Road Winning Streak vs. the Unranked

The Huskies have won 102-straight true road games against teams that are not ranked in the Associated Press Poll. UConn's last loss to an unranked opponent on that team's home floor came on December 21, 2004 at Arizona State. (Hat tip to the AP's Doug Feinberg for researching this note.)

Senior Trio Oversees Best Four-Year Stretch of All-Time

The senior trio of Moriah Jefferson, Breanna Stewart and Morgan Tuck have been a part of one of the most successful four-year spans in women's basketball history. The tandem combined to win 151 games since the beginning of the 2012-13 season which is THE MOST in NCAA history. UConn owns the TOP-EIGHT four-year stretches in the history of the sport. See chart below (leg work done by Jim Fuller of the New Haven Register.) UConn's record over the current four-year span that includes senior guard Saniya Chong is 133-1

Another 30-Win Campaign

With its win over East Carolina on March 5, 2016 UConn secured its 11TH-STRAIGHT 30-win season, which extended the Huskies' NCAA record streak. Duke was the previous record holder with seven-consecutive 30-win seasons from 2001-07. UConn has won at least 30 games in a season 19 times, all since 1993-94. UConn has won 30-plus games in 21 of the past 23 seasons overall with the only exceptions coming in 1998-99 (29 wins) and 2004-05 (25).

Huskies Avoid Back-To-Back Losses

The Huskies have not lost back-to-back games since the 1992-93 season. The last time UConn dropped consecutive games was during the 1992-93 season when they lost against Providence (3/7/93) and Louisville (3/17/93). Connecticut has gone 866 games without back-to-back defeats. The Huskies are 57-0 following a loss during the streak.

Huskies in Conference Openers

With the win over UCF on January 1, the Huskies improved to 30-5 all-time in conference openers. UConn has won 25 of its last 26 conference openers.

Geno
AURIEMMA
HEAD COACH
32ND SEASON
972-134 (.879) OVERALL
461-61 (.881) CONFERENCE

Geno Auriemma has redefined the meaning of success in women's college basketball in his 31 years as head coach of the University of Connecticut.

During his illustrious tenure, Auriemma has transformed the UConn program into the standard that all others are measured, both on and off the court.

Under his guidance, the Huskies have been transformed from a program with only one winning season, to its current state, which includes 11 national titles, 17 Final Fours, six perfect seasons (1995, 2002, 2009, 2010, 2014, 2016) and 43 Conference titles, all since Auriemma's arrival in 1985.

Off the court, success means a flawless, 100 percent graduation rate among four-year players and one of the most beloved and followed sports teams in the country.

This unmatched success, which is the standard for collegiate programs nationally, was recognized with Auriemma's induction into both the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame (Springfield, Mass.) and the Women Basketball Hall of Fame (Knoxville, Tenn.) in 2006.

In addition, Auriemma recently finished a successful eight-year term as he was named the head coach of the U.S. National Team, which won the gold medal at the 2012 Olympic Games in London and at the 2016 Olympic Games in Rio. Former Husky greats Sue Bird, Tina Charles, Maya Moore and Diana Taurasi won gold medals in each of the last two games while Swin Cash and Asjha Jones were with Auriemma in 2012 and Breanna Stewart won gold in 2016.

He is the only coach in women's basketball history to guide a team to nine-consecutive Final Four appearances and his 22-5 record in Final Four games, including an 11-0 mark in national championship games is the best in NCAA history.

Auriemma has won a major National Coach of the Year honor in nine different seasons and has been named the conference Coach of the Year 12 times, including the 2015-16 honor.

He reached the 600, 700, 800 and 900-win mark faster than any other coach in the history of college basketball and became the sport's all-time leader in winning percentage when he surpassed Leon Barmore's previous mark of .869
