Ty Evans was named the 12th head coach of the Tennessee State University women's basketball program in August 2020.

"Words can't possibly convey the level of happiness, excitement, and gratitude that I feel as a result of being named the next women's Head Basketball Coach at Tennessee State University," said Evans. "This moment is a culmination of many years of preparation, hard work, sacrifice, disappointment and prayer, and it's a journey that I wouldn't change. Thanks to Dr. Allen, President Glover, and the entire selection committee for entrusting me with this opportunity and to the entire "Big Blue" family, specifically my players, it's time to ... #PressPlay."

Evans took over the reigns at TSU after spending eight years at SEC member Auburn. During his stint with the Tigers, he served as associate head coach from 2015-20 and assistant coach from 2012-2015. Evans helped guide the team to two NCAA Tournament appearances.

Prior to his tenure at Auburn, he served two years at Georgetown before accepting a position at Alabama in 2007.

Evans began his collegiate coaching career at Saint Louis University where he served as an assistant coach during the 2001-02 season. After a season coaching professionally, he returned to SLU for two more seasons.

Evans spent the last decade making a name for himself in the Southeastern Conference (SEC). In his first season with Auburn, he helped lead the Tigers to 19 wins, the most in four years, and an appearance in the Women's NIT quarterfinals. Auburn set a school record with 402 steals during the 2012-13 season while forcing 701 turnovers, a mark that ranks second all-time on The Plains.

In his fourth season, Evans helped to advance the Tigers to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2009 and post a 20-13 overall record. Evans helped Auburn to its second consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance and a 17-15 overall record in season five. Two seasons later, Auburn experienced its best season in 10 years, finishing 22-10 and earning their third trip to the NCAA tournament in four years.

At Alabama, Evans coached the post players and helped his players earn All-SEC honors in three of his five seasons. He was also instrumental in coaching the Crimson Tide to a WNIT Sweet 16 appearance in 2011, the team's first post-season trip since 2002.

Also heavily involved in recruiting, Evans brought national attention to Alabama in 2010 and 2011 after securing top-20 recruiting classes both years. Prior to Alabama, Evans served two years at Georgetown. During that stint, he was instrumental in the recruiting and re-building efforts that would eventually turn Georgetown into a perennial NCAA Tournament team.

Evans is a 1995 graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater where he was an All-American and served as team co-captain for two years. He received a bachelor's degree in secondary education.

ABOUT TSU

- TSU is one of three NCAA Division I HBCUs that competes outside of the MEAC or SWAC
- Of the four D-1 schools in Nashville (TSU, Belmont, Lipscomb and Vanderbilt), TSU is the only public university
- Notable alumni include: Oprah Winfrey, Anthony Mason (NBA), Robert Covington (NBA), Dick Barnett (NBA), Richard Dent (NFL), Dominique Rodgers-Comar-tie (NFL), Wilma Rudolph (Olympian), Anthony Levine (NFL)

CAREER NIGHT FOR DAVIS: Tatyana Davis had a career night with 29 points in a loss at SIUE last Thursday. Earlier in the year, Davis set a then career-high with 25 points against Tennessee Tech. Davis leads the Lady Tigers with 13.6 points per game.

ROARING 20S FOR ADAMS: Gia Adams finished with 22 points in the loss to Eastern Illinois on Saturday. Adams has reached 20 or more points four times this season. Her season-best of 23 points was achieved in the overtime win over Tennessee Tech on Dec. 30. Adams is second on the team in points (13.4) behind Davis.

CLAYTOR'S CREATIONS: Through seven OVC games, Dominique Claytor has been the most consistent scorers for the Lady Tigers, averaging 12.7 per game. Claytor has reached double figures in six of seven games.

WITH THE WIN: TSU now has 10 wins on the season for the first time since the 2016-17 season, the final season under then head coach Larry Inman. The Lady Tigers have won five of their first six OVC games for the first time since the 2014-15 team that advanced to the NCAA Tournament. That team would drop its next four games before a 10-game winning streak (seven in OVC play and three in the OVC Tournament).

THE CRIME DOG: Lacy Robins finished with a career-best 14 points along with five steals off the bench in 21 minutes at SEMO. Robins shot 66 percent from the field in the contest and drilled a pair from the outside. Her defensive play stood out the most as scored half of her points off her own steals.

LADY TIGERS SWEEP SEMO: A regular-season sweep of the Redhawks hasn't happened since the 1996-97 season, when TSU won on the road 82-54 on Jan. 6, 1997 and then 84-70 at home on Feb. 1, 1997. TSU has defeated SEMO twice in a season since then, but it was during the 2008-09 season when TSU played SEMO once in the regular season, a 70-54 win and then in the OVC Tournament, a 77-66 win.

DUO CLAIMS OVC WEEKLY AWARDS: Sierra McCullough and Gia Adams each took home weekly awards, as announced by the league on Monday. McCullough, the transfer from UNC Charlotte, McCullough nearly recorded a double-double with 11 points and eight boards in the game with Murray State. She shot 66.7 percent from the floor and went 3-for-4 from the line. McCullough also had two assist and two steals. The junior is averaging 4.3 points per game and set a season-high in the previous contest at Murray State.

Adams claimed her second freshman award and led Tennessee State with 22 points in the game with Murray State. She shot 50 percent from the floor, including hitting a trio of three-pointers. She also had one assist and one steal. Adams leads the Lady Tigers in scoring this season at 13.5 points and assists 2.6 per game.

PARKER CLAIMS OVC FRESHMAN AWARD: Parker averaged 16.0 points to help Tennessee State improve to 4-0 in OVC play and extend its winning streak to six straight games. She had a season-high 18 points in the win over Southeast Missouri and also had 14 points in the victory over UT Martin. Parker shot 75 percent from the floor and 75 percent from beyond the arc last week. She also had 2.5 assists and 2.5 steals per game.

Through 15 games, Parker is averaging 8.7 points, 3.1 rebounds, 2.5 steals and 1.9 assists. Parker is shooting 46 percent from the field and 72 percent from the line.

ON PACE: With the win over SEMO, TSU has now won its first four Ohio Valley Conference games this season, the first time the team has started 4-0 since the 1993-94 season. The program has never won its first five OVC games to start a season. The six-game winning streak is only the fifth time in program history the team won six games in a row.

DOUBLE DIGIT LEADERS: Since entering OVC play, three players are averaging double figures for the Lady Tigers. Tatyana Davis had a great showing in the first week of league play and leads the squad with 15.7

points per OVC game. Gia Adams is second at 14.0 and was instrumental in all three games from the free throw line where she has knocked down all 10 chances from the stripe. Dominique Claytor (14.7) led the team to victory against UT Martin with 19 points and knocked down all seven free throws attempted.

DAVIS NAMED NEWCOMER OF THE WEEK:

Tatyana Davis was named the OVC Newcomer of the week after she Tatyana Davis averaged 21.0 points per game to aid the Lady Tigers to a 2-0 mark to start OVC play. Davis set a career-high with 25 points in the overtime win over Tennessee Tech on Dec. 30. She then led the team again with 17 points in a road win at Morehead State. Davis shot 64 percent from the field, 50 percent from downtown and 75 percent from the free throw line.

WHAT HAPPENED WHEN...: The win over Morehead State moved Tennessee State to 2-0 in the OVC and a 7-6 overall mark. This is the first time the Lady Tigers have started league play undefeated since the 2014-15 season under then-head coach Larry Joe Inman when the team advanced to their NCAA Tournament. The win gives TSU its seventh victory, which is the most total wins this early in the calendar since the 1994-95 team under the direction of former coach and AD Teresa Phillips. That team won seven of its first eight games plus its first two OVC contests, en route to a 22-7 margin and TSU's second appearance in the NCAA Tournament. With a win next Thursday against UT Martin, TSU has a chance to win its first three-straight OVC games since the 1993-94 season when the team won four consecutive to begin conference play. That season culminated with TSU's first-ever appearance in the NCAA Tournament under Phillips.

SHOT HEAR ROUND THE OVC: Gia Adams sank a half-court buzzer-beater to defeat Tennessee Tech on Thursday evening. Adams sent the game to overtime with three free throws as the clock expired. Adams finished with 23 points and a perfect 5-of-5 from the free throw line. Adams' winning basket was featured as No. 4 on ESPN SportsCenter's Top 10 Plays of the Night.

DAVIS DELIGHTS: Tatyana Davis set a new career-high with 25 points on 11-of-15 from the field. Davis was one of five players to play 33+ minutes in the win.

HATTER CHAMPS: After TSU's first contest of the 34th Annual Hatter Classic against VCU was canceled due to the COVID-19 protocols within the VCU team, the Lady Tigers came out and defeated event hosts Stetson, 60-56. Gia Adams led the team with 13 points while Alexis Pierce and Tatyana Davis each had 10 points in the win. TSU led by as many as 15 late in the contest, but Stetson made an attempted comeback late in the fourth quarter only to be stopped by Sierra McCullough's free throws with one second remaining.

NATIONALLY RANKED D: In his second season at the helm, Ty Evans has his Lady Tigers siting near the top of the NCAA leaderboard in steals, steals per game and forced turnovers. As of Dec. 28, the Lady Tigers are second in steals per game (14.6), third in total steals (116) and eighth in forced turnovers per game with 23.8.

SUPERB NON-LEAGUE FOR ADAMS: Gia Adams leads the Lady Tigers in points through the first 11 games of the season. Adams has reached double figures in nine of 11 games with her season-best to date of 21 points in a tough loss to Kansas City on Dec. 12. The rookie from Houston has played 20 or more minutes in all 11 games this season and has one double-double which she grabbed on Nov. 9, a season-opening win over Fisk.

IT'S TATY TIME: Tatyana Davis is making the most of her final season of college basketball with 12.8 points per game through 11 non-league contests. The Toledo graduate has reached double figures in eight of 11 out-of-conference games with a season-high of 20 points against Chattanooga. Davis is second in minutes played heading into OVC play at 27.5 minutes per contest. Only Gia Adams has more minutes played (28.4).
