MAINE RETURNS TO ACTION AT TULANE

Maine returns from its Holiday break and heads back out on the road to take on Tulane in the two team's first meeting since 1998. The Black Bears, making their first trip to Tulane since a 1987 meeting, will be playing game four of a six-game stretch away from home.

A LOOK AT THE BLACK BEARS:

Maine, winners of four of its last five, look to get back on the winning track after a 76-51 defeat at the hands of No. 11/12 Miami in the Championship of the Miami Holiday Tournament back on Dec. 20. In the loss, Maine was led by Tanesha Sutton and Julie Brosseau, who each tallied double-figures with 13 and 10 points, respectively. It was just the second time in the last seven games that an opponent scored 55+ points against the Black Bears.

Tanesha Sutton has led Maine in its last three outings as the redshirt sophomore enters action riding a three-game double-figure scoring streak. Over the run, Sutton is averaging 13.7 points, 6.0 rebounds and 3.7 assists along with shooting 66.7-percent (16-for-24) from the floor. Overall, Sutton is averaging 7.5 points and leads the Black Bears in rebounding (5.5) and is tied for the team lead with 2.5 assists. Sutton leads all Black Bears from the floor at 48.8-percent and 27 of her 71 rebounds have come on the offensive end.

Sigi Koizar continues to control the offense for Maine. Despite having her seven game double-figure scoring streak snapped against Miami (7 points), Koizar ranks fourth in the America East at 14.2 points per game. Her 87.5-percent mark from the free throw line is also good for fourth, and 37th among the nation's leaders, while her 21 makes from downtown tie her for 10th in the league. Koizar is also tied for the team lead with 2.5 assists. Freshman Laia Sole, a three-time America East Rookie of the Week, is adding 9.2 points with a 45.5-percent showing from the floor. Fellow freshman Blanca Millan is chipping in 7.0 points and leads Maine at 1.7 steals per game. Julie Brosseau is a threat from beyond the arc, leading Maine and ranking 10th in the league at 39.6-percent and is tied with Koizar for the team-lead with 21 makes from 3-point range.

Maine continues to climb back to the upper echelon of defensive rankings that it is used to producing as it is allowing 59.3 points per game, third best in the America East and 85th in the nation. The Black Bears are shooting 29.0-percent from 3-point range and rank 93rd in the nation with 79 makes. Part of the reason for that is because they lead the league and rank 34th in the country with 272 attempts from downtown.

The Black Bears have faced one of the most challenging schedules in their history, already playing three teams ranked 11th or higher. The strength of schedule Maine has played already ranks it 40th in the nation, with the next highest America East team's SOS being Binghamton (65). Maine is 7-3 against unranked teams and is holding those 10 opponents to just 52.9 points per game, outscoring them by a +8.4 margin. Maine's RPI currently sits at 72; 75 spots higher than the next America East team (UAlbany - 147).

A LOOK AT TULANE:

The Green Wave return from their Holiday break and look to build on their current three-game win streak. Most recently, Tulane picked up a win over SEC member Auburn by a score of 61-59, to win the 21st Tulane Classic. Kolby Morgan was named the Classic's MVP after leading Tulane with 18 points in the finale. The Green Wave is a perfect 6-0 at home this season. Morgan leads the way at 17.9 points per game, 56th best in the country and fifth in the American. The offense begins with Leslie Vorpahl who's 6.7 assists per game rank her 16th nationally. Tulane is one of the best shooting team's in the country, checking in a 44.0-percent from the floor, good for 54th nationally.

ALL-TIME SERIES WITH TULANE:

Maine and Tulane will be meeting for the third time in history and the first since the Black Bears dropped an 85-76 victory back in 1998 at Tulane. The first meeting of the series came in 1987, a game played in Portland, Maine and won by the Black Bears, 65-57.

In the 1998 outing at Tulane, current Maine associate head coach Amy Vachon tallied eight points, five rebounds and 12 assists in 37 minutes of action.

60's THE MAGIC NUMBER:

Maine is 7-1 when allowing 60 or fewer points this season. It's lone loss in the stat came in a 58-49 neutral site defeat to Hampton. Dating back to last season, Maine is 32-7 when it holds opponents under 60 points.

IT'S THAT SIMPLE:

Often it is just that simple. The Black Bears are undefeated (7-0) when committing fewer turnovers than their opponents and 0-5 when turning it over more than the opposition. Maine is averaging 14.3 turnovers per game and forcing 15.6.

ENERGIZER SIGI:

To keep par with last season, Sigi Koizar again ranks among the nation's leaders in minutes player. Koizar is 37th in the country in minutes played per game (35.4) and ranks 10th in the NCAA with 460:00 total minutes.

SOLE COLLECTING HARDWARE:

In the early stages of her freshman season, Laia Sole has proved to be one of the top newcomers in the America East. Sole is a three-time America East Rookie of the Week and was honored as a member of the Tipoff Tournament All-Tournament team. Sole currently ranks second among freshman scorers in America East. Through her first 13 games, Sole has bested double-digit scoring efforts on six occasions.

TOUGH SCHEDULE:

Maine has played by far the toughest schedule among its America East competition and one of the toughest in the country. Entering action at Tulane, Maine's schedule ranked 40th among SOS in the nation through games played this far. Maine's competition, which has featured three teams ranked 11th or higher, has compiled a 62.1 winning percentage (87-53). The next highest America East team is Binghamton at 65. In looking at RPI, Maine currently stands at 72; 75 spots higher than the next AE team (UAlbany - 147).

DEFENSIVE WINS:

A year ago, Maine limited its opponents to just 51.1 points per game. This season, when Maine's great defense has presented itself, it has ended in wins for the Black Bears. In its seven wins this season, Maine is holding opponents to 47.6 points per game while forcing 18.7 turnovers (a +6.7 margin). Overall, Maine ranks 85th in the country in scoring defense (59.3).

BIG B1G WIN

Maine got off to a big start this season as it defeated Big Ten (B1G) member Purdue, 67-47, in the opening round of the Tipoff Tournament. The Black Bears were able to avenge last season's 56-33 loss at Purdue. Maine, which tallied just 33 total points at Purdue, jumped out to a 25-6 lead in the first quarter this season before surpassing last season's game total 33 points at the half of this season's meeting (36). The victory was Maine's first over a B1G opponent since a win over Michigan in 2004. The head coach of that Maine team was Sharon Versyp, the current coach at Purdue.

KOIZAR GOOD WORKS NOMINEE:

On Dec. 1, it was announced that Sigi Koizar was one of 97 nominees nation-wide for the 2017 WBCA/Allstate Good Works Team. Koizar, the only nominee to represent the America East conference, is recognized as a nominee to the award which honors an outstanding group of student-athletes who represent the sport's finest in the areas of community service and leadership among their peers.

TIPOFF TOURNAMENT HONORS

The Black Bears earned runner-up status in their own Tipoff Tournament to kickoff the 2016-17 season. Sigi Koizar (17 pts) and Laia Sole (14 pts) each tallied double-figures in the opening win over Purdue to help them earn all-tournament team honors. The Black Bears dropped the championship game to No. 10 Mississippi St.

WAIT, WHERE'D EVERYONE GO:

It will be a new look for the Black Bears this season after graduating eight seniors and losing two others student-athletes from its 2015-16 roster. In all, Maine lost 69.1% (1463/2117 pts) of its scoring offense. However, Maine returns top scorer and preseason all-conference selection Sigi Koizar (17.7 pts/619 total pts) and welcomes in a wealth of athletic talent with high-level experience and national team competition under their belts.

SEEING 20-20:

Maine has put together back-to-back 20+ win seasons, including a 26 win seasons a year ago which came up just one win short of matching the all-time single-season wins record (1996-96). Maine will be looking for its third-straight 20+ win season, which it also put together from 2002-05, also the last time Maine was over .500 in three consecutive awards.

HOME COOKING:

For the Black Bears, there's nothing better than playing in front of the home fans at the Cross Insurance Center. It's clear that Maine has a true home-court advantage as it went 12-0 at home last season and put together 20-straight home wins before dropping a contest to No. 10 Mississippi St. Prior to the loss to the Bulldogs, to find Maine's last loss at the Cross Insurance Center one would have to go all the way back to Jan. 3, 2015, a 49-43 loss to UAlbany. Maine is 30-4 over the past three seasons at home. The Black Bears were tops in the America East and second in New England (UConn) home attendance last season (2,008). In its last 22 outings, Maine is 21-1 at the Cross Center.

PRESEASON POLL:

After capturing back-to-back America East regular season titles, Maine has been selected third in the 2016-17 America East Preseason Coaches Poll. The Black Bears earned a pair of first place tallies and were just two votes behind UMBC for second and just two ahead of Binghamton.

DEEP KNOWLEDGE:

Over the past three seasons, Maine has knocked down an astounding 680 total 3-pointers, averaging 227 makes from beyond the arc. Maine now owns three of the top five single season marks (245 (1), 223 (T-2), 212 (T-4)) in America East history.

ATTENDANCE:

A year ago, Maine averaged 2,008 fans at home; second best in New England (UConn) and tops in the America East. The single season total was Maine's highest since 2007-08 (2,040).

DEFENSIVE EFFORT:

Last year, the Black Bears finished the season ranked fifth in the nation and first in the America East, allowing just 51.1 points per game. Maine held 31 of its 35 opponents under 60 points and 17 under 50, including LSU and Clemson. In league play, Maine held 15 of 16 opponents under 60 points and seven under 50. Counting tournament action, conference foes averaged just 47.9 ppg against the Black Bears. Maine forced 15.7 turnovers, holding a +3.46 margin in the stat.

DIALING LONG DISTANCE:

Maine was tops in the America East in three-point field goals made (223), three-point field goals per game (6.4) and first in three-point field goal percentage (32.9). On 15 separate occasions, the Black Bears hit seven or more three-point field goals in a game. Maine hit a season-high 13 three-pointers against UAlbany (2/14). Maine's 223 makes finished just 22 short of tying the all-time record (245) set in 2013-14.

SIGI FOR THREE:

Sigi Koizar knocked down 85 shots from 3-point range in 2015-16, a new single-season Maine record. With two makes at Stony Brook (2/20), Koizar set a new Maine record for three-point makes in a season, besting Kristen McCormick's previous record (70), set in 1998-99. Against Stony Brook on March 6, Koizar matched Cindy Blodgett's record for 3-point attempts of 187 (1996-97) and finished the year with 196 attempts. Koizar's total was good for fifth best on the America East single season 3-point record list.

Richard Barron enters his sixth year with the Black Bears, and his 17th overall season as a head coach. Following the 2015-16 season, in which Barron guided the Black Bears back to their second-straight WNIT berth after capturing another America East regular season title, Barron agreed to a four-year extension with the University of Maine.

It was upward and onward in 2015-16 under Barron's leadership as the Black Bears continued the climb to greatness. The team that had regained respect throughout the Northeast was now opening eyes on a national level as Maine earned a No. 14 ranking in the College Insider Mid-Major Top-25. Barron's defensive philosophy proved to be one of the top in the country as Maine finished the season ranked as the No. 5 rated team in terms of scoring defense, limiting opponents to just 51.1 points per game. The Black Bears built off their defensive success as Barron guided Maine to its first back-to-back 20+ win season since 2003-04, 2004-05. The year would see Maine reach the America East Championship game and once again return to the WNIT after a 26 win campaign, one short of the school record. The Black Bears went undefeated on their home court, moving their home win streak to 19-0. The home crowds continued to grow as Maine was top in the conference and second in New England, only to UConn, in attendance (2,008).

Barron's mentoring throughout the 2014-15 season guided the Black Bears to their highest achievement of success in over 10 years as Maine reached the 20-win plateau for the first time since 2004-05 and totaled its highest amount of wins (23) in 11 years. The success of 2014-15 brought Maine back into the national picture as it reached a #19 ranking in the College Insider Mid-Major Top-25, returned to the WNIT for the first time since 2005 and captured the 2015 America East Regular Season Co-Championship.

Maine's success on the court continued to be matched by its community service and academic efforts. The Black Bears finished the year with the 24th best GPA in the nation (3.399) while spending countless hours off the court giving back to the Black Bear Nation community.

It took Barron just three year's to return the Black Bears to the winning ways which they were so used to in year's past. In his third season at the helm of the team, Barron led Maine to a 17-15 record, a 10-6 league record and its first postseason win since 1999; a 77-47 home drubbing of Bucknell in the opening round of the Women's Basketball Invitational (WBI). Maine's 17 wins was a +13 over the previous season; one of the top three turnarounds in the country in terms of win totals. Maine's total wins (17) and America East conference victories (10) were its most since the 2004-05 season. The Black Bears finished fourth in the league standings; their highest regular season finishing mark since placing first in 2005.

Barron's offensive guidance produced several record-breaking accolades including setting a new mark for most 3-point field goals made in a season in both the team and league record books and tied the mark for 3-point field goals made in a single game (14 at UMBC). Maine's offense improved +10.0 points per game (65.2); the highest points per game mark since the 2002-03 season.

In his second season with Maine, Barron worked to develop one of the youngest squads in all of NCAA basketball. His first recruiting class welcomed nine student-athletes to the Black Bears, led by freshman forward Liz Wood who Barron helped develop into the America East Co-Player of the Year.

In his first year as a Black Bear, Coach Barron doubled Maine's overall and conference wins from a season ago while leading the team to its first postseason victory since 2006. Along the way, Coach Barron helped a pair of players to All-Conference honors as Samantha Baranowski was named to the All-America East Third Team and rookie Danielle Walczak was honored to the America East All-Rookie squad.

Following the 2011-12 season, Coach Barron proved to Black Bear nation why he is known for his fantastic recruiting. Coach Barron, along with his staff, introduced a nine-member 2012-13 signing class to the University of Maine, which received national attention as the class was ranked 36th best in the nation by Blue Star Basketball's National Scouting director Chris Mennig.

Off the court, Coach Barron made sure the Black Bears were involved in a variety of activities within the community in terms of public service, fundraising efforts and charity events with the most memorable moment off the court coming when the Black Bears and Coach Barron teamed up to raise over $10,000 dollars for the Play4Kay Breast Cancer Foundation.

The University of Maine introduced Richard Barron as its new women's basketball coach on Tuesday, May 10, 2011 in a press conference at "The Pit" in Memorial Gymnasium.

Barron came to the University of Maine after a two-year stint at North Carolina State where he served as an assistant coach under Kellie Harper. In Barron's first year with the Wolfpack, the Tennessee native helped guide the team to the NCAA Tournament with a 20-14 record. A team that was predicted to finish ninth in the preseason, ended up finishing tied for fifth in the ACC standings while making it to the 2010 ACC Tournament Finals.

Barron is well renowned for his fantastic recruiting as he spent two seasons at Baylor prior to his time at NC State as the associate head coach and recruiting coordinator with the Bears. During his time at Baylor, Barron was responsible for landing the consensus top-ranked player (Brittney Griner) and the top ranked recruiting class of 2009 while also assisting in coaching the Bears to the Big 12 Tournament Championship.

Baylor compiled a 54-13 record to go along with two trips to the NCAA tournament, including a run to the Sweet 16 in 2008-09; in the two seasons Barron was with the Bears' staff.

Barron began his Division I head coaching career at Princeton as he spent six seasons at the helm of the Tigers' program. After taking over the program fresh off a 2-25 season prior to his arrival, Barron guided the Tigers to an 11-16 record in his first season, making Princeton one of the most improved teams in the country that year. During his six years at Princeton, Barron managed the Tigers to an Ivy League title in 2005-06, setting a school record for overall wins (21-7) and conference wins (12-2). Barron mentored five different players to All-Ivy League honors while at Princeton.

Before his time at Princeton, Barron spent five seasons at the University of the South in Sewanee, Tenn, compiling a 77-48 record during his tenure. In his final season at the University of the South, Barron guided the squad to its first ever conference championship and a No. 8 national ranking in Division III.

Prior to his time coaching the Sewanee women, Barron was the assistant men's coach at Sewanee for four years. Barron came to the University of Maine with an 11-year head coaching career record of 152-139.

In the summer of 2006, Barron looked to expand his coaching knowledge as he traveled to Treviso, Italy with the NBA's Phoenix Suns to observe and study under current New York Knicks head coach Mike D'Antoni. In 1998, Barron was one of just three collegiate coaches selected to serve as a floor coach at the American Basketball League's combine. He also served as the Ivy League Representative for the Women's Basketball Coaches Association from 2003-06.

Barron, who grew up in both Florida and Tennessee, graduated from Kenyon College with a B.S. in biology. He graduated cum laude after being named to the dean's list all eight semesters. Barron played both basketball and baseball while at Kenyon.

Barron and his wife, Maureen, a former Princeton softball coach, are the proud parents of twin daughters, Lane and Rae, and younger son, Billy.
