SETTING THE TABLE

- Dedric Lawson was recently tabbed as the No. 23 player on the ESPN College Basketball Player Ranking. (page 4)
- Today's game features two of the four coaches in their first seasons at American Athletic Conference schools. (page 4)
- Memphis has wins over teams from three different "Power Five" conferences, tying a regular season school record. (page 4)
- The Lawsons are also climbing the list for the highest brother combination since 2001-02, a 20.2 combined rebounds per game mark from the Griffin brothers (Blake and Taylor), who played for Oklahoma in 2008-09. (page 4)
- Dedric Lawson's current season averages of 20.2 points, 11.1 rebounds, and 4.0 assists per game put him on track to become the first player since 1993-94 to average those numbers for a full season. (page 5)
- Dedric Lawson is one of just 11 players in NCAA Division I to rank inside of the top-10 in their league standings in points, rebounds, and assists. Lawson is part of an even more prestigious list - just three total - to be ranked in blocks. (page 6)
- Dedric Lawson's 12 double-doubles this season are the second-most in the country, while he and K.J. are one of three sets of teammates with 6+ double-doubles this year. (page 6)
- Memphis ranks fifth in the country in assist-to-turnover ratio. (page 7)
- Dedric Lawson ranks eighth in the country in rebounds per game (page 9), and his career average of 9.9 boards per contest is the fifth highest among active players. (page 6)
- Dedric Lawson and K.J. Lawson's combined rebounding average this season are not only tied for the most in the NCAA this season (page 6), but are also the 15th-highest combined total in the NCAA since 2001-02. (page 7)
- Dedric Lawson is one of three players in the country to average 20 points and 10 rebounds per game. (page 6)

SCOUTING THE GREEN WAVE

Tulane comes into the game looking to snap out of its current four-game losing skid with losses to McNeese State, Texas State, UCF, and Cincinnati.

In the team's last game, a 92-56 loss at Cincinnati, Cameron Reynolds scored a team-high 17 points, hitting 5-of-14 shots from the field. Ray Ona Embo scored 11 points, seven coming from the charity stripe, while Kain Harris scored 10 points off of the bench.

Sammis Reyes pulled down a team-high 11 rebounds, as Melvin Frazier grabbed nine to go with his nine points. Five different players had two assists to lead the team, as Harris also had a team-best two steals.

This season the Green Wave have four players averaging double-figure points, led by Reynolds' 15.9 point per game average. Three players, Harris (10.8), Frazier (10.2), and Malik Morgan (10.1) each average just over the double-figure mark, with Ryan Smith at 8.5 points per game just below the plateau.

Morgan narrowly edges out Reynolds 6.3-to-6.1 for the team rebounding lead, as the Green Wave get out-rebounded by three and a half rebounds per game. Morgan also leads the team with 50 assists, while Smith has a team-best 23 blocked shots in 14 games this year. Frazier has 21 steals, as the Green Wave average 14 forced turnovers per contest.

HIGH ESPN PLAYER RANKING

On January 5, ESPN came out with its updated college basketball player ranking, and No. 23 on that list is Memphis' own Dedric Lawson. He is the only member of an American Athletic Conference squad on the list. The list is led by Villanova's Josh Hart.

FIRST TIME IN COLLEGE

Despite having spent 18 seasons as head coach, 2016-17 is the first season where current Tulane head coach Mike Dunleavy has been the head coach at the collegiate level. He been a part of 1,266 wins as an NBA assistant coach, head coach, general manager, player, and collegiate student-athlete.

1973 REVISITED

During Memphis' run to the 1973 NCAA Championship Game, the squad beat two teams along their run whose players ended up having a big impact on the collegiate game. In the first game of the tournament, the Tigers faced off and defeated South Carolina 90-76. A member of that team, along with future NBA star Alex English was Mike Dunleavy Sr., who scored 12 points while picking up three fouls in the losing effort. Two days later the team topped Kansas State 92-72, and the second-leading scorer for the Wildcats was Lon Kruger, current head coach at Oklahoma.

FIRST-TIME COACHES

Both Memphis head coach Tubby Smith and Tulane head coach Mike Dunleavy Jr. are two of the four coaches that are in their first year at their respective school. Smith and Dunleavy Jr. are joined by UCF's Johnny Dawkins, and SMU's Tim Jankovic.

THREE "POWER FIVE" WINS

Since the 1996-97 season - when the Big 12 came into existence - there have been five primary "Power Five" conferences in college athletics - Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC), Big 10, Southeastern Conference (SEC), Big 12, and Pac 12. In those subsequent 21 seasons, the Tigers have beaten teams in the regular season from three different "Power Five" conferences twice - in the 2005-06 season (SEC, Pac 12, and Big 10), and this season (Big Ten, Big 12, SEC). The 2007-08 team, through its NCAA Tournament run beat schools from four different "Power Five" conferences; however, two of those came during the tournament.

BROTHERLY MARK TO HIT

The table above also reveals another mark that the Lawson brothers are aiming to hit. The Memphis brother duo has the second-highest mark among teammates who are brothers, trailing just Oklahoma's Blake (14.4 rebounds per game) and Taylor (5.8) Griffin for the highest combined rebounding total for brothers.

SOMEBODY'S WATCHING ME

University of Memphis sophomore forward Dedric Lawson probably has a lot in common with Rockwell after his collaboration with Michael Jackson in his 1984 hit. Lawson has been named to three watch lists for this coming season: the Karl Malone Power Forward of the Year Watch List, the Lute Olson Player of the Year Award Watch List, and the Naismith Player of the Year Watch List.

TIGERS SIGN THREE

The Memphis Tigers have signed three incoming players for the 2017-18 season, Jamal Johnson, David Nickelberry, and Victor Enoch.

Johnson, a 6-4, 188-pound Birmingham, Alabama native, is ranked No. 111 by Rivals.com, No. 151 by 247sports, and is the No. 8 combo guard in the country by 247sports.com. He averaged 18.1 points, 7.1 rebounds, and 4.3 assists per game as a junior for Spain Park High School, and helped his squad reach the Alabama Class 7A state semifinals. He was named Second Team All-State after his junior season.

Nickelberry, a 6-7, 210-pound guard/forward is a native of Orlando, Florida. He was named Preseason All-State earlier this month, and is ranked No. 140 by Rivals and No. 162 by 247sports. He averaged 16.4 points, 7.9 rebounds, 4.8 assists, and 3.1 steals per game last season, helping Windermere Prep to the Class 3A State Championship.

Enoch, a native of Nigeria, is a 6-8, 240-pound forward who is playing for Greenforest Christian High School in Decatur, Georgia. He is a three-star recruit and the 42nd rated power forward prospect by ESPN.com. He averaged eight points and 6.9 rebounds per game, while shooting 48 percent from the field to go with 28 blocked shots last season.

OLDER, YOUNGER BROTHER

Memphis has brothers on the team - K.J. and Dedric Lawson. In a strange twist of irony, the elder of the two brothers, K.J., is a freshman, where the younger of the brothers, Dedric, is a year ahead of his brother academically. Out of high school, Dedric, who is a year younger than K.J., reclassified so each would play at Memphis the same season. However, K.J. got hurt after playing just 10 games, and got a red-shirt for the season, thus, K.J. the elder brother is still a freshman, where Dedric, the younger brother, is a sophomore.

PRESEASON AWARD HISTORY

For the first time since 2007-08, the Memphis Tigers have had a preseason Conference Player of the Year, when Dedric Lawson was given the preseason honor at the conference media day. The last time that a Memphis student-athlete was named preseason Player of the Year in 2007-08 when Chris Douglas-Roberts earned the honor from Conference USA.

MEMPHIS HEAD COACH TUBBY SMITH

Legendary basketball coach Tubby Smith, who guided the University of Kentucky to the 1998 NCAA title, is the 18th head coach in the storied history of the University of Memphis (UofM) basketball program.

Smith, who has a 568-280 current career record as head coach at Texas Tech, Tulsa, Georgia, Kentucky, Minnesota, and Memphis, is a three-time National Coach of the Year, and in 2016, was named The Sporting News National Coach of the Year, Big 12 Conference Coach of the Year, and John Wooden Legends of Coaching recipient. Since being named head coach at Memphis, Smith has also been the recipient of the Mannie Jackson Human Spirit Award. During a 10-year span between his tenures with three different programs (Tulsa, Georgia, and Kentucky), he advanced his team to the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 or beyond eight times.

"A historic hire for the University of Memphis," said President M. David Rudd of Coach Tubby Smith. "He is the most accomplished coach the UofM has ever hired. For the University of Memphis and our basketball program, Tubby Smith is simply the right guy at the right time."

Memphis Athletics Director Tom Bowen said "Tubby Smith is one of the finest collegiate basketball coaches and is a man of tremendous character. Nationally, he is highly respected as a leader of young men and as a teacher of the game. I am honored that Coach Smith has agreed to become the next head men's basketball coach at the University of Memphis."

Smith has led teams to one National Championship, four NCAA Tournament Elite Eight appearances, nine NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 appearances (a 30-16 record in NCAA Tournament games), and 17 overall NCAA Tournament berths. He has coached nine NBA draft picks and 19 former players have gone on to play in the NBA.

Prior to UofM, Smith served as head coach at Texas Tech for three seasons. During his time there, the team improved from 11-20 in 2012-13 (the year before Smith took control of the program), to 19-13 in 2015-16, and earned the program's first NCAA Tournament berth since 2004-05.

In 2015-16, Texas Tech made the program's first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2004-05, finishing with a record of 19-13. For his efforts in turning around the program – which included a 9-9 mark in a strong Big 12 Conference – he was named the Big 12 Coach of the Year, in addition to being named The Sporting News National Coach of the Year.

As an assistant and head coach, he has been a part of 758 collegiate wins and 23 trips to the NCAA Tournament since he began his collegiate coaching career as an assistant at Virginia Commonwealth (VCU) in 1979.

Following the 1990-91 season as an assistant coach with the Kentucky Wildcats, he earned his first head coaching position in 1991-92 with the Tulsa Golden Hurricane. At Tulsa, he went 79-43 over his four seasons, including back-to-back NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 appearances – the Golden Hurricane's first NCAA berths since 1986-87.

Smith continued his run of NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 appearances in his first season at Georgia, where he was named head coach starting with the 1995-96 season. He guided the Bulldogs to a 21-10 record in his first season, including the program's first NCAA Tournament win since the 1984-85 season and the longest tournament run for Georgia since 1982-83.

After the 1996-97 season, he was tabbed as the head coach at Kentucky. He took the reins of a program that had just seven players returning from an NCAA title game appearance the year before, and had the lowest preseason ranking for the program since 1991. A No. 2 seed in the South Region for the 1998 NCAA Tournament, the Wildcats won their first three games of the tournament by double-digits, before beating third-ranked and top-seeded Duke to advance to the Final Four. In the national semifinal, his squad beat Stanford in overtime, before topping Utah in the NCAA championship game.

He has sent 19 players to the NBA during his coaching career, including NBA Champions Rajon Rondo, Tayshaun Prince, and Shandon Anderson, as well as Jodie Meeks, Chuck Hayes, Nazr Mohammed, Scott Padgett, Jamaal Magloire, Kelenna Azubuike, and Keith Bogans. Nine of the players that he sent to the NBA heard their names called on draft day, as Rondo, Magloire, Mohammed, Padgett, and Prince were each first-round draft picks. Prince was also a member of the United States basketball team that won the Gold Medal at the 2008 Summer Olympics in Beijing, China.

He earned an Olympic Gold Medal as an assistant coach at the 2000 Sydney Olympic Games as a member of the United States men's basketball coaching staff, working with Olympic team head coach Rudy Tomjanovich. Team USA posted a perfect 8-0 record.

A native of Scotland, Maryland, Smith is the sixth of 17 children of Guffrie and Parthenia Smith. He has been married to his wife, Donna, and has three sons: G.G. Smith, who is the head coach at Loyola University in Maryland; Saul Smith, who is an assistant coach at UofM; Brian Smith, an Ole Miss graduate, who last season worked as a physical education teacher in Florida; and a daughter Trisch Smith, an Executive Vice President and Managing Director for Edelman, a global communications marketing firm.

Smith is a 1973 graduate of High Point (N.C.) College and was an all-conference performer as a senior, finishing his career as the seventh all-time leading scorer in program history. Smith, who earned his degree in health and physical education, was honored on Dec. 8, 2011, by his alma mater with a banner bearing his name that currently hangs from the rafters at the Millis Center. In May 2016, he was named to the High Point University Athletics Hall of Fame.

• In 2006-07, the Missouri Valley Conference recognized its 50 greatest players, which include a list of all-time coaches. That list included Coach Smith from his time with the Tulsa Golden Hurricane. He is also one of just six coaches in Missouri Valley history to earn back-to-back MVC Coach of the Year honors.

• His seven SEC division championships are two more than any other coach in SEC history (divisions began in 1992), and his five SEC Championships continue to rank as the fourth-most in SEC history, trailing just Adolph Rupp (27), Joe B. Hall (8), and Billy Donovan (6). His 24 SEC Tournament victories also stands as the fourth-most in the league's history.
