MEDIA INFORMATION

The staff of the Tulane Strategic Communications Office will be available throughout the women's basketball season to accommodate any media requests. The following are some guidelines that should make it easier for media members to cover the Green Wave. Any additional questions should be directed to Josh Bates, Assistant Director of Strategic Communications and contact for women's basketball.

Press Credentials

Credentials for all Tulane games are for working media only. Spouses, dates, children or other non-workers are not permitted in the working media areas. Requests for media credentials should be made via email to Josh Bates. Requests from the media covering visiting teams will be confirmed with that team's media relations director. Credentials can be picked up at the media entrance at Avron B. Fogelman Arena in the Devlin Fieldhouse.

Photo Credentials

Only photographers on assignment and members of the television media will be given photo credentials. Accredited photographers are allowed on the court in designated areas.

Game Services

All media will be provided with game programs, Wifi, online live scoring, media guides, game notes and other pertinent information. Game books will be available at the conclusion of each game. Information provided includes play-by-play and individual and team statistics in standard NCAA box score format.

Radio Telephone Lines

IDSN, Pots and ethernet hookup for visiting radio is made available in our radio/TV booth at the top of the arena.

Post Game Interviews

Tulane head coach Lisa Stockton and requested players will be available to the media after each game following a customary cooling down period. The Tulane locker room will not be open to the media. Each visiting team will set its own post-game policy.

Interview Policy

All Tulane players and coaches will be available throughout the season for interviews with members of the media. It is important, however, that all requests for interviews be made through Josh Bates. This policy allows us to arrange a time that will not interfere with a student-athlete's academic schedule, which has top priority. No student-athlete's home phone number will be released to ensure the player's privacy away from the court.

Calling Coach Stockton

The best way to reach head coach Lisa Stockton is through Josh Bates.

Tulane Website

Notes, releases, statistics and other pertinent information are available at Tulane's official athletic website — www.TulaneGreenWave.com. Updated season statistics will be available following each game. The Green Wave web page also has roster bios, updated schedule and feature stories on Tulane coaches and student-athletes, along with online ticket sales.

American Athletic Conference

Updated statistics, results and information on the American Athletic Conference and its member institutions are available on the conference's website at www.american.org

History of the Green Wave

From 1893 to 1919, the athletic teams of Tulane were known as the Olive and Blue. In 1919, the Tulane Weekly, one of Tulane's many student newspapers at the time, began calling the football team the Greenbacks.

On Oct. 20, 1920, Earl Sparling, the editor of the Tulane Hullabaloo, wrote a football song which was printed in the newspaper. The song was titled "The Rolling Green Wave." Although the name was not immediately adopted, it began to receive acceptance. A month later, a report of the Tulane-Mississippi A&M game in the Hullabaloo referred to the team as the Green Wave.

By the end of the season, the Hullabaloo was using the term Green Wave to refer to all Tulane athletic teams, as were many daily papers, although as late as 1923, the name Greenbacks was still in use.

In its infancy, Tulane's mascot was depicted as a pelican riding on a surf board. The surfing pelican image lasted for more than 50 years.

The "Greenie" was adopted in 1955. It was created by John Chase, a local cartoonist who drew the covers of the Tulane football program and those of many teams throughout the South.

When Dr. Rix Yard became the athletic director in 1963, he felt Tulane needed a more virile symbol for its teams. Working with Eldon Endacott, the manager of the Tulane bookstore, he arranged for a new mascot to be created. Several sketches were submitted by Art Evans, art director for Angelus-Pacific, Co., in Fullerton, Calif.

The angry-looking wave was adopted in 1964, and the block "T" with waves became the Tulane athletics logo in 1986.

Tulane unveiled a new family of marks in August 1998. The new logos featured the return of the pelican to the Green Wave look, along with the use of a "T" with a modern "wave" as a primary logo mark. A new pelican mascot was introduced and given the name Riptide by a vote of Tulane students.

Seven straight trips to the postseason and seven consecutive 20+ win seasons – the Tulane women's basketball program has been riding a wave of success and will look to continue said streak in the 2016-17 season. Last season, the Green Wave produced a 23-12 record, including an 11-7 mark in American Athletic Conference play, made their second straight appearance in the AAC Tournament semifinals, and tied their longest run in the WNIT by reaching the third round after back-to-back last second wins over Alabama and Georgia Tech.

Other season highlights include a perfect 3-0 mark against SEC competition, an impressive 9-3 record in contests decided by 10-points or less (stood as the best record in the league in said scenario), and a defense that powered an 18-1 record when leading at half.

"When you look back at last season and see how many new faces we had with six newcomers, including five freshmen, last year's accomplishments were tremendous," Tulane head coach Lisa Stockton said. "I thought what our team was able to do in this competitive league and with our schedule, then to go deep in the WNIT, really showed a lot about the potential of this group."

Returning to the helm for her 23rd season with Tulane is head coach Lisa Stockton, who boasts a 461-227 record with the Green Wave and a 524-254 mark in her 26-year career. In the beginning of October, Tulane athletic director Troy Dannen rewarded Stockton to a contract extension that extends her stay in New Orleans through the 2020-2021 season.

"I think Tulane is very unique in that it offers so many things for the student-athletes," Stockton stated on making Tulane her home. "We love our city and that's a positive for us. Also being the 39th ranked university in the country offers a lot to student-athletes. Also, being a part of such a great conference and being able to build within The American certainly makes us a special program."

Tulane returns a seasoned squad of nine returnees including the following trio of guards that not only started all 35 games last year, but also all played significant minutes on the 2014-15 team that reached the NCAA Tournament: junior Kolby Morgan and seniors Leslie Vorpahl and Courtne Latham. Also returning to the fold is senior Shakira Harding, junior Caylah Cruickshank, and sophomores Harlyn Wyatt, Tene Thompson, Meredith Schulte and Ksenija Madzarevic. The Wave did lose both their post players due to graduation last spring in starters Chinwe Duru and Tierra Jones, who combined for 89 total wins over the past four years. The Olive and Blue will look to combat the loss with a youthful boost from three freshmen in Kayla Manuirangi (Hawera, New Zealand), Brogan Jones (Little Rock, Arkansas) and Maddison Wells (Winter Haven, Florida).

"Time will tell on what people's roles are," Stockton said. "One thing we are trying to do this year is to be really clear on what we need people to do. Not everyone needs to score 20 points per game. We lost two players that played a lot of minutes in our seniors last year, so we lost some rebounding and some offense as well."

In what could arguably be Tulane's greatest strength this season is the Wave's backcourt and plethora of experienced guards. Last season, the Wave netted 183 total three-pointers, which ranked second all-time in program history, and ranked third in the conference in both field goal (.421) and three-point shooting percentage (.333).

Leading the charge will be junior Kolby Morgan, who is The American's top returning scorer, averaging 17.2 points per game last season. Morgan was a Second Team All-Conference selection, but more importantly, became the first Green Wave player to surpass 1,000 career points in her first two seasons. Morgan tallied 601 points last year, which ranked 54th in the nation. Defensively, the New Orleans native reeled in 77 total steals, which ranked 46th nationally.

"With Kolby, she set the bar really high," Stockton explained. "Each year she has been able to improve her game. You got a player who has scored over 1,000 points in two years. Who knows what she is able to accomplish. For us, she's got to be able to have a complete game. She's got to be able to be one of the best defensive players on the floor in addition to being one of the top scorers on the floor. Her leadership is something we're going to depend upon a little bit more this year. I just think her career up to this point has been tremendous."

However, Morgan is not the only statistical leader returning to the Wave as starting point guard Leslie Vorpahl returns as the league's top assist producer. The senior netted 5.4 assists per game last season which ranked 35th in the nation. In addition, Vorpahl was a Third-Team All-Conference selection and voted the AAC's Most Improved Player. The San Antonio native averaged 10.7 ppg as a junior, shooting a prolific 40.0 percent from three-point range.

"Leslie is one of those players whose personality is a lot like she plays – she's a tremendous competitor," Stockton said. "What she was able to accomplish last year got the respect of the coaches with the Most Improved Player award. She does so many things for us besides score – she leads this team, she hates to lose, she plays hard every game – so that’s a player we’re going to depend upon to take on this schedule that we have and try to push us toward the NCAA Tournament.”

Rounding out the trio of returning starters is senior Courtne Latham, who averaged 6.8 ppg, 3.4 rebounds and 2.1 assists last year. Latham shot 84.2 percent from the free-throw line, which ranked as the ninth best in program history. The Houston native registered 10 double-digit scoring efforts last winter, including a career high 23 points in the win over Saint Louis, which resulted in the program’s first American Athletic Conference Player of the Week honor.

“When you look back at Courtne’s career, she’s been a huge part of what we’ve done here over the past three years,” Stockton said. “She’s been a starter for most of her career. One of the things we’ve really worked with Courtne is to be that third scorer. To be that player that can get out there and shoot, be consistent from the three, and game in and game out, be that scorer that the other team has to stop when the pressure is on the other two.”

Freshman Kayla Manuirirangi could potentially see time relieving Vorpahl at the point guard position. Manuirirangi has been practicing with the team since last January after graduating from her high school in New Zealand in fall of 2015. The 5’7” guard spent her prep career on the national scene for her native country, competing on the U16, U17, U18 and U19 national squads.

“Manu is a player that comes with great experience and came last January and was able to practice with us,” Stockton added. “We keep looking at her and have to remember that she is a freshman. She’s playing the toughest position on the floor in the point guard position. She, like Leslie, is tremendously competitive. I look forward to see what she can bring. She’s another floor leader we can put out there and handle the ball. She’s learning the game every day and she’s tougher on herself than what anyone else could be.”

Senior Shakira Harding brings some veteran expertise to the guard position, as she begins her second and final season with Tulane. Harding played in 20 games last season where she averaged 2.2 points while shooting 55.2 percent from the field, including a 7-of-15 mark from three-point range.

“I look at someone like Shakira Harding who is one of those players who probably is the most improved from last year,” Stockton stated. “She came in a little timid last season and has now come in this fall and has been really aggressive. She’s a player that’s going to find a way on that court. When you look at all of our guards, it’s going to be very competitive. There might be times where we’ll have four guards on the floor.”

Combo players in sophomores Meredith Schulte and Tene Thompson could see time at both the three and the four this season. Schulte played in all but one game last year, averaging 2.9 points and 2.6 rebounds in 12.9 minutes of play. The one-time American Freshman of the Week winner tallied a season best 10 points vs Temple on Jan. 26. Meanwhile, Thompson scored in 14-of-28 appearances, averaging 1.3 points in 7.2 minutes per game.

“Thompson and Schulte are two players that can play so many different positions,” Stockton explained. “Both of them got a lot of playing time last year. They both give us something valuable, whether it’s Tene’s athleticism or Meredith’s toughness. If those two players can really up their game, they can come in, in numerous positions for us, and give us some size, some rebounding and maybe change our game a little bit.”

Tulane’s frontcourt leans more on the younger side, consisting of two sophomores in forward Harlyn Wyatt and center Ksenija Madzarevic and two freshmen in forward Maddison Wells and center Brogan Jones. Wyatt returns as the lone sophomore who played in all 35 games last season, averaging 3.6 points and 2.8 rebounds in 13.1 minutes per game. The 6’2” Atlanta native started in four straight games last February, amassing 24 total points in that stretch.

“Harlyn played a great role for us last year,” Stockton said. “She played big in big games. I look at Florida State and LSU in which she stepped up. With Harlyn, her fouls and her turnovers kept her off the floor a little bit, so those are two things we’re trying to change. She was probably the most physical post we had last year, and really per minute, was the best rebounder we had. She’s going to carry a lot of weight this year. She’s got to be ready to step up and play a big role at the four and the five.”

Madzarevic looks to earn an expanded role in her sophomore campaign, after collecting a block in six of her 15 appearances last year. Meanwhile, Wells arrives as a four-star recruit by JumpOffPlus Scouting, who previously competed with the FBG travel team in summer of 2015. Lastly, Jones will add some depth at center as the 6’4” Arkansas native was ranked as the 15th best post in the country by ESPN and was selected to try out for the U17 USA Basketball team in 2014.

SEASON OUTLOOK

"When you look at our posts you talk about those four players that can play the five and they are all freshmen and sophomores, so that's really our weakness, just not having much experience in that position," Stockton said. "Ksenija is another player that has improved a lot. She had a great summer and is really comfortable now. Definitely a player you'll see develop throughout her career. She's a great shot blocker so we definitely want her out on the floor. Our two freshmen are just trying to get the system and get in shape right now. I think both have such an upside for them in rebounding and playing defense. Madison has come in and been a little bit better scorer than what we thought she could be, so she might play a little more of a role in the lineup than what we figured."

Another major factor for the Green Wave's success isn't assigned a jersey number but instead a simple address, 6811 Freret Street – the location of Avron B. Fogelman Arena in the Devlin Fieldhouse. Last season, Tulane achieved 14 wins inside Fogelman in Devlin, tying the program record for most victories at home. Overall, the Olive and Blue boast a .679 winning percentage (383-181) inside the historic building.

"I think (Fogelman in Devlin) always has such a great basketball vibe," Stockton added. "The fans are on the floor and there's so much energy. Our players feed off of that. In recruiting, it's a great advantage for us. You can walk in and feel the history in there. For us, what we want to do is continue to win and continue to draw people from New Orleans here to see how special of a place it is to play."

This season's non-conference schedule features seven opponents in last year's RPI Top-100, including three who made the NCAA Tournament: Sweet 16 finisher Mississippi State on Nov. 16, Conference USA champion Middle Tennessee on Dec. 3 and potentially second-round finisher in Auburn on Dec. 22. Conference schedule wise, all four of Tulane's fellow post-season participants will compete in New Orleans, as Memphis, Temple, NCAA Tournament second round finisher USF and four-time defending champion UConn all have dates in the Crescent City.

"Coaches look at things in phases," Stockton explained. "I look at our non-conference schedule as one of the most challenging we've had in a while. You got some teams on there we're going to have to really step up to play. I think Mississippi State will probably be in the top-10 when we play them early in the year. Then you got the SEC and ACC teams right around the corner. I think that excites us to see if we can get some momentum in the non-conference schedule, then maybe we can get some attention nationally, then have some confidence going into conference play."

Expectations are high for the 2016-17 Green Wave, as a return to the NCAA Tournament seems within the squad's grasps. Tulane will be challenged from the get go and Coach Stockton has expressed that consistency and stressing the importance of every game will get them there.

"This squad has to play with a lot of consistency to make the NCAA Tournament," Stockton concluded. "It starts with non-conference. We've put teams on our schedule in order to get to the NCAA Tournament so we have to win some of those games. Then, when we get into conference, we have to be consistent there. I think we are one of the better teams in the league, but a bad weekend can really cost you. That's the thing we really have to challenge our leaders to make sure everyone understands how vital every game is."

HEAD COACH • 23RD SEASON

GREENSBORO, N.C. • WAKE FOREST, 1986

RECORD AT TULANE: 461-227 OVERALL (.670) • 210-130 IN CONFERENCE PLAY (.618)
CAREER RECORD: 524-254 OVERALL (.674) • 237-139 IN CONFERENCE PLAY (.630)

Head Coach Lisa Stockton will embark upon her 23rd season at the helm of the Tulane women's basketball program for the 2016-17 campaign, and 26th overall as a head coach. Last season, the Green Wave went 23-12 overall, achieving their seventh straight trip to the postseason and seventh consecutive 20+ win season. More season highlights include tying their longest run in the WNIT (Third Round), making their second straight American Conference Tournament semifinal, handing No. 1 UConn their largest deficit of the season, going 3-0 against SEC competition and tying the program record for most wins at home with 14.

Stockton's career record of 524-254 (.674) as a collegiate head coach is good for a 67.4 winning percentage and she is 461-227 (.670) during her time at Tulane, including a 210-130 (.618) mark in conference play.

"Ever since I can remember, I've always wanted to be a basketball coach," Stockton said. "Growing up in North Carolina with its rich tradition of college basketball, I remember going to games and really enjoying being a part of the whole experience. I was fortunate enough to earn an athletic scholarship and that just solidified my decision on the direction I wanted my professional career to go."

It took a few steps before I got to Tulane, but since I've been here, I've truly found a home. Tulane has everything you look for in a college experience - great academics, a successful tradition of women's basketball and a city with a unique culture and history. Each season that I've been at Tulane has truly been special."

Stockton has led the Green Wave to the postseason 17 times (11 NCAAAs, 6 WNITs) and claimed conference Coach of the Year honors three times (Metro in 1995, C-USA in 2007 and 2010). In addition, Tulane has won four C-USA regular-season championships (1996-97, 1998-99, 2006-07, 2009-10) and the C-USA tournament title on five occasions (1997, 1999, 2000, 2001, 2010).

Stockton is one of four active coaches to take a Top 60 academic institution as listed in U.S. and World Report to at least 11 NCAA Tournaments - joining Tara Vanderveer of Stanford, Muffet McGraw of Notre Dame and Sylvia Hatchell of North Carolina. In addition, 19 of her players have become members of Tulane's 1,000-Point Club.

Taking the reins of a program that had never been to the NCAA Tournament and whose only postseason appearance came via the NWIT the year prior to her arrival, Stockton made her presence at Tulane felt right away. Her 1994-95 club went 19-10 overall and 9-3 in the now-defunct Metro Conference. The Green Wave's league record was good for second-place in the final Metro standings - a high-water mark for the program - and Stockton's team earned an at-large bid to the NCAAAs.

Tulane's trip to "The Big Dance" was the first of nine consecutive NCAA bids for Stockton-coached teams and the first of nine straight winning seasons. A year later, a 21-10 record in 1995-96 was the first of what has now become 15, 20-plus win seasons with the Green Wave - including a school-record 27 wins in 1996-97 and again in 1999-2000.

While the postseason streak was snapped in 2004, Stockton reloaded her team for success with the addition of four freshmen to an already young-but-talented squad that did not feature a senior on the active roster for the 2005-06 season. As the Tulane student-body began the move-in process for the school year, however, the Tulane community, the New Orleans area and the Gulf Coast region was rocked to its core as Hurricane Katrina made landfall on Aug. 29, 2005, and the subsequent floodwaters consumed the area.

Relocated to Lubbock, Texas, and the campus of Texas Tech University for the semester, Stockton's leadership and ability to keep her student-athletes focused on the task at hand, the Green Wave finished what has become known as the "Katrina Season" 15-12 and spark a run of 11-straight winning seasons that remains alive entering the upcoming 2016-17 campaign.

The following year, Stockton's troops went 26-7, won the C-USA regular-season title with a 13-3 league mark and returned to the postseason for the first time since 2003 as Tulane advanced to the second round of the 2007 WNIT. Three years later, the Green Wave won another C-USA regular-season crown with a 12-4 conference record, finished the year 26-7 overall and returned to the NCAA Tournament. In each of the next two seasons, Stockton guided the Green Wave to 23-11 overall record, advanced to the C-USA Championship games and a trip to the second round of the 2011 and 2012 WNIT. In 2013, the Green Wave finished 24-9 and accomplished a program first when they advanced to the round of 16 in the WNIT.

The Green Wave closed out their tenure with C-USA in 2014, as Coach Stockton recorded a final tally of 397 total victories while in the league, which stood as a C-USA best. At the conclusion of the season, Director of Athletics Rick Dickson signed Stockton to a contract extension through the 2018-19 campaign.

The 2014-15 season issued in a new era for Stockton and the Green Wave, competing in the American Athletic Conference for the first time. Tulane responded with a 22-11 overall record, a run to the semifinals in the conference tournament, and ended the program's five year NCAA Tournament drought, traveling to Durham for a first round match-up vs. Mississippi State, marking the program's 11th NCAA Tournament appearance. The 2014-15 season also witnessed Coach Stockton capture her 500th career victory, as she became the 32nd active Division-I women's basketball coach to reach the prestigious 500-win club.

While team success has been the ultimate goal for Stockton and the Green Wave since the 1994-95 season, individual recognition has been a mainstay at Tulane during that time as well. In 22 years under its current head coach, Tulane has seen 24 different student-athletes earn all-conference honors 37 times (nine first-team, 15 second-team and 13 third-team) and 11 receive All-Freshman recognition.

In addition, Stockton's players have earned conference Defensive Player of the Year (Janell Burse/C-USA/1999,2000,2001), Sixth Player of the Year (Burse/C-USA/1999, Grace Daley/C-USA/1997, Teana McKiver/C-USA/2001) and Freshman of the Year (Barbara Farris/Metro/1995, Daley/C-USA/1997, Danielle Blagg/C-USA/2012) on three occasions each, as well as Player of the Year (Burses/C-USA/2000) and Newcomer of the Year (Indira Kaljo/C-USA/2009) once apiece. At the 10th anniversary of Conference USA in 2005, Burse and Daley were named to C-USA Team of the Decade, making Tulane one of two schools to have multiple players on the prestigious list.

Tulane student-athletes have also garnered national honors under Stockton's watch as well as Farris (1987), Daley (1998-2000), Burse (2000-01), McKiver (2002-03) and Jamie Kaplan (2013-14) all earned All-America recognition. Ashley Langford was a Freshman All-American in 2006 and Chassity Brown was named to the WBCA All-Region IV Team in 2010. In addition, four of Stockton's former student-athletes - Burse, Daley, Farris, and McKiver - have been elected into the Tulane Athletics Hall of Fame.

For some of Stockton's prized pupils, success on the court did not end once their collegiate eligibility expired. Five former Green Wave standouts have gone on to play in the WNBA - including Farris and Burse who won WNBA Championships with the Detroit Shock in 2003 and Seattle Storm in 2004, respectively - and many more have enjoyed pro playing careers overseas.

But what Stockton may be most proud of is her student-athletes' collective accomplishments in the classroom as every four-year player has completed their degrees under her watch.

Forty-three women's basketball players have earned C-USA Commissioner's Honor Roll recognition 93 times for holding GPAs of 3.2 or higher since the 1995-96 season. Six student-athletes - Brooke Blankenship (10-11, 11-12, 13-14), Kiki Cizmar (96-97), Jamie Kaplan (12-13, 13-14), Courtne Latham (2013-14), Gwen Slaughter (02-03), Britt Themann (99-00, 00-01, 01-02, 02-03), Christy Thomaskutty (95-96) and Leslie Vorpahl (2013-14) - claimed C-USA Commissioner's Academic Medal honors for maintaining at least a 3.75 GPA. Ashley Langford (08-09) and Jami

THE WORD ON STOCKTON

"The Coaching Staff at Tulane did an exceptional job of not only making sure I was a phenomenal athlete, but a great student as well! Leaving there with my degree and a wonderful opportunity to make a career out of my sport was pretty amazing."

--WNBA Veteran and Tulane Hall of Famer Janell Burse (Tulane, 1996-2000)

"Over the years I developed a tremendous amount of respect for Lisa as a person and as a coach. She is so knowledgeable and she really individualizes her coaching style to each player to find a way to reach every one. She takes the time to develop a relationship with each of her players. I consider her a great friend. I became the player that I am because of my years at Tulane."

--Nine-Year WNBA Veteran and Tulane Hall of Famer Barbara Farris (Tulane, 1995-98)

"Coach Stockton and the entire staff put me in positions to develop personally and professionally. Her dedication to me as a person is one of the reasons I believe she is a great coach."

--Ashley Langford (Tulane, 2005-09)

"Playing for Coach Stockton taught me a lot about myself. I found that I had a lot of untapped resources within myself. Dreaming big means working harder, but it all pays off in the end."

--WNBA Veteran and Tulane Hall of Famer Teana McKiver (Tulane, 2000-03)

"I just think that Lisa Stockton is the epitome of class and consistency. It shows in her overall record at Tulane, it shows in her number of NCAA invites and the number of conference titles. But it also shows in her relationship with her current and former players – who still feel such a part of the program – as well as in her relationship with her current and former staff members who still carry a bit of Lisa with them in everything that we do."

--Miami Head Women's Basketball Coach Katie Meier (Tulane assistant coach, 1994-2001)

Montagnino (06-07) were named C-USA Scholar Athletes, and Themann earned a C-USA Postgraduate Scholarship in 2003. Furthermore, in her senior season, Kaplan was named American Athletic Conference Scholar Athlete of the Year and a Senior CLASS First Team All-American for her body of work both on and off the court.

Stockton's impact has not been limited to her players, however, as four former assistant coaches at Tulane went on to become collegiate head coaches: Katie Meier (Charlotte and Miami [Fla.]), Kellie Kennedy (Loyola-New Orleans), Michele Savage (Davidson) and Jenny Yopp (Portland State and Illinois State).

While Stockton's teams and student-athletes have achieved success both on the court and in the classroom, these accomplishments are nothing that the head coach herself did not earn while she was a collegiate player.

Following a standout prep career at Western Guilford High School, Stockton packed her bags for Wake Forest University. During her four-year career with the Demon Deacons from 1983-86, she set the school's career records in scoring (1,347), scoring average (12.1 ppg), field goals made (592), field goals attempted (1,262), field goal percentage (.462), assists (330), steals (206) and minutes played (3,385).

Stockton still holds the Wake Forest record for consecutive games started with 97 and ranks in the top 10 in nearly every statistical category previously mentioned. As a senior during the 1985-86 season, Stockton was named honorable-mention Fast Break All-American after scoring 473 points and hitting 204-of-415 shots (.491), pulling down 94 rebounds, dishing out 97 assists and tallying 58 steals.

She was named ACC Player of the Week and claimed MVP honors of the Dartmouth Tournament as a junior, and was named MVP of the James Madison Invitational and of the Demon Deacon team as a senior.

Stockton earned a spot on the ACC Academic Honor Roll following each of her final two seasons at Wake Forest and graduated cum laude with a bachelor's degree in health and sports science in 1986.

She was drafted by the National Women's Basketball Association following her senior season, but chose instead to begin her coaching career as a volunteer assistant at the University of North Carolina for the 1986-87 season where she helped the Tar Heels go 19-10 overall, finish third in the ACC with a 9-5 league record and advance to the second-round of the NCAA Tournament. Stockton also enveloped herself in post-graduate studies and completed her master's degree in 1987.

From there, Stockton accepted her first collegiate head coaching position at Division III Greensboro College. In three seasons there, she helped guide the Pride to a combined 63-27 record. Along the way, six players earned all-conference honors, including first-team selections Lorraine Orr and Susan Gasperson in 1987-88, Gasperson in 1988-89, and Tara Thompson in 1989-90.

Inheriting a team that had never enjoyed a winning record, Stockton's 1987-88 Greensboro team went 20-7 and finished tied for second in the Dixie Intercollegiate Athletic Conference with a 10-4 league record. The performance earned her the first of two DIAC Coach of the Year honors as Stockton earned the title again following the 1989-90 season after the Pride went 18-8 overall and finished tied for the league title at 9-3.

She returned to the Division I level the following year when she accepted the top assistant position at Georgia Tech where she was responsible for coordinating recruiting efforts, monitoring academic progress, supervise scheduling and coaching the offense. In four years with Stockton on the staff in Atlanta, the Ramblin' Wreck combined to go 63-52, including a 20-13 mark in 1991-92 when North Carolina won the WNIT. The following season, Georgia Tech went 16-11, finished tied for fourth in the ACC with an 8-8 league record and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history.

Two years later, Stockton accepted her current position at Tulane.

Along with her Coach of the Year accolades, Stockton was named one of CitiBusiness' Women of the Year in 2007. She is a member of the NCAA Women's Basketball Issues Committee and also serves on the Academic Subcommittee for the issues committee. Stockton has also served two terms on the Kodak All-American Committee, twice chaired the C-USA Women's Basketball Coaches and served two terms as the WBCA Conference Captain.

From the beginning, Stockton and Tulane have been a perfect fit; in part, the coach believes, because her educational experience at Wake Forest was similar to the ones her current players face at Tulane. Stockton appreciates the value of putting academic priorities first, and at Tulane the coach doesn't just say it, she has lived it.

"A school like Tulane is absolutely the best environment for student-athletes, and for a coach," Stockton said. "We attract people who are goal-oriented and who are achievers. Student-athletes don't come here unless they're serious about basketball and academics. That's the kind of school I chose, and I'm so glad I did."

In her 22 seasons, Stockton has built Tulane into a winning program with victories over ranked programs, tournament championships and a succession of All-Americans and future professional players piling wins on top of wins.

"I'm proud of the tradition we've built and look forward to expanding the level of expectation and achievement here at Tulane University."

BETH DUNKENBERGER

ASSISTANT COACH • 5TH SEASON

SHAWSVILLE, VA. • RANDOLPH-MACON, 1988

Beth Dunkenberger begins her fifth season as assistant basketball coach for the Green Wave. After serving as the program's director of operations during the 2011-12 season, Dunkenberger will once again assist in all facets of the team's game planning, recruiting and student-athletes' academic progress. Under Dunkenberger's tutelage, Tulane has posted 89 wins in just four years, averaging 65.7 points per game. The Green Wave have made the postseason all four years, including the program's first NCAA Tournament at-large bid since 2003 for the 2014-15 season. In addition, just last season, the Wave tied their longest run in the WNIT, reaching the third round.

In fact, the past two seasons has seen two players reach the 1,000-career point milestone in 2015 graduate Danielle Blagg and current junior Kolby Morgan, who became the first in program history to accomplish the feat in her first two seasons. The 2014-15 season also witnessed the program's first freshman all-conference selection in Morgan and first American Scholar Athlete of the Year and Senior CLASS First Team All-American in Jamie Kaplan.

Dunkenberger brought a wealth of coaching experience to the Green Wave squad, including head-coaching stints at Western Carolina from 2000-04 and Virginia Tech from 2004-11 where she posted 175 combined victories. In addition, she also served as a graduate assistant and assistant coach with the Hokies from 1988-97 and as an assistant coach at Florida from 1997-2000. All told, Dunkenberger-coached teams have advanced to the postseason on nine occasions, including a pair of NCAA Tournaments and one WNIT bid during her time leading the Virginia Tech program.

As head coach of the Hokies, Dunkenberger guided her team to .500-or-better records five times, including a 21-10 mark in 2005-06 when Virginia Tech advanced to the second round of the NAAs. She also led her team to the NCAA Tournament in 2005 and to the third round of the WNIT in 2007. Dunkenberger helped four student-athletes claim All-ACC honors - Kerri Gardin in 2005 (honorable mention) and 2006 (third team), Kirby Copeland in 2007 (honorable mention), Brittany Cook in 2008 (second team) and Utahya Drye in 2009 (honorable mention) - while Andrea Barbour claimed a spot on the ACC All-Freshman Team in 2008.

Several of her players also went on to play basketball professionally, including Gardin - who became the first former Hokie to play in the WNBA when she suited up for the Connecticut Sun from 2008-10 and the Washington Mystics in 2011. Copeland, Nara Diawara and Dawn Chriss all played in Europe, and Diawara was selected to the 2008 Beijing Olympic Games for her native country of Mali.

Dunkenberger originally moved to Blacksburg, Va., in 1988 and spent the next two years as a graduate assistant before serving as a full-time assistant from 1990-97. As an assistant, she helped the Hokies win the Metro Conference Tournament crown in 1994 and the Metro regular-season title in 1995 as Virginia Tech advanced to the NCAA Tournament both years.

From there, Dunkenberger accepted an assistant coaching position at Florida. From 1997-2000, she helped the Gators earn a combined 73-36 record, including a 23-9 mark and a trip to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 1997-98. With Dunkenberger on staff, Florida also made the NCAA Tournament in 1999 and advanced to the 2000 WNIT title game.

Dunkenberger earned her first head coaching spot at Western Carolina in 2000, and over the next four seasons, helped the Catamounts post 65 victories. She was named Southern Conference Coach of the Year following the 2002-03 season when Western Carolina tallied 21 wins - the most by the team since moving to the Division I level in 1981 - and advanced to the finals of the SoCon Championship.

Under Dunkenberger, WCU's Tiffany Hamm claimed All-Southern Conference honors from 2002-04, earned Player of the Year by the SoCon Sports Media Association in 2003 and was tabbed the league's Freshman of the Year in 2001. In addition, Ki-Ki Glass earned a spot on the 2002 SoCon All-Freshman Team.

While all of her teams have performed admirably on the court, Dunkenberger's squads have also stood out in the classroom as well. Her Virginia Tech teams featured a trio of Academic All-Americans, 11 Academic All-District honorees and a pair of ACC postgraduate scholarship recipients. Among those honorees was Laura Haskins who was the first-ever recipient of the Kay Yow ACC Women's Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year award in 2009.

At Western Carolina, her student-athletes claimed Arthur Ashe Jr. Sports Scholar recognition three times - including two-time winner Yoneko Allen - and her 2000-01 team finished sixth in the nation academically with an overall grade point average of 3.313.

A standout student-athlete in her own right, Dunkenberger played collegiately at Randolph-Macon College from 1984-88 where she claimed all-conference and Academic All-District recognition, and was tabbed the school's Top Student-Athlete in 1988. A native of Shawsville, Va., Dunkenberger, was the valedictorian at Shawsville High in 1984, graduated cum laude from Randolph-Macon with a bachelor's degree in mathematics in 1988 and completed her master's degree in education from Virginia Tech in 1990.

ALAN FREY

ASSISTANT COACH • 11TH SEASON

NEW ORLEANS, LA. • UNIVERSITY OF NEW ORLEANS, 1988

Alan Frey begins his 11th season with the Tulane women's basketball team where he will once again work with the Green Wave's post players. The 2016-17 season marks Frey's 10th year handling the Green Wave student-athletes on the blocks, as he handled Tulane's guards during the 2009-10 campaign. In addition, Frey's areas of focus are recruiting, opponent scouting and individual player development.

During his time at Tulane, Frey has helped the Green Wave post winning records each season, tally a combined 221-107 overall record, win a pair of Conference USA regular-season titles and claim eight postseason appearances, including the past seven straight (NCAA in 2010 and 2015 // WNIT in 2007, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014 and 2016).

Frey was instrumental in helping Brett Benzio become just the second player in Tulane women's basketball history and the third Green Wave student-athlete overall (men's or women's) to score at least 1,000 points and pull down at least 1,000 rebounds during his or her career.

2015 graduate Tiffany Dale finished her career ranked fifth all-time in blocks (155) and sixth in career rebounds (782), all while accumulating 974 career points. Shortly after, 2016 graduate Chinwe Duru finished sixth all-time in career blocks (143) while tying for fourth in career games played (129).

Frey's recruiting efforts have been instrumental to the program's overall success in recent years as evidenced by the following: Benzio in 2009, Olivia Grayson in 2010, Danielle Blagg in 2012, Leslie Vorpahl in 2014, Kolby Morgan in 2015 - each All-Freshmen Team honorees. Blagg also claimed C-USA Freshman of the Year honors in 2012, while Morgan became the first first freshman to earn all-conference recognition. In addition, junior college transfer Indira Kaljo was tabbed C-USA Newcomer of the Year in 2009.

A native of New Orleans, Frey joined the Tulane family for the 2006-07 season after spending the previous two years as an assistant coach for the Loyola (New Orleans) men's team. His duties with the Wolfpack included recruiting, on-court instruction and practice implementations.

In addition to his collegiate coaching experience, Frey spent 15 years coaching the AAU Kenner Angels to 13 Finals Fours and five national championships from 1992-2006. He compiled an overall record of 425-67 during his time with the Angels, including a 138-25 mark at the national tournament.

The 1997 AAU National Coach of the Year, Frey guided the team to the Gold Medal at the 1996 Junior Olympics and a second-place finish in 2005. Frey's teams amassed 15 Louisiana AAU titles in as many years with a 79-1 record at the state tournament.

Frey also served as an assistant coach for Team Louisiana at U.S. Junior Nationals from 1987-92, and the 1990 squad won the USJN championship. He also served as an assistant coach (1984-91) and head coach (1992-2004) for the Jefferson Parish Recreation Department All-Stars where he helped the club win a combined 13 International Championships.

During his time with the AAU, Frey helped more than 50 of his players earn Division I scholarships, including Tulane alumni Olivia Grayson, Tiffany Aidoo, Sarah Goree, Rodnelle Hadley, Salome Hector, Mignon Frey, Mary Ann Marino, Lacey Vicknair and Kristi Pertuit. In addition, five of his former players have gone on to play in the WNBA - Vickie, Niesa, Temeka Johnson, Yolanda Moore and Detrina White.

Prior to joining the collegiate coaching ranks, Frey has spent the bulk of his professional career managing not-for-profit organizations throughout the New Orleans area.

A leader in New Orleans philanthropic circles for nearly 20 years, Frey served as the President of the New Orleans' Chapter of the Association of Fund Raising Professionals in 2005 as well as the President of the Louisiana Chapter of Community Health Charities in 2005-06. He was the executive director of the Louisiana Chapter of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation from 2000-06 and remains actively involved in the foundation's fund-raising efforts.

A 1983 graduate of nearby Jesuit High School, Frey received his bachelor's degree in history from the University of New Orleans in 1988. He is married to Karen Halley as the couple resides in Metairie, and they have three children: Halley, 19, Garrett, 17, and Hayden, 11.

DOSHIA WOODS

ASSISTANT COACH/RECRUITING COORDINATOR • 7TH SEASON

TOPEKA, KANSAS • WESTERN ILLINOIS, 2001

Doshia Woods begins her seventh season as a member of the Tulane women's basketball coaching staff in the 2016-17 campaign. Woods is primarily responsible for the development of the Green Wave's perimeter players, serves as the recruiting coordinator, and oversees student-athletes' academic progress. During her time at Tulane, Woods has helped the Green Wave post six consecutive 20-plus win seasons with six straight post-season berths, including a 2015 NCAA Tournament appearance. Her impact on the team's guards has been evident in Kolby Morgan (2014-15, 2015-16), Leslie Vorpahl (2015-16), Danielle Blagg (2012-13, 2013-14, 2014-15), Jamie Kaplan (2013-14), Olivia Grayson (2011-12), and Tiffany Aidoo (2010-11), who all claimed all-conference honors. In addition, Blagg became just the fourth Tulane women's player ever to earn three straight all-conference honors, while Morgan was the program's first freshman to earn all-conference recognition. Blagg was also named C-USA Freshman of the Year in 2011-12, while Morgan and Vorpahl each earned all-freshmen team accolades.

Wood's guard development was quite evident last season as Morgan became the first player in program history to capture 1,000 career points in her first two seasons, while Vorpahl was also named The American's Most Improved Player in 2016. Both Morgan and Vorpahl will return next season as the league's top scorer and assist producer, respectively.

A noted recruiter, Woods has been instrumental in landing talented student-athletes everywhere she has been and then develop that talent she has helped sign. Her first recruiting class at Tulane proved to be a solid group as the four freshmen - Blagg, Tiffany Dale, Adesuwa Ebomwonyi and Jamie Kaplan - combined to earn C-USA Freshman of the Week honors on seven occasions. Ultimately, all four players cemented their names forever in the Tulane record books, all finishing on the top-10 list for most games played while accounting for 46.1 percent of the team's scoring over the four years. Blagg became the program's 26th 1000-career point club member, Kaplan finished second all-time in assists (582), while both Dale and Ebomwonyi checked in on the top-10 lists for rebounding.

Woods joined the Tulane staff for the 2010-11 campaign following two seasons in the Big 12 at the University of Missouri from 2008 to 2010, where she recruited and coached three all-conference players. Before Missouri, Woods spent three seasons as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Oregon State from 2005 to 2008. In 2005-06, the Beavers posted a 10 game improvement over the previous season and earned a berth to the WNIT Tournament, advancing to the second round. With the Beavers, Woods recruited and coached four all-conference and two all-freshman team players. Woods' recruiting efforts helped the Beavers land the Alaska and Gatorade Player of the Year in Talisa Rhea, as well as Judie Lomax. Rhea became the 15th OSU player to score 1,000 career points. Lomax, who transferred to Columbia after Woods and the rest of the coaching staff left the University following the 2007-08 season, went on to lead the NCAA in rebounding twice during her time with the Lions and was named Ivy League Player of the Year in 2010.

Prior to serving as an assistant coach at New Mexico State University in 2004-05, Woods was an assistant coach at her Alma Mater Western Illinois University from 2001 to 2004. The program posted a combined 57-30 record in her three seasons, as well as earning Mid-Continent (now Summit League) regular season championships and WNIT berths in 2002-03 and 2003-04. In her three seasons, Woods recruited and coached seven all-conference and two all-freshman team players.

Under Woods' tutelage, Tiffany Cornelius (2002-03) and Zane Teilane (2004-05) claimed Mid-Continent Conference Player of the Year honors. While Woods had moved on to Oregon State by the time Teilane completed her career, Teilane went on to be drafted by the Detroit Shock in the third round of the 2006 WNBA Draft and played in the 2008 Olympics as a member of Team Latvia.

Teilane is one of three future Olympians Woods helped develop as Kimberly Butler of Oregon State and Tugba Palazoglu of Western Illinois earned spots on the 2012 Great Britain and Turkey National Teams.

A native of Topeka, KS and a 1997 graduate of Topeka High School, Woods began her collegiate playing career at Barton Community College where as a sophomore, she led BCC in three-point shooting, earned second-team All-Jayhawk West Conference honors and helped lead the team to a conference championship. The Cougars' 29-2 overall record was the highest winning percentage in school history at the time and Barton finished the year ranked sixth nationally. Woods accepted a scholarship to Western Illinois and played in 57 games from 1999 to 2001 for the Westerwinds. During her Division-I career, she averaged 8.8 points per game and was named second-team All-Mid Continent Conference as a senior after making a then-school-record 62 three-pointers. Despite playing only two seasons at WIU, Woods' 102 career three-pointers ranked fifth in school history.

Lastly, Woods earned an associate's degree from Barton in 1999 and completed her bachelor's degree in English with a minor in psychology from Western Illinois in 2001. Woods is a member of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association and has served as a roundtable presenter for the WBCA national convention. Woods was also a presenter at Dan Tudor's "2014 National Collegiate Recruiting Conference," held in Boston, Mass. In her time away from the court, she volunteers for "Girls First," a non-profit organization dedicated to providing sport and movement opportunities to underserved girls in the metropolitan New Orleans area.

LINDSAY WERTTZ

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS • 5TH SEASON
FREEPORT, ILL. • IUPFW, 2002

Lindsay Wertz is in her fifth season as the Green Wave's director of women's basketball operations where she is responsible for coordinating the team's camps, game scheduling, overseeing Tulane's student manager staff, serving as the liaison to the equipment operations staff, as well as working with Tulane's game operations staff and managing the Green Wave's travel on road trips. She will also help coordinate the team's special projects with the Tulane campus and New Orleans community.

Wertz came to Tulane following two seasons as the top assistant at Loyola University New Orleans where she helped lead the Wolfpack to a combined 43-18 overall record and a 20-10 mark in Southern States Athletic Conference action. In 2011-12, Wertz helped Loyola post a 23-6 record and a 14-4 league mark while advancing to the NAIA National Championship Tournament. The Wolfpack's .793 winning percentage that year stood as the second-best in the history of the program.

While at Loyola, Wertz was responsible for game-day preparation, scouting and recruiting while also designing and implementing the strength and conditioning program and oversaw the team's academic progress. She helped Keiva Council and Jasmine Brewer earn All-America, All-Louisiana, all-conference and National All-Jesuit Team honors.

In addition, Wertz was head coach at Hill College for the 2007-08 season and also served as assistant coach at Nevada from 2006-07, Midland college from 2004-06 and Florida Gulf Coast from 2002-03. She helped Nevada earn a spot in the WNIT in 2007, helped guide Midland to a spot in the Region V Championship and was instrumental in FGCU going 30-1 and posting the nation's top defense during her lone year in the Sunshine State.

Wertz played college basketball at Arkansas State during the 1996-97 season before spending two seasons at IPFW. She completed her bachelor's degree in general studies from IPFW in 2002, and earned a master's degree in health and physical education from Marshall two years later.

BROGAN JONES

FRESHMAN • CENTER • 6-4 • HS

LITTLE ROCK, ARK. • NORTH LITTLE ROCK

#45

Brogan Jones, a 6'4" center out of North Little Rock High School, where she led the Charging Wildcats to the Arkansas State semi-finals and the Naples Holiday Shootout National Division Championship. Currently ranked the 15th best post in the country by ESPN, Jones was an all-conference selection all three years and was selected to try out for the U17 USA Basketball team in 2014. Jones also gained a lot of national attention while playing four years under Coach Gene Alexander and John Thrower with the Arkansas Lady Hawks, where she was later recognized by Tulane. In addition, Jones spent this past summer playing with Texas Elite Adidas 17U Simmons, where she won both the Super 64 National Championship Tournament and the Adidas National Championship Tournament as well. "Brogan was a high priority for us in this class," Stockton explained. "She is a strong physical post with great hands and good fundamentals. Brogan has played at a high level of competition with her summer and high school teams which should help her make the transition to the college level. In many ways, she reminds me of former Tulane standout Brett Benzio."

KAYLA MANUIRIRANGI

FRESHMAN • GUARD • 5-7 • HS

HAWERA, NEW ZEALAND • NEW PLYMOUTH GIRLS

Kayla Manuirirangi is a 5'7" guard hailing from Hawera, New Zealand. Manuirirangi has spent the last two years at New Plymouth Girls' High School where she led the squad to two straight playoff appearances. In fact, in 2014, Manuirirangi guided her team to not only a national high school championship where she was named the tournament MVP, but also a 3x3 tournament title as well. Manuirirangi has also spent a lot of time on the national scene for New Zealand as well, dating as far back as 2012 when she made the U16 national squad. Manuirirangi then followed that up by captaining the U17 team in 2013 and the U18 squad in 2014. Later that year, Manuirirangi began representing New Zealand with the Junior Tall Ferns (U19). Furthermore, Manuirirangi graduated high school in fall 2015 and met up with the Green Wave in January of 2016, practicing with the Green Wave ever since. "Kayla has a wealth of international experience on the New Zealand national teams where she was an effective point guard and team captain," Stockton said. "Kayla brings great play making ability and a deep range shooting touch. Practicing in the spring will give Kayla an excellent opportunity to adjust to our system and get to know her future teammates."

MADDISON WELLS

FRESHMAN • FORWARD • 6-1 • HS

WINTER HAVEN, FLA. • CHAIN OF LAKES COLLEGIATE

#24

Maddison Wells, who will be celebrating a homecoming of sorts, as the 6'1" forward was originally from New Orleans before moving to her current residency in Florida. At Winter Haven High School, Wells helped produce back-to-back 20+ win seasons and playoff appearances: 22-8 in 2013-14 and 28-4 in 2014-15. Wells also honed her skills while playing for Kenny Kallina with the FGB travel team. Kallina describes Wells as a lefty forward who is an aggressive rebounder and a strong defender. Listed as a 4-star recruit by JumpOffPlus Scouting, Wells competed for FGB this past summer in the Tournament of Champions in Suwanee and Nashville, as well as the Summer Basketball Playoff in Charlotte. "Originally a New Orleans native, we are excited to bring Maddison home," Stockton said. "Maddison plays at a high level of intensity. She is a power forward, who can face up to score but isn't afraid to mix it up in the paint. Her strong work ethic on the court is also evident in the classroom where she is competing to be her class Valedictorian."

GAME 17: #19/16 USF 71, TULANE 67

JAN. 13, 2016 // THE FIELDHOUSE // NEW ORLEANS

Down eight points with a minute left, Tulane rallied to tie the game at 67-all, as Leslie Vorpahl connected on her career best 6th three-pointer of the game with 16 seconds left. Yet, USF quickly drove down the court to deliver the go-ahead jumper to eventually take it 71-67. Vorpahl finished with a career high 26 points. USF's Courtney Williams tallied 31 points, in which 16 came in the final period.

GAME 21: TEMPLE 72, TULANE 54

JAN. 26, 2016 // THE FIELDHOUSE // NEW ORLEANS

Temple forced 23 Tulane turnovers which they converted into 28 points as the Owls downed the Wave 72-54. Down 50-31 in the third quarter, Tulane rallied to pull within eight points but Temple countered immediately with an 11-0 run to keep the Wave at bay. Chinwe Duru led the Green Wave in both scoring (13 points) and rebounding (8), while also matching her season high of five blocks.

ALL-AMERICANS

STACEY GAUDET

Women's Sports Federation • First Team • 1987

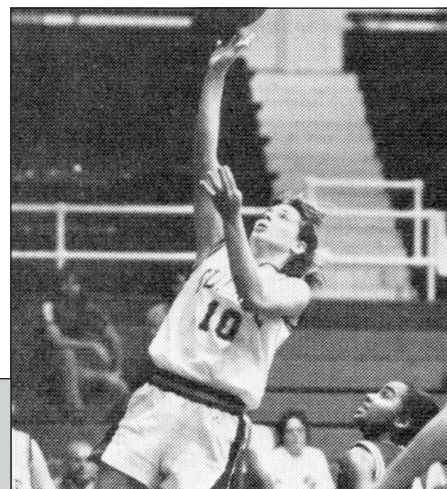

Stacey Gaudet became Tulane's first All-American in 1987, named by the Women's Sports Federation. As a senior, Gaudet averaged a school-record 21.8 points, 8.0 rebounds and 3.8 assists per game. She held or tied for the team lead in scoring in 25 of 28 games during the 1986-87 season, and was named New Orleans MVP by the Sugar Bowl Committee.

Her 609 points as a senior came without the luxury of a 3-point basket (the 3-pointer did not come into play until the 1987-88 season), and she was named Women's Sports Federation

National Player of the Week on Jan. 18 after scoring 81 points in three games.

Gaudet finished her career as just the sixth female player from the state of Louisiana to score 2,000 or more points, and ranked in the Top 20 nationally in free throw percentage all four years of her career.

She was the first female student-athlete in Tulane history to have her number retired, and was inducted into the Tulane Hall of Fame and the Louisiana American Italian Sports Hall of Fame in 1993.

BARBARA FARRIS

WBCA/Kodak • Honorable Mention • 1997

Ten years after Stacey Gaudet became the first All-American in Tulane history, Barbara Farris earned honorable mention recognition on the WBCA/Kodak squad after leading the Green Wave to a 27-5 record, the C-USA regular-season and tournament titles, and a third consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament.

A first-team All C-USA selection, Farris finished second in the conference and ranked eighth in the NCAA with a .623 field goal percentage, and paced the squad with 13.7 points and 7.7 rebounds per game.

Farris finished with double-digit scoring totals in 21 games as a junior, and tallied five double-doubles. She was named Conference USA Player of the Week on Jan. 13, earned MVP honors of the Tulane Classic and claimed a spot on the Conference USA All-Tournament Team after helping the Green Wave claim the tournament championship.

WBCA/Kodak • Honorable Mention • 1998-2000

The most decorated student-athlete in the history of Tulane women's basketball, Grace Daley was a three-time All-American during her Green Wave career. She earned honorable mention recognition on the WBCA/Kodak squad in each of her final three years, was named to the Associated Press honorable mention team as a junior, and claimed third-team AP All-American honors as a senior.

During her three All-American campaigns, Daley never scored fewer than 550 points, pulled down at least 100 rebounds and dished out at least 70 assists each year. In the three-year span, she averaged 20.8 points, 5.3 rebounds and 3.3 assists per game, and shot an astonishing .503 from the field (604-of-1200).

A three-time first-team All-Conference-USA selection, Daley helped lead the Green Wave to a combined 72-18 record from 1997-2000 as Tulane advanced to play in the NCAA Tournament each year and won the C-USA Tournament her junior and senior campaigns.

Daley graduated as the school's career leader in points and free throws made. Following her senior season, Daley was drafted fifth overall in the 2000 WNBA Draft by the Minnesota Lynx, and was just the second college player select-

WomensCollegeHoops.com • Honorable Mention • 2002

A transfer from East Carolina, Teana McKiver made her presence felt during her three seasons with the Green Wave as she earned All-America honors as a junior and senior.

McKiver earned outright All-America recognition from Basketball Times in 2002 and from the WBCA in 2003, and was named to the WomensCollegeHoops.com Underrated All-America squad both seasons.

During her All-America campaigns, McKiver was anything but "underrated" as she led the Green Wave in scoring and blocked shots both seasons while ranking second in rebounding. In those two years, she averaged 14.8 points, 7.3 rebounds and 2.5 blocked shots per game.

McKiver's 80 blocks in 2003 are tied for the Tulane single-season record, and despite playing just three years for the Green Wave, she ranks third in career blocks with 217.

ASHLEY LANGFORD

Women's Basketball News Service • Freshman All-America • 2006

With D'Aundra Henry taking a medical red-shirt, freshman Ashley Langford was forced to be the starting -- and sometimes the only active -- point guard. The native of Harrisburg, Pa., responded by shattering two Tulane assist marks en route to freshman All-America honors.

Langford, who was named to the C-USA All-Freshman team, averaged 6.58 assists per game, which led all freshmen nationally, was fifth among all players, and led C-USA. She dished out 171 assists (topping the then Tulane single-season record of 139) and broke Tulane's and tied C-USA's single game mark with 14.

She recorded five double-digit assist games and led Tulane in steals (48) and minutes (38.4). She averaged 9.0 points and 3.5 rebounds per game.

JAMIE KAPLAN

Associated Press • Honorable Mention • 2013

Kaplan's junior year at Tulane was an historic one as she set the single season assists record after breaking Ashley Langford's mark of 206 by recording 209. Her assist total ranked second in Conference-USA and seventh in the NCAA, while her assist-to-turnover ratio was 57th in the country.

The lone player on the team to start all 31 games in 2013-14, Kaplan also led the team with 361 points scored, 100 free throws made, 1,017 minutes played and 32.8 minutes per game while ranking second on the squad with 120 field goals made and 37 steals. She also finished third on the team in points per game (11.6) and 3-point baskets (21) while ranking fifth in both field goal percentage (.392) and three-point field goal percentage (.263).

In her career, Kaplan ranked second in school history in total assists (582) and assists per game (4.5), sixth in total minutes played (3,375), third in games played (130) and 10th in games started (96).
