SERIES & NOTES:

- Wake Forest (0-0, 0-0 ACC) is coming off a 3-9 season overall while finishing 1-7 in the ACC.

TULANE VS. THE ACC:

A WHOLE NEW STAFF (ALMOST):

- Upon Willie Fritz' arrival at Tulane, the coaching staff went through radical changes, but two names may ring a bell. Walker Ashburn returns for his second season as a defensive graduate assistant, remaining as the only holdover from Curtis Johnson's staff. Additionally, Jordy Joseph joined the staff as an offensive graduate assistant after a playing career that saw him lineup at quarterback for the Green Wave (2011-15).

WELCOME BACK:

- The Green Wave will welcome back Kenneth Santa Marina and Sergio Medina, both of whom redshirted the entire 2015 season. Terren Encalade also returns after missing the final 10 games of the season and also earning a redshirt.

WILLIE FRITZ

Head Coach • First Season
Shawnee Mission, Kan.

Tulane University Director of Athletics Troy Dannen formally introduced Willie Fritz as the Green Wave's new head football coach on Dec. 15, 2015. Fritz becomes the 40th head football coach in the 121-year history of the Tulane football program.

With 193 career victories (193-74-1), Fritz is currently the fourth active winningest head coach among coaches in the Football Bowl Subdivision. He is currently tied with Kansas State's Bill Snyder.

Fritz brings 33 years of collegiate experience as a football student-athlete or coach to the Green Wave. He has led his teams to six combined conference championships (one at every level he has coached) and two bowl appearances. He was also twice named the national coach of the year, including the American Football Coaches Association Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) Coach of the Year in 2011 and the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year in 2012.

Fritz, 55, comes to Tulane from Georgia Southern where he spent two seasons and led the Eagles to a combined record of 17-7, a 2014 Sun Belt Conference (SBC) title and the school's first-ever NCAA postseason bowl game with their berth in the 2015 GoDaddy.com Bowl. Georgia Southern concluded the 2015 regular season with an 8-4 overall record, including a mark of 6-2 in conference play.

Fritz led the Eagles to a 9-3 overall record and a perfect mark of 8-0 in conference play during his first season at Georgia Southern in 2014, and was named the SBC Coach of the Year. However, the school's waiver claim to allow Georgia Southern to play in a bowl despite being in the second year of the NCAA's transition period was denied.

Prior to Georgia Southern, Fritz served as head coach at Sam Houston State from 2010-13. A proven winner with more than 30 years of coaching experience, Fritz joined the Eagles from Sam Houston State, where he led the team to back-to-back Southland Conference titles, NCAA FCS championship appearances in 2011 and 2012, and a third-straight playoff berth in 2013.

The Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year at the FCS level in 2012, Fritz was recognized nationally in 2011 as the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Coach of the Year. Honored as the AFCA Regional Coach of the Year in 2011 and 2012, Fritz was selected by the media and his peers in the Southland Conference as the league's Coach of the Year in 2011 after his team went a perfect 7-0 in conference play.

In 2011 and 2012, Sam Houston State posted the two highest single-season win totals in program history with marks of 14-1 (2011) and 11-4 (2012) and Bearkat players were showered with accolades. More than 50 earned All-Southland Conference honors under Fritz in the last four years, not including additional "Player of the Year," "Offensive Player of the Year," "Defensive Player of the Year," and "Newcomer of the Year" awards. All-America status from national coaching and media outlets were bestowed on 11 Sam Houston State players during his tenure.

son during his four years there, Fritz left to revitalize a Central Missouri program and guided it to 11 winning seasons. The NCAA Division II program's ledger included two 10-win seasons with the 2001 Mule squad earning its first postseason trip in more than 30 years.

In 2002, Central Missouri made its first-ever appearance in the NCAA Division II playoffs and was the Mid-America Athletic Association (MIAA) co-champion a year later. A 97-47 mark in 13 seasons ranks Fritz as the winningest coach in the program's 118-year history. He was the only coach to ever win seven or more games in eight consecutive seasons and his victory total ranked him 15th among active Division II coaches at the time. In addition to his impressive 67.4 winning percentage with the Mules, Fritz coached his student-athletes to achieve their potential both on the field and in the classroom. More than 150 Mules were recognized with All-MIAA honors with 41 first-team selections and 24 All-Americans.

Under Fritz, Central Missouri recorded a graduation rate of 84 percent with 144 MIAA Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll recipients, 14 Academic All-Region and three Academic All-Americans.

Serving as a graduate assistant for the Bearkat program during the 1984 and 1985 seasons, Fritz earned a master's degree in kinesiology while Sam Houston State posted a 16-6 record and won the 1985 Gulf Star Conference championship. He returned to Huntsville in 1991 after spending two years at Coffeyville College in Kansas under legendary Coach Dick Foster, earning a promotion to defensive coordinator after one year. He stayed another two years to work for Coach Skip Foster and the Red Ravens.

Coach Ron Randleman brought Fritz back to the state of Texas and Sam Houston State as secondary and special teams coach in 1991, instilling an attitude of excellence on special teams that would last more than a decade. The Bearkats' "block party" racked up 80 blocked punts, field goals and extra points beginning with Fritz in 1991 and lasting through 2004.

In Fritz's first year as a full-time assistant coach at Sam Houston State in 1991, the Bearkats won the Southland Conference. That league title and eight-win season launched SHSU to the program's second-ever appearance in the NCAA playoffs.

Fritz would leave Huntsville again, this time for an opportunity to be the head coach at Blinn College, where he would turn around a program that had only five wins in its previous three seasons.

From 1993-96, Fritz and the Buccaneers would rack up 39 victories against only five losses with a tie and claim two national junior college championships. He was inducted into the NJCAA Football Hall of Fame for the environment of success he created at Blinn.

One of seven children, Fritz is the son of the late Harry Fritz, who coached the Central Missouri football team in 1952 before continuing his career as the Executive Director at the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) in Kansas City. The elder Fritz also served at several colleges and universities in administration as an athletics director.

Fritz played on two conference title teams and was a four-starter at defensive back for Coach Randleman at Pittsburg State and remained at his alma mater as a student assistant coach for his alma mater in 1982. Early coaching stops included a year at Shawnee Mission Northwest High School (Kansas) in 1983 and Willis High School (Texas) in 1986, with his return to Sam Houston State for graduate school in between those years.

Yulman Stadium

Yulman Stadium, the crown jewel of the university's athletics complex, opened its doors for the first time in front of a capacity crowd on September 6, 2014 against Georgia Tech. Yulman Stadium marks the beginning of a renaissance of Tulane Athletics, bringing Green Wave football back to campus for the first time in nearly 40 years.

Tulane's new home field advantage came from the generosity of three couples in particular - Richard Yulman and his late wife Janet, Gayle and Tom Benson and Jill and Avie Glazer.

Richard Yulman, the retired chairman and owner of mattress manufacturing giant Serta International, donated $15 million toward construction of this $73 million facility. Yulman Stadium is named in honor of Richard, Janet and the Yulman family.

New Orleans Saints owner Tom Benson and his wife Gayle, a member of the Board of Tulane, donated $7.5 million to Yulman Stadium. Benson Field, which will host the games of Yulman Stadium, is named in their honor.

Jill and Avie Glazer supported the stadium with a multi-million dollar gift. The Jill H. and Avram A. Glazer Family Club, the premium space in which to experience games at Yulman Stadium, is named in their honor.

Construction of Yulman Stadium began in January 2013. Gould Evans and Associates and Lee Ledbetter & Associates served as the project architects, while Woodward Design + Build LLC was the contractor.

Tulane football has been a part of the fabric of New Orleans since the Green Wave played its first season back in 1893. Generations experienced college football at the old Tulane Stadium from 1926-1974.

It is not hard to find a story about someone's experience at old Tulane Stadium. Boy Scouts selling programs, a record crowd of 86,598 watching the Green Wave defeat LSU in 1973, the annual Sugar Bowl and early Saints football, are all part of the story of Tulane Stadium.

Now in its second year, a new chapter continues to be written in a new home by a new (and old) generation of Green Wave fans.

*Includes Sugar Bowl played at Tulane Stadium

Tulane Stadium was the home to Tulane Football from 1926 until 1974. Built on an old plantation where sugar was first granulated, the original construction cost approximately $300,000 and was made mostly from brick and concrete. As the site of the annual Sugar Bowl, Tulane Stadium was often informally referred to as "Sugar Bowl Stadium." After its expansion in the 1940's, Tulane Stadium became the largest football stadium in the south.

2015 GAME RECAPS

Game 1 • Tulane 7 vs. Duke 37

Yulman Stadium • New Orleans, La.

Sept. 3, 2015 • 25,470 Attendance

Despite forcing two turnovers, Tulane's football squad could not stop Duke from scoring, while the Green Wave offense struggled to put points on the board in a 37-7 loss to the Blue Devils during the 2015 season opener at Yulman Stadium on Thursday night.

Tulane managed 271 yards of offense on the night -- with 99 yards coming on one drive - but Duke nearly doubled that with 530.

The Green Wave never gave up, though, as they fought until the clock ran out. Trailing 23-0 in the fourth quarter, Tulane got on the board with the program's longest passing play since 2012 as redshirt-sophomore quarterback Tanner Lee connected with redshirt-junior Devon Breaux on a 76-yard touchdown reception to complete a four-play, 99-yard drive in the fourth quarter.

On the ensuing kickoff, however, Duke's DeVon Edwards returned redshirt-senior Trevor Simms' kick 95 yards for a touchdown.

On the evening, Lee was 24-of-42 for 246 yards and one touchdown, while sophomore wide receiver Teddy Veal and redshirt-sophomore running back Dontrell Hillard paced the team with five receptions apiece. Breaux led the way with 92 yards receiving in his first-career multi-reception game, as he snagged four passes.

The Blue Devils struck first on an otherwise sloppy first quarter for both teams. Ross Martin kicked a 32-yard field goal with 5:41 remaining in the opening stanza after each team committed three penalties. Tulane's defense did manage to stop Duke on their opening drive, as redshirt-sophomore defensive end Ade Aruna forced a fumble on Duke's Johnell Barnes that was recovered by redshirt-sophomore defensive back Jarrod Franklin.

Duke reached the endzone shortly after the start of the second quarter, as Duke's Thomas Sirk connected with Shaquille Powell on a three-yard shovel pass to cap off a nine-play, 39-yard drive. Near the end of the first half, Duke retained the ball after an offsides penalty on Tulane during a punt before running out the clock and adding a field goal to take a 13-0 lead at the intermission. On the first drive of the second half, Duke tacked on their third field goal of the contest.

Tulane's defense forced their second turnover of the game with their backs against the wall in the middle of the third quarter when an errant backwards pitch by Sirk was scooped up by senior safety Darion Monroe in the red zone. The fumble recovery by Monroe was the seventh of his career, tying him for the Tulane career record with Jay Rink, who was honored with a moment of silence prior to the contest after succumbing to ALS earlier this year.

Junior linebacker Nico Marley was Tulane's leading tackler on the evening with a career-high 15 (13 solo, 2 assists). Franklin (8 solo, 2 assists) and junior Richard Allen (8 solo, 2 assists) were also in double-digit tackle totals during career outings.

Bobby Dodd Stadium • Atlanta, Ga.

Sept. 12, 2015 • 50,435 Attendance

It was a tough Saturday afternoon for the Tulane football squad, as the Green Wave fell to No. 15/16 Georgia Tech, 65-10, in front of 50,435 at Bobby Dodd Stadium.

Tulane (0-2) had trouble stopping the triple-option offense employed by the Yellow Jackets (2-0), who ran for 439 yards while adding 132 through the air. Tulane managed 248 yards of total offense, but could not convert those yards to points, as they scored just one touchdown and added a field goal late in the contest.

Georgia Tech came out of the gates hot, as they rolled off a six-play, 35-yard drive capped off by a 13-yard rush by Qua Searcy. During the Yellow Jackets' second drive on the afternoon, a bad pitch resulted in a fumble that was recovered by Tulane's junior defensive tackle Tanzel Smart. However, the Green Wave could not capitalize on the miscue, though, as redshirt-senior kicker Trevor Simms missed his second-career field goal attempt.

On the ensuing drive, Georgia Tech scored again to go up 14-0. Backed up in their own territory, the Green Wave had a punt blocked for the first time since the two teams met last season that eventually led to another Yellow Jacket touchdown.

Things picked up midway through the second quarter, as redshirt-sophomore quarterback Tanner Lee converted on a 20-yard strike to sophomore tight end Trey Scott on third down to extend a drive before finding junior receiver Devon Breaux for a 44-yard touchdown pass to cut the score to 21-7.

Georgia Tech answered quickly and reclaimed their 21-point lead after capitalizing on a short punt with a few minutes remaining in the second quarter when quarterback Justin Thomas found Searcy for a 17-yard touchdown pass before intermission.

Georgia Tech piled on the points in the third quarter, as they scored 16 on two touchdowns and a safety. In the fourth quarter, Lee and the offense orchestrated a 16-play drive for 65 yards that netted the Green Wave a 37-yard field goal by sophomore kicker Andrew DiRocco. The Yellow Jackets scored 14 unanswered points to close out the contest.

Lee finished the game with 165 yards through the air on 14-of-30 passing. He threw one touchdown and was picked off once. On the ground, redshirt-junior Lazedrick Thompson paced the Green Wave with 74 yards on 13 attempts.

Breaux led the receiving corps for the second-straight week in receptions (4) and yards (87). His 44-yard scoring grab in the second quarter marked the second straight week he and Lee connected on a 40+ yard scoring strike. Last week at Yulman Stadium against Duke, the duo hooked up for a 76-yard touchdown.

On the defensive side of the ball, three players tied for the team lead with seven tackles apiece. Smart, who gobbled up the aforementioned fumble, notched a career-best seven stops (5 solo, 2 assists), while redshirt-freshman safety Donnie Lewis (7 solo) matched a career high. Redshirt-sophomore linebacker Jarrod Franklin (5 solo, 2 assists) also had seven tackles on the day, while leading the team in tackles for loss with two and one sack.

2015 GAME RECAPS

Game 3 • Tulane 38 vs. Maine 7

Yulman Stadium • New Orleans, La.

Sept. 19, 2015 • 21,114 Attendance

Tulane's offense came alive on Saturday night at Yulman Stadium against Maine, as the Green Wave racked up 497 yards -- including 292 on the ground -- on their way to a convincing 38-7 victory over the Black Bears.

Three Tulane (1-2) running backs totaled four touchdowns, as redshirt-junior Lazedrick Thompson and redshirt-sophomore Sherman Badie scored one each while sophomore Dontrell Hilliard scored twice on the evening against the Maine (0-2) defense.

The Black Bears kicked off the scoring with a touchdown on the game's opening drive, marching 75 yards on seven plays. Tulane got on the board on the ensuing possession when sophomore kicker Andrew DiRocco nailed a 23-yard field goal.

While the Black Bears led after the first quarter by a score of 7-3, Tulane quickly turned things around at the beginning of the second stanza when the offense mastered an 80-yard drive that was capped off on a one-yard scoring plunge by Thompson for Tulane's first rushing touchdown of the season.

Badie got in on the action midway through the second quarter when he broke off a 56-yard touchdown run, marking his fourth-career run of 50 yards or more. The Green Wave weren't done scoring, though, as redshirt-sophomore quarterback Tanner Lee found sophomore Teddy Veal in the end zone for a 39-yard touchdown throw to give Tulane a 24-7 lead at the break.

In the third quarter, Hilliard finished Tulane's second 90-plus yard drive on the night with a five-yard rushing touchdown, putting the Green Wave up 31-7. Later in the period, Hilliard topped his first score with a career-long 85-yard touchdown romp that tied for the ninth-longest rushing play in Tulane history.

Tulane forced two turnovers in the fourth quarter, as senior safety Darion Monroe and freshman cornerback Dedrick UCF each recorded an interception. Defensively, the Green Wave held Maine to 296 yards on the night, including just 93 yards on the ground.

Sophomore linebacker Zachery Harris led the way with seven tackles (5 solo, 2 assists). Junior linebacker Nico Marley notched two tackles for a loss, while senior defensive end Royce LaFrance, junior defensive tackle Tanzel Smart, redshirt-sophomore defensive end Ade Aruna, redshirt-senior defensive tackle Corey Redwine and redshirt-sophomore defensive end Luke Jackson all recorded one tackle for loss apiece.

Lee finished the night with 277 yards on 16-of-27 passing. Badie totaled 118 yards on five receptions -- both career highs -- to pace the squad. Veal also nabbed five passes for 94 yards and a touchdown.

On the ground, Hilliard led the team with 117 yards rushing on eight carries, while Thompson's 13 carries were a team-high on the evening. Thompson notched 46 yards. Badie added 71 yards on the ground on six carries and also added 118 receiving yards on five receptions.

Game 4 • Tulane 45 vs. UCF 31

Yulman Stadium • New Orleans, La.

Oct. 3, 2015 • 20,024 Attendance

In a balanced attack on both sides of the ball for Tulane on Saturday, the Green Wave defense forced five turnovers, and the offense turned the miscues into 28 points and cruised to a 45-31 victory over UCF in the American Athletic Conference opener for both teams at Yulman Stadium.

Tulane's (2-2, 1-0 The American) defense made it tough for UCF (0-5, 0-1 The American) on the afternoon, as the Green Wave defenders forced 12.0 tackles for loss, including 7.0 sacks, and grabbed a pair of fumbles and snagged three interceptions.

Among the great moments of the day, perhaps the biggest milestone came in the fourth quarter when sophomore deep snapper Aaron Golub made his first career appearance, snapping on the PAT following the Green Wave's final touchdown of the day. Golub became the first legally blind player to play in a Football Bowl Subdivision game.

The Knights struck first midway through the opening stanza when quarterback Bo Schneider found Jordan Franks on an eight-yard touchdown connection shortly after a botched punt by the Green Wave.

The Green Wave bounced back with a long drive, extended by a fake punt that saw junior running back Marshall Wadleigh ramble 24-yards and picked up a key first down. Redshirt-sophomore quarterback Tanner Lee capped off the 10-play, 90-yard drive with a two-yard toss to redshirt-freshman tight end Kendall Ardin for his first-career touchdown reception to tie the contest at seven apiece.

After a lull in the action early in the second quarter, Tulane was able to take a lead with just under five minutes remaining before half when sophomore kicker Andrew DiRocco connected on 23-yard field goal.

However, the Green Wave were not done. Tulane managed two quick touchdowns before the end of the half. UCF receiver Chris Johnson was on his way to the end zone after breaking through the secondary on a slant, but redshirt-sophomore cornerback Parry Nickerson caught up to him and forced a fumble that was recovered in mid-air by junior cornerback Richard Allen, who returned the carom 36 yards.

On the ensuing play, Lee found sophomore receiver Teddy Veal on a 49-yard touchdown strike, giving Tulane their first points off a turnover on the season. True freshman safety Roderic Teamer picked up his first-career interception on the next drive, and that allowed the Green Wave to put together a four-play, 30-yard drive that wrapped up in a four-yard touchdown run by redshirt-sophomore running back Sherman Badie, putting Tulane up 24-7.

The Knights kicked a 34-yard field goal in the waning moments before the half to make the score 24-10 at intermission.

In the third quarter, senior defensive end Royce LaFrance recorded 3.0 sacks in a four-play stanza, while forcing a fumble on his final one of the day that was scooped up by senior defensive tackle Corey Redwine, who had a sack of his own on the day. Lee then found redshirt-junior wide receiver Devon Breaux for an eight-yard touchdown to give the Green Wave a 31-10 lead. Sophomore linebacker Rae Juan Marley got in on the takeaway party, picking up an interception on UCF's ensuing drive off a tipped pass that led to a four-yard touchdown pass from Lee to redshirt-senior fullback Rob Kelley.

2015 GAME RECAPS

Game 5 • Tulane 10 at Temple 49 Lincoln Financial Field • Philadelphia, Penn. Oct. 10, 2015 • 35,179 Attendance

Tulane's football team came out of the gates hot, taking a 10-7 lead early in the second quarter at Lincoln Financial Field against American Athletic Conference foe Temple, but the Green Wave did not reach pay dirt again, as they fell to the Owls, 49-10 on Saturday afternoon.

Tulane's offense only mustered 110 yards and eight first downs, while Temple corralled two Green Wave miscues in the second half on the way to their fifth-straight victory.

Tulane's defense picked up right where it left off from last week, as freshman safety Roderic Teamer forced a fumble on the Owls' opening drive that was recovered by senior safety Darion Monroe to break the school record. That play led to a 27-yard field goal by sophomore kicker Andrew DiRocco for the first score of the contest.

Shortly before the end of the opening stanza, Temple put together a six-play, 80 yard drive that was aided by Tulane penalties before reaching the end zone on a 22-yard touchdown pass from P.J. Walker to Robby Anderson.

At the beginning of the second quarter, freshman punter Zachary Block sent a booming punt deep into Temple territory that was touched by an Owl, leading to a recovery by the Green Wave. Tulane marched the remaining 26 yards, capping off the drive with a seven-yard touchdown pass from redshirt-sophomore quarterback Tanner Lee to sophomore receiver Teddy Veal.

Temple matched that score with one of their own to regain the lead on the next drive. The Owls compiled a 90-yard drive that saw Jahad Thomas score on a 10-yard rush. Thomas was not done in the quarter, though, as a dropped punt by the Green Wave allowed Temple to begin a drive at the Tulane 12-yard line. Thomas reached the end zone once again, this time on a 16-yard touchdown pass from Thomas, giving the Owls a 21-10 lead.

In the second half, the Green Wave turned the ball over twice, while Temple scored 28 unanswered points.

Lee finished the game 16-of-29 for 95 yards, one touchdown and two interceptions. Veal paced the team in receptions with six for 43 yards and the lone touchdown on the afternoon. On the ground, redshirt-senior Rob Kelley led the way with 36 yards on eight carries.

Game 6 • Tulane 7 vs. Houston 42 Yulman Stadium • New Orleans, La. Oct. 16, 2015 • 21,522 Attendance

Tulane's football squad could not stop No. 24 Houston's high-powered offense on Friday night, as the Green Wave fell to the Cougars, 42-7, at Yulman Stadium.

Tulane (2-4, 1-2 The American) allowed 461 yards of offense on the evening to the nationally-ranked Cougars (6-0, 3-0 The American). Offensively, the Green Wave posted 262 yards with redshirt-junior Devin Powell and redshirt-senior Jordy Joseph under center.

Houston didn't wait long to get on the board, as they scored on their first offensive play after a stalled Tulane drive. Cougars' quarterback Greg Ward Jr. found receiver Chance Allen on a 49-yard touchdown pass for a quick 7-0 lead. Houston tacked on another score on a drive that began in the final moments of the opening stanza before bleeding over into the second quarter. An eight-play, 43-yard drive was capped off by a Ward Jr. 12-yard rush.

Tulane sliced the lead in half with their second fake punt in three games. In a fourth-and-10 situation at the Houston 46-yard line, redshirt-senior running back Rob Kelley took a direct snap in punt formation before rumbling for a 43-yard gain. On the very next play, sophomore running back Dontrell Hilliard punched the ball in on a three-yard carry.

The Cougars answered on the ensuing drive, marching 69 yards on seven plays before Ward Jr. recorded his second rushing touchdown on the evening. Tulane nearly stopped Houston from scoring again before the end of the half as junior linebacker Eric Thomas came up with a fumble recovery, but the play was negated on a defensive off-sides call. On the next play, the Cougars' Demarcus Ayers scored on a 15-yard end-around to put the game at 28-7.

Shortly before the close of the opening half, Houston threatened once again, but junior linebacker Nico Marley picked off a Ward Jr. pass.

Houston scored twice in the third quarter, including on a 73-yard punt return by Ayers.

Powell, who got the start at quarterback, finished the game with 88 yards passing on 11-of-28 attempts. Joseph was 3-for-5 with 62 yards, all of which came in the fourth quarter. Sophomore wide receiver Teddy Veal paced the wideouts with four catches for 31 yards while redshirt-junior Devon Breau went for a team-high 88 yards on three receptions.

On the ground, sophomore Dontrell Hilliard gained 53 yards on 11 carries, while Kelley posted 52 yards on eight carries.

Defensively, Thomas totaled 11 tackles (7 solo, 4 assists), including 1.5 for a loss, to lead the Green Wave. Senior safety Darion Monroe posted 10 stops (7 solo, 3 assists).

2015 GAME RECAPS

Game 7 • Tulane 14 at Navy 31

Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium • Annapolis, Md.

Oct. 24, 2015 • 32,033 Attendance

Playing the third-best rushing offenses in the nation, Tulane's football squad held tight for two-and-a-half quarters against Navy at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium on Saturday afternoon, but the Green Wave couldn't hold on as they fell to the Midshipmen, 31-14.

Facing the triple-option offense for the second time on the season, Tulane held the Midshipmen in check during the first half of action. Navy only managed to rush for 44 yards after the first two quarters, marking the first time since 2013 that they failed to reach the century mark in the opening quarter.

Tulane held Navy to 133 yards rushing, well short of their 335.4 rushing yards per game average they brought into the game. In the end, it did not matter, as Navy scored 24-straight points.

The Green Wave were pinned deep in their territory on the game's opening drive before punting to the Midshipmen. On the ensuing drive, Navy chipped away at the Tulane defense on their way to a five-yard rushing touchdown by quarterback Keenan Reynolds after a 13-play drive.

Tulane answered with a solid drive in the opening portion of the second quarter. Redshirt-sophomore quarterback Tanner Lee connected with sophomore receiver Teddy Veal on passes of 26 and 15 yards before sophomore running back Dontrell Hilliard punched it in from 19 yards out to tie the game at seven. The drive lasted seven plays and encompassed 60 yards.

Navy marched towards Tulane's end zone on the next drive, getting as close as three yards out. But three-straight tackles for loss by redshirt-sophomore cornerback Parry Nickerson, redshirt-senior defensive tackle Corey Redwine and junior linebacker Nico Marley, respectively, forced the Midshipmen to settle for a 25-yard field goal.

After both teams battled for field position throughout the first half of the third quarter, Navy extended their lead to 17-7 after putting together a seven-play, 66-yard drive that was capped off by a nine-yard rushing touchdown by the Midshipmen's Quentin Ezell.

Tulane nearly answered with a 13-play, 72-yard drive that bled into the beginning of the fourth quarter. But on the Navy two-yard line, the Midshipmen stripped Lee who was attempting to score on a quarterback keeper, killing Tulane's drive. Tulane's defense stopped Navy once again on the next drive, but the Green Wave threw an interception on the first play after regaining possession.

Reynolds added a second rushing touchdown with under four minutes left in the contest. After another Tulane fumble, Navy's backup quarterback Tago Smith found Calvin Cass, Jr., on a 24-yard touchdown strike for Navy's final points of the contest.

Redshirt-senior QB Jordy Joseph entered the game for Tulane's final drive, and he orchestrated a 10-play, 81-yard drive that culminated in his first-career touchdown pass, as he found sophomore tight end Charles Jones on a 13-yard toss.

Lee finished the game with 205 yards on 22-of-31 passing. Joseph went 5-of-7 for 58 yards. Hilliard paced the squad on the ground with 51 yards on nine carries. Veal led the receiving corps with six receptions for 59 yards. Defensively, the Green Wave posted 11.0 tackles for loss, marking the third time this season they've reached that plateau. Junior linebacker Eric Thomas totaled eight stops (5 solo, 3 assists) while Redwine added seven (6 solo, 1 assist). Junior linebacker Nico Marley, senior safety Darion Monroe and redshirt-junior defensive end Calvin Thomas led the way with 2.0 tackles for loss each.

Game 8 • Tulane 13 at Memphis 41

Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium • Memphis, Tenn.

Oct. 31, 2015 • 30,381 Attendance

Tulane's football squad appeared to have No. 16 Memphis on the ropes early on at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium, as the Green Wave jumped out to a 13-0 lead, but the Tigers roared back to defeat the Green Wave 41-13 on Saturday night.

On a cold and rainy Halloween night, Tulane could not stop the Tigers high-powered offense. Memphis rumbled to 581 total yards while scoring 41 unanswered points to close out the contest.

Tulane jumped out to an early lead on the nationally-ranked Tigers, as redshirt-senior quarterback Jordy Joseph - making his first-career start - managed the Green Wave's longest drive on the season to date. Joseph and the offense chewed up 11:13 off the clock on 17 plays before sophomore running back Dontrell Hilliard scored on a three-yard run. The Green Wave's extra point was blocked, giving Tulane a 6-0 lead to open the contest.

The Green Wave defense matched the offense's intensity on the opening drive, as they successfully stopped one of the nation's top scoring outfits on their opening drive. The Tigers had to settle for a 53-yard field goal try that went wide left.

Tulane's offense was not done, as Joseph completed a 35-yard pass to sophomore wide receiver Teddy Veal along Tulane's sideline. On the ensuing play, Hilliard ran wild again, as he scored on a rush from 43 yards out to give the Green Wave a 13-0 lead.

The Tigers finally got on the board with a little under 11 minutes left in the second quarter when Tigers running back Doroland Dorceus capped off a 13-play, 76-yard drive with a two-yard rushing score to cut Tulane's lead to just six points. On their next drive, the Tigers tacked on a 24-yard field goal off the foot of Jake Elliott, cutting Tulane's lead to just 13-10.

Memphis picked up two points shortly thereafter when Tulane snapped the ball over the head of senior punter Peter Picerelli, and he was forced to fall on ball in the end zone for a safety. Elliott knocked in a 40-yard field goal after receiving the ball after Tulane's safety to give the Tigers a 15-13 lead heading into halftime.

Both teams held each other in check for the majority of the third quarter. However, late in the quarter Elliott posted his third field goal of the game to give Memphis an 18-13 lead. After stopping Tulane on their following drive, Memphis went the distance when quarterback Paxton Lynch found Jamarius Henderson on a short pass before the receiver scampered 43 yards for a touchdown.

Memphis recorded another safety on Tulane towards the end of the third quarter and on the ensuing possession UM's Anthony Miller posted a 15-yard run at the beginning of the fourth. Jarvis Cooper notched a one-yard rush with 8:16 remaining in the fourth, as well.

Joseph finished the game 10-of-24 for 131 yards. He completed his first five passes of the contest. Veal paced the squad with 53 receiving yards on two receptions, while Hilliard also collected two receptions and also led the rushing attack with 97 yards and a pair of scores on 19 carries.

Defensively, senior safety Darion Monroe posted a team-high 12 tackles (9 solo, 3 assists) with one pass break-up.

2015 GAME RECAPS

Game 9 • Tulane 3 vs. UConn 7

Yulman Stadium • New Orleans, La.

Nov. 7, 2015 • 26,775 Attendance

Inclement weather hampered the offenses of both the Tulane football squad and the UConn Huskies on Saturday evening at Yulman Stadium, as rain fell from kickoff to the final whistle in what would be a 7-3 Green Wave loss to the Huskies on Homecoming weekend.

Both teams punted 11 times, while neither offense eclipsed the 230-yard mark on offense. Heavy rains and wind kept both teams from executing their plan, and one errant throw by the Green Wave was all it took for UConn to leave New Orleans with a victory.

"Early on I thought we had a real good chance but we had a miscommunication on the route and they got a pick six, which was the extent of their score," Tulane head coach Curtis Johnson said. "I thought our defense played outstanding. Every time they just came up big. Our defense gave us our best chance of winning the game. You know this one was wet and both teams played really good defense. My hat goes off to them [UConn]. I thought they played really good defensively and offensively. Our offense never could get going.

The Huskies (5-5, 3-3 The American) struck first early in the contest, giving them what ended up being all the points they would need on the day. After punts by both teams on their first two drives, Tulane (2-7, 1-5 The American) received the ball in decent field position. However, a throw by redshirt-sophomore quarterback Tanner Lee fell into the hands of UConn's Jamar Summers, who returned the interception 67 yards for a touchdown.

In the second quarter, the rain began coming down heavy. However, that did not stop the Green Wave from getting on the board, as Lee and the offense strung together an 11-play drive that encompassed 41 yards. Sophomore kicker Andrew DiRocco notched his fifth field goal of the season on a 37-yard attempt.

At the close of the second half, UConn attempted to heave one in the end zone from 44 yards out, but senior safety Darion Monroe prevented a score by picking off his second interception of the year and fifth of his career.

Midway through the third quarter, UConn put together a 10-play drive that was extended after picking up a fourth down conversion halfway through the action. The Huskies marched all the way down to Tulane 16 before Bob-bby Puyol attempted a 34-yard field goal. The drive ended there, though, as redshirt-sophomore Parry Nickerson blocked the attempt to keep the score at 7-3. It marked Tulane's first blocked field goal in nearly two years.

The two teams traded field position from that point on, as the rain and wind continued to come down in full force during the fourth quarter. Lee and offense had the ball at the conclusion of the game, and connected with sophomore tight end Trey Scott on a 22-yard pass with a few seconds left, but the final three passes of the game fell incomplete as the Huskies scampered away with a victory.

Lee finished the game 13-of-40 for 106 yards and an interception, while sophomore running back Dontrell Hilliard paced the running attack with 35 yards on eight carries.

On defense, Monroe totaled 11 tackles (8 solo, 3 assists), while junior linebacker Nico Marley notched 10 (7 solo, 3 assists). As a team, the Green Wave totaled 9.0 tackles for loss, including two each from Marley and junior defensive tackle Taniel Smart.

Game 10 • Tulane 34 at Army 31

Michie Stadium • West Point, N.Y.

Nov. 14, 2015 • 31,217 Attendance

Tulane football jumped out to a big lead against Army at Michie Stadium on Saturday during the final non-conference test of the season for the Green Wave, but the Black Knights made a game out of it before Tulane's Andrew DiRocco knocked down a 35-yard field goal as time expired to give the Green Wave a 34-31 victory.

With Tulane (3-7, 1-5 The American) leading 31-24 and with just 1:59 remaining on the clock, Army (2-8) scored a touchdown and looked to go ahead on a two-point conversion before offsetting penalties negated the play. Army then played it safe and tied the game at 31 on an extra point.

Tulane scored 21 points in the second quarter, tying for the most points in a quarter by the Green Wave on the season, but Army made things interesting with a quick 14 points before halftime.

Facing their third triple-option opponent of the season, Tulane found themselves in a hole early on as the Black Knights opened the contest with a three-yard touchdown rush by Ahmad Bradshaw to close out a 13-play, 75-yard drive. On Army's second drive, the Black Knights attempted a fake field goal from Tulane's 10-yard line, but redshirt-sophomore linebacker Jarrod Franklin kept Army from scoring when he pushed the receiver out of bounds in the end zone.

After stopping Army on their trick-play attempt, Tulane tied things up when redshirt-sophomore quarterback Tanner Lee found sophomore wide receiver Teddy Veal on a 90-yard touchdown pass, marking the second-longest passing play in Tulane school history.

Tulane took the lead early in the second quarter when sophomore running back Dontrell Hilliard set the Green Wave up on a 23-yard rush that eventually allowed Lee to find redshirt-freshman Kendall Ardin on a 15-yard touchdown throw for a 14-7 lead. On Army's ensuing drive, junior defensive tackle Taniel Smart forced a fumble that was scooped up by redshirt-sophomore cornerback Parry Nickerson and returned 48 yards for a touchdown to give the Green Wave a 21-7 lead midway through the second stanza.

Redshirt-junior running back Josh Rounds added to the scoring frenzy with a 25-yard rushing touchdown with 3:35 remaining in the second to put Tulane up 28-7.

Army did not let up, though, as it scored a quick 14 points to cut things close before the end of the half. The Black Knights got back on the board shortly before halftime on a four-play, 72-yard drive that was capped off by a 19-yard pass from John Trainor to Bradshaw. On Tulane's next drive, Army's Kenneth Brinson blocked a punt and returned it 21 yards for a touchdown to make it a 28-21 ballgame at the intermission.

Neither team did much during the first 12 minutes of the third quarter, but Army picked off a tipped pass by Lee with 2:38 left on the clock in the third. The drive carried over into the final period where Daniel Grochowski tacked on a 38-yard field goal to make it a 28-24 game with 14:50 left to play.

Tulane matched that scoring drive with a nine-play, 56-yard drive of their own that culminated in a 31-yard field goal off the foot of DiRocco.

Lee finished the game 14-of-29 with 252 yards and two scores, while sophomore Teddy Veal set a team season high in receiving yards with 123 on four catches. Hilliard paced the ground attack with 91 yards on 14 carries.

Defensively, junior defensive tackle Taniel Smart led the way with a career-best nine stops (7 solo, 2 assists) including a forced fumble and 2.0 tackles for loss.

2015 GAME RECAPS

Game 11 • Tulane 21 at SMU 49

Gerald J. Ford Stadium • Dallas, Texas
Nov. 21, 2015 • 14,954 Attendance

In its final road tilt of 2015, Tulane's football squad struggled to stop SMU's offense, as the Mustangs racked up 35 first-half points before sending the Green Wave to a 49-21 loss at Gerald J. Ford Stadium on Saturday night.

Tulane (3-8 overall, 1-6 The American) allowed 518 yards of offense to SMU (2-9, 1-6 The American) while only gaining 328 of their own. The chilly temperatures in Dallas did not cool off the Mustang's offense, as the Green Wave allowed three drives of 90-yards or more to SMU.

Neither team could get their offense going early in the contest, so field position played a big part in the action. The Green Wave managed to pin the Mustangs up against their own goal line on a pooch punt after Tulane's opening drive. After a short punt back to the Green Wave, Tulane attempted a field goal from 40 yards out, but it was blocked by SMU's Horace Richardson and scooped up by RC Cox, who returned it 72 yards for a touchdown.

Before the first quarter was over, SMU put together a 95-yard drive that was capped off by a Matt Davis 13-yard rush to give the Mustangs a 14-0 lead.

Tulane cut the lead in half when the Green Wave strung together nine plays for 71 yards on a drive that bled into the early portion of the second quarter. Redshirt-sophomore quarterback Tanner Lee found redshirt-junior Larry Dace III on a 27-yard touchdown pass in the back of the end zone, giving Dace III the first touchdown of his career.

The Mustangs answered Tulane's scoring drive with one of their own during their next possession. A 91-yard drive that saw two 30-plus yard plays gave SMU a 14-point lead when Xavier Jones crossed through out on a one-yard rushing score with 10:01 left in the half.

Midway through the third quarter, redshirt-senior quarterback Jordy Joseph entered the game halfway through a drive in place of an injured Lee and helped the Green Wave wrap up an 85-yard drive that saw redshirt-senior running back Rob Kelley punch it in from a yard out.

SMU added another score that began in the third quarter and ended with 14:46 left in the contest when Prescott Line scored on a one-yard rush to cap off a 99-yard drive.

Joseph and the offense marched 63 yards late in the fourth quarter before the signal caller found sophomore tight end Charles Jones for a touchdown on a two-yard pass.

Lee finished the game 9-of-22 for 103 yards and a touchdown, while Joseph was 4-of-11 for 25 yards and one touchdown. Dace III led the team in receiving yards with 39, while sophomore receiver Teddy Veal paced the squad in receptions with three for 27 yards.

On the ground, redshirt-sophomore running back Sherman Badie and sophomore running back Dontrell Hilliard both had solid games, as they notched 73 yards and 84 yards, respectively.

Game 12 • Tulane 34 vs. Tulsa 45

Yulman Stadium • New Orleans, La.
Nov. 27, 2015 • 22,672 Attendance

Despite season-highs in first downs and total yardage thanks in large part to a solid performance by redshirt-senior quarterback Jordy Joseph in his final collegiate appearance, Tulane football fell to Tulsa in a back-and-forth contest, 45-34, at Yulman Stadium on Friday night in the Green Wave's season-finale.

Tulane (3-9 overall, 1-7 The American) posted 25 first downs, as well as 530 yards of offense, but two late interceptions by Joseph that were returned for touchdowns sealed the victory for Tulsa (6-6 overall, 3-5 The American).

While the two interceptions proved to be the deciding factor in the game, Joseph had a masterful performance, going 23-of-41 for 343 yards and four touchdowns in addition to leading the team in rushing with 67 yards on 10 carries, all career highs.

Joseph's lone miscues came at crucial junctures in the game. The first interception came with 6:31 left, as Tulsa's Craig Suits returned one on a 28-yard return to give the Golden Hurricane a 38-34 lead.

Shortly thereafter, Joseph and the offense looked like they would retake the lead after a nice drive. However, another errant throw by Joseph was picked off by Kolton Shindelar, who returned the interception 89 yards for the clinching score.

Tulsa did not take long to get the scoring started, putting together an eight-play, 75-yard drive on the game's opening drive that was capped off by a 20-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Dane Evans to Justin Hobbs. Midway through the first, Joseph - who was making his second-career start - found sophomore tight end Charles Jones on a 28-yard touchdown pass to tie the contest.

Joseph made the most of his final collegiate game, as he put together a 14-play, 86-yard drive that bled from the end of the first into the second quarter that was wrapped up when he found sophomore wide receiver Teddy Veal on a three-yard strike to give the Green Wave a 14-7 lead.

On Tulsa's ensuing drive, things got knotted up again, as the Golden Hurricane punched one in from 35 yards out. Evans hit receiver Josh Atkinson on the run, and he scampered into the end zone unscathed to tie things at 14. Tulane answered with points of their own, as Joseph mastered another drive that got Tulane in field goal range. Sophomore kicker Andrew DiRocco nailed one from 31 yards out to give the Green Wave a 17-14 lead.

Senior safety Darion Monroe picked off a pass in triple coverage on Tulsa's next drive, and the Green Wave did not wait to capitalize on the miscue. Joseph dished a shovel pass to sophomore running back Dontrell Hilliard, who turned the play into a 66-yard touchdown scamper to give the Green Wave a 24-14 lead at intermission.

The Golden Hurricane was the first to get on the board in the second half, scoring a touchdown with 7:05 left in the third quarter. After a school-record breaking punt by Tulane senior punter Peter Picerelli that pinned Tulsa up to their own one-yard line, Evans and his offense rattled off a 13-play, 99-yard drive that ended on a 30-yard touchdown reception by Keyarris Garrett. The score cut Tulane's lead to just three.

On their next drive, the Golden Hurricane tied the game at 24, as Redford Jones knocked in a 40-yard field goal after a nine-play drive. Tulane looked to regain the lead after having not scored on its last three possessions, and things looked bleak on a third-and-2 pass that fell incomplete. However, a pass interference on Tulsa's secondary kept Tulane's hopes alive, and the Green Wave's DiRocco was able to notch his second field goal of the night from 39 yards out.

Midway through the final stanza, Tulsa received the ball at their own 40. But a 21-yard tackle for loss by junior linebacker Eric Thomas and redshirt-sophomore linebacker Jarrod Franklin ruined Tulsa's chances of turning the drive into anything positive. After punting to the Green Wave, Joseph posted his fourth touchdown throw of the night when he found freshman wide receiver Andrew Hicks for a 34-yard scoring strike to give Tulane a 34-24 lead.

Tulsa only needed four plays to match Tulane's touchdown with one of their own, as Evans found Garrett for 37-yards up the sideline before hitting Atkinson at the Tulane one-yard line on a 39-yard strike. Zack Langer punched it in from one-yard out.

Veal led the team in receptions with six for 63 yards, while Hilliard's 83 yards receiving were a team-high. Sophomore tight end Trey Scott notched four receptions for 57 yards.
