which it posted a combined 27-13-5 record and made deep runs in the NCAA Division II Tournament.

Wyman led the 2019 squad to a Gulf South Tournament championship, the first for the program in 12 seasons. The Falcons posted a 10-2-1 conference record during the regular season, the most Gulf South wins in program history. Wyman was named GSC Coach of the Year for his efforts, while his coaching staff was named the South Region Staff of the Year.

Prior to taking over as head coach, Wyman served as an assistant coach for three seasons (2016-18), which included a run to the GSC title game in 2018.

He joined the Montevallo staff after serving as the director of the Clarksville Soccer Club in Middle Tennessee, in addition to assistant coaching roles at Austin Peay State (2011-14) and Lander University (2008-10).

Wyman played four years at Coker College, where he earned a bachelor's degree in exercise science in addition to a physical education degree from Lander University.

A native of Bradenton, Fla., Wyman and his wife, the former Morgan Rudolph, welcomed their first son, Malone, in January 2022.

TROY HIRES JD LAMM AS WOMEN'S GOLF HEAD COACH

Coming off a national runner-up finish at the NCAA Division II Men's Golf Championship and a first-place finish in stroke play at the NCAA Division II Women's Golf Championship, JD Lamm has been named Troy's head women's golf coach.

Lamm, who just completed his fifth season as head coach of both the men's and women's teams at Wingate, has led both Bulldog programs to historic seasons each of the last three years.

Lamm was named the 2026 NCAA Division II Southeast Region Men's Golf Coach of the Year as the Bulldogs captured their first South Atlantic Conference Championship since 2012, advanced through the NCAA South/Southeast Regional and finished as national runner-up at the NCAA Division II Men's Golf Championship.

Wingate posted a 281.90 scoring average, won five tournament titles and recorded six top-three finishes this past season. Lewis Beeden earned first team All-America honors and finished as the nation's No. 2-ranked golfer. The Bulldogs' run at the NCAA Championship included a record-breaking 19-under-par in the final round of stroke play.

Under Lamm's leadership, the Bulldogs' men's program reached the NCAA Championship quarterfinals three straight years, and the Bulldogs' women's team has made consecutive appearances in match play at the NCAA Championship.

The 2026 women's team featured the nation's No. 1-ranked player, Amely Bochaton, who won the NCAA Division II individual title by 13 shots, the first individual title in program history. Wingate won the stroke play portion of the NCAA Championship by 20 strokes, behind Bochaton's 13-under tally. The Bulldogs finished the season as the South Atlantic Conference Champions and the NCAA South Region Champions.

The men's and women's teams combined for 12 victories in the 2024-25 season, including the women capturing the SAC title. Lamm was named the SAC Coach of the Year on the women's side.

The 2024-25 season was highlighted by both teams having the National Freshman of the Year. On the women's side, Bochaton was named the WGA National Player and Freshman of the Year, while breaking Wingate and SAC single-season scoring records. She was named a first team All-American, alongside Jess Brown, who posted the second-best scoring average in program history. The two combined to win nine of Wingate's 13 tournaments on the season.

On the men's side, Brandon Skidmore was named the GCAA Phil Mickelson Outstanding Freshman. Skidmore was named a GCAA second team All-American, while Lewis Beeden earned honorable mention accolades.

The Wingate broke the team's scoring record each of his final four years, while the Wingate women broke the scoring record in each of his last three seasons.

Lamm joined the Bulldogs after a successful three-year run at Davis & Elkins College, culminating in advancing to match play at the 2021 national championships.

Lamm played collegiately at Pfeiffer University, where he graduated in 2013 with a major in sport management and a minor in athletic coaching.

After graduation, he served on collegiate coaching staffs at Pfeiffer, West Virginia Wesleyan and Davis & Elkins, while also serving as the assistant golf professional at Old North State Golf Club.

Immediately after graduating from Pfeiffer, Lamm remained at his alma mater for two years as the volunteer assistant coach, while also spending four years at Old North State Club as the assistant professional, where he provided golf swing instruction to members, ran junior golf camps and helped the club run several events, including the ACC Championship.

Lamm was named the head coach at West Virginia Wesleyan College in 2017 and was named the 2018 Mountain East Conference Women's Coach of the Year after securing a pair of wins and four runner-up finishes, including a second-place finish at the MEC Tournament championship.

Lamm was named director of golf at Davis & Elkins College in the fall of 2018. He led the men's team to a historic 2021 season, qualifying for the NCAA National Championship and advancing to medal/match play, making them the first team in league history to reach that stage.

He was named the 2021 Mountain East Conference Men's Golf Coach of the Year, leading the Senators to four victories, including the 2021 MEC Championship. Lamm also served on the Regional Advisory Committee for the women's golf East Region and was appointed to the Golf Coaches Association's All-Region and All-America committees.
