LISA STOCKTON

HEAD COACH • 28th SEASON

Wake Forest, 1986 • Greensboro, N.C. • Career Record: 605-327

Head Coach Lisa Stockton will embark upon her 28th season at the helm of the Tulane women's basketball program for the 2021-22 campaign and 31st overall as a head coach.

Stockton's career record of 605-327 as a collegiate head coach is good for a .649 winning percentage and she is 542-300 (.643) during her time at Tulane, including a 249-175 (.585) mark in conference play. In 2018, Stockton won her 500th game as the head coach of the Green Wave when Tulane defeated Nicholls 71-46 on December 4.

She is among the top 50 winningest college women's basketball coaches of all time and 19th among active coaches heading into the 2021-22 season.

Stockton has led the Green Wave to the postseason 18 times (11 NCAAs, 7 WNITs) and claimed conference Coach of the Year honors three times (Metro in 1995, C-USA in 2007 and 2010). In addition, Tulane has won four C-USA regular-season championships (1996-97, 1998-99, 2006-07, 2009-10) and the C-USA tournament title on five occasions (1997, 1999, 2000, 2001, 2010).

Stockton is one of two active coaches to take a Top 50 academic institution as listed in U.S. and World Report to at least 11 NCAA Tournaments, joining Tara Vanderveer of Stanford. Notre Dame's Muffet McGraw and North Carolina's Sylvia Hatchell were part of the group prior to their retirement. In addition, 20 of her players have become members of Tulane's 1,000-Point Club.

Taking the reins of a program that had never been to the NCAA Tournament and whose only postseason appearance came via the WNIT the year prior to her arrival, Stockton made her presence at Tulane felt right away. Her 1994-95 club went 19-10 overall and 9-3 in the now-defunct Metro Conference. The Green Wave's league record was good for second-place in the final Metro standings – a high-water mark for the program – and Stockton's team earned an at-large bid to the NCAAs.

Tulane's trip to "The Big Dance" was the first of nine consecutive NCAA bids for Stockton-coached teams and the first of nine straight winning seasons. A year later, a 21-10 record in 1995-96 was the first of what has now become 15 straight 20-plus win seasons with the Green Wave including a school-record 27 wins in 1996-97 and again in 1999-2000.

While the postseason streak was snapped in 2004, Stockton reloaded her team for success with the addition of four freshmen to an already young-but-talented squad that did not feature a senior on the active roster for the 2005-06 season. As the Tulane student-body began the move-in process for the school year, however, the Tulane community, the New Orleans area and the Gulf Coast region was rocked to its core as Hurricane Katrina made landfall on Aug. 29, 2005, and the subsequent floodwaters consumed the area.

Relocated to Lubbock, Texas, and the campus of Texas Tech University for the semester, Stockton's Green Wave finished what has become known as the "Katrina Season" 15-12 and sparked a run of 12 straight winning seasons that remained alive until 2017-18.

The following year, Stockton's troops went 26-7, won the C-USA regular-season title with a 13-3 league mark and returned to the postseason for the first time since 2003 as Tulane advanced to the second round of the 2007 WNIT. Three years later, the Green Wave won another C-USA regular-season crown with a 12-4 conference record, finished the year 26-7 overall and returned to the NCAA Tournament. In each of the next two seasons, Stockton guided the Green Wave to 23-11 overall record, advanced to the C-USA Championship games and a trip to the second round of the 2011 and 2012 WNIT. In 2013, the Green Wave finished 24-9 and accomplished a program first when they advanced to the round of 16 in the WNIT.

The Green Wave closed out their tenure with C-USA in 2014, as Coach Stockton recorded a final tally of 397 total victories while in the league, which stood as a C-USA best.

The 2014-15 season issued in a new era for Stockton and the Green Wave, competing in the American Athletic Conference for the first time. Tulane responded with a 22-11 overall record, a run to the semifinals in the conference tournament, and ended the program's five-year NCAA Tournament drought, traveling to Durham for a first round match-up vs. Mississippi

State, marking the program's 11th NCAA Tournament appearance. The 2014-15 season also witnessed Coach Stockton capture her 500th career victory, as she became the 32nd active Division-I women's basketball coach to reach the prestigious 500-win club.

In 2015-16, the Wave's 23-12 record resulted in a WNIT berth which led to a run to the third round, they made their second straight American Conference Tournament semifinal, handed No. 1 UConn its largest deficit of the season, went 3-0 against SEC competition and tied the program record for most wins at home with 14.

In 2016-17 the Green Wave took a strength of schedule ranked 35th in the country and went 18-15 overall, achieving their 12th straight winning season and eighth consecutive trip to the postseason. In addition, Stockton's Green Wave once again tied its longest run in the WNIT by reaching the third round, produced their ninth straight year with 10 or more wins at home (12-5) and most notably took a 100-game win streak team in No. 1 UConn to its limit with a 63-60 loss – marking the second closest any team had gotten to the upset and closest any American squad had gotten, besting USF's 16-point loss in January of 2016.

Tulane's eight-year postseason streak came to an end in 2017-18, but the campaign was highlighted by the individual excellence of guard Kolby Morgan. Finishing out her career, Morgan eclipsed 2,000 points and scored 600 points for the third straight year, becoming the first Green Wave player to ever do that. Morgan ended her career ranking second in points in team history and first in games started, field goals made and field goals attempted. She was named LSWA First Team All-State for the second straight year and Second Team All-AAC for the third straight year.

The Green Wave got better in 2018-19 but just missed out on a postseason berth in Stockton's 25th year as head coach. Still, progress was evident as sophomore Krystal Freeman went from little-used freshman to the American Athletic Conference's Most Improved Player after racking up 14.4 points and 7.5 rebounds per game. She was also named Second Team All-Conference, and Dynah Jones was on the All-Freshman Team and Sierra Cheatham won the program's first Ambassador Award. Stockton won her 500th career game at Tulane in December when the Green Wave defeated Nicholls.

Tulane posted the best conference start in program-history winning the first six games in American Athletic Conference play in the 2019-20 season. Freeman's performance continued to improve as she led the team with 15.0 points and 7.7 rebounds. She was named Second Team All-Conference, while Jones collected Sixth Player of the Year honors. Cheatham became the first player in conference history to win the Ambassador Award twice.

In 2020-21 the Wave reached the WNIT for the eighth time in Stockton's tenure putting together an 18-9 overall record and 12-6 in league play to finish fourth in the AAC. Jerkaila Jordan led the team averaging 16.7 points and 3.9 rebounds per game. She earned First Team All-Conference and All-Freshman Team selection while also being named the AAC Freshman of the Year by a unanimous vote. Freeman picked up another All-AAC honor being selected Third Team All-Conference, while Cheatham claimed her third straight Ambassador Award.

While team success has been the ultimate goal for Stockton and the Green Wave since the 1994-95 season, individual recognition has been a mainstay at Tulane during that time as well. In 25 years under its current head coach, Tulane has seen 25 different student-athletes earn all-conference honors 41 times (nine first-team, 18 second-team and 14 third-team) and 12 receive All-Freshman recognition.

In addition, Stockton's players have earned conference Defensive Player of the Year (Janell In addition, Stockton's players have earned conference Defensive Player of the Year (Janell Burse/C-USA/1999,2000,2001), Sixth Player of the Year (Burse/C-USA/1999, Grace Daley/C-USA/1997, Teana McKiver/C-USA/2001) and Freshman of the Year (Barbara Farris/Metro/1995, Daley/C-USA/1997, Danielle Blagg/C-USA/2012) on three occasions each, as well as Player of the Year (Burses/C-USA/2000), Newcomer of the Year (Indira Kaljo/C-USA/2009), Most Improved Player (Krystal Freeman/AAC/2019) once apiece. At the 10th anniversary of Conference USA in 2005, Burse and Daley were named to C-USA Team of the Decade, making Tulane one of two schools to have multiple players on the prestigious list.

Tulane student-athletes have also garnered national honors under Stockton's watch as well as Farris (1987), Daley (1998-2000), Burse (2000-01), McKiver (2002-03) and Jamie Kaplan (2013-14) all earned All-America recognition. Ashley Langford was a Freshman All-American in 2006 and Chassity Brown was named to the WBCA All-Region IV Team in 2010. In addition, seven of Stockton's former student-athletes – Burse, Daley, Farris, McKiver, Montagnino, Langford and Slaughter – have been elected into the Tulane Athletics Hall of Fame.

For some of Stockton's prized pupils, success on the court did not end once their collegiate eligibility expired. Five former Green Wave standouts have gone on to play in the WNBA – including Farris and Burse who won WNBA Championships with the Detroit Shock in 2003 and Seattle Storm in 2004, respectively – and many more have enjoyed pro playing careers overseas.

But what Stockton may be most proud of is her student-athletes' collective accomplishments in the classroom as every four-year player has completed their degrees under her watch.

Forty-three women's basketball players earned C-USA Commissioner's Honor Roll recognition 93 times for holding GPAs of 3.2 or higher since the 1995-96 season. Six student-athletes – Brooke Blankenship ('10-'11, '11-'12, '13-'14), Kiki Cizmar ('96-'97), Jamie Kaplan ('12-'13, '13-'14), Courtnie Latham ('13-'14), Gwen Slaughter ('02-'03), Britt Themann ('99-'00, '00-'01, '01-'02, '02-'03), Christy Thomaskutty ('95-'96) and Leslie Vorpahl ('13-'14) – claimed C-USA Commissioner's Academic Medal honors for maintaining at least a 3.75 GPA. Ashley Langford ('08-'09) and Jami Montagnino ('06-'07) were named C-USA Scholar Athletes, and Themann earned a C-USA Postgraduate Scholarship in 2003.

Furthermore, after joining The American, Stockton's point guards have shone the brightest after collecting the American Scholar-Athlete Award twice in the past five years, courtesy of Leslie Vorpahl (2017) and Jamie Kaplan (2015). Kaplan was also named a Senior CLASS First Team All-American for her body of work both on and off the court. For three-consecutive years 2019-21, Sierra Cheatham has earned the league's Ambassador Award for tremendous contributions to the community.

Stockton's impact has not been limited to her players, however, as four former assistant coaches at Tulane went on to become collegiate head coaches: Katie Meier (Charlotte and Miami [Fla.]), Kellie Kennedy (Loyola-New Orleans), Michele Savage (Davidson) and Jenny Yopp (Portland State and Illinois State).

While Stockton's teams and student-athletes have achieved success both on the court and in the classroom, these accomplishments are nothing that the head coach herself did not earn while she was a collegiate player.

Following a standout prep career at Western Guilford High School, Stockton packed her bags for Wake Forest University. During her four-year career with the Demon Deacons from 1983-86, she set the school's career records in scoring (1,347), scoring average (12.1 ppg), field goals made (592), field goals attempted (1,262), field goal percentage (.462), assists (330), steals (206) and minutes played (3,385).

Stockton still holds the Wake Forest record for consecutive games started with 97 and still ranks in the top 10 for points, made field goals, assists and steals. As a senior during the 1985-86 season, Stockton was named honorable-mention Fast Break All-American after scoring 473 points and hitting 204-of-415 shots (.491), pulling down 94 rebounds, dishing out 97 assists and tallying 58 steals.

She was named ACC Player of the Week and claimed MVP honors of the Dartmouth Tournament as a junior and was named MVP of the James Madison Invitational and of the Demon Deacon team as a senior.

Stockton earned a spot on the ACC Academic Honor Roll following each of her final two seasons at Wake Forest and graduated cum laude with a bachelor's degree in health and sports science in 1986.

She was drafted by the National Women's Basketball Association following her senior season but chose instead to begin her coaching career as a volunteer assistant at the University of North Carolina for the 1986-87 season where she helped the Tar Heels go 19-10 overall, finish third in the ACC with a 9-5 league record and advance to the second-round of the NCAA Tournament. Stockton also enveloped herself in post-graduate studies and completed her master's degree in 1987.

From there, Stockton accepted her first collegiate head coaching position at Division III Greensboro College. In three seasons there, she helped guide the Pride to a combined 63-27 record. Along the way, six players earned all-conference honors, including first-team selections Lorraine Orr and Susan Gasperson in 1987-88, Gasperson in 1988-89, and Tara Thompson in 1989-90.

She returned to the Division I level the following year when she accepted the top assistant position at Georgia Tech where she was responsible for coordinating recruiting efforts, monitoring academic progress, supervise scheduling and coaching the offense. In four years with Stockton on the staff in Atlanta, the Ramblin' Wreck combined to go 63-52, including a 20-13 mark in 1991-92 when North Carolina won the WNIT. The following season, Georgia Tech went 16-11, finished tied for fourth in the ACC with an 8-8 league record and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history.

Along with her Coach of the Year accolades, Stockton was named one of CitiBusiness' Women of the Year in 2007. She is a member of the NCAA Women's Basketball Issues Committee and also serves on the Academic Subcommittee for the issues committee. Stockton has also served two terms on the Kodak All-American Committee, twice chaired the C-USA Women's Basketball Coaches and served four terms as the WBCA Conference Captain.
