2018-19 SEASON PREVIEW

► AT A GLANCE

The Brian "Penny" Collins era is officially underway at Tennessee State University.

The first-year head coach – and former TSU staffer – takes over the program following successful assistant coaching stops at Illinois State and East Tennessee State. Collins, a native of Nashville, has also served as an assistant at Cumberland and the head coach at Columbia State.

Collins began his coaching career as a graduate assistant under Cy Alexander at TSU in 2007-08 and also worked as the Director of Operations in 2008-09.

► STATE OF THE PROGRAM

TSU is coming off a 15-15 overall record including a 10-8 mark in Ohio Valley Conference regular season games in 2017-18.

Over the last three years, TSU has won 52 games – one of the best three-year runs in the program's Division I history. The school record for wins in a three-year stretch in the Division I era is 56 games from 1978-81.

It was the first time TSU has finished with a .500 record or better in three-consecutive seasons since accomplishing the feat in four-consecutive seasons from 1992-96.

► THE SCHEDULE

This year's schedule includes non-conference tests at Kentucky, Memphis, Vanderbilt, Western Kentucky and Akron, among others.

The Collins Era at TSU kicks off with an Oct. 31 home exhibition game versus Tennessee Wesleyan before officially getting underway with the season opener on Nov. 10 at Lipscomb.

The 30-game regular season schedule includes 13 home games and 17 road games with stops in California, Maryland, Ohio, Kentucky, Missouri, Alabama and Tennessee.

The 2019 Ohio Valley Conference Men's Basketball Tournament is scheduled for March 6-9 in Evansville, Ind.

► THE RETURNERS

Collins brings back six players who saw the floor for TSU a year ago. The leading scorer among TSU's returners is redshirt junior guard Kamar McKnight, who posted 8.5 points per game a year ago. Starting point guard Armani Chaney is back for his senior season after putting up 7.8 points, 3.7 assists and 3.1 rebounds per game.

Also returning to the mix are senior Stokley Chaffee Jr. (3.1 ppg, 3.9 rpg), redshirt juniors Jalen Duke (1.7 ppg) and Tripp Davis (0.9 ppg), and redshirt sophomore Daniel Cummings (1.5 ppg).

Players who sat out last season at TSU as redshirts are Donte Fitzpatrick-Dorsey, Dave Morris, Demarcus Mitchell and Dalion Henderson.

► THE NEWCOMERS

The first recruiting efforts for Collins at TSU netted a number of highly-touted newcomers. Junior college forwards Emmanuel Egbuta (Navarro College) and Damarri Moore (Southwest Tennessee CC) will be joined by guards Monty Johal (Glendale HS) and Michael Littlejohn (Southwest Tennessee CC) on the court this season.

A local player, Jy'lan Washington out of Smyrna, Tenn., will sit out the 2018-19 season at TSU per NCAA transfer rules after transferring from Louisiana Tech. The 6'9 forward will have one year of eligibility remaining.

Founded in 1912, Tennessee State University has grown dramatically from a small college to two campuses: the 500-acre main campus and the downtown Avon Williams campus which is located in the heart of Nashville near the State capitol.

The diverse student population of more than 9,000 represents 46 states and 45 countries. TSU has been listed for 11 consecutive years in the U.S. News & World Report "Guide to America's Best Colleges."

Tennessee State University is a comprehensive, urban, coeducational land-grant university offering 45 bachelor degrees and 24 master's degrees. Doctoral programs include biological sciences, psychology, public administration, computer information systems engineering, administration and supervision, and curriculum and instruction. When you think about Tennessee State University, many things come to mind – a rich heritage and legacy in athletics, academics, entertainment, research and service.

Tennessee State University has long been a rising star among universities across the country. It is designated as one of the best public historically black colleges and universities in the nation, and it's not by accident.

Tennessee State University is among the few historically black colleges and universities (HBCUs) with a chapter of Phi Eta Sigma, the oldest and largest freshman honor society in the United States and a Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society, the most prestigious honor society comprising all academic disciplines.

A great deal of focus has been given to improving the academic environment – strengthening our research reputation, attracting and retaining the best and brightest students, encouraging service-focused programs, engaging and supporting expert faculty in diverse fields, building on our student-centered philosophy and holding steadfast to our motto of "Think. Work. Serve."

THINK

SERVE

Today, Tennessee State University's student enrollment is more than 9,000.

There are more than 400 faculty and more than 1,200 staff who are part of the university's team.

Additionally, the university's rich strength in embracing diversity is evident with 45 countries and 46 states representative of the student body.

The beauty and accessibility of the university's main campus is a plus with now 65 buildings on more than 450 acres.

Complimenting the main campus is a newly renovated downtown campus that features a simulated stock-trading center, a student computer laboratory and continuing education, distance learning and multimedia services.

The university is arming students with the intellectual resources to compete in a global environment. In support of that, important partnerships have been established with leading global companies such as Boeing, Raytheon, Dell, IBM and others, in which both funding and service-learning opportunities are currently active.

The DAVIS BUILDING is topped by its landmark cupola and houses the Department of Languages, Literature and Philosophy and the Thomas E. Poag Auditorium. The building, which once housed the administrative offices, is named after TSU's second president Dr. Walter S. Davis.

KEAN HALL, a simplified Art Deco style gymnasium erected in 1951 at a cost of $1,500,000 was dedicated Wednesday, November 25, 1953.

The structure is located on the south side of the campus at John Merritt Boulevard and 33rd Avenue, North and is named after former TSU Football head coach and Athletic Director, Henry A. Kean.

The building contained at the time of its construction: a gymnasium, health, physical education and recreation classrooms, laboratories, staff offices, and facilities for indoor intramural sports, staff and student recreation and physical therapy. The building was vacated in 1980 when the HPER moved to the new Gentry Center Complex.

The $300,000 renovation, approved in 1986-1987, connected the building to the Floyd-Payne campus center in 1991. The building became a recreational facility for the general campus population. It also serves as the headquarters for the Air Force ROTC, TSU Athletics and the academic and Hall of Fame.

The PERFORMING ARTS CENTER is located adjacent to the east side of the existing Strange Music Building. The facility houses the Theater, Television, Radio and Music Departments and includes a complete renovation of the Strange Music Building.

A performance theater seating for 400 was constructed as part of the new building. Theater department spaces include classrooms, support spaces and offices. Rehearsal and production facilities are provided for television and radio departments, as well as offices and support areas.

The music department has new laboratory facilities, practice rooms, classrooms, offices and an expanded band practice room and support facilities. The project included approximately 30,400 sq. ft. of renovated space (the Strange Music Building) and 43,000 sq. ft. of new construction.

The FLOYD-PAYNE CAMPUS CENTER contains various student and administrative offices, campus bookstore, post office, and dining services. The Center is named after former TSU student and fifth president, Otis L. Floyd, and long-time Dean of Students and Vice-President of Student Affairs, Joseph A. Payne.

The BROWN-DANIEL LIBRARY was erected in 1976 and opened for service during the summer of 1977.

This present structure has 82,000 square feet of space with special study and research facilities for faculty and graduate students, and a Special Collections Room which houses the University's historical archives, theses, dissertations, and other special materials. The library is named in memory of Library Directors, Martha M. Brown and Lois H. Daniel.

The AVERITTE AMPHITHEATER located in the center of campus; landscaped and has permanent seating for 200. The structure is named after Laura M. Averitte, author of Tennessee State University's alma mater.

DR. GLENDA GLOVER

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

Tennessee State '74

Dr. Glenda Baskin Glover serves as President of Tennessee State University in Nashville, Tennessee, a position she has held since January 2013. Under her leadership as president of TSU, student enrollment, alumni fundraising, and research dollars have significantly increased.

Dr. Glover's educational development began as a student at Tennessee State University, where she majored in mathematics. After graduating with a Bachelor of Science degree, she pursued the Master of Business Administration from Clark Atlanta University. She then completed her doctorate in business from George Washington University, and later completed her law degree from Georgetown University. She is a certified public accountant, an attorney, and is one of two African American women to hold the PhD-CPA-JD combination in the nation.

Her past employment also includes high-level positions in the corporate sector as she is among few women to rise to the heights to serve on corporate boards of publicly traded corporations. These include Pinnacle Financial Partners, The Lenox Group, Citigroup-Student Loan Corporation and First Guaranty Bancshares, where she chairs the audit committee, and is experienced in corporate governance.

Dr. Glover is the recipient of numerous awards and honors, is a member of several professional and civic organizations, and is the author of more than one hundred articles and papers. She is regarded as one of the nation's experts in economics and finance. Dr. Glover is married to Charles Glover and they are the parents of two adult children, Attorney Candace Glover and Dr. Charles Glover II.

TERESA PHILLIPS

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Vanderbilt '80

Teresa Lawrence-Phillips became head of the Tennessee State University athletics department in April of 2002. As director, the athletic department has made tremendous strides on the playing field, campus, community and classroom.

Some accomplishments under the Phillips' administration include the launching of the first official website for TSU Athletics in August of 2002, increased sponsorships for the Division of Athletics, the recognition of Ohio Valley Conference Scholar Athletes, the awarding of the NCAA Pilot Grant, the construction of an Indoor Practice Facility, athletic facility upgrades, football's return to Hale Stadium, several conference and tournament championships in women's basketball, volleyball and women's track as well as a PGA Minority National Championship in men's golf.

Phillips also has the distinction of being the first woman ever to coach an NCAA Division I men's basketball team en route to being named one of the 101 Most Influential Minorities in Sports by Sports Illustrated in 2003. During the 2014 Women's Final Four, she was named as a one of 10 Legends in Women's Basketball in Tennessee.

She was also recognized as the Second Most Influential Woman in Sports in Tennessee by The Tennessean newspaper. In addition, she was named USA Today National Coach of the Year in 1990 and was a three-time OVC Coach of the Year selection.

No stranger to athletic success, she was head coach of the Lady Tigers basketball program at TSU for 11 seasons from 1989-2000. Phillips guided the 1993-94 squad to the program's first-ever OVC regular season crown, the Ohio Valley Conference tournament championship, and the team's first appearance ever in the NCAA tournament.

Phillips and her staff enjoyed their most successful season in 1994-95 as the Lady Tigers (22-7, 12-4 OVC) shared the regular season title. TSU claimed its second consecutive tournament title and a trip to the NCAA tournament. She has been invited twice to serve as an assistant coach for USA Basketball (1995 and 1999) and was invited to serve as an assistant coach for the U.S. Olympic Festival North Squad.

Prior to her stint at TSU, Phillips was head coach at Fisk University for four years guiding the Bulldogs to two WIAC League and Tournament Championships and being tabbed WIAC Coach of the Year twice.

She graduated from Vanderbilt University with a bachelor's degree in Economics before obtaining a Masters in Education from TSU in 1999. Phillips, who helped recruit six All-Americans and seven All-State players, served as an assistant coach with the Lady Commodores (1981-1984) winning the N.I.T. in 1983.

Phillips earned several honors as a three-year letter winner at Vanderbilt. She was the first recipient of the Lady Commodore Athlete of the Year honor, given to the best all-around female athlete. She also has the honor of being the first African-American female student-athlete at Vanderbilt.

Community oriented, Phillips has been appointed to several boards and committees which include: NCAA Basketball Rules, NCAA Championship Cabinet, NCAA Administrative Cabinet, the NCAA HBCU Advisory Board, the NCAA W. Basketball Selection Committee, Fellowship of Christian Athletes Board, Boys & Girls Club Board, the Vanderbilt Alumni Advisory Board, the Nashville Final Four Executive Board, the Girls Preparatory School Alumni Board, the Nashville Dinner of Champions Committee and the Executive Board of the Nashville Sports Council.

She has held memberships in several organizations, including the Black Coaches Association, the Women's Basketball Coaches Association and Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.

She is an inaugural member of the Girls Preparatory School Sports Hall of Fame, the Lookout Mountain Sports Hall of Fame and was honored in 2016 with the prestigious Betty Probasco Lifetime Achievement Award. In September 2017, she was inducted into the Vanderbilt Athletics Hall of Fame. She has two young adult sons, Micah and Kyle.

Now in its 71st year, the Ohio Valley Conference continues to build on the success that has made it the nation's eighth-oldest NCAA Division I conference.

In May 2011 the Conference expanded for the second time in four years, adding Belmont University which began competition in the 2012-13 academic year. The addition of Belmont gave the OVC 12 members, the most the league has had at one time in its illustrious history. The move added a second team in the city of Nashville and was the first addition to the league since Southern Illinois University Edwardsville joined in 2008. Subsequently, the league has shown its stability over the past decade, seeing only one member institution depart over the past 18 years.

The 2009-10 school year saw a change in leadership as Beth DeBauche was named the seventh full-time Commissioner in league history on July 28, 2009. The last three commissioners of the OVC have moved onto jobs as the commissioner of the Big Ten, Big 12 and the Mid-American Conferences.

The OVC's proud history dates back to 1948, but seeds for the new league were actually planted in 1941. It was then that Roy Stewart, the athletics director at Murray State, Charles "Turkey" Hughes, the athletics director at Eastern Kentucky, and Kelly Thompson, the public relations director at Western Kentucky, first broached the idea of forming a new conference. Discussions were put on hold by World War II, but reemerged February 27-28, 1948 at the Kentucky Hotel in Louisville as the three original institutions combined with Morehead State, Louisville and Evansville to form the OVC.

In the 1950s, the OVC became a pioneer on a much more significant scale socially. During times of racial segregation, league member Morehead State became one of the first non-traditionally black mid-southern institutions to accept a black student. In 1958 Marshall Banks earned athletically-related aid at Morehead, which signed a second black athlete, Howard Murphy, a year later. In 1961 Murphy earned all-conference recognition as a halfback in football. With racial barriers broken, the rest of the institutions in the league began to provide educational and athletic opportunities to African-Americans.

A first in the OVC occurred in 2008, when the league had a first round draft pick in both the NFL (Tennessee State's Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie) and Major League Baseball (Eastern Kentucky's Christian Friedrich) Drafts in the same school year.

The Ohio Valley Conference sponsors the following sports: baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis and track for men, and basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, tennis, track and volleyball for women. In addition, the OVC also sponsors the combined men's and women's sport of rifle.

Now in its seventh decade of competition, the Ohio Valley Conference has grown significantly from its humble beginnings while increasing the number of athletics opportunities it provides for students. Current league representatives include charter members Eastern Kentucky University, Morehead State University and Murray State University, along with Austin Peay State University, Belmont University, Eastern Illinois University, Jacksonville State University, Southeast Missouri State University, Southern Illinois University Edwardsville, Tennessee State University, Tennessee Technological University and the University of Tennessee at Martin.

GENTRY CENTER

ABOUT THE GENTRY CENTER

Gentry Complex is a multi-purpose arena on the campus of Tennessee State University.

The arena opened in 1980. It is home to the TSU basketball teams. This facility was built in 1980 and named for Howard C. Gentry, Sr., who, during a 27 year span, served as a prominent professor, coach and athletic director at TSU.

The facility houses the Department of Health, Physical Education and Recreation and has a basketball arena, dance studio, indoor track, indoor Olympic pool, (4) racquetball courts, and a training and weight room.

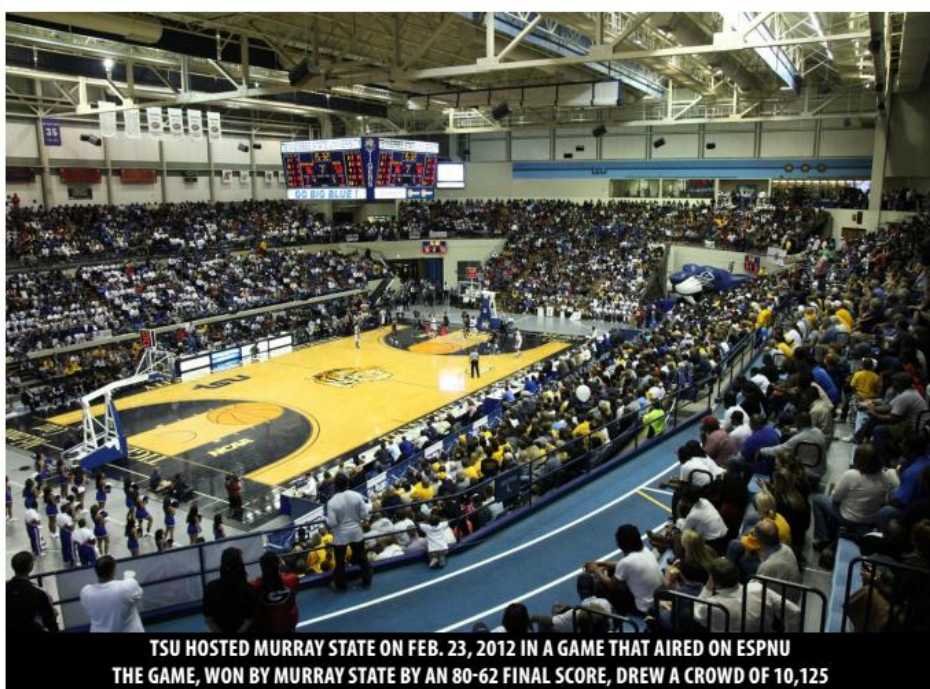

Throughout its history, the Gentry Center has had a capacity as big as 10,500. Beginning in 2017-18, the capacity is 9,100.

The McLendon Court was named in honor of TSU and legendary Basketball Hall of Fame head coach John B. McLendon.

The court was dedicated on Feb. 22, 1992 when the Tigers hosted Eastern Kentucky.

In August of 2015, the old court was replaced with brand new floorboards.

The first TSU men's basketball game at the Gentry Center was a 97-79 win over Austin Peay on Dec. 1, 1980. The official attendance for the first game was 6,000.

BRIAN "PENNY" COLLINS

HEAD COACH

1st Season

Belmont '06

PATH TO TSU

"It means the world to me to be the Head Coach at TSU. Once I decided to get into the business, my eyes were always set on this job. To have the opportunity to not only unite an institution, but also a city where I grew up in, is priceless. This is truly a dream come true that I will not take for granted."

- Brian "Penny" Collins

Brian "Penny" Collins was officially named the Head Coach of the TSU men's basketball program on March 26, 2018. A proven winner as a coach and player with deep ties to the city of Nashville, Collins is the 18th head coach in program history.

A former member of TSU's coaching staff, Collins spent the 2017-18 season as an assistant coach at Illinois State under Dan Muller. In his lone season in Normal, Ill., Collins helped propel the Redbirds to an 18-15 record and a berth in the Missouri Valley Conference Championship Game. Collins' teams have played in their conference's championship game in each of the past five seasons.

He served as an assistant coach at East Tennessee State during the 2015-16 and 2016-17 seasons in a span when the Buccaneers went 51-20. During his time in Johnson City, Tenn., Collins got his first taste of the NCAA Tournament from a coaching perspective when the Bucs won the Southern Conference Tournament Championship in 2017 – earning a 13 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

A former standout during his playing career at Belmont, Collins got his start in the coaching industry as a graduate assistant at TSU under then-head coach Cy Alexander during the 2007-08 season. He became TSU's Director of Basketball Operations in 2008-09.

Collins moved on to work as the assistant coach at Cumberland University (NAIA) in Lebanon, Tenn. for three seasons.

In his first head coaching experience, Collins led Columbia State, a community college in Columbia, Tenn., from 2012-15. His tenure at Columbia State was highlighted by back-to-back NJCAA National Tournament appearances, including runs to the Elite Eight in 2014 and the Sweet 16 in 2015. Collins was named 2014 Tennessee Community College Athletic Association Coach of the Year and 2015 NJCAA District 7 Coach of the Year after winning the Region 7 Championship.

Collins, who played his high school basketball at nearby Whites Creek, starred at Belmont for Rick Byrd. Then a member of the Atlantic Sun Conference, Collins served as a co-captain for the Bruins in their first-ever NCAA Division I Tournament appearance during his senior year in 2006. Collins, who was a four-year starter, scored 1,199 career points and graduated as Belmont's all-time leader for assists and steals in the Division I era.

He played professionally for the Kouvot Bears in Finland and the Bakersfield Jam of the NBA Development League.

Collins graduated from Belmont in 2006 with a bachelor's degree in physical education. He went on to earn his master's degree in sports administration from TSU in 2009.

Collins is married to Lakeya Collins and has one son, History.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT BRIAN "PENNY" COLLINS

"We welcome Coach Brian Collins to take the helm, and take us to the next level. Coach Collins returns to make his mark on the program, bringing experience and hometown knowledge, all of which will help with recruiting local talent and getting TSU to post season play. This is great day for TSU Athletics and the TSU family, and our fans deserve it."

- Tennessee State President Dr. Glenda Glover

"I am extremely pleased to have one of our own as our new head men's basketball coach. Coach Collins will bring fresh enthusiasm to our program as well as an energy to the Gentry Center that is much needed. He is a thinker, leader, motivator and competitor – all attributes that lend well to success in this business. He is here to build champions and win championships."

- Tennessee State Director of Athletics Teresa Phillips

"I've known Penny since he was in high school, and I've always admired his passion for the game, his confidence and his work ethic. The one year I had him here, he was outstanding. He really was excellent in every aspect of the job. He's an elite recruiter, and our players loved him. Unbelievable with scouting reports, game management, in practice and because he's been a head coach, he had a great amount of confidence in himself. Any new Division I head coach has a learning curve and you have to gain the experience, but I think Penny is an absolute star in this business. He's exactly what TSU needed."

- Illinois State Head Coach Dan Muller

"Brian 'Penny' Collins is an outstanding coach, an outstanding person and most importantly, he is a tremendous husband and father to Keya and History. He played a significant role in our success at ETSU the past three years, and I know he will bring the same amount of excitement to Tennessee State. In the years to come, TSU will look back on this day and realize the hiring of Brian 'Penny' Collins was a slam dunk!"

- East Tennessee State Head Coach Steve Forbes

"All of us in the Belmont community are happy for Brian and proud of his accomplishments. We're excited for what he has in store for TSU and what it will mean for the Ohio Valley Conference. He's a bright, energetic, hardworking, young coach and a really, really good hire for Tennessee State."

- Belmont Head Coach Rick Byrd

"Penny has got a chance to be a great head coach. He has experience beyond his years, has worked for great coaches and won championships. It's a great hire."

- Auburn Head Coach Bruce Pearl

"I think it's very exciting not only for him, but for the city of Nashville. I am very confident that he'll be able to get the players in there to win at Tennessee State. He's more than prepared for the job, and he will be successful."

- Memphis Head Coach Penny Hardaway

BEN WALKER

ASSISTANT COACH

1st Season

Creighton '01

A coaching veteran with experience at the Division I and junior college levels, Ben Walker joined the Tennessee State men's basketball staff in May of 2018. Making his way to Nashville from South Dakota State University, Walker will serve as an assistant coach on Brian "Penny" Collins' first staff at TSU in 2018-19.

"Coach Walker brings a wealth of experience to the Big Blue," Collins said. "Coming here from South Dakota State where he helped the Jackrabbits to back-to-back NCAA Tournaments, is exactly the winning attitude we need. His energy and personality are very infectious and he will fit perfect here with our guys. He's an elite recruiter and has built many great relationships in many regions we want to recruit from. He is also a great father and husband. We are excited to add Ben and his family to our family here in Nashville."

In his two seasons at South Dakota State, Walker helped guide the Jackrabbits to back-to-back Summit League Tournament Championships, resulting in two NCAA Tournament berths. SDSU also won the 2017-18 Summit League Regular Season Championship.

"I am excited to continue my coaching journey at TSU," Walker said. "I look forward to working with the coaching staff to help propel our men's basketball program to reach new heights and set new precedents. We have a great group of guys here. I am eager to work on developing them to be the best players on the court and the most well-rounded people in life that they can be."

South Dakota State posted a 46-24 record over the last two seasons as Walker worked closely with the development of two-time Summit League Player of the Year and Associated Press All-American Mike Daum.

Prior to his time at South Dakota State, Walker served as an assistant coach at Jackson State during the 2015-16 season, a year in which the Tigers went 20-16 and qualified for the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament.

Walker previously coached at the junior college level, winning conference titles and making national tournament appearances at both Des Moines Area Community College (Iowa) and Butler Community College (Kan.).

As a standout player for Creighton (1997-01), Walker's teams reached the postseason every year and put together an 87-37 record in his four seasons. A four-year starter who appeared in 124 games for the Bluejays, Walker ranks in the top 10 in Creighton history for steals and rebounds. Walker earned Missouri Valley All-Defensive Team honors and helped the Bluejays reach the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) and three straight NCAA Tournaments. He was inducted into the Creighton University Athletic Hall of Fame in 2010.

He went on to play professionally overseas in leagues in Qatar, Latvia, Australia and Norway. In Latvia, he was an All-Star selection and Most Valuable Player in 2005. Walker also suited up for the Sioux Falls Skyforce and Gary Steelheads of the Continental Basketball Association (CBA) and had tryouts with the Milwaukee Bucks and Indiana Pacers of the National Basketball Association (NBA).

Walker and his wife Jana have one daughter (London) and two sons (Ben Jr. and Kobe).

Walker graduated from Creighton in 2001.

JERRY NICHOLS

ASSISTANT COACH

1st Season

Arkansas State '06

Jerry Nichols joined the Tennessee State men's basketball staff as an assistant coach in April of 2018. Nichols arrives in Nashville after five highly-successful seasons as the Head Coach of Southwest Tennessee Community College in Memphis.

Nichols was previously the Head Coach at Motlow State Community College and served as a court coach for the USA Basketball Under 18 Junior National Team in 2016.

"Jerry Nichols is a coach that I have the utmost respect for," Collins said. "We got to know each other as rivals in Region 7 of the Tennessee JUCO League. His teams at Motlow and Southwest were special. He has a knack for getting the most out of his players. His high basketball IQ, energy and determination will be exactly what our team needs to take the next step. He has recruited and coached some of the best JUCO players in the country. He also has experience coaching with USA Basketball. Jerry will help us become a force in recruiting wars right away."

A native of Memphis, Tenn., Nichols compiled a 200-59 career record in nine seasons as a junior college head coach – winning five Tennessee Community College Athletic Association Coach of the Year honors. Guiding Motlow State from 2009-13, his teams went 80-31. He took over at Southwest Tennessee prior to the 2013-14 season, going 120-28 in five seasons from 2013-18.

"I'm really excited about this new opportunity," Nichols said. "I've known Coach Collins for years. I had the opportunity to coach against him when he was the coach at Columbia State, and we definitely had some epic battles. I'm excited about working with him here at TSU."

Nichols won two TCCAA Coach of the Year awards at Motlow State, serving as the head coach and athletics director. His best season with the Bucks came in 2012-13 when his team won the TCCAA Championship and earned a berth in the NJCAA National Tournament. Motlow State finished 13th in the final NJCAA Division I poll in 2013.

Moving on to Southwest Tennessee, Nichols continued to thrive, picking up three more TCCAA Coach of the Year awards. Nichols' Saluqis finished 18th or better in the final NJCAA Division I polls in four of his five seasons. Twice Southwest finished 11th, including the 2015-16 season, when the Saluqis went 30-5 and earned a berth in the NJCAA Elite Eight.

With USA Basketball's U18 Junior National Team, Nichols helped coach the squad at the 2016 FIBA Americas U18 Championships in Valdivia, Chile which featured eight national teams from North, South and Central America and the Caribbean.

Nichols began his coaching career as an assistant coach at Walters State Community College during the 2006-07 season before heading to Union College in Kentucky for the 2007-08 and 2008-09 seasons.

As a player, Nichols starred for Westwood High School in Memphis and went on to become a two-time All-American guard at Walters State Community College. The two-time TCCAA Player of the Year ranked ninth in the nation in scoring with 21.6 points per game as a sophomore. Nichols continued his education and playing career at Arkansas State, where he led the team in three-point shooting and was named the team's top defensive player during his junior season. He was the recipient of ASU's Leadership Award as a senior.

Nichols graduated from Arkansas State in 2006 and earned his master's degree from Union College (Ky.) in 2009.

RUSS WILLEMSSEN

ASSISTANT COACH

1st Season

Lee (Tenn.) '04

Russ Willemsen enters his first season as an Assistant Coach on the TSU Men's Basketball staff in 2018-19. The Rushville, N.Y. native with ties to the Nashville area arrives at TSU after serving as an assistant at South Alabama for the last five seasons.

Prior to his time in Mobile, Ala., Willemsen spent eight seasons on staff at Tennessee Tech.

"I've known Russ for over 10 years going back to when I first got into the business," TSU Head Coach Brian "Penny" Collins said. "He will bring a wealth of knowledge to TSU from his experience at Tennessee Tech. He is very familiar with the league from his time at Tennessee Tech. We expect Russ to have a big-time impact on our guys and is a key piece of our staff."

Willemsen joins Ben Walker and Jerry Nichols as assistant coaches for the Tigers on Collins' first staff at TSU.

"I'm very excited about the opportunity to work with Coach Collins here at Tennessee State," Willemsen said. "He's had a lot of success as a head coach and an assistant coach. We have a great staff in place. Jerry Nichols has been one of the best junior college coaches in the country consistently, and Ben Walker has been to two-straight NCAA Tournaments. It's an opportunity you can't say no to. My wife's family is from Nashville, so it will be great to be here with family. Nashville's a great city, and Tennessee State is a great school. It's an opportunity I couldn't pass up."

During his time at South Alabama, the Jaguars had four All-Sun Belt Conference honorees and reached the Sun Belt Tournament quarterfinals twice. USA also posted a 42-31 home record in his five seasons to go with a number of tough road wins including at UNLV.

Willemsen worked closely with two-time All-Sun Belt selection Ken Williams, who scored 1,723 career points and set a school record with 253 made three-pointers.

During Willemsen's run at Tennessee Tech, the Golden Eagles won 19 or more games in a season four times, including a 20-win campaign in 2010-11 that resulted in an appearance in the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament. The Golden Eagles followed up with 19 wins in 2011-12 and another invite to the CIT.

His first two years on staff ended with a total of 38 wins as Tennessee Tech claimed 19 victories in each of the 2005-06 and 2006-07 seasons and went a combined 26-14 (.650 win percentage) in Ohio Valley Conference play.

While on staff, he coached 12 All-OVC performers, including one NBA draft pick (Kevin Murphy) and two others who made NBA Summer League rosters. The Golden Eagles also had four named to the OVC All-Tournament Team.

In addition to his on-court duties, Willemsen served as camp director and oversaw the team's academic progress. His work helped the program to the 2007 and 2008 OVC Academic Achievement Award.

He spent his first season at Tech as the director of basketball operations where he coordinated team travel, produced recruiting materials and coordinated film exchange.

Willemsen started in the coaching field as an undergrad at his alma mater, Lee University in Cleveland, Tenn. He served on the staff for four seasons as a student-assistant before moving into a part-time role in 2004-05. The Flames had six players named to NAIA All-America teams and advanced to the round of 16 and quarterfinals of the NAIA National Tournament during his five seasons.

A regular contributor to CollegeChalktalk.com, Willemsen also wrote the introductory article for the site's series on John Wooden, Pyramid Tribute: In Memory of John Wooden. He has also written articles for BasketballHQ.com.

Willemsen earned his bachelor's degree in 2004 in physical education and history education from Lee and a master's in instructional leadership in 2007 at Tennessee Tech. Willemsen is married to his wife, Sarah.

MATT RICHARDSON

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

1st Season

Tennessee '14

Matt Richardson is in his first season as the Director of Basketball Operations for the Tennessee State men's basketball program in 2018-19 after spending the 2017-18 as TSU's Video Coordinator. Richardson's duties including coordinating travel, budgeting, video exchange, academic support and other day-to-day duties.

The Tennessee native, who played basketball at nearby Ravenwood High School, arrives at TSU after serving as a Graduate Assistant Coach for the University of Pittsburgh men's basketball team for the 2016-17 season. During his time at Pitt under Head Coach Kevin Stallings, Richardson focused on player development, recruiting and scouting.

Richardson began his coaching career as an assistant coach at Benet Academy High School in Illinois during the 2014-15 season. He also worked summer basketball camps at Vanderbilt during his time in high school and college.

Richardson graduated from the University of Tennessee in 2014 with a degree in Journalism and Electronic Media.

JOSH BONE

VIDEO COORDINATOR

1st Season

Tennessee '11

Josh Bone joined the Tennessee State men's basketball staff as the Video Coordinator prior to the start of the 2018-19 season. Bone is responsible for the breakdown of game video, aids in scouting opponents and coordinating film exchange.

The former University of Tennessee guard arrives at TSU with experience at a number of different levels.

Following his collegiate career, Bone played professionally for three seasons, including one in Germany. He went on to coach two seasons at Antioch High School in Tennessee founded BFG Elite – an AAU Organization based out of Nashville.

A graduate of nearby Brentwood Academy, Bone began his collegiate career at Southern Illinois University, helping the Salukis reach the 2007 Sweet 16 as a freshman and leading the Salukis in three-point shooting as a sophomore.

Transferring to the University of Tennessee, Bone was part of two NCAA Tournament teams under Bruce Pearl. The Volunteers made the Elite Eight in 2010 and the Round of 64 in 2011 in Bone's two seasons on the court in Knoxville.

Bone is married to Lutece Bone. The couple has two daughters, Jersey and Jayce.

He graduated from the University of Tennessee in 2011 with a bachelor's degree in psychology.

2017-18 SEASON REVIEW

► The Tennessee State men's basketball team finished the 2017-18 season with a 15-15 overall record including a 10-8 mark in Ohio Valley Conference regular season games.

► Over the last three years, TSU has won 52 games - one of the best three-year runs in the program's Division I history. The school record for wins in a three-year stretch in the Division I era is 56 games from 1978-81.

► It was the first time TSU has finished with a .500 record or better in three-consecutive seasons since accomplishing the feat in four-consecutive seasons from 1992-96.

► The Tigers posted a 9-5 record at home at the Gentry Center, the team's third-consecutive winning record in home games.

► The Tigers earned the sixth seed in the Ohio Valley Conference Tournament, falling to Eastern Illinois by a 73-71 final score in the first round at the Ford Center in Evansville, Ind.

► Redshirt junior forward Christian Mekowulu earned Ohio Valley Conference Defensive Player of the Year. It is the third-consecutive season TSU has won the award after Tahjere McCall secured the honor in each of the last two seasons.

► Christian Mekowulu also earned Second Team All-OVC honors.

► It is the third year in a row TSU has won a major award and placed at least one player on the All-Conference team.

Mekowulu's 46 blocks on the season were the most for a TSU player since 2010-11 when Michael Green finished with 52.

► TSU won three OVC Weekly Awards: Christian Mekowulu - Player of the Week (12/4/17 and 1/29/18); Kamar McKnight - Co-Newcomer of the Week (2/12/18).

► Delano Spencer made 85 three pointers on the season. It is the most for TSU since 2006-07 when LaDarious Weaver made 93. Spencer is the first Tiger to lead the team in made three pointers in back-to-back seasons since 2009-10 and 2010-11 when Jacquan Nobles accomplished the feat.

► The Tigers won seven games in a row during OVC play. It marked the third-consecutive season with a winning streak of six or more games.

► Defensively, TSU allowed just 67.0 points per game. That is the lowest for TSU since giving up 66.6 points per game during the 2011-12 season.

► Tennessee State appeared on national television five times against #4/3 Kansas (ESPNU - 11/10/17), RV/RV Texas (ESPN2 - 12/18/17), #16 Purdue (Big Ten Network - 12/21/17), UT Martin (CBS Sports Network - 12/28/18) and Eastern Illinois (CBS Sports Network - 1/11/18). TSU also played one game on ESPN3 against Kennesaw State (ESPN3 - 11/25/17).

► Dana Ford, who was the Head Coach at TSU for four seasons - 2014-18, accepted the head coaching job at Missouri State on March 21, 2018. He leaves TSU with a 57-65 record. His .467 winning percentage is the second best among coaches in TSU's Division I era, while his 57 wins are fourth among TSU's D-1 coaches.

► Brian "Penny" Collins was named the 18th Head Coach in TSU men's basketball history on March 26, 2018.

JOHN McLendon

John B. McLendon, Jr. (April 15, 1915 – October 8, 1999) is noted as one of the most successful high school and college coaches in the sport of basketball.

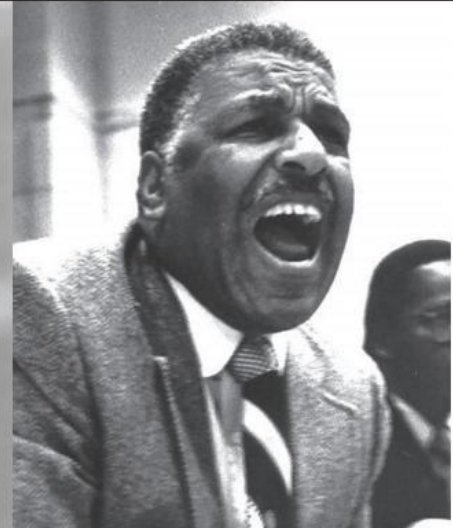

McLendon coached at schools such as Tennessee State A&I University North Carolina College, the Hampton Institute, Kentucky State College, and Cleveland State University.

While at North Carolina College, McLendon participated in The Secret Game, the first collegiate basketball contest where blacks and whites competed on the same floor.

He was a three-time winner of the NAIA Coach of the Year award, and won three consecutive NAIA championships at Tennessee State, making him the first college basketball coach ever to have won three consecutive national titles. When he was hired at Cleveland State in 1966, he became the first African American basketball coach ever at a predominantly white university.

McLendon also coached professionally, when Cleveland Pipers General Manager, Mike Cleary hired him to be the head coach of the American Basketball League team which was owned by George Steinbrenner. McLendon's hiring made history, as he became the first African-American head coach in professional sports. In his, and the Pipers, only season in the league, the team captured the league championship. McLendon later went on to coach the American Basketball Association's Denver Rockets.

McLendon was first inducted into the Basketball Hall of Fame as a "contributor," not as a coach. He was, however, selected in 2007 for the second entering class of the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame for his coaching achievements. He was also inducted into the Tennessee State Athletics Hall of Fame in 1983 and the Cleveland State Athletics Hall of Fame in 2007, where his wife Joanna accepted the award on his behalf.

ED MARTIN

As a head coach at TSU, Ed Martin's Tigers finished the 1972-73 regular season as the top ranked Associated Press National College Division and won 290 games for the historic basketball program.

Ed Martin currently holds the longest coaching career as the Tigers' head basketball coach serving for 17 years.

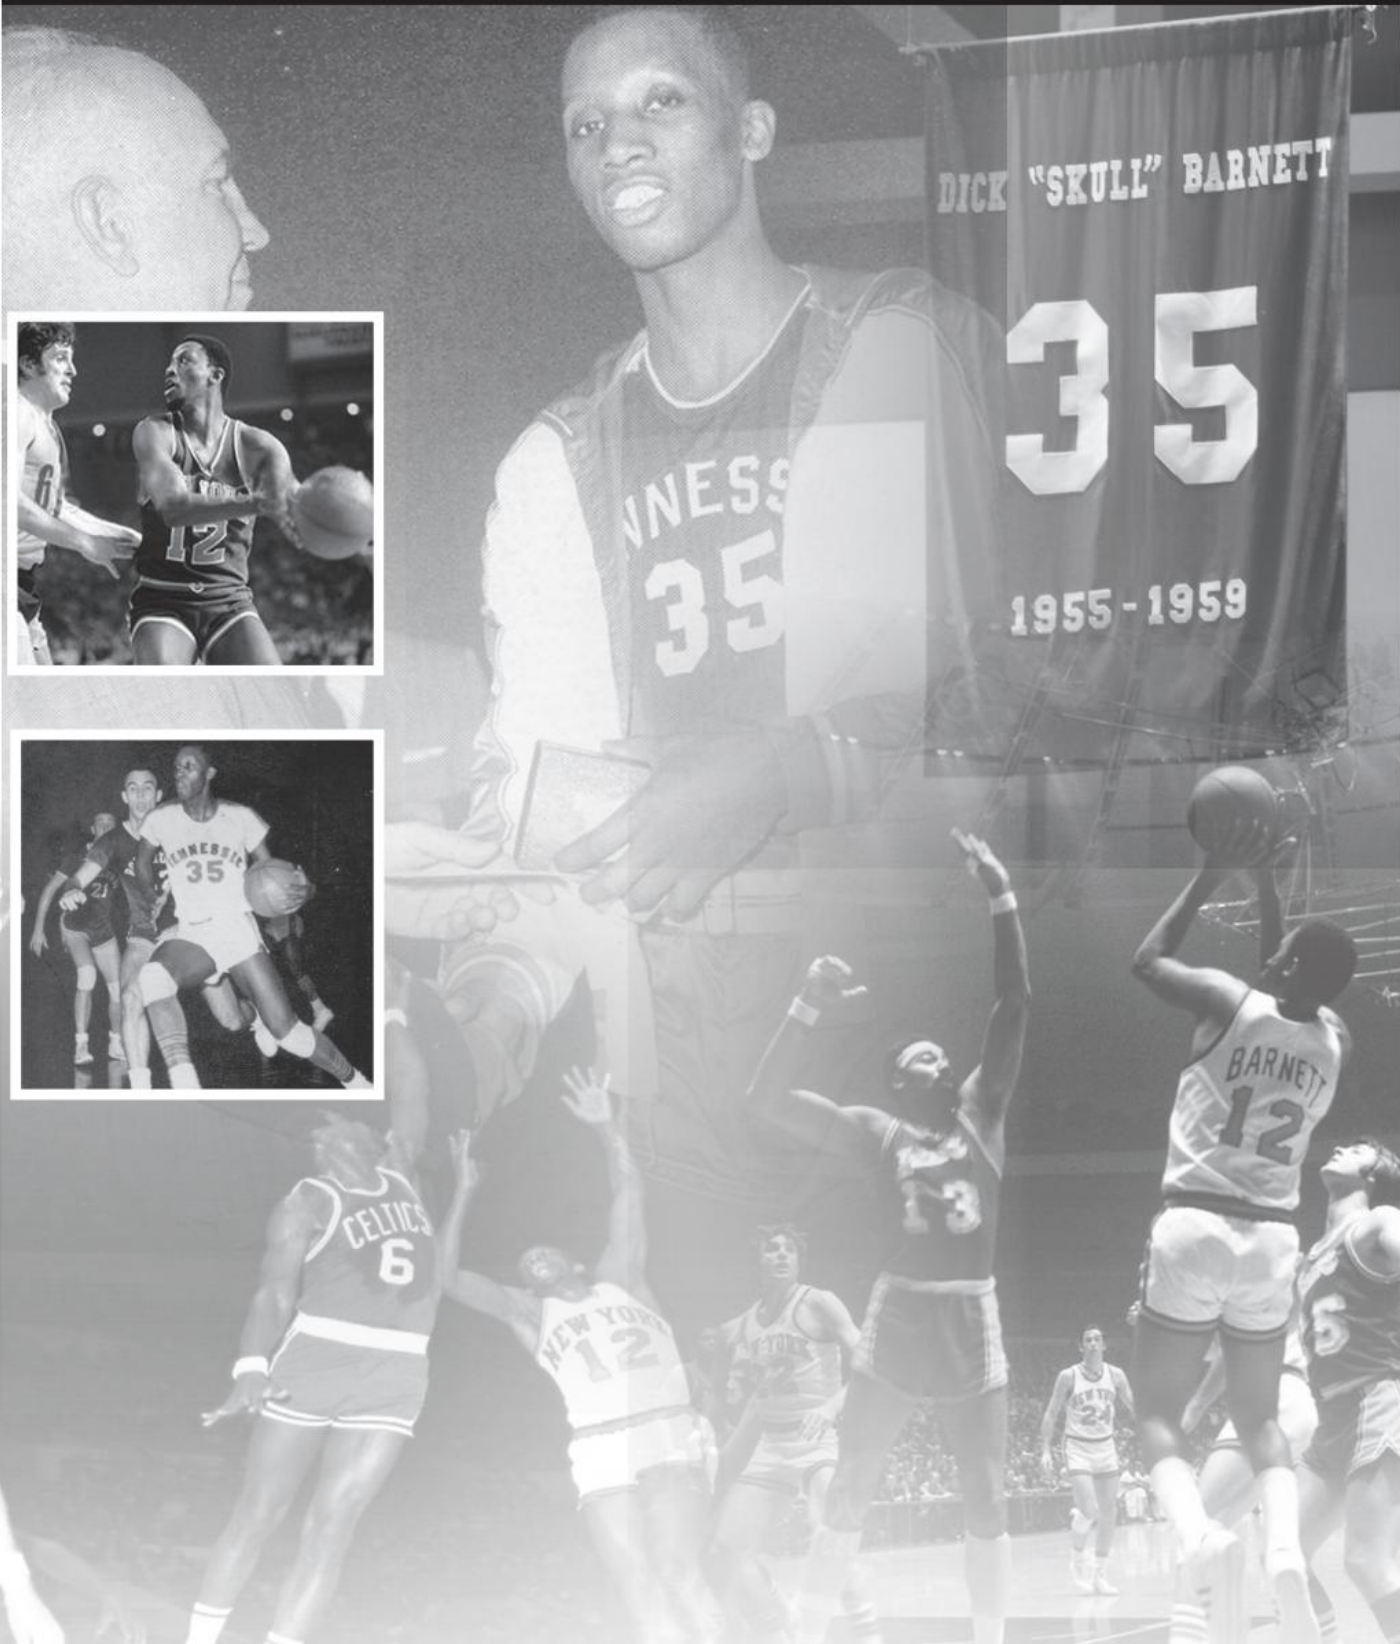

From 1968-1985, Coach Martin tallied a record of 108-118 finishing .500 or above in 15 seasons.

He also coached at South Carolina State and while finishing his coaching career with 508 wins.

A respected man throughout the entire Nashville community, Martin also contributed to Vanderbilt University as a leader in the school's Human and Organization Development program to help the community.

He was named associated professor of human development at Peabody in 1989. He passed away in 2005 at the age of 75 and is still remembered as one of Nashville's greatest public citizens.

DICK "SKULL" BARNETT

A three-time All-America player at Tennessee A & I, Dick Barnett led the Tigers to three consecutive NAIA national championships for Hall of Fame Coach John McLendon. Barnett was named championship MVP in 1958 and 1959. The top draft choice of the Syracuse National of the NBA, he spent 14 seasons in the league playing with the Los Angeles Lakers for three seasons and played on two championship teams with the New York Knicks (nine season) in 1969-70 and 1972-73. The New York Knicks retired his jersey in 1990 while Tennessee State University retired his number in 2006. Barnett's jersey is the only retired basketball number at TSU.

LLOYD NEAL

Tennessee State University's all-time leading rebounder, Neal spent his entire professional career (1972–1979) with the NBA's Portland Trail Blazers. Though undersized for his position, he endeared himself to fans with his hard work and tenacity, while averaging a double-double (13.4 points, 11.8 rebounds) during the 1972-73 NBA season.

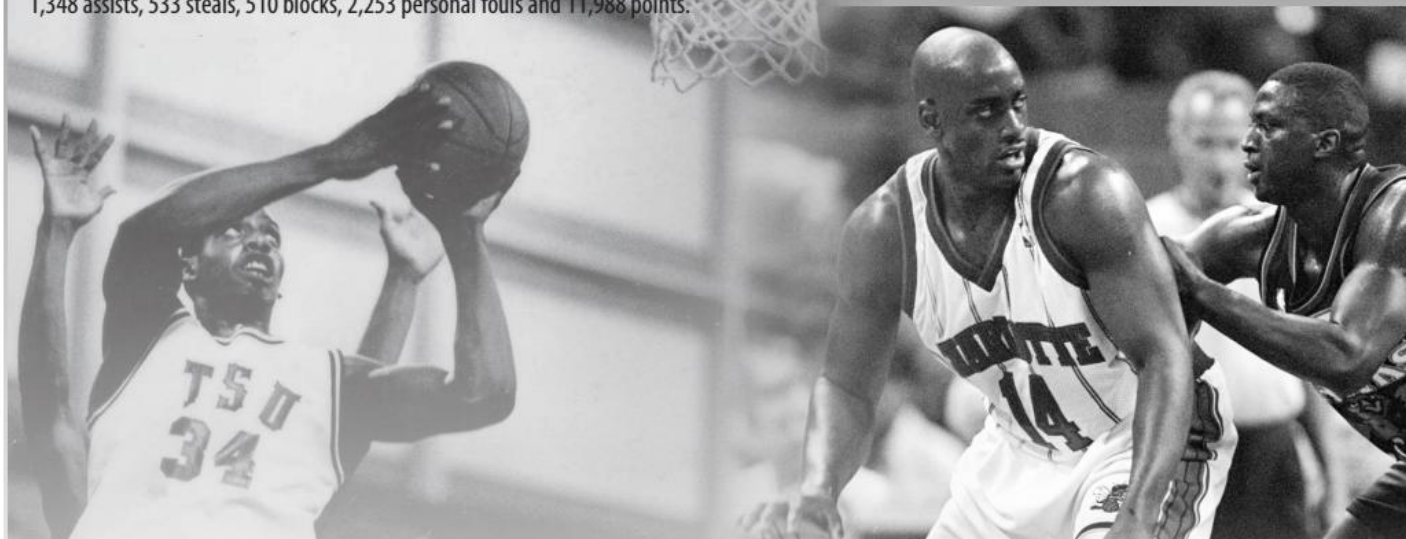

TED "HOUND" McCLAIN

McClain played eight seasons (1971–1979) of professional basketball in the ABA and NBA. McClain competed for the Carolina Cougars, Kentucky Colonels, New York Nets, Denver Nuggets, Buffalo Braves, Philadelphia 76ers, and Phoenix Suns. In his career, McClain averaged 8.4 points per game and 3.4 assists per game. He also appeared in the 1974 ABA All-Star Game. While in college he was named the Most Outstanding Player of the 1970 NCAA Men's Division II Basketball Tournament in a losing effort, as Tennessee State lost in the finals to Philadelphia University. McClain holds the ABA record for steals in a single game with 12, set against the New York Nets on December 26, 1973. McClain also holds the TSU record in most free throws made in a game with 24.

LEONARD "TRUCK" ROBINSON

Robinson played for TSU from 1971-74 before being drafted in the second round by the Washington Bullets (1974-77), while playing for the Atlanta Hawks (1977), New Orleans Jazz (1977-79), Phoenix Suns (1979-82), and New York Knicks (1982-85). A two-time All-Star, Robinson had his finest season with the New Orleans Jazz in 1977-78, when he averaged 22.7 points and led the NBA with 15.7 rebounds per game. He helped the Bullets win the 1975 NBA Eastern Conference and the Suns win the 1981 NBA Pacific Division. Robinson was named to the 1978 East All-Star Team, 1978 All-NBA First Team and the 1981 West All-Star Team. Robinson led the NBA in minutes played (3,638), defensive rebounds (990), total rebounds (1,288) and rebounds per game (15.7) during the 1977-78 season. He ranks 86th on the NBA/ABA career offensive rebounds list (1,985), 43rd on the career defensive rebounds list (5,282), 81st on the total rebounds list (7,267) and 73rd on the career rebounds per game list (9.4). In 11 seasons Robinson played in 772 games, stayed 25,141 minutes on the court and had a .483 field goal percentage (4,816 for 9,971), .662 free throw percentage (2,355 for 3,556), 7,267 total rebounds (1,985 offensive and 5,282 defensive), 1,348 assists, 533 steals, 510 blocks, 2,253 personal fouls and 11,988 points.

ANTHONY MASON

Mason played for Tennessee State University from 1985-88 and was drafted by the Portland Trail Blazers in the third round of the 1988 NBA Draft. He went on to play with the New Jersey Nets, Denver Nuggets, New York Knicks, Charlotte Hornets, Milwaukee Bucks and Miami Heat. He averaged 10.8 points and 8.3 rebounds in his 13-year NBA career. Mason blossomed in New York, winning the NBA Sixth Man of the Year award in 1995. He was named to the 1996-'97 All-NBA Third Team and to the NBA All-Defensive Second Team. He led the league in minutes played in 1995-'96 (3,457), also setting a Knicks record with the number. He also led the league in minutes played per game in 1996-97 (43.1).

CARLOS ROGERS

Rogers played forward/center for Tennessee State University from 1992–94 before being selected by the Seattle SuperSonics in the 1st round (11th overall) of the 1994 NBA Draft. Rogers played in eight NBA seasons from 1994 to 2002. He played for the Golden State Warriors (1994–1995), Toronto Raptors (1995–1998), Portland Trail Blazers (1998–1999), Houston Rockets (1999–2001) and Indiana Pacers (2001–2002). In his NBA career, Rogers played in 298 games and scored a total of 2,196 points. His NBA career average is 7.4 points per game and 4.3 rebounds per game.
