THE INSELL FILE

No coach in Middle Tennessee women's basketball history has produced the success that Rick Insell has in 11 seasons. Since his arrival to Middle Tennessee in 2005, he has led the Raiders to nine NCAA Tournament appearances, two WNITs, coached five All-Americans and grew four WNBA Draft picks.

In his 11 years, the five-time hall of fame inductee has established a track record unlike any other in the Blue Raiders' rich women's basketball history, while also creating lofty expectations. Entering his 12th season leading his alma mater's women's basketball program, Insell has also positioned Middle Tennessee as one of the winningest programs nationally.

Insell, the program's all-time winningest coach with 276 victories, is among the nation's leaders in his profession. Middle Tennessee's .766 winning percentage over the last five years is 18th nationally, and the program's .686 overall winning percentage is 17th best all-time.

Insell is one of five Division I head coaches to average 25 wins per season with at least 10 years head coaching experience. The others are Geno Auriemma, UConn (30.5), Kim Mulkey, Baylor (29.3), Tara Van Derveer, Stanford (26.4), Karl Smesko, Florida Gulf Coast (25.8) and Insell (25.0).

Insell is listed fifth on the Division I all-time winningest coach list (by percentage) with a .765 ledger. His is listed seventh on the Division I winningest active coaches list.

Under Insell's watch, Middle Tennessee is the only program nationally to have the NCAA Division I scoring champion three consecutive years (Amber Holt, 2008, Alysha Clark, 2009, Alysha Clark, 2010). Clark's back-to-back reign made her just the third women's basketball player in NCAA history to accomplish the feat and the first in almost a decade.

Middle Tennessee also has participated in a national postseason tournament in each of Insell's 11 previous seasons, playing in nine NCAA Regionals and two WNITs. The 2014-15 Blue Raiders won three postseason games and reached the quarterfinals of the WNIT.

Attendance has also spiked during Insell's tenure. Middle Tennessee has ranked among the Top 25 nationally in attendance in each of the last four seasons, and the Blue Raiders have been ranked in the Top 30 nationally in nine of Insell's 11 seasons. The top 25 crowds in program history all have occurred during Insell's tenure, and attendance at Middle Tennessee home games has increased 800 percent since his hire.

HEAD COACH ■ RICK INSELL

12th Season at MT ■ 40th Season Overall (including Shelbyville HS)

Insell surpassed Lewis Bivens as the program's all-time winningest coach with a 60-39 win at South Alabama (1/5/13), which was his 183rd victory at that time. On March 5, 2014, Insell secured his 1,000th career win, which includes his 775 victories at nearby Shelbyville Central High School.

His 100th victory came in the 2009 Sun Belt Tournament Championship game, as the Blue Raiders clinched the title over UALR. Insell also amassed an impressive Sun Belt ledger, posting a 142-18 (.888) mark during his tenure, including the league's last undefeated marks of 16-0 in 2011-12 and an 18-0 mark during the 2006-07 campaign. In eight Sun Belt Tournament appearances, he has lost just three times in 22 tries.

Insell has collected seven regular-season championships (six in the Sun Belt, one in Conference USA) and seven INSELL YEAR-BY-YEAR tournament titles (five in the SBC, two in C-USA) to his mantle. The seven tournament titles also carried automatic berths into the NCAA Tournament. Insell's teams have also warranted two at-large NCAA Regional berths (2011, 2012). His 2008 and 2015 teams participated in the WNIT.

Middle Tennessee also has won at least 20 contests in each of Insell's 11 seasons, including a school-record 30 victories during the 2006-07 campaign. The Blue Raiders also owned the nation's longest winning streak at 27 games and didn't lose for more than 100 days during the season.

Middle Tennessee also had a 20-game win streak in 2011-12, which was the second-longest in program history. The four longest win streaks in school history have occurred under Insell and each has been at least 16 games. In 2013-14 his team strung together a 17-game win streak and finished the year with 29 victories, ranking second-most in program history.

Insell has also been the coach for four WNBA selections during his 11 seasons, including Alysha Clark, who was chosen 17th overall by the San Antonio Silver Stars in the 2010 Draft. She joined Amber Holt, selected ninth overall by the Connecticut Sun in 2008; Chrissy Givens, picked 31st overall by the Phoenix Mercury in 2007; and Cheyenne Parker, was selected fifth overall by the Chicago Sky in 2015.

All of Middle Tennessee's All-American selections also have been developed by Insell, starting with Givens in 2007, and Holt in 2008. Clark became the first player in the MT record books to garner All-America accolades in more than one season when she collected honors in 2009 and 2010. Most recently, Ebony Rowe was tabbed a Freshman All-American, becoming the first player in school history to receive the nod, in 2011. Rowe was named Honorable Mention All-American by the Associated Press and the WBCA in 2012-13 and 2013-14.

Insell is married to the former Deborah Spry of Woodbury, Tenn. The couple has three sons - Tom, Kyle and Matt. Tom is married to the former Sarah Stewart of Shelbyville and they have two daughters, Carter and Caroline and one son Charley. Kyle is married to the former Megan Parsons, and Matt is currently the head women's basketball coach at the University of Mississippi.
