SETTING THE STAGE

- Navy and Tulane will meet for the 21st time overall and for the second time as conference foes when the two square off on Saturday evening at Yulman Stadium (30,000) in New Orleans. Kickoff is set for 7:00 PM (ET), 6:00 PM in New Orleans.
- Tulane leads the all-time series, 11-8-1, with Navy winning the last two. Last year, the Mids struggled to move the ball against a stout Tulane defense before pulling away late and winning, 31-14. The Green Wave held Navy to just 133 yards rushing on 54 carries.
- Navy has lost four straight games in New Orleans. The Mids' last win at Tulane came on Nov. 5, 1994, when they won 17-15 at the Superdome. Navy is 1-8-1 all-time in New Orleans.
- Navy is looking to start 3-0 in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 1978 and '79. Last year, the Mids started 4-0 before losing at Notre Dame.
- Navy has won 18 consecutive games against unranked opponents, which is the fourth-longest streak in the country. Only Alabama (61), Clemson (41) and Ohio State (21) have a longer winning streak.
- Niumatalolo is in his ninth year at the Naval Academy, which ties him with George Welsh and Eddie Erdelatz as the longest tenured coaches at the Naval Academy.
- Navy received eight voting points in this week's Amway / USA Today Coaches Poll.
- Saturday's game will be televised nationally by the American Sports Network and ESPN3 with Mike Gleason, Derrick Lewis and Kathryn Pielech on the call.
- The Navy Football Tailgate Show on WNAV 1430 AM / 99.9 FM will air at 5:00 PM.
- The Navy Football Pregame Show with Pete Medhurst, Omar Nelson, Joe Miller and Tim Murray will get underway at 6:00 PM, followed by game action beginning at 7:00 PM on the Navy Radio Network.
- Following the contest, Medhurst, Nelson, Miller and Murray will recap the day's events in a 30-minute post-game show.

2 FOR TAGO

- Senior captains Daniel Gonzales and Toneo Gulley switched their jersey numbers to #2 in honor of senior quarterback Tago Smith, who was injured on the second play of the second quarter in Navy's season opening win against Fordham.
- The NCAA rules allow for double numbers as long as the players are not on the field at the same time. Gonzales plays defense, while Gulley plays offense and special teams.

SCOUTING TULANE

- The Green Wave head into Saturday's contest with a 1-1 record. Tulane lost its opener to a solid Wake Forest squad on the road, 7-3, but bounced back to win its home opener last Saturday, 66-21, over Southern.
- Tulane is similar to Navy in that both teams like to run the football. In its first two games, the Green Wave have rushed for 583 yards and thrown for 146.
- Tulane has had 11 different players carry the ball in its first two games, with Dontrell Hilliard leading the way (17-139, 3 TDs).
- Quarterback Glen Cuiellette has completed 13 of his 25 pass attempts for 139 yards with one interception. Terren Enclade has been his favorite receiver with five catches for 24 yards.
- The Tulane defense appears to be strong again this year, giving up just 28 points in its first two games and has caused four turnovers.
- Linebackers Eric Thomas (10 tackles) and Nico Marley (nine tackles, 1 interception) lead the way on defense.

NAVY'S GOAL LINE STAND HOLDS OFF UCONN

- (AP) - Senior Will Worth scored two touchdowns in his debut as Navy's starting quarterback and the Midshipmen survived a hectic finish in a 28-24 victory over UConn last Saturday.
- Worth bulled in from the 1-yard line with 3:08 remaining after a 26-yard punt return gave Navy a first down at the UConn 17.
- The Huskies then moved to the Navy 1 and took their final timeout with 17 seconds left. Ron Johnson was subsequently stuffed on a rush attempt, and the clock ran out before UConn could run another play.
- The Mids scored on their first two possessions and went up 21-0 on a 2-yard fumble return by freshman Alohi Gilman in the second quarter.
- UConn answered with 24 straight points before Worth scored the game's final touchdown.
- In addition to capably directing the triple option, Worth ran for 44 yards, completed his first four passes and finished 6 for 8 for 130 yards.
- Bryant Shirreffs completed 23 of 26 passes for the Huskies.
- After Navy jumped to a 21-0 lead, the Huskies battled back. Shirreffs threw a 34-yard touchdown pass to Noel Thomas with 1:10 left in the first half, Johnson scored on a 3-yard run and Jamar Summers rambled 86 yards with a fumble by fullback Chris High.
- Bobby Puyol kicked a 38-yard field goal with 9:08 remaining to give the Huskies their first lead at 24-21.

12:00 pm	Tommy Tuberville, Cincinnati
12:10 pm	Willie Taggart, USF
12:20 pm	Matt Rhule, Temple
12:30 pm	Mike Norvell, Memphis
12:40 pm	Scott Frost, UCF
12:50 pm	Willie Fritz, Tulane

For those who are not able to participate during the live teleconference, an archive of the call will be available on the American Athletic Conference web site at www.TheAmerican.org.

CREDENTIALS

Navy credentials members of the media ONLY. Navy adheres to the guidelines set forth by the NCAA that prohibits the sale of student-athlete photos for a personal profit. The Navy SID Office reserves the right to revoke credentials from those photographers who are found to have been in violation of these rules.

Credentials may be issued: a) to online entities that are affiliated with a national or regional media organization; or, b) to online entities that host a website that regularly and substantially reports on Navy or the visiting team, and employs for that dedicated website at least one full-time permanent employee who writes a substantial majority of all material posted on the site, and that registers a minimum of 20,000 legitimate unique users per month in each of the past 12 months.

An online entity that meets the requirements of either 5.a) or 5.b) and which sponsors message boards or chat rooms may be credentialed only if the entity enforces its policies regarding abusive or discriminatory material.

MIDS TOUGH AGAINST UNRANKED OPPONENTS

- Navy has won 18 straight games against unranked opponents, which is the fourth-longest streak in the country.
- Navy's last loss to an unranked opponent came on Oct. 4, 2014, when the Mids lost at Air Force, 30-21.
- Since that loss, Navy has produced a 19-3 (.864) record with its three losses coming against Houston and Notre Dame (twice). The Mids defeated a ranked Memphis squad in that streak, as well.

Most Wins vs. Unranked Opponents

1.	61	Alabama
2.	41	Clemson
3.	21	Ohio State
4.	18	Navy

SERVICE ACADEMIES UNDEFEATED

- All three Service Academies (Navy, Air Force and Army) are 2-0 for the first time since 1996 and for just the fifth time ever.
- The three also started 2-0 in 1956, 1960 and 1963.
- The three Service Academies have never started 3-0 in the same season. Air Force is off this week before traveling to Logan, Utah to face Utah State, while Army is at UTEP this week and Navy is at Tulane.

THE POWER 6

- The American Athletic Conference is 16-5 (.762) against non-conference opponents, which is the third-best record in the country. Only the Big Ten (21-6, .778) and the ACC (17-5, .773) have a better winning percentage.

BEST NON-CONFERENCE WINNING PERCENTAGE

Rk	Pct.	Team	W-L
1.	.778	Big Ten	21-6
2.	.773	ACC	17-5
3.	.762	American	16-5
4.	.727	SEC	16-6
5.	.682	Pac-12	15-7
6.	.600	Mountain West	15-10
7.	.579	Big 12	11-8
8.	.478	Conference USA	11-12
9.	.474	Sun Belt	9-10
10.	.440	Mid-American	11-14

NAVY PICKED TO FINISH SECOND IN THE AAC WEST

- Houston was selected as the favorite to repeat as the American Athletic Conference champion as the Cougars were the overwhelming choice in the league's 2016 preseason media poll.
- The Cougars received 27 of a possible 30 votes to win the league title in the preseason balloting. Additionally, Houston was the unanimous pick to win The American's West Division crown, as the Cougars finished with 180 points.
- USF was the media's choice in the East Division as the Bulls received 15 first-place votes and 164 points. USF received two votes as the favorite for the conference title. Temple received nine first-place votes in the East Division race and was tabbed by one voter as the league favorite. Cincinnati had six first-place votes in the East Division balloting.
- Houston finished the 2015 season with a 13-1 overall record and a 7-1 mark in the conference play as the Cougars tied for the West Division title before winning the first American Athletic Conference Football Championship. Tom Herman's squad capped the season by topping Florida State 38-24 in the Chick-Fil-A Peach Bowl to finish the year ranked No. 8 in the Associated Press and USA Today polls.
- Houston returns 11 starters from last year, including quarterback Greg Ward Jr., who rushed for 21 touchdowns and threw 17 TD passes and is one of seven returning Maxwell Award semifinalists from last year.
- Navy was picked second in the West Division with 128 points after the Midshipmen set a school record with 11 wins in the 2015 season. Navy went 11-2 last year and tied Houston for the West Division title with a 7-1 conference record in its first year in The American. The Midshipmen, who capped the year with a 44-28 win against Pitt in the Military Bowl, return six starters from a defense that held 10 of its 13 opponents to 21 points or fewer in 2015.

2015 AAC WEST DIVISION CO-CHAMPIONS

- After 134 years playing as an Independent, Navy finished its first year in a conference as the American Athletic Conference West Division Co-Champions with Houston.
- The Mids finished 7-1 in the AAC with victories over East Carolina, Connecticut, Tulane, USF, Memphis, SMU and Tulsa. Navy's only loss was to Houston, while Houston's only loss was to Memphis.

NIUMATALOLO SPELLS SUCCESS

- Navy football coach Ken Niumatalolo has been on the Mids' sideline as either an assistant or head coach for 19 of the last 22 years (1995-98 and 2002-07 as an assistant, 2008-current as the head coach).
- Over those 19 years, Navy has compiled a 137-87 record (.612), won 10 Commander-In-Chief's Trophies, gone to 12 bowl games and won six bowl games. Navy is 26-10 in Service Academy games with Niumatalolo on the coaching staff (.722).
- In the 117 seasons without Niumatalolo, Navy has posted a 555-460-57 (.549) record, won five Commander-In-Chief's Trophies (in 26 years), gone to eight bowl games and won three bowl games. Navy is 54-64-7 (.460) in Service Academy games without Niumatalolo on the sideline.

AMERICA'S TEAM

- Navy has players who hail from 31 different states on its roster, the most in program history. Texas leads the way with 25 players, while Tennessee and California have both produced 17 Midshipmen. North Carolina has 14 players on the roster, while both Florida (13) and Georgia (12) are also in double digits. Navy does not have a player from Louisiana on its current roster.

THE RACE TO 700 WINS

- Navy needs six wins to become the 24th team in the FBS to reach 700 wins in its history.
- Michigan is the all-time leader with 927 wins, while Notre Dame is second with 893.

SENIOR CLASS GOES FOR WINS RECORD

- Navy's senior class ('17) needs six wins to tie and seven wins to break the school's all-time wins record over a four-year period.
- The seniors own a 30-11 (.732) record over their four years. Last year's seniors ('16) tied the Class of 1909 for the school record with 36.
- The Class of 2016 finished with a 36-16 (.692) record, while the Class of 1909 went 36-7-5 (.802).

MORE ON NIUMATALOLO

NIUMATALOLO NAVY'S ALL-TIME WINS LEADER

- Ninth-year head coach Ken Niumatalolo has led the Midshipmen to a 70-37 (.654) record and is the program's all-time winningest coach.
- He is 8-0 all-time against Navy's biggest rival, Army West Point, and is the first head coach in the history of the Army-Navy game to win his first eight games against the rival service academy.
- His eight wins against the Black Knights are tied for the most in Army-Navy history with College Football Hall of Fame Coach Army West Point's Earl Blaik, who was just 8-8-2 (.500) from 1941-58 against Navy.
- He is the fastest in school history to reach 50 wins, earning his 50th victory in 2013 against Temple in what was his 81st career game. The previous record was held by Eddie Erdelatz, who won his 50th game in his 83rd contest.
- He is one of eight active coaches that are the all-time winningest coach at their respective schools. Two of the eight have been the only coach in that school's history.
- He is the 16th longest tenured head coach in the FBS taking over the head job at Navy on Dec. 8, 2007.
- His four bowl wins are the most in school history and he is the only coach in school history to win three-consecutive bowl games.
- Niumatalolo is the first Samoan head football coach on the collegiate level and the second Polynesian head coach in FBS history (Larry Price, who was the head coach at Hawai'i from 1974-76, was the first).

BOWL ELIGIBLE OPPONENTS

- Navy produced a 6-2 (.750) record last year against teams that played in a bowl game with victories at Connecticut, Air Force, USF, at Memphis, at Tulsa and Pitt. Navy's only losses were at Notre Dame and at Houston.

CONTINUITY IS THE KEY TO SUCCESS

- Navy has lost just five coaches in the nine years Ken Niumatalolo has been the head coach (three changed jobs, two retired). Six of Navy's coaches (five assistants and Niumatalolo) have been in Annapolis for at least 10 years, giving Navy, along with Air Force, the most coaches in the country that have been at the same school for 10 years or more.
- Defensive coordinator Dale Pehrson is in his 21st year at Navy, Niumatalolo is in his 19th year, offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach Ivin Jasper is in his 17th year, slot backs coach and special teams coordinator Danny O'Rourke is in his 15th year, offensive line coach Chris Culton is in his 14th year and outside linebackers coach Justin Davis is in his 10th year.
- Navy is one of just two schools to have the same offensive staff back for a sixth straight year.

SERVICE ACADEMY DOMINANCE

- Navy has been the dominant Service Academy over the last decade plus, winning 24 of the last 27 meetings (.888) against Air Force and Army West Point dating back to the 2002 Army-Navy game.
- The Mids have posted an overall record of 113-56 (.669) since 2003, won 10 CIC Trophies in the last 13 years and have gone to 12 bowl games in the last 13 years.

HOME FIELD ADVANTAGE

- Navy has won 12 straight home games dating back to the 2014 season. Navy's last home loss was to Western Kentucky, 36-27, on Sept. 27, 2014.
- The Mids are 36-9 (.800) at home under head coach Ken Niumatalolo, including 21-3 (.875) over the last five seasons.
- Navy won a program-record seven games at home (7-0) in 2015.
- Navy's 12 consecutive home wins marks the longest winning streak at home since 1953-64 when the Mids won 21-straight. During that era, Navy would play just one or two games a year at home, mostly against weaker competition, and played its premier home games in either Baltimore or Norfolk.
- The longest winning streak at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium is 13-straight over that same time frame (Navy won the first 13 games played at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium, the other eight games in the 21-game home winning streak happened at Thompson Field on campus).

CLOSE CALLS

- Dating back to the 2011 Army-Navy game, Navy has won 14 of its last 17 games decided by eight points or less (.824).
- The Mids are 27-16 (.628) under Ken Niumatalolo in games decided by eight points or less.

PUTTING UP THE POINTS

- Navy has scored over 40 or more points in five of its last eight contests..
- The Mids scored 52 against Fordham in the 2016 opener, while posting 44 vs. Pitt, 44 vs. Tulsa, 55 vs. SMU and 45 vs. Memphis in 2015.
- In the three games Navy did not score 40 or more points, it dropped a 52-31 decision to Houston and defeated Army, 21-17 in the final two regular season games of the 2015 season, while defeating UConn, 28-24, in the 2016 conference opener.

30 POINTS IS THE KEY

- Under Ken Niumatalolo, the Mids are 46-11 (.807) when scoring 30 or more points in a game.
- Under Niumatalolo, Navy is 63-12 (.840) when holding the opposition to under 30 points.

MIDS CONSISTENTLY AMONG NATION'S TOP RUSHING TEAMS

- Over the last 14 years, Navy has consistently been one of the top rushing teams in the country, never finishing lower than sixth.
- The Mids kicked off the trend in 2002 when they finished third in the country in rushing, averaging 270.8 yds/gm.
- In 2003, Navy led the nation averaging a then school-record 323.2 yds/gm.
- In 2005, Navy led the country in rushing for the second time in three years, averaging 318.7 yds/gm.
- Navy finished the 2006 campaign averaging a nation's-best and then school-record 327.0 yds/gm.
- The Mids rushed for a school-record 348.8 yds/gm in 2007, becoming the first team in NCAA history to lead the nation in rushing three-consecutive years.
- In 2008, Navy led the country in rushing for an unprecedented fourth-straight year, averaging 292.4 yds/gm.
- The Mids finished #2 in the country in 2013, averaging 325.4 yards per game.
- Navy finished #2 in the country in 2014, rushing for 338.1 yards per game. It was the best rushing average by a Navy team since 2007 when that team rushed for a school-record 348.8 yards per game.
- In 2015, the Mids finished #2 in the country (tied with Baylor), averaging 326.7 yards per game. It was the third straight year that the Mids finished second in the country in rushing. Georgia Southern, coached by current Tulane coach Willie Fritz, finished first last year averaging a whopping 363.0 yards per game.
- After two games this year, Navy is averaging 331.0 yards per game on the ground.

TOUCHDOWN NAVY

- Navy has scored a rushing touchdown in 50 consecutive games.
- The last time the Mids did not score a rushing touchdown they were shut out, losing to San Jose State, 12-0, in 2012.

FAST STARTS

- Navy has outscored the opposition 56-17 in the first half this year. The Mids have won the first quarter, 28-10, and the second quarter, 28-7.
- Navy has scored just 24 points in the second half of games, while giving up 23 points. The Mids have lost the third quarter, 17-14, and won the fourth quarter, 10-6.

SCORE FIRST

- The Mids are 47-8 (.855) under Ken Niumatalolo when scoring first and 23-29 (.442) when the opposition scores first. Navy is 2-0 this year when scoring first.
- However, the Mids went against that stat last year going 6-1 (.857) when the opposition scored first.
- Navy is a remarkable 58-4 (.935) under Niumatalolo when entering the fourth quarter with the lead.

QUICK STRIKE OFFENSE

- Five of Navy's seven touchdown drives against Fordham in the opener were scored in 90 seconds or less, while four of the seven were 60 seconds or less.
- Six of Navy's 10 touchdowns this year have come in under 2:00.

TOUGH IN THE RED ZONE

- Last season, Navy finished #1 in the country in red zone offense, scoring 55 out of 58 times (44 TDs and 11 field goals).
- Of the three times Navy failed to score in the red zone last year, once the Mids took a knee (end of the game at Tulsa), once Austin Grebe missed a field goal (Tulsa) and Connecticut stopped a fourth down play in the final minute when Navy was trying to run out the clock.
- Navy has already failed to score three times in the red zone this year as the Mids were just 3-6 against UConn. Navy was stopped on fourth-and-goal from the one, had a field goal blocked and had a fumble returned for a touchdown.
- On the year, the Mids are 9-12 (.750) in the red zone, with eight of those 12 (.667) resulting in touchdowns.
- The Navy defense finished #12 in the nation in red zone defense last fall, giving up just 28 scores in 38 red zone opportunities (23 TDs, 5 field goals).
- In 2016, the defense has been stout once again in the red zone where it has given up just one touchdown (.200) and three field goals in five opportunities (4-5, .800).

- Junior fullback Chris High, who entered the 2016 season with 31-career rushing yards on five carries, rushed for 176 yards and two touchdowns on just 10 carries in his first career start against Fordham in the opener.
- High had touchdowns runs of five and 70 yards and averaged 17.6 yards per carry.
- It was the most yards rushing by a Navy fullback since fullback Alexander Teich rushed for 210 yards on 26 carries in Navy's 35-17 victory over Notre Dame on Oct. 23, 2010, at the Meadowlands.
- High carried the ball seven times for 36 yards and a touchdown against UConn.

IN THE CLASSROOM

- The rigors a student-athlete faces at a Service Academy are unlike those a typical student-athlete might encounter on a day-to-day basis. Whether it's the added military training, mandatory room or uniform inspections or the academic schedule, Service Academy student-athletes are in a league of their own.
- The Naval Academy's academic day is divided into six 50-minute class periods beginning at 7:55 am and concluding at 3:20 pm. Unique to the Academies, all 4,400 Midshipmen reside on the Yard in Bancroft Hall and dine together in King Hall.

GONZALES AND GULLEY NAMED 2016 TEAM CAPTAINS

- Navy head football coach Ken Niumatalolo announced at the annual Navy football banquet that senior slot back Toneo Gulley and senior linebacker Daniel Gonzales have been elected team captains for the 2016 football season by their teammates.
- "Being elected team captain at the Naval Academy is one of the highest honors you can receive at an institution that prides itself on producing great leaders," said Niumatalolo. "Toneo and Daniel are not only outstanding football players, but they are great leaders in the locker room and in Bancroft Hall and I have no doubt that they will be great captains for us."
- Gulley has played in 35 of Navy's 39 games over his career, earning three varsity letters. He has been a key player for the Mids not only on offense as a runner and blocker, but on special teams as both a kick returner and on kick coverage. Last year, he played in 12 of 13 games carrying the ball 12 times for 189 yards and three touchdowns, while catching two passes for 30 yards. He has been in on 14 tackles during his career and has returned 12 kickoffs.
- Gonzales has started 24 of Navy's last 26 games at linebacker and has recorded 151 career tackles, including five tackles for a loss and four interceptions. He has played great in Service Academy games, contributing 38 tackles in four appearances. Last year, Gonzales recorded 65 tackles, four tackles for a loss, intercepted a pass and recovered a fumble for a Navy team that finished 11-2 on the year.

TILLMAN WILL GO DOWN AS ONE OF THE BEST RECEIVERS IN SCHOOL HISTORY

- Senior wide receiver Jamir Tillman had a huge 2015 season for the Mids with 29 catches for 597 yards and five touchdowns, including 14 catches for 402 yards (28.7 yards per catch) and four touchdowns over the last five games.
- Tillman was the first Navy player to catch a touchdown pass in four consecutive games (SMU, Tulsa, Houston, Army West Point) and was the first Navy player with back-to-back 100-yard receiving games since 2005.
- He averaged 20.6 yards per reception in 2015 which was the ninth-best average in the country.
- He is averaging 19.1 yards per catch over his career (57 catches for 1,091 yards), which is fifth best in program history.
- His five touchdown catches in 2015 are tied as the fourth most in school history for a single season, while his eight career touchdown catches are tied for the fourth most in program history.

ALOHI MEANS GOODBYE

- Freshman Alohi Gilman, who hails from the same hometown as head coach Ken Niumatalolo (Laie, Hawai'i) had an incredible game against UConn in what was his first career.
- Gilman earned AAC Defensive Player of the Week honors after he recorded 10 tackles, forced a fumble, recovered two fumbles and returned one of those fumbles two yards for a touchdown in Navy's 28-24 victory over UConn.

ROMINE A THREAT

- Senior slot back Dishan Romine became a threat as a kick returner last fall, averaging 27.3 yards per return on his 24 returns with a long of 90 yards against Tulsa.
- Romine ranked 11th in the country in kickoff returns last year. As a team, the Mids ranked 25th, averaging 24.22 yards per return.
- Romine's 27.3 yards per kick return was the sixth-best average for a single season in school history and his career kickoff return average of 26.5 (28 returns for 743 yards) ranks third best in school history.

- In the first two games, Navy has returned three punts for a total of 64 yards (Craig Scott 2-38, Calvin Cass 1-26).
- In 13 games a year ago, Navy returned 11 punts for 67 yards.

SPECIAL PLAYERS

- Senior linebacker Ryan Harris led Navy's special teams last year with 17 tackles (16 on kickoffs, 1 on a punt).
- He started the 2016 season out with a bang, drilling Fordham returner Jihaad Pretlow on the opening kickoff. Pretlow fumbled the ball and Navy's Taylor Heflin recovered it at the Fordham seven-yard line. Quarterback Tago Smith scored on the next play.
- He had two tackles on kickoffs against UConn and although he wasn't officially credited with a forced fumble in that game, he was the second player in on the hit that jarred the ball loose from Connecticut returner Tyraiq Beals. Khaylan Williams was credited with the caused fumble.

NAVY VS. THE POWER FIVE

- Since 2003, Navy has won 22 games against schools from a Power Five (or BCS) conference. Those 22 wins have come against 10 different opponents and are the most in the country by a Group of Five school during that time period (some schools were in a BCS or Power Five conference and are now in a Group of Five conference. Wins while they were in a BCS or Power Five conference do not count).
- Navy head coach Ken Niumatalolo has 11 wins against teams from a Power Five conference since taking over the program at the end of the 2007 season.
- Navy's 22 wins against Power Five schools have come against Vanderbilt ('03, '04), Duke ('04, '05, '06, '07), Rutgers ('04, '08), Stanford ('06), Connecticut-then Big East/BCS('06), Pitt ('07, '13, '15), Notre Dame ('07, '09, '10), Wake Forest ('08, '09, '10), Missouri ('09) and Indiana ('12, '13).

A SENIOR CLASS TO REMEMBER

- The Navy football senior class ('16) compiled a 36-16 (.692) record, won three Commander-In-Chief's Trophies and won three bowl games.
- The 36 wins are tied for the most wins in school history with the class of 1909.
- The Mids set a school record with 11 wins in 2015 and became the first senior class to win three bowl games.

NAVY VS. RANKED OPPONENTS

- Navy's 45-20 victory over #15/16 Memphis last fall was its first win over a ranked opponent since beating Notre Dame six years to the day (11-7-2009). It was also the most points the Mids have scored against a ranked opponent.
- It was the Mids' first win over an AP top 15 team since Nov. 17, 1984, when Navy shocked #2 South Carolina, 38-21. It was Navy's first road AP top 15 win since Sept. 21, 1974, when it knocked off #8 Penn State, 7-6
- Navy has not beaten more than one ranked team in a season since 1957, when it defeated #5 Notre Dame (20-6), #10 Army West Point (27-20) and #8 Rice (20-7) in the Cotton Bowl.

TIME TO GET READY

- Under Ken Niumatalolo, Navy is 22-14 (.611) with more than one week to prepare for an opponent.

MIDS TOUGH WHEN THE CALENDAR TURNS TO NOVEMBER

- Under Niumatalolo, the Mids are 31-11 (.738) in the months of November and December.

11 FOR 11

- Navy has had 11 consecutive senior classes go undefeated against Army West Point.

HEISMAN WINNER, NAISMITH WINNER, PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

- Navy is one of just two schools to produce a President of the United States (Jimmy Carter), a Heisman Trophy winner (Joe Bellino and Roger Staubach) and a Naismith Award winner (David Robinson).
- The other school to match that feat is Michigan, who produced President Gerald Ford, Heisman winners Tom Harmon, Desmond Howard and Charles Woodson and Naismith Award winner Trey Burke.

FROM SPECTATOR TO QB

- Freshman quarterback Malcolm Perry became a mini-celebrity on social media during the Fordham game last Saturday when it became known that he was being pulled out of the stands to dress for the second half.
- Perry, who was listed fourth on the depth chart at quarterback, had been sick earlier in the week and missed practice on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. He felt better on Thursday and was allowed to play in the JV game on Friday, but the coaches decided not to dress him for the game on Saturday
- Perry's services, however, were needed when starter Tago Smith went down with an injury. The third string quarterback, Zach Abey, was unavailable and all of a sudden Navy needed a backup quarterback.
- Perry was summoned out of the crowd by the coaches, while managers went back to Ricketts Hall to get his uniform.
- Perry entered the game with 38 seconds left in the third quarter and led Navy on a 90-yard drive that resulted in a field goal. He played the rest of the game.

JASPER CHOSEN FOR NCAA CHAMPION FORUM

- Nine minority football coaches, including Navy offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach Ivin Jasper, were selected to participate in the 2016 NCAA Champion Forum, a unique professional development opportunity where attendees gain a realistic view of the role of a successful college head football coach and the preparation necessary to become one.
- The participants came together June 13-15 in Dallas in conjunction with the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics convention.
- The Atlantic Coast, Big East, Big Ten, Big 12, Pac-12 and Southeastern conferences host the program and select the attendees – rising minority coaches in college football who will lead the next generation of head coaches. NCAA leadership development coordinates the program logistics and leads the curriculum development.
- The NCAA leadership development department provides professional and personal development for the entire Association, including student-athletes, coaches and administrators, through accessible resources, strategic partnerships and annual customized programming at little or no cost to the membership. For more information, please go to www.NCAA.org/leadershipdevelopment.

GLADCHUK RECIPIENT OF 2016 TONER AWARD

- United States Naval Academy Director of Athletics Chet Gladchuk was named the 2016 recipient of the NFF John L. Toner Award announced by the National Football Foundation (NFF) & College Hall of Fame. Presented annually by the NFF, the Toner Award recognizes an athletics director who has demonstrated superior administrative abilities and shown outstanding dedication to college athletics and particularly college football.
- "Since taking over as Navy's Athletics Director in 2001, Chet has overseen a renaissance of the Naval Academy athletic program," said NFF President and CEO Steve Hatchell. "His leadership has helped create one of the most successful periods in school history, including great success by the football team. His accomplishments place him at the forefront of his profession and make him truly worthy of this prestigious honor."
- Gladchuk will be honored at the 59th NFF Annual Awards Dinner on Dec. 6 at the Waldorf Astoria in New York City. He will accept his award alongside the recipients of the other NFF Major Awards, including Chancellor of the University of Texas System and retired U.S. Navy four-star admiral William H. McRaven (NFF Distinguished American Award), College Football Hall of Fame coach and AFCA Executive Director Emeritus Grant Teaff (NFF Outstanding Contribution to Amateur Football Award), the Voice of the Washington Huskies Bob Rondeau (NFF Chris Schenkel Award for excellence in broadcasting), and the yet-to-be announced recipients of the NFF Gold Medal and the NFF Legacy Awards.

NIUMATALOLO FINALIST FOR TWO COACH-OF-THE-YEAR AWARDS IN 2015

- Navy head football coach Ken Niumatalolo was named a finalist for the Dodd Trophy and the Paul “Bear” Bryant National Coach Of The Year Award last year. He was one of just four coaches to be a finalist for both awards.
- Niumatalolo was one of six finalists for the 2015 Dodd Trophy, joining winner Kirk Ferentz (Iowa), Mark Dantonio (Michigan State), Jim McElwain (Florida), David Shaw (Stanford) and Dabo Swinney (Clemson).
- Niumatalolo was one of seven finalists for the 2015 Paul “Bear” Bryant Coach Of The Year Award. Dabo Swinney of Clemson won the award. The other five finalists included Larry Fedora (North Carolina), Kirk Ferentz (Iowa), Tom Herman (Houston), Nick Saban (Alabama) and David Shaw (Stanford).

NAVY RANKED EIGHTH IN THE COUNTRY FOR SOCIAL MEDIA

- Navy Athletics is ranked as the eighth best school in the country in the College Athletics Social Media rankings by Jumpwire. Jumpwire measured audience (fans), engagement (total likes, comments and shares across all channels, activity (number of posts), amplification (sharing), applause (likes) and conversation (comments) across six social media channels.

NAVY AND UNDER ARMOUR FORM MULTIYEAR PARTNERSHIP

- The Naval Academy Athletic Association and Under Armour, Inc. announced a multiyear partnership in 2014 that designates Under Armour as the official outfitter of Navy’s varsity intercollegiate athletic program.
- Under Armour, the leading sports performance and innovation brand, will outfit all of the Navy’s 33 men’s and women’s varsity athletic teams beginning in the 2014-15 season. The comprehensive partnership also includes marketing and promotional opportunities. Under Armour has been a consistent and dedicated supporter of the military through its corporate UA Freedom initiative and long-standing association with organizations such as the Wounded Warrior Project.
- Through an intercollegiate athletic program that is one of the largest in the country, and a highly organized club sports program and intramural sports program, each midshipman, male and female, is afforded the opportunity to compete in athletics at a level commensurate with his or her abilities. The emphasis on physical fitness is borne out in the first line of the mission of the Naval Academy: To develop midshipmen morally, mentally and physically.
- The NAAA arranges the scheduling of over 500 contests in 10 conference affiliations for intercollegiate athletics, including the 33 varsity sports and 12 plebe/junior varsity teams, provides coaching staffs, all operational expenses and equipment, and maintains a fully staffed central office to handle the administrative details of the intercollegiate and club sports athletic programs. In addition, it makes all arrangements for approximately 1500 student-athletes who are members of the Navy sports teams for competition either in Annapolis or when they go on the road.

SIGNIFICANT STADIUM MOMENTS DURING THE NIUMATALOLO ERA

Aug. 30, 2008 – Shun White rushed for a school-record 348 yards and three touchdowns on just 19 carries to lead Navy to a season-opening 41-13 victory over Towson.

Sept. 20, 2008 – Matt Harmon's 24-yard field goal with 2:06 remaining gave Navy a 23-21 lead and Ross Pospisil's interception two plays later put the game away, as the Mids rallied for a thrilling 23-21 win against Rutgers.

Nov. 1, 2008 – Clint Sovie's 42-yard fumble return for a touchdown with 37 seconds left in regulation capped a 20-point rally in the final 9:16 to send the game into overtime. Quarterback Ricky Dobbs' one-yard run in OT gave Navy a miraculous 33-27 victory over Temple.

Sept. 26, 2009 – Navy celebrated the 50th anniversary of the first game played at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium by wearing replica 1959 jerseys against Western Kentucky. Quarterback Ricky Dobbs rushed for 143 yards and four touchdowns in the 38-22 victory.

Oct. 3, 2009 – Navy shut down the nation's top rushing offense, while Joe Buckley drilled three field goals, including a 38-yarder in overtime, to lead Navy to a 16-13 victory over Air Force in front of a sellout crowd of 37,820.

Nov. 14, 2009 – Ricky Dobbs rushed for a then Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium-record five touchdowns on 26 carries to help lead Navy to a 35-18 victory over Delaware.

Oct. 20, 2012 – Navy scored 10 points in the final 5:30 to come from behind and shock Indiana, 31-30, on Homecoming. Keenan Reynolds hit Matt Aiken with a touchdown pass with 2:02 remaining to give Navy the lead and a Parrish Gaines interception clinched the Mids' first win over a BIG TEN opponent at home since 1926.

Oct. 26, 2013 – One week after missing an extra-point against Toledo in the second overtime, Nick Sloan booted a 30-yard field goal against Pitt as time expired to give Navy a thrilling 24-21 come-from-behind victory.

Nov. 15, 2014 – Keenan Reynolds rushed for a career-high 277 yards and a stadium-record six touchdowns to lead Navy to a 52-19 victory over Georgia Southern.

Sept. 19, 2015 – Keenan Reynolds ran for five touchdowns and 142 yards as the Midshipmen dominated East Carolina in their American Athletic Conference debut, 45-21.

Oct. 3, 2015 – Keenan Reynolds rushed for 183 yards to lead Navy to a 33-11 rout of Air Force. It was Navy's largest margin of victory in the series since 1978.

Oct. 31, 2015 – Keenan Reynolds scored twice in the fourth quarter to tie the collegiate mark for career rushing touchdowns, while Navy had three 100-yard rushers (Reynolds 117, Chris Swain 131, Dishan Romine 117) in a 29-17 victory over USF. It marked the first time in program history that three players each rushed for 100 or more yards in a game.

Nov. 14, 2015 – Keenan Reynolds shattered the FBS career rushing touchdown record scoring four rushing touchdowns against SMU in Navy's 55-14 rout of SMU. The four rushing touchdowns gave Reynolds 81 in his career, surpassing Montee Ball's record of 77.

Dec. 28, 2015 – Keenan Reynolds wrapped up his record-setting career by rushing for three scores and passing for another to lead Navy to a 44-28 win over Pitt in the Military Bowl. Reynolds' final touchdown clinched the win and gave him 88 total touchdowns for his career, breaking the tie with La. Tech's Kenneth Dixon for most touchdowns in FBS history. The win was the 11th on the year for Navy, setting a school record.

Sept. 10, 2016 – Navy stopped UConn on the one yard line in the final seconds to hold off the Huskies, 28-24, to improve to 2-0 on the year. UConn had the ball on the one yard line with 17 seconds left, but burned their final timeout before running the ball and being stuffed by the Navy defense.

GM 1 NAVY 52, FORDHAM 16
SEPT. 3, 2016 • ANNAPOLIS, MD. • NMC MEMORIAL STADIUM • 28,238

- (AP) Malcolm Perry sat in the stadium wearing his Navy dress whites. Plucked from the stands at halftime, he wound up in a much different uniform.
- From question mark to quarterback, Perry quickly became the buzz of college football.
- Navy found an unlikely replacement after starter Tago Smith was injured last Saturday, with Perry running seven times for 30 yards in a 52-16 win over Fordham.
- Listed down on the depth chart, Perry had been sick most of the week. The freshman was OK to play in the junior varsity game Friday.
- Perry was sitting with his classmates when Smith went down with a knee injury in the second quarter.
- Perry made his debut with 38 seconds left in the third quarter. He later put together a 90-yard drive in the fourth quarter that led to a field goal. He didn't throw a pass.
- Smith served for three years as a backup to record-setting quarterback Keenan Reynolds before getting this chance to start.
- Smith flawlessly ran Navy's triple-option offense until he was hurt on a 22-yard run with 14:17 left in the half.
- In just over one quarter, Smith ran for 97 yards on 10 carries with a pair of touchdowns.
- Will Worth took over and scored on a 7-yard run that gave the Midshipmen a 28-10 lead. He also threw a 57-yard touchdown pass to Toneo Gulley.
- Junior fullback Chris High ran for 176 yards on 10 carries with two touchdowns, including a 70-yard scamper, in his first career start. It was the most rushing yards by a Navy fullback since 2010.
- Kevin Anderson completed 26 of 45 passes for 302 yards with a touchdown for the Rams.
- Chase Edmonds, the 2015 Patriot League Offensive Player of the Year, finished with 70 yards on 18 carries for Fordham, ranked No. 20 in the NCAA FCS Coaches poll.

- (AP) Senior Will Worth scored two touchdowns in his debut as Navy's starting quarterback and the Midshipmen survived a hectic finish in a 28-24 victory over UConn last Saturday.
- Worth bulled in from the 1-yard line with 3:08 remaining after a 26-yard punt return gave Navy a first down at the UConn 17.
- The Huskies then moved to the Navy 1 and took their final timeout with 17 seconds left. Ron Johnson was subsequently stuffed on a rush attempt, and the clock ran out before UConn could run another play.
- The Mids scored on their first two possessions and went up 21-0 on a 2-yard fumble return by freshman Alohi Gilman in the second quarter.
- UConn answered with 24 straight points before Worth scored the game's final touchdown.
- In addition to capably directing the triple option, Worth ran for 44 yards, completed his first four passes and finished 6 for 8 for 130 yards.
- Bryant Shirreffs completed 23 of 26 passes for the Huskies.
- After Navy jumped to a 21-0 lead, the Huskies battled back. Shirreffs threw a 34-yard touchdown pass to Noel Thomas with 1:10 left in the first half, Johnson scored on a 3-yard run and Jamar Summers rambled 86 yards with a fumble by fullback Chris High.
- Bobby Puyol kicked a 38-yard field goal with 9:08 remaining to give the Huskies their first lead at 24-21.
