GAME NOTES

KIRKSVILLE, Mo. – After coming up empty in Minnesota, the Truman State Women's Basketball team returns to Pershing Arena for the first time for the 2024-25 season with back-to-back home games against Washburn (Kan.) and Quincy (Ill.).

The Bulldogs couldn't break through on their most recent road swing through Minnesota. Last Friday Concordia St. Paul downed Truman State 68-57 despite 17 points each from Jordan Cunningham and Molly Joyce. The next day at Winona State, the Warriors used an 11-0 run in the closing stages of the fourth quarter to overtake and then pull away for a 70-64 loss. Joyce scored 23 points followed by Maddie Niemeier with 15 and Bryar Duwe with 13.

Joyce continues her hot start with 21.3 points per game mark. She leads the team with 10 three-pointers made and is 21-of-25 from the foul line. Joyce also paces the team with eight steals.

Three other starters are also averaging in double-figures. Niemeier is shooting 55% from the floor and averaging 12.3 points per night, Cunningham averages 11 points and is the leader in minutes (34.5) and assists (12). Duwe has been in double-digits in all four games. Lexie White is the fifth starter and is tied with Cunningham with four blocks while averaging 4.3 points a contest.

It will be Washburn's first trip to Kirksville in 12 seasons as the Ichabods last played on the Pershing Arena court in February of 2012 when both schools were members of the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association. Washburn dominated the MIAA years with a 42-9 all-time mark against the Bulldogs.

GAME NOTES

The team's played a non-conference game in Topeka, Kansas in November 2017 with the Ichabods winning at the buzzer 68-67.

It will also be a bit of a homecoming for Washburn head coach Lora Westling, who served as the assistant coach for Michael Smith from 2010 through 2013 and helped the Bulldogs to their first 20-win season (20-8 in 2013) in 13 years. Westling is now the coach of her alma mater where she helped the then Lady Blues win a Division II National Championship in 2005.

The Quincy match-up will be counted as a non-conference game as the Great Lakes Valley Conference schedule has only one contest between the two schools this season. That game will take place in Quincy on Saturday, January 25. The Hawks snapped the Bulldogs 12-game winning streak against them by sweeping Truman State in the two games last year. Quincy won 78-75 in January and 92-89 in late February.

Through four games, Truman State has averaged 69 points offensively and allowed 65 points per night. The Bulldogs make around seven three-pointers and 12.5 free throws per game. In other stats, the squad has averaged 12.8 assists and 13.3 turnovers per game.

Off the bench, five additional players have played in all four games thus far. Emma Bulman (20.2 mpg) and Gracie Neff (14.2 mpg) have been the first two off the pine this season. Mallory Ott, McKenna Williams and Katelyn Odem are the other players who have played in each game.

About the Opponents:

Washburn ran away in the second quarter with a 24-8 burst to pick up their first victory of the season over William Jewell 80-58 on Tuesday night. Payton Sterk scored a game-high 25 points for the Ichabods with Gabi Giovannetti adding 18.

Washburn is 1-2 against GLVC teams this season, losing last weekend to McKendree (88-83) and Quincy (70-67). Their other two defeats were at the hands of Southwest Minnesota State (82-72) and St. Cloud (Minn.) State (63-51).

Yiibari Nwidadah leads the Ichabods in scoring at 17.2 points per night followed by Sterk at 14.6 and Giovannetti at 12.6.

Last season, Washburn posted a 13-16 overall mark and an 8-14 ledger in the MIAA. They were picked ninth in the preseason media poll and 10th in the coaches' poll.

Quincy is 3-1 on the young season as they joined the Bulldogs in sweeping Ursuline and Cedarville in the first weekend of action and defeated Washburn on Saturday 70-67. The Hawks are a +16 in rebounding margin.

Nicole McDermott has been the leading scorer thus far at 17.8 points per game followed by Taylor Haase at 11.8. McDermott has nearly half of the team's offensive rebounds with 24 and 24 of 27 from the free-throw line.

Quincy garnered 109 points to tie with Missouri-St. Louis in the GLVC coaches' poll in seventh position. They were 10-18 a year ago with a 9-13 record in the conference.

Up Next:

The Bulldogs return to Springfield, Missouri for the Drury Thanksgiving Classic. Again, back-to-back games on the docket with Newman (Kan.) on Tuesday and Arkansas Fort-Smith on Wednesday.

Truman State returns to Pershing Arena for the Saturday following the holiday facing Rockhurst (Mo.) in the first GLVC game of the season.

THEO DEAN

Head Coach // 6th Season At Truman
84-57 (.596) Overall // 62-36 (.633) GLVC

Theo Dean begins his fifth season at the helm of the Truman Women's Basketball team.

Dean has been a part of the program in some capacity for over ten years. He was a student manager and graduate assistant from 2010-14; Dean then returned to Kirksville to become the full-time assistant and recruiting coordinator from June 2016-August 2019. Dean was promoted to interim head coach on August 23, 2019, and on January 13, 2020, after a 9-3 start to the season, including a school-record five-game winning streak to start Great Lakes Valley Conference play, the interim tag was removed, and Dean became the 11th full-time head coach in program history and the first African-American head coach in school history.

By increasing fan and alumni involvement with a fast-paced style of play, Dean's impact on the program has been very evident over the past four seasons, and fans of Truman Women's Basketball have seen continued success for the Bulldogs' program.

Since his return to Truman in 2016, Dean has coached 22 All-GLVC performers (10 being named to the First Team), two Freshman of the Year selections, four 1,000-point scorers, one 1,000 rebounder, two WBCA All-Americans, one D2CCA All-American, six CoSIDA/CSC Academic All-District selections, three D2CCA All-Midwest Region selections, one Academic All-American, one GLVC Player of the Year and one GLVC Women's Basketball Female Student-Athlete of the Year. Dean has also coached over 55 Academic All-GLVC players and has coached three WBCA Academic Top 25 teams (2019, 2021 & 2023).

Overall, Dean has been on the sideline with the Bulldogs for five of the program's eight 20-win seasons, one Great Lakes Valley Conference tournament title, two Great Lakes Valley Conference tournament championship games, three NCAA Tournaments appearances, and one NCAA Tournament victory.

After graduating from Truman, Dean assisted the Lansing (Kansas) High School Boys Basketball program from 2014-16. Dean was the assistant coach to the father of former First Team All-GLVC performer, GLVC Conference Champion, and former Bulldog Associate Head Coach, Amy Briggs. While at Lansing, Dean focused on guard development for the boys' team, overall player development for the girls' team and also supervised the team managers, implementing a hustle and shot chart system into practices and games. In his first year at Lansing, he helped lead the 2014-15 team to the Kansas Substate Championship game, and Dean was then promoted to top assistant in his second season.

A Chicago, IL native, Theo Dean came to Truman in 2008 as a freshman and received his Bachelor of Fine Arts in Visual Communications degree from Truman State University in 2012 and his Master's degree in Leadership, with a concentration in Coaching and Sport Management, from Truman in 2014.

Dean, his wife, Presley (who also holds Bachelor's and Master's degrees from Truman), their son, Theo IV, and their daughter, Mina, reside in Kirksville.
