GAME NOTES

KIRKSVILLE, MO. – A pair of 1-1 teams and old MIAA foes square off when Truman State plays host to the Emporia State (Kan.) Hornets in Pershing Arena Wednesday, November 13.

The rivalry between Emporia State and Truman State dates back to a 76-70 Hornet victory in Emporia on January 25, 1992, with the Bulldogs trailing the series 30-13. The immediate history has been decidedly unkind to the Purple and White with a 1-9 record, including a current four-game losing streak, dating back to Truman State's final year competing in the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association (MIAA). A 77-70 victory in Pershing on January 28, 2012, was the last time Truman State got the better of the Hornets.

This will be the first look for the 'Dogs against Emporia State's first-year head coach Tom Billeter. Billeter, the 18th men's basketball head coach in Hornet history, arrived at Emporia State after 21 years at the helm of NCAA Division II Augustana (S.D.) University where he guided the Vikings to a 393-224 record, nine NCAA Tournament berths and three Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference (NSIC) regular season championships to go with two NSIC tourney titles.

The Bulldogs enter the game after opening the season at the GLVC/G-MAC Challenge November 8-9 with a win over Cedarville (Ohio) University, 79-72, but falling to the University of Findlay (Ohio), 97-73.

Double-Figure Games

In the season's first game against the Yellow Jackets, the 'Dogs fought back after being down as many of 14 in the first half. Trailing 38-28 at half, Truman State came out in the second tallying 14 of the first 19 to close the gap. Sophomore guard Kobi Williams scored five consecutive points to give the Purple and White the first lead of the game, 64-62, with five minutes and change to play in the contest.

The 51-point second half came via 57 percent shooting from the field, including 7-11 from behind the arc, with Truman State outscoring Cedarville 20-10 as the game wound down.

Williams finished with 24 points, including four of eight from three-point range, in 34 minutes of play to pace the Bulldogs in the victory. Senior guard Trey Shearer tossed in 15 with three three-pointers of his own while junior guard Xavier Hall added six assists to his 13 points. Redshirt junior forward Landon Eiland led the 'Dogs in boards with six.

Findlay, leading 47-43 at the half, put together a 16-2 run after Williams got the second going with a bucket to pull away and leave Truman State with its first loss of the season, 97-73. Down 52-47 with 17:03 to play, the 'Dogs couldn't keep Findlay from scoring across the next 10 to see the gap widen to 63-47 before Quientan McCafferty nailed a three-pointer. The Oilers eventually climbed to a 30-point advantage as the clock ticked to within three minutes to play.

Shearer scored 20 points in the loss going 7-8 from the floor with six three points in seven attempts while Williams notched his second-consecutive game in double digits with 19 points. McCafferty's nine points led all other Bulldog scorers in the loss.

Emporia State, like the Bulldogs, split its opening weekend with a 67-66 loss to Wayne State and 83-69 win over Northern State University (S.D.) at the Hillyard Tipoff Classic. Junior guard Malik Edwards, Jr., paces the Hornets with 14.0 PPG followed by sophomore guard Brayson Laube and sophomore forward Dallas Bear at 13.0 and 10.5 PPG, respectively.

Truman State will be idle for a week following Emporia State before welcoming the Northeastern State (Okla.) University River Hawks to Pershing Arena at 6 p.m. Wednesday, November 20.

JEFF HORNER

Head Coach // 7th Season At Truman
105-67 (.610) Overall // 75-42 (.647) GLVC

Jeff Horner begins his seventh season at the helm of the Truman State Men's Basketball squad after securing his second GLVC Coach of the Year award following the 2023-24 season. The Bulldogs, picked to finish dead last by GLVC coaches during the preseason, went 11-4 over the course of the final 15 games to claim the #4 seed in the conference postseason tournament. While the season ended in a 72-70 loss at #5 seed

William Jewell (Mo.) College, Truman State nabbed postseason awards for Horner, Freshman of the Year and All-Freshman team Kobi Williams (sophomore, guard), and Second Team nods to Xavier Hall (junior, guard) and Trey Shearer (senior, guard).

Horner oversaw a three-year period where the Bulldogs would go 63-21 (.750), win two regular season championships (2019-20, 2021-22), one GLVC Tournament Championship (2019-2020), three NCAA Division II Tournament appearances including a #1 seed in the Midwest Region (2020-21), and Truman State's second run to the NCAA Division II Elite Eight by a team that finished 20-3 (2020-21) 21 years after the Purple and White finished the '98-99 season as NCAA Division II runners up.

An inauspicious debut season saw Horner's cagers go 14-15 in 2018-19, but the Bulldogs would find their stride under his guidance en route to a 23-8 overall record and share of the Regular Season Championship the following season. Truman State and conference co-champs Missouri-St. Louis both finished 14-4, but Truman State was able to defeat the Tritons in both the regular season matchup as well as the GLVC Championship Game to win Truman's first regular season conference title since 1978-79 and first conference tournament championship since 1998-99.

The Bulldogs reeled off ten wins in twelve games to jump to the top of the GLVC standings despite the 2019-20 campaign starting 1-3 in defense of the league crown. A thrilling 71-68 win over #7 Missouri Southern kicked things off as Brodrick Thomas hit one of the most famous shots in Truman history by draining a 30 footer at the final buzzer to elevate Truman to victory. Under Horner's guidance, Thomas would collect numerous awards - including GLVC Player of the Year, GLVC Tournament MVP, D2 All-Region by the D2CCA and was named to the D2 All-District team by the NABC.

The 2020-21 season was Horner's best posting a 20-3 mark with a trip to the NCAA Elite Eight. The Bulldogs claimed the #1 seed in the Midwest Region, defeated #5 Ashland University, 82-63, and #2 Michigan Technological University, 65-62, to qualify for the Elite Eight where they fell 70-69 to Flagler (Fla.) College. Horner's three losses in 2020-21 were to NCAA Division I Indiana State in an exhibition, University of Indianapolis in the GLVC Tournament, and Flagler in the NCAA Tournament. Cade McKnight was tabbed as an NABC All-American, GLVC Player of the Year, and Midwest Regional MVP.

Truman's success carried over into 2021-22 to finish 20-10 and qualify for a third-consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament. The Bulldogs bowed out of the GLVC Tournament after a quarterfinal loss to University of Indianapolis but managed to secure a #5 seed in the NCAA Tournament and Midwest Regional opening round matchup against #4 seed and GLVC foe University of Missouri-St. Louis, which resulted in a 73-68 to end another solid season for Truman. McKnight lowered the curtain on his Bulldog career being named an NABC All-American and First Team All-GLVC.

The 2022-23 was a step back, with the Bulldogs going 12-16 overall and 7-13 in Great Lakes Valley Conference play. Forward Elijah Hazekamp was named First Team All-GLVC after leading the team in points (15.0) and rebounds per game (7.5).

Horner, named the 13th head coach in Truman State University's Men's Basketball history on April 24, 2018, arrived in Kirksville with a sterling hoops resume. He played his high school basketball at Mason City High School for his father, Bob, where he was named Mr. Basketball for the state of Iowa in 2002 and earned a spot in the Iowa High School Hall of Fame in 2014.

Horner played his college ball as a four-year starter for the University of Iowa (2002-06) capping his time in the Black and Gold by being named the Big Ten Tournament's Most Outstanding Player as a senior after Iowa defeated Ohio State in the title game. Horner was also a two-time Third-Team All-Big Ten honoree, a two-time team MVP, and two-year team captain. He is second all-time in assists (612) and three-pointers made (262) at Iowa while his 1,506 career points are just outside the program's top 10 list.

Horner made four stops in the professional ranks - including Bree, Belgium (2006-07), Paris, France (fall 2007), the Iowa Energy of the NBA G League (2007-08), and Antibes, France (2008-09) - before embarking on a coaching career with four years at Division I University of North Dakota as the director of operations for one season (2014-15) and assistant coach for three (2015-18).

Cade McKnight, a two-time all-American, was a key piece of the team that won the 2021 NCAA Midwest Regional Championship game.

Brodrick Thomas was the 2020 GLVC Player of the Year and played in the NBA with Houston, Cleveland and Boston
